

Index

- Able (enslaved carpenter), 177
- abolitionism
 - northerners' abhorrence of, 81
 - and postmillenarianism, 130
 - Southern response to, 54–56
 - as threat to southern white families, 50, 194
 - See also* Harpers Ferry raid; slave insurrection
- Adams, James Hopkins, 39
- Alabama, secession of, 180
- Allstadt, John, 56
- Allston family
 - summer vacationing and socializing, 106
- Allston, Adele, Jr. (later Vanderhorst)
 - introduction to and elite status of, 7, 39
 - on Democratic National Convention, 84, 90
 - on First Bull Run, 196
 - on Lincoln's election, 151
 - political discussion involving family members, 121
 - and Prince of Wales, 111, 118
 - on secession winter, 169, 182
 - on social season, 76, 98–100
 - on summer season, 94, 98–100, 105, 106
 - wartime, celebrations, 191
 - wartime, loneliness of, 192
 - wartime, socializing and courtship, 194
 - wartime, summer season, 191
 - wartime, waiting for news, 193
 - writings return to normal after event, 90–92
- Allston, Adele Petigru, Sr.
 - introduction to, 7
 - financial hardships and death, 199
 - political discussion involving family members, 121
 - political writings as circumspect, 147
 - on secession, economic impact of, 156
 - on secession resolution and threat of war, 159
 - on slave insurrection, 179
 - on summer season, 93, 98–100, 105
 - on war, preparation for, 176
 - wartime, waiting for news, 193
- Allston, Benjamin, 93, 94, 98, 111, 121, 123
- Allston, Charles Petigru, 8
- Allston, Elizabeth "Bessie" (later Pringle), 7, 105, 178, 190, 191
 - postwar life, 199
- Allston, Jane, 7, 82, 167, 191
- Allston, Robert F. W.
 - death, 199
 - finances of, 118
 - northerner friends of, 84
 - on planting season, 93
 - property holdings, 39
 - and summer season, 109, 118
- American Revolution, legacy of, 110–115, 117, 140, 142, 145–147
 - "Spirit of 76," 46, 49
- Anderson, Robert, 161, 184, 189
 - in women's writings, 181
- anti-Tom novel, 145
- anxiety, nineteenth-century views on, 169–171
- Arnold, Ellenor, 47
- Athenaeum Hall, 153
- Aunt Phillis's Cabin* (Eastman), 52
- Bacot, Ada White
 - introduction to, 7, 39
 - anxiety and stress dreams, 168, 170–172, 194
 - on death, 135, 165
 - diary, end of, 201
 - diary posthumously edited for publication, 27
 - as enslaver, 41

