

Index

Page numbers in italics> indicate figures. Dates in parentheses refer to dates of writings.

- Academy in the Town of Alexandria, 637–39
- accommodation
- on an accommodation of differences that produces harmony (June 25, 1797), 554
 - on differences in opinion and wishes for accommodation by mutual yieldings (October 18, 1792), 263
 - observations on government of (January 9, 1790), 125–26
 - on the spirit of accommodation as the basis of the Constitution (March 28, 1790), 139–40
- Adams, Abigail, 658
- Adams, John, 393, 679
- letter to John Trumbull (July 27, 1805), 720–21
 - as president, 4
 - accepts the commission of commander-in-chief from (July 13, 1798), 594–95
 - on dissatisfaction with his administration, 648 n. 10, 717
 - on the general appointments of the army (September 25, 1798), 610–15
 - on his speech to Congress and that the people should be acquainted with the current political situation (May 29, 1797), 549
 - Gouverneur Morris on (December 9, 1799), 717–18
 - on Washington's death (December 19, 1799), 657
 - on Washington's life (December 23, 1799), 659–60
 - will support his administration (July 4, 1798), 582–84
 - wishes that some friend would give him to understand his absence from the seat of government affords severe animadversion (July 21, 1799), 641–42
 - on probable support for (January 31, 1789), 23
 - request for opinions of, 68–69, 166, 167
 - as vice president, 166, 167
 - Novemberr 15, 1794 letter to (on the Genevese and emigration and a national university), 372
 - August 20, 1795 letter to (on the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation), 408
- Adams, John Quincy
- June 25, 1797 letter to (wishes that he continue the diplomatic line), 553
 - January 20, 1799 letter to (on foreign officers and his return to service), 628
- Addison, Alexander
- on investigation of political heresies (June 3, 1798), 581
 - on opposition to the Alien and Sedition Laws, 623, 624
- Addison, Joseph, 536 n. 13, 648 n. 1
- Adet, Pierre-Auguste, 536 n. 8
- and emigration of Fayette to America, 427–28
 - and French dissatisfaction with Washington's administration, 522–23, 526, 536 n. 18
 - rejoicing and admiration for the French Revolution (January 1, 1796), 440

- agriculture
- on the abundant harvests, 108, 126, 159, 199, 207, 242–43, 266
 - advice on purchasing land for farming or planting (May 6, 1792), 234–35
 - Calvin Coolidge on Washington (February 22, 1929), 751–55
 - Hessian flies, 242–43
 - on the importance of (December 7, 1796), 515–17
 - intention to enjoy his retirement while indulging in, 486–88, 518, 545
 - motives for guarding and preserving the Union (September 19, 1796), 494–503
 - on productive revenues (June 3, 1790), 148–49
 - on the progressive state of (October 25, 1791), 207
 - on the quality state of (January 29, 1789), 20
 - recommendation of an agricultural establishment (November 2, 1796), 506
 - recommendation of due attention to (January 8, 1790), 123–24
 - recommendation of ways Indians can provide against suffering with (August 29, 1796), 485–88
 - request for ways to render us less dependent on foreigners (December 8, 1790), 172–73
 - summary of internal situation (December 8, 1795), 432–33
 - on visiting the southern states and the state of the country, 194–95, 199
 - Daniel Webster on Washington (February 22, 1832), 742
 - wishes for continued advancement of (February 21, 1790), 133
- alcohol
- duties on spirits, 185, 194–95, 208–9, 244–47
 - on embarrassed collection of (November 6, 1792), 269–70
 - request for immediate processing of indictments relating to (November 24, 1792), 273
- excise law
- on the expedition to aid in suppressing the Whiskey Rebellion, 362–64, 365–66, 370–71, 375–77, 379, 726–27
 - on the opposition to, 253–54, 258, 270, 357–58, 361, 362–64, 370–71, 373–77
 - pleasure at determination to inculcate peaceable compliance with (January 30, 1793), 277
 - Proclamation for cessation of violence and obstruction of justice in protest of liquor laws, 255, 256–57, 259, 270
 - Proclamation for cessation of violence and obstruction of justice in protest of liquor laws in Pennsylvania, 344–46, 374
 - Proclamation of militia service (September 25, 1794), 359–60
 - Proclamation on Violent Opposition to the Excise Tax (February 24, 1794), 328–29
 - on prosecution of those who have opposed the laws, 262, 270
 - request for immediate processing of indictments relating to (November 24, 1792), 273
 - requests the militia to quell violence towards excise officers (August 10, 1794), 347
 - on termination of the western insurrection, 380, 391
 - to refrain from drink (March 31, 1789), 39–40
 - to refrain from spiritous liquors (December 23, 1793), 324
- Alden, Roger, 101
- Alexandria, Virginia
- on the district for the permanent seat of government in (October 25, 1791), 209
 - on its increase in (May 16, 1798), 576
 - support of a free school at the Academy in the Town of (July 9, 1799), 637–39

- thanks and pleasure at spending his days in (March 23, 1797), 542
- thanks for the kindness on his acceptance of the presidency (April 16, 1789), 44
- Algiers
- American slaves in, 83, 236
 - on the liberation of our citizens (December 7, 1796), 513–17
 - on restoration of our fellow citizens from captivity (December 8, 1795), 431
 - on treaties for their ransom from captivity, 236, 431
 - on expectations from that quarter, 423, 431
- Alien and Sedition Laws
- on opposition to, 617, 622, 625–27, 629–30
 - on support for, 623, 624
- Allen, Richard, 667–68
- Allen, William B., 2
- American army. see militia(s); United States Army
- American identity
- on the plain road of the executive and (July 25, 1796), 478
 - that it must always exalt patriotism (September 19, 1796), 494–503
 - wishes our citizens would advocate their own cause and be Americans (May 20, 1797), 546–47
- American Museum, 721
- American Revolutionary War
- Battle of Brandywine, 662–63
 - Battle of Germantown, 662–63
 - Battle of Monmouth, 662–63, 678, 736
 - Battle of Princeton, 662, 678
 - Battle of Trenton, 662, 678
 - Battles of Saratoga, 662–63
 - Bunker Hill, 736
 - Calvin Coolidge on (February 22, 1929), 751–55
 - discourse on (February 22, 1800), 695–703
 - as distinguished (December 23, 1796), 521
 - freedom and annuity to William Lee for services during (July 9, 1799), 637–39
 - on the French in Rhode Island during (August 10, 1790), 159
 - gratitude for support during (July 5, 1790 letter), 155–56
 - François Guizot on the influence of Washington on (1840), 749
 - as having opened the eyes of Europe (April 10, 1789), 42
 - History of the Rise, Progress, and Termination of the American Revolution* (Warren) (1805), 719
 - Memoirs of the War in the Southern Department of the United States* (Lee) (1812), 729
 - A Military Journal During the American Revolutionary War, from 1775 to 1783* (Thacher) (1823), 706
 - orations on Washington's service, 662–63, 673–75, 678, 683–84
 - prayer for continued blessings of (September 28, 1789), 94
 - as productive of happy consequences on both sides of the Atlantic (January 9, 1790), 126
 - on a proposed monument to (February 14, 1795), 389–90
 - thanks for monuments to veterans of (May 1790), 146–47
 - on Mr. Trumbull's series of paintings of (November 21, 1791), 215
 - View of the Causes and Consequences of the American Revolution* (Boucher), 608
 - Daniel Webster on (February 22, 1832), 736–45
 - wishes to subscribe to Heath's memoirs of (May 20, 1797), 546–47
- Ames, Fisher, 1, 756 n. 18
- oration on the sublime virtues of General George Washington (February 8, 1800), 681–92
 - on the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation (May 22, 1796), 469
- ancient Greece, 686–87

- ancient Rome, 688, 755 n. 7
 Anderson, Doctor, 340
 Anderson, James
 December 24, 1795 letter to (tenets on politics), 439
 July 25, 1798 letter to (on possible invasion by France and his potential return to military service), 604
 Annapolis, Maryland, 307–8, 309–10
 Annual Message to Congress
 First (January 8, 1790), 122–24
 Second (December 8, 1790), 171–73
 Third (October 25, 1791), 207–11
 Fourth (November 6, 1792), 268–72
 Fifth (December 3, 1793), 316–19
 Sixth (November 19, 1794), 373–78
 Seventh (December 8, 1795), 431–34
 Eighth (December 7, 1796), 512–17
 request for advice on the subjects of, 422–24, 491
 Anti-Federalist party contradiction of reports in circulation (January 31, 1789), 23 on the line between parties so clearly drawn, 641–42, 643–44 on the only certain way to prevent election of (January 31, 1789), 23 on potential appointments to the new government (October 26, 1788), 11–13
 public concern for (July 29, 1792), 245–47
 Aristotle, 2
 army. see militia(s); United States Army Atlantic states. see also eastern states on the causes which may disturb our Union (September 19, 1796), 495–503 attorney general, 417
 Aurora (Bache), 471
 Austria
 Neutrality Proclamation, 294, 314, 315
 on peace between France and (June 25, 1797), 554 Bache, Mr., 365, 471, 563, 605
 Ball, Burgess
 August 10, 1794 letter to (requests use of the militia to quell the Whiskey Rebellion), 347
 September 25, 1794 letter to (on the spirit of the militia and the dissension in western Pennsylvania), 357–58
 Ballman, Doctor, 464–65
 Baltimore, Maryland, 46–47
 Bank of Alexandria, 637
 Bank of Columbia, 639
 Bank of the United States
 “An Act to Incorporate the Subscribers to the Bank of the United States,” 184 on establishment of (March 16, 1791), 185 on the need for provisions of (December 3, 1793), 319 on the rapid subscriptions to, 195, 199, 207 request for reimbursement of the loan of (November 6, 1792), 271
 Barnwell, Robert, 527
 Bassett, Colonel, 275, 287
 Battle of Brandywine, 662–63
 Battle of Germantown, 662–63
 Battle of Monmouth, 662–63, 678, 736
 Battle of Princeton, 662, 678
 Battle of Trenton, 662, 678
 Battles of Saratoga, 662–63
 Bell, John, 707
 Belvoir, 575
 benevolence, 93
 Benson, Egbert, 513
 Berkeley militia (South Carolina)
 on the approbation of fellow citizens as the only reward he ever sought (October 14, 1796), 505 requests use of the militia to quell violence towards excise officers (August 10, 1794), 347
 Bermudian privateers, 436
 Bethel Church, 667–68
 Biddle, Colonel, 560
 blacks. see negroes; slaves
 Blair, Archibald, 634–35
 Bland, Colonel, 154
 Blount, Governor, 423
 Blount, William, 648 n. 2
 Blue Jacket, 510
 Bolman, Doctor, 445
 Bonaparte, 730–31

