

Index

- accelerators (Boston, United States), 107–111, 148, 195, 201–208, see also Boston (United States), see also entrepreneur support organizations (ESO) and resources recruitment and assessment efforts, 201–205
- Acker, J., 68
- Acs, Z. J., 48
- actors (in ecosystems). see also male entrepreneurs, see also female entrepreneurs, see also entrepreneurs and entrepreneurship categorization, 30 heterogeneity, 32–33, 48, 53, 187, 240, 243, 245
 social capital of, 128
- Adler, P. S., 130
- age, and social capital, 117, 120, 133
- Annual Business Survey, 169
- Antonicic, B., 3
- Aparicio, S., 165
- Asheville (United States), 155–159, 177
- Audretsch, D., 165
- Auerswald, P. E., 47
- Baumol, W. J., 164
- beliefs, in entrepreneurial ecosystems.
see gender beliefs and stereotypes,
see meritocracy
- Bell-Masterson, J., 63
- Beninger, A., 227
- Berger, E. S., 51–52
- Berube, A., 192
- Bilge, S., 189–190
- BioSTL (St. Louis, United States), 154–155
- black and immigrant female entrepreneurs, 190–200, 213–215, see also GCode
- black and minority entrepreneurs. see also racial inequities access to resources and support, 186, 188–189, 198–199, 204–205, 207–209 females, 190–200, 213–215
- Black communities, discrimination against.
see racial inequities
- Black Lives Matter, 9, 50, 184–185, see also racial inequities
- Bloom, P. N., 49
- Bosma, N., 49, 171–172
- Boston (United States)
 as entrepreneurial ecosystem, 101–106, 144–145, 180
 GCode, 213–215
 racial inequities, 192–194
 research study (entrepreneurs), 100–101, 104–128 research study (ESO leadership), 145–152, 201–209 research study (gender, race, immigrant status, and entrepreneurship), 194–200
- Boston Globe research, 193–194
- Boulder thesis, 187–188
- Bourne, K. A., 71
- Braunstein, E., 167–168
- de la Briere, B., 246
- Brown, E., 79–82
- Brown, R., 31–47
- Bruegel, I., 134
- Bruni, A., 70
- Brush, C., 225, 231–233, 235–236
- Brush, C. G., 72
- “bureaucratic” entrepreneurial ecosystems, 178–179
- Calas, M. B., 65–67, 71
- capitalism. see neoliberal capitalism, and entrepreneurial ideologies
- Carter, C., 155, 157–158
- Carter, N., 227
- Clark Muntean, S., 155, 157–158, 242–243
- cluster theory and analysis, 29, 36, 38–47, 49, see also institutional economics
- Cohen, B., 47
- Collins, P. H., 189–190

254 INDEX

- “communal” entrepreneurial ecosystems, 177–178
- communities (in ecosystems), 31–32
- complexity theory, 187–188
- connectivity (in ecosystems), 49–52
- Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW), 41
- Correll, S. J., 63–64, 66, 76, 84–85, 87–88, 90, 92
- COVID-19 pandemic, 6–9, 50, 184–185, 233
- Davis, G. F., 2
- Davis, L. E., 37
- Dawson, A., 234
- Dees, G., 49
- Delgado, M., 44
- diversity. see also racial inequities, see also inclusive entrepreneurship, see also gendered inequities, see also gender inclusion and equity
- ESO leaders’ attitudes, 151, 153, 157–159, 197–199, 204–205
- metrics, 238, see also quotas for gender equity
- rhetoric vs reality, 111–113, 133, 151–152, 197–199, 204–205, 225–226
- tokenism, 220–221
- in venture capital industry, 172–173, 235–238
- work in St. Louis (United States), 153–155
- Duval-Couetil, N., 77–78
- economic growth and entrepreneurship overview of policies, 5–6
- ecosystem identity, 14–15, 174–180
- ecosystems framework. see entrepreneurial ecosystems
- education and training in entrepreneurship.
see also “fix the women” approach; fix the women
- higher education, 3–4
- schools, 5
- startup training, 1
- embeddedness, institutional, 37
- “emergent” entrepreneurial ecosystems, 175
- entrepreneur support organizations (ESO) and resources in Asheville (United States), 155–158
 and connectivity, 51
- ESO leaders’ attitudes and behaviors, 143–159, 201–209
- fellowships, 5
- financial support. see financial support for entrepreneurs and startups
- GCode, 213–215
- gender-blindness, 76, 78–79, 157–158
- as gendered, 73, 76, 83–85, 90–91, 146–147, 150–152, 231, 236, 244–245
- overview, 142–144
- as racialized, 198–199, 207–210, see also racial inequities
- in St. Louis (United States), 152–155
- strategies for addressing the gender gap, 172–173, 235–241
- support for female entrepreneurs, 10, 104, 110–111, 145–146, 153–155, 232
- support for male entrepreneurs, 125, 127, 197
- training, 1
- entrepreneurial ecosystems. see also institutions and institutionalization
- Asheville (United States), 155–159, 177
- Boston. see Boston (United States)
- Boulder thesis and complexity theory, 187–188
- definition and conceptualization, 30–31, 45, 50, 72, 102, 161–162
- early work, 45–47
- ecosystem identity, 14–15, 174–180
- gender and. see gender and entrepreneurial ecosystems
- inclusivity criteria, 63
- overview, 12–14, 29–35
- performance rankings, 102
- as racialized, 187, 199–200
- recent work, 48–51
- as self-modulating, 210
- social capital in, 131–134
- St. Louis (United States), 152–155, 178
- entrepreneurs and entrepreneurship and clusters, 44
- entrepreneurs as “influencers”, 2–4
- female entrepreneurs. see female entrepreneurs
- feminist perspective, 70–72, 98–99, 241
- gender and. see gender and entrepreneurship (in general)
- growth of (overview), 2–4
- ideologies, 74, 156

