

Index

Note: Page numbers with the suffix 'n' indicate a footnote.

- affect
 - definition 105
 - intensity 106–109
 - and negative aspects 105–107, 123–124
 - and technology 111–112
- affective ties
 - and everyday obligations 3
 - intersubjective experience 105
 - persistence 101–102
 - transnational migrants 106–108, 126–127
- ageing population, Kenya 195
- agriculture
 - produce from family farm 125–126
 - subsistence agriculture 33
 - Swynnerton Plan 36
- aspirations
 - a better life 40
 - education 62, 72–73
 - meeting the family's needs 14, 55, 59, 71
 - middle-class lifestyle 31, 55, 60, 69–70
 - self-betterment 2, 59, 61–65, 71
 - social mobility 31, 39–40
 - See also* expectations; reasons for migration
- Assemblies of God 49–50
- asylum 19, 81–82n
- Barking and Dagenham 87–88
- Beidelman, Thomas 73
- Bible translations 34–35
- Blunt, Robert 49
- born-again Christianity 25
 - definition 12n
 - economic achievement 115–116
 - husband-and-wife dyad 114–115, 117
 - importance of nuclear family 114–115, 117, 123–124, 175
 - as a relationship 97–98
 - rupture and self-making 98–99, 178, 189–190
 - as social community 151
 - source of identity 13–14, 25, 98–99
 - See also* Pentecostal church/es; Pentecostalism
- bridewealth 133–136
- bridewealth negotiations 133–136, 142–143
- bridewealth payments 142
- bridewealth values 135–136, 143
- British National Party 88, 167
- care sector
 - global care chains 67
 - in Kenya 195
 - in UK 167
 - in US 62
 - See also* nurses
- chamas* (credit and savings associations) 183–184
- change 169–170
 - 'broken Britain' 162
 - of circumstances 189–191
 - and continuity 141–148, 161–162, 164–165
 - cultural loss 161–162
 - 'forgetting who you are' 164–165
 - in kinship configurations 177–178, 188–189
 - negative aspects 165–166
 - personhood and belonging 161–165
 - redefinition of younger migrants' kinship relations 177–178
 - on return from London 160–161
 - as social betrayal 163–164
- children, naming traditions 171–172
- Christianity
 - in Africa 13
 - ageing population 96–97, 97n

- coping with difficulties of separation 113–114
- feelings of alienation for migrants 95–97
- in Kenya 50
- moral superiority 170–171
- pluralism 97
- as site of action 12–14
- cohabitation (come-we-stay)
 - appeal for migrants 155
 - and decision to marry 156
 - in Kenya 162
 - social and moral inferiority 132, 154–156
 - support for families 155
- colonial era
 - gendered division of labour 33
 - generational tensions 33, 36, 175–176
 - reserves 30–31n
 - wage labourers 32–33, 35
- colonialization 10, 14, 34, 39
- come-we-stay. See cohabitation (come-we-stay)
- communication. See ICT (information and communications technology)
- community weddings
 - absence of non-migrant kin 143–146, 152–153, 158
 - best couples 152–153
 - cake cutting 140–141
 - ceremony 138–139
 - community-building occasions 148–149, 151–152, 158–159
 - defined 131–132
 - effect on intergenerational relations 132, 144–145
 - fundraising 136–137, 144
 - gifts 140–141, 146–147
 - ‘just like at home’ 130–132, 143–144, 158
 - leftover food 141, 150
 - location 131–133, 143–144
 - multifaceted events 133
 - negative aspects 149–150
 - photographs 139–141
 - pre-wedding activities 136–138, 144–145, 149
 - pre-wedding dinner 137
 - reception 139–141
 - reciprocal expectations 150, 175
 - and social status 138, 148–149
 - speeches 140
 - transnational rituals 141–148
 - videos 139, 145–146
- community-building 148–149, 151–152, 158–159
- contingency, of lifecourse 59–61, 190–191
- continuity 141–148, 162–164, 169–170
- corruption
 - British society 100, 140, 165–166
 - ‘eating’ metaphor 122n
 - fraudulent house building 122
 - Kenya’s politics 30–31, 44–46, 52–53
 - Pentecostal church 52–53
- devil worship 49n, 49, 51
 - See also* witchcraft
- distance
 - friction of distance 108–109, 109n
 - relative conceptualisation 4, 191–192
 - social distance 9–12, 191–192
- dowry. See bridewealth
- economic migration 56
- education
 - indigenous education 39
 - marker of success 70
 - post-colonial improvement 63–64
 - pre-marriage considerations 135
 - and social mobility 31, 39–40
 - See also* study abroad
- elections (Kenya)
 - corruption (1988) 44–45
 - violence (1992/1997) 45–46
- employment
 - by the church 50
 - by NGOs 47
 - colonial wage labourers 32–33
 - low-pay and low-status jobs 83–84, 180–181, 183–184
 - status paradox for migrants 83–84, 180–181
 - study and part-time work 55, 83–84
 - visa restrictions 70, 82–83
- English language 25–26
- Englund, Harri 6
- entrepreneurship
 - chama* land-purchase enterprise 183–184
 - rural areas 125–126
 - second-hand clothing market 60–61
- ethical demands 113–114
- ethnicity
 - and religion 24–25
 - women’s employment 41n
- existential
 - change 161
 - compulsion and moral obligation 5–6
 - movement 9, 77–78
 - and personhood 103–105
 - reconciliation with structural context 189–191

