

Index

- Acemoglu, Daron, 3, 14
 Act for Relief of the Poor, England (1596), 110–11
 Act for the Punishment of Unlawful Assemblies, England (1549), 149 active rights, 6–11
 collective actions and, 6–7
 individual entitlement and, 6
 natural, 6–7
 protests and, 6–7
 adjudication, 21, 40, 67–68, 136, 154, 172, 179–80
Aikokusha (Society of Patriots), 219–22
 “all under Heaven”, 50. See also tenka;
tianxia
 alternate attendance (sankin kōtai), 48
 assize, 45, 111–12
 Association movement, 210–11
 autonomy, of state consent and, 18
 state legitimacy and, 18
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 42–43
 bellicist approach, to state formation, 11–14
 Bendix, Reinhard, 16
 benevolent rule
 in Meiji Restoration government, 213, 227
 during Qing dynasty, 59
 redress of grievances and, 169
 in Tokugawa regime, 49
 public interest as core of, 50–51
 redress of grievances under, 160, 162
 subsistence crisis during, 81
 block association (machi kaisho), 88, 90–91, 93
 Board of Revenue (Hubu), 59, 63–64, 127, 130, 132, 133, 231–32
 body politic, in Tudor/Stuart England, 38, 45
 Bohstedt, John, 69
 Book of Orders, in Tudor England, 43
 during subsistence crisis, 76–77,
 79–80
 Boxer Incident, 33, 195, 242
 Braddick, Michael, 25, 45
 Brooks, Christopher, 47
 capacity, of state, 1–2. See also specific states
 centralization of public finance, 248
 comparative historical analysis of, 243–55
 determining criteria for, 244–45
 expansion of petition system, 247–49
 measurement of, 20
 public goods and, 245
 capital appeal, 67–68, 177, 179–80, 236
 Censorate, 174–75
changpingcang. See ever-normal granaries
 Charles I (King), 147, 188–89
 Charles II (King), 197–98, 203–204
 Charter Oath (1868), 223
chihō jichi (local self-governance), 224
chihōzei (local taxes), 220–21
 China. See also Qing dynasty
 Boxer Incident, 33, 195, 242

- China (cont.)
 ever-normal granaries, 88–89, 95–97, 99, 103–106, 232–33
 debates over, 62
 First Sino-Japanese War, 33, 195, 227, 237
 formation of modern state in, 27–30
 institutionalization of state, 29
gongzhi tianxia, 28
guojia in, 26–28
 infrastructural facilities in, 1
 Ming dynasty, 49–50
 Mongol invasion of, 29
 Northern Song dynasty, 28–29
 petitions in, 31, 237
 political context in, from 1840–1911, 228–40
 famine relief programs, 232–33
 foreign policy, 238
 infrastructural issues, 230–32
Lijin duties, 194, 228–32, 235–36
 state-society collaboration, 229
 Spring and Autumn period, 37
 Taiping Rebellion and, 31, 192
 Tang dynasty, 27–29
 White Lotus Rebellion, 30
 China proper, Qing dynasty and, 59
chō (traditional unit of area), 81
 Church of England, 24, 39, 189–90, 195, 196, 204–206
 citizen's rights, in Tudor/Stuart England, 42–43
 civil society, 14, 245, 249–50
 Cixi (Empress Dowager), 237 claim-making, 9, 245–46, 248
 collective actions, active rights and, 6–7
 common good. See also public good
 definition of, 4
 public interest and, 4
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 39, 40
 common law traditions, in Tudor/Stuart
 England, 42
 “commonweal,” 19
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 40
 subsistence crisis and, 76
 commonwealth, 19
 in Tokugawa regime, 51
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 40, 42, 45
 conflicts of interests, 47, 53, 60, 67, 77, 146, 169
 consent, state autonomy and, 18
 constitutional monarchy, 195, 216–18, 222–23, 239, 240
 constitutionalist regimes, 13
 continental radicalism, 7
 Counter-Reformation era, wars during, 6 customs duties, 194, 208–209
daimyo, 26–27, 47–52, 55
 infrastructure financing and, 117–27
 redress of grievances and, 158–69
 subsistence crisis and, 81–89
 Declaration of Rights (England) (1688), 205
 Defoe, Daniel, 205
 despotic states, 13
 dikes. See minnian
 domain state, Tokugawa regime as, 55, 56
 domestic welfare
 capacity for warfare compared to, 1–2
 in early modern state, 188
 in Meiji Restoration government, 214
 during Qing dynasty, 59–60
 in Tokugawa regime, 53–54
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 7–8, 41, 76–77
 Dover harbor, 114–15, 202
 drainage projects, 156–58
 dredging projects
 in Qing dynasty, 130–31, 135, 139, 178
 in Tokugawa regime, 17, 85–86, 93, 120
 in Tudor England, 113
 Dutch Learning, 57
 early modern state. See also China;
 England; Japan
 analysis of, 240–42
 domestic welfare in, 188
 popular sovereignty in, 187
 public interest in, 185–88
 Elizabeth (Queen), 149
 Elton, G. R., 24–25
 Elyot, Thomas (Sir), 40
 enclosure
 anti-enclosures, 44, 148, 150–51
 Commons bill on, 200–203
 dikes, 135
 disputes over, 148, 150, 154–55
 in Edo Castle, 125, 126
 England. See also Stuart England; Tudor
 England
 Declaration of Rights (1688), 205
 formation of modern state in, 25, 30–31

