

CONTENTS

Preface	xiii
Acknowledgements	xiv
About the authors	xvi
Table of cases	xvii
Table of statutes	xxxviii
1 Introduction	1
A brief historical context	2
Administrative law and constitutional law	3
Why do we need administrative law?	5
Unique powers of the executive	5
To keep the executive branch accountable	6
In search of a rationale for administrative law	7
Why accountability?	8
Democratic justifications of accountability	8
Rule of law justifications of accountability	10
Separation of powers justifications of accountability	12
Individual rights justifications of accountability	13
Accountability for what ? Administrative law values	14
How to achieve accountability? Administrative law mechanisms	16
Administrative law and statutory interpretation	16
Modern accountability: some challenges	17
Ongoing reform	19
The rest of this book	20
PART I ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION-MAKING	23
2 Organisation and structure of government	25
Introduction	26
The Crown and the executive: terminology and constitutional framework	26
The executive and the judiciary	28
The executive and parliament	30
The executive and inferior courts	30
The executive as an indivisible and plural entity	31
Executive entities	32
The King and his representatives	32
The ministers (including the Prime Minister, Premiers and Chief Ministers) and their staff	34
The Cabinet	37

The Executive Council	40
The departments and the public service	41
Statutory authorities	42
Government Business Enterprises ('GBEs')	43
The Commonwealth and state executives	44
The National Cabinet	44
Private bodies in the public sphere	45
Public law remedies for private bodies	46
Responding to outsourcing	51
Public bodies in the private sphere	53
Crown immunity	53
Conclusion	55
3 Administrative powers	56
Introduction	57
Commonwealth executive power	57
State executive power	58
Classes of executive power	58
Powers conferred directly by the Constitution	59
Statutory powers	64
Non-statutory powers	74
The Commonwealth executive nationhood power	84
The executive and policy-making	87
Conclusion	88
4 Delegated legislation	89
Introduction	90
Executive exercise of legislative power	91
Types of delegated legislation and delegates	93
Concerns over delegation of legislative power	95
The need for delegated legislation	96
When to delegate legislative power	97
Constitutional questions	99
Restrictions on delegation deriving from the separation of powers (Commonwealth)	99
Delegating parliament's supervisory role	102
Delegated power must be exercised within constitutional limits and in accordance with the principle of legality	103
Delegated legislation and s 109 of the Constitution	104
Legislative regulation and parliamentary review of delegated legislation	105
Public consultation, regulatory impact statements, and human rights compatibility	106
Publication requirements	109
Parliamentary scrutiny and disallowance	110
Sunsetting	115

Judicial review of delegated legislation	116
The scope of grants of delegated legislative power	118
Improper purpose	121
Unreasonableness and proportionality	123
Uncertainty	126
Sub-delegation of legislative power	127
Conclusion	128
PART II PUBLIC ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISMS	129
5 Public investigatory bodies	131
Introduction	132
Investigation and scrutiny through parliament	134
Responsible government	134
Scrutiny of legislation	137
Scrutiny of taxation and expenditure	137
Government's explanatory responsibility to parliament	139
Power to request documents	139
Power to ask questions	142
Committees	143
Summary	146
Other investigatory bodies	146
Auditors-General	146
Ombudsmen	149
Royal commissions	159
Standing investigative (anti-corruption) commissions	167
Conclusion	172
6 Information disclosure	173
Introduction	174
Protecting official information	175
The duties of public servants	176
Official secrets legislation	177
Confidential information	178
Public interest immunity in legal proceedings	180
Managing official information	181
Information management, preservation and security	181
Rethinking official information	183
Unofficial disclosure	185
Leaks	185
Public interest disclosure: whistleblower protection	186
Obligations to disclose	187
Reports	188
Notices	189
Proactive publication: freedom of information legislation	190

Disclosure to individuals affected	191
Access by application: freedom of information legislation	192
Access to documents	193
Agencies covered	195
Fees and charges	196
Information about third parties	196
Exemptions	199
Review of access decisions	211
Reasons for decisions	213
No right to reasons at common law	213
Providing reasons is good practice	215
Statutory obligations of administrative decision makers to give reasons	216
What is the standard of reasons required?	219
Consequences for failure to provide any, or adequate, reasons	220
Conclusion	220
PART III MERITS REVIEW	223
7 Review on the merits	225
Introduction	226
Merits review, judicial review and appeals	227
Merits review in Australia	228
Nature of review: re-hearings and hearings de novo	229
Why merits review?	233
Internal and external merits review	237
Internal review	237
External review	238
Courts with merits review jurisdiction	239
Judicial review of, and appeal from, merits review decisions	241
Examples of legislation creating a right of merits review	241
Example 1: Internal review	241
Example 2: Review by a generalist tribunal	242
Example 3: Review by a specialist body	242
Example 4: Appeal to a court	244
Conclusion	244
8 Administrative review tribunals	246
Introduction	247
What is a ‘tribunal’?	248
Constitutional issues for tribunals	250
Commonwealth tribunals	250
State and territory tribunals	252
Status of tribunal decisions	254
Issues of tribunal design	255
Specialist, generalist, and super tribunals	256
Conferral of jurisdiction	258

