

Contents

Acknowledgements	page ix
Conventions and Abbreviations	xi
Introduction: Humanising Hegel	I
Metaphysics, Polemics and Debate	3
Book and Lectures	11
A Note on Labels	13
Freedom and Institutions	16
Plan of the Book	21
1 The Constitutional Question in Post-Napoleonic Germany	23
The Demand of the Age	23
Hegel and the Constitutional Debate	33
Provincialising Prussia	37
The Significance of Württemberg	39
Beyond Borders	46
2 On the Nature of Constitutions	52
Organic Origins	53
French Abstractions	58
German Delusions	66
Modern Lawgivers	76
Freedom in England and World History	86
3 The Distribution of Power	99
The Separation of Powers	100
The Role of the Monarch	107
The Exercise of Government	115
The Place of the Estates Assembly	119
4 Debating the Two-Chamber System	129
Decision-Making	131
The Need for Mediation	141
Land Ownership and the Majorat	148
Nobility and Independence	156

viii	Contents
5	The Representation of Interests	167
	Election	169
	Corporation Membership and Exclusion	180
	Public Opinion and Freedom of the Press	188
	Trial by Jury	197
	The Condition of Society	201
	Conclusion	209
	Bibliography	213
	Index	253