- Glorious Revolution in, 31, 193, 204–205
 political instability after, 198
 infrastructural facilities in, 1
 Nine Years War, 204–205
 nonmaterial public good in, 32
 petitions in, 10, 189–90, 196–97, 200–202, 210–11
 political context in, from 1640–1780, 196–211
 Association movement and, 210–11
 Charles II and, 197–98
 food riots and, 198–200
 after Glorious Revolution, 198
 parliamentary responses, 201–203, 210
 over Protestant movements, 196, 204–205
 rise of patriotism and, 208–209
 Septennial Act, 206
 state legitimacy in, 195
 tax burden in, 1
 before Thirty Years War, 188–90
 Triennial Act, 206
 Whigs, 206–208
 English Civil War, 30, 41
 Ertman, Thomas, 13
 ever-normal granaries (changpingcang),
 88–89, 95–97, 99, 103–106,
 232–33
 debates over, 62
 excises, 193–94, 206
 anti-excises, 208–209
 Department of Excises, 207
 famine relief
 in China, 232–33
 during Qing dynasty, 94, 103–104
 state-society relationships and, 105–106
 during Tokugawa regime, 83, 84, 87, 89–90
 during Kan'ei famine, 83, 84
 during Tempō famine, 92–94, 126
 during Tenmei famine, 88–89, 94
 in Tokugawa regime, during Kan'ei famine, 49–51
 First Sino-Japanese War (1894–1895), 33, 195, 227, 237
 food riots, 78, 151–53
 in England, 198–200
 forced loans, 163, 189
 foreign warfare, capacity for domestic welfare and, 1–2
 Freedom and People's Rights Movement,
 221–26
 French Revolution, 7
 general welfare. See domestic welfare
 George III (King), 209
 Glorious Revolution, 31, 193, 204–205
gongzhi tianxia, 28
 goods. See common good; public good gōso (crowd petitions), 161, 163
 Gramsci, Antonio, 18
 Grand Canal, 61, 127, 130–31, 174–78
 Grand Council (Junjichu), 61–62
 Great Domestic Peace, in Tokugawa regime, 25, 48–49, 52
 Great Yarmouth, 202
 grievances, state's redress of conceptual approach to, 145–46
 through petitions
 in Qing dynasty, 169–71, 177–79
 during Tokugawa regime, 159–60, 164–69
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 153–55
 as public interest, 180–82
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 147, 155–56
 in Qing dynasty, 169–80
 benevolent rule ideology, 169
 for hydraulic projects, 173–77
 through petitions, 169–71, 177–79
 statute against rogues, 169–70
 during subsistence crisis, 171–73
 during Tokugawa regime, 158–69
 benevolent rule ideology and, 160, 162
daimyo authority and, 158–69
 increased literacy as influence on, 159
 peasant resistance and, 164
 through petitions, 164–60
 rice riots, 160–61
 shogunate system and, 158–69
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 146–58
 under Act for the Punishment of Unlawful Assemblies, 149
 food riots, 151–53
 through petitions, 153–55
 protests and rebellions, 147–51
 as public interest, 147, 155–56
 role of Privy Council, 155–56
gunchū gijō (regulations made by representatives from assemblies of village headmen), 166–67

