

INDEX

- abandonment of children at founding hospitals (tours), suppression of, 132
- Abnormal* (Foucault), 157
- abortion, 111, 117, 132
- Academy of Medicine, 20, 65, 93
- Academy of Science, 18, 20, 65
- Adam, Sophie, 157–58
- aggravating circumstances, for sexual crimes against children, 147
- alkaloid poisoning, 68–78
- Allier, Eugénie, 142
- alopecia, faking, 84
- America, forensics in, 5, 175–76
- L’Amitié d’un grand chimiste* (Daumier), 63–64
- Amoëdo, Oscar, 33
- anal fistulas, faked, 94
- anesthesia, detection of malingering by use
of, 102–4, 204
- animal experiments, in poison toxicology, 50–51, 63–64, 71–74, 193
- Annales d’hygiène publique et de médecine légale*, 9, 18, 150
- anthropometry, 173
- “apparent death” and premature burial, 13–16, 18–22
- Ariés, Philippe, 144
- arsenic
development of arsenic toxicology, 47–56
Marsh test/Marsh apparatus, 45–46,
60–62, 64–67, 71, 75, 192
- natural occurrence of, 60, 62
“normal arsenic,” 65, 76
pigments added to, 58
poisoners’ move away from use of, 71
poisoning cases involving, 45–46, 50, 54, 56, 58–60, 65, 67, 69, 75–76
sales of, 58, 68
- Assize Court Manual for Questions of Poisoning* (Barse), 68
- Aubert, Xavier-Paul, 106
- auscultation, 19
- autopsies and postmortem examinations conduct of, 23–34
infanticide, 122–28
in Paris morgue, 13, 23–28, 33
in poisoning cases, 47–50, 52–53, 67
verification of death at, 13
- Avinain, Jean-Charles-Alphonse, 29
- Ballet, Hippolyte and Auguste, 51–53
- ballistics, 174
- ballottement*, 115
- Barbier, Joseph François (Father Bérard), 162
- Barrangeard, Antoine, 19
- Barré, Aimé, 29
- Barruel, Dr., 53, 56
- Barse, Jules, 67–68
- Baudens, Lucien, 102
- Bayard, Henri-Louis, 102
- Bazar de la Charité fire, Paris (1897), 33
- Beaude, Jean-Pierre, 138