- Bond, Mr., 409
 “Book of Constitutions,” 278 books advice for reading and education
 (December 19, 1796), 519–20
 that he must erect a house for his papers, which are voluminous and may be interesting (April 3, 1797), 543 borders on a boundary line agreeable to the treaty of Holston (August 29, 1796), 488
 on the boundary line between the United States and Florida
 (December 7, 1796), 513–17
 on expectations of peace with the Indians (April 3, 1791), 187 questions and request for advice of the Senate on (August 11, 1790), 162–63
 Boston, Massachusetts
 October 27, 1789 letter to (rejoicing with their prosperity and gratitude for their prayer), 109 July 28, 1795 letter to (on ratification of the Jay Treaty), 401
 Boucher, Jonathan, 608
 Bowdoin, James, 63
 Braddock, Edward, 662, 671, 677, 697, 713
 Bradford, David, 364 Brandywine, Battle of, 662–63 bribery and corruption on charges against Hamilton, 267, 302–3 public concern for (July 29, 1792), 246–47
 British prisoners of war, 121
 British traders, 177
 Brooke, Robert, 394–95
 Brooks, John, 597
 Brown, Dr., 654–56
 Brown and Francis, 219
 Bunker Hill, 736
 Byers, Mr., 558

 Cabot, George, 413–14, 415–16
 Caldwell, Margaret, 710
 Cambridge University, 413–14, 415–16
 Camden, New Jersey, 736
 Camillus, 403
 Canada, 682

 on occupying lands that ought to have been surrendered by the British (August 30, 1794), 353–54
 request to know of the inhabitants of (March 31, 1794), 332–33
 on the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation and (July 13, 1795), 399–400
 Upper Canada, 353–54, 400, 436
 candor, 561
 Carlisle, Pennsylvania, 361
 Caroline, 654
 Caroline County, Virginia, 301
 Carr, Peter, 648 n. 4, 648 n. 6
 Carrington, Edward, 422, 597 on his return to military service and request he serve as quarter-master general with him (July 15, 1798), 599–600
 on public sentiment regarding the dispute about the British treaty
 (May 1, 1796), 459–60
 Carroll, Charles
 on instructing Indians in Christianity
 (April 10, 1792), 229
 on the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to negotiation of the treaty with Great Britain (May 1, 1796), 457–58
 Carroll, Daniel, 216
 on the demolition of his house
 (December 1, 1791), 217
 Carroll, John discourse on General Washington from (February 22, 1800), 693–703
 on instructing Indians in Christianity
 (April 10, 1792), 229
 Castiglioni, Luigi, 716
Cato (Addison), 536 n. 13, 648 n. 1
 Cazenove, Mr., 138
 census
 on the present population (October 25, 1791), 209
 on the present stage of the census
 (December 17, 1790), 177
Centinel, 712
 Ceracchi, Mr., 389–90
 ceremonious visits, 153–54

- Charleston, South Carolina gratitude and how we cannot fail to improve (May 3, 1791), 191 on the resolutions and proposed address on friendly public sentiments to the general government (May 27, 1798), 578–79 on trade of America (March 18, 1790), 135
- Chase, Mr., 422
- Chateaubriand, François-René de, 730–31
- Chatham, Lord, 442
- cheese-making, 133
- Cherokee Nation, 161 allowances and directions for clothing and good treatment in all respects (June 14, 1794), 341–42
 anxiety for peace (December 3, 1793), 318
 efforts to avert general hostility with (December 8, 1795), 431
 on medals for (August 29, 1796), 487
 Proclamation on recent crimes against the Cherokees (December 12, 1792), 274 recommendations on ways to improve their condition (August 29, 1796), 485–88 regret for disturbances and hostilities, 279, 341–42 request for advice on faithful execution of treaties (August 11, 1790), 162–63 request they restrain their bad young men (June 14, 1794), 341–42 request to examine the laws relating to Indian affairs and (October 10, 1791), 205
 treaties with, 209
 treaty of Holston with, 269, 341–42, 488 treaty of Hopewell with, 162–63, 341–42 will be glad to see a small number of their wisest chiefs (August 29, 1796), 488
- Chickamaugas, 268–69
- Chickasaw Bluff, 410
- Chickasaw Nation
 on peace with the Creeks (October 29, 1795), 424 regret for difficulties and miscommunications (August 22, 1795), 410–11 request to examine the laws relating to Indian affairs and (October 10, 1791), 205
- China, 149
- Chipewas, 509–11
- Choctaws, 205
- Christ Church, 533
- Christianity
 on efforts to Christianize the savages of the wilderness (August 15, 1789), 88 expectation of emulous sincerity (May 30–June 5, 1789), 76 on fraternal affection among friends of genuine religion (August 19, 1789), 89 on instructing Indians in (April 10, 1792), 229
- Christopher, 189
- citizenship
 on cultivation of (June, 1783), 753–54
 pride in being a citizen (July 5, 1790), 156
 request for terms on which foreigners may be admitted to (January 8, 1790), 123–24 on the requirement for good citizenship (August 18, 1790), 164
- civil liberty. see also liberty expectation of support for (May 1789), 77 intention to contribute to the preservation of (May 29, 1789), 75
 as secured on the liberal basis of reason and virtue (September 5, 1791), 200
- cleanliness, 35–36
- Cleveland, Benjamin, 279
- Clinton, George
 March 25, 1789 letter to (refusal of private accommodations from), 37

- March 31, 1794 letter to (on the speech of Lord Dorchester to the Indians and request to know of the inhabitants of Canada), 332–33
- clothing
- advisory hints for respectability (March 23, 1789), 35–36
 - gift of shoe buckles (August 11, 1790), 161
 - recommendations on ways Indians can provide against suffering with (August 29, 1796), 485–88
- coinage. see also currency
- on half-dimes as a small beginning (November 6, 1792), 270
 - on regulation of foreign coins (November 6, 1792), 271
- Coles, Colonel, 351
- commerce. see also trade
- as flourishing (December 8, 1790), 171–73
 - on the increase in, 126, 159
 - motives for guarding and preserving the Union (September 19, 1796), 494–503
 - on the progressive state of (October 25, 1791), 207
 - recommendation of due attention to (January 8, 1790), 123–24
 - recommendation of reflection on ways to render us less dependent on foreigners (December 8, 1790), 172–73
 - request for regulation of consuls in foreign countries for (December 8, 1790), 173
 - request to learn if Britain contemplates a treaty of (October 13, 1789), 104–5
 - rule of conduct for (September 19, 1796), 501–3
 - on the spirit of enterprise as prevailing (June 3, 1790), 149
 - summary of internal situation (December 8, 1795), 432–33
- Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation
- on the causes which may disturb our Union (September 19, 1796), 496–503
 - on conclusion of carrying into effect the (December 7, 1796), 512–17
 - on continued discussion in the House of Representatives on (May 22, 1796), 469
 - on defense of (July 29, 1795), 403
 - on the great change in the public mind with respect to (March 4, 1796), 446
 - on the memorial to, 404–5, 406–7
 - on the opposition to, 402–3, 404–5, 406–7, 408, 412, 415–16, 438
 - on the ratification of, 401, 404–5, 407, 408, 419–20, 422–23, 432, 733–34
 - refusal to provide the House of Representatives papers relative to the negotiation of (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 - request for advice regarding potential French response (May 8, 1796), 463–65
 - request for opinion if the House of Representatives has the right to papers relative to the negotiation of (March 25, 1796), 450
 - request for opinions on, 397–98, 399–400
 - on the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to the negotiation of, 457–58, 459–60
 - on support for, 432, 469
 - thanks for the trouble taken to show the impropriety of the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to (March 31, 1796), 455–56
 - that nothing will prevent public annunciation (May 8, 1796), 462
 - on the validity of (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 - want of credit for (January 29, 1789), 20
- confidentiality
- on the nature of foreign negotiations (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 - on private letters and relations with France (August 25, 1796), 481–82