- gunchū sōdai* (representatives selected from among the village headmen), 166–67
- guojia* (the state) (China), 26–28
- Qing dynasty, 59
- Habermas, Jürgen, 21
- Heavenly Mandate, Qing dynasty and, 58–60
- Henry VIII (King), 24–25, 39
- Hintze, Otto, 13
- Hobbes, Thomas, 19
- Hoshina Masayuki, 83–84
- Hubu*. See Board of Revenue
- humanism
- Christian, 37
 - civic, 40, 71
 - Confucian, 37
- Hundred Days' Reform, 238
- Hung Ho-Fung, 68
- hyakkajō*. See One Hundred Articles
- ikki* (popular protests), 53, 165–66
- imperial state, Tokugawa regime as, 57
- inclusive institutions, 14
- inclusive state, 14
- incorporated towns and boroughs, 41–43, 72
- inflation
- in England, 39–40, 43, 44
 - in Japan, 220–21, 223–24
- infrastructural power, 12
- in China, 1
 - creation of, 15
 - in England, 1
 - in Japan, 1
 - management of, 15
- infrastructure, financing of
- conceptual approach to, 107–108
 - state legitimacy and, 142–44
 - in Tokugawa regime, 115–27
 - daimyo* authority, 117–27
 - kuniyaku-fushin*, 118, 120–24
 - through rice tax, 116–17
 - shogunate coordination of, 117–27
 - water control projects, 17, 85–86, 93, 117, 120–24
 - in Tudor/Stuart England, 108–15
 - Act for Relief of the Poor (1596), 110–11
 - drainage projects, 156–58
 - dredging projects, 113
 - Privy Council and, 109–15
 - under statute of Parliament (1531), 108–109
 - interest of the people. See mineki
 - inter/intraregional grain trade, during Qing dynasty, 100–101, 106
 - irrigation
 - in China, 116, 129–31, 139, 173, 175–76, 178–79
 - in Japan, 50, 54, 80–81, 83–84, 166
 - Itagaki Taisuke, 219–20
 - James I (King), 60
 - James II (King), 193, 203–204
 - Japan. See also Meiji Restoration
 - government; Tokugawa regime
 - First Sino-Japanese War, 33, 195, 227, 237
 - infrastructural facilities in, 1
 - kōgi yoron*, 211
 - Meiji Restoration, 31–32, 211–28
 - Nativist Learning, 57, 190–91
 - nonmaterial public good in, 32
 - after Perry arrival, 190–91
 - political systems in, 211–28
 - Russo-Japanese War, 227–28, 239
 - tax burden between 1890–1895, 1
 - Jessop, Bob, 18
 - Junjichū*. See Grand Council
 - Justices of the Peace (JPs), in Tudor/Stuart England, 43–45, 75–76
 - Kan'ei famine, 49–51
 - Kang Youwei, 237
 - Kataoka Kenkichi, 223
 - Kawamura Zuiken, 117
 - kōgi* (public authority), 51
 - kōgi yoron* (public deliberation/discussion), 211
 - kokka* (the state) (Japan), 26–27
 - koku* (measure of dry capacity), 15, 81, 84
 - kokueki* (the state interest), 56, 165
 - kokugaku*. See Nativist Learning
 - kokuso* (province-wide petitions), 165
 - Kōno Hironaka, 223
 - Kubota Jirō, 217
 - Kuhn, Philip, 29
 - kuniyaku-fushin* (public works based on province-wide levy), 118, 120–24
 - land taxes
 - during Qing dynasty, 96