Tribunal membership	258
Independence	262
Procedure	263
Transparency	266
Standing to seek review	267
Nature of review	267
The role of government policy	268
Appeal from and review of tribunal decisions	270
The Australian administrative tribunal framework	271
Commonwealth merits review tribunals	271
Administrative Appeals Tribunal	272
State and territory administrative review tribunals	281
Conclusion	284
PART IV JUDICIAL REVIEW	285
9 Introduction to judicial review	287
Introduction	288
The distinction between appeal and judicial review	288
Judicial review: review of legality	289
Judicial review of statutory and non-statutory powers, and the emphasis on statutory construction	290
Sources of judicial review jurisdiction	293
Common law judicial review	295
Superior and inferior courts	296
Historical origins of common law judicial review jurisdiction	297
Judicial review in the High Court	299
Judicial review in the Federal Court	302
Judicial review of decisions made under the Migration Act 1958 (Cth)	303
Statutory judicial review and the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Cth)	304
Decisions	307
Conduct	309
Failure to decide	311
What decisions are subject to review under the AD(JR) Act ?	313
Choosing a judicial review jurisdiction: which court? which avenue?	319
The concept of jurisdictional error	320
When is an error 'jurisdictional'?	322
Inferior courts and administrative decision-makers	324
What kinds of errors have been held to be jurisdictional, or non-jurisdictional, errors?	325
Materiality and jurisdictional error	329
Errors of law on the face of the record	334
The face of the record	335
Conclusion	338

10 Limits on judicial review	339
Introduction	340
Justiciability	341
Source of the power	343
Status of the decision-maker	344
Subject matter of the decision	344
Justiciability and statutory judicial review	348
Standing to commence judicial review proceedings	349
The Attorney-General and relator actions	350
Private individuals with an interest greater than the general public	351
Special damage and special interest	353
Standing tests for prerogative writs	354
Standing tests and statutory judicial review	355
Standing cases since ACF v Commonwealth	356
Involvement of other parties	362
Privative clauses	367
Privative clauses in the Commonwealth jurisdiction: Plaintiff S157	370
Privative clauses in the states: Kirk	374
After Plaintiff S157 and Kirk : privative clauses today	375
No-invalidity clauses	376
Conferral of non-compellable powers	378
Restrictive time limits on commencing judicial review proceedings	380
Restricting access to information and admissibility of evidence relevant to judicial review	381
Conclusion	383
11 Introduction to the grounds of review	384
Introduction	385
What are grounds of review?	385
Fact and law distinguished	388
Case study: Identifying errors of law	390
Statutory grounds	392
Case study: Grounds in a statutory judicial review case	394
Statutory review and jurisdictional error	396
Common law and constitutional judicial review grounds	397
Jurisdictional error and the common law grounds	398
Case study: Grounds in a common law case	398
Conclusion	400
12 Procedural fairness	401
Introduction	402
The threshold test: when do the rules of procedural fairness apply?	403
Historical development and Kioa	404
Rights and interests	407
'Direct and immediate' effect on individual interests	409

Multi-stage decision-making	411
Statutory exclusion of the rules of procedural fairness	411
The hearing rule	418
Notice	422
Disclosure	423
Opportunity to present a case in response	426
The bias rule	430
Actual bias	430
Apprehended bias	431
Situations giving rise to apprehended bias	435
Exceptions to the rule against apprehended bias	442
Consequences of a denial of procedural fairness	444
Conclusion	447
13 Grounds arising from the statute conferring a power	448
Introduction	449
Misconceiving the nature or scope of the power	450
Jurisdictional facts	453
Objective jurisdictional facts	453
Subjective jurisdictional facts	457
Procedural error	463
Improper delegation	469
Mandatory and prohibited considerations	474
Failing to take into account mandatory considerations	476
Taking into account prohibited considerations	483
Conclusion	486
14 Grounds arising from the general law	487
Introduction	488
Improper purpose	488
Fettering discretion	494
Acting under dictation	495
Inflexible application of policy	498
Unreasonableness	501
Irrationality or illogicality	507
No evidence	511
Failure to give proper, genuine and realistic consideration to the merits of a decision	516
Fraud	519
Bad faith	520
Uncertainty	522
Conclusion	524
15 Consequences of unlawful action	525
Introduction	526
Consequences of unlawful action	526

xii CONTENTS

Putting things right	531
Remedies	532
Prerogative writs	532
Equitable remedies	537
Remedies in statutory judicial review	540
Choosing the appropriate combination of remedies	541
Discretion not to grant a remedy	543
No damages	545
Private and public law intertwined: collateral proceedings	546
Conclusion	547
Index	549