226 Index

- exogamy investigations, before marriage 134–135, 142
- expectations
- disappointment at unfulfilled expectations 41, 65, 79–80, 94–95, 98–99, 124
 - from family on return home 116–117
 - from non-migrants 10, 93, 107–108, 110, 175
 - reconfiguration 128–129
 - See also* aspirations; kinship obligations; reasons for migration
- family relations. See kinship
- feminism 49
- Ferguson, James 30, 181–182, 187
- fertility rates 64, 64n
- fieldwork
- core families 22–24
 - dwelling among families 20–22
 - in Kenya 24, 26–27
 - in London 25–26
 - situational analysis 20–21
- finances
- assistance but not regular support 117–118, 190
 - chamas* (credit and savings associations) 183–184
 - lump sum donations versus small amounts 119–121, 182
 - marital tensions over money 63, 68, 119–121, 123
- gender
- colonial era division of labour 33
 - colonial era inequality 33–34
 - financial arrangements 180
 - household responsibilities 69, 122–123, 146–147
 - marital tensions over money 63, 68, 119–121, 123
 - migration inequalities 67–68
 - younger migrants 172–173
- generations
- colonial era tensions 33, 36, 175–176
 - definitions (first and second) 16n, 16
 - differing prospects 79
 - familial expectations 193
 - inter- and intra- generational dilemmas 116–119
 - and kinship obligations 72, 114–116
 - link between age and dependency 182
 - ‘migrant generation’ 15–17
 - multifaceted conceptualisation 14–17
 - and the Pentecostal church 52
 - relations with the in-laws 114–115, 147
 - and wedding celebrations 132
 - See also* older women migrants; younger migrants
- girlfriend (relationship) 173–174, 174n
- Goldenberg scandal 44n
- Hage, Ghassan 107, 124, 161, 168
- Hannaford, Dinah 110
- harambee* gatherings 2n, 2, 73
- HIV and AIDS 42n, 195
- household appliances 119n, 119, 183
- household help 42, 69, 75, 119n, 119
- housing
- building fraud 122
 - generational moves 194–195
 - help for non-migrant kin 62, 164
 - plans for the future 183, 193
- humiliation 83–84, 94–95, 106–107, 126
- communication technology 108–113
- ethical demands 10, 110, 113–114
 - ignored or unreturned calls 112–113
 - internet 109n
 - mobile phones 109–111, 109n
 - poignancy 10
 - Skype 109–110, 192
 - social media 91
 - source of ambivalence 192
 - staying in touch 8–10
 - WhatsApp 109, 192
- imagination
- abroad 72–76, 191–192
 - alternate non-migrant life in Kenya 95
 - endless possibilities 73
 - gaps in expectations and experience 41, 65, 79–80, 94–95, 98–99, 124
 - Kenya and UK compared 75–76
 - positive and negative aspects 11–12, 94–95, 102
 - social and historic limitations 94
 - spatiotemporal framing 75–76, 158, 164–166
 - symbolic power of the migrant 105–106
 - UK, imagined but not arbitrary destination 76–77
 - UK, non-migrant perception 77–78
- internal migration
- colonial era 33
 - Kikuyu 35–36
 - Luhya 37
 - older women 66
 - rural/urban duality 37–38

