

Index

Footnotes are indicated by n after the page number. The abbreviations fig. and tab. are used for figures and tables, respectively.

- Acemoglu, Daron, 62 Acer Inc, 144 acquisitions, diffusion of innovation via, 182
 Adani Group, 109–10, 113–14, 126–27, 201, 258 agricultural sector employment, 39–40, fig.2.4, 48, 213–14, fig.6.1
 AI. See artificial intelligence [AI]
 Ai Weiwei, 249
 Airtel, 91–92
 Airtel, 111, 113
 Alibaba Group, 10, 29, 123–24
 Ant Group, government hostility towards, 137, 193, 270 as Chinese ‘national champion,’ 135–37
 protection from foreign competition, 137–38, 144, 146, 192–93 innovation by, 138, 186, 188, 197, 200–1, 207 venture capital provision by, 139, 189
 Alliance Global Group, 97, tab.3.3
 Amazon, 111, 139, 162, 186
 Ambani family, 60, 123, 151, See also Reliance Group Ant Group (Alibaba’s digital payment platform), 137, 193, 270
 Apaydin, Marina, 160
 Apple Inc, 118, 164, 186
 Army Welfare Trust, Pakistan, 93 artificial intelligence [AI], 4, 34, 155–56, 162, 186 workplace and employment impact, 18, 26, 54, 213, 249, 274–77
 Asei Ito, 155
 Asia economic resurgence. See economic resurgence of Asia institutions in. See institutions in Asia map, fig.1.1, 5 political systems. See political systems of Asia
 Western perceptions over time, 1–3
 Asia Pulp & Paper, 124–25
 Asian financial crisis (1997–98), 69, 103
 Astra Group, 122, 269
 autocracies, 19–20, 26–27, 31
 networks of business and politics in,
 73–74, fig.3.2, 74–75, 250–53
 Communist Party’s network position, 9–10, 75, 79, 81–88, 136–37, 192
 disruption of networks, particular challenges, 256–57, 262, 270, 272
 planned economy policies, 6–7, 217
 restrictions on freedom of expression, 249, 272
 Soviet Union, 38, 47, 53–54, 83, 88, 191, 249 automobile industry, 276 electric vehicles development, 162, 164–65, 189, 208
 aviation industry, 208, 232–33
 AWT (Bangladesh Welfare Trust), 93–94
 Ayala Group, 10, 97, 99, tab.3.3, 122

 Baidu, 10, 86, 136, 138, 186, 193
 Bakrie, Aburizal, 88 Bangladesh business groups in, tab.4.1, 147, tab.6.2, 232 Dhaka garment factory fire (2012), 224 economic growth rate, fig.2.1, 33–34, 35,
 fig.2.2, 37, fig.2.3
 employment by sector, fig.6.1, 234 foreign direct investment (FDI), fig.5.3,
 fig.5.4, 178
 income and wealth inequality, 59, fig.2.6
 informal economy in, tab.6.1, 225, 227

304 INDEX

- Bangladesh (cont.)
 - innovation in
 - opportunity entrepreneurship, fig.5.5, 187
 - patent grants, 173
 - R&D expenditure, tab.5.1, fig.5.1, 169, 171
 - scientific research publishing, 172–73
 - WIPO Global Innovation Index ranking, 174, 174, fig.5.2
 - networks of business and politics, 77, tab.3.1, fig.7.1
 - corruption and cronyism, fig.2.8, 63–64
 - military's business interests, 93–94
 - poverty rate, 55
 - rule of law, 62–63, fig.2.7
- banks, 77–79
 - in business groups, 124
 - digital services, 183, 188
 - informal economy workers' lack of access to, 215
 - international, 12
 - military's interests in, 93
 - state-owned, preferential lending by, 8–9, 135, 137, 198, 247, 261, 282
- barriers to new entrants
 - Ant Group (Alibaba) case study, 137, 193, 270
 - business groups' market power creating, 17–19, 26, 117–18, 201–2, 224, 230–31, 248–49, 259–60
 - business registration procedures, 220–21
 - innovation stifled by. See innovation
 - political support for incumbents, 23, 139, 145–46, 202–5, 247, 260
 - staff recruitment barriers, 202, 207, 222
- Belt and Road Initiative (China), 29
- billionaires in Asia, 149, tab.4.2, 151–52, 272–73. See also income and wealth inequality
- Birla Group, 105, 151
- Bo Xilai, 85
- business groups, 7–8, 15, 21–22, 116–20, 152–54, fig.4.1, 247–48
 - advantages of, 15, 22, 71, 128, 143
 - banks in, 124
 - competition between, 17–18, 24, 139, 244
 - diversified portfolios of activity, 119, 122–23, 126
 - donations by. See donations by businesses
 - employment by, 238–39, 244
 - benefits offered, 226–27, 238, 260
 - employment share, 225–26, tab.6.2, 231–33
 - job creation and protection. See job creation and protection, political influence on
 - skilled workers, 112, 198, 202, 207, 238
 - factors promoting, 128–30
 - 'missing institutions' hypothesis, 71–72, 129–32, 198
 - global significance, 123–24, 144–45
 - governance of, 124, 199–200, 264–65
 - in individual states. See under state names
 - innovation by, 164–66, 197–201, 203
 - market power, 120, 139, 145–47, 153–54, 238
 - barriers to new entrants created by, 17–19, 26, 117–18, 201–2, 224, 230–31, 248–49, 259–60
 - economic prevalence measurement, 146–48, tab.4.1, 147–49, 152
 - innovation stifled by. See innovation
 - political support for, 23, 139, 145–46, 202–5, 247, 260
 - proposals to reduce, 271
 - wealth accumulation by individuals, 149, tab.3.2, 151–52, 279
 - 'national champion' policies supporting, 86, 133–39, 195, 198, 203–4
 - networks of, 71, 118, 121–22
 - nomenclature, 121–22
 - outsourcing to informal economy by, 211–12, 216, fig.6.2, 223–24
 - performance, 128, 140–41, fig.4.1, 141–45, 153
 - proposals to disrupt. See connections world, proposals to disrupt
 - protection from foreign competition, 10, 137–38, 144, 146, 192–93, 197
 - resilience of, 131–33, 247
 - disincentives to reform, 260–62
 - examples, 97–100, 103–4, 122–23, 258
 - failed regulatory attempts, 265–66
 - structural complexity, 71, 121, 124–25, 128, 199–200
 - efficiency costs, 128, fig.4.1

