Index

Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME), 119
Ackerman, Arlene, 20–21
Act 1, U.S. (Arkansas) (1946), 6
Act 149, U.S. (Arkansas) (1929), 5–6
Black communities. See also data collection
Black Lives Matter movement, 134
Black Power movement and, 132–133 in Chicago, school closures and, 34–35, 51–55 compensatory justice for, 140–141 cost of participatory democracy for, 28 data collection on, for middle-class Blacks, 190–192 educational policies and, political behavior influenced by, 10–12 gentrification of, 23–24
in Philadelphia
approval of Nutter among, 78–79 opinions on school closures, 76–79 racial differences in public opinion, 39–42, 51–55 school closures in
as negative impact, 23–24
Black students
Freedom Schools, 15
school closures and, as influence on, 9
Aid to Families with Dependent Children, 13, 106
Auldridge-Reveles, Trevor, 23
Bancroft, Rebecca, 122
Behind the Mule (Dawson), 57–58
Berry, Christopher, 60
Beyer, Michael, 122
Black Lives Matter movement, 134
Black Power movement, 132–133
Brown, Jitu, 123, 130
Brown, Michael, 3–4
Brown v. Board of Education, 6–7
Burch, Traci, 14
Byrd-Bennett, Barbara, 19, 31, 64, 105 capitalism. See also racial capitalism definition of, 18
Carmichael, Stokely. See Ture, Kwame
CCES. See Cooperative Congressional Election Study charter schools, 125–130
in Chicago, 129–130
constraints of, 128
enrollment issues, 128–129 Mastery Charter, 1–2
neoliberalism and, 126–128
210 / Index

charter schools (cont.)
across networks, 147
in Philadelphia, 129–130
opposition to, predictors for, 157 public schools conversion to, 1–2 racial differences in public opinion and, 36
Chicago Democracy Project, 63–66
Chicago public schools (CPS), 17–19. See also data collection
Chicago Democracy Project, 63–66
Chicago School Reform Act of 1988, 17, 22 evaluation of school closures in, 67–73 determinants of, 67–68, 71–72 political blame as part of, 70–73 racial factors as influence on, 67–69, 71
by zip code, 69
neoliberal policy approaches to, 17–18 political participation in public policy processes and, 91–92, 103–108 for mayoral elections, 101–103
participation in school meetings in, 95–103
public opinion, on school closures, 43–56
among Blacks, 51–55
bivariate logit regression predictors, 45
Chicago Teachers Union and, 51 income level as influence on, 45–47 in Latinx communities, 51–55 multiple logit regression predictors, 46, 48–49 parental status as factor in, 47–50 racial differences on, 51–55
by zip code, 43, 49
racial capitalism and, 18 Renaissance 2010 initiative, 18–19
school closures in, 31–33
Black population as factor in, 34–35
biographical contexts for, 142–144 comparisons with Philadelphia closures, 21–23 Cooperative Congressional Election Study on, 65, 152–153 by income, 34
Jenner Elementary School, 121–122
political blame for, 65–66 political leaders’ roles in, at community meetings, 62–64 support for, 44–51
targeting strategies for, 33
by zip code, 34
teachers’ unions and organizations in,
22
Chicago Teachers Union, 17, 51, 82, 134–135, 192
Walter H. Dyett High School, 85–87
Chicago School Reform Act of 1988, 17, 22
Chicago Teachers Union, 17, 51, 82,
134–135, 192
Chico, Gery, 18
Children Achieving initiative, 19–20 civic engagement, 92–94
political meeting attendance, 97–98
through raising awareness, 92–93
school closures as influence on, 99, 103–108
closures. See school closures Collaborative Multiracial Post-Election Survey, 39–40 collective participatory debt (CPD), 3–27, 111–118 classification of issues, 112 collective action and, 114 community meetings and, on school closures, 116–117
definition of, 4, 110–111
disillusionment with policy processes, 117–118 material incentives, 114 mobilization fatigue, 117–118, 140–141
mobilizers, 118
organizers and, 118
peer pressure and, 114 political distrust and, 114–117 public hearings and, 116–117 community meetings, on school closures, collective participatory debt and, 116–117 Cooperative Congressional Election Study (CCES), 65, 152–153, 167, 169 Corbett, Thomas, 21, 75–79
political blame for, 77–79
Corbett, Tom, 75–79
COVID-19 pandemic, school closures influenced by, 11, 125
CPD. See collective participatory debt
CPS. See Chicago public schools
Croston, Robert, 122
Daley, Richard M., 17–19
data collection, 161–171 aggregate analysis, 169–171 analysis of, strategies for, 173–188 category coding, of community meeting discussions, 145–188 parent interviews, 181–183 political elite interviews, 183–185 through case studies, 190 on Chicago public schools, 151–154 community meetings in, 186–188 evaluation criteria, 153–154 Philadelphia school district compared to, 192–193 on collective participatory debt, 174 issue classification, 174–175 Cooperative Congressional Election Study, 65, 152–153, 167, 169 demographic data of interviewees, 150–151 group consciousness and, 163, 192
on middle-class Blacks, 190–192 on mobilization of school boards, 166–168 on Philadelphia school district, 154–161 blame and approval of blacks, 159–160 Chicago school district compared to, 192–193
community meetings in, 145–185 mayoral disapproval and, predictors of, 158–160 opposition to charter schools, predictors of, 157 opposition to school closure, 157 variables in, 155–156
on political participation at individual-level, alternate specifications of, 167 for school meeting attendance, 95–103 studies on, coding of, 89–91 qualitative data, 161–164, 190 content of, 161–164
group consciousness and, 163 resource mobilization, 163–164 shared policy targets, 162–163 regression models, 169–171 difference-in-difference analysis, 169–171 on school closures, 145–149 aggregate regression results, 164–166 descriptive data, in surveys, 150 matched comparison within neighborhoods, 171–173 predicted probabilities of, 152 research approaches to, 25–26
summary statistics, 164 variables for, 145–149
Davis, Angela, 133, 139
Dawson, Michael, 28, 39, 57–58 democracy. See collective participatory debt; participatory democracy disillusionment with policy processes, 117–118 Duncan, Arne, 18–19, 31 educational policies. See also school closures citizens as targets of, 12–16 racialized feedback framework, 13 racialized social pressure, 12 as shared targets, of school closures, 14–16 group norms and, 12 historical context for, Brown v. Board of Education, 6–7 No Child Left Behind, 4 political behavior influenced by for Blacks, 10–12 after GI Bill, 10