INDEX

257

- Beauté, Catherine, 12
 beggars and malingering, 90
 Bégin, Emile, 87, 100–1
 Bell, Benjamin, 140
 Benoit, Eugène, 91
 Father Bérard (Joseph François Barbier), 162
 Bergeret, Louis François Etienne, 125
 Bergeron, Georges, 29, 76
 Bernard, Paul, 164
 Bertherat, Bruno, 23
 Bertillon, Alphonse, and bertillonage, 173
 Bertrand, Charles-Alexandre-Hippolyte-Amable, 35
 Betoine, Anne, 59
 Bézy, Paul, 169
 Bichat, Marie-François-Xavier, 16
 Bidard de la Noë, Théophile, 70
 Billoir, Sébastien, and Billoir affair, 2, 28–30
 Bixner, Jean-Georges, 142 blackmail and sexual accusations, 156 bladder or kidney stones, faking, 92
 blindness/eye disease, faking, 85, 93
 blood
 appearance of, in malingering cases, 90, 95 menstrual blood versus lochia, as evidence in reproductive crimes, 116, 118, 122
 Bocarmé, Count Hippolyte Visart de, 71, 73
 Boehmer, Elise, 75
 Boisseau, Edmond, 98, 103, 105
 Bonnet, Henry, 157
 Borie, Léonard, 63
 Bouchut, Eugène, 18–19
 Bouis, Jules, 76
 Bourdin, Claude-Etienne, 168
 Boursier, Marie-Adélaïde, 191
 Bouvier, Joséphine, 54
 Boyard, Joseph, 69
 Boys de Loury, Jules Louis Charles, 58
 Briand, Joseph, 116, 128
 Brillaud-Laujardière, Charles-Claude, 127
 Broë, Jacques Nicolas de, 53
 Brongniart, Jules-Théodore, 92 Brouardel, Paul
 on autopsies and postmortem
 examinations, 25, 30
 on infanticide, 137
 on medico-legal reform, 40
 on poisoning, 75
 on sexual crimes against children, 162, 168
 Buffereau, Eugénie, 75
 Bulard, Jules, 157
 Burlureaux, Charles, 106
 burned bodies, 14, 31–33
 Calabre de Breuze, Elie, 48
 Calas, Jean, 13
 capital crimes
 infanticide and, 111, 141, 205
 simulating pregnancy to avoid execution, 112–16
 carbon monoxide poisoning, 42
 Casper, Johann Ludwig, 159
 Castaing, Edme, 51–53, 73, 77
Causes célèbres (Fouquier), 76
 Chabaneau, Dr., 57
 Chabanon, Jules, 139
 Chapuis, Adolphe, 77
 charlatanism, medical, and faking illnesses, 89
 Chaudé, Ernest, 128
 Chaussier, François, 34, 48
 Chaussier, Hector, 50
 Chavaud, Frédéric, 6
 Chevallier, Alphonse, 58, 71
 childbirth. See reproductive crimes children. See also infanticide; sexual crimes against children
 changing historical models of childhood, 144
 legal protections for, in industrial age, 142
 male authority over bodies of women and, 111
 cholera versus poisoning, 46, 48, 56–57
 chromhidrosis (colored sweat), 93
 class issues
 infanticide, class and marital status of women convicted of, 111, 130, 132–34
 sexual crimes against children, class/reputation of victims/abusers in,
 148–50, 158, 218
 Code of Criminal Instruction (1808), 35
 Collongues, Léon, 19
conseils de révision (draft boards),
 malingering at, 83, 85, 88, 94

- contradictory evidence in infanticides, 129
 medical expertise and, 38, 129
 in poisoning cases, 45, 48, 65
 Cormenin, Dr., 67
 Cornil, Victor, 76
 coroners in Anglo-American forensics, 5, 175
 corpus delicti, 23, 39, 56, 122
 correctionalization, 122, 149
 Couerbe, Jean-Pierre, 65
 court system in France, 3
 Courtin, Louis, 25
 Coutagne, Henry, 158, 161
 COVID-19 pandemic, 177
 criminal profiling, 171
 Cronfaut, Edouard, 155
 Cruppi, Jean, 43
 CSI effect, 176
- Dally, Eugène, 168
 Danger, Ferdinand, 65
 Danval poisoning case, 75
Daubert v. Merrell Dow Pharmaceuticals
 (U.S. Supreme Court, 1993), 175, 221
 Daumier, Honoré Victorin, 63–64
 Dautzats murder (1839), 12
 de Gouges, Olympe, 114
 de Kolly, Madame, 113
 de Pauw, Julie, 72–73
 de Salle, Eusèbe, 116
 deafness, faking, 85, 93, 102
 death certificates, 15
 death penalty. See capital crimes Declaration of the Rights of Woman (de Gouges), 114
 decomposition. See putrefaction
 Delacroix, Eugène, 65
 Delens, Emile, 76
 dental forensics (forensic odontology), 33
 Desgranges, Jean-Baptiste, 14
 Deshayes, Jacques, 57
 Desmaze, Charles, 44
 Deu, Louise, 30
 Devergie, Alphonse
 on autopsies and postmortem
 examinations, 18, 20
 on medical expertise and professionalism, 36–37, 60
 on poisonings, 60, 73
 on verification of death, 18, 20
- diarrhea and dysentery, faking, 95
 dismembered corpses, 14, 28–31, 69
 dissimulating or hiding illness, 80
 divorce and poisoning, 57
 DNA evidence, 176
 docimasia (lung float test/hydrostatic test), 124, 129
 domestic servants and infanticide, 131, 133–34
 Donnet, Cardinal Ferdinand-François-Auguste, 19
 d'Ourches, Marquis, 20
 Dreyfus Affair, 174
 Drioux, Joseph, 40
 Druaux, Pauline, 42
 Dufour, Frédéric, 48
 Duponchel, Emile, 106–7
 Durand, Eugène-Ernest, 31
 dysentery and diarrhea, faking, 95
- electricity and muscular contractility, 18
 English forensics, 5, 50, 113, 176
 Enlightenment model of childhood, 144
 entomology, forensic, 125
 epilepsy, faked, 87, 101–2, 200
 Espagne, Adelphe, 104
état civil (civil registry of births, marriages, and deaths), 15
 evidence, scientific/medical versus moral.
See moral evidence experts. See medical expertise and professionalism
 extenuating circumstances
 for infanticide, 134
 for sexual crimes against children, 146 eye disease/blindness, faking, 85, 93
 eye of murder victim, last object/person viewed by, 1
- faked or feigned illness. See malingering
 Ferré, Roch, 155
 Ferry laws (1881, 1882), 105
 Fiévet, Célestine, 110
 fingerprinting, 174
 Flandin, Charles, 65
 Florence, Albert, 170
 Fodéré, François-Emmanuel
 on malingering, 79, 84, 86, 99
 medicolegal reforms, calls for, 38
 on poisoning, 48
 on reproductive crimes, 112, 120, 126