- Jackson, Michael 5, 9, 95, 188–189
- Kenya
 ageing population 195
 aid withdrawal 45
 backwardness label 19, 75–76, 163, 168
 East African business and NGO hub 74 economic problems 43–44 housing market 194–195
 media expansion 73–74
 political corruption and repression 30–31, 44–46, 52–53 political and economic instability 1, 15, 43, 53 poverty 46
 structural adjustment programmes 43–44, 64 universities 62–64, 64n
 visits home 111–112
- Kenya African National Union (KANU) 44–45
- Kenyans
 dual citizenship 194
 limited opportunities 30–31 livelihood anxieties 48
 statistics 17–18
 unemployment 44, 62
 ‘Kenyans in diaspora’ 90–91, 117, 164–165
- Kenyatta, Jomo 74, 176
- Kibaki, Mwai 173n
- Kikuyu
 in colonial era 176
 internal migrant labourers 35–36 language 139, 166, 171–172
 personhood 35–36
 wedding traditions 140, 146
- kinship
 changing forces 53–54, 177–178, 188–189 colonial era challenges 33–35 colonial era transformation 32–34
 continuing relevance 186–187
 cooperation and conflict 7 extended kin remaining in Kenya 15 families started in UK 19–20 gender migration differences 67–68
 and the in-laws 114–115, 147
 re-sizing 42
- kinship obligations 6
 affected by migration 5 assistance but not support 117–118, 190 between migrants and non-migrants 92 conflicts over giving to extended kin 119–121 and disconnection from kin 107–108, 123–125 generational differences 114–116
 inter- and intra-generational dilemmas 117–119
 in Kenya 42, 90
 length of time abroad and material success 90–91 non-migrant kinship expectations 93, 107–108 older women migrants 182–183
 reciprocity 103–104
 regardless of socio-economic status 184 rural kin 42–43
 younger migrants 114–115
 See also expectations; moral obligations
- kinship relations
 humiliation and shame 83–84, 94–95, 106–107, 126 moral power of non-migrants 106 new forms with younger migrants 177–178
 reciprocity 103–104, 106–107
 symbolic power of migrants 105–106 tensions following migration 2–3, 8–9
- land, scarcity 36
- languages 25–26, 166–167
 Bible translations 34–35
- legal regime. See regulatory framework
- legal residence
 indefinite leave to remain 19 permanent residency via ‘long residence’ 18 varied routes 18–19
 wedding plans affected by 133
- lifecourse
 contingency 59–61, 190–191
 and time 10
- Lonsdale, John 32–33, 35–36, 151, 176
- Luhya 35, 37
- Luos 35, 37, 61–62
- maendeleo* (civilization) 39
- Maendeleo Ya Wanawake Organization* (MWYO) 48
- marriage
 born-again ideas 114–115
 exogamy investigations 134–135, 142 and fidelity 173–174
 husband-and-wife dyad 114–115, 117
 and the in-laws 114–115, 147
 in later life 48n
 marital tension as migration reason 60–61, 179–180

