

Index

- Abric, Jean-Claude
 core/periphery model. See also core/periphery figurative schema, 104
Jeux, conflits et représentations sociales, 104 structural model, 105
- admiration
 and repression, 160
 self, 203
- anchoring
 as categorising and naming, 64
 Doise, Willem, 107–108
 Jesuino, Jorge Correia, 65
 Jodelet, Denise, 85, 93
 naturalises object, 184
 as protéiforme, 64
 in Psychoanalysis 1976, 88
- Arendt, Hannah, 193
- attitudes
 as dimensions of social representations, 127 meaning in social representations, 127 as pre-behaviour, 128
 and social representations, 127
- attitudes and opinions, 36, 38–39, 43, 125
- Austin, John
 speech act theory, 135
- Bakhtin, Mikhail
 aesthetics as a dialogical process, 199 chronotopes, 221
 ethics and aesthetics, 199–200 life as open-ended dialogue, 201 non-alibi in being, 202 Shakespeare, William, 199
- Baldwin, Mark James, 244
- Baliani, Giovanni-Battista, 33
- Bartlett, Frederic the concept of schema, 60 conventionalisation of images, 89 thinking, 66
- beliefs
 medical and traditional, 95 resistible and irresistible, 164 unconscious and unspecified, 94 variability of, 109
- Bergson, Henri
 common sense is a social sense, 155 duration of time, 220
 free will, 221
 temporality, 221
- biunique societies, 232
 new episteme, 230
- Cassirer, Ernst, 51–52, 59–62, 73, 129, 218, 249 grasping the whole, 231
 I and you, 59–62
 influence on Moscovici, 59–62 objectification, 59–62, 90
The Philosophy of Symbolic forms, 52 significance of language, 158 symbolic forms, 257
- Celan, Paul
 poet, 21
- Cézanne, Paul
 capturing movement, 131 images of apples, 131
 spatial ambiguity, 219
- Chiva, Isac
 anthropologist, 21
- cognitive polyphasia, 205, 234, 263
 as an expression of internal dialogue, 67 hypothesis of, 67
 no equivalence in Durkheim, 96 typology of knowledge, 205
- collective memories about Communism, 115 imagination of collective future, 115 as imaginative reconstructions, 115 social representations and myth, 115
- common sense, 37
 guide for daily acting, 154 heterogeneous forms, 157 as irresistible beliefs, 37–38

- common sense (cont.)
old and new, 158
proverbs, 156
and psychoanalysis, 31
and scientific knowledge, 157
and social representations, 153
and social representations used indistinguishably, 153
- communication genres, 68
and behaviour, 71
conversation, 68
diffusion, 68
directed at different types of group, 120
propaganda, 69
propagation, 68
- Communist Party, 16, 21, 25, 43, 46, 226, 238 in France, 191–192
Moscovici, Serge, 16
propaganda, 69, 190
psychoanalysis, 23
- complexity
in social representations, 234
- complexity theory, 228 and complex thinking, 229
- constructivism
Moscovici, Serge, 107
Piaget, Jean, 107
- conversation
a combat between participants, 119 importance in theory of social representations, 54
a primary communication genre, 67, 119, 124 rhythm of speech gestures, 54
- core/periphery
Latin America, 106
structuralism, 104
structural model, 105–107
- Cornford, Francis, 264
- Crombie, Alistair
Greek rationality, 214
rationality in different systems, 245
- cybernetics, 227–228
rejected in the USSR as pseudo-science, 34 structuredness and formness, 35 study of control, information, and communication, 33
- de Saussure, Ferdinand binary oppositions, 165 linguistics as part of social psychology, 179 semiotic theory, 168 static and dyadic unit of the sign, 183
- development of child's intelligence, 117 as continuous rather than discontinuous, 82
- as a dynamic and open system, 116 of logical thinking, 82 microgenetic, ontogenetic, sociogenetic, 226 of sciences after the Second World War, 11 of social theories, 2
- Dewey, John
aesthetics and ethics, 201
- dialectics, 20, 51
back-and-forth process, 232 Hegel, Georg, W. F., 18
Moscovici, Serge, 19
of nature, 18
tensions and oppositions, 25
- dialogical approach, 213, 233, 262
- dialogue does not need words, 211–212 external and internal, 136 internal, 247
and textbooks, 249
- discourse analysis
and social representations, 146
- discursive/contructionist approach critique of representations, 127–139
- Doise, Willem
human rights and values, 106 non-consensual social representations, 109 organising principles, 107 social representations as metasystems, 108 sociogenetic approach, 116 symbolic thinking and communication systems, 108
- Durkheim, Emile
collective representations as almost physical entities, 80
collective representations as reality, 50, 81 common sense conceals reality, 154 Kantian perspective of representations, 50 little role in Psychoanalysis (1961), 49 separation of psychology from sociology, 79 social facts, 80
sociology as a scientific discipline, 79
- Duveen, Gerard
Child–Child–Task, 117–118
constructivism, 117
co-operation and conflict, 114 Ego–Alter–Object, 117
gender identities, 144
social identity, 142
sociogenetic approach, 116
- Ehrenburg, Ilya
Soviet writer, 16
- Einstein, Albert
aesthetics, 219
autobiography, 248

