

Name Index

- A. T. Kearney, 492
 AA (UK), 251
 AA1000 Accounting Standard (AA1000AS), 337
 AA1000 Assurance Standard (AA1000AS), 345
 Aarusha Homes, 215
 Accenture, 497
 Acumen, 215
 ADAC (Germany), 251
 Adidas, 315–316, 470–471, 501 African National Congress (ANC), 543
 Afrikaner National Party, 543
 Agility, 375
 Airbus, 514
 Alibaba Group, 90
 Allbirds, 279
 Alphabet, 90, 117
 The Selfish Ledger (film), 128–131
 Alstom, 510
 alter-globalization movement, 253 Alternative Indigenous Development Foundation Incorporated (AIDFI), 527 Amazon, 12, 90, 130, 172
 American Airlines, 497
 American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC), 498 American Petroleum Institute (API), 498
 amfori BSCI, 417, 420
 Amnesty International, 250, 322
 Anderson, Ray, 396
 Android, 128–129
 Anglo American, 244, 328, 544
 Anglovaal, 544
 Animal-centrism, 146
 Annan, Kofi, 416
 Anselm, Agnes, 165
 Anthropocene, 41–42, 136, 485, 494, 502
 Apple, 5, 90, 130, 172, 245, 277, 317, 497
 Arabesque, 6, 212
 Aravind Eye Care System, 403, 407
 Arc'teryx, 276
 Aristotle, 21, 56, 60–61
 Arjuna Capital, 219
 Arla Foods, 178, 187
 ASEAN CSR, 40
 AT&T, 45, 497
 Attenborough, David, 47
 Auticon, 180, 187
 Avon, 288
 Ball, Chris, 544
 Ban Ki-moon, 535
 Bank of America, 497
 Barra, Mary, 77
 Bayer, 328
 Ben & Jerry's, 34, 109–110, 113, 184, 275, 284–285, 307
 Bentham, Jeremy, 56–57
 Beyond Meat, 492
 Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, 173
 Biocentrism, 146
 Bird Friendly Coffee, 108
 Black Lives Matter movement, 32, 76
 BlackRock, 211, 496
 Blastik Project, 527
 BMW, 113, 330
 The Body Shop, 34, 113, 156, 184, 307
 Boeing, 497
 Boohoo, 164
 Boots, 42–44, 46, 48
 Bosch, 101
 Boswell, Jonathan, 33–34
 Botha, P. W., 544
 BP, 12, 21, 69–70, 89, 243–244, 330, 332, 492
 Braun, Markus, 297–298
 British American Tobacco (BAT), 222
 British East India Company, 39
 Browne, John, 243
 Brundtland Commission, 134–135
 Brundtland Report (1987), 531
 Buddhism, 146
 Budweiser, 277
 Burger King, 492
 Business Council for Sustainable Development, 126
 Business Roundtable, 77, 497
 Business Social Compliance Initiative, 417, 420
 Cadbury, 43
 Cadbury Report (1992), 298
 Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP), 339, 353, 415–416
 Carlsberg, 88, 171, 176, 187
 Carnegie, Andrew, 33–34
 Carrefour, 328
 Carson, Rachel Silent Spring (1962), 145
 Caux Round Table Principles, 415
 Chandler, Alfred, 98
 Cheney, Dick, 57
 Chevron, 22
 Chicago School of Economics, 497
 China
 Three Gorges Dam, 529
 Chrysler, 102
 Cisco Systems Inc, 88
 Clean Clothes Campaign, 427, 461
 Clean Development Mechanism (CDM) Gold Standard, 418 Climate Disclosure Standards Board (CDSB), 353
 Coca-Cola, 155, 166, 245, 315, 362, 527
 Code of Hammurabi (1700 BC), 36
 Common Code for the Coffee Community (4C), 427–428

- Confucianism, 146
 ConocoPhillips, 89
 Conservation International, 370
 Continental, 101
 Coop Norden, 179
 Corporate Human Rights
 Benchmark, 481 Corruption Perception Index
 (CPI), 4
 CouchSurfing, 185
- Dahl, Felix, 163
 Dannon, 289
 Danone, 184
 DeBeers, 328
 Dehnen, Peter, 298
 Dell, 501
 DelosAndes Coffee Cooperative, 187
 Devall, Bill, 56
 Dharma, 146
 Diageo, 373
 DiCaprio, Leonardo, 47
 Dickens, Charles, 43
 Donaldson, Tom, 124
 Doughnut Economics,
 141–142
 Dove, 288
 Dow Jones Sustainability Index
 (DJSI), 212–213, 520
 DP World, 375
 Dr. Bronner's, 285
 Drucker, Peter, 497
 Dutch Railways, 201
- Ecocentrism, 146
 Electronics Industry Citizenship
 Coalition, 474
 Empowering Girls through Sport and Play in Senegal, 530
 Enel, 492
 Enron, 50, 69
 Equator Principles, 414–415
 Ethical Toy Program, 474 Ethical Trading Initiative (ETI), 426, 475
 European Commission
 Strategy on CSR, 41
 European Union, 41, 157, 476
 Accounting Directive, 243–244
 Accounts Modernisation
 Directive, 344, 355
- Conflict Minerals Regulation, 477
 Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive, 360–361
 Eco-Management and Audit Scheme (EMAS), 337, 343
 European Green Deal, 234 Multi Stakeholder Forum on Corporate Social Responsibility, 41
 Non-Financial Reporting
 Directive, 41, 233, 360–361, 442, 444, 477 proposed Directive on Sustainable Corporate Governance, 312–313
 Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation
 (SFDR), 210, 222–224
 Sustainable Finance
 Taxonomy Regulation (EU)
 2020/852), 233
 Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI), 40, 101, 233, 243–244, 516
 ExxonMobil, 89, 492, 498
- Facebook, 5, 90, 275, 322
 Fair Labor Association, 415, 427
 Fair Wear Foundation, 427
 Fairphone, 394
 Fairtrade, 101, 108, 327, 415, 425–428
 FIFA World Cup 2022, 443
 Ford, Bill, 492
 Ford, Henry, 30
 Forest Stewardship Council
 (FSC), 40, 76–77, 117,
 120–121, 327, 412–413,
 415, 417, 419, 425–426,
 428–429
 Fortnum & Mason, 275
 Fragile States Index, 3
 France
 Corporate Duty of Vigilance
 Law, 477 Duty of Vigilance Act (Loi de Vigilance) 2017, 234
 Francis, Pope, 489
 Friedman, Milton, 44, 68, 80, 464–465, 468
 Friends of the Earth, 252, 412
- FTSE4Good Index, 212, 520
 Fujitsu, 165
- G20
 Principles of Corporate Governance, 309
 Gantt, Henry, 45
 Gap, 242
 Gazprom, 122
 General Electric (GE), 301
 General Motors (GM), 76–77, 492
 George, Bill, 84
 Germany
 CSR Directive
 Implementation Act, 477 Supply Chain Act (2023), 234, 361, 477
 Glass Lewis, 219
 GlaxoSmithKline (GSK), 373
 Global Business Coalition on HIV/Aids, 40
 Global Climate Coalition (GCC), 12
 Global Coffee Platform, 100
 Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 16, 338, 351–353,
 369, 415–416, 418, 475, 520
 Global Sustainable Investment Alliance (GSIA), 210–211
 Global Witness, 243
 Godin, Jean-Baptiste
 André, 43
 Goldman Sachs, 319, 510
 Google, 5, 57, 81, 90, 117, 129, 132
 Gray, Barbara, 372
 Great Acceleration, 136, 494
 Greenhouse Gas (GHG)
 Protocol, 338, 415
 Greenpeace, 38, 122, 252, 317, 322, 424
 Gross Domestic Product (GDP),
 498–499
 Gross Happiness Index, 499
 Gucci, 289
- H&M, 88, 241, 315, 328, 471
 Habermas, Jürgen, 123
 Hamburg Chamber of Commerce, 43
 Hard Feelings, 174
 Hershey, 175, 187