220 INDEX

- Bacot, Ada White (cont.)
 on Fort Sumter's surrender, 189
 mental health issue, probable, 174
 on monotony, 30
 on news, lack of, 183, 193 political debates with father, 77 on sacrifice, 148
 on secession of other southern states, 180, 181
 on secession of South Carolina, 141, 158
 on slave resistance and insurrection, 177, 179, 194
 on time, passage of, 34, 163
 on waiting, 181
 on weather, mood, and health, 165, 171–172, 189
 on writing as too difficult, 169
- Bacot, Peter Samuel, 39, 77, 201
- Baltimore Convention, 95
- barrier islands
 as summer vacation spot, 98, 99
- Barringer, Victor Clay, 154
- Beauregard, P. G. T. and Fort Sumter, reprovisioning of, 183–185
 social visits, 183
 in women's writings, 181
- Bedford Springs, PA, 103
- Bell, John, 109
- benevolence, 44–46
- Best, Selena Hext, 143
- birth rates, 44
- The Black Gauntlet* (Schoolcraft), 69, 145
- "Black Republicans," 55
- Bluffton, SC, 150
 as summer destination, 100
- Breckinridge, John C., 95, 109
- Brevard, Keziah Goodwyn Hopkins
 introduction to, 7, 39
 and anxiety, 124, 166, 179
 on death, 165
 diary, end of, 190
 on Fort Sumter surrender to Confederates, 190
 on Harpers Ferry, 62
 on Lincoln, 137, 156, 158, 173
 mental health issue, probable, 174
 postwar life, 202
 on secession, 137, 159, 165
 on slave resistance and insurrection, 62, 65, 122–123, 131–134, 179 slavery, misgivings about, 41
 on weather and moods, 173 writing as coping mechanism, 167
- Brown, John
 trial and execution, 57, 70
 See also Harpers Ferry raid
- Brown, Julia, 48
- Buchanan, James, 103, 147, 149, 161
- Buffalo Lithia Springs, VA, 104
- Burke, William, 102–103
- Burn, Charles L., 7, 139
- Burn family, 121
- Burn, Florence "Flora," 7, 138, 165, 172
- Burn, Susan Roberts
 introduction to, 7
 on Buchanan, 147
 on Democratic National Convention, 87
 on Harpers Ferry, 71
 on news of Lincoln's election, 138
 penmanship and emotion, 128
 politics integrated into everyday life, 152
 on secession, 131, 149, 159, 161
 on secession, support of, 140
 and slave insurrection and biblical doomsday, 128–130, 131
- Calhoun, John C. legacy of, 112, 148
 and secession, views on, 150
- Charleston, SC
 blockade, 186, 191
 Confederate troops in, 175
 and military aura, 162, 178
 on news of Lincoln's election, 138
 during summer months, 121
- Charleston Mercury*
 advertisements in the Mercury, 90
 on Baltimore Convention, 95
 on Democratic National Convention, 86
 on Fort Sumter/Star of the West, 175
 on Harpers Ferry, 62, 66
 on Ordinance of Secession, 155
 on sounds of gunfire and cannon, 178 on women's patriotism, 140, 147
- Charleston Vigilance Association, 64
- Cheves, Sophie Haskell. See Haskell, Sophie (later Cheves) (daughter)

- Cheraw, SC
on news of Lincoln's election, 138–140
- Chesnut family
at the springs, 106
- Chesnut, James Jr., 81, 109, 183–185
- Chesnut, Mary Boykin
on American Revolution, legacy of, 112 and correspondence from friends, burning of, 22 on diary, 22
diary edited, 149
on enslaved people, 177–179, 194
family, rhetoric of, 142
on Fort Sumter, 183, 187–189
gaiety as forced, 183
on Harpers Ferry, 62
and McCord, friendship, 52
and MVLA, 116
postwar life, 199
on secession, 149–150, 151
social visits to Charleston fortifications [sec. winter], 182
at the springs, 106
on weather and mood, 172
- Chesnut, Mary Cox, 116
- Chesnut, Sally, 116
- Cheves family, 106, 118, 182
- Cheves, Anna (later Huger), 100
- Cheves, Isabella Middleton, 163
- Child, Lydia Maria, 51, 58, 61
- Christmas 1860, 165, 172
- civic activities, 44–46
- Civil War warfront
camp life of soldiers in letters home, 195–196
and First Bull Run, 196
military preparations for war, 175, 176, 178, 181
US forces securing of SC coast, 191
See also Fort Sumter
- Clarke, James, 201
- Clarke, Thomas A. G., 201
- Clay, Henry, 108
- cockades, 1, 127, 140
- Columbia, SC
on news of Lincoln's election, 138
on news of secession, 155
secession convention, preparations for, 153
- Compromise of 1850, 103
- Confederate monuments, 200
- “Constitutional Democratic Convention,” 89
- correspondence
communal reading and publication of, 26
during courtship, 43
destruction of by request, 21, 26, 55
and military blockades, 191, 198
narrative, shaping of, 89
as a source, methodological limitations of, 30–31
- The Cotton Kingdom* (Olmsted), 162
- cross-hatching, 128–130
- Cunningham, Ann Pamela
as apolitical, 35–36, 115
and Civil War, 198
MVLA, founding of, 45–46
on secession and mourning, 157
See also Mount Vernon Ladies Association (MVLA)
- Cushing, Stephen B., 84
- Dargan, Clara (later MacLean), 117
- Darlington Guards, 165
- Davis, Jefferson
on death of the Union, 159
on South as inheritors of American Revolution, 146
- Davis, Reuben, 172
- Dawson, Sarah Morgan, 22
- death
of children, 135
infant mortality rates, 44
women's views on, 134–136
- Democratic National Convention in Baltimore, 95
- Democratic National Convention in Charleston absence of in women's writings, 75 aftermath, 90–92
anticipation for, 82–86
events of, 86–90
women spectators, role of, 88–90
- diaries, 1–2, 17, 24–26, 28
Civil War diaries, start of, 190 editing of posthumously, 27 and emotional outbursts, 28 publication of, 27, 199–200
self-editing of, 26, 29
as source, limitations of, 22

