

Index

- abbreviations
  - as new words 25, 100–1
- accents 29
- accommodate
  - morphemes in 38
- acronyms
  - as new words 25
- acyanopsia
  - learning how to spell word 40, 57–9
- affixes 34–6
- alphabets
  - Latin alphabet 6, 22, 27–8
  - and origins of writing 27
- anatomy of the mouth
  - and pronunciation 30–1
- Anglo-Saxons 18–19
- assessment
  - assessing spelling in use 83–9
  - diagnosing spelling challenges 84–6
  - diagnostic assessment 87–9
  - purpose 84
  - words to assess 83–4
- base words 36–7
- bicycle
  - spelling of word 4–5, 8
- Bikini atoll 98
- Bloomer, Amelia Jenks 97
- Bluetooth technology 26
- bound base words 36
- Burnside, Ambrose Everett 97
- Cardigan, Earl of 97
- Carroll, Lewis 24
- Caxton, William 95
- Celtic languages 18
- children's writing
  - most frequently used words 112–20
- colour
  - and meaning of words 98
- commercial spelling programs 46, 75–6
- compound words 24, 35
- comprehension 52–3
- conceptual knowledge 71
- copy-editing 91–2
- correcting spelling 91–2
- courageous
  - meaning and spelling of word 65–6
- derivational affixes 36
- derivational morphemes 48
- diagnostic assessment 87–9
- dictionaries
  - first production 23
  - Samuel Johnson's dictionary 23, 31–2
  - Webster's Dictionary 32
- direction
  - instruction on how to spell 50–2
- dyslexia 49
- Early Modern English 20–1
- English as an Additional Language (EAL/D) learners 49
- English language
  - adoption of indigenous terms 96–7
  - as alphabetic language 28
  - distinct sounds and letter combinations 7
  - Early Modern English 20–1
  - French words 19–20, 96
  - history of 17–22
  - Latin alphabet 6, 22, 27–8
  - Latin words in 18–19
  - Middle English 19–20
  - Modern English 21
  - as morpho-phonemic language 8–11, 24
  - Old English 18–19, 22
  - as polyglot language 7
  - spelling history 21
  - standardisation 22–3
  - See also* pronunciation
- eponyms 25, 97–8
- etymology 8, 17
  - history of English language 17–22
  - new word creation 24–5
  - usefulness for spelling 25–6
- explicit teaching of spelling 43–6, 57, 63–9
- Flemish language
  - impact on English spelling 95

- flora and fauna
  - words to describe 99–100
- free base words 36
- French language
  - incorporation of words into English 19–20, 96
- frequent words 53–5
- German language
  - distinct sounds and letter combinations 6
- graphemes 28–9
- incidental teaching 67–9
- inflectional affixes 36
- inflectional morphemes 48
- inflectional suffixes 70
- integrated approach to spelling
  - instruction 52–6, 58–9, 90–1
- intelligence
  - and spelling ability 4
- Johnson, Samuel 23
- Joule, James Prescott 42
- language knowledge 70–1
- Latin alphabet
  - use in English language 6, 22, 27–8
- Latin words
  - incorporated into English 18–19, 95–6
- Leotard, Jules 97
- linguistics 17
- literacy learning difficulties 49
- low-achieving spellers 49
- low socioeconomic status students 49
- Macadam, John 25, 97
- McAdam, John 97
- meaning of words
  - changes over time 101
  - as starting point for spelling instruction 41–2, 57
- Mesmer, Franz Anton 97
- Middle English 19–20
- misspelled words 123–4
- Modern English 21
- monitoring spelling 89–90
- morphemes
  - common English morphemes 103–10
  - not always obvious 101–2
  - teaching about 48–9
  - understanding 34–5
  - usefulness for spelling 37–8
- morphological knowledge 48
- morphology 8, 34–8
- morpho-phonemic languages 8, 24
- mouth anatomy
  - and pronunciation 30–1
- mythical words 99
- National Assessment Plan (NAPLAN)
  - common words identified by 121–3
- natural spellers 3
- Norse language 19
- numbers
  - and word meanings 100
- Old English 18–19, 22
- onomatopoeic words 25, 98
- orthography 8, 31–4
- patterns in spelling 96
- phishing 26
- phonemes 28
- phonics-based approaches 7, 44–5
- phonological knowledge 48
- phonological mismatches 29
- phonological skills 47
- phonology 8, 27–31
- portmanteau words 24–5, 100
- prefixes 34
- printing press
  - Flemish spelling 95
  - and standardisation of spelling 23
- pronunciation
  - accents 29
  - leading spelling 30
  - and mouth anatomy 30–1
  - of English 7
  - silent letters 17, 96
- reading comprehension 52–3
- records of teaching and learning 89–90
- repertoire theory of spelling
  - acquisition 46
- rote learning 43–4
- Sandwich, Earl of 25
- school
  - spelling of word 33–4
- school success
  - and spelling ability 11–12, 52–3
- silent letters 17, 23, 29, 96
- sounding out 6–8, 47–8
- spelling
  - definition 4
  - nature of 5–6
  - and writing 78–9
- spelling ability
  - and intelligence 4
  - as learned skill 2–4
  - and school success 11–12, 52–3
- spelling conventions 32