- during Tokugawa regime, 80–81
- legitimacy, of the state
 - analysis of, 68
 - in classical Marxist scholarship, 17–18
 - conceptual approach to, 37–39
 - in England, 195
 - infrastructure financing and, 142–44
 - procedure-based, 16–17
 - public interest and, 4
 - during Qing dynasty, 58–68
 - source-based, 16
 - state autonomy and, 18
 - during Tokugawa regime, 47–58
 - in Tudor/Stuart England, 39–47
- legitimation, 16
 - public interest and, 19, 21
 - of the state, public interest and, 4
- Liang Qichao, 237
- liberal democracies. See specific topics
- Lijin* duties, 194, 228–32, 235–36
- Lincolnshire Uprising, 147
- literacy rates
 - during Qing dynasty, 66
 - in Tokugawa regime, 53
 - redress of grievances influenced by, 159
- Lower Yangzi Delta, 228–29, 233–34
 - nonofficial granaries in, 105
 - rice trading to, 99–101, 103–104
- machi kaisho*. See block association
- Mann, Michael, 12
- Matsukata Masayoshi, 223–24
- measure of dry capacity. See koku
- Meiji Restoration government, in Japan, 31–32, 211–28
 - benevolent rule ideology in, 213, 227
 - Charter Oath in 1868, 223
 - commercial power of, 227
 - domestic governance challenges for, 212–13
 - domestic welfare policies, 214
 - establishment of, 211–12
 - expansion of public sphere and, 218
 - foreign policy approaches, 215–16
 - Freedom and People's Rights Movement, 221–26
 - peasant riots and, 224
 - penal laws, 247
 - petitions and, 213–14, 223, 226–27
 - public finance in, 220–21
 - public interest and, 14, 217–18
 - tax structures in, 214, 220–21
 - memorial system, in Qing dynasty, 62–63
 - Midland Rising, 150–51
 - Milbrand, Ralph, 18
 - military mobilization, of Tokugawa regime, 47–49
 - military-fiscal state, 14
 - mineki* (interest of the people), 56
 - Ming dynasty, 49–50
 - minkai* (people's assemblies), 214
 - minnian* (people's dike), 129–35
 - minxiu* (people's projects), 129
 - Mongols, invasion of China, 29
 - Moore, Barrington, 252
 - Napoleonic War, 7
 - Nativist Learning (kokugaku), 57, 190–91
 - natural active rights, 6–7
 - natural experiment, 33, 238–39, 242
 - Neo-Confucianism, 57
 - neo-liberalism, public interest and, 5
 - Nine Years War, 204–205
 - nonmaterial public good, 32
 - Northern Song dynasty, 28–29
 - Ōkuma Shigenobu, 220–23
 - One Hundred Articles (hyakkajō), 159
 - Opium War, 191–92
 - oriental despotism, 128–29
 - Ōshio rebellion, 93
 - osso* (non-procedural petition), 159–60
 - osukui* (benevolent governance), 49–50, 81
 - parliamentary systems
 - public interest and, 7–8
 - reform of, 7–8
 - participation, political. See specific topics
 - passive resistance, 21, 81
 - passive rights, 6–11
 - academic scholarship on, 8–11
 - from obligation, 6
 - public interest and, 4, 32
 - paternalism, 43, 67–68, 146, 151, 158–59, 240–41
 - patriotism, in England, 208–209
 - peasant riots, 224
 - people's dike. See minnian
 - people's projects. See minxiu
 - Perry, Matthew C. (Admiral), 190–91
 - petitions
 - capacity of state and, 247–49
 - in China, 31, 237

