

Contents

List of Figures	page viii
List of Tables	ix
List of Contributors	x
Preface and Acknowledgements	xiii
1 Introduction: social choice, agency, inclusiveness and capabilities FLAVIO COMIM, P. B. ANAND AND SHAILAJA FENNELL	1
Part I Social Choice and Capabilities
2 The many facets of social choice theory WULF GAERTNER	17
3 Beyond capabilities? Sen's social choice approach and the generalizability assumption FLAVIO COMIM	42
4 Examining the challenge of communication in diffusing innovative education programmes: an analysis drawing on public choice, social choice and capability framings SHAILAJA FENNELL	62
5 Nudging the capabilities for a sustainable city? When the libertarian paternalist meets the Paretian liberal P. B. ANAND	85
6 Social choice and research capacity strengthening in Nigeria: insights from the field MICHAEL WATTS, NAFISA WAZIRI AND OLADELE AKOGUN	113

vi		Contents
	Part II Inclusiveness, Social and Individual Agency
7	In defence of inclusiveness: on sustainable human development, capability and indicators of progress MOZAFFAR QIZILBASH	139
8	Exploring Sen on self-interest and commitment GAY MEEKS	170
9	Incorporating an emotional dimension in the capability approach JOHN CAMERON	202
10	Sufficiency re-examined JAY DRYDYK	222
11	Adaptive preferences versus internalization in deprivation: a conceptual comparison between the capability approach and self-determination theory TADASHI HIRAI	240
12	Enriching agency in the capability approach through social theory contributions INA CONRADIE	257
13	Creativity and capabilities: a problem of change and uncertainty? JONATHAN WARNER	284
	Part III Social Choice and Capabilities in Action
14	Measuring the independence of ‘dependent’ persons based on the capability approach HIDEYUKI KOBAYASHI AND REIKO GOTOH	305
15	Indigenous challenges to the capability approach: a relational ontology of community and sustainability ANA ESTEFANÍA CARBALLO	323
16	Situating the family within the capabilities framework: a collective conversion factor. The role of the household configuration in the quality of life in Mali CLAUDINE SAUVAIN-DUGERDIL AND SIAKA CISSÉ	356

Contents	vii
17 An ethical perspective on the United Kingdom's Improving Lives: The Future of Work, Health and Disability JACQUES TAMIN	385
18 Public services as conversion factors: exploring the theory and practice RICHARD BRUNNER AND NICK WATSON	401
Index	423