- Hewlett Packard Enterprise Co, 88
- Hinduism, 146
- Hobbes, Thomas, 437
- Hoechst AG, 342
- Hofstede, Geert, 87
- Human Rights and Rule of Law Index, 3
- Iberdrola, 492
- IKEA, 88, 187, 315, 500
- Impossible Foods, 129
- Indian Companies Act, 233
- Indigenous Perspectives of the Americas, 146
- Industrial Revolution, 460
- InfluenceMap, 498
- Innocent Smoothies, 155–156
- Instagram, 90
- Interface Inc., 114, 396, 403
- International Bill of Human Rights (IBHR), 441–448
- International Council of Toy Industries (ICTI), 474
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), 441
- International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR), 441
- International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC), 340, 344–345, 352–353
- International Integrated Reporting Framework, 415
- International Labour Organization (ILO), 440–441, 458–459, 476
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 212, 532–533, 535
- International Society of Sustainability Professionals (ISSP), 190
- International Standard on Assurance Engagement (ISAE) 3000, 345
- International Tropical Timber Organization (ITTO), 412
- ISO 14001, 423–424, 429
- ISO 26000, 353, 444, 475
- ISO 26000 (2010), 340
- ISO 37001, 520
- ISS, 219
- Jack Daniel's, 286
- Joint Initiative on Accountability and Workers' Rights (JO-IN), 427
- Jordan, Michael, 127
- Justin's, 274
- Kanbur, Ravi, 531
- Kant, Immanuel, 21, 56, 58–59
- Kickstarter, 183
- King, Martin Luther, Jr., 486
- Kohlberg, Lawrence, 62–63
- Krugman, Paul, 464–465, 468
- Krupp, 43
- L'Oréal, 156
- Lao Tzu, 149
- Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) certification standard, 417–418
- Lego, 315
- Leopold, Aldo, 501
- Lever Brothers, 43
- LGBT movement, 32
- Liberty, 544
- Ligue Sociale d'Acheteurs*, 38
- LinkedIn, 5, 90, 191
- Logistics Emergency Teams (LET), 375–381
- London and North West Railway, 43
- Lopez, Jose Ignacio, 76–77
- Lundbeck, 454
- Lush Cosmetics, 275
- Lyft, 129
- MacDonald, Adriane, 384
- Machado, Antonio, 149
- Maersk, 176, 375, 515
- Malcolm X, 486
- Marine Stewardship Council (MSC), 40, 258–259, 415, 417
- Maritime Anti-Corruption Network (MACN), 515
- Marks & Spencer, 52, 317
- Marx, Karl, 438
- Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF), 252
- Medtronic, 84
- Melucci, Alberto, 123
- Method, 501
- Methodists, 256
- #MeToo movement, 32, 76
- Metro, 328
- Microsoft, 5, 316, 500
- Mill, John Stuart, 56
- Mondragon, 187
- Montesquieu, 437
- Munich Re, 491
- Musk, Elon, 308
- Næss, Arne, 56, 123
- National Contact Points (NCPs), 450–451
- National Cooperative Bank, 171, 178
- National Human Rights Institutions (NHRIs), 451
- Natura, 156
- Nel, Christo, 544
- Nespresso AAA, 428
- Nest, 129
- Nestlé, 38, 101, 322, 393, 424, 449
- Netherlands
 Child Labor Due Diligence Act (Wet Zorgplicht Kinderarbeid) 2019, 234
- NextEra Energy, 492
- Nielsen, Frederik, 159, 164–166
- Nielsen, Kaspar Ulf, 316
- Nike, 104, 245, 315, 391, 449, 470–472
- Nixon, Richard M., 511
- Norsk Hydro, 88
- Norway
 Sovereign Wealth Fund, 220
- Novartis, 328
- Novo Nordisk, 21, 87–88, 99, 162, 175, 187, 306
- Novozymes, 88
- Nudie Jeans, 88
- Obama, Barack, 242
- Occupy movement, 262
- Occupy Wall Street movement, 38
- Ocean Conservancy, 166
- Odebrecht, 510
- Olam International, 545–546
- Oppenheimer, Harry, 543

- Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), 41, 298, 353
 Convention on Combating Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions, 512–513
 Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises, 414–415, 417, 444, 449–451
 Principles of Corporate
 Governance, 309
Othello (Shakespeare), 318
 Owen, Robert, 33–34, 43
 Oxfam, 243, 252, 461

 Pan Africanist Congress of Azania (PAC), 543
 Panama Papers, 39, 240
 Papa Murphy's, 108
 Paris Agreement (2015), 234
 Partnering Against Corruption Initiative (PACI), 514
 Patagonia, 88, 108, 113, 170–171, 184, 187,
 274–275, 282, 285, 501
 PepsiCo, 373
 Perkins, Charles Elliot, 33
 PETA, 252
 Philip Morris, 289
 Pilot Lite, 373
 Pirelli, 101
 Planetary Boundaries, 139–141, 494–496
 Plato, 56, 60
 Polanyi, Karl, 119
 Polman, Paul, 35, 303
 Pornhub, 289
 Prada, 289
 Procter & Gamble, 277, 281, 490 Publish What You Pay
 Coalition, 243
 Pucker, Kenneth, 362
 Pullman, 43
 Puma, 470
 PUMA, 473

 Quakers, 256

 Rainforest Alliance, 415, 427–428, 545–546

 Rasmussen, Alfred, 163
 Rawls, John, 123
 Red Cross, 172, 252
 Rembrandt, 544
 RepRisk, 221
 Responsible Business Alliance
 (RBA), 474
 Responsible Business Alliance of electronics corporations, 40
 Rhenman, Eric, 87
 RICE, 164
 Right to Play, 530
 RobecoSAM, 221
 Robert Bosch, 175
 Rockefeller, John D., 33–34
 Rolex, 175, 187
 Rolls Royce, 108, 510
 Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil (RSPO), 426
 Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 437
 Ruggie, John, 118–119
 Rupert, Anton, 544

 SA 8000, 427, 475
 Sachs, Jeffrey D., 466
 Salmon Brothers, 64
 Sámi people, 440
 Sarkozy, Nicolas, 499
 Save the Children, 373
 Schmidheiny, Stephan, 125
 Schwarzenegger, Arnold, 47
 Sen, Amartya, 437, 528, 530–532
 Sessions, George, 56
 Shell, 12, 21–22, 122, 244, 258, 328, 330, 343, 436, 449,
 492
 Siemens, 106, 125, 510, 524
 Silicon Valley, 106
 Sinclair, Upton, 45
 Sinopec, 122
 Social Accountability 8000, 415
 Social Accountability
 International, 461
 Social Innovation Fund, 183
 SodaStream, 277, 406–407
 Solow, Robert, 499
 South Africa
 Labour Relations (1995), 544
 South Pole, 221
 Speed Queen, 281
 Stanley, Vincent, 170
 Starbucks, 370

