

Index

- AARP, 15
- accessibility, 123, 126–129. See also entry points
 to activities
 expanding platforms for, 153
 financial, 127
 fluid activity entry points, 127–128
 physical, 126–127
- activity formats
 beyond mid-pandemic, 147–148
 mid-pandemic, 142, 142, 146–147, 149–150
- activity leaders, 105–106, 145, 151–152, 157–158, 168–173
- activity participation, 24–27. See also music
 participation activities
- advertising senior center activities, 24, 31. See also
 marketing senior centers
- advocacy
 for programming change, 8–9
 social action, 32
- age in place, 46
- aging population demands, 7, 31–32
- Alzheimer's disease, 46, 48, 59, 63, 115, 124. See also cognitive decline; mental health services
- American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) Foundation, 15
- attitude
 negative, 111–112
 positive, 132
- baby boomers, 32–33, 48, 67, 122, 157
- Better Living Senior Center, 49–51, 79, 83–85, 87–92
- Caesar's Foundation, 15
- The Center for Healthy Aging, 57–59, 69–71, 74–76
- challenges and barriers
 for senior centers, 30–32, 30, 55, 57, 59, 64
 for senior clientele, 112–113
- choirs/choruses, 86–90
- cognitive decline, 115, 150, 156. See also Alzheimer's disease
- collaborations. See partnerships and collaborations
- community music education, 9, 151–152, 158
- community-based centers, 12, 31, 122–123, 158
- concert bands, 69–73
- conclusions and recommendations, 93–98, 152–153
- connection with others, 25, 97–98, 115–117, 129–131, 149
- continuing education. See lifelong learning
- dance and movement, 132, 150–151, 158, 174–179, 174
- demographic statistics
 Better Living Senior Center, 48–50
 Center for Healthy Aging, 57–58
 ethnicity/race, 18, 95
 Good Hope Senior Center, 51–52
 mid-pandemic, 142, 143
 Mountain View Senior Center,
 55–57
 nationwide senior center count, 7
 The Senior Place, 59
 Sunnyside Senior Center, 44–45, 47–48
- depression, 21–22, 24, 115
- diversification of programs, 15
- diversity
 categories of, 41
 cultural, 51, 61, 64, 78–79, 91, 122, 153
 ethnic/racial, 9, 47–55, 92
 lack of in research studies, 41
 mid-pandemic vs. pre-pandemic, 140–141
 in music audiences, 77
 in music-making groups, 71–74, 76, 78–79, 81, 83–84, 88–90, 92
 at The Senior Place, 61, 78–79, 92
 socioeconomic, 43

