Whittier, Alaska, USA

Whittier is an unusual town because all its residents (around 200 people) live in the same building. There isn't a mall in Whittier, but there is a small grocery store there. In the building, you can also find a hotel, a restaurant, and a school. You get to the school through a tunnel under the ground. Why? Because it's very cold in Alaska! Read more

Thames Town, China

The River Thames is in England, so Thames Town is an English town, right? No, that's wrong. It is in China, near Shanghai, but the streets and stores look English. The street names are also in English: Oxford Street, Chelsea Street. There are red telephone boxes on the streets, and you can see a statue of Harry Potter there!

- 1 Look at the text, the title, and the images. Then complete the sentences with the phrases below.
 - about me
- blog posts
- unusual towns

- 2 (1) 1.03 Read and listen to the text. Where can we find 1-5? Write W (Whittier) or TT (Thames Town).
 - 1 a statueTT....
 - 2 a grocery store
 - 3 a tunnel to go to school

- 4 a street called Chelsea
- 5 a hotel
- 3 Where is this image? Write Whittier or Thames Town.

- 4 Write T (true) or F (false).
 - 1 Whittier is an American town. T....
 - 2 There are 200 buildings in Whittier.
 - 3 The restaurant and the grocery store in Whittier are in the same building. ______
- 4 Thames Town is a Chinese neighborhood in England.
- 5 There are red streets in Thames Town. _____
- 6 The streets in Thames Town have English names.

THINK!

Imagine you live in Whittier. Then imagine you live in Thames Town. Which do you prefer? Why?