222 INDEX

- diaries (cont.)
 - writing style of sentimental novels, 25, 173–175
- domestic sphere
 - family members' involvement in politics, 121
 - and slavery as household issue, 50, 83, 194
 - women as news keepers or historians for their families, 75, 76
- Doubleday, Abner, 177
- Douglas, Adele, 90
- Douglas, Stephen
 - nomination as Democratic presidential candidate, 75, 90
 - on slave insurrections as Republican threat, 67
- Douglass, Frederick, 60
- dreams, 124, 166, 170–172, 194
- Eastman, Mary Henderson, 52
- education, 42
- election of 1860, 67, 109
 - and slave sale prices, 96
 - See also under* Lincoln, Abraham
- elite families, interconnectedness of, 37, 39, 94–95, 106, 107. See also Virginia springs
- Elmore family
 - summer vacation, 101
- Elmore, Grace
 - introduction to, 7
 - diary, self-editing of, 26
 - on disunion, 126
 - on election, 127, 136
 - love for South Carolina, 141
 - on military aura in Charleston, 162
 - on news of secession, 155
 - on North as sinful, 136
 - secession, support for, 1–2, 136, 148, 152, 158
 - on secession of other southern states, 180
 - on secession winter, dullness of, 176
 - on South as inheritor of American Revolution, 146
 - on time, passage of, 163
- emancipation
 - enslavers' financial loss, 199, 202
 - Lost Cause portrayal of, 200
 - and self-emancipation, 178
- Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 58
- Emmet Guards, 159
- emotions
 - "excitement," nineteenth-century use of, 18, 153
 - and penmanship, 28, 128, 131
 - scholarship on, 19–21
 - and writing, 28, 128–134, 136, 137, 147, 167–168, 169
- enslaved people
 - on Fort Sumter, firing on, 184
 - punishment for, 66
 - sales of, 122–123
 - See also* slave insurrection; slavery
- "excitement," nineteenth-century use of, 18
- Fillmore, Millard, 103
- First Bull Run, battle of
 - as shift in southerner's tone for war, 196
- Flat Rock Mountain, NC, 100
- Florida, secession of, 180
- Fort Moultrie, 161
- Fort Sumter
 - firing on and bloodless victory, 184, 186, 189–191
 - reprovisioning of, 175, 183
 - as start of war, 190
 - US soldiers moved from Fort Moultrie, 161
 - writings about, generally, 167–169, 181, 183, 190
- free Blacks, 65, 177
 - arrests of, 122
- Fremont, John, 55
- Frost, Rebecca Pringle. See Pringle, Rebecca (later Frost)
- Gaffney, SC, 163
- Gaillard, Elizabeth "Lizzie" (later Gourdin)
 - on Charleston's preparation for war, 176
 - on South as inheritor of American Revolution, 146
 - as war hawk, 181
- Georgia, secession of, 180
- Gilman, Caroline Howard
 - and anti-abolitionist literature, 50
 - anxiety and insomnia, 166
 - on Fort Sumter, 186, 189
 - on physical safety, 63
 - on secession and mourning, 159
 - social visits to Charleston
 - fortifications, 182
 - war as brief, confidence in SC, 181, 182

