

Contents

List of Figures	page vii
List of Tables	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction: The Plural Modernisations of the British Left	1
Part I Social Democracy and the Challenge to the Nation State
1 ‘Keynes Is Dead, Beveridge Is Dead’: Modernisation, Globalisation, and European Integration	41
2 Industrial Democracy, Market Socialism, and Stakeholder Capitalism: Modernisation and Socio-economic Democracy	81
Part II Identities and ‘Modern Socialism’
3 ‘An Old Working Class May Be Waning, but a New One Is Being Born’? Gender, Labour, and Modernisation	123
4 A Telling Absence: Race, Multiculturalism, and Modernisation	152
Part III The Search for a Modernising Social Democracy
5 ‘A Modern Democracy’: Modernisation, the Left, and Constitutional Reform	193

vi	Contents
6	White Heat to Interactive Whiteboard: Modernisation and Labour’s Economic Strategy	229
	Conclusion: Contested Futures of Socialism in the Late Twentieth Century	266
	Bibliography	278
	Index	307