Race to the Top, 4
turn-around strategies for, 4–5 Emanuel, Rahm, 19, 64, 82, 86–87, 106–107, 193 external efficacy, of political participation, 105–106

“failing” public schools, 123–125
criteria for, 123–124
evaluation of, 124–125
Flowers, Mary, 52
Freedom Schools, 15
Fung, Archon, 116

Garcia, Jesus, 86–87
gender, political blame influenced by, 82–83 group consciousness, 38–40, 163, 192

Hahn, Hahrie, 118
Hamer, Fannie Lou, 141
Hamilton, Charles, 27–28
Hamilton, Richard, 119
Harding, Vincent, 132
Harris, Frederick, 61–62
Herenton, W. W., 15
Hite, William, 21, 109
Hochschild, Jennifer, 33–34
Hooker, Juliet, 28, 131–132

Hornbeck, David, 19–20
hospital closures, in Chicago, 136
Howell, William, 60 income levels
public opinion on school closures influenced by, 45–47
school closures and, 34
Ingram, Helen, 12–13
integration, of schools, racial differences on, 36–37
internal efficacy, of political participation, 105–106

Jenner and Ogden Learning Together (JOLT), 121–122
Jenner Elementary School, closure of, 121–122
Johnson, Asean, 106–107
JOLT. See Jenner and Ogden Learning Together