- related party transactions facilitated by, 125–27, 143, 259–70
 - tunnelling of private gains facilitated by, 127–28, 142–43
- carbon emissions data, 283
- Charoen Pokphand (CP) Group, 90–91, 102, 122
- Chearavanont family, 91
- ChemChina, 182
- China
 - aviation industry, 208
 - business groups in, 129, 132, tab.4.1, 147
 - Alibaba Group. See Alibaba Group
 - employment share, 225–26, tab.6.2, 232
 - Haier Group, 144, 182
 - Huawei. See Huawei
 - Tencent Holdings. See Tencent Holdings
- carbon emissions data, 283
- competition policy, 270
- COVID-19 pandemic response, 54–55, 235, 240
- demographic trends, 41–46, fig.2.5, 212
- early modern period economy, 2, 33
- economic resurgence, 34, 51–54
 - exports focus recalibration, 28–29, 51–52
- foreign direct investment (FDI), 29, 177, 178, fig.5.3, fig.5.4, 178, 195–96
- global value chains (GVCs)
 - participation, 41, 52
- growth rate, fig.2.1, 34, fig.2.2, 35, 38, fig.2.3
- high investment/low consumption model, 52–54
- high savings rates driving, 46, 53–54
- industrialisation driving, 40, fig.2.4, 46, 213–14, fig.6.1, 247
- total factor productivity (TFP)
 - driving, 47–48
- Western alarm at, 3
- education system, 49–50, 172
- family-owned businesses in, 121
- Hong Kong. See Hong Kong
- Human Development Index ranking, 56
- income and wealth inequality, 59, fig.2.6, 277–79
 - billionaires, 149, 151, tab.4.2
 - poverty rate, 55
- informal economy in, 217, tab.6.1, 218, 220, 225–27
- innovation in, 23–24, 26, 34, 54, 155–56, 186, 207–9, 248
 - e-commerce sector. See e-commerce sector, in China
 - opportunity entrepreneurship, fig.5.5, 188–89
 - patent grants, 173, 200, 275
 - R&D expenditure, 171, tab.5.1, fig.5.1, 172
- renewable energy developments, 156, 178–79, 189
- restrictions on freedom of expression, 249
- scientific research publishing, 173
- Special Economic Zones, 90, 144, 195–96, 219–20
- state-led initiatives, 191–92, 195–96, 207
- telecommunications sector, 10, 86–87, 186
- venture capital for, 139, 189, 207
- WIPO Global Innovation Index
 - ranking, 174, fig.5.2, 174
- internet access, 173–74
 - ‘Great Firewall,’ 188, 192–93
- legal systems, 61
- networks of business and politics, 52, tab.3.1, 252, fig.7.1, 253–54
- ‘betweenness’ analysis, tab.3.2, 79
- Communist Party’s network
 - position, 9–10, 75, 79, 81–88, 136–37, 191–92
- corruption and cronyism, 12, 60–63, fig.2.8, 83–86
- disruption, particular challenges in autocracies, 256–57, 262, 270, 272
- military’s business interests, 87, 95
- politicians with business interests, 84
- preferential treatment of network partners, 8–10, 86–87
- planned economy policies, 6–7, 217
- political risk for businesses, 19

306 INDEX

- China (cont.)
 public sector employment, 234
 rule of law, 62–63, fig.2.7
 social insurance shortfalls, 18–19, 25, 54, 241–42
 state-owned enterprises (SOEs), 87–88, 135, 225–26, 230 job creation in, 235 military's role in, 95 tunnelling of private gains from, 84 waning of, 10, 140, 233 steel industry, 11, 254
 World Trade Organization membership, 51, 188
- China Railway Construction Corp, 95
- CK Infrastructure, 182
- climate change, 4, 272–73
 carbon emissions data, 283
 renewable energy developments in China, 156, 178–79, 189
- Clive, Robert, 13
- Cojuangco, Eduardo, 97
- Communist Party, 9–10, 75, 79, 81–88, 136–37, 191–92, See also autocracies
- competition barriers to new entrants. See barriers to new entrants between business groups, 17–18, 24, 139, 244 large enterprises and MNEs, light-touch regulation, 11, 71 market power of business groups. See business groups, market power proposals to promote, 26, 268–71 protectionism, 10, 137–38, 144, 146, 192–93, 197
 public attitudes towards, 57
 public contract awards, 8, 12, 71, 86, 90, 247
- connections world, 6, 15–16, 116, 246
 business groups. See business groups corruption and cronyism. See corruption and cronyism fallibilities, 16–20, 273–74 employment risk. See employment political risk, 19, 26–27, 277
 stifled innovation. See innovation formal and informal institutions, connections between, 60–61, 69
 historical perspective, 13–14 network structure. See networks of business and politics proposals to disrupt, 25–26, 249–50 autocracies, particular challenges in, 256–57, 262, 270, 272 competition promotion, 26, 268–71 corporate governance reforms, 264–65 prohibitions and tax policies aimed at business groups, 265–68 tax policies to redistribute wealth, 272–73 transparency initiatives, 25–26, 73, 262, 272–73
 public attitudes towards, 57–58
 resilience of. See resilience of connections world
- convergence, comparative data, 34, fig.2.2, 35–36 in labour productivity, 37, 212–13 relative to United States, 36–37, fig.2.3, 37–38
- corporate form in Western economies, 14, 118–19
- corporate governance reforms, 264–65
- corruption and cronyism comparative data, fig.2.8, 63–64 cronyism definition, 70
 in individual states. See under state names and large enterprises, 11–12 outside of Asia, 12–13, 250–51 potentially destabilising effect, 17 and public contract awards, 8, 12, 71, 86, 90, 247 transparency initiatives to address, 25–26, 73, 262, 272–73
- COVID-19 pandemic China's response, 54–55, 235, 240 emergency aid donations by businesses, 10, 71, 99, 113, 237–38 global value chains disrupted by, 20, 276 job protection during, 237–38 United Kingdom, cronyism in contract awards, 250–51 vaccines development, 160
- CP (Charoen Pokphand) Group, 90–91, 102, 122

