

Index

- Amnesty International
 as polity-builder, 188–189, 192, 199, 225
 background, 67, 185–186
 Campaign for the Abolition of Torture, 196–199 diplomatic network, 216–219
 government hostility, 193–195, 202, 216, 221, 223 government links, 210–211, 213, 214, 224 mistrust, 224–227
 moral purity, 204–206, 211
 Nobel Prize, 185, 204, 212
 policy influence, 199, 200, 203, 219, 225 reform negotiations, 220–223 research expertise, 206–209, 224
 UN advocacy, 196, 198, 219
 archives, 9, 73, 116, 152, 187
- Benenson, Peter, 185, 189, 190–191, 205, 210–211, 213
- Blackwater
 and bureaucratic debates, 116, 141–145
 background, 66, 112–113, 115
 distributed accountability, 1, 115, 122–124, 129–131 Iraq War, 112, 119, 121–122, 136
 lack of oversight, 120, 127–128
 Nisour Square, 1, 126, 131–138, 144 post-9/11, 118–120
 subcontracting, 120, 128
 versus US govt, 131, 132, 133, 135–136
- Bodin, Jean, 16, 28
- bureaucracy and contracting, 138–141
- chicken tikka masala, 35
- Clive, Robert, 99, 102, 104
- contractors, 57, 62, 114, 117, 145 evolution in American military, 117–120
- corporate self-governance, 167, 171, 181
- corporate social responsibility, 153, 154, 157, 160
- Dewey, John, 3, 68, 187, 190, 230
- English East India Company
 background, 65, 70–71
 charter negotiations, 78, 79–81, 82–85 institutional networks, 81, 87, 89–91, 104 secrecy, 91–93, 100 sovereign awakening, 73, 100–101, 107 sovereign functions, 76–77 territorial gains, 85, 98–100 versus crown, 95–97, 98, 101
 versus parliament, 75, 88, 93, 98, 101–105, 106–107, 110
- Facebook, 233–236
- Foucault, Michel, 31, 33
- Gates Foundation, The, 59
- Hastings, Warren, 105, 107
 impeachment, 108–109
- Hobbes, Thomas, 3, 17, 28
- human rights and Cold War politics, 202–204, 206 transnational advocacy, 190, 195
- hybridity, 6, 34–35
 as contractual, 57–59
 as institutional, 59–60
 as shadow, 60–61
 in cultural studies, 35–36
- ideal-types
 logic of, 50–54, 65
 of public/private hybridity, 8, 43, 55–57, 231
- International Chamber of Commerce arbitration, 176–177, 178–181
 background, 67, 147–150

- commercial crimes, 172–175
- corporate responsibility, 155, 157–158, 159
- cyber governance, 168–171
- elitism, 172, 175, 181–184
- GATT/WTO relations, 163–165
- International Trade Organization, 161–163
- policy commissions, 167–168
- UN relations, 154, 157, 174, 177
- versus NGOs, 155–156, 166
- international nongovernmental organizations
 - and moral authority, 204
 - as strategic actors, 186–187, 215, 223
 - dirty hands problem, 60, 186, 227–228
- interpretivist methodology, 9, 63–64, 79
- Law Merchant, The, 48–50, 171
- legitimation, 5, 75, 115, 126, 133, 152, 176, 184, 226, 232
- MacBride, Seán, 190, 193, 197, 209, 211, 212, 214, 218, 220, 222
- polity, global, 187–189
- Prince, Erik, 112, 113, 121, 128, 129
- public/private distinction, 7, 41, 42, 46
- public/private hybridity, 40
 - and power, 5, 146, 231–232
 - and responsibility, 8, 232–233, 236, 238–239
 - in global governance, 45–47, 151
- responsibility
 - as structural, 236–239
- social construction, 14, 32, 38, 74
 - and practice turn, 33–34
- social structures, 4, 15, 24, 38
- sovereign power, 2, 41, 65
 - as state effect, 30
 - functions of, 28–30, 143
 - versus authority, 15, 39, 42, 47–48, 68, 94, 230
- sovereignty
 - and Brexit, 27
 - and Trump, 27
 - and US founding, 20–24
 - as divisible, 7, 28, 31–32
 - as hybrid, 6, 36–37, 68, 229
 - early modern theories of, 16–17
 - in International Relations theory, 4, 12–13, 25–27
 - indivisibility doctrine, 6, 14, 16, 19, 20
 - monopoly on violence, 124–127
- state-formation, 18, 42, 74
- transnational private authority, 43–45, 150
- Weber, Max, 51–53, 63, 124–127