

Contents

Introduction to the Fourth Edition	page xiv
Preface	xvii
Table of Cases	xix
Table of Treaties	xxii
List of Abbreviations	xxxii
1. The General Framework	1
I. Preliminary Definitions	1
A. Hostilities	1
B. Attacks	3
II. The Two Major Premises	4
A. Limitation of Means and Methods of Warfare	4
B. Legal Equality of the Belligerent Parties	5
(a) No Connection between the Jus in Bello and the Jus ad Bellum	5
(b) Inequality in Military Capabilities	7
(c) The Issue of Reciprocity	7
III. The Two Driving Forces	9
A. Military Necessity	9
B. Humanitarian Considerations	10
C. The Combination of the Two Driving Forces	10
D. Military Necessity as a Legal Justification	12
IV. The Two Cardinal Principles	14
A. Distinction and the Prohibition of Unnecessary Suffering	14
B. The Martens Clause	14
C. Neutrality	17
V. The Strata of the Law	18
A. Customary International Law	18
B. Treaty Law	20
C. The Semantics	23
D. LOIAC and Rules of Engagement	24
VI. The Principal General LOIAC Treaties	25
A. The Origins	25
B. ‘Hague Law’	25
C. ‘Geneva Law’	26
D. The Fusion of ‘Hague Law’ and ‘Geneva Law’	27

vi	Contents
	E. The ‘Great Schism’	28
	(a) Controversial Treaties	28
	(b) Legal Interoperability	29
	(c) Restatements	30
	VII. Special Agreements between Belligerent Parties	31
	VIII. Humanitarian Law and Human Rights	32
	A. Human Rights and State Rights	32
	B. Derogations	34
	C. Lex Specialis and Symbiotic Coexistence	36
	(a) Lex Specialis	36
	(b) Parallels and Coexistence	38
	IX. The Inter-State Nature of IACs	40
	A. Inter-State and Intra-State Armed Conflicts	40
	B. Formalities and Recognition	42
	C. The UN	43
	X. Dissemination, Training and Legal Advisers	44
2.	Lawful Combatancy	46
	I. Combatancy	46
	A. Combatants and Non-Combatants	46
	B. The Consequences of Being a Combatant	47
	C. Lawful and Unlawful Combatancy	48
	II. The Rationale of the Construct of Unlawful Combatancy	50
	III. Prosecution, Punishment and Detention of Unlawful Combatants	51
	A. Prosecution and Punishment	51
	B. Detention	53
	C. The Problem of ‘Suicide Bombers’	53
	IV. Fundamental Guarantees	53
	V. Entitlement to POW Status	55
	A. The Hague and Geneva Provisions	55
	B. Scope of Application	56
	(a) Regular Armed Forces	56
	(b) Exclusion: Medical and Religious Personnel	57
	(c) Irregular Forces	58
	(d) Specific Categories of Civilians	58
	C. The Seven Hague and Geneva Conditions	59
	(a) Subordination to Responsible Command	59
	(b) Fixed Distinctive Emblem	59
	(c) Carrying Arms Openly	62
	(d) Conduct in accordance with LOIAC	62
	(e) Organization	62
	(f) Belonging to a Belligerent Party	62
	(g) Non-Allegiance to the Detaining Power	64
	D. Application of the Conditions to Regular Armed Forces	65
	E. Application of the Conditions to Irregular Forces	66
	F. Exception: Levée en Masse	68
	G. Doubt	69
	VI. The Legal Position under AP/I	70
	VII. A Case Study: The IAC in Afghanistan	74

