

INDEX

- Administrative Appeals Tribunal, 70, 247, 271–2
 appeals to the Federal Court, 279–80 jurisdiction and caseload, 272–6 procedure, 278–9
 reasons for reviewable decisions, 278
 standing and parties, 276–8
- Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act*
 1977 (Cth), decisions subject to review under, 313–15 decisions excluded under schedule 1, 318–19
 decisions made under an enactment, 317–18
 decisions of an administrative character,
 315–16
- administrative law constitutional law and, 3–4 historical context, 2–3 mechanisms, 16 need for administrative law, 5
 to keep executive branch accountable,
 6–7
 unique powers of the executive, 5–6 ongoing reform to, 19–20 anti-corruption bodies, 19–20
 freedom of information, 19
 rationale for, 7 statutory interpretation and, 16–17 values, 14–16
 efficient and effective use of government powers, 15–16
 the fair exercise of government power, 15 integrity in government, 15 the legality of government, 15 rationality in government, 15
- Administrative Review Council, 19, 103, 107 characteristics of a tribunal and, 248
The Contracting Out of Government Services,
 51–2, 84
 damages and, 545–6 grounds of review and, 386, 394 judicial review and, 318
 justiciability and, 348 merits review and, 233, 236
Rule Making by Commonwealth Agencies, 91
- administrative review tribunals, 247
 Australian administrative tribunal framework, 271
 Administrative Appeals Tribunal,
 272–80
 Commonwealth merits review tribunals,
 271–2
 state and territory administrative review tribunals, 280–4
 constitutional issues for tribunals
 Commonwealth tribunals, 250–2 state and territory tribunals, 252–4 definition of ‘tribunal’, 248–50 issues of tribunal design, 255–6 appeal and review of tribunal decisions, 270–1
 conferral of jurisdiction, 257–8
 independence, 261–3
 nature of review, 267–8
 procedure, 263–5
 role of government policy, 268–9 specialist, generalist and super tribunals, 256–7
 standing to seek review, 266–7 transparency, 265–6 tribunal membership, 258–61
- administrative tribunal decisions status of tribunal decisions, 254–5
- amicus curiae, 365–7
- anti-corruption commissions. See standing investigative (anti-corruption) commissions
- apprehended bias exceptions to the rule against, 442 necessity, 443–4
 waiver, 442–3
- fair minded observer, 431–3 nature of the decision-maker, 433–5 situations giving rise to, 435 association, 439–40
 conduct, 438–9
 extraneous information, 440–2 interest, 435–8
- Attorney-General
 limits on judicial review and, 350–1

- Auditors-General
 independence, 147–8
 inquiry jurisdiction, process, and power, 146–7
 outcome of investigations, 148
- Australian Commission for Law Enforcement
 Integrity, 168
- Australian Law Reform Commission, 19, 52
- Australian Secret Intelligence Service, 42, 70
- Australian Security Intelligence Organisation, 42, 70, 117, 147
- bad faith
 as ground of review, 520–2
- bias rule, 430
 actual bias, 430–1
 apprehended bias. See apprehended bias
- Bland Report, 247
- Boilermakers' doctrine*, 28–9
- Cabinet, 37–40
 Cabinet confidentiality, 39
 informal nature of, 40
- Cabinet documents
 exemptions to freedom of information legislation and, 202–3
- Carltona* principle, 471, 472
- children overboard affair, 144
- Cole Inquiry, 165–6
- constitutional law
 administrative law and, 3–4
- Council of Australasian Tribunals, 260, 263
- Council of Australian Governments, 45, 203
- COVID-19 pandemic
 creation of National Cabinet, 44, 202 emergency powers during, 141 as example of a wicked problem, 18
 Victorian Ombudsman and, 151
- Crown
 definition, 27
 executive and, 26–8
 as tripartite institution, 27
- Crown immunity, 53–5
- data breaches
 Department of Immigration and Border Protection, 182–3
- Datafin* principle, 48, 51, 83
- delegated legislation