- petitions (cont.)
 in England, 10, 189–90, 196–97, 200–202, 210–11
 Meiji Restoration government and, 213–14, 223, 226–27
 during Qing dynasty, 67–68
 to redress grievances
 in Qing dynasty, 169–71, 177–79
 during Tokugawa regime, 159–60, 164–69
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 153–55
- Pilgrimage of Grace, 147
- Pincus, Steven, 14
- Polanyi, Karl, 21
- political instability, in early modern states, conceptual approach to, 193–95
- Poor Laws (England), 74
- poor relief interventions
 during Tokugawa regime, 93
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 72–75
- popular monarchism, 68, 147
- popular protests. See ikki
- poverty programs, in Tudor/Stuart England, 71–72
- Powell, Edward, 147
- power. See infrastructural power
- private interest, Qing dynasty and, 60
- Privy Council, in England, 109–15
- procedure-based legitimacy, 16–17
- property smashing. See uchikowashi
- Protestant movements, in England, 196, 204–205
- protests, as active right, 6–7
- public discussion/deliberation. See kōgi yoron
- public good
 definition of, 4
 nonmaterial, 32
 provision by the state, 2–3
 public interest and, 4, 18–19
 Qing dynasty and, 60–61
 state capacity and, 245
 state provision of, 2–3
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 39, 42
- public granaries
 during Qing dynasty, 70, 95–100, 104–105
 in Tokugawa regime, 70, 83–84, 88–92
 block association, 88, 90–91, 93
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 70
- public interest. See also mineki
 benevolent rule and, 50–51
 common good and, 4
 definition of, 4
 discourse of state legitimation for, 4
 in early modern state, 185–88
 extension of suffrage and, 8
 legitimation and, 19, 21
 Meiji Restoration government and, 14, 217–18
 in modern states, 5–6 neoliberalism and, 5
 parliamentary reform and, 7–8
 passive rights and, 4, 32
 public goods and, 4, 18–19
 Qing dynasty and, 60–61, 65
 scope of, 19–20
 state redress of grievances as, 180–82
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 147, 155–56
 state society relationship and, 244
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 38, 42
 through government statutes, 43–44
 implementation of social policies, 46
 justifications of, 45–46
- public sphere
 in Tudor/Stuart England, 32, 65–66, 201, 207
- public sphere, in England, 65–66
- “public weal,” in Tudor/Stuart England, 40
- public welfare. See domestic welfare
- public works based on province-wide levy.
See kuniyaku-fushin
- Qing dynasty, 10, 29–30
 benevolent rule during, 59
 redress of grievances and, 169
 Boxer Incident, 33, 195, 242
 centralized bureaucracy of, 61, 63–64
 fiscal system in, 63–64
 China proper and, 59
 ever-normal granaries, 88–89, 95–97, 99, 103–106, 232–33
 debates over, 62
 First Sino-Japanese War, 33
 fiscal capacity of, 33 guojia and, 59
 Heavenly Mandate and, 58–60
 infrastructure financing during, 127–42
 centralized bureaucracy for, 127, 129, 135
 financial arrears as result of, 140–42
 local management of, 136–39
minnian (dikes), 129–35