- on weather and mood, 172
- Gist, William, 152
- Godey's Lady's Book*, 174–175
- Gourdin, Elizabeth “Lizzie” Gaillard. See Gaillard, Elizabeth “Lizzie” (later Gourdin)
- Green, Anna Maria, 22
- Greenville, SC
 - on news of Lincoln's election, 138
 - as summer destination, 100
- Grimball family
 - expense of summer travel, 119
 - on society season, 76
 - war, preparation for, 175
- Grimball, Clementina “Clemmie” Legg. See Legg, Clementina “Clemmie” (later Legg Grimball)
- Grimball, Elizabeth (later Munro)
 - introduction to, 7
 - on electoral politics, 77–80
 - on secession, 144
- Grimball, Gabriella “Ella”
 - on Harpers Ferry, 70
 - on social season, 74
- Grimball, John, 144
- Grimball, John Berkley (father), 39, 78–80
- Grimball, Lewis, 144
- Grimball, Meta Morris
 - introduction to and elite status of, 7, 39
 - on blockade and finances, 191
 - Fort Sumter battle, anxiety, 187–189
 - on Harpers Ferry, 67, 70
 - insomnia and anxiety, 166
 - on Lincoln's election, news of, 138
 - on northerners, 80
 - political events, eliding of, 180
 - political writings as circumspect, 147
 - politics, integration of into everyday lives, 152
 - on politics, electoral, 77–78
 - postwar life, 201
 - on Prince of Wales, 118
 - on secession, 144, 149
 - on South Carolina soldiers in Virginia, 196
 - on summer in Charleston, 121
 - summer vacationing of, 98
 - on war, preparation for, 176
 - writing as too difficult, 169
- gunfire, sounds of, 178
- guns and shooting lessons for women, 138
- Gus (enslaved man), 41
- Haitian Revolution, 58, 60, 145
- Hale, Sarah Josepha, 174–175
- Hall, Mary J., 81
- Hamlin, Hannibal, 136, 156
- Hampton, Mary Cantey, 112
- Hampton, Sally Baxter
 - introduction to and elite status of, 7, 39
 - and Christmas, 165
 - on correspondence, private nature of, 26
 - and Fort Sumter, 187–189
 - on men's views on themselves as heroic, 143
 - on military aura in Charleston, 162
 - politics as consuming after secession, 151
 - on secession and mourning, 156
 - on soldiers' restlessness after secession, 181
 - on writing about electoral politics, 140
 - on writing as emotional release, 28, 167
- Hampton, Wade, I, 112
- Harpers Ferry raid
 - aftermath, slave plot suspected but unrealized, 71
 - disunion, potential for, 79–80
 - newspaper coverage, 61–62
 - overview, 37, 56–57
 - and scripture, 69
 - trial and execution of Brown, 57, 70
 - writing about mixed with everyday events, 70, 71
- Harriet Lane* (US ship), 165
- Haskell, Sophia Cheves (mother), 165
- Haskell, Sophie (later Cheves) (daughter), 151
- Haskell, William “Willie,” 195
- Hill, Jane Allston. See Allston, Jane
- historic and memorial organizations, 45–46
- Holmes, Emma
 - diary of, 22, 27, 167
 - on Fort Sumter, news of resupplying, 183
 - on secession of North Carolina, 181
- Holmes, Rebecca, 117
- homespun movement, 140
- Horry, Harriott Pinckney. See Pinckney, Harriott (later Horry)
- Huger, Anna Cheves. See Cheves, Anna (later Huger)
- Hunter, Anne Middleton, 99, 100, 163