- Congregational Ministers of New Haven, Connecticut, 107
- Connecticut
 felicitations on their abundant harvest and gratitude for their support (October 17, 1789), 108 improvements in manufactures (January 29, 1789), 20
 and the new Constitution (October 26, 1788), 11
Connecticut Courant, 713
- Constitutional Convention, 453–54
- Consular Convention, 173
- Continental Army, 671–75, 756 n. 10.
see also United States Army
- Coolidge, Calvin, 751–55
- Cornplanter, 180, 188
- corruption on charges of bribery against Hamilton, 267, 302–3 public concern for (July 29, 1792), 246–47
- cotton
 recommendations on ways Indians can provide against suffering with (August 29, 1796), 485–88 request for policy encouraging growth of (October 14, 1791), 206
- Cotton (the poor soldier), 713
- cowardice, 609
- Cox, Zachariah, 205
- Craik, James, 36, 654–56
 on George Mason's opposition to the new government (September 8, 1789), 90 on his preference for, 591, 597
- Cranch, Mary Smith, 658
- Creek Nation, 410
 anxiety for peace (December 3, 1793), 318
 as covered from encroachment (November 19, 1794), 377
 efforts to avert general hostility with (December 8, 1795), 431 on the failure of negotiations with (March 18, 1790 letter to), 136–37 on murders by citizens of Georgia (December 8, 1795), 431 on murders by lawless white men (January 30, 1794), 327 on a new treaty and trading houses and military posts within their boundary (December 7, 1796), 512–17 on peace with the Chickasaws (October 29, 1795), 424
 request to examine the laws relating to Indian affairs and (October 10, 1791), 205
 on the treaty of peace and friendship with (August 11, 1790), 160–61, 162–63
- Crèvecoeur, J. Hector St. John de, 42
- Cruger, Nicholas, 298
- Cumberland, 341–42
- currency
 on half-dimes as a small beginning for coinage (November 6, 1792), 270 public concern for paper money (July 29, 1792), 245–47
 recommendations for establishment of a mint (October 25, 1791), 211
 on regulation of foreign coins (November 6, 1792), 271
 on uniformity in (January 8, 1790), 123–24
- Custis, Elizabeth Parke (Betsey)
 September 14, 1794 letter to (advice on marriage), 355–56
 January 6, 1796 letter to (advice on love), 441–42
 February 10, 1796 letter to (approbation of her alliance with Mr. Law and request for details), 444
 March 21, 1796 letter to (on the Georgetown ball and the composition of the human frame), 448–49
- Custis, George Washington Parke (Washington), 451, 655
 November 28, 1796 letter to (advice for life habits), 507–8
 December 19, 1796 letter to (advice for reading and education), 519–20
 June 4, 1797 letter to (advice for life and education), 550–51
- Cyrus, 654
- Dandridge, Bartholomew, Jr., 451, 541
- Dartmouth College, 119

- Dayton, Jonathan, Jr., 597, 613–15
 de Liancourt, Mr., 479 decency, 35–36
 Declaration of Independence, 68–69 defense
 on the defense and security of the western territory (October 25, 1791), 207–8 on fortification of seaports (May 6, 1794), 337
 on preparation for war as one of the most effectual means of preserving, 122–24, 317–18, 343, 600, 606–7, 608, 629–30 recommendation of a protecting force for Mediterranean trade (December 7, 1796), 514–17 request for sufficient securing of harbors (December 7, 1796), 517 on resolutions to protect and defend our country (September 23, 1793), 300 self-defense (December 26, 1799), 665–66
 Delaware
 gratitude for the approving voice of his country (February 2, 1797), 528
 Hessian flies in, 242–43
 and the new Constitution (October 26, 1788), 11
 Delaware Nation, 509–11
 Delaware River, 662
 Delaware Society for Promoting Domestic Manufactures, 49 demagoguery, 581
 Democratic Societies
 on the insurrection as the first ripe fruit of (September 25, 1794), 357–58 on the line between parties so clearly drawn (July 21, 1799), 641–42 that they precipitated a crisis for which they were not prepared (November 1–4, 1794), 370–71 that they will destroy the government of this country (October 16, 1794), 365–66 Department of Foreign Affairs, 131–32 Department of State determination to nominate Jefferson to (October 13, 1789), 101
 and the power of making treaties as vested in the president (March 1796), 453–54
 reflections on the office of the secretary of state (January 20, 1790), 131–32 and the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation (May 22, 1796), 469 despotism, 565–66
 Detroit, 512–17
 Dexter, Mr., 422
 Dick, Dr., 654–56
 Dinsmoor, Mr., 486, 487 diplomatic consuls nomination and appointment of Gouverneur Morris, 98, 220–21
 on power of the president to send an envoy extraordinary while Senate is in recess (June 26, 1796), 472–73
 request for regulation of (December 8, 1790), 173
 that Mr. Talleyrand is playing the same game he had attempted the year before (March 3, 1799), 633 that they be well attached and not obnoxious (July 8, 1796), 476–77
 and where to send them (April 27, 1790), 143 wishes that John Quincy Adams continue in the diplomatic line (June 25, 1797), 553 discrimination, geographical, 495–503
 District of Columbia. see also Federal City on the demolition of Mr. Carroll's house (December 1, 1791), 216, 217 on establishment of a university in, 372, 392–93 request for a plan for a university (January 28, 1795), 386–87 request for his Potomac River Company shares be appropriated to, 394–95, 639 on its expected city (May 16, 1798), 576 on its expected progress in building (October 25, 1791), 209

- District of Columbia (cont.)
 on L'Enfant's conduct regarding the map of (November 20, 1791), 213–14
 that L'Enfant's continuance of service would have been pleasing
 (February 28, 1792), 213–14
 on L'Enfant's resignation (March 6, 1792), 223 request for L'Enfant's subordination to the authority of the Commissioners (December 2, 1791), 217
 site selection on the Potomac (July 20, 1791), 195, 209
- D'Ivernois, Mr., 393
- Dorchester, Lord, 332–33
- Doughty, John, 300
- Dutch Reformed Church in North America, 120
- duty
 on his conviction of duty, 48, 674 to carry the laws of the United States into effect, 255, 256–57, 276
 James Madison on Washington
 (c. January 31, 1820), 735 to return to serve his country, 16, 19–20, 43, 51, 53, 125–26, 156 on the indispensable duty of every citizen to step forward, 616, 644 of neutral conduct (September 19, 1796), 502–3 of the president, 56–58, 125–26, 478
- East Florida, 513–17
- East Indies trade refusal to provide individual letters of reference for private loans for (January 7, 1792), 219
 revenues as more productive than was imagined (June 3, 1790), 148–49
- eastern states. see also Atlantic states on debates between southern and eastern interests (March 16, 1791), 185 motives for guarding and preserving the Union (September 19, 1796), 494–503
- tour through
 as having been of salutary consequence (January 11, 1790), 128
 the poor soldier on (November 30, 1789), 713 request for sentiments on (May 10, 1789), 68–69
- economy
 advisory hints for regulating conduct and respectability (March 23, 1789), 35–36
 to avoid bad company (March 31, 1789), 39–40
 encouragement of (April–May 1789), 59
 as successful to profusion (January 29, 1789), 22
- education. see also newspapers advice for life and (June 4, 1797), 550–51
 advice for reading and (December 19, 1796), 519–20
 advisory hints for conduct and respectability (March 23, 1789), 34–36
 fatherly advice on (November 22, 1795), 425–26
- higher advice on finishing (December 5, 1790), 170
 on establishment of universities in the federal district and Virginia
 (March 15, 1795), 392–93
 recommendation of a national university, 372, 489–90, 491, 515–17 request for a plan for a university in the federal city (January 28, 1795), 386–87
 request for a section in his Farewell Address on (September 1, 1796), 489–90
 request to appropriate his inland navigation shares to universities in the federal city and Virginia (March 16, 1795), 394–95 request to appropriate his shares in the James River Company to a university in a central part of the United States (July 9, 1799), 638–39

- satisfaction at seeing increase of seminaries of learning and their proficiency in the sciences (July 11, 1789), 82
- on how best to provide for young Fayette, 413–14, 415–16
- on means of information (September 23, 1793), 302–3
- on reading with Doctor Smith (December 19, 1796), 519–20
- request for a section in his Farewell Address on (September 1, 1796), 489–90
- support of a free school establishment at the Academy in the Town of Alexandria (July 9, 1799), 637–39
- that former slaves bound by the court by infancy shall be taught to read and write (July 9, 1799), 636–39
- that public opinion should be enlightened (September 19, 1796), 499–503
- Eel River, 509–11
- Ehlers, John Christian, 324
- elections
- displeasure against his name used for electioneering purposes (September 26, 1792), 260–61
 - rule of not interfering with suffrage of representatives (September 26, 1792), 260–61
- Electoral College, 19–20
- Eliot, John, 708–9
- emergencies
- readiness to serve should the country be invaded, 585–89, 644
 - requests for opinions on powers of the executive to change the place of meeting of the legislature in cases of, 305, 306, 307–8, 309–10
 - yellow fever epidemic, 305, 306, 307–8, 309–10
- emigration
- on bringing over Genevise (November 15, 1794), 372
 - on bringing over Highlanders (May 6, 1792), 234–35
 - of Mr. de Lafayette and his tutor, 427–28
 - on no need of extra encouragement (November 15, 1794), 372
 - on protection for emigrants (May 6, 1794), 336
 - on the United States as a new world to those who are disposed to enjoy tranquility and security (May 4, 1792), 232
- England, 185, 739, 755. see also Great Britain
- An Enquiry into the Principles of Taxation* (Hamilton), 231
- enslaved people. see slaves
- Epaminondas, 691–92
- Episcopal Churches of Christ Church and St. Peter's, 533
- equity, 161
- Erskine, David Steuart, Earl of Buchan
- April 22, 1793 letter to (wish to live in peace and amity with all and on plans for agriculture and the new federal city), 293
 - May 26, 1794 letter to (on the disturbed state of most nations and from which he wishes to keep this country free), 340
 - July 4, 1797 letter to (that peace must be at hand and intention to view things in the “calm lights of mild philosophy”), 557
- Essay on the Character and Influence of Washington in the Revolution of the United States of America* (Guizot) (1840), 749
- Estaing, Charles-Hector Théodat, Comte d', 100
- etiquette
- advice for courteous behavior (November 28, 1796), 507–8
 - on the essentiality of (March 19, 1790), 138
- Euclid, 603
- Europe
- hostilities in, 320–21, 665
 - on contrast with our own situation (July 28, 1791), 197
 - on expectations of a general war (March 23, 1793), 286–87

