

Contents

Acknowledgements	page ix
List of Abbreviations	xv
Introduction	I
PART I LAUDIANISM: WHERE IT CAME FROM
1 A Trinitarian and Incarnational Theology	47
2 Andrewes' Political Theology	59
3 Andrewes' Anti-Puritanism	66
4 Puritan Politics	80
5 The Tree of Repentance and Its Fruits	85
6 Absent Presences: The Role of Predestination in Andrewes' Divinity	93
7 The Visible Church and Its Ordinances	101
7.1 Preaching	101
7.2 The Sacrament	103
7.3 Prayer	108
7.4 Outward Reverence in the Worship of God	113
PART II LAUDIANISM: WHAT IT WAS HOLY PLACES
8 The House of God	121
9 The House of God and the Beauty of Holiness	133

vi	Contents
10	The Beauty of Holiness and Ceremonial Conformity	139
10.1	‘Locus Terribilis’, the Church as a Site of ‘Holy Fear’ and Necessary Reverence	139
10.2	Necessary and Edifying Ceremonies, or the Integral Link between Body and Soul	142
10.3	Significant Ceremonies	146
11	Church Ceremonies, the Authority of the Church and the Authority of Scripture	151
11.1	Scripture	151
11.2	From Church Triumphant to Church Militant, and Back Again	154
11.3	Tradition	156
11.4	The Laudians and the Argument from Things Indifferent	157
11.5	Squaring the Circle, the Minimum and Maximum Cases for Conformity	159
HOLY ORDINANCES
12	Prayer	165
13	Preaching	173
14	The Sacrament and the Altar	179
15	The Sacrament and the Social Body of the Church	189
15.1	Clerical and Lay	189
15.2	Godly and Profane	193
16	The Altar and Visible Succession	196
16.1	Tabernacle, Temple and Church	196
16.2	‘The House of Prayer’ and ‘The Gate of Heaven’: Church Triumphant and Church Militant Meet at East Knoyle	199
16.3	Altar, Priest and Sacrifice in the Early Church	203
16.4	Episcopal Succession	207
16.5	Priest, Altar and Sacrifice in the Church of England	211
HOLY TIMES
17	The Feasts and Festivals of the Church, or Putting the Sabbath in Its Place	221
18	Sunday Sports and the Re/constitution of the Christian Community and the Social Order	235
19	The Sabbath and the Laudian Attitude to Authority	246

Contents

vii

PART III LAUDIANISM: WHAT IT WASN'T

20 Order, Puritanism and the State of the English Church	259
21 Puritan 'Privacy', or the Forms of Puritan Voluntary Religion Anatomised	266
21.1 Preaching and Extempore Prayer	266
21.2 Sermon-Gadding and the Puritan Lecture	277
21.3 Conventicle-Keeping	281
22 A Religion of the Word and the Question of Authority	288
22.1 Appealing to the People and Undermining Social and Gender Orders	290
22.2 Clergy or People?	295
22.3 The Authority of Scripture and the Testimony of the Spirit: Who Decides?	298
23 Puritanism, Popularity and Politics	308
23.1 Puritan Popularity as a Political Threat	309
24 Of Moderate Puritans and Popular Prelates	317
24.1 On the Impossibility of Puritan Moderation	317
24.2 On the Non-existence of Moderate Puritans	324
24.3 Popular Prelates: A Category Mistake	331
25 The Puritan Threat, the Church of England and the Personal Rule as a Period of Reformation	337
25.1 'The Wonder of the Christian World'	338
25.2 A Right Royal Reformation	340
25.3 King and/or Bishop?	341
25.4 Reformation as a Return Ad Fontes	345

PART IV LAUDIANISM AND PREDESTINATION

26 Laudianism, Puritanism and Arminianism Revisited	353
27 The Language of Mystery	360
28 Fatal Necessity	366
29 Predestination, the Positive Case: Of Justice and Mercy, Prescience and Predestination	376
30 Faith, Hope and Charity	401
31 Effort without Merit, Reward without Desert: Repentance, Amendment and the Works of Penitence	410

viii	Contents
PART V LAUDIANISM AS COALITION: THE CONSTITUENT PARTS
32	Dis-aggregating, or the Pleasures and Benefits of Splitting	433
33	Of Converts, Collaborators and Apostates: Puritans	435
34	Of Converts, Collaborators and Apostates: Calvinist Conformists, or Humphrey Sydenham and Robert Sanderson Compared	444
	34.1 Sydenham's Calvinism	444
	34.2 Sanderson's Calvinism	453
	34.3 Anti-Puritanism	458
	34.4 Laudianism? The Case of Robert Sanderson	464
	34.5 Laudianism? The Case of Humphrey Sydenham	464
	34.6 What Was in It for Laud? Or the Ambiguities of 'Moderation'	470
35	Of Apparatchiks, Zealots and Coming Men	476
	35.1 Skinner, Laurence, Heylyn Show How It's Done	476
	35.2 That's (Not) the Way to Do It! Peter Studley, Peter Hausted and the Local Politics of the Rise of Laudianism	480
	35.3 Coming Out and Moving Up	486
36	The Laudian Avant Garde: Young Men in a Hurry: Cambridge University in the 1630s	492
37	The Laudian Avant Garde: Old Men in a Hurry	518
	37.1 Robert Shelford	518
	37.2 James Buck	524
	37.3 Edward Kellett	530
38	Tacking and Trimming: Negotiating the End of the 'Laudian Moment'	541
	38.1 Robert Sanderson	541
	38.2 Peter Heylyn	549
39	Conclusion to Part V	563
	Conclusion	568
	Index	601