INDEX

259

- on sexual crimes against children, 145–46
- Fontenelle, Jean-Sébastien-Eugène Julia de, 18
- forensic entomology, 125
- forensic medicine in modern France, 1–44
 - autopsies and postmortem examinations, 12 (See also autopsies and postmortem examinations)
 - challenges faced by, 8
 - French Revolution, legal and medical changes introduced by, 2–3, 6, 13
 - gender and, 7, 13
 - historical development of, 2–5
 - malingering, detection of, 10, 79–109 (See also malingering)
 - medical expertise and professionalism in, 172–75, 177 (See also medical expertise and professionalism)
 - modern public confidence in, 175–78
 - poisoning, 10, 45–78 (See also poisoning)
 - popular acceptance and awareness of, 8 (See also popular acceptance and awareness of forensics)
 - reproductive crimes, 10, 110–41 (See also reproductive crimes)
 - scholarship on, 5–7
 - scientific/medical versus moral proof in, 9, 55, 67, 173
 - sexual crimes against children, 11, 142–70 (See also sexual crimes against children)
 - sources for, 9
 - state power and medicolegal authority, links between, 7
 - tell-tale eye, interest in, 1
 - Vacher case, medicolegal issues covered by, 171–73
 - verification of death, 13–23
- forensic odontology (dental forensics), 33
- forensic psychiatry, 6, 96–97, 138–41, 155
- Fornier, Alfred, 152
- Foucault, Michel, 156–58
- Fougnies, Gustave, 71
- Fouquier, Armand, 76
- Fourcroy, Antoine-François, 34
- Fournier, Alfred, 152–53, 165–67, 216
- Fourquet, Emile, 171
- Fratini, Jean-Jacques, 104
- French Revolution
 - legal and medical changes produced by, 2–3, 6, 13
 - mass conscription and malingering in, 79–89
 - simulated pregnancy to avoid execution in, 112–16
- Frye v. United States* (U.S. Supreme Court, 1923), 175
- garlic smell test, 54
- Gautier, Jean-Antoine, 66
- Gazette des tribunaux*, 9, 37, 146
- Gazette médicale de Paris*, 57
- gender in legal medicine, 7, 13. See also reproductive crimes; sexual crimes against children
 - false accusation of sexual abuse, male concerns about, 143, 145, 151, 162–69
 - hysteria and malingering, 92
 - kidney stones, women faking, 92
 - “New Woman,” male anxieties about, 167
 - poisoning and, 76
 - sexual crimes against children, gender of victims/accused in, 158–61, 166, 168, 218
 - verification of death and, 21
- general acceptance test, 175
- Gérard, Jean-Baptiste, 101
- Gloeckler, Jean-Georges, 69
- Golan, Tal, 5
- Görlitz, Countess of, 32
- groin and scrotum, faking swellings in, 82, 94
- hanging, staged, 12
- Haussmann, Baron Georges, and modernization of Paris, 24
- heartbeat
 - death, absence as means of confirming, 18
 - fetal, 115
- Hébert, Louis, 73
- Hébert, Marie-Adélaïde, 58
- hemorrhoids, faked, 94
- hernia or hydrocele, faking, 82, 94
- hiding or dissimulating illness, 80
- homosexuality, construction of, 156
- hydrocele or hernia, faking, 82, 94