- 'creative destruction' in Asian economies, barriers to, 128, 154, 202, 222, 241, 259
- cronyism. See corruption and cronyism
- Crossan, Mary M., 160
- Daimler, 183
- de-industrialisation, 40, fig.2.4, 213, fig.6.1, 244, 247
- democracy
 'managed' democracies, 19–20, 26–27, 31
 network resilience to democratisation, 6, 21, 31
 networks of business and politics in democracies, 74, fig.3.2, 75–76, 88–92, 251
- demographic trends, 41–46, fig.2.5, 212
- Deng Xiaoping, 149
- developmental state policies, 6–7, 50–51
- Didi Chuxing, 192
- diffusion of innovation. See under innovation
- disclosure of politicians' business interests, proposed rules, 272–73
- disruptive innovations, 162–63, 173
- DLF Ltd, 107–9
- domestic savings rates, 46–47, 53–54
- donations by businesses in COVID-19 pandemic, 10, 71, 99, 113, 237–38
 to political parties or candidates, 70, 95–96, 106, 112, 272
- Dr Reddy's Laboratories, 181–82
- dual economy. See informal economy
- Duterte, Rodrigo, 99
- East Asian financial crisis (1997–98), 69, 102–3
- East India Company, 13–14
- eBay, 137–38, 192
- e-commerce sector
 in China, 10, 29, 86, 135–39, 183, 186, 189, See also Alibaba Group; Tencent Holdings
 data privacy concerns, 192
 protection from foreign competition, 137–38, 144, 146, 192–93
 in India, 188
 in Indonesia, 205
 in South Korea, 190
- economic resurgence of Asia, 20, 27–30, 64–65, 210, 246
- Asia's share in world economy, 33–34
- carbon emissions associated with, 283
- commonalities, 6
- connections world. See connections world
- state activism, 6–7, 50–51, 134
- consequences income and wealth inequality. See income and wealth inequality for institutions. See institutions in Asia living standards and well-being enhancement, 56–58 poverty rates decline, 55–56
- convergence, comparative data, 34,
 fig.2.2, 35–36
- in labour productivity, 37, 212–13
- relative to United States, 36–37, 37,
 fig.2.3, 38
- drivers of exports, 20, 28–29, 41, 51–52, 275–76
- FDI. See foreign direct investment (FDI)
- high savings rates, 46–47, 53–54
- human capital and education investments, 49–50
- industrialisation, 39–40, 40–41, fig.2.4, 46, 48, fig.6.1, 213–14, 247
- population growth, 41–46, fig.2.5, 212
- total factor productivity (TFP), 47–48
- individual states' experiences. See under state names
- political systems, economic growth mapped to, 31–32, fig.2.1, 32–33
- sustainability, threats to, 246–47, 282
- climate change, 283–84
- employment risk. See employment
- middle-income trap, 4, 39
- political risk, 19, 26–27, 277
- stifled innovation. See innovation
- education system investments, 49–50
- electric vehicles development, 162, 164–65, 189, 208
- employment, 24, 26, 210–13, 243–45, 249, 274, See also social insurance
- in agricultural sector, 39–40, fig.2.4, 48,
 fig.6.1, 213–14

308 INDEX

- employment (cont.)
 artificial intelligence (AI), impact on, 18, 26, 54, 213, 249, 274–75, 277
 by business groups. See business groups, employment by employment shares by size of firms, 224–28, tab.6.3, 231–33
 scope for firm growth and job creation, 228–30, 244, 249 in informal economy. See informal economy, employment in labour force expansion data, 41–46,
 fig.2.5, 212
 labour productivity data, 37, 212–13
 new entrant firms, staff recruitment barriers, 202, 207, 222 political influence on. See job creation and protection, political influence on in public sector, 233–38, 243–44 in state-owned enterprises (SOEs), 24, 233–37
 redundancy payments, 221–22, 239 skilled workers. See skilled workers tax wedge data, 241–42
 unskilled and semi-skilled workers, 39, 50, 213, 215 entrenchment of networks. See resilience of connections world
 entrepreneurship. See under innovation export-led economic growth, 20, 28–29, 41, 51–52, 275–76
 family-owned businesses, 14–15, 121 groups of. See business groups in informal economy, 214–15 politicians with interests in, 87–89, 96
 Fauji Foundation, 93
 FDI. See foreign direct investment (FDI) financial crisis (1997/98), 69, 102–3 financial institutions. See banks
 First Pacific Group, 10, 99, 104
 Ford, Henry, 162–63
 foreign direct investment (FDI) China's Belt and Road Initiative, 29 into Asia, 23, 29, 48, 136, 176–78, fig.5.3,
 fig.5.4, 178–80, 195–96
 outflows from Asia, 29, 139 mergers and acquisitions, 182 formal and informal institutions, connections between, 60–61, 69,
 See also institutions in Asia
 Freeman, Christopher, 168 frugal innovation (jugaad), 184
 Gama, Vasco da, 1 Gandhi, Rajiv, 108 garments industry, 223–24
 Gates, Bill, 163
 Geim, Andre, 161
 Germany
 innovation in, 159, 168
 large and medium-sized firms in, 229, tab.6.2, 232
 social welfare spending, 242 global value chains (GVCs), integration into, 20, 41, 52, 275–76
 Godrej Group, 184, 190
 Goldis Berhad, 125 gradual innovation, 162–64, 173
 graphene, invention of, 161
 'Great Firewall' of China, 137, 188, 192–93
 guilds of tradesmen, 68
 GVCs (global value chains), integration into, 20, 41, 52, 275–76
 Haier Group, 144, 182
 Hangzhou Hikvision Digital Technology, 95 happiness survey findings, 56–57
 Hike Messenger, 179–86
 Hinduja family, 151
 Hong Kong business groups and family-owned businesses, 121–22
 education system, 49
 foreign direct investment (FDI) inflows, 29
 Hong Leong Financial Group, 122
 Huawei, 10, 29, 196
 Chinese government support for, 86–87, 198, 203–4
 innovation by, 186
 Huawei, 95
 human capital investments, 49–50
 Human Development Index rankings, 56
 Huneus, Federico, 217