Constitution s 109 and, 104–5 judicial review of, 116–17
 improper purpose, 121–3
 scope of grants of delegated legislative power, 118–21 sub-delegation of legislative power, 127–8 uncertainty, 126–7
 unreasonableness and proportionality, 123–6
- legislative regulation and parliamentary review of, 105–6
- parliamentary scrutiny and disallowance, 110–15
- public consultation, regulatory impact statements and human rights compatibility, 106–9
- publication requirements, 109
- sunsetting, 115–16
- need for, 96–7
- types of delegated legislation and delegates, 93–4
- delegatus non potest delegare*, 99, 127
- documents
 access to documents through freedom of information legislation, 193–4
- Cabinet documents
 exemptions to freedom of information legislation and, 202–3
- deliberative documents, 204–9
- power to request documents, 139–41
- Documents on Australian Defence and Foreign Policy 1968–1975*, 179–80, 184
- executive
 Commonwealth and state executives, 44
- Crown and, 26–8
- as indivisible and plural entity, 31–2
- inferior courts and, 30–1
- judiciary and, 28–9
- parliament and, 30
- policy-making and, 87–8
- Executive Council, 33, 40–1, 60, 63, 68
- executive entities
 Cabinet, 37–40
- departments and the public service, 41–2
- Executive Council, 40–1
- Government Business Enterprises, 43
- King and his representatives, 32–4

- ministerial staff, 37
- ministers, 34–7
- statutory authorities, 42–3
- executive power
 - classes of executive power. See executive power, classes of
 - Commonwealth executive power, 57–8
 - scope of, 57
 - State executive power, 58
 - statutory powers. See statutory powers
- executive power, classes of, 59
 - executive power of the King, 63–4
 - Governor-General, 59
 - non-statutory powers. See non-statutory powers
 - powers conferred directly by the Constitution, 59
 - regulation of constitutional powers by statute, 64
 - reserve powers. See reserve powers
 - state governors, 63
- exemptions to freedom of information
 - legislation, 199–201
 - class-based exemptions
 - absolute or conditional exemptions, 203–4
 - Cabinet documents, 202–3
 - conditional exemptions
 - deliberative documents, 204–9
 - different approaches to the public interest test, 209–11
 - harm or prejudice element, 201–2
- Federal Circuit Court and Family Court of Australia, 295, 303–4, 306, 313
- Federal Court of Australia, 303, 306, 313
 - judicial review in, 302–3
- fettering discretion, 494–5
 - acting under dictation, 495–8
 - inflexible application of policy, 498–501
- Fitzgerald Inquiry, 163–6
- fraud
 - as ground of review, 519–20
- freedom of information
 - ongoing reform to administrative law and, 19
 - outsourcing and, 52
 - freedom of information legislation
 - access to official information through, 192–3
 - access to documents, 193–4
 - agencies covered, 195–6
 - exemptions. See exemptions to freedom of information legislation
 - fees and charges, 196
 - information about third parties, 196–8
 - objects of Commonwealth legislation, 190–1
 - obligations upon agencies, 191
- government accountability
 - modern challenges to, 17–18
 - outsourcing and privatisation, 17–18
 - wicked problems, 18
 - reasons for
 - democratic justifications of accountability, 8–10
 - individual rights justifications of accountability, 13–14
 - rule of law justifications of accountability, 10–12
- Government Business Enterprises, 43
- government organisation and structure
 - Commonwealth and state executives, 44
 - National Cabinet, 44–5
- Crown and the executive
 - terminology and constitutional framework, 26–8
- executive and inferior courts, 30–1
- executive and parliament, 30
- executive and the judiciary, 28–9
- executive as indivisible and plural entity, 31–2
- executive entities
 - Cabinet, 37–40
 - departments and the public service, 41–2
 - Executive Council, 40–1