Index

301

- condemnation of relativity in the Soviet Union, 238 curved space, 252, 263
 relativity in arts, 220
- epistemology constructionist, 139
 dialectic, 18
 empiricistic, 18
 genetic of Piaget, 143
 of Gerard Duveen, 118 of living experience, 118 of the natural sciences, 252 of the Self-Other-Object, 60, 135, 259 of social cognition, 105, 147
- ethics, 43–44
 and aesthetics, 202, 265 and aesthetics interlinked, 200, 210
 Jodelet, Denise, 85
- Faucheux, Claude
 Marxism and social psychology, 20 psychoanalysis as an anthropological study, 48
- Festinger, Leon, 75, 77, 145
- figurative equation, 183–185 concerned with meaning-making, 181 and Peirce's triadic model, 182
- figurative schema, 60, 88–90, 180–181
 unconscious–repression–conscious mind, 61, 160
- Fraisse, Paul, 27
- gestalt, 34, 36, 227, 258
- Goldmann, Lucien
 Duveen, Gerard, 143
 genetic structuralism, 139 identity and communication, 143
- Grenfell Tower
 and Cornish's ethnographic study, 209 Cornish, Flora, 210 disaster, 209
 to re-establish human value, 210
- Guttman, Louis, 39, 72 facet analysis, 36
 holistic, systematic and aesthetic approach, 36 scales, 36
- Harré, Rom
 critique of social representations, 134 Moscovici as Durkheimian, 133
 positioning theory, 145
 Self and Others, 134
 speech act theory, 144
- Hegel, G. W. F., 230
 aesthetic relations, 199
 dialectics, 165
- holistic vision of nature and humanity, 19
- human activities, 1
 mystery, 251
- Herder, Johann G. von
zeitgeist, 242
- heterarchy
 Moscovici, Serge, 233
- images
 contribute to reinterpretations of histories, 115 in drawings, 113
 as a form of communication, 114 visual, 113
- imaginary, social, 112
 historically determined, 113 maps of Mexico, 114
- imagination
 defines humans as species, 112
- Jahoda, Gustav
 critique of Moscovici, 136 cross-cultural psychology, 14 the term of 'social representations' redundant, 148
- Jahoda, Marie
 study of practical problems, 15 transition among cultures, 12–13
- Jesuino, Jorge Correia, 90, 92
 figurative equation, 182
 objectification and anchoring, 65, 185
- Jodelet, Denise
 cognitive polyphasia, 94
 collective memory and myth, 134 on differences between two editions of Psychoanalysis, 84 first edition of Psychoanalysis better than the second, 84 intervention practices, 175 latency period in social representations, 75 mental maps of Paris, 113 structured field, 111
- Kant, Immanuel, 242
 a priori knowledge, 50
 on representations, 50
 universal rationality, 117
- Koyré, Alexandre, 248
 Hegel, G. W. F., 251
 philosopher, 32
- Kravcenko, Victor
 political trial, 21