224 INDEX

- idleness, views on, 166
 Institute Hall, 155
- Jackson, Andrew, 46
 Jacob (enslaved man), 66
 Jones, John Beauchamp, 140
- Kirkland, Anna, 158
- Ladies' Fair at Democratic National Convention, 86 Lance family and summer season and socializing, 106
 Lane, Joseph, 95
 Lee, Robert E., and Harpers Ferry, 57
 Legg, Clementina "Clemmie" (later Legge Grimball), 138
 Leigh, Watkins, 79
 Lewis, Anna "Raven" Vanderhorst, 98
 Limestone College, 163
 Lincoln, Abraham
 as detested by elite southerners, 136, 158 and election of 1860, 131–134, 137–140 emancipation, elites' fear of, 158
 and Fort Sumter, 183
 as murderer of union, elite portrayal of, 156 slave insurrection, elites' fear of, 177 troops mustered, 190
 literary culture
 abolitionist fiction, response to, 50–55, 145 and community, 19
 diaries in writing style of sentimental novels, 25, 173–175
 on Harpers Ferry, 69
 and newspapers, 76, 183
 and Uncle Tom's Cabin, 51–55
 local militias, 122, 155, 165 Lost Cause
 emancipation, portrayal of, 200 formation of, 199
 rewriting of history, 202
 and United Daughters of the Confederacy, 200
- MacLean, Clara Dargan. See Dargan, Clara (later MacLean)
 Magrath, Andrew, 138
 manhood, ideals of cowardice, fear of label, 4 and fear, expression of, 143 and Nullification Crisis, 47, 49
 and secession, 127, 140
 Manigault family
 and summer and socializing, 106
 Martin, Isabella, 199
 Martineau, Harriet, 51
 Mason, Eliza Margaretta Chew, 61
 McCord, Louisa Cheves
 correspondence, destruction of, 22, 55 on natural hierarchy, 52–54
 on Uncle Tom's Cabin and Stowe, 54–55
 McDowall, Susan, 112, 142
 McIver, Henry, 139
 Memminger, Christopher Gustavus (C. G.), 77–80, 110, 138 mental health, 169–171
 Middleton family
 summer plans during war, 191
 Middleton, Alicia
 on Democratic National Convention, 84
 on summer at the springs, 104
 Middleton, Harriott
 summer vacationing of, 98
 Middleton, Henry, 195–197
 Middleton, Susan
 on summer in Charleston, 121
 summer vacationing in North, 98, 104, 119, 120 Miles, William Porcher, 155
 millenarianism, 128–134
 Mississippi, secession of, 180
 Mitchell, Donald Grant, 120
 Mitchell, Hesse, 164
 Mitchell, Mary Pringle, 120, 164
 Morris Island
 fortifications of, 182
 mosquitoes, 93
 Mount Vernon Ladies Association (MVLA)
 founding of, 45–46
 and fundraising in SC, 116 political action, justification for, 115–118, 145
 and postwar reunification, 198
 and secession, 157
 See also Cunningham, Ann Pamela
 Munro, Elizabeth Grimball. See Grimball, Elizabeth (later Munro)
- Napoleon III, 106
 Negro Act (1740), 59

- Newport, RI, as summer destination, 120
 New Year's 1861, 165
 New York
 as summer destination, 98, 119
Niagara (USS), 191
 North
 social and financial ties to, 163–164 southerners' view as sinful, 136
 as summer destination, 80, 98, 118–121
 as summer destinations, disrupted by Civil War, 191 northerners
 abolition movement, views on, 81
 elite southern women's views on, 50, 53, 80, 158
 northern women as political and unladylike, 61, 90
 "nostalgia" as medical diagnosis, 169, 193
 nullification attempt in 1840s, 150
 Nullification Crisis, 46–50

 Olmsted, Frederick Law, 162
 Ordinance of Secession adopted, 155
 Orr, James L., 87

 Palmer, Esther Simons, 26
 Palmer family, 143
 Palmer, Harriet "Hattie," 155, 172
 Palmer, John S., 39
 Parker, Anna, 100
 patriotism, 140, 147
 justification for political action. See Mount Vernon Ladies Association (MVLA) love of Union replaced by Confederacy, 136, 159
 and religion, 113
 as within women's sphere, 148, 153–155
 See also American Revolution, inheritors of patrols and policing, 64 Pawley's Island
 during summer season, 98–100, 191
 penmanship and emotion, 28, 128, 131
 Pennington, William, 77–78
 Perry, Benjamin F., 87, 89
 Petigru, James Louis, 39, 109
 Petigru, Mary, 193
 physical exercise and health, 172
 Pickens, Francis Wilkinson, 175
 Pickens, Lucy Holcombe, 165, 166, 181
 and MVLA, 198

