

Contents

Acknowledgments page viii

PART I

INTRODUCTION TO PART I: SHAKESPEARE AND THE POLITICAL	3
1 Julius Caesar and Reified Power: The End of Shakespeare's Machiavellian Moment	27
2 Macbeth : A Tragedy of Force	42
3 Baroque Aesthetics and Witches in Macbeth	60

PART II

INTRODUCTION TO PART II: SHAKESPEARE AND THE AESTHETIC-UTOPIAN	91
4 From the Political to the Aesthetic-Utopian in Antony and Cleopatra	111
5 Tyranny, Imagination, and the Aesthetic-Utopian in The Winter's Tale	151
6 The Political, the Aesthetic, and the Utopian in The Tempest : Enchantment in a Disenchanted World	193
Bibliography	231
Index	245