

Contents

Acknowledgements page viii

PART I THE PROBLEM IN CONTEXT

1	Introduction to the Book	3
	Introduction	3
	The Problem of Revelation	4
	Experience	9
	Beliefs	13
	The Shape of This Book	14
2	Living in a Secular Age	20
	Introduction	20
	Secularisation	21
	‘A Secular Age’	26
	Believing and Forgetting	29
	Detraditionalisation and Individualisation	35
	Conclusion	37

PART II REVELATION IN CONTEMPORARY PHILOSOPHY AND THEOLOGY

3	Revelation as a Philosophical Problem	41
	Introduction	41
	‘The Great Divorce’	43
	‘Returning’ to Religion	46
	Perhaps, Maybe	53
	Conclusion	60
4	Revelation as a Theological Problem I: Theology and Metaphysics	61
	Introduction	61

	A Radically Orthodox Response	62
	A Thomistic Response	64
5	Revelation as a Theological Problem II: The Bifurcation of Revelation	76
	Introduction	76
	Theology of Revelation after Vatican II	76
	Revelation and Tradition	85
	Conclusion	91
PART III THE EVENT OF REVELATION
6	A Hermeneutic-Phenomenological Approach to Theology	95
	Introduction	95
	Jean-Luc Marion's Phenomenological Methodology	99
	Four Types of Saturated Phenomena	103
	The Saturated Phenomenon of Revelation: Marion and the Road to Emmaus	112
	Phenomenology and Hermeneutics	115
	Saturated Phenomena and the Primacy of the Event	120
	Conclusion	124
7	Revelation Exceeds Experience	126
	Introduction	126
	Contesting the Event	127
	Belief and Unbelief	133
	Jean-Luc Nancy: The Event as Surprise	135
	Lieven Boeve: The Event as Interruption	142
	Claude Romano: The Event as Transformation	149
	Conclusion	151
8	Revelation Affects Experience	152
	Introduction	152
	Transgressing the Horizon of the Mundane	153
	'More than a Feeling': Befindlichkeit, Stimmung, Gefühl	155
	The Event of the Thing	159
	The Event of the Word	162
	'Experience of God'	165
	Conclusion	173
PART IV THE EVENT IN PERSON
9	Revelation Shapes Experience	179
	Introduction	179
	The First Time of Election	182

	Contents	vii
	The Second Time of Election	189
	The Immediacy of God in Experience	194
	Conclusion	196
10	The Event in Person: Revelation Transforms Experience	198
	Introduction	198
	A Hermeneutic-Phenomenological Reading of the Road to Emmaus	198
	Thinking Revelation in the Contemporary Context	204
	Bibliography	207
	Index	225