- IGB Property, 125
- income and wealth inequality, 26–27, 58–59,
 fig.2.6, 59–60, 277
- billionaires in Asia, 149, tab.4.2, 151–52, 272–73
- low wages in informal economy, 223, 227
- political risk associated with, 26–27, 277
- poverty, data on, 55–56
- tax policies to address, 272–73
- wage differentials by firm size, 226–27
- incremental innovation, 162–64, 173
- India
- agricultural sector employment, fig.2.4, 48
- British colonial era, 13–14
- business groups in, 121–22, 129, 132,
 tab.4.1, 147, 254, 261
- Adani Group, 109, 113–14, 126–27, 201, 258
- Birla Group, 105, 151
- employment share, tab.6.2, 232
- Godrej Group, 184, 190
- innovation by, 197, 200–1, 203
- JSW Group, 113
- Mahindra Group, 190
- regulation attempts, 265–66
- Reliance Group. See Reliance Group
- Tata Group. See Tata Group
- carbon emissions data, 283
- demographic trends, 41–46, fig.2.5
- early modern period economy, 2, 33
- economic resurgence, 28, 34
- foreign direct investment (FDI), 29,
 177, 178, fig.5.3, fig.5.4
- global value chains (GVCs)
- participation, 41
- growth rate, fig.2.1, 33–34, fig.2.2, 35,
 fig.2.3, 38
- industrialisation driving, fig.2.4,
 fig.6.1, 40, 214
- total factor productivity (TFP)
- driving, 47–48
- education system, 49, 172
- family-owned businesses in, 121
- income and wealth inequality, 59–60,
 fig.2.6, 278–79
- billionaires, 60, 107–9, 123, tab.4.2, 151
- poverty rate, 55
- informal economy in, 217, tab.6.1, 225, 227
- innovation in, 23, 206–7, 248, 275
- by business groups, 197, 200–1, 203
- e-commerce sector, 188
- frugal innovation (jugaad), 184
- information technology sector, 111–12, 155, 179–80, 184–85, 194, 200–1, 218–20
- opportunity entrepreneurship,
 fig.5.5, 188–90
- patent grants, 173, 180
- pharmaceuticals sector, 111–12, 181–82, 194
- R&D expenditure, 168–71, tab.5.1,
 fig.5.1, 172
- scientific research publishing, 173
- state-led initiatives, 191, 193–94
- telecommunications sector, 9, 91–92, 110–11, 179–86
- venture capital for, 189–90
- WIPO Global Innovation Index
- ranking, 174, 174, fig.5.2
- internet access, 173–74
- legal systems, 61, 130
- ‘Licence Raj’ era (1947–1990s), 105–6
- networks of business and politics, 79,
 tab.3.1, 81–82, fig.7.1, 252, 254, 257–58
- corruption and cronyism, 63–64,
 fig.2.8, 91–92
- reciprocal arrangements, 113–14
- resilience of, 105–12, 258
- public sector employment, 234, 238
- rule of law, 62–63, fig.2.7
- state-owned enterprises (SOEs) in, 135, 233
- Indika Energy, 104
- Indonesia
- business groups in, 129, 132, 146, tab.4.1, 147–48
- Astra Group, 122, 269
- employment share, 225, tab.6.2, 232
- Salim Group, 99, 101–4, 112, 269
- Sinar Mas Group. See Sinar Mas Group
- competition and bankruptcy law, 269
- demographic trends, 41–46, fig.2.5
- economic resurgence, 34
- foreign direct investment (FDI),
 178–79, 178, fig.5.3, fig.5.4

310 INDEX

- Indonesia (cont.)
 global value chains (GVCs)
 participation, 41
 growth rate, fig.2.1, 35, fig.2.2, fig.2.3
 industrialisation driving, fig.2.4,
 fig.6.1, 40, 214
 education system, 49
 family-owned businesses in, 121
 income and wealth inequality, 59, fig.2.6
 billionaires, 127, 151, tab.4.2
 poverty rate, 55
 informal economy in, 218, tab.6.1, 225, 228
 innovation in
 e-commerce sector, 205
 opportunity entrepreneurship,
 fig.5.5, 188
 R&D expenditure, tab.5.1, fig.5.1, 172
 WIPO Global Innovation Index
 ranking, 174, fig.5.2
 labour law, 221 networks of business and politics, 77,
 tab.3.1, 81, fig.7.1
 corruption and cronyism, 63–64,
 fig.2.8, 88–89, 273
 military's business interests, 94
 reciprocal arrangements, 112
 resilience of, 103–4
 rule of law, 62–63, fig.2.7
 industrialisation, 39–40, 40–41, fig.2.4, 46, 48, fig.6.1, 213–14, 247
 informal and formal institutions, connections between, 60–61, 69,
 See also institutions in Asia informal economy concept, 211, 214
 dimensions, 217–18, tab.6.1, 218–20 employment in, 18, 24, 211, 244, 260, 280
 family-owned businesses, 214–15 labour productivity, effect on, 48, 212–13
 low wages, 223, 227 micro and small firms, 224–25 outsourced work from formal economy, 211–12, 216, fig.6.2, 223–24
 self-employed entrepreneurs, 214–15
 unskilled and semi-skilled workers, 215 formal economy, connections with,
 215–16, 216–17, fig.6.2
 in individual states. See under state names
 resilience of, 220–24
 information technology sector
 in India, 111–12, 155, 179–80, 184–85, 194, 200–1, 218–20 in South Korea, 185–86, 190, 194–95, See also Samsung
 Infosys, 181, 184–85, 197, 200–1 inheritance tax proposals, 25–26, 267–68, 279 innovation, 22–23, 155–57, 175, 205–9, 248–49
 artificial intelligence (AI), 4, 34, 155–56, 162, 186
 workplace and employment impact, 18, 26, 54, 213, 249, 274–75, 277 barriers to new entrants stifling.
 See barriers to new entrants
 by business groups, 164–66, 197–201, 203
 concept
 frugal innovation (jugaad), 184
 innovation and invention distinguished, 160–62 radical and incremental innovations, 162–64, 173
 ‘creative destruction’ in Asian economies, barriers to, 128, 154, 202, 222, 241, 259 diffusion of innovation, 175–76 via domestic firms, 182–84 via FDI inflows, 23, 29, 48, 136, 176–78, fig.5.3, fig.5.4, 178–80, 195–96 via mergers and acquisitions, 182 via MNEs, 180–82, 189–90
 e-commerce sector. See e-commerce sector economic growth, dependence on innovation in Asia, 4, 38–39, 41, 159–60, 274 historical perspective, 157–58 three stages of relationship, 158–59 entrepreneurship ecosystems for, 166–68, 188–90, 195–96, 218–20 entrepreneurial individuals, 163–64, 179–80, 189, 214–15
 in incumbent firms (‘intrapreneurship’), 164–66, 197–201