 - ministerial staff, 37
 - ministers, 34–7
 - statutory authorities, 42–3
- Government Business Enterprises, 43
- King and his representatives, 32–4
- private bodies in the public sphere, 45–6
 - public law remedies for private bodies, 46–51
 - responding to outsourcing, 51–2
- public bodies in the private sphere, 53
 - Crown immunity, 53–5

- Governor-General
 - powers conferred directly by Constitution, 59
- grounds of review, 385–8
 - common law and constitutional judicial review grounds, 397–8
 - grounds in a common law case, 398–400
 - jurisdictional error and the common law grounds, 398
- fact and law distinguished, 388–90
 - identifying errors of law, 390–2
- failure to give proper, genuine and realistic consideration to the merits of a decision, 516–19
- grounds arising from the general law
 - bad faith, 520–2
 - fettering discretion, 494–501
 - fraud, 519–20
 - improper purpose, 488–94
 - irrationality or illogicality, 507–11
 - no evidence, 511–16
 - uncertainty, 522–4
 - unreasonableness, 501–7
- grounds arising from the statute conferring a power
 - improper delegation, 469–73
 - jurisdictional facts. See jurisdictional facts
 - mandatory and prohibited considerations. See mandatory and prohibited considerations
 - misconceiving the nature or scope of the power, 450–3
 - procedural error, 463–9
- statutory grounds, 392–4
 - grounds in a statutory judicial review case, 394–6
 - statutory review and jurisdictional error, 396–7
- Haneef* case, 66–8, 199–201, 450–1, 543
- hearing de novo, 229–30
 - difference between re-hearing, 231–3
- hearing rule, 418–22
 - consequences of the decision, 421
 - disclosure, 423–6
 - efficiency considerations, 422
 - nature of the decision, 421
 - notice, 422
 - opportunity to present a case
 - in response
 - adjournment of a hearing, 428–9
 - cross-examination of witnesses, 428
 - depth and breadth of material and argument, 429
 - form of the hearing, 426–7
 - legal representation, 427–8
 - statutory context, 420–1
 - urgency of the decision, 421–2
- Henry VIII clauses, 94, 99, 100
- High Court of Australia
 - judicial review in, 299–302
- Hindmarsh Island Bridge, 72, 161–2, 189–90, 206–8, 464, 480–2
- Home Insulation Program, 135–6
 - Royal Commission into the Home Insulation Program, 136
- human rights certificate, 107–8
- inferior courts
 - administrative decision-makers and, 324–5
 - executive and, 30–1
- judicial review
 - choosing a judicial review jurisdiction, 319–20
 - common law judicial review, 295–6
 - historical origins of common law judicial review, 297–9
 - superior and inferior courts, 296–7
 - concept of jurisdictional error, 320–2
 - errors held to be jurisdictional, or non-jurisdictional errors, 325–9
 - inferior courts and administrative decision-makers, 324–5
 - materiality and jurisdictional error, 329–34
 - when is an error ‘jurisdictional’, 322–4
 - of decisions made under the Migration Act 1958 (Cth), 303–4
 - of delegated legislation, 116–17
 - improper purpose, 121–3
 - scope of grants of delegated legislation, 118–21
 - uncertainty, 126–7

- unreasonableness and proportionality, 123–6
 - distinction between appeal and judicial review, 288–9
 - distinction between merits review, 227
 - emphasis on statutory construction, 291–2
 - errors of law on the face of the record, 334–5
 - the face of the record, 335–8
 - in the Federal Court, 302–3
 - grounds of review. See grounds of review
 - in the High Court, 299–302
 - limits on judicial review. See limits on judicial review
 - review of legality, 289–90
 - sources of judicial review jurisdiction, 293–5
 - of statutory and non-statutory powers, 290–3
 - statutory judicial review and the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Cth), 304–6
 - conduct, 309–11
 - decisions, 307–9
 - failure to decide, 311–13
 - judiciary