- minxiu*, 129
 oriental despotism and, 128–29
 quota-based system, 132
 water control projects, 127–42, 178
 legitimacy of state, 58–68
Lijin duties, 194, 228–32, 235–36
 literacy rates during, 66
 market economy during, 64–65
 memorial system in, 62–63
 Opium War and, 191–92
 petitions and, 67–68
 private interest in, 60
 public good and, 60–61
 public interest and, 60–61, 65
 public sphere in, 65–66
 redress of grievances in, 169–80
 benevolent rule ideology, 169
 for hydraulic projects, 173–77
 through petitions, 169–71, 177–79
 Statute against Rogues, 169–70, 247
 during subsistence crisis, 171–73
 resilience of state during, 58–68
 social elites during, 64–66
 social welfare protection in, 59–60
 state-society relationship during, 65
 subsistence crisis during, 94–105
 famine relief programs, 94, 103–104
 grain distribution and, 103
 inter/intraregional grain trade, 100–101, 106
 land taxes and, 96
 after natural disasters, 97
 public granaries and, 70, 95–100, 104–105
 redress of grievances during, 171–73
 rice prices, 102–103
 silver treasury systems and, 96,
 99–100
- radicalism. See Continental radicalism;
 republican radicalism
 Rawski, Evelyn, 66
 Reformation era, wars during, 6 regulations made by representatives from assemblies of village headmen. See gunchū gijō
 representatives selected from among the village headmen. See gunchū sōdai
 republican radicalism, 7
 resilience, of the state
 during Qing dynasty, 58–68
 Tokugawa regime, 47–58
- for Tudor/Stuart England, 39–47
 resistance against conscription, 213
 by grain merchants, 98
 passive, 21, 81
 by peasants, 164
 tax, 170
 revenue systems, in Tudor/Stuart England, 40–41
 rice prices, during Qing dynasty, 102–103
 rice riots, 160–61
 rice taxes, in Tokugawa regime, 116–17
 rights active, 6–11
 collective actions and, 6–7
 individual entitlement and, 6
 natural, 6–7
 protests and, 6–7
 of citizens, in Tudor/Stuart England, 42–43
 passive, 6–11
 academic scholarship on, 8–11
 from obligation, 6
 public interest and, 4, 32
 Riot Act (1715), 247 riots. See specific riots
 Robinson, James, 3, 14
 rule. See benevolent rule
 Russo-Japanese War (1904–1905),
 227–28, 239
- Saigō Takamori, 219–20
sankin kōtai, 48
 Scott, James, 17
 self-governance, 13–14, 42, 45, 74, 143, 166
 Septennial Act, England, 206
 Shimabara Rebellion, 25, 48
 Shintō, 215
 ship money, 189, 190
shirozume-mai (shogunal military granaries), 16–17, 85
 shogunal military granaries. See shirozume-mai
 shogunate system, in Tokugawa regime, 47–52
 infrastructure financing and, 117–27
 redress of grievances, 158–69
 Skinner, Quentin, 24
 Skocpol, Theda, 17, 253
 Slack, Paul, 71
 social elites, during Qing dynasty, 65–66

- social movements, 6–7, 12, 251
- social order, in Tudor/Stuart England, 41
- social policies. See also domestic welfare in Tudor/Stuart England, 46
- society. See state-society relationship
- Society of Patriots. See Aikokusha
- Somers, Margaret, 8–9, 251–52
- source-based legitimacy, 16
- sovereignty, 187, 193, 196–97, 210, 223, 251–52
- Spring and Autumn period, in China, 37
- Star Chamber, 146–47, 154, 190
- the state. See also autonomy; early modern state; legitimacy; specific states; specific topics
- bargaining power of society over, 12–14
 - capacity, 1–2
 - measurement of, 20
 - formation of, 10
 - bellicist approach, 11–14
 - comparative historical analysis of, 243–55
 - methodological analysis of, 22–24
 - role of violence in, 12
 - guojia* (China), 26–28
 - kokka* (Japan), 26–27
 - legitimation of public interest and, 4
 - origins of, 12
 - power of, 12
 - public goods provision by, 2–3
 - the state (in Chinese). See guojia
 - the state (in Japanese). See kokka
 - state interest. See kokueki
 - state-society relationship. See also Qing dynasty; Stuart England; Tokugawa regime; Tudor England
 - in China, 229
 - famine relief programs and, 105–106
 - public interest and, 244
 - during Qing dynasty, 65
 - subsistence crisis and
 - conceptual approach to, 69–70
 - politics of provision and, 69
 - Statute against Rogues, in Qing dynasty, 169–70, 247
 - Statute of Artificers (Tudor England), 8–9
 - statute of Parliament, England (1531), 108–109
 - Stuart England
 - autonomous self-government in incorporated towns, 42–43
 - citizen's rights in, 42–43
 - common good in, 39, 40
 - common law traditions in, 42
 - “commonweal” in, 40
 - commonwealth in, 40, 42, 45
 - domestic welfare in, 41
 - governance issues in, 9–40
 - as hierarchical society, 46–47
 - infrastructure financing in, 108–15
 - Act for Relief of the Poor (1596), 110–11
 - for drainage projects, 156–58
 - Privy Council and, 109–15
 - under statute of Parliament (1531), 108–109
 - Justices of the Peace in, 43–45
 - during subsistence crisis, 75–76
 - legitimacy of state in, 39–47
 - public good in, 39, 42
 - public interest in, 38, 42
 - through government statutes, 43–44
 - implementation of social policies, 46
 - justifications of, 45–46
 - “public weal” in, 40
 - redress of grievances in, 146–58
 - under Act for the Punishment of Unlawful Assemblies, 149
 - food riots, 151–53
 - through petitions, 153–55
 - protests and rebellions, 147–51
 - as public interest, 147, 155–56
 - role of Privy Council, 155–56
 - resilience of state in, 39–47
 - revenue system in, 40–41
 - social order in, 41
 - subsistence crisis during, 70–80
 - commercialization of farming, 71
 - “commonweal,” 76
 - domestic welfare interventions, 7–8, 76–77
 - houses of correction and, 75–76
 - Justices of the Peace in, 75–76
 - parliamentary act of 1556, 73–74
 - poor relief, 72–75
 - poverty programs, 71–72
 - price revolution and, 69–70
 - public granaries and, 70
 - royal government responses to, 78–79
 - statute of 1552, 73–74
 - subsistence crises. See Qing dynasty; Stuart England; Tokugawa regime; Tudor England
 - suffrage, public interest and, 8