- hydrostatic test (lung float test/docimasia), 124, 129
- hysteria, 92, 167, 169
- identification of corpses, 25, 31
- incest, 158
- infanticide, 121–41
 - abortion, lack of access to, 132
 - as capital crime, 111, 141, 205
 - cause of death, determining, 125–28
 - class and marital status of women
 - convicted of, 111, 130, 132–34
 - concealed pregnancy, means/evidence of, 111–12, 119, 121, 132
 - concealment of birth as lesser charge, 122
 - correctionalization of, 122
 - discovery of infant's corpse, 121
 - dismembering of newborn in, 30
 - extenuating circumstances for, 134
 - fainting during delivery, as defense, 135
 - Fiévet case, 110
 - forensic evidence, importance of, 111, 121–31
 - investigations of suspected cases of, 122–28
 - jury trials in, 110–11, 122, 128–38
 - lung float test (hydrostatic test/docimasia), 124, 129
 - men tried for, 133
 - menstrual blood versus lochia, as evidence in, 118, 122
 - misdiagnosis of pregnancy and childbirth, 120
 - moral assessments of accused in, 130–38
 - murder versus infanticide, and age of child at death, 208
 - paternity suits, Napoleonic ban on, 131–32
 - rate of prosecutions and convictions for, 134, 211
 - reasons for prevalence of, 132
 - sanity/mental state of mother at time of, 138–41
 - stillbirth/premature birth/natural death versus, 111, 121, 123–24, 132
 - time of death, determining, 124–25
 - tours* (abandonment of children at foundling hospitals), suppression of, 132
 - umbilical cord, failure to tie, 127
 - umbilical cord, suffocation of child from accidental looping of, 135
 - unawareness of pregnancy or unexpectedness of birth, as defense, 135–37
 - vaginal and other medical examinations to determine pregnancy, 119–20
- Innocence Project, 176
- Innocent X (pope), 2
- insanity. See mental state of accused
- insurance fraud, 72, 80, 91
- International Exposition (1867), 27
- Jackson, Louise, 218
- jaundice, faking, 93
- Jégado, Hélène, 69
- Journal du droit criminel*, 146
- Journal of General Medicine*, 49
- Journal of Practical Medicine and Surgery*, 90
- Jouy, Charles-Joseph, 157–58
- July Revolution (1830), 57, 142
- jury trials
 - evaluation of forensic/medical evidence by, 173
 - in infanticide cases, 110–11, 122, 128–38
 - introduction of, 3, 13
 - in sexual crimes against children, 146–50, 153
- kidney or bladder stones, faking, 92
- Kostolo, Nicolas, 191
- la Pommerais, Edmond-Désiré Couty de, 72–74, 77
- Laborde, Jean-Baptiste-Vincent, 22
- Lacassagne, Alexandre
 - on autopsies and postmortem examinations, 30–31
 - on ballistics and trace evidence, 174
 - on sexual crimes against children, 154, 156, 162, 164, 169
 - in Vacher trial, 171–72
- Laënnec, René, 18, 52
- Lafarge, Charles and Marie, 45, 66, 73
- Larrey, Dominique-Jean, 82
- Lasègue, Charles, 30, 167
- Laurent, Armand, 97