 - executive and, 28–9
 - jurisdictional error
 - common law grounds of review and, 398
 - concept of jurisdictional error, 320–2
 - errors held to be jurisdictional, or non-jurisdictional errors, 325–9
 - inferior courts and administrative decision-makers, 324–5
 - materiality and jurisdictional error, 329–34
 - when is an error ‘jurisdictional’, 322–4
 - statutory review and, 396–7
 - jurisdictional facts, 453
 - objective jurisdictional facts, 453–7
 - subjective jurisdictional facts, 457–62
 - justiciability, 341–3
 - source of the power, 343
 - status of the decision-maker, 344
 - and statutory judicial review, 348–9
 - subject matter of the decision, 344–8
 - Kable* principle, 12, 29, 254
 - Kerr Committee, 149, 228–9, 247, 272, 304
 - King
 - executive power of, 63–4
 - King’s representatives
 - power to dissolve parliament, 62
 - statutory powers, 67–8
 - legislation
 - scrutiny of legislation, 137
 - legislative power
 - concerns over delegation of, 95–6
 - regulated through contractual terms, 95–6
 - executive officers lack democratic credentials of parliamentarians, 95
 - executive process lacks transparency and publicity of parliamentary process, 95
 - constitutional questions on the delegation of, 99
 - delegating parliament’s supervisory role, 102–3
 - exercise of power and the principle of legality, 103–4
 - restrictions on delegation deriving from the separation of powers, 99–102
 - delegated legislative power, 90
 - executive exercise of legislative power, 91–3
 - when to delegate legislative power, 322–4
- limits on judicial review
 - Attorney-General and relator actions, 350–1
 - conferral of non-compellable powers, 378–80
 - justiciability, 341–3
 - source of the power, 343
 - status of the decision-maker, 344
 - and statutory judicial review, 348–9
 - subject matter of the decision, 344–8
 - no-invalidity clauses, 376–8
 - privative clauses, 367–70
 - in the Commonwealth jurisdiction, 370–3
 - in the states, 374–5
 - today, 375–6
 - restricting access to information and admissibility of evidence relevant to judicial review, 381–3
 - restrictive time limits on commencing judicial review proceedings, 380–1

- limits on judicial review (cont.)
 - standing to commence judicial review
 - proceedings, 349
 - amicus curiae, 365–7
 - interveners, 363–5
 - involvement of other parties, 362–7
 - private individuals with an interest greater than the general public, 351–3
 - special damage and special interest, 353–4
 - standing cases since ACF v Cth, 356–62
 - standing tests and statutory judicial review, 355–6
 - standing tests for prerogative writs, 354–5
 - Little Children are Sacred*, 167
- mandatory and prohibited considerations, 474–6
 - failing to take into account mandatory considerations, 476–83
 - taking into account prohibited considerations, 483–6
- merits review
 - in Australia, 228–9
 - distinction between judicial review, 227
 - internal and external merits review
 - courts with merits review jurisdiction, 239–41
 - external review, 238–9
 - internal review, 237–8
 - legislation creating a right of merits review, 241
 - appeal to a court, 244
 - internal review, 241–2
 - review by a generalist tribunal, 242
 - review by a specialist body, 242–4
 - merits review decisions
 - judicial review of, and appeal from, 241
 - merits review, judicial review and appeals, 227–8
 - nature of review
 - re-hearings and hearings de novo, 229–33
 - reasons why merits review inappropriate, 236–7
 - reasons why merits review provided, 233–7
- ability of merits review body to substitute own decision, 234–5
- accessibility, 233
- accountability, 233
- attractive remedies, 234
- flexibility, 235
- improve quality and consistency of decision-making, 233
- informality, 233–4
- lower costs, 234
- ministerial advisers, 144–5
 - code of conduct, 145