- entry points to activities, 7, 108, 118, 145, 152.
See also fluid activity entry points
- facility types and sizes, 13, 55, 124
- fees, 51, 54, 57, 123, 140–143
- fitness
- activities/classes, 14, 21, 53, 60, 63
 - amenities, 52, 56
 - senior center promotion of, 8, 50, 132
- Flanagan's quality of life model, 135
- fluid activity entry points, 94–95, 108, 118, 129, 152, 159
- food insecurity, 63. See also nutrition services
- funding sources
- for Better Living Senior Center, 48–51
 - for Center for Healthy Aging, 58–59
 - for Good Hope Senior Center, 48–55
 - for Mountain View Senior Center, 57
 - for The Senior Place, 61
 - for Sunnyside Senior Center, 48
- current national status of, 13
- diversifying, 11, 157
- government, 124, 152
- lack of, 30–31, 48, 124
- mid-pandemic, 141–142, 149
- Fung, C. Victor, 3, 5, 41, 98, 117
- German and polka bands, 74–76
- giving to others, 25, 117, 130
- Good Hope Senior Center, 51–55, 76–78, 86–87
- guitar
- classes, 78–79
 - jam, 79
- harmonica club, 76–78
- health services, 32, 53, 63, 123
- health-related
- benefits of music, 114–115, 156. See also music participation activities: benefits offered by
 - challenges, 110–111
- historical background
- evolution of model for, 7, 32–33
 - origins of, 10–12
 - role of socialization throughout, 18
- identity and self-esteem, 132–135. See also self-worth
- instrument accessibility/preferences, 104–105
- instrumental activities
- concert bands, 69–73
 - German and polka band, 74–76
 - guitar classes, 78–79
 - guitar jam, 79
 - harmonica club, 76–78
 - jazz bands, 73–74
 - overview, 68–69
 - ukulele classes/groups, 79–85
- interviewee categories and numbers, 100
- isolation, 5, 15, 25, 28, 151
- jazz bands, 73–74
- karaoke groups, 90–93
- language barriers, 55, 64. See also challenges and barriers: for senior centers
- Lehmborg, Lisa J., 3, 5, 41, 98, 117
- life phases, 151
- lifelong learning, 3, 8, 14, 18, 150
- listening, passive and active, 65–67, 109–110, 179–181
- literature reviews, 5–6, 41
- loneliness, 115. See also social isolation
- management, 139–142, 146
- marketing senior centers, 24, 30–31, 122–123, 157–160
- meals. See nutrition services
- mental health services, 17, 29, 55, 123–124. See also Alzheimer's disease
- minority and underrepresented groups, 25–29. See also demographic statistics: ethnicity/race
- Mountain View Senior Center, 55–57, 71–74, 89–90
- multigenerational centers, 52, 158
- multipurpose senior centers, 7, 33–34
- music
- activity leaders. See music participation activities: group leaders
 - benefits offered by, 3–6, 8, 114–115, 132. See also music participation activities: benefits offered by
 - community, 3
 - composition, 150–151, 155–156
 - desired qualities in musical activities, 129–131
 - older adults and, 132
 - role of in senior centers, 37
- music education, 151–152, 158. See also professional development
- Music for Life: Music Participation and Quality of Life of Senior Citizens* (Lehmborg; Fung) 4–5, 41, 98, 117
- music participation activities. See also music-making; instrumental activities; singing activities
- at Better Living Senior Center, 50
 - at Center for Healthy Aging, 58
 - at Good Hope Senior Center, 53

- music participation activities. (cont.)
 at Mountain View Senior Center, 56
 at The Senior Place, 50–60
 at Sunnyside Senior Center, 46–47
 benefits offered by, 3, 15, 113–120, 152, 156
 case studies of, 35–37
 community partnership opportunities and, 158–159 defined, 3 demand for, 14
 enjoyment of. See music participation activities: quality of life and forms and categories of, 65, 106–108. See also activity formats group leaders, 105–106, 151–152, 157 groups, summary table of, 69 inventory of, 122–123
 listening, passive and active, 65–67, 109–110, 179–181
 mid-pandemic, 146. See also pandemic-related movement and dance as, 67–68
 opportunities for, 8, 44, 158–159
 pleasure and, 113–114
 pre- vs. mid-pandemic, 140–143
 prevalence of, 95–96
 quality of life and, 35, 37, 119–120, 132, 159–160, 167
 research on, dearth of, 15, 35, 41
 research since 2000, 34–35
 socialization through, 115–117
 variables affecting, 35–36
 venue options for, 6–7, 166 interview guides, 165–167
 methodology, 42, 163–164
 recommendations and study insights, 61–64, 93–98, 148–153
 study design, 162–163
 musical development, 96–97, 129–130
 musical genre preferences, 105
 music-making activities, 125, 174
 forms of participation in, 68–69, 101–102
 musical development and, 96–97, 129–130 off-site, 108–109
 research since 2000, 125
 National Council on Aging, 13
 National Institute of Senior Centers, 12, 33, 60
 negativity, 111–112
 New Horizons International Music Association (NHIMA), 71
 New Models Task Force (NMTF), 33
 non-participants in senior centers, 13–14, 21–24, 100, 164
 nutrition services
 education, 21
 gleaning program, 46, 63
 Meals on Wheels, 64, 142
 not provided, 50
 provided by centers, 7, 29, 32, 51–61, 123
 offsite services, 30
 Older Americans Act (OAA), 11, 48, 61
 operation models
 center for voluntary participation, 11, 15–18
 community-based centers, 11–13, 31
 evolving nature of, 12, 32–33
 multipurpose senior centers, 7, 33–34
 New Models Task Force (NMTF), 33
 pandemic-related, 10
 primary models (8), 12
 social services agency, 11, 15–18
 pandemic-related activity schedules, 146
 clientele age groups, 143
 lifelong learning, 150
 mid-pandemic plans for future action, 147–148
 operation models, 10
 pre- vs. post-pandemic data, 140–143
 participants, 16, 16–18. See also demographic statistics with music backgrounds, 101 participation variables, 24–27
 partnerships and collaborations
 Better Living Senior Center, 51
 Center for Healthy Aging, 59
 Good Hope Senior Center, 55
 Mountain View Senior Center, 57
 opportunities for, 153
 reasons for partnering, 11
 Sunnyside Senior Center, 48
 patience, 112
 policy makers, 159
 professional development, 32, 153, 158
 programs
 diversification of, 14–15
 offered by senior centers, 8, 14–15, 50, 53 variety and choice of, 94–95
 promotional materials, 24, 31. See also marketing senior centers public image of senior centers. See senior centers: public image of