 Statoil, 88–89
 Stella McCartney, 274, 289
 Stonyfield Farm yogurt, 289
 Streeten, Paul, 531
 Strong, Maurice, 125
 Supercell, 156
 Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB),
 16, 111, 353, 415–416, 520
 Sustainable Agriculture Network (SAN) standards, 546 Sustainable Stock Exchanges
 (SSE) initiative, 355
 Sustainalytics, 221
 Swiss Re, 490

 Taoism, 146
 Tata, 42–44, 46–49
 Tata Group, 175, 187
 Telia, 510
 Tesla, 90, 308, 492
 Thales Group, 211
 The Cooperative Bank, 187
 The North Face, 276
 Theo Chocolate, 274
There Will Be Blood (2007 film), 45
 Thomson Reuter's Asset4, 221
 Thunberg, Greta, 47, 76, 91
 TikTok, 90
 Timberland, 362
 Tomorrow Bank, 182
 TOMS, 180, 187, 285
 Tony's Chocolonely, 173–174, 187
 Too Good To Go, 187
 Total, 244
 Toyota, 500
 Trader Joe's, 282
 Transparency International, 4, 243, 515, 517
 Business Principles for Countering Bribery, 520
 Twitter, 90–91, 275, 322

 Uber, 129
 Ubuntu, 146
 Unilever, 35, 105, 109–110, 116, 258–259, 303, 317,
 370, 373
 Union Carbide, 31
 Union Investment, 213

- United Kingdom
 Bribery Act (2010), 234, 423, 513
 Business in the Community, 40
 Corporate Governance Code (2018), 309
 Ethical Trading Initiative (ETI), 238
 Financial Reporting Council (FRC), 210
 Modern Slavery Act (2015), 159, 238, 477
 United Nations, 6–7, 459, 476, 535
 Children's Fund (UNICEF), 374
 Climate Change Conference (Durban, 2011), 126
 Conference on Environment and Development (1992), 120, 125–126
 Convention against Corruption (UNCAC), 512–513 Development Program (UNDP), 515
 Earth Summit, Rio de Janeiro (1992), 412
 Framework, 444–445, 451–453
 Global Compact, 19, 40–41, 117, 120, 159, 212, 235, 266, 305, 339, 353, 414–415, 423, 442, 475, 507, 535, 537
 Global Compact (case study), 431
 Guiding Principles Human Rights Declaration, 41
 Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights (UNGPs), 235, 436–437, 442–444, 451–453, 474 Logistics Cluster, 375–376
 Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), 16, 535
 Office for Drugs and Crime (UNODC), 515
 Principles for Responsible Investment (PRI), 19, 41, 218–219, 414–415, 422
 Principles for Responsible Management Education, 41
 Protect, Respect and Remedy Framework, 442
 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 1, 16–18, 76, 139, 162, 235, 358, 371, 390, 392, 416, 476, 489, 534–535
 UN Women, 370
 World Food Programme, 375–376
 World Humanitarian Summit, 381
 United States
 Alien Tort Claims Act (ATCA), 7, 234
 California Senate Bill 185, 210
 Dodd–Frank Act, 233, 243–244, 477
 Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), 7, 67–68, 511, 513
 Sarbanes–Oxley Act (2002), 308–309
 Sentencing Guidelines (USSG), 71
 Transparency in Supply Chains Act, 477
 Uyghur Forced Labor Prevention Act (2021), 245
 Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), 24, 439–441
 Unstereotype Alliance, 370
 UPS, 375
 Utz Kapeh, 427
 Vale, 220
 VELUX, 50, 176
 VisionSpring, 181
 Volkswagen (VW), 26, 65, 99, 264
 von Clausewitz, Carl, 98
 Waddock, Sandra, 382
 Wakker Dier, 254, 258
 Walgreen Boots Alliance, 535
 Walmart, 172, 242, 277, 490
 The Walt Disney Company, 316
 Warby Parker, 285
 Water Resilience Coalition, 166 Wedgwood, 36
 Welch, Jack, 76, 301
 Werner & Mertz GmbH, 173, 187
 Whirlpool, 490
 Whole Foods Market, 12, 88
 Wijdooogen, Carola, 201
 Windsor and Eton Brewery, 166
 Wirecard, 297–298
 Worker Rights Consortium, 427
 World Bank, 512, 517, 533, 535
 World Business Council for Sustainable Development, 40, 501 World Commission on Environment and Development (WCED), 8
 World Economic Forum (WEF), 120, 377–378, 381, 385, 497, 514
 World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF), 50, 166, 258–259, 373, 412
 Yahoo, 6, 68
 YouTube, 90, 129
 Zola, Emile, 43

Subject Index

- accountability, 13–14
 activist groups, 252 activist NGOs characterisations, 251–255 collaboration with corporations, 260–261
 creating alternatives to current business systems, 261–263
 features of, 249–251
 features that make a firm likely to be a target, 263–264 firms' responses to NGO activism, 264–268 fracking protests, 248–249
 how they affect corporations, 255–263 ideological positions, 253 influence on corporate operational costs and revenues, 257–260 marketplace tactics, 257–259 modes of operation, 251–253
 new business systems, 261–263
 partnerships, 260–261
 public opinion tactics, 259–260
 radical groups, 253 range of issues targeted by, 248–249
 reformist groups, 253
 sabotage and hacking tactics, 259 shareholder activism on social issues, 255–257
 tactics deployed, 253–255 terminology and related organizational concepts, 251 use of boycotts, buycotts and standards, 257–259 age of humans. See Anthropocene
 age of sustainability, 75 relevance of stakeholder theory, 89–92
 agrowth ideology, 143
 Airbus global bribery case, 514
 Anthropocene
 commons problem, 502 cultural shift required, 501–502
 human impacts on the planet, 136–137 management as a calling, 503 markers of, 494
 Market Transformation approach to climate change, 494–501 Planetary Boundaries, 494 role of business and the market, 485–486 artificial intelligence (AI), 6 atmospheric aerosols marker, 494
 Australian bushfires (2019–20), 89 automotive sector market shifts related to climate change, 491–492
 B Corps, 39, 156, 183–187
 Bhopal disaster, India (1984), 31 biochemical flows of nitrogen (N) and phosphorous (P) marker of the Anthropocene, 494 biodiversity intactness index (BII), 494 biodiversity loss, 90, 136, 145 biosphere integrity marker, 494 Bitcoin mining, 6 bluewashing, 367 boards of directors board accountability, 307–309
 board diversity, 307, 309
 CEO duality issue, 308–309 designing board oversight for sustainability, 303–305
 boycotts, 257–259, 412
 BP Deepwater Horizon disaster (2010), 69–70, 332
 bribery, 67, 508–509
 Airbus global bribery case,
 514
 Siemens bribery scandal
 (2008), 125 business approach to climate change, 486 coercive drivers of climate change responses, 488
 drivers of market responses to climate change, 488–489 Enterprise Integration approach to climate change, 487–494
 framing the imperative to respond to climate change, 489–494 impacts of changes in context, 2–7 influences on corporate sustainability, 39–40 market drivers of climate change responses, 489–504
 Market Transformation approach to climate change, 494–501 redefining the purpose of the corporation, 496–497 re-examination of metrics and models used, 498–499 resource drivers of climate change responses, 488–504
 social drivers of responses, 489 strategic response to climate change, 489–494
 business and human rights (BHR) access to remedy, 126–128, 444

