

Contents

List of Figures	xi
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv
Citations of Case Law	xvii
List of Abbreviations	xix
1 Setting the Scene	1
1.1 Goals and Limitations	1
1.2 Article 13 in Brief	4
1.3 Uncertainty and Development	7
2 Analysis and Selection of Case Law	13
2.1 Introduction	13
2.2 Selection of Case Law	13
2.3 How to Extract Guidance from the Court's Case Law?	15
2.4 The Court's Method of Interpretation	18
2.5 The Wider Precedential Effects of the Court's Case Law	23
2.6 Legal Literature and Article 13	24
2.7 Comparative Analyses	25
3 The Requirement of Effectiveness in Abstract	28
3.1 Introduction	28
3.2 Functions and Purposes	29
3.3 Access to Justice	34
3.4 Substantive Redress	37
3.4.1 Introduction	37
3.4.2 Correct Injustice	38

3.4.3	Deterrence	40
3.4.4	Accountability and Retribution	42
3.4.5	Restorative Justice and Reconciliation	43
4	Historical and Statistical Overview	45
4.1	Introduction	45
4.2	Article 13 in the Travaux Préparatoires	45
4.3	The Court's Application of Article 13	52
4.4	A Choice between Norm Complexes?	61
4.5	Article 13 and Substantive Articles	63
4.5.1	Introduction	63
4.5.2	Article 6	64
4.5.3	Articles 2 and 3	75
4.5.4	Article 5	76
4.5.5	Article 8	78
4.5.6	Article 9	80
4.5.7	Article 10	81
4.5.8	Article 11	81
4.5.9	Article 14	82
4.5.10	P1 Article 1	83
5	Relationship with the Rule on Exhaustion of Domestic Remedies	86
6	Scope of Application	92
6.1	Introduction	92
6.2	Material Scope	92
6.3	Personal Scope	93
6.4	Territorial Scope	95
6.5	Temporal Scope	96
7	The Arguability Test	98
7.1	Introduction	98
7.2	Arguability and the Scope of Application of Substantive Rights	100
7.3	Arguability and the Notion of "Manifestly Ill-Founded"	102
7.3.1	Same or Different Threshold?	102
7.3.2	Threshold for Declaring a Case "Manifestly Ill-Founded"	104
7.3.3	A New Start	108

Contents

vii

8	A Relative Standard	110
9	General Requirements and Principles	115
9.1	Introduction	115
9.2	A Personal Right	115
9.3	Aggregate of Remedies	117
9.4	Effective in Practice as well as in Law	120
10	Access to Justice	128
10.1	Introduction	128
10.2	The National Authority	128
10.3	Procedural Safeguards	130
10.3.1	Article 13 and Procedural Safeguards under Substantive Articles	130
10.3.2	Impartiality and Independence	132
10.3.3	Burden of Proof, Facts, and Evidence	134
10.3.4	Publication, Transparency, and Access to Documents and Information	139
10.3.5	Legal Assistance	142
10.3.6	Exemption from Court Fees	143
10.3.7	Adversarial Proceedings	143
10.4	The Powers of the National Authority	144
10.5	The Scope of Domestic Review	146
10.5.1	Introduction	146
10.5.2	No Requirement to Incorporate the Convention	147
10.5.3	No Right to Challenge Primary Legislation as Such	148
10.5.4	The Substance of the Complaint	162
10.6	Prospect of Success	171
10.7	Speed	174
11	Redress	176
11.1	Introduction	176
11.2	Declaratory Relief	178
11.3	Individual Prevention	179
11.3.1	Introduction	179
11.3.2	Suspensive Effect	180
11.3.3	Decision before a Planned Action	185
11.3.4	Stop (Put an End to) Continuous Violations	186

11.4	Restitution	195
11.5	Compensation	197
	11.5.1 Introduction	197
	11.5.2 Compensation Necessary?	198
	11.5.3 Level of Compensation	202
	11.5.4 Compensation from Whom?	209
	11.5.5 Time of Payment	209
11.6	Individual Guarantees and Assurances against Nonrepetition	210
11.7	Effective Investigations	211
	11.7.1 Introduction	211
	11.7.2 Relationship with Substantive Articles	214
	11.7.3 Concrete and Abstract Differences	226
	11.7.4 An Autonomous Right to Know the Truth?	231
	11.7.5 Identification, Punishment, and Establishment of Liability	235
	11.7.6 Relationship with Other Requirements	236
11.8	Other Nonmonetary Remedies	237
11.9	Enforcement	240
12	A Normative and Contextual Reading	242
12.1	Introduction	242
12.2	Fundamental Normative Concepts, Values, and Structures	243
	12.2.1 Introduction	243
	12.2.2 The Concept of a Right	245
	12.2.3 Perceptions of Law and Human Rights	249
	12.2.4 Democracy and Judicial Review	252
	12.2.5 The Principle of Subsidiarity	255
	12.2.6 The Margin of Appreciation	259
	12.2.7 The Rule of Law	260
	12.2.8 The Functions of the Court	261
12.3	Der Zeitgeist of Convention Law	265
	12.3.1 Introduction	265
	12.3.2 The Court from Past to Present	266
	12.3.3 The Current Reform Process	268
	12.3.4 Constitutional Pluralism	271
	12.3.5 Development of Law and Society	274

	Contents	ix
13	Conclusions and Recommendations	277
13.1	Introduction	277
13.2	More Procedural Review, Less Substantive Review	278
13.3	More Principled and Abstract Reasoning	291
	Bibliography	301
	Index	339