

Index

- (Article) 255 Panel, 45–53
 - candidates for renewal of a term of office, 97
 - composition, 49
 - European Ombudsman, 112
 - exchange with Parliament, 115
 - interviews, 107, 112
 - member nominated by Parliament, 115
 - national pre-selection, 50–51
 - opinions, 45–46, 112
 - process, 49–51
 - productivity of ECJ members, 97
 - reception, 47
 - selection criteria, 51–53, 106–107
 - transparency, 49, 111, 113
 - unfavourable opinions, 46, 49
- access to documents
 - administrative documents (ECJ), 8
 - as a research strategy, 8
 - opinions by 255 Panel, 112–113
 - submissions in ECJ proceedings, 135
- administrative committee, 55
- Advocate General
 - attending the deliberations, 138–141
 - autonomy vis-à-vis judges, 137
 - case assignment, 137
 - collaboration with judge-rapporteur, 136
 - comparative law, 77
 - criteria for selection, 53, 116
 - decisions without Opinion, 141
 - democratic role, 136
 - First Advocate General, 137
 - gender diversity, 108
 - number, 142
 - permanent and rotating, 142
 - preliminary report, 136
 - rapporteur public, 133, 139
 - right to a fair trial, 138
 - role of Opinion in deliberations, 137
- amicus curiae
 - at the ECJ, 121–129
 - at the ECtHR, 123
 - at the United States Supreme Court, 125
 - definition, 122
 - functions, 124–127
- archives (ECJ), 8
- Article 47 Charter of Fundamental Rights, 10
- Article 6 ECHR, 11, 139
- Bay Larsen, Lars, 91
- Borg Barthet, Anthony, 87, 92
- case assignment to judge-rapporteur, 84–97
 - at the GC, 147
 - effects on reappointment, 96
 - equality of judges, 146
 - institutional independence, 96
 - integration of new judges, 94
 - language skills, 96
 - power of the president, 146
 - principle of legal judge, 148
 - specialisation of judges, 95, 148
- case assignment to judicial formation, 97–101
 - at the ECtHR, 98, 101
 - at the GC, 146
 - reassignment of cases, 101
- case management, 83
- Catalano, Nicola, 33
- chamber system, 81–84, 141–145
 - at the GC, 146
 - chamber of five judges, 143, 144
 - chamber of three judges, 141
 - development, 82
 - election of chamber presidents, 88
 - gender diversity, 108
 - plenary, 81
 - representation of Member States, 82

- Commission. See legal service, intervention in direct actions, observations in preliminary reference proceedings, High Authority
- comparative law notes, 77–79
 methodology, 78 publication, 78
 subjects, 78
- comparative procedural law, 3
- Copenhagen Declaration, 66
- Costa v. ENEL*, 43, 61
- Court of the Coal and Steel Community, 27–38 action for annulment, 28
 adversarial principle, 34, 35
 Advocate General, 31
 chamber system, 37
 Conseil d'État as inspiration, 26 deliberations, 38 effects of decisions, 28 hearings, 36
 ICJ as inspiration, 29, 35
 intervention, 34–35
 judge-rapporteur, 37
 judicial independence, 33
 legal qualification of judges, 31 number of judges, 30 selection of judges, 29–32
 working language, 38
- crisis of European integration, 42
- democratic principles (of the TEU), 103 accountability, 134
 application to ECJ, 103
 civil society, 121
 deliberation, 135
 participatory democracy, 121 principle of openness, 129 representative democracy, 118 underlying democratic theory, 104
- diaries of former judges, 7
- direct effect of EU law, 43
- Donner, Andreas, 32
- Due, Ole, 85
- European Economic Community, 42
- European Parliament
 committee on legal affairs, 119 decision to intervene or submit observations, 119 drafting of ECJ submissions, 119 role in selecting ECJ members, 114 strategy in ECJ proceedings, 120
- European Political Community, 42 expert opinion, 36, 74
- Franco-German parity, 31
- French as working language advantages, 149
 bilingual deliberations, 153
 equality of judges, 150
 law clerks, 151
 proficiency of judges, 150
 use of other languages by Advocates General, 153
- functions of courts, 11–12
- gender diversity
 at the ECJ, 108
 at the GC, 110
- general meeting, 98
 administrative decisions, 55 case assignment to judicial formations, 100–101
 comparative law notes, 78
- German Federal Constitutional Court, 49
- Grand Chamber
 composition, 82, 88, 144
 judge-rapporteur, 86
 presidents of chambers of five judges, 88 representation of Member States, 82 request for referral, 67 role, 145
 size, 144
- Guide traitement des affaires, 8, 79, 98, 99, 136
- Häberle, Peter, 23
- Habermas, Jürgen, 20–24
- Habermas' discourse theory conditions for successful deliberation, 23 constructive interpretation, 22
 functions of courts, 21
 judges as representatives, 22 judicial deliberations, 22
 publicness of courts, 22, 23
 role of the parties, 21, 23
- High Authority, 27
 competences, 27
 control, 27
 legal instruments, 27
- ideal models, 12
- Ilešič, Marko, 91
- independence (of ECJ members)
 as a selection criterion, 33, 51
 case assignment, 96
 Code of Conduct, 53
 effect of 255 Panel, 47
 Poland, 49
 reappointment, 96