- Europe (cont.)
 Neutrality Proclamation, 294, 314, 315, 322, 323
 observation of, 195, 198–99, 242–43, 288, 318, 521, 549, 555, 562, 646 questions to consider for a plan of conduct regarding (April 18, 1793), 291–92 recommendation of reflection of impact on navigation (December 8, 1790), 172–73 that it must be unwise to implicate ourselves in (September 19, 1796), 501–3 wish to have nothing to do with (April 22, 1793), 293 political system of, 694–703, 739 on the situation of the nations of Europe, 320–21, 621, 741 on the spirit of liberty which has pervaded, 42, 129, 145 on the strange political ties in, 21–22, 621 trade with, 148–49
- Executive Branch
 on candidates for executive offices (October 26, 1788), 11–13 president. see president vice president. see vice president
- Fabius, 729
- Fairfax, Bryan, Lord Fairfax of Cameron, 629–30
- Fairfax, Sarah Cary, 575–76
- Fairfax County, Virginia, 312
- family life, 39–40
- Farewell Address, 492–502, 740–45, 754
 request for a section on education and the establishment of a university at the seat of government (September 1, 1796), 489–90 request for amendments and corrections, 467–68, 483–84 request for editors to send it to and a note to accompany it (August 25, 1796), 484 request for opinion of the best time for delivery of (June 26, 1796), 473
- fashion, 35–36
- Fauchet, Mr., 409, 569–70
- Fayette, George, 479
- Federal City. see also District of Columbia on establishment of a university in (September 1, 1796), 489–90 on its expected progress (May 16, 1798), 576
 on the plan for (April 22, 1793), 293
- Federal District Court, 86
- Federalist party, 734 dissatisfaction with the Adams administration, 648 n. 10, 717 on the expected majority of representatives in Virginia to be from (February 5, 1789), 24
 on the line between parties so clearly drawn, 641–42, 643–44
 on potential appointments to the new government (October 26, 1788), 11–13
 public concern for (July 29, 1792), 245–47
 on spreading Federal sentiments in Virginia (January 31, 1789), 23 on their eulogies of Washington and Hamilton (July 27, 1805), 721
- Fenner, Arthur, 150
- financial issues. see also specific financial institutions
 “An Act to Incorporate the Subscribers to the Bank of the United States,” 184
 compensation for services
 on compensations to officers of the United States (December 7, 1796), 516–17 declines any emoluments and requests only reimbursement of expenditures (April 30, 1789), 58
 declines any emoluments before entering into a situation to incur expense (July 13, 1798), 595
 refusal of pay from the public but reimbursements of actual expenditures (September 14, 1799), 645

- on seeking private emolument at the expense of public peace as a crime of deep a dye (July 7, 1797), 558
- that compensations should be defined and a fund designated for expenses for those employed in (January 8, 1790), 123–24
- debts to be punctually and speedily paid (July 9, 1799), 636–39
- funding as one of the subjects which occasions most anxiety and perplexity (June 3, 1790), 148–49
- public credit
- belief that confidence will be restored (October 13, 1789), 102
 - on the establishment of, 169, 197, 199, 200
 - on methods of preserving it (September 19, 1796), 499–503
 - on the progress of (December 8, 1790), 171–73
 - support for provision for (January 8, 1790), 123–24
 - on visiting the southern states and the state of the country (July 20, 1791), 195
- public debt
- debates on state debts (March 28, 1790), 140
 - on funding (August 10, 1790), 158
 - on loans from Holland, 171–73, 209, 271, 319
 - on paying it off quickly (September 19, 1796), 499–503
 - public concern for (July 29, 1792), 242–43
 - on reimbursement of (October 25, 1791), 210–11
 - request for a definitive plan for redemption of (November 19, 1794), 377–78
 - request for honorable extinction of (December 8, 1795), 434
 - request for regular redemption and discharge of, 271
- public revenues
- on continued progressive improvement (December 7, 1796), 516–17
 - as more productive than was imagined (June 3, 1790), 148–49
 - on the productiveness of (December 3, 1793), 319
 - as prosperous in spite of embarrassed collections of duties on spirits distilled within the United States (November 6, 1792), 269–70
 - request for provisions for (December 3, 1793), 319
 - rate of exchange as much in favor (June 3, 1790), 148–49
 - refusal to provide individual letters of reference for private loans (January 7, 1792), 219
 - request for provisions for public revenues (December 3, 1793), 319
 - on yearly appropriations for the use and benefit of the Five Nations (April 25, 1792), 230
- Findley, William, 362–64
- First Inaugural Address (April 30, 1789), 56–58
- First Presidential Administration, 9–280
- on complaints about the administration (May 23, 1792), 244–47, 281 n. 17
 - precedents set by. see precedent(s)
 - selection of his cabinet, 742
 - sincere thanks for support for (May 1790), 146–47
 - that he can promise success from the people at large, respectable characters, and patriotic cooperation of legislature more than himself (May 9, 1789), 64
- Fishbourn, Benjamin, 16
- Fitzpatrick, John C., 3
- Five Nations
- desires for peace with (April 25, 1792), 230
 - on devising measures to render friendship perpetual (March 23, 1792), 227–28
 - on instructing Indians in Christianity (April 10, 1792), 229
 - on yearly appropriations for their use and benefit (April 25, 1792), 230

- flax, 485–88
 flirting, 448–49
 Florida(s), 577
 on the boundary line between the United States and (December 7, 1796), 513–17
 land speculators and purchases from Georgia (June 3, 1791), 193
 and possible invasion by France, 597–98, 603
 request to retrieve fugitive slaves from (May 20, 1791), 192
 that there will be “no peace in Israel” if the French possess Louisiana and the Floridas (August 30, 1799), 643–44
 foreign affairs. see also international relations request for information (June 8, 1789), 78 summary of (December 8, 1795), 431–32
 that my policy is to cultivate peace with all the world (November 19, 1794), 378 that our policy is to not involve ourselves in the contests of other nations (March 25, 1793), 288 that the mild and pacific policy of America has been mistaken for cowardice (September 8, 1798), 609 foreign aid, 628 foreign coins, 271
 foreign officers, 628
 Fort Cumberland, 576
 Fort Miami, 512–17
 Fort Stanwix, 178–80
 France
 anxiety for the safety of, 202, 203, 240–41, 242–43
 on changes in political opinions of (April 10, 1789), 42
 congratulations on the king’s acceptance of the constitution, 215, 225
 on the king of (August 11, 1790), 160
 National Assembly appreciation of sentiments and wish for speedy issue of a new constitution of their own (January 27, 1791), 182–83
 congratulations on the king’s acceptance of the constitution (November 21, 1791), 215
 on decrees respecting our tobacco and oil (July 28, 1791), 195 observation of the example of (July 20, 1791), 195
 relations with, 3–4, 565–66, 665–66
 American Revolutionary War, 673 attempts to involve us in war abroad, 320–21, 618–21
 consideration of possible invasion by France, 577–79, 582–84, 585–89, 592–93, 597–98, 599–
 600, 601–2, 603, 604, 605, 606–7, 610–15
 disappointment at opposition to the conduct of France (June 12, 1797), 552 on France’s dissatisfaction with Washington’s administration, 522–23, 526, 536 n. 18
 on France’s outrageous conduct, 526, 543, 561, 577–79, 582–84, 594–95,
 618–21, 629–30, 688–89 on the French in Rhode Island during the American Revolution
 (August 10, 1790), 159
 on friendly dispositions (June 3, 1790), 149
 on friendship by citizens towards France (September 2, 1793), 299 on Genet and (October 24, 1793), 313 grateful recollection of services by France, 301, 315
 happiness to render aid to quell “the alarming insurrection of the Negros in Hispaniola” (September 24, 1791), 204
 hopes for resolution (March 1, 1798), 571 hopes they pause before they take the last leap (July 18, 1798), 603

