

Index

- age factor, for GNC people seeking employment, 68–70
- Akrithi (trans woman), story of, 52–54, 60
 - shifting class–gender identities, 59–60
- anglophone, 61
- anti-“beggary” laws, 62
- anti-discrimination laws and policies, 11
- aspirational city, 39–43
- aspirations, 40, 61, 115, 156
 - consumer, 34
 - gender and class, intersectionality of, 32, 39, 70
 - of GNC people, 14, 46
 - middle-class, 4–6, 22, 38, 43, 54, 57–59
 - for social mobility, 22, 41
 - trans women, 4–6, 39
 - identity work, 5
 - middle-class womanhood, 7
 - newly emerging, 5
 - social class, 57–58
 - for upward mobility, 39
- authority
 - bonds of familial, 104
 - of chelas, 110–111
 - of gurus, 101–105, 108–115, 119
 - loss of, 120–123
 - to make financial decisions, 105
 - middle-class cisgender women’s relationship to, 104
 - and new women, 104
 - patriarchal, 130
 - political, 54
 - relationships within hijra families, 23
 - hierarchy in, 104–106
 - social, 54
- aversion and disgust, sense of, 163
- backward immigrants, 159
- badhai*, hijras livelihood through, 74n65
- balance of power, 92, 129, 143–144
- Bangalore, city of, 39–43, 78
 - bodies of water, 41
 - connections between gender and class aspirations in, 39

- economic mobility of the middle
 - classes, 41
- as “Garden City” of India, 39, 41
- general society in, 84
- as a “global city”, 40
- IT industry in, 39–40
 - economic growth due to, 41
- levels of urban growth, 41
- loss of green spaces, 41
- market-driven and laissez-faire
 - policies, 40
- moral policing, 42
- opportunities for the new woman, 39
- rights of GNC people in, 42
- sexual rights NGOs, 42–43
- shrinking hammams and shifting
 - geographies of wealth in, 81–82
- trans women’s aspirations in, 39
- urban sprawl of, 41
- water availability, 41
- working-class neighborhoods, 41
- Bangalore trans women activists, 68
- beggary syndicate, 83
- begging, 57, 67, 163
 - anti-“beggary” laws, 62
 - Karnataka State Prohibition of
 - Beggary Act (1975), 62–63
 - rehabilitation of beggars, 63
- Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), 42
- birth families, 75, 90, 108, 127, 140–142
 - degree of acceptance from, 96
 - gay and lesbian people relationship
 - with their, 140
- GNC people living with their, 85, 92, 138
- GNC people running away from, 79, 83, 115
- hijras* returning to their, 137
- hijras* severing of ties with, 86
- problems faced by GNC people
 - when forced out of, 78
- support system for GNC people, 85
- and stigma associated with GNC
 - child, 58
- blood ties, notion of, 140
- bonded labour, 82–83
- Brahminism, 163
- British colonial administration, 112, 131
- British colonial laws, governing
 - property and inheritance, 131
- British Empire, 33, 149n45
- business process outsourcing, 40
- caste–class nexus, 6–8, 168n35
- caste hierarchies, 7, 36, 164, 168n35
- caste identities, 6–7
- caste inequalities, 36
- caste oppression, 162–163
- chelas*, 67, 75, 88, 95, 107. See also guru–chela relationships
 - authority, 109–111
 - complains at the police station
 - against their guru, 113
 - decision-making process, 94
 - disidentification with hijras, 77, 79, 91, 105, 115–119
 - dispute with the guru, 110
 - engaging in sex work and soliciting
 - money, 117
 - financial autonomy, 109–111
 - as forced labourer, 83
 - gender affirmation surgery, 87
 - impacts of shifting authority on
 - expected behavior of, 113–114