Contents	vii
VIII. Mercenaries	76
IX. Conversion of Merchant Vessels into Warships	79
A. The Conditions of Conversion	79
B. Resistance by Unconverted Merchant Vessels	80
3. Prohibited Weapons	82
I. The Principle of Distinction	82
II. The Principle Prohibiting Unnecessary Suffering	83
A. The Formulation of the Prohibition	83
B. The Meaning of Unnecessary Suffering	85
C. The Penal Provisions	87
III. Explicit Prohibitions or Restrictions of Certain Weapons	88
A. Groundwork Comments	88
B. Conventional Weapons	90
(a) Poison	90
(b) Certain Projectiles	90
(i) Explosive Bullets	90
(ii) Expanding Bullets	91
(c) Non-Detectable Fragments Weapons	92
(d) Booby-Traps	92
(e) Landmines	94
(f) Naval Mines	97
(g) Torpedoes	99
(h) Incendiaries	99
(i) Blinding Laser Weapons	102
(j) Cluster Munitions	103
C. Weapons of Mass Destruction	104
(a) Chemical Weapons	104
(b) Biological Weapons	107
IV. The Status of Nuclear Weapons	108
V. Autonomous Weapons	112
VI. Development of New Weapons	114
4. Lawful Targets of Attack	117
I. Classification	117
A. The Basic Rule	117
B. Military Objectives	117
(a) Construct and Definition	117
(b) The Abstract Character of the Definition	118
C. Combatants	120
D. Civilians Directly Participating in Hostilities	120
E. Other Living Creatures	121
II. Military Advantage	121
A. The Phraseology	121
B. Military versus Political Advantage	122
C. Overall Military Advantage	123
D. The Circumstantial Background	124
E. Other Factors of Appraisal	126
F. ‘War-Sustaining’ versus ‘War-Fighting’	126

viii	Contents
	III. Nature, Use, Purpose and Location of Military Objectives	127
	A. Nature	127
	B. Use	129
	(a) Use as a Status Changer	129
	(b) Doubt	130
	C. Purpose	132
	D. Location	133
	E. Bridges	134
	F. Military Objectives Exempt from Attack	135
	IV. Problems Relating to the Spectrum of Lawful Targets of Attack	136
	A. Personnel	136
	(a) Retreating Troops	136
	(b) Targeted Killings	136
	(c) Police	137
	(d) Political Leadership	138
	B. Objectives	139
	(a) Government Offices	139
	(b) 'Dual-Use' Targets	140
	(c) Industrial Plants	141
	(d) Oil Facilities	142
	(e) Civilian Airports and Maritime Ports	142
	(f) Main Arteries of Transportation	142
	(g) Trains, Trucks and Barges	143
	(h) Civilian Broadcasting Stations	144
	(i) Computers	144
	(j) Outer Space Systems and Assets	145
	V. Defended and Undefended Localities in Land Warfare	145
	A. Defended Sites and Military Objectives	145
	B. Defended Localities and Urban Warfare	146
	C. Declaration of a Non-Defended Locality	147
	D. Agreement on Non-Defended Locations and Shelters	149
	VI. Special Issues of Sea Warfare	149
	A. Areas of Naval Warfare	149
	B. Military Objectives at Sea	149
	C. Enemy Warships	150
	D. Enemy Merchant Vessels	151
	E. Neutral Merchant Vessels	152
	F. Bombardment of Coastal Areas	153
	VII. Special Issues of Air Warfare	154
	A. Military Aircraft	154
	B. Non-Military State Aircraft	155
	C. Civilian Aircraft	155
	D. 'Strategic' Bombing	157
	E. 'Target Area' Bombing	157
	5. Protection from Attack of Civilians and Civilian Objects	160
	I. Protection from Attack	160
	A. Civilians and Civilian Objects	160
	(a) Definition of Civilians	160
	(b) Civilians Who Accompany the Armed Forces	161