- business and human rights (BHR) (cont.)
 accountability, 448–451
 BHR regime, 441–448 compared to CSR and corporate sustainability, 440–441 corporate responsibility to respect human rights, 443 critical perspectives, 453 ‘do no harm’ principle, 444–445 evolution of, 437 FIFA World Cup 2022 in Qatar, 443 human rights policy, 443 implications of human rights for business, 437–440 indigenous rights, 440
 influence of companies on human rights, 435–436 influence on wider sustainability governance, 452–453
 International Bill of Human Rights (IBHR), 441
 International Labour Organization (ILO), 441
 Lundbeck case study, 454 meaningful stakeholder engagement, 446–447 mix of hard law and soft law, 451–452
 National Contact Points (NCPs), 450–451
 operational aspects of human rights due diligence, 445–448 regulatory and normative combinations, 451–452 remediation, 448 remedy institutions, 449–451 risk-based due diligence, 443–444 stakeholder communication, 448 state duty to protect against human rights abuses, 442–443 strategic communication, 452 sustainability governance perspective, 451–453 terminology, 452
- UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights (UNGPs), 437, 441–448
 Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), 439–441
- business case for corporate sustainability, 19–20, 66–67
- business ethics, 73
 definition of, 12–14, 55
 historical perspective, 29–30, 36
- Business Innovation Kit, 403–404
- business model innovation for sustainability
 Business Innovation Kit, 403–404
 definition of, 395–396
 e-mobility example, 395 extended value creation, 399
 Flourishing Business Canvas, 400–402 guiding principles, 396–400 improving capabilities to create value, 395 innovation as means to achieve corporate sustainability, 391–392 Interface example, 396 limitations of the approach, 408–409 managerial and entrepreneurial views on corporate sustainability, 389–390 overview, 388–390
 patterns of business models for sustainability, 400–403 planned vs. realised business models, 396–398 Smart Business Model Canvas, 402–404, 407
 stakeholder integration, 399–400 sustainability orientation, 398–399 systems thinking, 399
 tools to support, 400–402
 Triple-Layered Business Model Canvas, 401–403
 Value Mapping Tool, 400–401
- business models
 new models for market transformation, 499–500
 Razor and Blade pattern, 393
- business models for sustainability, 388, 392–395
 definition of, 393–395 importance of the business model perspective, 392–393 sustainable value creation, 392–393 value creation focus, 392–393
- business strategy linking with corporate sustainability, 107–108
- carbon dioxide (CO₂) role in climate change, 484
- categorical imperative (Kant), 58–59
- CEO activism, 126–128
 CEO duality issue, 308–309
- child labour, 462
- circular economy, 144
- civil society organisations, 36, 251–252
- climate change, 47, 89–90, 136, 145 asking new questions about business sustainability, 500–501 business approach to, 486 business as the cause or the solution, 485–486 business imperative to respond, 489–494 changes associated with global warming, 484 coercive drivers of business responses, 488 consequences of elevated greenhouse gases, 484 corporate influence on climate change negotiations, 125–126
 cultural shift required, 501–502
 developing new business models, 450–451 different national perceptions of the threat, 65–66

- drivers of market responses to, 488–489
- Enterprise Integration approach, 487–494
- environmental justice perspective, 144
- insurance risks related to, 490–491
- marker of the Anthropocene, 494
- market drivers of business responses, 489–504
- market shifts in the automotive sector, 491–492
- market shifts in the energy sector, 492
- market shifts in the food sector, 492
- Market Transformation approach, 494–501
- need for systemic change in the market economy, 494–496
- political lobbying by corporations, 497–498
- reexamination of metrics and models used by the market, 498–499
- resource drivers of business responses, 488–504
- risk management and, 490–491
- social drivers of business responses, 489
- coercive drivers of climate change responses, 488
- collaboration, 51
- commons problem, 502
- communication of sustainability activities differences between MNCs and SMEs, 162–163
- competitive advantage linking business strategy with corporate sustainability, 107–108
- Porter's model, 100–102
- reputation as source of, 318–319
- consumer behaviour drivers 3 U's framework, 276–285
- affective/emotional utility, 283
- aspects of the company, 288–290
- aspects of the consumer, 286–288
- aspects of the context, 290–291
- company motive inferences, 279–280
- contingencies that influence the 3U's, 285–291
- creating a corporate sustainability strategy, 291–292
- demographics, 286, 288
- functional utility, 281
- gender differences, 286
- generational differences, 286
- geographic differences, 286–287
- other-signaling, 282–283
- product performance inferences, 278–279
- psychographics, 281–283, 286
- psychological drivers of pro-company behaviours, 276–285
- psychosocial utility, 281–283
- self-expression, 282
- self-signaling, 282
- socioeconomic factors, 286
- understanding of sustainability efforts, 276–280
- unity between consumers and a company, 283–285
- utility, 280–283
- consumer behaviours, 273–276
- pro-company behaviours, 274–275
- pro-sustainability behaviours, 275–276
- consumer leagues, 251
- consumers and sustainability consideration of corporate sustainability in decision-making, 271–273
- paradox faced by companies, 272–273
- co-operatives, 177–179, 186–187
- corporate accountability, 13–14
- corporate accounting scandals, 310
- corporate activities increasing scale and scope of, 4–5
- role in ESG issues, 4–5
- corporate citizenship, 14–15, 118
- corporate culture influence on ethical decision-making, 64–65
- corporate governance consequences of poor corporate governance, 297–298
- definition of, 298
- promoting sustainable lifestyles, 128–131
- proposed EU Sustainable Corporate Governance Directive, 312–313
- role of managers, 310–311
- shareholder-centric model, 310–311
- stakeholder orientation, 313
- The New Paradigm voluntary framework, 311–312
- towards sustainable corporate governance, 310–313
- Wirecard scandal, 297–298
- corporate governance as sustainability board accountability, 307–309
- board diversity, 307, 309
- CEO duality issue, 308–309
- ESG governance issues, 307–308
- executive compensation, 308–310
- treatment of ESG in corporate governance legislation, 308–309
- corporate governance for sustainability, 302–307
- designing board oversight for sustainability, 303–305
- effects of ownership structures, 305–307
- corporate governance system, 299–302
- fiduciary duties, 301–302
- non-financial reporting, 301
- participants, 299–300
- shareholder–stakeholder nexus, 301–302
- corporate irresponsibility, 11–12, 32