- spelling detective game 74–5
- spelling diagnosis framework 85–6
- spelling instruction
  - and assessment 12–13
  - explicit teaching of spelling 43–6, 57
  - importance of 44
  - integrated approach 52–6, 58–9, 90–1
  - key principles 40
  - need for word knowledge 13
  - spelling knowledge 46–52, 58
  - start with meaning 41–2, 57
  - underlying assumptions 2–3
  - words to teach 53–5
- spelling knowledge
  - repertoire development 69
  - repertoire of 46–52, 58
- spelling programs
  - 10-step planning process 63–4
  - applying multiple lens to words 71
  - assessing spelling in use 83–9
  - commercial spelling programs 46, 75–6
  - incidental teaching 67–9
  - integration in all learning areas 11–12
  - meta-awareness of words 71–2
  - planned explicit teaching 63–9
  - plausible linguistic competence levels 64–6
  - practice in authentic contexts 64–74
  - principles 64
  - teaching and learning records 89–90
  - word selection 65–7
  - words in context 66
- spelling reforms 16, 22–3, 26, 32
- Spelling Scope and Sequence
  - kindergarten 128–9
  - Year 1 128–9
  - Year 2 129–31
  - Year 3 131–4
  - Year 4 131–5
  - Years 5, 6 and secondary 135
- standardisation of spelling 23
- student spelling journals 71–2, 78
- suffixes 34–5
- teaching and learning records 89–90
- teaching spelling. See spelling instruction
- underachieving spellers 76–8
- useful words 55
- Vikings 19
- vocabulary building 41–2, 70
- Watt, James 42
- Webster, Noah 32
- Webster's Dictionary 32
- 'wh' letter pattern 16–17
- whole language approaches 44
- word knowledge
  - and teaching spelling 13
- word selection
  - for spelling programs 67–71
- word walls 71–2, 78
- words
  - base words 36–7
  - changing meanings over time 101
  - colours and meaning 98
  - common words identified by NAPLAN 121–3
  - creation of new words 26
  - eponyms 24–5, 42, 97–8
  - exploring history and meaning 8–11
  - flora and fauna 99–100
  - most frequently misspelled 123–4
  - most frequently occurring in English 112–16
  - most frequently used 53–5
  - most frequently used in children's writing 117–20
  - most frequently used in English 112–16
  - mythical words 99
  - numbers 100
  - onomatopoeic words 25, 98
  - portmanteau words 100
  - stories about 2–4
  - useful words 55
- words, ways into 111–25
- written language
  - first alphabets 27
- yacht
  - spelling of 10