- and Mr. Gerry's correspondence with M. Talleyrand (February 11, 1799), 632
- no expectation of commercial treaty yet (October 20, 1792), 264–65
- nomination and appointment of Gouverneur Morris to minister plenipotentiary to (January 28, 1792), 220–21
- on our pleasing political circumstances (October 13, 1789), 100
- and the presses (January 8, 1797), 522–23
- and private letters (August 25, 1796), 481–82
- on refusal to participate in negotiations of commercial affairs (May 25, 1789), 73–74
- on reported treasonous correspondence between Congress and (March 27, 1798), 574
- request for advice regarding potential response to the treaty with Great Britain (May 8, 1796), 463–65
- request for opinions regarding the Little Sarah (July 11, 1793), 295
- request for sentiments on public entertainment and holiday on the anniversary of the Alliance with France (May 10, 1789), 68–69
- and suspicions of Randolph's behavior (August 20, 1795), 409
- that Mr. Talleyrand is playing the same game he had attempted the year before (March 3, 1799), 633
- that there has been no attempt to violate our treaty (January 9, 1797), 524
- that there will be “no peace in Israel” if the French possess Louisiana and the Floridas (August 30, 1799), 643–44
- that they view us as divided, 567, 582–84, 604
- that we have a head to look up to now and stability anticipated (October 9, 1789), 99
- and the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation, 402–3, 404–5, 406–7, 478
- treaty of commerce, 316, 320–21
- wishes for peace (December 7, 1796), 516–17
- wishes for the best and most friendly footing (January 9, 1797), 524
- relations with Austria, 554
- on the state of things in (March 16, 1791), 185
- that right will ultimately be established (July 28, 1791), 195
- war with Great Britain
- and attempts to involve us in war abroad, 320–21, 618–21, 629–30, 689–90
 - Neutrality Proclamation, 294, 314, 315
 - and possible invasion by France (July 18, 1798), 603
 - questions to consider for a plan of conduct regarding (April 18, 1793), 291–92
 - request for measures against citizens interfering in, 289, 290, 316–18
 - request for opinions regarding the Little Sarah (July 11, 1793), 295
 - that peace must be at hand (July 4, 1797), 557
 - wishes for the return of peace (July 8, 1797), 559
- on the welfare and wishes for prosperity of (April 29, 1790), 144–45
- Francis, John, 219
- Francis II, emperor of Germany, 466, 469–70
- Franklin, Benjamin
- affectionate congratulations and gratitude to (September 23, 1789), 93
 - death of, 182–83, 280 n.12
- Frédéric, François Alexandre (Duc de La Rochefoucauld-Liancourt), 421–24
- Frederick County, Maryland, 315
- Frederick militia, 347

- Fredericksburg, Virginia, 578–79
 free government. see also government(s)
 Calvin Coolidge on Washington
 (February 22, 1929), 751–55
 on the province of the military as confined by the essential principles of (October 20, 1794), 367–68
 Free Masonry, 616
 French and Indian War, 662, 671, 682–83, 696–703
 French Constitution
 congratulations on the king’s acceptance of (November 21, 1791), 215 wish for speedy issue of (January 27, 1791), 182–83
 on the wonderful renovation of
 (January 9, 1790), 126
 French Jacobinism, 640–42, 648 n. 9, 689
 French Revolution, 687–88, 739
 as most extraordinary and hopes for happy settlement of remaining political arrangements (January 11, 1790), 128
 prayer for termination in honor and happiness (October 13, 1789), 100, 102 rejoicing and admiration for (January 1, 1796), 440 that they have come off well (August 10, 1790), 159 wishes well to (August 25, 1796), 482 as wonderful in nature but rocks and shelves may yet wreck it (October 13, 1789), 103
 Frestel, Felix, 413–14 invitation to New York (November 22, 1795), 425–26
 and request for draft letter for liberation of Lafayette from confinement (May 8, 1796), 464–65
 friendship advice for (January 6, 1796), 442 advice for life habits (November 28, 1796), 507–8 frontiers. see western territory frugality, 35–36
 fur trade, 149
 Gage, Thomas, 704
 Gallatin, Mr., 581
 Garganwahgah, 280 n.10
 Gates, Horatio, 663
 Genet, Edmond-Charles, 297, 536 n. 1, 569–70
 on the Democratic Societies and
 (September 25, 1794), 357–58
 on relations with France and (October 24, 1793), 313 on the Whiskey Rebellion and (August 26, 1794), 351–52
 Genevese, 372
 geographical discrimination, 495–503
 George Washington University, 751–55
 Georgetown
 on the district for the permanent seat of government in (October 25, 1791), 209 on a Georgetown ball and the composition of the human frame
 (March 21, 1796), 448–49
 Georgia
 on the failure of negotiations with the Creek Indians (March 18, 1790), 136–37
 on friendly public sentiment to the general government (May 27, 1798), 578–79
 and the new Constitution (October 26, 1788), 11
 on opposition to the treaty with Great Britain in (September 20, 1795), 415–16
 Proclamation on recent crimes against the Cherokees (December 12, 1792), 274
 speculators in lands and purchases from (June 3, 1791), 193
 German Lutherans of Philadelphia, 59
 German Reformed Congregations, 80
 Germantown, Maryland, 428
 Battle of Germantown, 662–63
 as place of meeting of the legislature, 306, 307–8, 309–10
 Gerry, Mr.
 on Mr. Gerry’s correspondence with M.
 Talleyrand (February 11, 1799), 632

- on Mr. Gerry's mischievous path
 (February 10, 1799), 631
- gifts
 - of shoe buckles (August 11, 1790), 160–61
 - of a wine cooler (August 21, 1797), 560
- Goodhue, Benjamin, 562
- Gordon, William
 - December 23, 1788 letter to (wishes are opposed to being connected with political affairs), 17
 - October 15, 1797 letter to (that discretion must be your guide), 563
- government(s)
 - on candor as no more conspicuous in individuals than (August 29, 1797), 561
- free
 - Calvin Coolidge on Washington
 (February 22, 1929),
 751–55
 - on the province of the military as confined by the essential principles
 of (October 20, 1794), 367–68
 - on internal dissensions harrowing and tearing our vitals, 248–49, 250–51
 - observations and remarks on (January 9, 1790), 125–26
 - reflections on government of the people
 (January 20, 1790), 130
 - on the requirements for the preservation of (September 19, 1796), 497–503
 - on the salutary influence (April 25, 1791), 190
 - on support for law and government as happy presage (October 16, 1794), 365–66
 - that my fellow citizens understand the true principles of (November 19, 1794), 376–77
 - that the new government though not absolutely perfect is one of the best in the world (January 9, 1790), 126
 - on virtuous policy as the end of (November 1, 1790), 168
- governors of the states, 95
- Gracchus, 617
- Graham, Catherine Sawbridge Macaulay, 125–26
- grain, 242–43
- Great Britain
 - on accusations of British influence in the appointment of Major Pinckney to London (November 17, 1799), 647
 - on the effects of agents in (December 7, 1796), 513–17
 - on future relations with (August 11, 1790), 161
 - on hostilities with the Indians as resulting from the conduct of agents of (August 30, 1794), 353–54
 - on the king's insanity as meriting commiseration (February 5, 1789), 24
- Provision Order, 419, 421, 422, 438
- relations with, 3–4, 445, 754–55
 - and attempts to involve us in war abroad (December 5, 1793), 320–21
 - on negotiations between John Jay and (November 1–4, 1794), 369–71
 - on neutral vessels (May 6, 1794), 337
 - nomination of John Jay as envoy extraordinary to, 335, 337, 343
 - observations on (December 22, 1795), 435–38
 - on preservation of peace and preparation for war (June 25, 1794), 343
 - on private letters and (August 25, 1796), 481–82
 - prohibition of trade (May 6, 1794), 337–38
 - request for opinion in case the British march or request permission to march through our territory to the Mississippi
 (August 27, 1790), 167
 - request for sentiments on public entertainment and holiday on the anniversary of peace (May 10, 1789), 68–69

- Great Britain (cont.)
- requests Gouverneur Morris as a private agent to (October 13, 1789), 104–5
 - requests to learn if they contemplate a treaty of commerce (October 13, 1789), 104–5
 - requests to learn what they mean to do regarding negroes belonging to our citizens (October 13, 1789), 104–5
 - requests to press for speedy performance putting the United States in possession of their frontier posts (October 13, 1789), 104–5
 - sequestration of British property (May 6, 1794), 338
 - on surveys of the River St. Croix (December 7, 1796), 513–17
 - suspicion of collaboration with Madrid (August 23, 1792), 248–49
 - Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation
 - on the causes which may disturb our Union (September 19, 1796), 496–503
 - on conclusion of carrying into effect the (December 7, 1796), 512–17
 - on continued discussion in the House of Representatives on (May 22, 1796), 469
 - on defense of (July 29, 1795), 403
 - on the great change in the public mind with respect to (March 4, 1796), 446
 - on the memorial to, 404–5, 406–7
 - on the opposition to, 402–3, 404–5, 406–7, 408, 412, 415–16, 438
 - on the ratification of, 401, 404–5, 407, 408, 419–20, 422–23, 432, 733–34
 - refusal to provide the House of Representatives the papers relative to the negotiation of (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 - request for advice regarding potential French response (May 8, 1796), 463–65
 - request for opinion if the House of Representatives has the right to papers relative to the negotiation of (March 25, 1796), 450
 - request for opinions on, 397–98, 399–400
 - on the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to the negotiation of, 459–60
 - on the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to the negotiation of (March 31, 1796), 457–58
 - on support for, 432, 469
 - thanks for the trouble taken to show the impropriety of the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to (March 31, 1796), 455–56
 - that nothing will prevent public annunciation (May 8, 1796), 462
 - on the validity of (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 - treaty with Spain, 445
 - war with. see American Revolutionary War
 - war with France
 - and attempts to involve us in war abroad, 320–21, 618–21, 629–30, 689–90
 - Neutrality Proclamation, 294, 314, 315
 - and possible invasion by France (July 18, 1798), 603
 - questions to consider for a plan of conduct regarding (April 18, 1793), 291–92
 - request for measures against citizens interfering in, 289, 290, 316–18
 - request for opinions regarding the Little Sarah (July 11, 1793), 295
 - that peace must be at hand (July 4, 1797), 557
 - wishes for the return of peace (July 8, 1797), 559
 - western posts
 - that they ought to have surrendered (August 30, 1794), 353–54
 - on their evacuation of (December 7, 1796), 512–17