INDEX

261

- Laurent, Charles Nicolas, 84–86, 88, 100, 104, 205
 Laurillard-Fallot, Salomon-Louis, 85, 93–94, 205
 Le Cat, Claude-Nicolas, 32
 Lebiez, Paul, 29–30
 Leclerc, N., 47–48
 Legludic, Henri, 164, 168
 Legrand de Saulle, Henri, 117
 Lerondeau, Mélanie, 74
 Lesueur, Octave, 60, 125
 L'Hôte, Désiré, 75–76
Leichenhäuser, 17
 Locard, Edmond, 174
 lochia, as evidence in reproductive crimes, 116, 118
 Lombroso, Cesare, 156
 Lop, Pierre-André, 161
 lung float test (hydrostatic test/docimasia), 124, 129
 Lutard, Auguste, 115
 Magendie, François, 51–52
 Mahoin, Marie, 74
 Mahon, Paul-Augustine-Olivier, 85
 Malagutti, Professor, 70
 malingering, 10, 79–109. See also specific feigned conditions accidents faked for financial gain, 90
 anesthesia, detection by use of, 102–4, 204 assumption of, 106
 beggars and, 90
 charlatanism, role in, 89
 as criminal act, 82
 decline in reports of, 105–6
 ethics of exposure of, 99–108
 legal conflicts leading to, 80
 medical expertise/professionalism and, 81
 medical personnel assisting with, 82–83, 88–89, 198
 medicolegal literature on, 80, 83, 88, 97–99
 military service, attempts to evade, 79–89, 105–7 motivations for, 92
 objects and animal parts used in, 79, 83, 94, 197
 pain, detection by infliction of, 100–1, 104
 pregnancy, simulating/dissimulating, 80, 109, 197
 in prisons, 91–93
 proof of, what constituted, 107 “provoked” illnesses and self-mutilation, 82
 public practice and medical detection of, 89–99
 skills and tactics, learning and practicing, 97–98
 Manach, Jeanne-Marie Le, 28–29
 Manne, Kate, 220
 Manni, Pietro, 18, 21
 Marc, Charles-Christien-Henri
 on malingering, 86, 89, 96, 101
 medicolegal reform, calling for, 35, 37
 on verification of death, 17, 21
 Marcé, Louis-Victor, 139
 Marlet, Jean Henri, 27
 Marsh, James, 60, 189
 Marsh test/Marsh apparatus, 45–46, 60–62, 64–67, 71, 75, 192
 Martino, Ernest, 103
 masturbation, 152–53, 165, 216
 Mayer, Eugénie, 74
médecins jurés, 2
médecins légistes, 2
médecins-inspecteurs, 25
 medical expertise and professionalism, 172–75, 177
 burned bodies and, 31–33
 contradictory evidence, problem of, 38, 129
 death, diagnosis and investigation of, 13–23
 in dismembered corpse cases, 30
 education and training, 3, 13, 25, 34–35, 40, 162
 in infanticide, 121–31
 male authority over bodies of women and children, 111–20
 malingering, detection of, 81
 modern decline in respect for, 177 poisoning, concerns about ability to detect/wrongful convictions for, 56–68, 70 poisoning, designation of specialists in, 63 public confidence in, 175–78
 reform, nineteenth-century appeals for, 34–44