Kenney, Jim, 193
King, Martin Luther, Jr., 80, 111, 132–133, 139
Kohn, Margaret, 126

labor unions. See Chicago Teachers Union; Philadelphia Federation of Teachers Laird, Chryl, 11–12
Latinx communities. See also data collection Organization of Latin American Solidarity, 132–133
public opinion on school closures, 41–42, 56–58
in Chicago public schools, 51–55
linked fate and, 57
Lewis, John, 134
Lewis, Karen, 82
Lightfoot, Lori, 134–136
Chicago Teachers Union and, 135 linked fate, public opinion, on school closures, 40 among Latinx communities, 57
Lipman, Pauline, 127
Marable, Manning, 3–4
Marschall, Melissa, 61–62
Mastery Charter, conversion of public schools by, 1–2, 109–111 McClain, Paula, 11–12
methodological approaches, to school closures, 3–4, 161–171 analysis of, 149–150
for political participation, 89–90 testing of, 149–150
Mettler, Suzanne, 10
Michener, Jamila, 13–14 mobilization fatigue, collective participatory debt and, 117–118, 140–141
mobilizers, 118
Morel, Domingo, 11, 66, 138
National Teachers Academy (NTA), 119–121 neighborhoods, school closures as influence on, 14–15 neoliberalism charter schools and, 126–128 in Chicago public schools, in policy approaches, 17–18
New Orleans, public schools in, conversion to charter schools, after Hurricane Katrina, 66
Nkrumah, Kwame, 140
NTA. See National Teachers Academy
Nutter, Michael, 75–79
approval of, 77–79
by Blacks, 78–79
Ogorzalek, Thomas, 65
Organization of Latin American Solidarity, 132–133 organizers, collective participatory debt and, 118 Palmer, Walter D., 128–129 parental status, public opinion on school closures influenced on, 47–50 participatory democracy. See also collective participatory debt costs of, for Blacks, 28 Pateman, Carole, 27
PCAPS. See Philadelphia Coalition in Alliance for Public Schools peer pressure, collective participatory debt and, 114
Pennsylvania Charter School Law, 19–20
Philadelphia Coalition in Alliance for Public Schools (PCAPS), 192–193
Philadelphia Federation of Teachers, 192
Philadelphia public schools, closures of, 19–21. See also data collection under Act 46, 20 Black opinions on Nutter and, approval of, 78–79 to school closures, 76–79 under Children Achieving initiative, 19–20
comparisons with Chicago closures, 21–23 Corbett and, 75–79
political blame for, 77–79
under Education Empowerment Act, 20 mayoral approval and, 73–79
by Blacks, 78–79
racial differences in, 79–81
Nutter and, 75–79
Black approval of, 78–79 public approval of, 77–79 under Pennsylvania Charter School Law, 19–20 political blame for, 60–62, 73–79
assigning of, 81–84
gender as factor for, 82–83
racial differences in, 79–81 political leaders’ engagement in, at community meetings, 62–64 Philadelphia public schools, closures of (cont.)

political participation in public policy and, 91–92, 103–108 poverty levels and, 74
public opinions on, 59–60 public policy for, 61–62 “Renaissance schools,” 20–21 school officials’ role in, 62–64
Steel Elementary School, 1–2, 109–111
teachers’ unions and organizations in, 22
Woods and, 1–2, 109–111
by zip code, 73–74
Plessy v. Ferguson, 7 political efficacy, of political participation, 105–106 political participation, in public policy processes, 92–108
in Chicago, 91–92, 103–108
for mayoral elections, 101–103
participation in school meetings in, 95–103 civic engagement and, 92–94
political meeting attendance, 97–98
through raising awareness, 92–93
school closures as influence on, 99, 103–108 efficacy of, 105–108
external, 105–106
internal, 105–106
political, 105–106
in Philadelphia, 91–92, 103–108
resources for, 91–92
for school board elections, 98–101
school closures and