- information-centered shopping, 95
- "new" chelas, 109–111
- "new" womanhood, 92–96
- nonresidential, 114
- obligation of, 128
- physical and financial abuse by their gurus, 112
- standard of living among, 110
- choice of livelihood
 - of cisgender women, 55
 - for GNC people, 68, 77, 93
 - for hijras, 95
 - importance of, 92–96
- chosen families, concept of, 129, 139–141, 146
- cisgender women, in India, 20, 32, 77, 129
 - ability to engage in paid employment, 55
 - ability to make empowered consumption, 96
 - employment of, 54
 - white-collar, 56
 - "empowerment through employment" for GNC people, 55–57
 - history of employment for, 55
 - joint family, 130
 - middle-class, 12, 29, 39, 47
 - postcolonial history of, 54
 - sexual modesty, 130
 - womanhood of, 6
- civil society organization, 152
- class aspirations, 47, 70, 168n35
 - in Bangalore, 86
 - of feminine-presenting GNC people, 38
 - intersectionality of gender and, 32
 - of social class, 57–58
 - trans women and middle-class aspirations, 4–6, 7, 13, 22, 43, 54
- class hierarchies, 15–16
- class identification, 44
- class identities, 6, 44, 59, 60–61
- class mobility, 46, 60
- "common" women, 12, 33
- communal living, 76, 78, 81, 91–92
- community building, 42
- community people, 56, 113
- companionship, notion of, 144
- crime against transgender persons, 83
- criminal tribe, classification of hijras as, 73n48, 112
- cross-gender identification, 18
- dai ma* (midwives), gender affirmation surgery performed by, 87
- Dalits, 162–163
 - transphobic attitudes, 164
- dangerous Others, 160
- "demobilized constituency" of gays, 18
- dominant-caste identities, 6
- dominant castes, 34, 36, 72n22, 81, 163–164
 - cis women, 7
 - employment opportunities, 56
 - English-medium education, 33
 - ideals of womanhood, 8
 - middle-class identities, 6
 - white-collar work, 7
- dominant-caste women, 33
- economic liberalization, 27n86, 92–93, 150
 - benefits and values of, 35

- and ideals of globalization, 34
- impact on
 - hijra* communities, 96
 - rates of growth in the service sector, 35
 - women's upward mobility, 37
- and middle-class aspiring groups, 43
- social changes connected to, 131
- women empowerment and, 12
- egalitarianism, ideal of, 145
- emancipated woman, portrayal in TV shows, 104
- employment
 - age factor for GNC people seeking, 68–70
 - discrimination faced by hijras, 61–65
 - “mainstream” jobs, 67
 - media coverage of trans women's employment opportunities, 65–68
 - middle-class occupations, 66
 - office employment, 65
 - opportunities as a GNC person, 164
 - and sex work, 69
 - stigmatized forms of, 61
 - work-from-home job, 69
- empowerment, concept of, 12, 47, 55–58, 70, 93
- FabIndia clothing, 59–60, 72n22
- family acceptance, of GNC people, 85–86
- family's honor, 36, 130
- feminization surgeries, 45
- financial insecurity, 80
- financial security, among
 - working-class people, 67
- forced labour, 82–83
- gender affirmation surgery, 44, 79
 - access to, 87–91
 - chelas*' surgeries, 87
 - in licensed clinics, 99n50
 - performed by dai ma (midwives), 87
 - by “quack” surgeons, 88
 - in Tamil Nadu, 99n48
- gender and class aspirations, 14
 - complexities of, 43–46
 - in context of trans women's identity work, 5
 - for employment, 22
 - generational differences in, 54
 - intersectionality of, 32, 39
 - among middle-class in India, 4
 - middle-class womanhood and, 7
 - for newly emerging trans women, 5
 - in social hierarchies, 6
- gender-based discrimination, 42
 - in employment, 34
 - prohibition against, 33
- gender identities, 26n43, 70, 156–157, 158
 - anglophone, 61
 - anti-discrimination laws and policies regarding, 11
 - class-gender identities, 59–60
 - connection with office employment, 54
 - and employment opportunities, 57
 - of GNC people in India, 2, 4–5, 9–11, 18
 - new forms of, 150