- ministerial staff, 37
- ministers, 34–7
 - statutory powers of ministers
 - delegation, 68
 - discretion, 68–9
- National Cabinet, 44–5, 203
- National Federation Reform Council, 45
- National School Chaplaincy Program, 80, 81
- no-invalidity clauses, 376–8
- non-statutory powers, 74–6
 - common law capacities, 75, 78
 - distribution of common law capacities between the Commonwealth and state executives, 78–81
 - reviewability of common law capacities, 81–4
 - Commonwealth executive nationhood power, 75, 84–7
 - prerogative power, 75–8
 - division among Commonwealth and states, 77–8
 - King’s representative and, 77
 - static nature of, 77
- Northern Territory Emergency Response, 167
- Office of the Australian Information Commissioner
 - Department of Immigration and Border Protection data breach and, 183
- official information
 - access by application through freedom of information legislation, 192–3
 - access to documents, 193–4
 - agencies covered, 195–6
 - exemptions, 199–211

- fees and charges, 196
- information about third parties, 196–8
- review of access decision, 211–13
- managing official information, 181
 - information management, preservation and security, 181–3
 - rethinking official information, 183–5
- obligations to disclose, 187–8
 - disclosure to individuals affected, 191–2
 - notices, 189–90
 - proactive publication through freedom of information legislation, 190–1
 - reports, 188–9
- protecting official information, 175–6
 - confidential information, 178–80
 - duties of public servants, 176–7
 - official secrets legislation, 177–8
 - public interest immunity in legal proceedings, 180–1
- unofficial disclosure
 - leaks, 185–6
 - public interest disclosure, 186–7
- ombudsmen, 149–50
 - independence, 154–6
 - inquiry jurisdiction, 150–3
 - outcome of investigations, 156–9
 - process and powers, 154
- outsourcing, 46
 - The Contracting Out of Government Services*, 51–2, 84
 - freedom of information and, 52
 - government accountability and, 17–18
 - responding to outsourcing, 51–2
- parliament
 - delegating parliament's supervisory role, 102–3
 - executive and, 30
 - persona designata*, 29, 254
 - policy-making
 - executive and, 87–8
 - prerogative power, 75–8, 291
 - division among Commonwealth and states, 77–8
 - King's representative and, 77
 - static nature of, 77
 - prerogative writs, 30, 83, 297–9, 301, 532–7
 - standing tests for prerogative writs, 354–5
 - principle of legality, 64–5
 - delegation of legislative power and, 103–4
 - privative clauses
 - limits on judicial review and, 367–70
 - privative clauses in the Commonwealth jurisdiction, 370–3
 - privative clauses in the states, 374–5
 - privative clauses today, 375–6
 - procedural error, 463–9
 - gravity of the procedural error, 467–8
 - other means of giving effect to the statutory requirement, 468–9
 - significance of the procedure in the statutory scheme, 467
 - timing of the procedure, 468
 - wording of the statutory requirement, 466–7
 - procedural fairness, 402–3
 - bias rule, 430
 - actual bias, 430–1
 - apprehended bias, 431–44
 - consequences of a denial of procedural fairness, 444–7
 - hearing rule, 418–22
 - disclosure, 423–6
 - notice, 422
 - opportunity to present a case in response, 426–30
 - statutory exclusion of the rules of procedural fairness, 411–18
 - threshold test, 403–4
 - 'direct and immediate' effect on individual interests, 409–11
 - historical development and Kioa v West, 404–7
 - multi-stage decision-making, 411
 - rights, interests and legitimate expectations, 407–9
 - public investigatory bodies, 132–3
 - investigation and scrutiny through parliament, 146
 - committees, 143–5
 - government's explanatory responsibility to parliament, 139
 - power to ask questions, 142
 - power to request documents, 139–41

- public investigatory bodies (cont.)