- medical expertise and professionalism (cont.)
 reorganization of medical profession (1803), 4, 13
 in reproductive crimes, 112–20
 role of medical expert, determining, 37
 on sexual crimes against children,
 143–44, 149–54, 162, 169
 U.S. system compared, 175
 of women/midwives, 7, 111, 113
 Medico-Psychological Society, 167–68
 Mégnin, Jean Pierre, 125
 Menesclou, Louis, 30, 185
 menstrual blood versus lochia, as evidence
 in reproductive crimes, 116, 118, 122
 mental disability, feigning, 102
 mental state of accused in dismembered corpse case, 30
 feigned illness, insanity as, 79, 87, 92, 96–97, 101, 104, 107
 in infanticide cases, 138–41
 in poisoning spree, 69 pregnant women, questions about legal responsibility and mental clarity of, 114
 in sexual crimes against children, 155–56
 in Vacher trial, 171
 Mercier, Louis, 60, 62
 Metzquer, Edmond, 99, 106–7
 Michel, Auguste, 65
 Michel, Marie, 54
 midwives, 7, 111, 113, 118, 122, 136
 military service, malingering as means of evading, 79–89, 105–7
 Millet, Jean, 32
 Mohr, James, 5
 monomania, concept of, 156
 Montfalcon, Jean-Baptiste, 16
 moral evidence. See also class issues;
 gender in legal medicine
 infanticide, moral assessments of accused in, 130–38 “precocious perversity” of children,
 concept of, 145, 147–49, 151, 153, 157–58, 167–68
 scientific/medical evidence versus, 9, 55, 67, 173
 Morel, Bénédict-Augustin, 156
 “La Morgue” (Marlet), 27
 “La Morgue” (Varin and Staal), 26
 Moricheau-Beaupré, Pierre-Jean, 83
 morphine poisoning, 52, 68
 Motet, Auguste, 30, 167
 Napoleon Bonaparte, 82
 Napoleonic (Civil) Code (1804), 3, 16
 Napoleonic Wars, malingering in, 80–89
 nearsightedness, faking, 84, 97
 Necker, Suzanne, 15
 Négrier, Dr., 135
 Neisser, Albert, 219
 “New Woman,” male anxieties about,
 167
 Nilan, Cat, 144
 nostalgia, as medical diagnosis, 87
officiers de santé defined, 5
 in infanticide cases, 128–29
 malingering, assistance with, 82–83, 88
 medicolegal reforms and, 34
 training and education of, 35
 verification of death by, 15, 17, 21
 Olivaud, Emmanuel-Joseph, 124
 Ollivier d’Angers, Charles-Prosper, 60, 89, 91, 121
 opium, and urinary incontinence, 87
 Orfila, Mathieu
 on autopsies and postmortem
 examinations, 23
 forensic entomology, use of, 125
 hanging, study on, 12
 on medicolegal reform, 12
 “normal arsenic” theory, 65, 76
 on poisoning and toxicology, 45, 50–56, 60–67, 71, 76
 time of death, determination of, 125
 on verification of death, 17
 original sin and idea of childhood, 144
 oxalic acid poisoning, 74
 ozena, 84
 Paillard de Vielleneuve, Adolphe-Victor, 37
 pain, detection of malingering by infliction
 of, 100–1, 104
 Palmer, William, 72–73
 Paré, Ambroise, 2
 Parent, Victor, 96
Paris Guide, 27