- Greece, 686–87
- Green, Thomas, 39–40, 280 n.2
- Greene, Nathanael, 663
- Greene County, Tennessee, 609
- Grenville, Lord, 409, 435–37, 481–82
- Guizot, François, 749
- Hall, Mr., 61
- Hamilton, Alexander, 197, 648 n. 8, 720–21, 733–34, 753
 affair with Maria Reynolds, 648 n. 3
An Enquiry into the Principles of Taxation, 231
 charges of bribery against, 267, 302–3 eulogies for (July 27, 1805), 721 on France’s conduct towards us as outrageous, 526, 577–79 gift of a wine cooler and best wishes
 (August 21, 1797), 560
 on Gouverneur Morris (October 8, 1789), 98
 on internal dissensions harrowing and tearing our vitals (August 26, 1792), 250–51
 and Mr. de Lafayette and his tutor authorization to fix accommodation in New York for (November 22, 1795), 425–26
 letters and request for advice respecting them (November 23, 1795), 427–28
 on military positions and possible invasion by France, 592–93, 601–2, 611–15
 on the need for legal checks (September 17, 1792), 258 on protection for emigrants (May 6, 1794), 336
 on Randolph’s expected publication and request for advice on a secretary of state (October 29, 1795), 421–24
 on recommendation of an agricultural establishment (November 2, 1796), 506 request for advice on his recommendation for the establishment of a university
 (September 6, 1796), 491
 request for advice on the subjects of the Annual Message to Congress, 422–24, 491
 request for advice on what to be attempted to preserve peace
 (January 22, 1797), 526
 request for advice regarding potential French response to the treaty with Great Britain (May 8, 1796), 463–65
 request for continued free communication on political topics
 (May 27, 1798), 579
 request for draft cover letters for the Proclamation (September 17, 1792), 259
 request for draft letter for liberation of Lafayette (May 8, 1796), 464–65 request for ideas on public discontent
 (July 29, 1792), 244–47
 request for measures against citizens interfering in hostilities between France and England (April 12, 1793), 289
 request for opinions on the oath of office (February 27, 1793), 280 request for opinions on the place of meeting of the legislature (October 14, 1793), 306 request for opinions on the powers of the executive while the Senate is in recess (June 26, 1796), 472–73 request to know if government could be carried into execution without his aid (October 3, 1788), 9–10 request to know what has been done with respect to appointments to the army (July 14, 1798), 596–98 requested military position during possible invasion by France for (July 14, 1798), 597–98
 as secretary of the treasury authorization to bring matters before the circuit court (September 7, 1792), 253–54
 on opposition to the excise law, 253–54, 258 on the Proclamation in response to the opposition to the excise law, 259

- Hamilton, Alexander (cont.)
 request for examination of objections to the “An Act to Incorporate the Subscribers to the Bank of the United States” (February 16, 1791), 184 request for policy encouraging growth of cotton and hemp and for establishment of arsenals (October 14, 1791), 206 suggestion for expediency of disbursements for subsistence of British prisoners (December 17, 1789), 121 on states interfering in matters of the general government (April 4, 1791), 188 testimony of approbation of his public service and wishes for happiness in retirement (February 2, 1795), 388 that he relies on him as coadjutor and assistant (July 14, 1798), 596–98 that his views are pure and well meant (October 18, 1792), 263
 and the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation on opposition to the treaty (July 29, 1795), 402–3 request for opinions (July 3, 1795), 397–98, 399–400
 thanks for the trouble taken to show the impropriety of the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to (March 31, 1796), 455–56
 and Washington’s Farewell Address request for a section on the establishment of a university, 489–90, 491
 request for amendments and corrections, 467–68, 483–84
 request for opinion of the best time for delivery of (June 26, 1796), 473 on the Whiskey Rebellion and its perseverance (August 26, 1794), 350–52
- Hammond, Mr., 409
 Hand, Edward, 362–64, 597
 Hanson, Samuel, 18
 harbors, 517
 Harrison, Benjamin, 26–27, 721
 Hartford fabric, 20
- Harvard University, 111
 Hawkins, Benjamin, 486 health emergencies
 requests for opinions on powers of the executive to change the place of meeting of the legislature in cases of, 305, 306, 307–8, 309–10
 yellow fever epidemic, 305, 306, 307–8, 309–10
- Heath, William
 May 9, 1789 letter to (that Providence must lead us to look up for light and direction), 64
 May 20, 1797 letter to (wishes our citizens would advocate their own cause and to subscribe to his memoirs), 546–47
- Hebrew Congregations
 June 15, 1790 letter to (thanks and may the inhabitants of every denomination participate in the blessings), 151
 August 18, 1790 letter to (on toleration and protection for all and wishes for everlasting happiness for us all), 164
 December 13, 1790 letter to (on the treasure of their affection and liberality toward each other as unparalleled in this country), 174
- Heissel, Hans, 382–83
 hemp, 206
 Henley, David, 556
 Henry, Patrick
 on opposition to the Alien and Sedition laws (January 15, 1799), 625–27
 as potential Senator from Virginia (October 26, 1788), 11
 request he serve as a candidate for representation in the General Assembly of Virginia (January 15, 1799), 626–27 that he was not to be worked upon by intriguers (June 24, 1799), 634–35 on what has been reported he said of (August 26, 1794), 351–52 wish for him to accept office of state, 418, 421–22

- Hercules, 189
- Hessian fly, 242–43
- Heth, William
 July 18, 1798 letter to (hope that the French pause and on cowardice), 603
 August 5, 1798 letter to (on the strength of the French party), 605
- Highlanders, 234–35
- Hispaniola, 204
- History of the Rise, Progress, and Termination of the American Revolution* (Warren) (1805), 719
- Holland. see the Netherlands
- honesty
 as the best policy (1807), 723–27
 Thomas Jefferson on Washington (January 2, 1814), 733–34
 tenets on politics (December 24, 1795), 439 wish to live and die an honest man on his own farm (December 23, 1788), 17
- Hopkinson, Joseph, 580
- hospitality, 716
- Howard, John Eager, 429, 597
- Howell, Governor, 362–64
- Hudson's Bay Company, 399
- Huger, Mr., 445
- human nature. see also public opinion exultation at the character of his countrymen (January 20, 1790), 130 request that every American bear in mind that their conduct influences the world (September 12, 1789), 91–92
 that the debt of nature must be paid by us all (April 9, 1797), 544
 that to expect all men to think alike would be to expect the unnatural (May 27, 1798), 580
- Humphreys, David, 161, 720–21
Life of General Washington (1790), 714–15
 March 16, 1791 letter to (on the state of the union and sincere friendship), 185–86
- July 20, 1791 letter to (on visiting the southern states and the state of the country), 194–95
- March 23, 1793 letter to (on once again called to office by unanimous voice and the death of his nephew), 286–87
- June 12, 1796 letter to (on public attacks against him and that no earthly power can deprive him of the consolation of knowing he has made no intentional errors), 471
- June 26, 1797 letter to (that every man in vigor should serve his country and congratulations on his marriage), 555
- Huntington, Mr., 443
- immigration
 on bringing over Genevese (November 15, 1794), 372
 on bringing over Highlanders (May 6, 1792), 234–35
 of Mr. de Lafayette and his tutor, 427–28
 on no need of extra encouragement (November 15, 1794), 372
 on protection for emigrants (May 6, 1794), 336
 on the United States as a new world to those who are disposed to enjoy tranquility and security (May 4, 1792), 232
- India, 663
- India produce, 149
- Indian corn (maiz), 266
- Indians. see also Five Nations; French and Indian War; Six Nations; specific nations advice for the conduct of their people (November 29, 1796), 510–11
- agents on general agents and requests for careful attention to (August 29, 1796), 486–88
 recommendations for more (November 6, 1792), 269
 on attempts to poison the minds of, 556, 558