- by new entrant firms, 166
- opportunity entrepreneurship in
 - Asia, 186–87, fig.5.5, 188–90
- in individual states. See under state names
- information technology sector. See information technology sector
- internet access, 173–74
 - ‘Great Firewall’ of China, 137, 188, 192–93
- patent grants, 173, 200
- pharmaceuticals sector in India, 111–12, 181–82, 194
- R&D expenditure, 168–71
 - relative to ‘rest of world’, fig.5.1, 171–72
 - relative to United States, tab.5.1, 169
- renewable energy developments in
 - China, 156, 178–79, 189
- scientific research publishing, 172–73
- skilled workers for. See skilled workers
- state-led initiatives, 190–92, 196
 - protectionism, 10, 137–38, 144, 146, 192–93, 197
 - Special Economic Zones in China, 90, 144, 195–96, 218–20
- telecommunications sector. See telecommunications sector
- venture capital for, 139, 167, 189, 207
- WIPO Global Innovation Index rankings, 174, fig.5.2, 174
- institutions in Asia, 60
 - formal and informal institutions, connections between, 60–61, 69
 - gaps and weaknesses, 61–62
 - business groups as response to, 71–72, 129–32, 198
 - corruption and cronyism. See corruption and cronyism
 - inclusive and extractive institutions, 62
 - public trust in, 129
 - rule of law, comparative data, 62–63, fig.2.7
- international banks, 12
- internet access, 173–74
 - ‘Great Firewall’ of China, 137, 188, 192–93
- invention and innovation distinguished, 160–62
- Israel, business groups disruption, 263, 266, 271
- Japan
 - informal economy in, tab.6.1, 220
 - ‘national champion’ policies, 135
 - post-war economic growth, 4–6
 - business groups (zaibatsu) disrupted, 263
 - innovation driving, 159, 168
 - reversal, 38
- Jardine Matheson, 122
- JD.com, 136
- JDW Group, 96
- Jho Low (Low Taek Jho), 12
- Jiang, Alvin, 136
- Jio (Reliance Jio Infocomm Ltd), 9, 110–11, 184
- job creation and protection, political
 - influence on, 11–12, 18, 24–25, 70–71, 143, 243
 - business groups’ reluctance to lay-off staff, 237–38, 241
 - jobs for allies and family members, 113–14
 - political legitimacy linked to jobs, 210
 - potential economic consequences, 18–19, 210–12
 - public sector employment, 235
- Jobs, Steve, 163–64
- JSW Group, 113
- jugaad* (frugal innovation), 184
- Kalla, Yusuf, 89
- Khanna, Tarun, 61
- Kim, In Song, 217
- Klein, Matthew C., 53
- Kodak, 165, 198
- Krishnan, Ananda, 91–92
- Kuok, Robert, 101–2
- Kuznets, Simon, 58
- labour force expansion data, 41–46, fig.2.5, 212
- labour productivity data, 37, 212–13
- land rights and use permits
 - in China, 85–86, 90
 - in India, 108
 - in Pakistan, 93
- large enterprises, 212
 - business groups. See business groups
 - employment benefits offered by, 226–27, 238

312 INDEX

- large enterprises (cont.)
 - employment share of, 225–26, tab.6.2, 231–33
 - scope for smaller firm growth and job creation, 228–30, 244, 249
 - job creation and protection by. See job creation and protection, political influence on
 - light-touch competition regulation, 11, 71
 - MNEs. See multinational enterprises (MNEs)
- Lee Kuan Yew, 101
- Lee Kun-hee, 133, 151
- Lenovo Group, 144
- Li, Robin, 138
- Liem Sioe Liong, 101, 103
- Liu Zhijun, 12
- lobbying, 9–10, 134, 268, 284
- longevity of networks. See resilience of connections world
- Low Taek Jho (Jho Low), 12
- low-skilled workers, 39, 50, 213, 215
- LT Group, tab.3.3, 98
- Lupin Ltd, 181
- Ma Huateng (Pony Ma), 138
- Ma, Jack, 123–24, 136–37, 188
- Mahindra Group, 190
- Malayan Sugar Manufacturing, 101
- Malaysia
 - business groups in, 125, tab.4.1, 238
 - Hong Leong Financial Group, 122
 - economic resurgence
 - foreign direct investment (FDI), 177, fig.5.3, fig.5.4
 - global value chains (GVCs)
 - participation, 41
 - industrialisation driving, 40, fig.2.4, 213–14, fig.6.1
 - education system, 49
 - family-owned businesses in, 121
 - Human Development Index ranking, 56
 - income and wealth inequality, 58, fig.2.6, 277
 - billionaires, tab.4.2, 150
 - poverty rate, 55
 - informal economy in, tab.6.1, 219
 - innovation in, 275
 - opportunity entrepreneurship, fig.5.5, 187
 - R&D expenditure, tab.5.1, fig.5.1, 172
 - WIPO Global Innovation Index
 - ranking, 174, fig.5.2
 - networks of business and politics, 77, tab.3.1, 100–1, fig.7.1
 - corruption and cronyism, 12, 63–64, fig.2.8, 91–92
 - resilience of, 101–3
 - rule of law, 62–63, fig.2.7
 - social insurance shortfalls, 25
 - ‘managed’ democracies, 19–20, 26–27, 31
- Mao Zedong, 87, 191
- Maran family, 91–92
- market power of business groups. See business groups, market power
- Maxis–Aircel, 91–92
- McKern, Bruce, 155
- media support for politicians, 11, 260, 272
- medium-sized enterprises. See small and medium-sized enterprises
- mergers, diffusion of innovation via, 182
- microenterprises, 214–15, 224–25
- middle-income trap, 4, 39
- Milanović, Branko, 210
- military, business interests of, 87, 93–95
- Minxin Pei, 83–84
- Mittal, Kavin Bharti, 179–86
- MNEs. See multinational enterprises (MNEs)
- mobile telephony. See telecommunications sector
- Modi, Narendra, 109, 127
- Muara Sungai Landak, 124–25
- multinational enterprises (MNEs)
 - business groups as, 123–24, 144–45
 - diffusion of innovation via, 180–82, 189–90
 - and foreign direct investment (FDI), 29, 139
 - light-touch competition regulation, 11, 71
 - outsourcing to informal economy by, 211–12, 216, fig.6.2, 223–24
- Musk, Elon, 164
- Najib Razak, 12, 92
- ‘national champion’ policies, 86, 133–39, 195, 198, 203–4
- National Logistics Cell, 93
- nepotism. See corruption and cronyism