- Taiping Rebellion, 31, 192
 Tang dynasty, 27–29
tashidaka method, in Tokugawa regime, 55
 tax resistance, 170
 taxation
 in England, 1
 land taxes
 during Qing dynasty, 96
 during Tokugawa regime, 80–81
 Meiji Restoration government, 214, 220–21 resistance movements against, 170
 rice taxes, 116–17
 Tempō famine, 92–94, 126
tenka, 50
 Tenmei famine, 88–89, 94
tetsudai-fushin (assistance-based public works), 118–19, 123–26
 Thirty Years' War, 188–90
tianxia, 50. See also gongzhi tianxia
 Tilly, Charles, 9–11, 250–53
 Tokugawa regime, in Japan, 10. See also
 public granaries
 administrative structure of, 55–57
 benevolent rule in, 49
 public interest as core of, 50–51
 redress of grievances under, 160, 162
 subsistence crisis under, 81
 commonwealth in, 51
 daimyo, 26–27, 47–52, 55
 infrastructure financing and, 117–27
 redress of grievances and, 158–69
 subsistence crisis and, 81–89
 domestic welfare in, 53–54
 economic development in, 52–53
 formation of modern state in, 25–27
 as composite state, 27
 as domain state, 55, 56
 as social hierarchy, 53–54
 Great Domestic Peace in, 25, 48–49, 52
 as imperial state, 57
 infrastructure financing in, 115–27
 daimyo authority, 117–27
 kuniyaku-fushin, 118, 120–21, 121–24
 through rice tax, 116–17
 shogunate coordination of, 117–27
 water control projects, 17, 85–86, 93, 117, 120–24
 Kan'ei famine, 49–51
 subsistence crisis and, 83
 kokka in, 26–27
 kokueki in, 56
 legitimacy of state in, 47–58
 literacy rates in, 53
 military mobilization system in, 47–49
 Ming dynasty as influence in, 49–50
 Nativist Learning and, 57
 redress of grievances in, 158–69
 benevolent rule ideology and, 160, 162
 daimyo authority and, 158–69
 increased literacy as influence on, 159
 peasant resistance and, 164
 through petitions, 159–60, 164–69
 rice riots, 160–61
 shogunate system and, 158–69
 resilience of state in, 47–58
 Shimabara Rebellion, 25, 48
 shogunate system in, 47–52
 infrastructure financing and, 117–27
 redress of grievances, 158–69
 subsistence crisis during, 80–94
 under benevolent rule, 81
 block association and, 88, 90–91, 93
 chō, 81
 commercialization of rice production, 82
 daimyo and, 81–89
 decentralized political system and, 81
 famine relief and, 83, 84, 87–90
 during Kan'ei famine, 83, 84
 koku, 15, 81, 84
 land taxes, 80–81
 Ōshio rebellion, 93
 poor relief interventions, 93
 regulation of rice markets, 92
 during Tempō famine, 92–94, 126
 during Tenmei famine, 88–89, 94
 tashidaka method, 55
 Yuan dynasty as influence in, 49–50
 traditional unit of area. See chō
 treasury systems, during Qing dynasty, 96, 99–100 Treaty reform
 in Meiji Japan, 222, 223
 in Qing China, 228
 tribute grain, 60–61, 95, 103, 176
 Triennial Act, England, 206
 Tudor England
 Act for the Punishment of Unlawful Assemblies, 149 autonomous self-government in incorporated towns, 42–43