- Indians (cont.)
- on efforts to civilize and Christianize them (August 15, 1789), 88
 - on instructing them in Christianity (April 10, 1792), 229
 - on introducing husbandry and civilization among (January 20, 1791), 181
 - on the need for their protection from our frontier inhabitants (December 8, 1795), 434
 - provisions for
 - on distribution of goods agreed to be paid annually for land ceded by treaty to (November 29, 1796), 509–11
 - on the need for (December 8, 1795), 434
 - recommendations for more (November 6, 1792), 269
 - recommendations to improve their condition (August 29, 1796), 485–88
 - relations with
 - on British interferences, 353–54, 436
 - calls for liberality towards the families of deceased citizen emissaries of peace (November 6, 1792), 268
 - on cessation of hostilities (December 8, 1795), 431
 - on continued hostilities, 185, 264–65, 268–69, 431
 - on the defense and security of western frontiers (October 25, 1791), 207–8
 - on the efforts to adjust causes of dissension (December 3, 1793), 318
 - on the efforts to avert war, 188, 268–69, 431
 - on the efforts to ensure continuance of friendship and to preserve peace (December 7, 1796), 512–17
 - on expectations of peace (April 3, 1791), 187
 - expeditions against incursions, 171–73, 208, 268–69, 377
 - on the failure of negotiations (March 18, 1790 letter to), 136–37
 - hopes for peace, 230, 241, 423–24
 - incursions on frontier settlements, 171–73, 177, 197
 - on influences hostile to the rising greatness of these states (October 20, 1792), 264–65
 - on overtures of friendship (November 19, 1794), 377
 - Proclamation on recent crimes against the Cherokees (December 12, 1792), 274
 - on prospects of living in tranquility with hostile tribes (July 20, 1791), 195
 - David Ramsay on Washington in (1807), 726–27
 - regret for the murder of some Cherokee Indians (February 10, 1793), 279
 - request for brotherhood (December 29, 1790), 178–80
 - request for due regard to the tribes in the Union (August 7, 1789), 87
 - request for laws with the Indian tribes (January 30, 1794), 327
 - request for philanthropy (October 25, 1791), 208
 - request that miseries of the late war be forgotten and buried (December 29, 1790), 178–80
 - on securing their land against purchases by individuals (November 29, 1796), 509–11
 - summary of affairs (December 8, 1795), 431–32
 - thanks for observations founded in experience to effect termination of hostilities (May 5, 1792), 233
 - that we ought to be prepared to afford protection to parts of the Union (January 8, 1790), 122–24
 - that we will not suffer depredations of bad people to go unpunished (December 29, 1790), 180
 - war, 665
 - request to examine the laws relating to Indian affairs and their enforcement (October 10, 1791), 205

- on the speech of Lord Dorchester to (March 31, 1794), 332–33
- that they should experience justice
 (October 25, 1791), 208
- on their negotiations with New York
 (April 4, 1791), 188
- trade with
- recommendation for a plan for
 (November 6, 1792), 269
 - recommendation for establishment without fraud of (December 3, 1793), 318
 - request for examination of laws for (November 6, 1792), 271
 - request for promotion of (October 25, 1791), 208
 - request for trading houses (November 19, 1794), 377
- treaties with, 209, 509–11
- on distribution of goods agreed to be paid annually for land ceded by (November 29, 1796), 509–11
 - on the expediency of entering into (January 11, 1790), 127–28
 - faith in maintenance of (November 1, 1790), 168
 - justice as the basis of proceedings
 (August 11, 1790), 160–61
 - and peace prevails (October 29, 1795), 424
 - on possession of only lands obtained by (March 23, 1792), 227–28
 - request for advice on faithful execution of (August 11, 1790), 162–63
 - request for provision of penalties on whose who infringe on (October 25, 1791), 208
 - request for their attention to
 (November 29, 1796), 509–11
- Treaty of Hopewell, 162–63
- Treaty of Muskingum, 227–28
- Treaty of Peace and Friendship with the Creeks, 160–61, 162–63
- industry
- advice for life habits (November 28, 1796), 507–8
 - advice to avoid bad company (March 31, 1789), 39–40
 - advisory hints for regulating conduct
 and respectability (March 23, 1789), 34–36
 - encouragement of, 59, 200
 - on improvements in (January 29, 1789), 20
 - Gouverneur Morris on Washington’s
 (June 26, 1807), 728
 - as prevailing (January 29, 1789), 22
 - protection of (September 5, 1791), 200
 - on visiting the southern states and the state of the country (July 28, 1791), 199
- inland navigation
- on efforts to extend (April 22, 1793), 293
 - on the endowment of his shares towards a university in the federal city, 386–87, 392–93
 - on the extension of trade by opening
 (May 16, 1798), 576
 - motives for guarding and preserving
 the Union (September 19, 1796), 494–503
 - request to appropriate his shares to universities in the federal city and Virginia (March 16, 1795), 394–95
 - want of free navigation of the Mississippi River (August 11, 1790), 161
- Innes, Colonel, 422, 435–36, 481
- insurrection
- “An Act to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, and
 repel invasions,” 345
 - on rendering aid to quell “the alarming insurrection of the Negroes in Hispaniola” (September 24, 1791), 204
- Whiskey Rebellion. see Whiskey Rebellion
- integrity
- Thomas Jefferson on Washington
 (January 2, 1814), 732–34
 - James Madison on Washington (c.
 January 31, 1820), 735
 - John Marshall on Washington (1838), 747–48

- integrity (cont.)
 David Ramsay on Washington (1807), 723–27
 that the finest talents and accomplishments never gain respect without (March 8, 1797), 541
- international relations. see also foreign affairs; specific countries
 on an accommodation of differences that produces harmony (June 25, 1797), 554 on cultivating peace and harmony with all (September 19, 1796), 499–503 diplomatic emissaries
 on diplomatic consuls and where to send them (April 27, 1790), 143
 nomination and appointment of Gouverneur Morris, 98, 220–21
 on the power of the president to send an envoy extraordinary while Senate is in recess (June 26, 1796), 472–73
 request for regulation of (December 8, 1790), 173
 that Mr. Talleyrand is playing the same game he had attempted the year before (March 3, 1799), 633
 that they be well attached and not obnoxious (July 8, 1796), 476–77
 wishes that John Quincy Adams continue in the diplomatic line (June 25, 1797), 553 on harmony with foreign nations (November 16, 1793), 314 maxims upon which Washington conducted our foreign relations (February 22, 1832), 740–45
 motives for guarding and preserving the Union (September 19, 1796), 495–503 negotiations and transactions on the best mode of conducting (May 25, 1789), 73–74 equity as the governing principle of (August 11, 1790), 161 on the essentiality of etiquette in (March 19, 1790), 138
 on the nature of foreign negotiations (March 30, 1796), 452–54
- neutrality
 vs. attempts to involve us in war abroad (December 5, 1793), 320–21
 farewell advice (December 29, 1799), 668
 on Genet and relations with France during (October 24, 1793), 313
 gratification at approval of, 322, 323
 as his policy, 436, 546–47
 as the index to his plan (September 19, 1796), 502–3
 intention to maintain, 290, 418
 Neutrality Proclamation, 294, 314, 315, 322, 323, 502–3, 665, 690
 pleasure at support for, 298, 299, 301, 304
 that our policy is to not involve ourselves in the contests of other nations (March 25, 1793), 288
 that we should steer clear of the affairs in Europe (October 15, 1797), 562
 on our reputation throughout the globe (June 15, 1790), 153–54 recommendation for prevention of aggressions by our citizens on foreign territory (November 6, 1792), 270 request for advice on what to be attempted to preserve peace (January 22, 1797), 526
 rule of conduct for (September 19, 1796), 501–3
 summary of our affairs (December 8, 1795), 431–32
 that compensations should be defined and a fund designated for expenses for those employed in (January 8, 1790), 123–24
 that Mr. Talleyrand is playing the same game he had attempted the year before (March 3, 1799), 633 that my policy is to cultivate peace with all the world (November 19, 1794), 378

- that peace with other nations is to be valued (November 6, 1792), 270
- that the mild and pacific policy of America has been mistaken for cowardice (September 8, 1798), 609
- treaties
- general rules for abiding, 316–18, 725–27
 - on observation of (November 19, 1794), 378
 - that the power of making treaties is vested in the president (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 - that the power of making treaties is vested in the president and Senate (May 1, 1796), 459–60
 - that treaties must be mutually beneficial (July 28, 1791), 198–99
- Ireland, 337
- Irwin, Michael, 83
- Jacobinism, 640–42, 648 n. 9, 689
- James River Company
- on the endowment of his shares towards a university in Virginia (March 15, 1795), 392–93
 - request to appropriate his shares to a university, 394–95, 638–39
- Jay, John, 197, 489
- on diplomatic consuls and where to send them (April 27, 1790), 143
 - as envoy extraordinary to Great Britain nomination, 335, 337, 343
 - wishes for his success and on the expedition to suppress the Whiskey Rebellion (November 1–4, 1794), 369–71
 - on Gouverneur Morris (October 8, 1789), 98
 - on his superintendence of papers for Jefferson (October 13, 1789), 101
 - on occupying lands that ought to have been surrendered by the British (August 30, 1794), 353–54
 - and potential French response to the treaty with Great Britain (May 8, 1796), 464–65
 - and request for draft letter for liberation of Lafayette from confinement (May 8, 1796), 465
 - request for information (June 8, 1789), 78
 - request for opinion on the powers of the executive while the Senate is in recess (June 26, 1796), 473
 - request for sentiments on a line of conduct most likely to secure essentials (May 11, 1789), 70
 - on termination of the western insurrection (December 18, 1794), 380
 - that it is not easy for the mass of citizens to obtain right understanding where pernicious misrepresentation is disseminated (May 8, 1796), 462
- Jay Treaty. see Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation
- Jefferson, Thomas, 98, 197, 343, 648 n. 6, 749, 753
- on abuses in gazettes and anonymous publications and on political parties (July 6, 1796), 474–75
 - and the American slaves in Algiers (July 20, 1789), 83
 - complaints about the administration (May 23, 1792), 244–47, 281 n. 17
 - confirmation of his integrity and talents (January 1, 1794), 325
 - determination to nominate him to the Department of State (October 13, 1789), 101
 - on diplomatic consuls and where to send them (April 27, 1790), 143
 - on the endowment of universities in the federal district and Virginia (March 15, 1795), 392–93
 - letter to Walter Jones from (January 2, 1814), 732–34
 - on the power of the executive to change the place of meeting of the legislature in cases of emergency, 305, 307
 - receipt of his resignation from office of secretary of state (January 1, 1794), 325