- inclusive entrepreneurship, 87, 236–241
 male entrepreneurs. see male entrepreneurs entrepreneurship research. see also intersectionality analysis, see also feminist perspective and scholarship gender and “gender gap”
 conceptualization in, 11–12, 14–16, 51, 53, 99, 241
 institutional analysis, 163–166
 recommendations for future research, 241–246
 Erasmus exchange programme, 5
 ESOs. see entrepreneur support organizations
 (ESO) and resources
 Esping-Andersen, G., 229
 “established” entrepreneurial ecosystems, 175
 European Commission, 5
 European Institute for Gender Equality, 66

 Farrell, M., 79–82
 Feld, B., 187–188
 Feldman, M., 46
 female entrepreneurs. see also gender and entrepreneurship (in general), see also gender and entrepreneurial ecosystems, see also gendered inequities
 in Asheville (United States), 158
 in Boston (United States), 103–104, 115–126, 192–200
 conceptualization in research, 15–16
 COVID-19 relief and support, 7
 GCode, 213–215
 gender belief internalization, 76, 90
 as heterogeneous, 240 life and family goals, 148–149 marginalization within own organization, 116–122, 133
 networking strategies, 121–127, 131–132, 195–196, 232
 resources and support for, 10, 104, 110–111, 145–146, 153–155, 232
 in St. Louis (United States), 152
 women of color and/or immigrant women, 190–200, 213–215 feminist perspective and scholarship. see also entrepreneurship research on economics and political economy, 166–168, 244
 on entrepreneurship, 70–72, 98–99, 241
 gender conceptualization, 62, 65–66
 on institutions, 67–69, 166 intersectionality, 189–190, see also intersectionality analysis
 overview, 62
 on power, 98–99
 on social capital, 133–134
 Feng, L., 239
 Fiet, J. O., 131
 financial support for entrepreneurs and startups
 in Boston (United States), 103, 105–106, 113–114, 201–209
 diversity initiatives, 172–173
 as gendered, 64, 83–85, 146, 169, 186, 230
 influential organizations, 1 and meritocracy, 149
 as racialized, 198, 205–209
 “fix the women” approach, 15–16, 86–87,
 156, 188–189, 223, 239–240
 Lean In movement, 222–223
 vs systemic change, 232–236, 241–242
 Foss, L., 233–234, 236, 239, 241–242, 245
 Franklin, J., 134

 GCode, 213–215
 gender and entrepreneurial ecosystems
 as missing in research studies, 33–34, see also entrepreneurship research
 overview, 72–73
 and social capital, 128–129
 WeWork (case study), 79–85, 90
 White male privilege, 74–77, 79–82, 85, 112, 169–170, 197, 211–212
 gender and entrepreneurship (in general), 10–12, 50, see also male entrepreneurs, see also
 intersectionality analysis,
 see also female entrepreneurs gender beliefs and stereotypes, 90–91, see also “fix the women” approach, fix the women
 institutionalization, 64–69
 internalization by female entrepreneurs, 76, 90
 internalization by male entrepreneurs, 76–78, 92
 in the media, 77–78, 234