Index

207

- quality of life
 connection with others, 25, 97–98, 115–117, 129–131, 149
 elements of, 37, 162
 Flanagan’s model of, 135
 music’s contribution to, 35, 37, 97, 119–120, 132, 135, 159–160, 167
 wellness consciousness and, 35
- recommendations and study insights, 93–98, 148–153
- recreational opportunities, 14, 32–33, 46, 54, 56, 123, 134
- recruitment of senior center clientele, 48, 55
- research on music participation. See also studies;
 surveys
 dearth of, 35, 37, 41
 future subjects for, 160–161
 lack of participant diversity, 21, 41 limited research sample for, 43–44
 since 2000, 34–35
 since 2015, 129
- research, empirical, 43–44, 47, 64, 124, 149, 152, 159, 161
- resources, 124–125. See also challenges and barriers: for senior centers
- rural centers, 30
- safe space, 113, 118, 129, 151
- self-worth, 117–118, 151
- senior centers. See also multigenerational centers atmosphere at, 93–94
 benefits offered by, 27–30
 Better Living Senior Center, 49–51, 79, 83–85, 87–92
 Center for Healthy Aging, 57–59, 69–71
 clientele, 16–18, 16, 122
 common elements across research sample, 61–64. See also recommendations and study insights demographics relating to. See demographic statistics functions of, 13, 15–18
 Good Hope Senior Center, 51–55, 78, 86–87
 history of. See historical background
 motivations for participation in, 13–14
 Mountain View Senior Center, 55–57, 71–74, 89–90
 operation models for. See operation models programs offered by, 8, 14–15, 50, 53 public image of, 7–8, 11, 30–31, 34, 122–123, 158–160. See also marketing senior centers representative sampling of, 42–44 sustainability of, 32–33, 122
 The Senior Place, 59–61, 78–79, 92–93
 singing activities
 choirs/choruses, 86–90
 karaoke groups, 90–93
 social isolation, 5, 15, 25, 28, 151
 social-environmental issues, 32
 socialization
 as senior center core function, 18
 music participation central to, 97–98, 115–117, 156
 senior centers’ role in, 21
 spiritual uplift, 119
 spirituality, 4, 15, 37, 129
 staff continuity, 31, 157. See also challenges and barriers: for senior centers stick-to-itiveness, 112
- studies
 aspects of activity participation, 24–27
 challenges and barriers for senior centers, 30 functions of senior centers, 16
 literature reviews, 5–6, 41
 minority and underrepresented groups, 25–29 of operation models, 11
 senior center clients compared with non-participants, 21–24
 since 2000 34–35
 since 2015 129
 stability of activity participation, 24
 Sunnyside Senior Center, 44–49, 79–83
 surveys
 live music performances, 179–181
 of management personnel, 182–190
 mid-pandemic music activities, 149
 mid-pandemic plans for future action, 147–148
 of music activities, 6, 36
 operation models, 13
 of partnerships and collaborations, 11
 pre- vs. mid-pandemic activities, 140–143
 pre- vs. mid-pandemic music activities, 140–143, 174
- ukulele classes/groups, 79–85
- volunteerism programs, 14, 25
- volunteers
 as activity leaders, 75
 center staffing by, 47, 50, 54, 56, 60–61
 recruitment challenges, 48, 64, 124
 staff continuity, 31, 157. See also challenges and barriers: for senior centers

208

Index

well-being

- elements of, 4–5
- and music activities mid-pandemic, 149
- role of music in, 3, 5, 35, 132, 135, 152, 154, 156
- senior center promotion of, 8, 18, 27, 47

wellness consciousness

- dimensions of, 15
- and music activities, 15
- quality of life and, 34
- targeted outcomes, 15