- Kuhn, Thomas
paradigm shift, 253
Planck, Max, 247
redescribed theories, 250
The Structure of Scientific Revolutions, 254 Kuhnian shift of paradigms, 259
- Lagache, Daniel
psychoanalyst, 27
language and communication, 122, 125, 129, 216, 264 as a concrete dialogical co-action, 222 as cultural processes, 132 for political purposes, 190 between Solzhenitsyn and the Politburo, 207 in speech act theory, 135 veiled, 122
- Lenoble, Robert
Essai sur la notion d'expérience, 37 representation, 36–37
- Lévi-Strauss, Claude
did not accept social representations, 40 entropology, 40
Guttman's scales, 39
structuralism, 39
structuralist anthropology, 103
- Lévy-Bruhl, Lucien accused of racism, 244
contrasting types of rationalities, 133 pre-logical thinking, 244–245
- Lewin, Kurt, 27
eating habits, 12
the Second World War and social sciences, 11
- Lysenko, Trofim, 22
- Malrieu, Phillipe, 76
- Marxism
dialectical and historical materialism, 20 social representations of, 30, 48, 191, 240 young people in France in the 1950s, 28
- mass communication diffusion, propagation, propaganda, 163–164 irresistible beliefs, 163–164
- mass psychology
the unconscious, 163
- masses, 202, 238
without faith, 201
impact of images, 190
must learn the class consciousness, 24 and propaganda, 70
the psychology of, 28
- meaning
accepted as symbol, 190 changes in objectification and anchoring, 88 decline of, 186
and knowledge, 85
meaningless objects, 188 of objectification and anchoring, 87 principle of, 81
social representations as, 85 symbolic, 190
and truth, 193
meaning-making processes, 178, 180, 193 construction of social knowledge, 186 of Marxism, 192
objectification and anchoring, 185 professional and lay, 176 socially shared beliefs and knowledge, 190 and symbols, 188
- Merleau-Ponty, Maurice children's lived experience, 117 critique of Piaget, 41
language as action, 41
phenomenology, 41
Phenomenology of Perception, 42
- Morin, Edgar
abandons hierarchy, 232 complex thinking, 230 dialogical principle, 231–232 system as a macro-unity, 231
- Moscovici, Serge, 54
anthropology of modern culture, 4, 103
autobiography, 16
Chronique des années égarées, 43 communication genres, 118
conversation, 54
critique of Durkheim in Psychoanalysis 1961, 50 dialogue with his theory, 2 as Durkheimian and non-Durkheimian, 132–133 European Association of Experimental Social Psychology, 75
heterarchy, 232
history and philosophy of science, 74 individual and society, 3, 17, 28
Koyré, Alexandre, 32
from Kuhnian anomalies to inventions, 254
Lagache, Daniel, 32
Lenoble, Robert, 155
The Making of Modern Social Psychology, 3 Marxism and social psychology, 19 no distinction between common sense and other forms of social knowledge, 158 political refugee in Paris, 17
psychoanalysis, 24, 31
Psychosociology of Language, 2 reconversion of ineffective factories, 15 rejecting attitudes, 39 rejection of hierarchical stages, 233

- rejection of Kuhn's idea of anomalies, 253
- representations as cultural and anthropological phenomena, 132–133
- social representations of psychoanalysis, 21
- Transnational Committee of Social Psychology, 75
- triadic model Ego–Alter–Object, 6
- two editions of Psychoanalysis, 132–133
- value-laden knowledge, 37
- who is the Other?, 3
- naming, 91
  - as creating objects in the world, 62
  - in objectification and anchoring, 65
  - Moscovici, Serge, 91
- objectification
  - as information, figurative schema, and naturalisation, 59
  - scientific and rationalistic thinking, 59
- objectification and anchoring
  - both concern the familiarisation of the strange, 88
  - central concepts of the theory, 83
  - as complementary processes. See also Moscovici, Serge
  - dialectic and dialogical processes, 92
  - language-based processes, 59, 91
  - reversed order, 88–90
- Oedipus complex, 30, 56, 61
- ontology, 200
  - of humanity, 63
  - Self–Other as a unit, 264
- oppositions, 165
  - binary, 165
  - dialectic, 20
  - microsocial and macrosocial, 165
- Otherness, 3, 199, 210, 236, 240
  - in two ways, 3
- paradigm shift
  - Kuhn, Thomas, 253
  - and the theory of social representations, 259
  - triadic model as epistemological revolution, 260
- Parsons, Anne
  - myth and belief, 30
  - Oedipus complex, 30
- Peirce, Charles Sanders, 63, 179, 185, 194
  - infinite semiosis, 182–183
  - triadic model of the sign, 182, 187
- Picasso, Pablo
  - scientific development, 219
- Planck, Max
  - diversified quantum theory, 99
- Popper, Karl, 29
  - science, 213
- positioning theory, 149, 259
  - and social representations, 142
  - values and morality, 145
- rationality
  - of common sense, 159
  - dialogical, 196, 198
  - formal, 196
- retrospective reinterpretation of theory, 247–249
- Ricoeur, Paul, 41
  - phenomenology of language, 42
- Romania, 3, 16
  - as Communist paradise, 21
- Rommetveit, Ragnar
  - language, 2
- Sakharov, Andrei, 207
- science
  - proletarian and bourgeois, 22–23, 46
- scientific revolutions
  - change of epistemologies, 258
- Self–Other, 203–205
  - as aesthetic ontological unit, 264
  - aesthetic relationship, 199
  - asymmetries, 205
  - Bakhtin, Mikhail, 232
  - belong together by being opposed, 56
  - common sense, 154–155
  - derivation of other themata, 170
  - dialogical process of interaction, 56
  - as epistemological thema, 169
  - has generative potential, 170
  - as interdependent, 256, 259
  - linked by ethical relations, 169
  - Mead, George Herbert, 187
  - moral order, 144
  - propaganda, 70
  - Sakharov, Andrei, 208
  - self-centredness, 203
  - unique relations, 255
- Self–Other–Object/Ego–Alter–Object
  - asymmetric relations, 196, 203
  - change of epistemologies in many disciplines, 259
  - epistemological core of social representations, 199
  - in extreme situations, 206
  - implicit, 55
  - political dissidents, 207
  - triadic model, 199
  - uniqueness of the model, 213
- semantic barriers, 121
- semiology, 42, 74, 179

