DESCRIPTION: Cambridge, United Kingdom ; New York, NY, USA : Cambridge University Press, 2023. | Series: Talking philosophy | "The present collection of fourteen essays derives from the 1991 Royal Institute of Philosophy conference at Liverpool. The Liverpool conference was conceived as an exploratory and interdisciplinary venture, exploratory because it represented an attempt to find and define new ground in the philosophy of religion, and interdisciplinary because it called in aid theologians and other thinkers about religion" – Page 16 of introduction. | Includes bibliographical references and index.