256 INDEX

- gender beliefs and stereotypes (cont.)
 occupational and gender roles, 63–64, 68–69, 132–134, 225, 231–232
- gender capital, 52
- gender conceptualization
 in entrepreneurship research, 11–12, 14–16, 51, 53, 99, 241
 feminist perspective, 62, 65–66
 vs sex, 65–67
- gender inclusion and equity. see also diversity, see also gendered inequities
 arguments for, 219–221, 224–225, 228, 246 inclusive entrepreneurship, 87, 236–241
 organization-level efforts, 224–230 societal-level efforts, 228–234, 238–239, 242–243, 245–246
- gender relations, 66–67, 70–71
- gender-blindness. see also meritocracy in ESOs, 76, 78–79, 157–158
 and recruitment, 227
- gendered inequities. see also gender inclusion and equity
 and access to support and resources, 73, 76, 83–85, 90–91, 146–147, 150–152, 231, 236, 244–245
 and COVID-19 pandemic, 7, 10
 and “gendering”, 67
 institutional economics, 38–40, 42, 52, 166–168
 labor force participation and work opportunities, 11, 41, 67, 226–228 married women’s rights, 39–40 motherhood penalties, 230, 234
 patent ownership, 39–40
 in senior positions (statistics), 11, 40, 76, 115, 148, 150, 169, 235
 voting rights, 40
 “gendering”, 67
 Ghoshal, S., 212
 Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM), 6, 15
 governance, institutional, 37–38
 Gupta, V. K., 234
- Hathaway, I., 187–188
 Hechavarria, D. M., 72–73
 Holmes, Elizabeth, 87
 Holvoet, T., 49
- immigrant female entrepreneurs. see female entrepreneurs: women of color and/or immigrant women
- implicit bias (and training), 84, 88, 90, 147, 149, 235–236, 240, see also meritocracy
 in Boston (United States), 198
- inclusive entrepreneurship, 87, 236–241, see also diversity
- individuals. see male entrepreneurs,
see female entrepreneurs,
see entrepreneurs and entrepreneurship, see actors (in ecosystems)
- inequities and inequalities gendered. see gendered inequities racial. see racial inequities wealth, 74–75
- Ingram, A. E., 72–73
- innovation ecosystems, 45–46, see also entrepreneurial ecosystems
- institutional analysis (overview), 163–166
- institutional economics, 36–37, see also cluster theory and analysis embeddedness, 37
 as gendered, 38–40, 42, 52, 166–168
 governance, 37–38
 resource allocation and employment, 38 transaction cost economics, 37–38, 44
- institutions and institutionalization. see also entrepreneurial ecosystems, see also entrepreneur support organizations
 (ESO) and resources
 formal and informal factors influencing, 162, 165–166, 170–172, 174
 gender inclusion efforts, 224–230
 as gendered, 38–42, 67–69, 161–163, 166–172, 180, 225
 overview, 29–30, 32
- International Labour Organization (ILO), 11
- intersectionality analysis. see also gender and entrepreneurship (in general)
 as a feminist framework, 189–190
 gender and entrepreneurial ecosystems, 16, 33–34, 51–54, 72–73, 99–100
 gender and entrepreneurship, 16, 70–72, 104–133
 gender and organizations, 67–69
 gender and power, 135