- gender nonconforming (GNC) people,
 24n1, 110, 129, 135, 153, 156
 access to kinship relationships, 129 association with stigmatized
 employment, 58
 codification of state recognition of,
 82 consumption decisions, 93 decision-making processes, 93 discrimination and abuse of, 69 economic and social opportunities, 4 employment opportunities as, 164 empowerment through employment for, 55–57
 family acceptance of, 85–86
 family relationships of, 140
 gender affirmation surgery, 79
 in the Global South, 61 identity in India, 2
 intelligibility and acceptance in urban India, 16
 legal recognition of, 11
 living in hijra families, 57
 male-assigned groups, 5 media representations of, 94
 new housing opportunities for,
 83–86
 public awareness of, 11 public perception of, 56
 risk for HIV transmission, 5
 stigmatization of, 71
travesti in Brazil, 61
waria in Indonesia, 61
 working-class, 6, 37, 45
 gender rights activism, 10
 general society, 84, 108, 112 global capitalism, 18
 global cultural economy, 41
 global economy, 34–35
 globalization, ideals of, 34
 global labor markets, 61
 Global North, 150, 159
 Global South, GNC groups in, 61
 “good” gays, 18–19, 159
 grey rupee, rise of, 133
guru(s), 75, 83, 94–95, 107
 behavioral changes among, 119–120 claim to authority, 114 dispute with the chela, 110
 loss of authority over their chelas, 120–123
 monetary expectations, 108 policing of chelas’ earnings, 109 use of violence to control chelas, 112 value of being kind and gentle, 119–120
gurubhais, 91
guru-chela relationships, 75–81, 89, 123, 127
 authority and hierarchy in, 104–106 balance of power in, 92, 144
 changes in, 103, 124
 changing costs–benefits calculus in,
 106–109
 consequences of gurus’ authority on, 103
 in context of “new” womanhood, 92–93
 crime against transgender persons, 83
 devaluation of gurus’ contributions in, 109
 dynamics of, 22, 79, 96, 109, 110, 113, 121, 123

- financial support and obligations, 128
 - hierarchical nature of, 109
 - impacts of outside scrutiny, 111–113
 - key features of, 101–102
 - “liberal” gurus, 119
 - middle-class cisgender,
 - heterosexual couple relationships, 129, 141–145
 - as middle-class husband is to middle-class wife, 141–145
 - nonresidential, 92, 95, 116, 137
 - perceived resemblance to joint families, 141–145
 - power dynamics between, 110, 114, 119
 - reciprocal exchanges of material support, 79, 105
 - residential, 103, 109, 129, 137
 - rise of nonresidential, 91–92
 - in terms of family resemblance, 141–145
 - traditional, 120
 - vulnerability of, 121
 - willingness of a chela to continue, 121
- hammams*, 93, 98n15, 101
- ability of hijras to live together in, 3, 13, 76, 83
 - communal houses, 78
 - effects on real estate prices, 81
 - sex work in, 67, 85, 91
 - shifting geographies of wealth, 81–82
 - state-sponsored displacement of, 81
 - in working-class neighborhoods, 81
- heteronormativity, concept of, 17–18, 27n86
- heterosexual couple, 131–132
- living along with patrilineal generations under one roof, 131
 - living outside of joint families, 132
- heterosexuality, 17, 140
- hierarchies, 136, 143
- bargaining power, 146
 - caste, 7
 - class, 15–16, 34, 36, 39, 153
 - gender, 39
 - in guru–chela relationships, 109, 123
 - in hijra relationships, 104–106
 - social, 6, 13, 15–16, 21–23, 151
- hijra*(s), 2–3, 29–30, 43, 46, 54, 58, 64
- as perceived agents of sexual contagion, 73n48
 - alleged “anti-social” activities, 82
 - aspects of coercion, placation, and humor, 62
 - connection with backwardness, poverty, and stigma, 61
 - difference from trans women, 2–4, 10, 13–16, 19–21, 30, 70, 115
 - disidentifying with, 158–161
 - disreputability of, 160
 - employment discrimination faced by, 61
 - engaged in sex work, 3, 64
 - family relationships (see hijra families)
 - guru–chela* relationships (see guru–chela relationships)
 - income-generating activities, 96
 - from jobs, 155
 - occupations associated with, 57