228 Index

- marriage (cont.)
 - post-wedding kinship responsibilities 154
 - rights over burial of husband 48–49
 - tensions over money 63, 68, 119–121, 123
 - See also* weddings
- marriage migration 56
- mbari* (clan settlements) 35–36, 176
- media
 - African migrants and the occult 168
 - portrayal of migrants 92n, 92
- men
 - budget responsibilities 68
 - monogamy 173–174. See also gender
- middle classes
 - aspirations 55, 60, 69–71
 - early formation 41–42
 - temporary migration 66–67
 - tensions over domestic budgeting 63, 68, 119–121
- migrants
 - gaps in expectations and experience 41, 65, 79–80, 94–95, 98–99, 124
 - ‘Kenyan diaspora’ 90–91, 117, 164–165
 - negative media 92n, 92
 - racial hierarchies 89
 - social and moral category 101–102
 - struggles in everyday life 84–85
 - symbolic power 105–106
 - UK hostility 167–169
 - visits home 111–112
- migration
 - changing familial expectations 54
 - effect on kinship obligations 5
 - familial achievement 90
 - help from Christian church 52
 - need for resources 75n
 - unfavourable aspects 8
- mission schools
 - for colonial administrators 38–39
 - financial incentives 39
 - practical skills 38–39
 - social mobility 39–40
- missionization, and colonialization 14
- mistress (relationship) 173–174, 174n
- mobile phones 109–111, 109n
- modernization 14, 30
- Moi, Daniel Arap 44–45
- monogamy 173–174
- moral agency (wiathi) 36
- moral economies
 - concept 5–6
 - keeping in touch 8, 104–105
 - of transnational kinship 107–108, 116, 127–128, 184–185, 188–189
- moral obligations
 - and closeness of relationship 11–12
 - colonial era 35–36
 - definitions 6
 - ethical demands 113–114
 - lump sum donations versus small amounts 182
 - post-colonial era 42–43
 - See also* kinship obligations
- morality
 - Kenya’s superiority 76, 92–93, 140
 - UK’s corruption and immoral practices 100, 140, 165–166
- Muigwithania* (journal) 176
- multiple migrations, older women 60, 66, 69
- music, Pentecostal church 50, 97n, 140
- Mutongi, Kenda 38–39, 41
- Nairobi, internal migrants 41
- naming of children 171–172
- New Economics of Labour Migration (NELM) 57
- Newham 87, 168–169
- NGOs
 - activities 46–47
 - criticisms 47
 - cynicism concerning 53
 - development NGOs 31–32
 - employment opportunities 47
 - increased numbers 46–48
 - proxy for state 46–47
 - subsidiary business opportunities 47
- NHS, racism 91–92
- non-migrants
 - absence from community weddings 143–146, 152–153, 158
 - kinship expectations 10, 93, 107–108, 110, 175
 - lacking knowledge of migrants’ lives 91–92
 - moral power 106
 - perception of UK 77–78
 - symbolic gifts 126–127
- nuclear families
 - and born-again Christianity 114–115, 117, 123–124, 175
 - British definition 55–56
- nurses 14, 18, 66–67, 66n, 84–86
- Nyanza 61–62
- older women migrants
 - community role 152
 - desire to return to Kenya 181–182

- ease of finding work in London 178–179
- families before migration 120
- family responsibilities in Kenya 69
- future kinship re-working 184
- generation 14–15
- internal migration 66
- kinship obligations 182–183
- in low-pay and low-status jobs 83–84, 180–181, 183–184
- multiple migrations 60, 66, 69
- not stigmatized for mobility 179
- plans for the future 181–183, 194
- provision of financial and material help 115–116
- reasons for migrating 55, 59–61, 68–69, 179–180
- reluctance to migrate 70
- role in wedding ceremony 132
- self-sufficiency and independence 115–116
- study and part-time work 55
- transferable skills 14
- Otieno, Wambui 48–49
- Pentecostal church/es
 - British hostility and suspicion 168–169
 - fundraising ('seeds') 153
 - growth 49–50, 187
 - intrinsic appeal 100–101
 - in Kenya 49–53, 62
 - in London 26, 97
 - as means of support and remaking of self 53, 81, 98–99
 - new churches 97
 - pastors 97n
 - proxies for the state 50, 187
 - social activities 99–100
- Pentecostal-charismatic churches 31–32n, 31–32
- Pentecostalism
 - answer to poverty and social marginalization 51
 - breaking with the past 51, 98–99, 189–190
 - and bridewealth 143
 - continuity 172
 - definition 12n
 - employment opportunities 50
 - scepticism and cynicism 52–53
 - See also* born-again Christianity
 - permanent residency 18, 85, 112, 165n
 - personhood 35–37, 58–59, 161–165, 196
 - need for recognition 103–105
 - phenomenology
 - migrants' experiences 124–125, 147–148
 - of migration 94–95
 - non-migrants' experiences 106, 145
 - of social intimacy 77–78
 - socio-spatio-temporal orientations 184–185
 - structural conditions 9
 - of transnational kinship 9–12
 - polygyny 173–174
 - poverty, and Pentecostalism 51
 - primary education 63–64
 - racial hierarchies 89
 - racism 88–89, 91–92
 - reasons for migration
 - financial 14, 71
 - Kenya's political and economic instability 1, 15, 43, 53
 - older women 55, 59–61, 68–69, 179–180
 - relationship problems 60–61, 63, 68, 119–121, 179–180
 - younger migrants 2, 59, 62–63
 - See also* aspirations; study abroad
 - reciprocity
 - at community weddings 150
 - cross-household ties 103–104
 - demotivating force 106–107
 - inter- and intra- generational 116–119
 - from non-migrants 126–127
 - rural-urban 125–126
 - registry weddings 133, 136–138, 147–148
 - regulatory framework 81–87
 - citizenship application stress 87
 - citizenship route 85–86
 - 'continuous lawful residence' 85–86
 - 'continuous residence of any legality' 86
 - effect on kinship ties 6–7
 - employment restrictions 82–83
 - family migration 55–56, 65
 - family reunification 56
 - increasingly restrictive 19
 - Kenyan dual citizenship 194
 - overstayers 86–87, 144
 - undocumented migrants 85–86, 101–102, 165n, 194
 - See also* legal residence; visas
 - religion
 - continuing relevance 186–187
 - and ethnicity 24–25
 - See also* born-again Christianity; Pentecostal church/es; Pentecostalism
 - religiosity, varied commitment 13