- networks of business and politics, 7–8, 20–21, 66–69, 247, See also connections world
- business groups' market power, political support for, 23, 139, 145–46, 202–5, 247, 260
- channels of interaction illustrated, fig.1.2, 9
- competition affected by. See competition
- corruption and cronyism. See corruption and cronyism
- cross-border networks, 91, 101–2
- in individual states. See under state names
- job creation and protection. See job creation and protection, political influence on
- lobbying, 9–10, 134, 268, 284
- media support for politicians, 11, 260, 272
- military's business interests, 87, 93–95
- 'national champion' policies, 86, 133–39, 195, 198, 203–4
- network shape and measurement, 72–73, 250–52
- 'betweenness' analysis, 76–77, tab.3.2, 79
- economic concentration, relationship with, 252–53, fig.7.1
- political systems, variation across, 73–74, fig.3.1, fig.3.2, 74–77, 250–53
- state-specific network maps, 79–82
- states, variation across, 77–79, tab.3.1, 77, 253–56
- networks concept, 67–68
- political donations by businesses, 70, 95–96, 106, 112, 272
- political risk for businesses, 19, 26–27, 277
- politicians with business interests, 8, 69–70, 77, 84
- disclosure rule proposals, 272–73
- in family-owned businesses, 87–89, 96
- predatory rent extractions, 50–51
- proposals to disrupt. See connections world, proposals to disrupt
- reciprocal arrangements, 10–11, 15, 70–71, 112–14, 131, 133, 260
- resilience of. See resilience of connections world
- state-owned banks, preferential lending by, 8–9, 135, 137, 198, 247, 261, 282
- networks of business groups, 71, 118, 121–22
- North Korea, 6
- North, Douglass, 60
- Novoselov, Konstantin, 161
- Odebrecht S.A., 12
- Oh, Jason, 267
- 1MDB scandal, Malaysia, 12, 92
- Ongpin, Roberto, 99
- opportunity entrepreneurship in Asia, 186–87, fig.5.5, 188–90, See also innovation
- Pakistan
- business groups in, 143, tab.4.1, 147
- employment share, tab.6.2, 216
- JDW Group, 96
- RYK Group, 96
- economic growth rate, fig.2.1, 34, 36, fig.2.2, 37, fig.2.3
- employment by sector, fig.6.1, 234
- family-owned businesses in, 121
- foreign direct investment (FDI), fig.5.3, fig.5.4, 178
- income and wealth inequality, 58–59, fig.2.6
- informal economy in, tab.6.1, 214
- innovation in
- opportunity entrepreneurship, fig.5.5, 187
- patent grants, 173
- R&D expenditure, tab.5.1, fig.5.1, 172
- scientific research publishing, 172–73
- WIPO Global Innovation Index ranking, 174, 174, fig.5.2
- networks of business and politics, 79, tab.3.1, 82, fig.7.1
- corruption and cronyism, 63–64, fig.2.8
- military's business interests, 93
- resilience of, 95–96
- poverty rate, 55
- rule of law, 62–63, fig.2.7
- Palepu, Krishna, 61
- patent grants, 173, 200

314 INDEX

- Pei, Minxin, 83
 Pettis, Michael, 53
 Pham Nhat Vuong, 113
 pharmaceuticals sector in India, 111–12, 181–82, 194
 Philippines
 business groups in, 97–99, tab.3.3, 113, 146, tab.4.1
 Alliance Global Group, 97
 Ayala Group, 10, 97, 99, 122
 employment share, 225, tab.6.2, 231–32
 First Pacific Group, 10, 99, 104
 San Miguel and SM Investment Groups, 97, 238
 Udenna Group, 100, 112–13
 competition policy, 269–70
 demographic trends, 41–46, fig.2.5
 economic resurgence
 foreign direct investment (FDI), 178,
 fig.5.3, fig.5.4
 global value chains (GVCs)
 participation, 41
 growth rate, fig.2.1, 35, fig.2.2, 37,
 fig.2.3
 industrialisation driving, fig.2.4,
 fig.6.1, 40, 214
 education system, 49
 income and wealth inequality, 58, fig.2.6, 277 billionaires, 146–51, tab.4.2, 151
 poverty rate, 55
 informal economy in, 218, tab.6.1, 225
 innovation in opportunity entrepreneurship, fig.5.5, 187
 R&D expenditure, tab.5.1, fig.5.1, 172
 WIPO Global Innovation Index
 ranking, 174, fig.5.2
 networks of business and politics, 77,
 tab.3.1, 79, 81, fig.7.1, 254–55
 corruption and cronyism, fig.2.8, 64 reciprocal arrangements, 112–13
 resilience of, 97–99
 public sector employment, 234
 rule of law, 62–63, fig.2.7
 Philippon, Thomas, 146, 268
 planned economy policies, 6–7, 217
 political risk, 19, 26–27, 277
 political systems of Asia, 30–31 autocracies. See autocracies democracies. See democracy disruption of connections world, challenges across, 256–58 economic growth mapped to, 31–32,
 fig.2.1, 32–33
 ‘managed’ democracies, 19–20, 26–27, 31
 networks of business and politics, variations across, 74, fig.3.1,
 fig.3.2, 74–77, 250–53
 political–business networks. See networks of business and politics Poly Group, 235 population growth data, 41–46, fig.2.5, 212 Porter, Michael, 158 poverty, data on, 55–56
 Prabowo Subianto, 88–89
 protectionism, 10, 137–38, 144, 146, 192–93, 197 PT Astra International, 104
 public contract awards, 8, 12, 71, 86, 90, 247
 public sector employment, 233–38, 243–44