- through soliciting money and sex work, 73n30
- jobs of, 155
- kinship systems, 5
- limited employment options, 61–65
- livelihood through badhai, 74n65
- lives of, 54
- marginalization and exclusion, 38
- occupations associated with, 57
- overlapping identities with trans women, 13–16
- past, 8–10
- present, 8–10
- societal perceptions about, 4
- societal recognition and respect for, 10–11
- relationships in the context of criminalization, 82–83
- relationships with their surrounding communities, 81
- representation in media, 112
- respect for their supposed asexuality, 72n30
- rural-based, 85, 86
- soliciting money and sex work, 54
- stereotypes of, 155
- stigmatization of, 14–15, 154–156, 158
- as third gender, 26n43
- on trains requesting money, 62
- as transgender people, 10
- trans women and, 3–4
- urban-based, 86
- vulnerable to state violence and incarceration, 62
- hijra* families, 5, 90, 126, 128
 - changes in, 96
 - as collective poverty management systems, 80
 - communal living, 78
 - as resistant institutions, 78–80
 - criminalizing of, 83
 - and desire for freedom and independence from joint family, 128–130
 - financial insecurity, 80
 - impact of social change on, 129
 - implications of Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Bill on, 82
 - narratives of freedom and constraint in, 135–139
 - relation with their neighbors, 81
 - residential hijra relationships, 139–141
 - social and financial support, 78
 - state-sponsored displacement of, 81
 - state surveillance of, 83
- hijra* households, 84, 96
 - concept of, 98n22
- hijra*–trans woman divide, 115
- Hindu joint family. See joint family
- Hindu nationalism, rise of, 42
- HIV/AIDS pandemic, 1, 56
 - risk for male-assigned GNC groups, 5
- homonormativity, concept of, 17–18, 159
- housing opportunities, for GNC people, 83–86
- “I am Not a Hijra” photo project, 15, 23, 115–116, 154–158
- “ideal” trans, 16–19
- “ideal” woman, 6, 22

- identity, 12, 21, 30, 42, 54, 136
 - class, 59, 60–61
 - gender, 18, 26n43, 57, 60, 150–151, 157
 - of GNC people, 2, 8, 31–32
 - of hijra group, 4–5
 - kothi*, 60
 - of liberalized women, 36
 - of “new” trans women, 46
 - of “new” womanhood, 16
 - social, 49n20
 - of trans women, 3, 13, 20, 59, 70, 124, 161
 - in urban areas of India, 14
- identity work, 6, 46, 54, 151, 161
 - by sexual rights NGOs, 5
 - by trans women, 5, 16, 31–32, 39, 146, 151, 156
- inclusion, politics of, 16–17, 24, 162
 - gay people, 18
 - into the category of “ideal” women, 22
 - of LGBTQ+, 159
 - perils of, 24
 - and social change for marginalized groups, 16
 - trans women disidentifying with hijras, 158–161
- Indian family
 - adoptive families, 147n19
 - birth families, 138, 140
 - chosen families, 140
 - contemporary family forms, 147n19
 - dual earner families, 147n19
 - joint family, 128–131, 147n19
 - nuclear family setups, 131–132, 147n19
 - residential hijra relationships, 139–141
 - single parent families, 147n19
 - traditional, 131–132
- inequality
 - class, 86
 - in guru–chela relationship, 116
 - marginalized groups, 16
 - trans women, 15, 23, 156
- International Lesbian and Gay Association (ILGA), 73n52
- International Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and Intersex Association. See International Lesbian and Gay Association (ILGA)
- joint family, 128–131
 - and hijra residential relationships, 136
 - perspectives of
 - family members without access to resources, 133–135
 - young and (wealthy) old, 132–133
 - rhetoric of freedom from, 132–133
 - supposed decline of, 131, 145
- Kanika, story of, 69
- Karnataka State Prohibition of Beggary Act (1975), 62–63, 82
- kothi* identity, 60
- legal gender recognition, process of, 26n51
- LGBTQ+ community, 10, 17, 159
 - depoliticized gay culture, 18
 - global activism, 26n43
 - “good” lesbians and gays, 17–19
 - “wrong body” story, 18–19