230 Index

- remittances 194
- Robbins, Joel 104
- rural areas (Kenya) 37–38, 40, 42–43, 125–126, 135
- school fees 63, 68, 190
- shame 83–84, 94–95, 106–107, 126
- simultaneity 10, 192
- singlehood 124, 151, 157, 159, 170
- situational analysis 20–21
- Skype 109–110, 192
- Smith, James 48
- social evolutionism 39
- social media 91
- social mobility, and education 31, 39–40
- social reproduction 4–5, 176–177, 195–196
 - crisis of 1, 43, 48, 59, 65
 - historical crisis 36
- states
 - failure and hostility 188
 - NGOs and churches as proxy 46–47, 50
 - See also* regulatory framework
- statistics
 - Kenyan migrants 17–18
 - UK immigration 19n
- student visas 70, 82
- study abroad
 - government and business leaders 74, 74n
 - no alternative for higher education 74
 - and part-time work 55, 83–84
 - for self-betterment 61
 - social status 74
 - theological training 74
 - younger migrants 84
- Taita people 48
- television, in Kenya 73–74
- temporary migration 17, 55, 66–67
- text messages 110
- Thiong'o, Ngũgĩ wa 72
- time/temporality
 - changes over time 10
 - life events 10, 59
- tourism 74–75
- tradition, transnational rituals 141–148
- undocumented migrants 85–86, 101–102, 165n, 194
- unemployment 44, 62
- United Kingdom
 - an imagined but not arbitrary destination 76–77
 - compared with Kenya in imagination 75–76
 - immigration from Kenya 18
 - immigration statistics 19n
 - migrants' negative perception 19–20, 140, 165–166, 174
 - older migrants plan to leave 181
 - younger migrants plans to remain 181
- United States
 - caring work abroad 62
 - study abroad 74n
- universities (Kenya) 62–64, 64n
- urban areas
 - cyclical migration 37–38
 - gaps in expectations and experience 41
 - migration for a better life 40
 - negative associations 40
- visas
 - changing regulations 85–86
 - fees 7
 - legal categories 81–82
 - overstayers 86–87, 144
 - permanent residency 18, 85, 112, 165n
 - student visas 70, 82
 - student/visitor 56
 - temporary visas 18
 - visitor visas 82–83, 121
- weddings
 - absence of overseas kin 143–146, 152–153
 - bridewealth negotiations 133–136, 142–143
 - bridewealth payments 142
 - bridewealth values 135–136, 143
 - harambee* fundraising 2n, 2, 73
 - registry weddings 133, 136–138, 147–148
 - socio-moral hierarchy 157–158
 - See also* community weddings
- WhatsApp 109, 192
- witchcraft 48, 84–85, 168–169
 - See also* devil worship
- women
 - adaptability and flexibility 67
 - colonial era responsibilities 33
 - employment opportunities 41
 - informal income-generation 34
 - matrifocal families 36
 - meeting the family's needs 55
 - See also* gender; older women migrants
- women's rights 48–49

younger migrants
‘abroad’ viewed as a better place	75
as adventurers	16–17
continuity through marriage and family 171–172
familial needs and relations	17
gap between expectations and experience 65
gender roles	172–173
generation	14–15
kinship obligations	114–115
migration history	15–17
new forms of kinship relations 177–178
path to social maturity and authority 176–177
plans for the future	181, 193–194
reasons for migration	2, 59, 62–63
self-betterment	2, 59, 61–65
study and employment	83–84