Contents	ix
(c) Private Military and Security Personnel	162
(d) Civilians Carrying Arms	163
(e) Definition of the Civilian Population	163
(f) Definition of Civilian Objects	164
(g) The Negative Character of the Definitions of Civilians and Civilian Objects	164
B. What Dangers Are Civilians Protected from?	165
C. Direct Attacks against Civilians or Civilian Objects	165
(a) The Deliberate Nature of the Attacks	165
(b) Shattering Civilian Morale	167
D. Indiscriminate Attacks	169
(a) The Difference from Direct Attacks against Civilians	169
(b) Illustrations of Indiscriminate Attacks	171
E. The Principle of Proportionality	172
(a) Civilians in the Crossfire of Hostilities	172
(b) Collateral Damage to Civilians or Civilian Objects	173
(c) Proportionality as an Indispensable Requirement of Collateral Damage to Civilians or Civilian Objects	175
(d) The Restricted Application in LOIAC of the Principle of Proportionality	177
(e) 'Excessive' Collateral Damage	179
(i) What Is 'Excessive'?	179
(ii) 'Excessive' versus 'Extensive'	181
(iii) Expectation and Anticipation	181
(iv) The Appraisal Process	182
(f) Are All Civilians and Civilian Objects Equal in the Calculus of Proportionality?	184
(g) Configuration of Military Advantage	185
(h) Proportionality and Urban Warfare	185
F. Active Precautions in Attack	188
(a) The Concept	188
(b) The Feasibility of Precautions	189
(c) The Information Available	190
(d) Targeting	191
(e) Force Protection	193
(f) High-Altitude Bombing Raids	194
(g) PGM	194
(h) Lasers and Directed Energy Weapons	196
(i) The Timing of an Attack	196
(j) Warnings	197
G. Passive Precautions	198
II. Loss of Protection	199
A. Preliminary Comments	199
B. Direct Participation in Hostilities	200
(a) The Concept	200
(b) The Time Factor	201
(c) Concrete Activities	204
C. 'Human Shields'	207
(a) The Prohibition	207
(b) Different Scenarios	208

x	Contents
	(c) The Response	209
	(i) Voluntary Civilian ‘Human Shields’	209
	(ii) Involuntary Civilian ‘Human Shields’	210
6.	Persons Entitled to Special Protection	213
I.	Scope of Special Protection	213
A.	Combatants	213
(a)	Hors de Combat	213
(i)	Combatants in the Power of the Enemy	214
(ii)	Surrendering Combatants	214
(iii)	Wounded and Sick Combatants	216
(iv)	Shipwrecked Combatants	218
(b)	Parachutists from Aircraft in Distress	220
(c)	Parlementaires	221
B.	Medical and Religious Personnel	222
(a)	Medical Personnel	222
(b)	Religious Personnel	224
C.	Civil Defence Personnel	225
D.	Relief Personnel	225
E.	Women and Children	226
(a)	Women	226
(b)	Children	227
F.	Civilian Wounded, Sick and Shipwrecked	229
G.	Journalists	230
(a)	War Correspondents	230
(b)	Journalists Engaged in Dangerous Professional Missions	231
II.	Loss of Protection	232
A.	Preliminary Comments	232
B.	Acts Harmful to the Enemy	233
7.	Objects Endowed with Special Protection	236
I.	Cultural Property and Places of Worship	236
A.	Introduction	236
B.	The Legal Position Prior to 1954	236
(a)	Land Warfare	236
(b)	Sea Warfare	237
(c)	Air Warfare (1923)	238
(d)	The Roerich Pact	239
C.	The CPCP of 1954	240
(a)	The Definition of Cultural Property	240
(b)	The General Protection	241
(c)	‘Special Protection’	242
D.	AP/I	244
(a)	The Protection Afforded	244
(b)	The Complementarity of Protection	246
E.	Other Texts	248
(a)	The War Crimes Provisions	248
(b)	The Second Protocol to the CPCP	249
(i)	Military Objectives and Waiver	249
(ii)	Precautions in Attack and Proportionality	250
(iii)	‘Enhanced Protection’	251