- liberal individualism, demands of, 19
- linguistic nationalism, 42
- marginalized castes, 7, 16
- Mariyamma, story of, 75
- marriages
 - age of consent to, 149n45
 - arranged, 144
 - love, 144
- media representations, of GNC people, 94, 112
- men who have sex with men (MSM), 4
- middle-class aspirations
 - and gender identities, 54, 115
 - of GNC people, 38, 46, 54
 - intersectionality of gender and class, 32
 - of “new” womanhood, 156
 - normative, 61
 - trans women and, 4–6, 13, 22
 - complexities of class in lives of, 43–46
 - office employment and womanhood, 57–59
 - for upward mobility, 39
 - in urban India, 14
 - of working-class families, 86
- middle-class consumption decisions, in India, 95
- middle-class households, 35
- middle-class identities, 6
- middle-class marriage, 144
- moral boundaries (tied to class and caste), 6–7
- moral policing, 42
- mother–daughter relationship, 80
- multinational company (MNC), 54, 56, 66, 69
- naani guru*, 97n1
- NALSA Judgment (Supreme Court of India), 11
- nationalist movement, modernization of, 33
- Neelima, story of, 101–103, 112–113
- “new” Indian woman
 - domestic role in the patriarchal household, 36
- ideology of, 104
- policing “new” women in joint families, 129–131
- relationship with men, 36
- social change, class, and respectability, 32–34
- “new” liberalized woman, 34–37
 - criteria of respectability, 36
 - economic and social benefits of their employment, 36
 - employment opportunities, 36
 - middle-class status, 36
 - in urban middle-class families, 36
- “new” transgender woman, 46, 68, 166
 - versus hijra* “others”, 11–13
- opportunity and symbolic class projects, 37–39
 - ability to access, 38
 - constrained by the resources, 37
 - media coverage of, 38
 - variation in income levels, 37
- rise of, 23
- new womanhood, notions of, 13, 15–16, 21, 31–32, 38, 92–96
- nongovernmental organization (NGO), 1, 3, 5
- non-hijra identities, 5
- non-hijra kinship formations, 78

- non-hijra sexual minorities, 153 nuclear family, 128, 131–132, 148
- occupations associated with hijras,
 57, 64
 office employment, 52, 103, 115, 143, 158
 associated with middle-class
 womanhood, 54
 connection with transgender identities, 54
 and contemporary womanhood,
 57–59
 for feminine-presenting GNC people, 38, 54, 55–59, 70
 in NGOs and MNCs, 54
 for trans women, 11–12, 43, 47, 55
 ability to control their income, 57 women's independence and empowerment through, 58
 opportunity, 46–47, 164
 to become less dependent on gurus, 129
 cis women access to, 12
 for constructions of “new”
 middle-class (cis) womanhood, 6
 economic, 145
 for GNC people, 15–16, 57, 145
 about liberalization, 37
 for “new” Indian women, 12
 for NGO employment, 56
 for trans women
 identity work, 31–32
 narratives of “new” womanhood, 31 perception of opportunity, 68–70 to position themselves as empowered, 13
 symbolic class projects, 37–39 working-class women lack of, 37
- paam padti*, 76, 97n2, 114
 “pay-as-you-go” social security systems, 106–107
 perceived “anti-social” activities, by hijras, 82
 politics of respectability, notion of,
 16, 47
 power of conformity, 16–19
 privatization of industry, 35 public participation, of women in India, 12, 33
- “quack” surgeons, 88
 Queer Pride Week, 151, 153, 160
- reciprocity in hijra relationships,
 principle of, 82
 Reddy, Gayatri, 26n43, 106, 110,
 166n3
 regional nationalism, 42
 rent rates, for GNC people, 84
 respectability, 3, 39, 151, 157
 associated with middle-class womanhood, 15
 status of women in the family, 50n54
 criteria of, 34, 36
 demand for, 39
 gendered form of, 57, 130
 in Global South countries, 61
 of GNC people, 71
 of hijras, 124
 middle-class cis women, 7, 12, 36, 55, 115, 124, 163
 and moral virtue, 130

- of “new” Indian women, 32–34, 36
 - notions of, 11
 - of the occupation, 34
 - politics of, 16, 47
 - trans women pursuit of, 15, 38, 160
 - women’s empowerment and, 47
- Revathi, A., 125n16, 162–163, 165–166, 167n25
- Romani, Sarhar, 72n22
- romantic love, cultural idealization of, 145
- Roy, Srila, 72n22
- rural-based hijras, 25n32, 85–86
- salwar kameez* (women’s clothing), 2
- Saria, Vaibhav, 86, 170
- self-validation, sense of, 54
- sense of belonging, 106
- sexual abuse, 65
 - in working-class jobs, 69
- sexual health programs, 10, 59
- sexual minorities
 - activism, 26, 42
 - male-assigned, 4
 - rights of, 56
 - working-class, 59
- sexual minority rights, 21, 26n47
 - activism for, 26
- sexual modesty, for cisgender women, 130
- sexual rights
 - activism, 19, 42, 92, 120, 167n25
 - advocacy, 42
- sexual rights NGOs, 1, 3, 5, 19, 56, 138
 - in Bangalore, 42–43
- sex work, 52–53, 55, 57–58, 67, 69, 76, 163
 - earning money through, 122
 - fear and violence associated with, 64
 - in hammams, 91
 - hijras* engaged in, 3, 64
 - for livelihood, 88
 - risks associated with, 65
 - street-based, 64
- sex workers, 57–58
 - abuse of, 65
- social changes, 11, 76, 124, 158
 - among feminine-presenting GNC people, 4
 - to claim transgender identities, 9
- connection with economic liberalization, 131, 150
- impact on
 - hijra* relationships, 15, 23, 122, 141, 146
 - lives of GNC people, 15, 26n43, 96, 103, 116
 - “new” trans women, 32
 - transgender’s sexual and gender identity, 4
 - for marginalized people, 16
 - office employment, 71
- social hierarchies, 6, 154
 - of “good” gays, 159
 - of GNC person, 153
 - of hijras, 23
 - of trans women, 13, 15, 151, 156–157
 - of “new” transgender women, 21
- social justice, 18, 27, 27n86, 53, 162
- social “outcasts”, 9
- social safety net, 78, 145
- soliciting money, 58, 62, 79
 - criminalization of, 82
- state surveillance, of hijras, 82–83, 112
- strategic life choices, 55