 Pierce, Franklin, 103
 Pinckney, Harriott (later Horry), 47
 Pinckney, Maria Henrietta, 47
Planter (ship), 182
 planting season, 93 politics, women's engagement in apologies and justifications for, 48, 140–143 versus benevolence, 44–46
 historical analogies, use of, 145–147 integration into everyday lives after secession, 152
 men's reaction to, 143–145 passive voice, use of, 147 political ritual, 88 and religion, patriotism, and domestic sphere, 113, 124, 141–142
 warnings against, 48, 90, 140
 See also domestic sphere; Mount Vernon Ladies Association (MVLA); patriotism; religion Porcher family
 at the springs, 106
 Porcher, F. A., 76, 119
 postage delays during war, 191 postwar financial difficulties, 201 pregnancy, 43–44
 Preston family, 106, 164
 Preston, John, 148
 Preston, Sarah Buchanan "Buckie or Buck," 106, 148
 Preston, Susan, 148
 Prince of Wales, 111, 118
 Pringle family
 summer vacationing of, 98
 Pringle, Elizabeth Allston. See Allston, Elizabeth "Bessie" (later Pringle)
 Pringle, James, 164
 Pringle, Jane Lynch, 70, 77–78, 164
 Pringle, John Julius, 120, 164, 199
 Pringle, Mary Allston
 introduction to, 7
 on Democratic National Convention, 82, 83
 in North, 120–121
 war as brief, prediction of, 181
 Pringle, Rebecca (later Frost), 63
 Pringle, R. Poinsett "Poss," 77
 Pringle, Sarah Maxwell, 190
 Pringle, William Bull, Jr., 63

226 INDEX

- Ravenel, Harriott
 on Fort Sumter battle, 186–189, 190
Recollection of a Housekeeper (Gilman), 51
Recollections of a Southern Matron (Gilman), 51
 religion and Christian liberation theory, 60 and politics as inseparable, 17 and racial inequality, 54–55
 and resignation, 71, 159
 and suffering as Christian virtue, 1–2 and war as storm, 172–173
 and weather as message from God, 173 and women as spiritual guardians of household, 42 “resistance ball,” 138
 resolution. See also religion
 Rhett, Robert Barnwell, Jr. See Charleston Mercury
 Rhett, Robert Barnwell, Sr., 150
 Rhode Island
 as summer vacation spot, 98
Rose-Bud magazine, 50
 Ruffin, Edmund, 63, 108, 109, 138, 140, 146
 Ruffin, Elizabeth, 104
 rumors and gossip, 179, 183
 Rutledge, Rebecca Motte, 49 sacrifice

 as women’s patriotism, 148
 St. Cecelia ball, 183
 Saratoga Springs, NY, 104, 110, 119
 Schoolcraft, Mary Howard, 69, 145
 secession convention
 legislature’s call for, 152 move to Charleston, 155
 preparations for in Columbia, 153
 secession of South Carolina
 scholarship on, 9–14
 celebration and mourning imagery, 156
 and dissent, 157
 forced gaiety during secession winter, 183
 generational divide over, 80, 148–150 immediate response to news across SC, 155
 as protection of ladies, 148 and reckoning from God, 168 response to, 151, 158, 159
 and travel and family separations, 163–164 war as result, views on, 1–2, 131, 149, 175–178
 women’s patriotic activities, 159
 secession of subsequent states, 180–181
 self-emancipation, 178
 Seward, William, 55, 66
 sexual violence, white women’s fear of, 65
 Sherman, William T., 202
 sickly season, 175
 during Civil War, 191–192
 See also summer travels
 Simons, Henrietta, 121
 Sims, Babe
 anxiety during secession winter, 168
 as fire-eater, 148
 secession, conflicted over, 158
 on secession convention, excitement for, 153
 on weather and mood, 172
 slave insurrection
 and biblical doomsday, 128–134
 enslavers’ fears of, generally, 37, 58, 123, 177, 179, 194
 and Harpers Ferry aftermath, 71
 lack of, 114
 and Lincoln’s election, 139
 as northern trickery, 62
 in South Carolina, 59–61
 Stowe as instigating, 62
 slave resistance, 62, 66. See also slave insurrection slavery
 as basis of power in South Carolina, 37–42
 as domestic issue, 83
 erasure from secession and Civil War, 112 fictional portrayals of, 174–175
 as idyllic, portrayal of, 136 slave trade volume and prices, 96 sleep disrupted by dreams, 124, 166, 170–172, 194
 smallpox
 and secession convention, 155
 Smythe, Louisa McCord, 200 Society Hill, SC, 138, 155 society season
 social events of, 74
 South Carolina
 geographical and sociopolitical distinctions, 8, 37, 86, 155 slavery as basis of power, 37–42
 See also secession of South Carolina
 South Carolina College, 165