- corporate philanthropy, 328–329
 - in the United States, 238
- corporate responsibilities
 - Carroll's pyramid, 9–10
- corporate social responsibility (CSR)
 - definition of, 10–11, 13–14
 - historical perspective, 29–30, 131 see also political CSR,
- corporate sustainability
 - asking new questions about, 500–501
 - definition of, 8–11, 13–14, 29
 - impacts of changes in context, 2–7
 - issues addressed by, 31–32
 - key tensions around, 23–25
 - modes used to address issues, 31–32
 - motivations for, 18–23
 - potential consequences of business-as-usual, 1–2
 - rationales for, 31–35
 - relevance to SMEs, 158
 - unsustainable and irresponsible business practices, 11–12
 - walking the talk, 322–326
- corporate sustainability reporting, 14
 - approaches to governing, 350–362
 - business case for, 348
 - definition of, 335–342
 - Denmark, 239
 - development of
 - non-financial reporting, 342–345
 - developments in countries and regions, 363
 - developments in different sectors, 363–366
 - discourse theory perspective, 346
 - external assurance, 345–346
 - Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 351–353, 369
 - institutional theory perspective, 346–347
 - Internet-based, 341
 - legitimacy theory perspective, 347
 - mandatory reporting initiatives, 353–362
 - materiality principle, 352–353
 - performance–portrayal gap, 348–349
 - problems and challenges, 348–350
 - purpose of, 334–335
 - rationales for, 346–348
 - shadow reporting (external accounts), 349
 - stakeholder theory perspective, 347–348
 - supply chain information, 362
 - voluntary reporting guidelines and standards, 351–353
- corporate tax transparency
 - extractives sector, 242–244
- corporate unsustainability, 11–12, 32
- corporations
 - moral responsibility of, 68–70
 - political lobbying by, 497–498
 - proactive initiation of interaction with stakeholders, 84–85
 - redefining the purpose of, 496–497
- corruption
 - abuse of entrusted power for private gain, 507–508, 522–523
 - Airbus global bribery case, 514
 - anti-corruption discourse, 506
 - anti-corruption efforts and corporate sustainability, 521–523
 - anti-corruption governance, 510–513
 - anti-corruption legislation, 511–513
 - anti-corruption standards, templates and benchmarks, 520
 - bribery, 508–509
 - coercive corruption, 508
 - collusive corruption, 508
 - consequences in a business context, 509–510
 - corporate anti-corruption work, 518–520
 - corruption scandals, 510–511
 - critical takes on the anti-corruption agenda, 521
 - cronyism, 508
 - definition of, 507–509
 - enforcement of anti-corruption legislation, 513–514
 - facilitation payments, 509
 - forms of, 507–509
 - global scale of, 506
 - grey zones, 508–509
 - harms caused by, 509–510
 - industry self-regulation, 513–515
 - managing corporate corruption risks, 517–518
 - Maritime Anti-Corruption Network (MACN), 515
 - multi-stakeholder initiatives against, 514–516
 - nepotism, 508
 - nurturing corporate cultures of integrity, 518–520
 - patronage, 508
 - political activities of corporations, 124–125
 - political corruption, 508
 - private-to-private corruption, 508
 - procurement corruption, 508
 - public corruption, 508
 - relevance to corporate sustainability, 506–507
 - risk management approach by businesses, 517–521
 - service-level corruption, 507–508
 - Siemens case study, 524
 - state capture, 508
 - tools used to achieve corrupt influence, 508
- Corruption Perception Index (CPI), 4
- COVID-19 pandemic, 89
 - impact on global supply chains, 456–457
 - impact on human rights and labour rights, 3, 435–436

- influence on development studies, 532 use of video conferencing, 91 Creating Shared Value (CSV), 34, 51, 104–106
 cronyism, 508
 crowdfunding, 183
 CSR managers. See sustainability professionals CSR professionals. See sustainability professionals cultural context of stakeholder theory, 85–89 cultural shift dealing with climate change, 501–502 culture conceptions of justice, 145 influence on sustainability transitions, 144–145 customer co-operatives, 178–179
- datafication, 5–6
 decoupling in hybrid organisations, 172 deep ecology, 61–62, 123
 deforestation, 136, 494 history of the Forest Stewardship Council (FSC), 412–413 degrowth ideology, 143 democratic corporate governance, 122–124
 deregulation, 145 development
 aligning business and societal interests, 546–547 as an academic discipline, 530–532 bottom-up (small-scale) approaches, 529–530 business impact case studies, 539–546 climate change adaptation in the cocoa industry (case study), 545–546
 definition of, 528–530
 democracy promotion in South Africa (case study), 543–545 poverty reduction in Vietnam (case study), 539–540 relationship to corporate sustainability, 536–537 safety of women workers in the maquila industry, Mexico (case study), 540–543 tackling gender inequality and violence (case study), 540–543 top-down (large-scale) approaches, 529 development studies criticisms of, 533–534 dependency theory, 530–531 four distinctive features, 532–533 history of, 530–532 impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, 532 modernisation theory, 530–532 role of business in development work, 534–539 digitalisation, 5–6 discounted cash flow method, 498–499
 Doughnut Economics, 141–142
- eco-efficiency thinking, 146–147 ecological approaches from systems thinking to systems action, 149–150 ecological economics, 143–144 Ecological Footprint, 142 ecological lenses, 138–148
 categorisation, 148 critiques of economic growth, 143 insights from indigenous studies, 144 organisational level approaches to environmental issues, 145–148 progress indicators, 139–142 social science perspective, 143–144 sustainability innovation concepts, 144–145 ecological perspectives on sustainability, 134–135 defining sustainable development, 134–135
- ecological posthumanism, 61–62 ecological principles of corporate sustainability, 137 balanced, 138 contextual, 137 just, 137 practical, 137 science-based, 137 systemic, 137–138
 transformational, 138 ecological trends and challenges, 135–137 economic growth critiques of, 143 economic objectives tension with social/environmental objectives, 23–24 eco-preneurs, 179 embedded liberalism, 121 governance gaps (regulatory vacuums), 118–119 energy sector market shifts related to climate change, 492
 Enron scandal, 69, 310
 Enterprise Integration approach to climate change, 487–494 entrepreneurs views on corporate sustainability, 389–390 environmental challenges, 135–137 environmental enterprises, 179 environmental issues influence on corporate sustainability, 41
 environmental justice, 144 environmental management systems (EMS), 145–146 environmental objectives tension with economic objectives, 23–24
 environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues, 2–4, 148
 Corruption Perception Index (CPI), 4
 ESG integration approach to investment, 213

- environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues (cont.)
 human rights and labour rights, 3 incorporating into investment decisions, 208 influence on investor decision-making, 208–211
 materiality analysis, 110–112
 Planetary Boundaries, 3 role of businesses, 4–5 ways for firms to engage with, 114–115
- environmental, social and governance (ESG) managers, See sustainability professionals
- environmental, social, governance and technology (ESGT) issues, 15–16
- ethical blindness, 63
- ethical consumerism, 257–259
- ethical decision-making, 62 decision biases, 63–64 effects of information overload, 64 ethical blindness, 63
 groupthink and, 63–64 individual factors, 62–64 influence of corporate culture, 64–65 influence of moral awareness, 63–64 influence of national culture, 65–66 influence of reward and incentive schemes, 65 levels of moral development, 62–63 situational factors, 64–66 use of decision heuristics, 64
- ethical dilemmas in corporate sustainability, 73 trolley car example, 54–55, 59–60
- ethical management compliance orientation, 70–72 formal ethics programs, 70–72 integrity orientation, 70–73 shared values approach, 70–73
- ethical motivation for corporate sustainability, 20–21
- ethical reflection complementing legal regulation, 67–68
- ethical dilemmas in corporate sustainability, 73
- moral case for corporate sustainability, 66–67
- moral responsibility of corporations, 68–70
- necessity for corporate sustainability, 66–68
- possibility in the corporate sustainability context, 68–70
- ethical theories deep ecology, 61–62
 ecological posthumanism, 61–62
 Kantian (duty-based) ethics, 56, 58–60 normative ethical theories, 55–62
 posthuman ethics, 56, 61–62
 utilitarianism, 56–58
 virtue ethics, 56, 60–61
- ethical trade in the United Kingdom, 238–239
- ethics distinction from morality, 55–56 historical foundations, 36 relevance for corporate sustainability, 55
- executive compensation, 308–310
- externalities
 internalising negative impacts, 24
- extinctions related to human activity, 90 species extinction marker, 494
- extractives sector
 corporate tax transparency, 242–244, 246
- extraterritorial law, 7
- facilitation payments, 509
- farmer cooperatives, 177
- fiduciary duties, 301–302
- financial crisis (2007–2008), 67, 298
- Flourishing Business Canvas, 400–402
- food sector
 market shifts related to climate change, 492
- forced green ideology, 143
- forced labour, 462
- fossil fuel companies investor divestment decisions, 220
- foundation-owned businesses, 175–177, 186–187, 306
- fracking protests, 248–249
- Fragile States Index, 3
- freedom of association for workers, 463
- freshwater use marker, 494
- Fukushima Daiichi nuclear disaster (2011), 489
- future of corporate sustainability, 98–99
 key developments, 551–554
 key tensions, 551–556
 key topics, 551
 questions for reflection, 557
- generational differences in consumer behaviour, 286
- Genuine Progress Indicator, 142
- global governance, 6–7 corporate influence on, 125–126
- global supply chains company-level efforts to improve working conditions, 472–474
 cons of sweatshop labour, 468–472 debate over sweatshop labour, 461–472
 efforts to regulate and improve working conditions, 472–481 government regulation in various countries, 476–481
 impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, 456–457 industry-level initiatives to improve working standards, 474–475 labour rights violations, 460–461
 MSIs to improve working conditions, 475–476