- street-based work, 62
 - sex work, 64
- technological growth, 35
- “traditional” Indian woman, 35
 - portrayal of, 35–36
- transgender healthcare worker, 2
- transgender identities, 61, 157
 - relation with office employment, 54
- Transgender India, 154–155, 158
- Transgender Persons’ (Protections of Rights) Act (2019), 11, 82, 98n29
- transgender rights and activism in
 - Asia, 53
 - conference on, 68
- transgender selfhood, 18–19
- transgender women, 2–3, 124. See also
 - “new” transgender woman
 - access to office employment, 55
 - aspirations in context of Bangalore, 39–43
 - and class–caste nexus, 6–8
 - class identity, 60–61
 - complexities of class in lives of, 43–46
 - crime against, 83
 - demand for respectability, 15, 39
 - desires for respectable employment, 58
 - difference from hijras, 70
 - emergence of, 9, 157
 - employment options, 55
 - and hijras, 3–4
 - identity struggles among, 13
 - media accounts of newfound
 - opportunities of, 65–68
 - media coverage of, 38
 - middle-class aspiration in India,
 - 4–6, 43–46
 - office employment and
 - contemporary womanhood, 57–59
 - moral boundaries of, 6–7
 - newfound employment
 - opportunities, 66
 - opportunities for “dignified”
 - employment, 57
 - overlapping identities with hijras, 13–16
 - perception of employment
 - opportunity, 68–70
 - portrayal of, 66
 - recognition and respect of, 10–11
 - respectable embodiment, 57
 - social class aspirations, 57–58
 - as transgender icons, 66
 - working-class, 157
- transphobia, 48n2, 162–164
- trans woman–hijra distinction, 2–3, 13–14, 39, 124
- trans woman identity, 3–4, 20, 151
- travesti* in Brazil, 61
- untouchability, practices of, 162
- urban hijra groups, 86
- urbanization, process of, 41
- urban middle-class femininity, 54
- urban planning, 40
- Vidya, Living Smile, 162
- waria*, 61
- Weston, Kath, 140
 - notion of “chosen families”, 141
- white-collar employment, 56

- "white-collar" work, 7
- womanhood
 - cisgender, 6, 29
 - concept of, 151
 - dominant-caste, 8
 - middle-class, 7, 24, 38, 46, 60, 115
 - notion of, 30
 - ideal womanhood, 32
 - new womanhood, 13, 15, 38
 - office employment and, 57–59
 - patriarchal constructions of, 16
 - representations in India, 25n29, 48n4
 - trans women's desire for the
 - respectability associated with, 15
- women's empowerment and
 - respectability, 47
 - for middle-class women, 58
 - symbol of, 93
- women's role, in patriarchal
 - household, 36
- women's status
 - in globalizing society, 36
 - in India, 32
- working-class people, 44, 46
 - activism for sexual minorities, 42
 - educational background of, 67
 - hijras* as, 155
 - middle-class, 86
 - transgender, 14, 59
 - in urban areas, 7
- working-class trans women, 20, 58–59, 153, 157
- working-class woman, 12, 32, 39, 47, 155
- world class cities, 40
- "wrong body" story, 18–19
- Yellamma, goddess, 81