 radical innovations, 162–63, 173
 Rajapaksa family, 8
 R&D expenditure. See under innovation redundancy payments, 221–22, 239
 related party transactions in business groups, 125–27, 143, 259–70
 Reliance Group, 109–10, 123, 201
 Jio (Reliance Jio Infocomm Ltd), 9,
 110–11, 184
 Ren Zhengfei, 87
 renewable energy developments in China, 156, 178–79, 189 research and development expenditure.
 See under innovation resilience of connections world, 70, 95–97, 114 business group resilience. See business groups, resilience of to democratisation, 6, 21, 31
 in India, 105–12, 258
 in Indonesia, 103–4 informal economy resilience, 220–24 in Malaysia, 101–3
 in Pakistan, 95–96
 in Philippines, 97–99
 Robinson, James A., 62 robotics. See artificial intelligence (AI)

- Roosevelt, Franklin D., 263 rule of law, comparative data, 62–63, fig.2.7
 RYK Group, 96
- Saigon Newport Corp, 95
 Salim Group, 99, 101, 103–4, 112, 269
 Samsung, 29, 135, 144, 146, 185–86, 197, 201 inheritance tax policy impact, 267 scandals involving, 88, 133
 as South Korean 'national champion,' 195, 198
 San Miguel Investment Group, 97, tab.3.3, 238
 Sany Heavy Industry, 182 satisfaction survey findings, 56–57 savings rates, domestic, 46–47, 53–54
 Schoff, James, 155
 Schumpeter, Joseph, 163, 222 scientific research publishing, 172–73, See also innovation semi-skilled and unskilled workers, 39, 50, 213, 215 Sena Kalyan Sangshta, 93–94 services sector, 39–40, 40–41, fig.2.4, 47, 52, 162, 213, fig.6.1 severance payments, 221–22, 239
 Sharif, Nawaz, 8, 96
 Shinawatra, Thaksin, 89–91
 Silicon Valley, California, 167, 189, 196
 Sinar Mas Group, 104, 131, 269
 Asia Pulp & Paper, 124–25
 Singapore
 economic resurgence, 33
 foreign direct investment (FDI), 29, fig.5.3, fig.5.4
 innovation, 275
 education system, 49
 post-war economic growth, 4–6
 social insurance in, 240
 Singh, Kushal Pal, 108–9 Sinochem, 95
 skilled workers. See also employment;
 innovation
 business groups employing, 112, 198, 202, 207, 238 education system investments by Asian states, 49–50 in innovation ecosystems, 160–61, 166 new entrants unable to attract, 202, 207 returned migrants, 17–18, 23, 179–80, 206–7 shortages, 26, 62, 130, 276
- SM Investment Group, 97, tab.3.3
 Small- and medium-sized enterprises, 211–12, 224–25 comparative data from advanced economies, 226 missing mediums, 228 scope for growth and job creation, 228–30, 244, 249 social insurance, 239, See also employment China, shortfalls in, 18–19, 25, 54, 240–42 demographic trends pressurising, 46 and innovation, 202 job creation and protection as alternative to. See job creation and protection, political influence on redundancy payments as alternative to, 221–22, 239 state unwillingness to provide effective systems, 242–43
 SOEs. See state-owned enterprises (SOEs)
 Solow, Robert, 157, 159
 Sony, 164–65
 Soto, Hernando de, 220
 South Africa, Zuma corruption scandal, 12 South Korea business groups (chaebols) in, 121–22, 132, tab.4.1, 238 employment share, 225, 232
 innovation by, 185–86, 201, 204
 innovation stifled by, 204–5
 regulation attempts, 265, 267–68
 Samsung. See Samsung
 competition policy, 269
 economic resurgence, 31, 33–34
 foreign direct investment (FDI), 29, 177
 global value chains (GVCs)
 participation, 41
 growth rate, 35, fig.2.2, 37, fig.2.3
 industrialisation driving, 40, fig.2.4, 46, 213–14, fig.6.1
 education system, 49–50, 172
 family-owned businesses in, 121
 Human Development Index ranking, 56
 income and wealth inequality, 58–59, fig.2.6, 277
 billionaires, 151, tab.4.2, 151
 informal economy in, 217, tab.6.1, 220
 innovation in, 23, 156, 204–6, 248, 274