INDEX

263

- Paris morgue, 13, 23–28, 33, 122, 134
 Pars, Marc-Paul, 146
 paternity suits, Napoleonic ban on,
 131–32
 Pel, Albert, 74
 Pellassy des Fayolles, Nestor-Joseph, 116
 Penal Code (1791), 112
 Penal Code (1810), 3, 90, 114, 148, 205
 Pénard, Louis, 151, 153, 165
 Percy, Pierre-François, 84–86, 88, 100–1, 104, 205
 Pereyra, Emile, 36
 Phalipon, Jules, 65
 phosphorus poisoning, 71
 Plouviez, Dr., 19
 poisoning, 10, 45–78. See also arsenic, and other specific poisons
 alkaloid and other poisons, use and detection of, 46, 68–78
 animal experiments and detection of,
 50–51, 63–64, 71–74, 193
 autopsies and determination of, 47–50, 52–53, 67
 case studies of, 58
 cholera, distinguishing, 46, 48, 56–57
 common methods of administering, 58
 common motives for, 57–58
 concerns about ability to detect/wrongful convictions for, 56–68, 70
 contradictory evidence in, 45, 48, 65, 67
 convictions despite failure to detect poison, 55, 59, 67
 development of arsenical toxicology, 47–56
 as gendered crime, 76
 human tissues, detecting poison in, 55, 60
 medical specialists, designation of, 63
 natural deaths versus, distinguishing, 46, 48–49, 56–68
 pigments added to poisonous substances to prevent, 58
 public fear of, 47, 67
 spree poisoners, 69, 74
 vegetable versus mineral poisons, 52 popular acceptance and awareness of forensics, 8
 CSI effect, 176
 malingering, public practice of, 89–99
 modern forensic expertise, public confidence in, 175–78
 Paris morgue, as public attraction, 13, 23–28, 33
 poisoning, concerns about ability to detect/wrongful convictions for, 56–68, 70
 utilization of popular knowledge to cover up crimes, 14, 23, 68–78, 172
 Portal, Antoine, 51
 postmortems. See autopsies and postmortem examinations
 postpartum or puerperal insanity, 138–41
 Pranzini, Enrico, 2
 “precocious perversity,” concept of, 145,
 147–49, 151, 153, 157–58, 167–68
 pregnancy. See reproductive crimes premature burial and “apparent death,” 13–16, 18–22
Premature Burials (Necker), 15
 Prévost, Victor, 29–30
 prisons, malingering in, 91–93
 Prix Dugate, 21
 profiling, 171
 proof. See evidence “provoked” illnesses, 82
 Pruvost, Séraphine, 55
 psychiatry. See forensic psychiatry
 puerperal or postpartum insanity, 138–41
 putrefaction
 infanticides, determining time of death
 in, 124
 “normal arsenic” and, 65
 poisoning detection and, 54
 as verification of death, 16–18, 21
 Quesney, Rose, 57
 quickening (fetal movement), 115
 Raige-Delorme, Jacques, 48–49
 Raspail, François-Vincent, 45, 61–62, 70
 Ravoux, Louis, 30
 rectal prolapse, faked, 94
 registration of births, marriages, and deaths, 15
 reproductive crimes, 10, 110–41. See also infanticide
 abortion, 111, 117, 132
 concealment of birth as lesser charge
 than infanticide, 122

- reproductive crimes (cont.)
 execution, simulating pregnancy to avoid, 116–17
 fetal heartbeat, 115
 incest, pregnancy resulting from, 159
 legal responsibility and mental clarity of pregnant women, questions about, 114
 male authority over women's and children's bodies, 111–20
 menstrual blood versus lochia, as evidence in, 116, 118
 misdiagnosis of pregnancy and childbirth, 120
 quickening (fetal movement), 115
 simulating pregnancy, 80, 109, 112–17, 197
supposition/substitution de part (passing off or substituting a child as one's own), 116–17
 vaginal and other medical
 examinations, 113, 115, 119–20
 verification of pregnancy and, 112–13, 115–16, 119–20
 verification of woman's death and extraction of fetus, 21
 women/midwives, waning medical authority of, 111, 113
 resuscitation of the apparently dead, 14–16
 retina of murder victim, last object/person
 viewed by, 1
 Revolutionary Tribunal of Paris (1793), 113–14
 Richetto, Luigi, 31
 Riehl, Salomé, 69
 rigor mortis
 infanticides, determining time of death
 in, 124
 as sign of death, 16, 18
 ringworm, faking or self-infecting with, 84
 Robespierre, Maximilien, 113–14
 Rochard, Jules, 22
 Rognetta, Francesco, 66
 Roussin, Zacharie, 72–73

 Saint-Yves, Dr., 118
 Salat, Marie, 29
 Sand, George, 64
 sanity. See mental state of accused Sarraxin, Rosalie, 70
 Schwartz, Vanessa, 23