- pros of sweatshop labour, 464–468 use of sweatshop labour, 457–458 working conditions, 456–458 global vs. local sustainability strategy, 24 global warming, 136 globalisation, 145, 456–458 regulation of global business, 6–7 governance
 extraterritorial law, 7
 global governance, 4, 6–7, 125–126
 supply chain governance, 241–242 See also corporate governance;
 environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues governance gaps, 118–119 governance spheres, 241–244 government influence on corporate sustainability, 40–41 redefining the relationship with the market, 497–498 government and corporate sustainability agential regulation, 232–237 agential view, 230–231 corporate discretion in relation to public policy, 237–238 corporate philanthropy in the United States, 238 corporate responses to government regulation, 237–240 corporate sustainability reporting in Denmark, 239 corporate tax transparency in the extractives sector, 242–244 dichotomous perspective, 228–229, 231–232
 ethical trade in the United Kingdom, 238–239
 governance spheres, 241–244 interaction between government (public) and private regulation, 241–244 international corporate taxation, 240 issues addressed by governments, 232–235 perspectives and views on, 227–232 policy approaches to regulation, 236–237 related perspective, 229–232 relationship between government and corporations, 227 role of government in shaping corporate sustainability, 244–245 supply chain governance in the Bangladesh garment sector, 241–242 types of regulation used by governments, 235–236 Great Acceleration, 136, 149, 494 green growth ideology, 143 greenhouse gases role in climate change, 484
 greenwashing, 59, 139, 325, 328, 367, 486 use of sustainability standards, 429–430
 gross domestic product (GDP), 143, 499
 groupthink, 63–64
 Happy Planet Index, 142 hard law, 451 health and safety at work, 463 historical perspectives business ethics, 29–30, 36 business influences on corporate sustainability, 39–40 continuity, 50–51
 corporate social responsibility (CSR), 29–30
 corporations, 39–40
 development, 51
 government influences on corporate sustainability, 40–41 industrialisation phase of corporate sustainability, 42–43 insights into corporate sustainability, 30 internationalisation phase of corporate sustainability, 42–43, 47–48 issues addressed by corporate sustainability, 31–32 modern corporation phase of corporate sustainability, 42–43, 45–46 modes used to address corporate sustainability issues, 31–32 natural environment and corporate sustainability, 41 past-as-corporate sustainability, 50 past-in-corporate sustainability, 50 rationales for corporate sustainability, 31–35 recursions, 51 religions and ethical business, 36 role of the media in social issues, 36–39 societal influences on corporate sustainability, 35–39 three phases of corporate sustainability, 42–49 wider reflections, 49–50 human rights, 3 corporate sustainability and, 440–441
 Fragile States Index, 3 implications for business, 437–440
 indigenous rights, 440
 International Bill of Human Rights (IBHR), 441
 International Labour Organisation (ILO), 436, 441
 Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), 439–441 ways that companies can exert influence on, 435–436
 See also business and human rights (BHR)
 Human Rights and Rule of Law Index, 3
 human rights due diligence responsibility of MNCs, 474

- hybrid organisations, 174–188
 - alternative organising for sustainability, 175–187
 - compromising institutional logics, 171–172
 - decoupling or selective coupling, 172
- impact investing, 214–216
- incentive schemes
 - influence on ethical decision-making, 65
- indigenous rights
 - Sámi people, 440
- indigenous studies
 - ecological insights, 144
- industrialisation phase of corporate sustainability, 42–43
- information communication technologies
 - social movements facilitated by, 90–91
- information overload
 - effects on ethical decision-making, 64
- innovation
 - as means to achieve corporate sustainability, 391–392, 409 See also business model innovation for sustainability
- inside-out thinking, 100, 102–106
- instrumental motivation for corporate sustainability, 19–20
- insurance sector
 - risks related to climate change, 490–491
- internalisation of negative impacts, 24
- international non-governmental organisations (INGOs), 252
- internationalisation
 - ongoing significance of, 51
 - phase of corporate sustainability, 42–43, 47–48
- Internet
 - corporate sustainability reporting, 341
- investors
 - active ownership, 217–220
 - consideration of sustainability issues, 207–208
 - divestment decisions, 219–220
 - ESG engagement, 217–219
 - ESG integration approach, 213
 - green bonds, 216–217
 - impact investing, 214–216
 - implications of the SFDR (EU), 222–224
 - incorporating ESG factors into decision-making, 208
 - incorporating ESG factors into equity investment, 211–213
 - limitations of ESG rating data, 221–222
 - materiality of ESG issues, 208–209
 - motivations for sustainable investment, 208–211
 - negative screening (exclusions), 211–212, 225
 - positive screening, 212–213
 - proxy voting, 219–220
 - role of ESG issues in decision-making, 208–211
 - shareholder activism on social issues, 255–257
 - shareholder resolutions, 219–220
 - social bonds, 216–217
 - sustainable finance, 208
 - sustainable investment in bonds, 216–217
 - thematic investment, 212–213
 - types of ESG assessment data, 221
- justice
 - cultural conceptions of, 145
 - environmental justice, 144
- Kantian (duty-based) ethics, 56, 58–60
 - categorical imperative, 58–59
- key developments, 551–554
- key tensions, 551–556
- key topics, 551
- labour rights, 3
 - child labour, 462
 - company-level efforts to improve working conditions, 472–474
 - cons of sweatshop labour, 468–472
 - core standards of the ILO, 458–459
 - debate over sweatshop labour, 461–472
 - efforts to regulate and improve working conditions, 472–481
 - forced labour, 462
 - freedom of association, 463
 - government regulation in various countries, 476–481
 - health and safety at work, 463
 - human rights due diligence, 474
 - industry-level initiatives to improve working standards, 474–475
 - living wages, 462
 - multi-stakeholder initiatives (MSIs), 475–476
 - pros of sweatshop labour, 464–468
 - sweatshop labour in global supply chains, 457–458
 - violations in global supply chains, 460–461
 - working conditions in global supply chains, 456–458
- land system change
 - marker of the Anthropocene, 494
- legislation
 - treatment of ESG issues, 308–309
- legitimacy
 - rationale for corporate sustainability, 33–34
 - relationship to reputation, 320–321
- living wages, 462
- lobbying by corporations, 124–125, 497–498
- local vs. global sustainability strategy, 24