316 INDEX

- South Korea (cont.)
 by business groups, 185–86, 201, 204
 opportunity entrepreneurship, 188, fig.5.5, 190
 patent grants, 173, 200, 275
 R&D expenditure, 171, tab.5.1, fig.5.1, 172
 scientific research publishing, 173
 state-led initiatives, 194–95
 WIPO Global Innovation Index ranking, 174, 174, fig.5.2
 internet access, 173–74
 networks of business and politics, 77, tab.3.1, 79, fig.7.1, 255–56
 corruption and cronyism, 63, fig.2.8, 88, 133
 post-war economic growth, 5–6
 rule of law, 62–63, fig.2.7
 social insurance in, 240
 South Sea Company, 13
 Soviet Union, 38, 47, 53, 83, 88, 191, 249
 Special Economic Zones in China, 90, 144, 195–96, 218–20 start-up businesses, barriers to. See barriers to new entrants state activism in Asian economies, 6–7, 50–51, 134
 state-owned banks, preferential lending by, 8–9, 135, 137, 198, 247, 261, 282
 state-owned enterprises (SOEs), 7, 79, 134–35, 152, 230 business groups, blurred distinction, 135 employment in, 24, 233–37
 in individual states. See under state names job creation and protection by. See job creation and protection, political influence on networks of business and politics, positions in, 82 performance of, 139–40 state-private sector interactions. See networks of business and politics steel industry in China, 11, 254
 Sudwikatmono, 104
 Suharto (former Indonesian president) and family, 88–89, 94, 103–4, 112, 127–28
 Syed Mokhtar Albukhary, 100–1 Taiwan, 4–6, 204, 275 business groups and family-owned businesses, 121–22, 129, 144 Tan family, 97, 125
 Tanoesoedibjo, Hary, 89
 Tata Group, 29, 122–23, 148, 237
 innovation by, 144–45, 182, 197–98
 Tata Consulting Services, 180–81
 Tata Motors, 184 tax avoidance and evasion, 127, 280 tax policies to disrupt business groups, 25–26, 266–68 to redistribute wealth, 279
 tax wedge data, 241–42
 technological advance. See innovation telecommunications sector
 in China, 10, 86–87, 186
 in India, 9, 91–92, 110–11, 179–86
 in South Korea. See Samsung
 in Vietnam, 95
 Tencent Holdings, 10, 123, 183, 196, 270
 as Chinese ‘national champion,’ , 135–37
 protection from foreign competition, 137–38, 144, 146, 192–93
 innovation by, 138, 186, 197, 200–1, 207
 venture capital provision by, 139, 189
 Tesla, 162, 164–65, 184 textiles industry, 223–24
 TFP (total factor productivity), 47–48 Thailand
 business groups in, 129, 132, tab.4.1
 Charoen Pokphand (CP) Group, 90–91, 102, 122
 competition policy, 269
 economic resurgence
 foreign direct investment (FDI), 29, fig.5.3, fig.5.4
 global value chains (GVCs)
 participation, 41, 276
 growth rate, fig.2.1, fig.2.2, 37, fig.2.3
 education system, 49
 employment by sector, fig.6.1, 214
 family-owned businesses in, 121
 Human Development Index ranking, 56
 income and wealth inequality, 58, fig.2.6, 277
 billionaires, 146–51, tab.4.2
 poverty rate, 55
 informal economy in, 218, tab.6.1

- innovation in, 275
 - opportunity entrepreneurship, fig.5.5, 188
 - R&D expenditure, tab.5.1, fig.5.1, 172
 - scientific research publishing, 172–73
 - WIPO Global Innovation Index ranking, 174, fig.5.2
- networks of business and politics, 77, tab.3.1, 82, fig.7.1, 255
 - corruption and cronyism, 63–64, fig.2.8, 89–91
 - military's business interests, 90–91, 94
 - reciprocal arrangements, 113
 - rule of law, 62–63, fig.2.7
 - state-owned enterprises (SOEs) in, 135
- TMB Bank, 93–94
- total factor productivity (TFP), 47–48
- trade unions, 238
- tradesmen's guilds, 68
- transparency initiatives, 25–26, 73, 262, 272–73
- Tudou, 136
- tunnelling of private gains, 84, 120, 127–28, 142–43
- Uber, 165, 192
- Udenna Group, tab.3.3, 100, 112–13
- United Kingdom
 - business groups disruption, 263
 - cronyism in COVID-19 contract awards, 250–51
 - disclosure of politicians' business interests, 272–73
 - employment shares by firm size, 226, 228
 - family-owned businesses in, 121
 - social welfare spending, 242
- United States
 - Asian economic growth relative to, 36–37, 37, fig.2.3, 38
 - carbon emissions data, 283
 - informal economy in, tab.6.1, 220
 - innovation in, 157, 159
 - Asian R&D expenditure relative to, tab.5.1, 171
 - patent grants, 173
 - scientific research publishing, 172
 - Silicon Valley, California, 167, 189, 196
 - Large- and medium-sized firms in, 226, tab.6.2
 - business concentration, 146, 148
 - business groups disruption, 119, 263
 - Universal Robina Corp, 269
 - unskilled and semi-skilled workers, 39, 50, 213, 215
 - Uy, Dennis, 100, 112–13
 - venture capital, 139, 167, 189, 207
 - Vestas, 179
 - Vichai Srivaddhanaprabha, 90
 - Vietnam
 - business groups in, tab.4.1, employment share, tab.6.2, 216
 - Vingroup, 113
 - economic resurgence, 28
 - foreign direct investment (FDI), fig.5.3, fig.5.4, 178
 - global value chains (GVCs) participation, 41, 276
 - growth rate, fig.2.1, fig.2.2, 37, fig.2.3
 - employment by sector, fig.6.1, 234
 - income and wealth inequality, 58–59, fig.2.6, 277
 - billionaires, tab.4.2, 150
 - poverty rate, 55
 - informal economy in, 217, 218, tab.6.1, 227
 - innovation in, 275
 - opportunity entrepreneurship, fig.5.5, 187
 - R&D expenditure, tab.5.1, fig.5.1, 172
 - scientific research publishing, 172–73
 - WIPO Global Innovation Index ranking, 174, fig.5.2
 - legal systems, 61
 - networks of business and politics, 79, tab.3.1, 81, fig.7.1
 - corruption and cronyism, 63–64, fig.2.8
 - disruption, particular challenges in autocracies, 256–57, 262, 270, 272
 - military's business interests, 95
 - reciprocal arrangements, 113
 - planned economy policies, 6–7, 217
 - political risk for businesses, 19
 - rule of law, 62–63, fig.2.7
 - state-owned enterprises (SOEs) in, 135

318 INDEX

Viettel, 95	workforce productivity data, 37, 212–13
Vingroup, 113	World Trade Organization, China’s membership, 51, 188 wealth inequality. See income and wealth inequality welfare provision. See social insurance	Xerox, 165, 198
Weliangye Group, 235	Yip, George, 155
Wen Jiabao, 85	Zeng, Jeffrey, 136
wind power developments in China, 178–79, 189	Zhong Yongkang, 85
WIPO Global Innovation Index rankings, 174, fig.5.2, 174	Zobel family, 151
Wipro, 180, 197	Zolt, Eric M., , 267
Wittfogel, Karl, 2	ZTE Corp, 10, 86–87 workforce expansion data, 41–46, fig.2.5, 212	Zuma, Jacob, 12