 - responsible government, 134–7
 - scrutiny of legislation, 137
 - scrutiny of taxation and expenditure, 137–9
- other investigatory bodies
 - Auditors-General, 146–8
 - ombudsmen, 149–59
 - royal commissions, 159–67
 - standing investigative (anti-corruption) commissions, 167–72
- public sector information, 184–5
- question time, 142
- reasons for decisions, 213
 - consequences for failure to provide any, or adequate, reasons, 220
 - no right to reasons at common law, 213–15
 - providing reasons is good practice, 215–16
 - standard of reasons requirement, 219–20
 - statutory obligations of administrative decision makers to give reasons, 216–19
- record
 - Australian courts and, 337
 - in common law, 335–6
 - errors of law on the face of the record, 335–8
 - legislation and, 337
- regulatory impact statements
 - Commonwealth regulatory instruments, 108
 - delegated legislation, 107
- re-hearing, 231
 - difference between hearing de novo, 231–3
- remedies
 - equitable remedies, 537–8
 - declaration, 539–40
 - injunction, 538–9
 - remedies in statutory judicial review, 540–1
- reserve powers, 33, 34, 60
 - nature and desirability of the reserve powers, 62–3
 - power to commission a government, 60–1
 - power to dismiss a government, 61
 - power to dissolve parliament, 62
- responsible government, 134–7
 - collective responsibility of ministers, 134
 - doctrine of responsible government, 8, 30, 176, 458
 - foundation in convention, 134–5
 - individual responsibility of ministers, 134–7
 - neutrality of the public service, 135
- robodebt, 175
- Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse, 162, 163
- Royal Commission into the Home Insulation Program, 39, 162
- royal commissions, 159
 - independence, 165–6
 - inquiry jurisdiction, 162–5
 - outcome of investigations, 166–7
 - procedural fairness and, 160
 - process and powers, 159–62
 - ‘publicness’ of, 160–1
- rule of law
 - features of, 10
 - rule of law justifications of accountability, 10–12
- Senate Select Committee on a Certain Maritime Incident, 144–5
- separation of powers, 17
 - Commonwealth level, 28–9
 - restrictions on delegation of legislative power deriving from separation of powers, 99–102
 - state level, 58–9
- shield of the Crown. See Crown immunity
- soft law, 93
- standing cases since ACF v Cth, 356
 - indirect cases, 356–59
 - public interest groups, 359–62
- standing investigative (anti-corruption) commissions, 167
 - independence, 171–2
 - inquiry jurisdiction, process, and power, 167–71
 - outcome of investigations, 172
- statutory authorities, 42–3
- statutory interpretation
 - administrative law and, 16–17
 - primacy of statutory interpretation, 64–7

- statutory powers
 - advantages and disadvantages of statutory power, 73–4
 - constitutional limits of statutory powers, 71–3
 - delegated legislative powers and judicial powers of inferior courts, 71
 - primacy of statutory interpretation, 64–7
 - statutory powers invested in statutory authorities, cross vested powers, and private entities, 70–1
 - statutory powers of ministers and public servants
 - delegation, 68
 - discretion, 68–9
 - statutory powers of the King’s representatives, 67–8
- sunsetting, 115–16
- super tribunals, 281–3
- UN Oil-For-Food Programme. See Cole Inquiry
- unlawful action, consequences of, 526–30
- choosing the appropriate combination of remedies, 541–3
- collateral proceedings, 546–7
- discretion not to grant a remedy, 543–5
- no damages, 545–6
- putting things right, 531
- remedies, 532
 - equitable remedies, 537–40
 - prerogative writs, 532–7
 - remedies in statutory judicial review, 540–1
- whistleblowers
 - official secrets legislation and, 178
 - protection of whistleblowers, 186–7
- wicked problems, 18
 - COVID-19 pandemic as, 18
- writ of certiorari, 335, 354, 533–4
- writ of mandamus, 294, 298–9, 301, 354, 535–7
- writ of prohibition, 294, 299, 301, 354, 534–5