- machine learning, 6
- management
 - as a calling, 503
 - rethinking management training, 503
- managers
 - shareholder-centric management model, 310–311
 - views on corporate sustainability, 389–390
- managing for stakeholders, 79–80, 83–85
- mandatory vs. voluntary regulation, 24
- market drivers of climate change responses, 489–504
- Market Transformation
 - approach to climate change, 494–501
 - asking new questions about sustainability, 500–501
 - developing new business models, 499–500
 - need for systemic change, 494–496
 - redefining the purpose of the corporation, 496–497
 - redefining the relationship between government and the market, 497–498
 - reevaluation of metrics and models used, 498–499
- mass extinctions, 136
- materiality
 - ESG issues in investment decisions, 208–209
 - in corporate sustainability reporting, 352–353
- materiality analysis
 - identifying strategic ESG issues, 110–112
- media
 - exposure of social issues, 36–39
- Millennium Development Goals, 139
- modern corporation phase of corporate sustainability, 42–43, 45–46
- moral awareness
 - influence on ethical decision-making, 63–64
- moral case for corporate sustainability, 20–21, 66–67
- moral development
 - levels of, 62–63
- moral responsibility of corporations, 68–70
- morality
 - distinction from ethics, 55–56
- motivation for sustainability
 - differences between MNCs and SMEs, 159–162
- motivations for corporate sustainability, 18–23
 - ethical motivation, 20–21
 - instrumental motivation, 19–20
 - political motivation, 22–23
 - stakeholder motivation, 21–22
- multinational corporations (MNCs)
 - approach to sustainability and responsibility compared with SMEs, 159–167
 - communication of sustainability activities, 162–163
 - comparison with SMEs, 155–157
 - dominance of industries, 4
 - efforts to improve working conditions, 472–474
 - keystone actors, 4
 - motivation for sustainability and responsibility, 159–162
 - operational basis of sustainability activities, 163–164
 - organising for sustainability and responsibility, 165–166
 - responses to the COVID-19 pandemic, 456–457
 - responsibility for human rights due diligence, 474
 - stakeholder relationships, 166–167
 - supplier codes of conduct, 472–474
 - use of sweatshop labour in supply chains, 457–458
- multi-stakeholder initiatives (MSIs), 32, 40, 47, 119–123, 417, 428–429
 - labour rights and working conditions, 475–476
- national culture
 - influence on national culture, 65–66
- natural environment
 - influence on corporate sustainability, 41
- nature
 - impacts of changes in context, 2–7
- negative externalities
 - pressure on companies to internalize, 24
- neoclassical economics, 498
- neoliberalism, 121, 145
- nepotism, 508
- The New Paradigm
 - corporate governance framework, 311–312
- non-financial reporting, 301, 449
 - Denmark, 239, 336 See also corporate sustainability reporting
- non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 252
 - NGO activism, 91–92, 249
 - shame-based campaigning, 91–92
 - See also* activist NGOs non-profit organisations (NPOs), 252
- non-profit social businesses, 172–174
- Nordic culture
 - context for stakeholder interactions, 85–88
- not-for-profit organisations, 251
- novel entities
 - marker of the Anthropocene, 494
- ocean acidification marker, 494
- oil and gas industry, 89
- operational basis of sustainability activities
 - differences between MNCs and SMEs, 163–164

- organisational forms
 - alternative organising for sustainability, 175–187
 - B Corps, 183–187
 - continuum from for-profit to non-profit organisations, 172–174
 - cooperatives, 177–179, 186–187
 - for-profit businesses, 172–173
 - foundation-owned businesses, 175–177, 186–187
 - hybrid organisations, 174–188
 - non-profit businesses, 172–173
 - non-profit social businesses, 172–174
 - social businesses, 172–174, 179–183, 186–187
 - socially responsible businesses, 172–173
- organising for sustainability and responsibility
 - differences between MNCs and SMEs, 165–166
- outside-in thinking, 100–102, 104–106
- overfishing, 90
- owner-manager firms, 306–307
- ownership structures
 - effects on sustainability, 305–307
- ozone layer recovery, 494
- partnerships. See sustainability partnerships
- past-as-corporate sustainability, 50
- past-in-corporate sustainability, 50
- paternalism, 30, 40
- patronage, 508
- philanthropy, 30, 40, 45
 - corporate philanthropy, 328–329
 - corporate philanthropy in the USA, 238
 - rationale for corporate sustainability, 33–34
 - strategic philanthropy, 102
- phronesis, 60
- Planetary Boundaries, 3, 139–141
 - markers of the Anthropocene, 494
- political consumerism, 257–259
- political corruption, 508
- political CSR, 118
 - CEO activism, 126–128
 - corporate governance of sustainable lifestyles, 128–131
 - corporate influence at international level, 125–126
 - corporate influence at national level, 124–126
 - corporate influence on climate change negotiations, 125–126
 - corporate lobbying, 124–125
 - corruption, 124–125
 - democratic corporate governance, 122–124
 - global governance, 125–126
 - governance gaps, 118–119
 - multi-stakeholder initiatives (MSIs), 119–123
 - Siemens bribery scandal (2008), 125
- political influence of corporations, 117–118
- political motivation for corporate sustainability, 22–23
- post-growth ideology, 143
- posthuman ethics, 56, 61–62
- principal-agent theory, 498
- private interest groups, 251–252
- private-to-private corruption, 508
- procurement corruption, 508
- producer cooperatives, 178
- progress indicators
 - ecological lenses, 139–142
- prosperity without growth, 143
- protectionism, 456
- public benefit corporations (PBCs), 182
- public corruption, 508
- public interest groups, 251–252
- publicly listed firms, 306
- race-to-the-bottom thesis, 119
- Rana Plaza disaster, Bangladesh (2013), 31, 463, 476, 482
 - supply chain governance in Bangladesh garment sector, 241–242
- regulatory vacuums (governance gaps), 118–119
- religions
 - ethical foundations of business responsibility and sustainability, 36
- reputation
 - concepts related to, 320–321
 - definitions of, 318–321
 - dimensions of corporate reputation, 316–317
 - effects of corporate philanthropy, 328–329
 - enhancement by walking corporate sustainability, 326–329
 - impact of corporate sustainability, 321–326
 - influence on willingness to interact with a company, 315
 - quest for corporate sustainability reputation, 322–326
 - relationship to corporate sustainability, 316–317
 - relationship to identity, 320
 - relationship to image, 320
 - relationship to legitimacy, 320–321
 - reputation management, 324–325
 - risk of damage from only talking corporate sustainability, 329–331
 - role of stakeholder perceptions, 319–320
 - source of competitive advantage, 318–319
 - stakeholder communication strategies, 325–326
 - stakeholder impressions and attributions, 323–324
 - walking the talk of corporate sustainability, 322–326
- resource depletion, 145