- international courts, 16, 26
- intervention in direct actions
 - EU institutions, 60
 - Member States, 60
 - natural or legal persons, 72
- interviews
 - as a research strategy, 9
- judge (ECJ). See also (Article) 255 Panel
 - as state representative, 30
 - Code of Conduct, 53
 - gender diversity, 111
 - gowns, 29
 - hierarchy between judges, 94
 - regulation of outside activities, 54
 - renewable term, 33
 - selection by common accord, 30, 31, 45, 109
 - selection criteria, 32, 51–53
 - third-country nationals, 30
- judge-rapporteur, 84–97, see also case
 - assignment to judge-rapporteur
 - case management, 83
 - collaboration with Advocate General, 136
 - power, 83
 - time pressure, 83
- Juhász, Endre, 93
- Kress v. France*, 139
- Latour, Bruno, 7
- law clerks
 - influence, 151
 - nationality, 151
 - regulation of outside activities, 55
 - screening of preliminary report, 100
- Lecourt, Robert, 85
- legal service
 - Commission, 65, 69
 - European Parliament, 119
- Lenaerts, Koen, 47, 87, 91, 96
- Luhmann, Niklas, 20
- Luhmann's systems theory
 - acceptance of court decisions, 18
 - concept of legitimacy, 18
 - consistency of case law, 20
 - function of the legal system, 16
 - functions of courts, 17–18
 - hard cases, 17
 - hierarchical court organisation, 20
 - liberal critique, 18
 - neutrality of the judge, 18
 - normative dimension of the theory, 17
 - publicness of courts, 19
 - role of the parties, 19–20
- Martinie v. France*, 140
- measures of organisation, 74–77
- methods of interpretation, 3
- Möllers, Christoph, 13–16
- observations in preliminary reference proceedings
 - Commission, 60
 - European Parliament, 70, 118
 - Member States, 60, 61–63
 - natural or legal persons, 73
- participation (ECJ). See also amicus curiae,
 - observations in preliminary reference proceedings, intervention in direct actions
 - access to submissions, 134
 - anticipating importance of case, 69
 - comparison ECtHR, 63
 - democratic perspective, 116–135
 - differences between Member States, 62
 - dissemination of ECJ case law, 67–69
 - drafting of submission, 70
 - effects of participation, 70
 - language, 67
 - politicisation, 69
 - requesting Commission to join, 76
 - requesting Member States to join, 75
 - time limits, 68
- Prechal, Sacha, 91
- preliminary reference procedure, 43, see also observations in preliminary reference proceedings
- preliminary report, 98–100
 - agenda setting, 99
 - case assignment, 99
 - comparative law notes, 78
 - decision by general meeting, 100
 - discussion in general meeting, 100
 - functions, 99
 - length, 99
 - screening by chambers, 100
- president (ECJ). See also case assignment to judge-rapporteur
 - as judge-rapporteur, 87
 - as member of the administrative committee, 55
 - as member of the committee of eldest, 54
 - as member of the Grand Chamber, 88, 144
 - authority among judges, 146
 - case assignment to Advocate General, 137
 - case management, 83
 - election, 32
 - proposing members of 255 Panel, 47

- press department, 56–58
 - drafting of press releases, 57
 - information policy, 58
 - interviews, 58
- primacy of EU law, 43
- Rasmussen, Hjalte, 3
- research and documentation department, 77–80, see also comparative law notes
 - case law analysis, 79
 - fiche de préexamen, 79
- right to a fair trial, 2, 10, 138, 148
- Rueff, Jacques, 31, 33
- Sauvé, Jean-Marc, 46
- Schiemann, Konrad, 88
- secrecy of deliberation, 7
- separate opinions, 129–133
 - Advocate General as substitute, 133
 - at the ECtHR, 131, 132
 - effects on authority, 131
 - reappointment of judges, 132
- Serrarens, Petrus, 30, 31
- Shapiro, Martin, 11
- Skouris, Vassilios, 47, 83
- Spinelli report, 114
- time pressure, 141, see also case management
- Treaty of Lisbon, 103, 156
- Vajda, Christopher, 83, 88
- Van Gend en Loos*, 43
- vice-president (ECJ), 144, 148
 - as member of Grand Chamber, 88
- von Danwitz, Thomas, 95
- Voßkuhle, Andreas, 48
- Weiler, Joseph, 3
- witnesses, 74
- Wyrzykowski, Mirosław, 49