Tudor England (cont.)

- Book of Orders in, 43
 - during subsistence crisis, 76–77, 79–80
- citizen's rights in, 42–43
- common good in, 39, 40
- common law traditions in, 42
- “commonweal” in, 40
- commonwealth in, 40, 42, 45
- domestic welfare in, 41
- English Civil War, 30, 41
- governance issues in, 9–40
- Henry VIII and, 39
 - as hierarchical society, 46–47
- infrastructure financing in, 108–15
 - Act for Relief of the Poor, 110–11
 - for drainage projects, 156–58
 - dredging projects, 113
 - Privy Council and, 109–15
 - under statute of Parliament (1531), 108–109
- Justices of the Peace in, 43–45
 - during subsistence crisis, 75–76
- legitimacy of state in, 39–47
- Lincolnshire Uprising, 147
- Midland Rising, 150–51
- Pilgrimage of Grace, 147
- public good in, 39, 42
- public interest in, 38, 42
 - through government statutes, 43–44
 - implementation of social policies, 46
 - justifications of, 45–46
- “public weal” in, 40
- redress of grievances in, 146–58
 - under Act for the Punishment of Unlawful Assemblies, 149
 - food riots, 151–53
 - through petitions, 153–55
 - protests and rebellions, 147–51
 - as public interest, 147, 155–56
 - role of Privy Council, 155–56
- resilience of state in, 39–47
- revenue system in, 40–41
- social order in, 41
- Statute of Artificers, 8–9
- subsistence crisis during, 70–80
 - Book of Orders, 76–77, 79–80
 - commercialization of farming, 71
 - commissions created during, 74

“commonweal,” 76

domestic welfare interventions, 7–8, 76–77

food riots as response to, 78

houses of correction and, 75–76

Justices of the Peace in, 75–76

local protectionism and, 77–78

Poor Laws and, 74

poor relief, 72–75

poverty programs, 71–72

price revolution and, 69–70

public granaries and, 70

royal government responses to, 78–79

uchikowashi (property smashing), 165–66

Uesugi Yōzan, 87

vagrancy, 71, 73

violence, in state formation, 12

Walter, John, 46–47

War of Spanish Succession, 205–206

water control projects

dredging projects

in Qing dynasty, 130–31, 135, 139, 178

in Tokugawa regime, 17, 85–86, 93, 120

in Tudor England, 113

during Qing dynasty, 127–42

minnian (dikes), 129–35

in Tokugawa regime, 117, 121–24

dredging projects, 17, 85–86

Weber, Max, source-based legitimacy and, 16

welfare. See domestic welfare

Western Learning, 57

Whigs, in England, 206–208

White Lotus Rebellion, 30

Wilkes, John, 209

Wittfogel, Karl, 128

Wong, R. Bin, 30

Yamagata Bantō, 92

Yangzi River, 97, 99–101, 228

Yellow River, conservancy of, 127

Yokoi Shōnan, 191

Yuan dynasty, 49–50