- semiosis, 187–188
 Peirce, Charles Sanders, 182
- semiotics, 178
- Shostakovich, Dmitri, 237–238
- single cases
 definitions, 216
 Hippocratic case descriptions, 215 non-repeatability, 213 in physics and astronomy, 215 in social sciences, 215 theory of social representations and communication, 216
- social cognition, 104, 137
- social positioning
 and social representations, 145
- social psychology
 American influence, 75 and anthropology and sociology, 15 and attitudes, 40
 a discipline in movement, 20, 165 as experimental science, 15, 75 individualistic, 134, 138 international development, 75 normative and ethical issues, 144 rebuilding society, 19 redefined, 178
 after the Second World War, 15, 29, 243 after the War, 12
- social representations as anthropological, historical, cultural phenomena, 100 as anthropology of modern culture, 112, 156, 169
 definitions, 131
 diversification, 100
 as dynamic and complex phenomena, 217 of environmental protection, 225 as a Kuhnian paradigm, 253 as a metatheory, 253
 and narratives, 147
 non-consensual, 109, 123 none of principal concepts derived from Durkheim, 87 and other social psychological theories, 141 and positioning theory, 144 and semiotics, 179
 as single cases, 216–217 and social cognition, 105, 147 and social identity, 127, 142 socio-cultural/anthropological approach, 111 as structural phenomena, 100 as unique phenomena, 213
- social theory
 and audience, 243
 dialogical, 261, 263
- as dialogues, 237
 as a unique event, 2
- Solzhenitsyn, Aleksandr, 200, 207, 239
- Spirit of the Times (Zeitgeist), 241 influence on formation of theories, 241 influence on science, 241–243
- Stoetzel, Jean
 attitudes and opinions, 35
 Gallup methods, 35
 Gallup polls, 39
- strongman
 in liberal democracies, 202
- structuralism, 103
 Aix-en-Provence, 107
 binary oppositions, 165
- Tajfel, Henri, 14
 social comparison, 145
 social identity, 141
- Tarde, Gabriel, 244
- Tarkovsky, Andrei
 art as a communicative activity, 200 and ideologies, 200
 imprinted time, 222
 against moral decay of artists, 201
 temporality, 222
- temporality
 aesthetics and ethics, 221
 in aesthetics and ethics, 219
 Bergson, Henri, 220
 as subjective experience, 218, 224 underlain by memory, 222
- terminology
 arbitrary use, 126
 without attention to meanings, 251
 attitudes, 127
 problems in social representations, 130, 252
 in translations, 129
- thema/themata, 166
 change over time, 168
 dialectical oppositions, 166 dialogical oppositions, 166, 177 at heart of social representations, 167 as simplified binary oppositions, 167
- thinking
 essentially a dialogue, 119 natural, a social thinking, 58 in oppositions, 164
 rational, 57
 in strictly separated polarities, 165
- time
 as passing of moments, 218 and space, 219
- Toblerone model, 225

Index

305

- unconscious
  - collective, 163
  - and conscious processes, 160
  - contribution to culture, 161
  - masses and crowds, 163
  - and non-conscious, 159–160
  - unconscious, repression, conscious mind, 160
- Valsiner, Jaan
  - objectification and anchoring, 186
  - semiotic mediators, 185
- Vico, Giambattista
  - common sense, 154–155
  - needs and utilities, 155
  - New Science*, 241
- Wallon, Henri, 5, 47, 71, 76
  - developmental psychology, 47
- Wiener, Norbert, 34, 36, 213
  - cybernetics, 33
  - individual and social groups, 34
  - information and communication, 34