- gender, entrepreneurship, and race, 190–199
- gender, race, and organizations, 201–213
- institutional factors and economic growth, 165
- intrapreneurship, 3
- Isakovic, N. P., 244
- Isenberg, D., 47
- Jayawarna, D., 234
- Jennings, J. A., 72
- Kalanick, Travis, 210–211
- Kaplan, J., 158–159
- Knowlton, K., 47, 171
- Kreiser, P. M., 131
- Kuckertz, A., 51–52
- Kwon, S. W., 130
- labor force changes, 224
- labor force participation and work opportunities
- gender inequities, 11, 41, 67, 226–228
 - racial inequities, 186
- Lean In movement, 222–223, see also “fix the women” approach; fix the women
- Mack, E., 47–48
- macro level, 53–54, 62, 74, 165
- male entrepreneurs, 74–77, 90
- in Boston (United States), 105–114
 - gender belief internalization, 76–78, 92
 - resources and support for, 125, 127, 197
 - WeWork (case study), 79–85, 90
- married women, rights of, 39–40
- masculinity. see gender beliefs and stereotypes
- Mason, C., 31–47
- Mayer, H., 31–48
- McAdam, M., 232, 239
- mentors, 49
- meritocracy, 72, 74–76, 78–79, 87–88, 149, 158, 239, see also implicit bias (and training)
- meso level. see entrepreneur support organizations (ESO) and resources
- #MeToo movement, 229
- micro level. see male entrepreneurs, see female entrepreneurs, see entrepreneurs and entrepreneurship, see actors (in ecosystems)
- microenterprise, 229, 231
- Mirchandani, K., 72
- Moore, J. F., 45
- Moran, P., 212
- Moss Kanter, R., 68
- Motoyama, Y., 44, 47, 171
- Munoz, A. P., 192–193
- “nascent” entrepreneurial ecosystems, 176–177
- Nash, J. C., 190
- National Venture Capital Association (survey), 169
- Neck, H. M., 47
- neoliberal capitalism, and entrepreneurial ideologies, 74–76, 80
- Neumann, Adam. see WeWork (case study)
- Neumeyer, X., 73, 78, 131–132
- Nijkemp, P., 46
- North, D. C., 37
- organizations. see institutions and institutionalization
- Orser, B., 230
- Ozkazanc-Pan, B., 14, 16, 19, 20, 22, 33, 35, 52, 62, 78, 99, 101
- Pao, Ellen (vs. Kleiner Perkins), 210, 221
- Patel, P. C., 131
- patent ownership, 39–40
- Perkins, Kleiner (Ellen Pao vs.), 210, 221
- Porter, M. E., 43–44
- power relations, 65–78, 98–99, 135, 209–210
- Putnam, R. D., 130
- quotas for gender equity, 149, 229–230, 233
- racial inequities. see also Black Lives Matter and access to resources and support, 186, 188–189, 198–199, 204–205, 207–209
- in Boston (United States), 192–194
 - and COVID-19, 8–9
 - and labor force participation, 186
 - in senior positions, 193–194
 - and tech startups, 101, 148
 - White male privilege, 74–77, 79–82, 85, 112, 169–170, 197, 211–212
- racial stereotypes, 214–215
- recruitment, and gender equity, 226–227
- relational dynamics (in ecosystems), 30–31, 105

258 INDEX

- resource allocation and employment,
 institutional, 38
- Ridgeway, C. L., 63–64, 66, 76, 84–85, 87–88, 90, 92
- Rosa, P., 234
- Roundy, P. T., 13, 48
- sanctions against violating ecosystem norms, 210–211
- Sandberg, Sheryl, 222
- Savage, M., 66
- Scheidgen, K., 49
- Scott, J., 65
- sex, vs gender and gender relations, 65–67
- sexual harassment, 210–211, 221, 225
- Silva, C., 227
- Smircich, L., 65–67, 71
- social capital, 128–134
 definitions and frameworks, 129–131, 134
 in entrepreneurial ecosystems, 131–134
 feminist perspective, 133–134
- social media, rhetoric of entrepreneurship in,
 2–3
- Spigel, B., 49
- Sprague, J., 64–69
- St. Louis (United States), 152–155, 178
- “stable” entrepreneurial ecosystems, 179–180
- Stam, E., 50, 172, 231, 239
- Stangeler, D., 91–92
- Startup Genome, 102
- startups. see entrepreneurs and entrepreneurship
- startups, support for. see entrepreneur support organizations (ESO) and resources
- stereotypes. see racial stereotypes, see gender beliefs and stereotypes
- Stern, S., 44
- Strober, M. H., 167
- “strong” entrepreneurial ecosystems, 175
- suffrage, 40
- Tan, T. M., 46
- tokenism, 220–221
- “trailing spouse”, 118
- training. see education and training in entrepreneurship
- transaction cost economics, 37–38, 44, see also institutional economics
- trust networks of, 188, 209–210, 212
 and social capital, 128, 132–133, 170–171, 188, 211–212
- typology of ecosystem identities, 14–15, 174–180
- Urbano, D., 165
- Van de Ven, H., 46
- venture capitalists. see financial support for entrepreneurs and startups
- Venture for America, 5
- voting rights, 40
- Wallace, Bridgette, 213, see also GCode
- “weak” entrepreneurial ecosystems, 175
- wealth accumulation, of (male) individuals, 74–77
- wealth inequalities, 74–75
- WeWork (case study), 79–85, 90
- Wheadon, M., 77–78
- White male privilege, 74–77, 79–82, 85, 112, 169–170, 197, 211–212
- White, C. J., 2
- Williamson, O. E., 36–38
- Witz, A., 66
- Wodon, Q. T., 246
- women. see gender and entrepreneurship (in general), see gender and entrepreneurial ecosystems,
see female entrepreneurs,
see gendered inequities
- women of color
 entrepreneurs. see female entrepreneurs:
 women of color and/or immigrant
 women
 GCode, 213–215
- work opportunities. see labor force participation and work opportunities
- World Bank, 5–6