- resource drivers of climate change responses, 488–489
- reward schemes influence on ethical decision-making, 65
- risk management effects of climate change, 490–491
- secondary stakeholders, 251–252
- service-level corruption, 507–508
- shame-based campaigning, 91–92
- shareholder activism on social issues, 255–257
- shareholder-centric management model, 310–311
- shareholder interests tension with stakeholder interests, 23
- shareholder–stakeholder nexus, 301–302
- shareholders moving away from shareholder dominance, 75–77
- small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), 5 approach to sustainability and responsibility compared with MNCs, 159–167
- characteristics and economic importance of, 157–158
- communication of sustainability activities, 162–163
- comparison with MNCs, 155–157
- definitions of, 157–158
- moral case for corporate sustainability, 67
- motivation for sustainability and responsibility, 159–162
- operational basis of sustainability activities, 163–164
- organising for sustainability and responsibility, 165–166
- relevance of corporate sustainability, 158
- social and environmental activities, 10–11
- social enterprises, 155–156
- stakeholder relationships, 166–167
- Small Business Social Responsibility (SBSR), 158
- Smart Business Model Canvas, 402–404, 407
- social activism recognition of the importance of stakeholders, 75–77
- social businesses, 5, 172–174, 179–183, 186–187
avoiding mission drift, 181–182 market-oriented work model, 180 one-sided value model, 180–181 Patagonia example, 170–171 social-oriented work model, 181 two-sided value model, 180
- social drivers of climate change responses, 489
- social enterprises, 155–156, 179
- social issues exposure by the media, 4, 36–39 See also environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues
- social justice, 144
- social media future consequences of personal posts, 126–128
- social movement organisations, 251–252
- social movements, 123 use of information communications technologies, 90–91
- social objectives tension with economic objectives, 23–24
- social responsibility
rationale for corporate sustainability, 33–34
- social science ecological perspectives, 143–144
- socially responsible businesses, 172–173
- socially responsible investment (SRI), 255
- societal welfare rationale for corporate sustainability, 33, 35
- society
impacts of changes in context, 2–7
influence on corporate sustainability, 35–39
- soft law, 451
- species extinction marker, 494
- stakeholder approach rise of social movements, 90–91 tackling wicked problems, 89–90 urgency of social and environmental problems, 89–90
- stakeholder communication strategies, 325–326
- stakeholder integration, 313
- stakeholder interests tension with shareholder interests, 23
- stakeholder mapping, 166–167
- stakeholder orientation in corporate governance, 313
- stakeholder perceptions role in corporate reputation, 319–320
- stakeholder relationships
differences between MNCs and SMEs, 166–167
- stakeholder theory, 77 business as relationships among stakeholders, 78–83 cultural context, 85–89 forms of interaction with stakeholders, 84–85 historical development, 85–89 implications of information communication technologies, 90–91 jointness of stakeholder interests, 83–85
managing for stakeholders, 79–80, 83–85
NGO activism, 91–92
overview, 78–85
problems targeted by, 78–79

- stakeholder theory (cont.)
 relevance in the age of sustainability, 89–92 shaking stakeholders, 84–85 types of stakeholder, 79–82
- stakeholders
 definition of, 81–83
 importance of collaboration with, 75–77 interaction initiated by corporations, 84–85 motivators of corporate sustainability, 21–22 role in creation of corporate reputations, 323–324
- standards. See sustainability standards
- state capture, 508
- steady-state economics, 143
- strategic corporate sustainability alignment with key resources, 98–99 business strategy and corporate sustainability, 107–108 collaborative aspect, 99–100 competitive context perspective, 100–102, 104–106 consideration of stakeholder expectations, 98–99 corporate strategy and sustainability, 109–110
 Creating Shared Value (CSV), 104–106 distinction between corporate and business strategy, 106–107 ethical considerations, 114–115
 features of, 98–100
 future orientation, 98–99
 identifying strategic ESG issues, 110–112 inside-out approaches, 100, 102–106 linking strategy with sustainability, 100–106
 materiality analysis, 110–112
 multi-business firms, 109–110 organisational embeddedness, 98
- outside-in approaches, 100–102, 104–106 perspective on ESG issues, 99 resources perspective, 100, 102–106 stages of strategy–sustainability alignment, 112–114 value chain analysis (Porter), 102–104
- strategic philanthropy, 102
- strategy meaning in the corporate context, 97–98
- stratospheric ozone depletion marker, 494
- supermarket chains tensions around sustainability, 194
- supply chain governance
 Bangladesh garment sector, 241–242
- supply chain information
 corporate sustainability reporting, 362
- sustainability innovation concepts, 144–145
- sustainability partnerships civil society–business partnerships, 373–374 cross-sector partnerships (CSPs), 374 dark side of, 383–384
 definition of, 372–373
 examples of partnerships, 370–371 factors when considering, 386
 features of, 372–373
 forms of partnership, 373–374 government–business partnerships, 374 individual skills required, 384–386 inter-firm business partnerships, 373 international organisation–business partnerships, 374 key partnering challenges, 381–383 multi-sector partnerships, 374
 participants, 373–374
- range of terms used for, 372 reasons for partnering, 371–372 risks related to, 383–384 role of partnering in sustainability, 370–371 stages in the partnering process, 374–381 when to partner, 371–372
- sustainability professionals
 Carola Wijdoogen (Dutch Railways), 201 challenges faced by, 194–195 common traits, 190 competencies, 197 different pathways into the profession, 192 execution of tasks and practices, 204–205 hard and soft skills, 195 history of the profession, 190–191 importance in present-day organisations, 191 motivations, 198–199 personal values, 198–199
 practicalities of the work, 203–205 range of job titles, 190 role characteristics, 192–195 safeguarding personal motivations and values, 203–204 status in relation to the organisation, 192–195 sustainable approach to the job, 203–205 tasks and practices, 198–203
- sustainability standards ability to effect change, 421–427 certification standards, 414–417 consensual orientation, 419–420 coverage, 420 critique of, 427–430
 definition of, 413–414
 efficacy of, 415–420 enforcement level, 420
 features of, 413–414
 Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 416
 greenwashing and, 429–430

- history of the Forest
 - Stewardship Council (FSC), 412–413
- impact on adopting firms, 423–425
- impact on consumers, 425–426
- impact on regulated issues, 426–427
- inclusiveness, 419
- inclusiveness problem, 428–429
- interactions with
 - government-based regulation, 417–418
- legitimacy of, 418–421
- limitations of, 430–431
- multiplicity of standards, 427–428
- multi-stakeholder initiatives (MSIs), 417, 428–429
- principle-based standards, 415–417
- procedural fairness, 419
- reporting standards, 414–417
- Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB), 416
- transparency of, 420
- types of, 414–417
- UN Global Compact, 416–417
- sustainability transitions, 144–145
- sustainable development, 8, 134–135
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 16–18, 139
- sustainable finance, 208, 222–224
- sustainable lifestyles
 - corporate governance of, 128–131
- sustainable value creation, 388–389, 392–393
- sweatshops
 - company-level efforts to improve working conditions, 472–474
 - cons of sweatshop labour, 468–472
 - debate over sweatshop labour, 461–472
 - definitions of, 460
 - efforts to regulate and improve working conditions, 472–481
 - government regulation in various countries, 476–481
 - human rights due diligence by MNCs, 474
 - industry-level initiatives to improve working standards, 474–475
 - labour rights violations, 460–461
 - MSIs to improve working conditions, 475–476
 - pros of sweatshop labour, 464–468
 - role in global supply chains, 457–458
 - supplier codes of conduct, 472–474
- systems thinking, 399
 - leading to systems action, 149–150
- tensions associated with
 - corporate sustainability, 551–556
- triple bottom line, 147, 536–537
- Triple-Layered Business Model Canvas, 401–403
- utilitarianism, 56–58
- value chain analysis (Porter), 102–104
- value chains, 47
- value creation
 - Creating Shared Value (CSV), 34, 51, 104–106
 - extended value creation, 399
 - sustainable value creation, 388–389, 392–393
- value drivers of corporate sustainability, 19–20
- Value Mapping Tool, 400–401
- virtue ethics, 56, 60–61
- voluntary versus mandatory regulation, 24
- wealth creation
 - business focus on, 32–33
 - corporate sustainability as a vehicle for, 33–35
 - rationale for corporate sustainability, 32–33
- welfare state, 45
- whistle-blowers, 41
- wicked problems, 89–90
- Wirecard scandal, 297–298