Contents	xi
II. Medical Units and Transports	252
A. Medical Units and Transports on Land	253
B. Hospital Ships and Other Vessels	255
C. Medical Aircraft	257
D. Loss of Protection	259
(a) Land Warfare	259
(b) Sea Warfare	261
(c) Air Warfare	262
III. Works and Installations Containing Dangerous Forces	262
8. Protection of the Natural Environment	266
I. Customary International Law	266
II. The Treaty Law	268
A. The ENMOD Convention	268
B. AP/I	271
(a) The Two Texts and Their Meaning	271
(b) The Natural Environment as a Civilian Object	274
(c) Custom Generated by AP/I?	275
C. Supplementary Texts	276
(a) The Rome Statute	276
(b) Protocol III to the Convention on Conventional Weapons	278
(c) The Chemical Weapons Convention	278
III. The Dissimilarities between the ENMOD Convention and AP/I	279
IV. A Case Study: Setting Fire to Oil Wells in the Gulf War	282
V. The Need for Law Reform	287
9. Specific Methods of Warfare	288
I. Starvation of Civilians	288
A. The Scope of the Prohibition	288
B. Humanitarian Assistance	291
II. Siege Warfare	294
III. Blockade	298
IV. Exclusion Zones	301
A. Maritime Exclusion Zones	301
B. Air Exclusion and No-Fly Zones	303
V. Perfidy	303
A. Treachery	304
B. Unlawful Perfidious Acts	305
(a) The False Impression of Legal Entitlement to Exemption from Attack	305
(b) Killing, Injuring or Capturing an Adversary	305
(c) Feigning of Intent to Negotiate under a Flag of Truce or of a Surrender	306
(d) Feigning of Incapacitation by Wounds or Sickness	307
(e) Feigning of Civilian Status	307
(f) Feigning of Protected UN or Neutral Status	309
VI. Improper Use of Emblems, Flags and Uniforms	309
A. The Hague Regulations	309
B. AP/I	310
C. The Rome Statute	314

xii	Contents
	VII. Ruses of War	314
	VIII. Tunnels	316
	IX. Espionage	317
	A. The Definition of Espionage	317
	B. The Penal Prosecution of Spies	319
	X. Seizure and Destruction of Enemy Property	322
	A. Pillage	322
	B. Booty of War	323
	C. Merchant Vessels as Prize	325
	(a) Capture of Merchant Vessels	325
	(i) Enemy Merchant Vessels	325
	(ii) Neutral Merchant Vessels	326
	(b) Condemnation of Merchant Vessels in Prize Adjudication	327
	(c) Diversion of Merchant Vessels	330
	(d) Destruction of Merchant Vessels	331
	(e) Cargoes as Prize	333
	(f) Civilian Aircraft as Prize	334
	D. Contraband	336
	E. Other Instances of Destruction and Seizure of Enemy Property	337
	XI. Belligerent Reprisals	339
	A. The Need for a Remedy	339
	B. Deterrence through Belligerent Reprisals	340
	C. The Limits of Reciprocity	341
	D. Prohibitions of Specific Belligerent Reprisals	342
	E. The Legality of Some Belligerent Reprisals	344
	(a) Conditions of Lawful Belligerent Reprisals	344
	(b) Weapons	346
	(c) Civilians and Civilian Objects	347
	XII. The Taking of Hostages	348
10.	War Crimes, Orders, Command Responsibility and Defences	350
	I. The Definition of War Crimes	350
	II. The Prosecution of War Criminals	352
	III. The Distinction between War Criminals and Unlawful Combatants	354
	IV. Issuance of Orders	358
	V. Command Responsibility	359
	A. Dereliction of Duty	359
	B. Prevention, Suppression and Punishment	361
	C. The Core Issue of Knowledge	363
	D. The More Recent Texts	366
	E. Effective Control	368
	F. Necessary and Reasonable Measures	370
	G. Civilian Superiors	371
	VI. Lack of Mens Rea	372
	VII. Admissible Defences	374
	A. Mistake of Fact	374
	B. Mistake of Law	374
	C. Duress	376
	(a) The Concept	376
	(b) Duress and Murder	377

Contents	xiii
D. Insanity	379
E. Intoxication	380
F. Lawful Defence of Oneself and Others	381
VIII. Inadmissible Defence Pleas	381
A. Obedience to Domestic Law	381
B. Obedience to Superior Orders	382
C. Official Position	384
IX. Mitigation of Punishment	384
X. Jurisdictional Immunities	386
A. Domestic Courts	386
B. International Courts and Tribunals	387
General Conclusions	390
Index of Persons	393
Index of Subjects	401