- South Carolina Women in the Confederacy*
 (Taylor and Smythe), 200
Southern Rose magazine, 50
 Spartanburg, SC, 138
 “Spirit of ’76,” 46, 49. See also American Revolution, inheritors of
 St. Andrew’s Hall, 155
Star of the West, 175
 Stone, Kate, 22
 Stono Rebellion, 59
 Stowe, Calvin Ellis, 54
 Stowe, Harriet Beecher, 51–55
 as instigating slave insurrections, 62
 Stroyer, Jacob, 184 suffering as Christian virtue, 1–2
 summer travels
 expense of, 119
 need for during “sickly season,” 93, 94
 to North, 80, 98, 118–121, 191 political discussions, lack of, 94–95
 See also Virginia springs
 “Sunshine and Shade” (Warner), 174–175
 Sweet Springs, 105
- Table Rock Mountain, 100 tariff of 1842, 150
 Taylor, Sally Elmore
 introduction to, 7
 and Lost Cause writing, 200
 news of war, waiting for, 192
 on summer vacation, 101
 Texas, secession of, 180
 Texas Fire Scare, 123
 Thomas, Ella Gertrude Clanton, 22, 27
 Thoreau, Henry David, 58
 Thornwell, James Henley, 105
 toothaches, 170
 Townes, Lucretia, 46
 Turner, Nat, 59, 62
- Uncle Tom’s Cabin* (Stowe), 51–55
 United Daughters of the Confederacy, 200
- Vanderhorst, Adele Allston. See Allston,
 Adele, Jr. (later Vanderhorst) Vanderhorst, Ann Morris elite status of, 39
 on enslaved people’s resistance, 66 financial ties to North, 163
 on Harpers Ferry, 68
 on society season, 76
 on Stowe, 52, 62
 summer travels, 98, 99, 119
 on war, preparations for, 176
 Vanderhorst, Arnoldus, 8, 39
 Vanderhorst, Elias, 39
 Vesey, Denmark, 59, 60–61, 65
 Vesey, Sandy, 60
 Virginia
 on Harpers Ferry, 80
 secession, reluctance, 180, 186
 South Carolina, relationship, 97, 110–112,
 117, 146, 180
 South Carolina soldiers in during Civil War, 196
 Virginia springs attraction to elites across South, 102
 and Civil War, 191
 election of 1860, discussions about, 109 politics, extent of, 108
 sectional tensions, 103–104 slavery, discussions about, 110 social activities, 102–103, 104–106
 social-political ties and statewide identity, 106–108
 waiting and lack of control, 163, 175–178, 192–194
 Warner, Fannie, 174–175
 Washington, George, southerners’ memory of, 113–115, 146, 198. See also Mount Vernon Ladies Association (MVLVA)
 Washington, John Augustine, III, 45
 Washington, Lewis, 56
 weather
 as message from God, 173
 and mood and health, 171–174, 189
 White Sulphur Springs (“The White”), 102–104
 and Whig Party, 108
 See also Virginia springs
 Wise, Henry, 61
 Wister, Owen, 200
 womanhood, ideal of, 2
 politics, exclusion from, 2, 14–17, 35
 See also politics, women’s engagement in “Woman of Carolina” (The Mercury), 147
 A Woman Rice Planter (Allston), 199
 Yancey, William Lowndes, 87
 Yellow Sulphur Springs, VA, 104