 scrotum and groin, faking swellings in, 82, 94
 self-mutilation, 82
 serial murder, 171–72
 servants and infanticide, 131, 133–34
 Seurre-Bousquet, J.-B., 54
 sexual crimes against children, 11, 142–70
 blackmail and, 156
 class/reputation of victims/abusers in, 148–50, 158, 218
 closed trials of, 150
 consent, concept of, 146–49
 criminalization of sexual activity with children under age 11 (1832), 142, 146
 extenuating and aggravating circumstances, 146
 false accusations, concerns about, 143, 145, 151, 162–69
 forensic evidence of, 143, 149, 151, 154–63, 169, 216
 gender of victims and accused, 158–61, 166, 168, 218
 impotence/genital malformations preventing sex, accused claiming, 142, 155
 incest, 158
 innocence/precocity of children, beliefs
 about, 143–54, 165, 168
 Jouy case, 157–58
 in jury trials, 146–50, 153
 legal efforts for child protection in industrial age and, 142
 masturbation versus, 152–53, 165, 216
 medical expertise in, 143–44, 149–54, 162, 169
 mental state of accused and, 155–56 multiple victims, testimony of, 162
 physical development of child and, 148, 151–52
 physical possibility of rape, questions
 about, 150
 “precocious perversity,” concept of, 145,
 147–49, 151, 153, 157–58, 167–68
 raising of age of consent to 13 (1863), 148
 rates of prosecution and conviction, 149, 163, 170, 218
 by religious figures, 154, 162, 215
 testimony of children, mistrust of, 150, 162, 167–69
 violent versus nonviolent assaults, 146–49, 215

INDEX

265

- Society of Legal Medicine, 1, 43
 Society of Practical Medicine, 19
 Spanish fly, poisoning with, 42
 spontaneous combustion, 32
 spree poisoners, 69, 74
 Staal, Pierre-Gustave, 26
 staging homicides as suicides, 12, 14
 Stas, Jean Servais, 71
 state power and medicolegal authority, 7
 Stauff, Johann, 32
 stethoscopes
 as death verification devices, 18
 as pregnancy verification devices, 115
 stigmata, faked, 95
 strychnine poisoning, 72, 195
 suffocation/strangulation
 as cause of death in infanticides, 125
 umbilical cord, accidental choking of infant by, 135
 suicides, staged, 12
supposition/substitution de part, 116–17
- Tacheron, C. F., 17
 Tardieu, Ambroise
 on autopsies and postmortem
 examinations, 27, 32
 hanging, on suicide versus homicide by, 12
 on poison, 64, 72–73
 on reproductive crimes, 118, 122, 125–26, 134, 139
 on sexual crimes against children, 142,
 151–52, 154, 159, 164, 216, 218
 Tauffleib, Edouard, 101
 tell-tale eye, 1 Tessier, Jeanne-Marie, 118
 testicles, faking absence of, 84
 Texier, Rose, 70
 Thoinot, Léon-Henri, 150, 158, 160, 163, 218
 time of death, experiments in determining, 125
 tobacco smoke enemas, 14
 Touchard, Prosper, 17
 Toulmouche, Adolphe, 150
 Tourdes, Gabriel
 on autopsies and postmortem
 examinations, 33
 on malingering, 92, 95, 99, 103, 106–7, 204
 on poisoning, 69
 on reproductive crimes, 115
 on verification of death, 20
tours, suppression of, 132
Toxicological Catechism (Borie), 63
 toxicology. See poisoning
 trace evidence, 174
Treatise on Poisons (Orfila), 50
 Trenque, Françoise, 55
 Trump, Donald, 177
- ulcers, faking, 82
 umbilical cord
 failure to tie, as infanticide, 127
 suffocation of child from accidental looping of, 135
L'Union médicale, 77
 United Kingdom, forensics in, 5, 50, 113, 176
 United States, forensics in, 5, 175–76
 urinary incontinence, faking, 86, 92, 104
- Vacher, Joseph, 171–73
 vaginitis, as sign of child sexual assault, 152
 Varin, Adolphe, 26
 Vauquelin, Louis-Nicolas, 52–53
 Velpeau, Alfred-Armand-Louis, 117
 venereal disease
 child sexual assault, as sign of, 151, 161, 165
 simulation/dissimulation of, 80, 154, 165
 verdigris poisoning, 58
 verification of death, 13–23
 Vernois, Maxime, 1
 Vibert, Charles, 36, 139
 “Vue intérieure de la morgue” (Courtin), 25
- waiting mortuaries, 13, 15, 17–19
Weekly Gazette of Medicine and Surgery, 73
 Weill, Matthieu, 138
- Zacchia, Paulo, 2
 Zola, Émile, 156
 Zuber, César, 105, 204