civic engagement influenced by, 99, 103–108 location of, 103
mayoral elections influenced by, 103–104 race and, 104
school meetings, participation in, 93–95
in Chicago, 95–103
data collection on, 95–103
self-reporting for, 98 studies on, 87–91
coding of data collection, 89–91 feedback in, 87
interviews, 87–89
methodological approaches to, 89–90 purpose of investigation, 87–88 Polletta, Francesca, 27–28 poverty levels, in Philadelphia, 74 Preckwinkle, Toni, 135
public opinion, on school closures, 33–36. See also Chicago public schools; Philadelphia; racial differences in public opinion linked fate and, 40
on policy targets, for closures, 37–42 attitude development from, 38–42 ethnicity differences in, 39–41 through group consciousness, 38–40 on perceived targets, 38
racial differences in, 37–38
research on, 37–38
through surveys, 34–36
Collaborative Multiracial Post-Election Survey, 39–40 public policies. See also educational policies; political participation for Philadelphia public schools, 61–62 public schools. See also Chicago public schools; Philadelphia; school closures conversion to charter schools Mastery Charter and, 1–2, 109–111 in New Orleans, after Hurricane Katrina, 66 “failing,” 123–125
criteria for, 123–124
evaluation of, 124–125
Mastery Charter and, conversion to charter schools, 1–2 public support for, 56–58 Race, Reform and Rebellion (Marable), 3–4 racial capitalism, 18
Brown v. Board of Education, 6–7 Plessy v. Ferguson, 7 in public schools, 6–7 in Arkansas, 7 racism, racial issues and. See also racial differences in public opinion definition of, 18 school closures influenced by, 8–9, 14–15 Rauner, Bruce, 193 Reckhow, Sarah, 126 Renaissance 2010 initiative, 18–19 “Renaissance schools,” 20–21 Rendell, Ed, 75–76 Ridge, Tom, 19–20 Robinson, Cedric, 18 Rogers, Melvin, 3–4, 131–132 Rogers, Reuel, 39 Ruhil, Anirudh, 61–62 Schneider, Anne, 12–13 school board elections, 98–101 school closures, of public schools. See also Chicago public schools; data collection; Philadelphia; public opinion; racial differences in public opinion Black communities negatively influenced by, 23–24 civic engagement influenced by, 99, 103–108 location of closure, 103 mayoral elections, 103–104 race and, 104 COVID-19 pandemic and, 11, 125 crime rankings and, 147 data collection on research approaches to, 25–26 variables for, 145–149 democracy undermined by, 134–141 Black women and, 135 racial politics and, 137–138 white supremacy structures and, 137 era of mass school closures, 4–5 in urban areas, 5–8 federal policies for, 4–5 No Child Left Behind, 4 Race to the Top, 4 turn-around strategies in, 4–5 historical context for, 5–8 Act 1, 6 Act 149, 5–6 Brown v. Board of Education, 6–7 Jenner Elementary School, 121–122 legitimacy of process, 8 map of, in U.S., 5 methodological approach to, 3–4 negative effects of, 118–122 lack of stability, 125 National Teachers Academy and, 119–121 neighborhoods influenced by, 14–15 across networks, 147 political action influenced by, 86–87 215 / Index school closures, of public schools. (cont.)
as process, 30–32
decision-making in, 31 public school populations and, by income and race, 6 racial factors for, 8–9, 14–15 for Black students, 9
research approaches to, 24–25
data collection in, 25–26
through surveys, 24
school consolidation compared to, 6 school consolidations, school closures compared to, 6 school meetings, participation in, 93–95 average attendance at, 146–147
in Chicago, 95–103
collective participatory debt and, 116–117
data collection on, 95–103
Schram, Sanford, 50–51
Scovronick, Nathan, 33–34
Snyder, Jeffrey, 126
Social Security Disability Insurance, 13, 106
Soss, Jose, 13, 50–51
Spence, Lester, 126
Steel Elementary School, 1–2, 109–111
Supplemental Security Income, 25–27
Take Over (Morel), 11
Tenet Healthcare Corporation, 119
Tieken, Mara, 23
Troustine, Jessica, 33–42, 55
Ture, Kwame, 80, 132–133, 139 turn-around strategies, in federal educational policies, 4–5 United States (U.S.). See also Chicago public schools; educational policies; Philadelphia; welfare policies Education Empowerment Act, 20 public school closures in, 5
Voting Rights Act, 111, 132
Valencia, Richard, 8
Vallas, Paul, 17, 20–21
Voting Rights Act, U.S. (1965), 111, 132 vouchers, 36
Walker, Hannah, 14
Walter H. Dyett High School, closure of, 85–87 welfare policies
Aid to Families with Dependent Children, 13, 25–27
Social Security Disability Insurance, 13
Supplemental Security Income, 25–27
Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, 12–13
West, Cornel, 28
Where Do We Go From Here (King), 111 white flight, 6
white populations, public opinion on school closures among, 55–58
Wilson, Ernest, 39
Wolf, Tom, 193
Wright, Erik Olin, 116
zip codes, school closures by, 34 in Chicago, public opinion on, 43, 49, 69
evaluation of, 69
in Philadelphia, 73–74