- Jefferson, Thomas (cont.)
 recommendation of Roger Alden as assistant to (October 13, 1789), 101
 reflections on the office of secretary of state (January 20, 1790), 131–32
 request for opinions on the oath of office (February 27, 1793), 280
 request for signature to the Proclamation for cessation of violence and obstruction of justice in protest of liquor laws
 (September 15, 1792), 255
 as secretary of state, 734
 on differences in opinion and wishes for accommodation by mutual yieldings (October 18, 1792), 263 on relations with Spain and internal dissensions harrowing and tearing our vitals (August 23, 1792), 248–49
 request for measures against citizens interfering in the war between France and Great Britain (April 12, 1793), 290 request for opinions regarding the Little Sarah (July 11, 1793), 295
 that his views are pure and well meant (October 18, 1792), 263
 that no farther overtures will be made to Major L'Enfant (March 14, 1792), 224
 on what has been reported he said
 (August 26, 1794), 351, 352
- Johnson, Thomas, 421–22
- Jones, Walter, 732–34
The Journals of Major Samuel Shaw, 705
A Journey in the United States of North America, 1785–87 (Castiglioni), 716
- Judge, Oney, 189
- judiciary system
 on prosecution of those who have opposed the laws, 262, 270 request for consideration of improvements (December 8, 1790), 172–73
- request for immediate processing of the indictments relating to the laws laying duty on spirits distilled in the United States (November 24, 1792), 273
- request for information and remarks on (April 3, 1790), 141
- request for revision of (November 6, 1792), 270
- request for uniform process of execution of sentences (December 8, 1790), 172–73
- that its operations should be independent and as perfect as possible (April 3, 1790), 141
- Daniel Webster on Washington
 (February 22, 1832), 742
- justice
 as basis of proceedings with the Indian nations (August 11, 1790), 160–61 hopes to see America as exemplar in justice and liberality (c. March 15, 1790), 134
 Thomas Jefferson on Washington
 (January 2, 1814), 732–34
 on the plain road of the executive and (July 25, 1796), 478
 as promptly and impartially administered
 (September 5, 1791), 200
 tenets on politics (December 24, 1795), 439 that Indians should experience benefits of impartial dispensation of (October 25, 1791), 208
 that just government protects religious rights (November 19, 1789), 120 that the province of the military is to aid and support bringing offenders to (October 20, 1794), 367–68
- Kaskaskias, 509–11
- Kentucky, 481
 admission to the union, 185
 application for membership in the Union (December 8, 1790), 171–73 expeditions against Indian depredations in western frontiers
 (October 25, 1791), 208

- on opposition to the Alien and Sedition Laws in (January 20, 1799), 629–30
- on the prevailing spirit in the people of (August 10, 1794), 348–49
- Proclamation on Expeditions Against Spanish Territories (March 24, 1794), 330–31
- satisfaction on its adoption of a constitution (November 6, 1792), 271
- Kentucky militia, 208
- Kickapoos, 509–11
- King, Rufus, 188, 371, 421–22, 536 n. 12
- on his acceptance of appointment to Great Britain (May 22, 1796), 469
- thanks for communicating details and on peace between France and Austria (June 25, 1797), 554
- Kirkland, Mr., 229
- Kitt, Mr., 491
- Knox, Henry, 197, 227–28, 721, 756 n. 13
- condolences on the death of his son (September 8, 1791), 201
- on his return to military service (July 16, 1798), 601–2
- on how to provide for young Fayette (September 20, 1795), 415–16
- on improvements in manufactures (January 29, 1789), 20
- on integrity and firmness as all he can promise (April 1, 1789), 41
- on military positions and possible invasion by France, 597–98, 611–15
- regret at parting and pleasure to hear of his agreeable situation (March 2, 1797), 531–32
- request for opinions on the oath of office (February 27, 1793), 280
- request he serve as major general with him (July 16, 1798), 601–2
- requested military position during possible invasion by France (July 14, 1798), 597–98
- that he has deserved well of his country (December 30, 1794), 381
- La Rochefoucauld-Liancourt, Duc de, 479–80
- Lafayette, George Washington Motier (Fayette)
- fatherly advice and invitation to New York (November 22, 1795), 425–26
- on his emigration (November 23, 1795), 427–28
- on how best to provide for, 413–14, 415–16
- and request for draft letter for liberation of his father from confinement (May 8, 1796), 464–65
- Lafayette, Marie-Joseph-Paul-Yves-Roch-Gilbert du Motier, Marquis de
- on choice of senators, representatives, and electors (January 29, 1789), 19–20
- concern for his well-being (July 28, 1791), 196–97
- concern for his well-being and that of the French nation, 202, 240–41
- confidence in (July 28, 1791), 196–97
- congratulations on his liberty (December 25, 1798), 618–21
- congratulations on the king's acceptance of the constitution (November 21, 1791), 215
- friendship with Washington (January 27, 1791), 182–83, 280 n.13
- gift of shoe buckles (August 11, 1790), 160–61
- on the happy progress of affairs, 148–49, 241
- on his return to service (December 25, 1798), 621
- imprisonment of
- explanation of matters relative to (August 8, 1796), 479–80
- on his re-confinement and the treatment of his wife and daughters (February 20, 1796), 445–46
- request for draft letter for his liberation from (May 8, 1796), 464–65
- request to Francis II for his release to the United States, 466, 469–70
- request to Frederick Wilhelm II for his release (January 15, 1794), 326

- Lafayette (cont.)
 on Mr. Trumbull's series of paintings of the Revolution (November 21, 1791), 215 on opposition to the government (December 25, 1798), 618–21 pleasure to hear of his conduct, 145, 160–61 on relations with France (December 25, 1798), 618–21 on the treaty of peace and friendship with the Creek Nation of Indians (August 11, 1790), 160–61 on the wonderful renovation of the French Constitution (January 9, 1790), 126
- Lancaster, Pennsylvania, 307–8, 309–10
- land(s)
 advice on purchasing (May 6, 1792), 234–35
 Calvin Coolidge on Washington (February 22, 1929), 751–55
 on no unjust possession of land of western Indians (March 23, 1792), 227–28 request for advice of the Senate on Cherokee relinquishment of (August 11, 1790), 162–63 request for regulation of alienation of Indian lands (October 25, 1791), 208 request for sale of vacant land (October 25, 1791), 211
 request to examine the laws relating to Indian affairs and their enforcement (October 10, 1791), 205
 on securing to each Indian nation their land against purchases by individuals (November 29, 1796), 509–11 on the security of the land of the Six Nations (December 29, 1790), 178–80 on speculators in (June 3, 1791), 193
- Langdon, Samuel, 94
- Langhorne, John, 648 n. 6
 on correspondence with him (March 8, 1798), 572–73 on the misconception that he can feel the venom of public personal attacks (October 15, 1797), 564
- Law, Mr., 444, 449, 656
- laws
 Alien and Sedition Laws
 on opposition to, 617, 622, 625–27, 629–30
 on support for, 623, 624
 “An Act to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, and repel invasions,” 345 conviction of duty to carry the laws of the United States into effect (September 15, 1792), 255, 256–57 on the enlightened and patriotic zeal of the army for (October 20, 1794), 367–68
- excise law
 on the expedition to aid in suppressing the Whiskey Rebellion, 362–64, 365–66, 370–71, 375–77, 379, 726–27
 on the opposition to, 253–54, 258, 270, 357–58, 361, 362–64, 370–71, 373–77
 pleasure at determination to inculcate peaceable compliance with (January 30, 1793), 277
- Proclamation for cessation of violence and obstruction of justice in protest of liquor laws, 255, 256–57, 259, 270
- Proclamation for cessation of violence and obstruction of justice in protest of liquor laws in Pennsylvania, 344–46, 374
- Proclamation of militia service (September 25, 1794), 359–60
- Proclamation on Violent Opposition to the Excise Tax (February 24, 1794), 328–29
- on prosecution of those who have opposed the laws, 262, 270
- request for immediate processes on the indictments found in reference to (November 24, 1792), 273
- on termination of the western insurrection (December 18, 1794), 380

- that favorable termination is to be ascribed to the Great Ruler (March 2, 1795), 391
- farewell advice (December 29, 1799), 668
- for fortifying our seaports (May 6, 1794), 337
- on motives for signing bills (September 23, 1793), 302–3
- observations on government of (January 9, 1790), 125–26
- pleasure at determination to inculcate peaceable compliance with (January 30, 1793), 277
- on present defects in laws of the militia (November 1–4, 1794), 376
- on prosecution of those who have opposed the laws, 262, 270
- request for subordination to the laws of the land (December 2, 1791), 217
- on support for law and government as happy presage (October 16, 1794), 365–66
- that relate to Indian affairs
- request for enforcement of (January 30, 1794), 327
 - request to examine, 205, 271
- that religious tenets do not forfeit the protection of (c. January 27, 1793), 276
- on virtuous policy as the object of (November 1, 1790), 168
- leadership
- Calvin Coolidge on Washington (February 22, 1929), 753
 - David Humphreys on Washington (1790), 714–15
 - Thomas Jefferson on Washington (January 2, 1814), 733–34
 - the poor soldier on Washington (November 30, 1789), 713
 - Samuel Shaw on Washington (May 3, 1783), 708–9
- Lear, Mrs., 536 n. 10
- Lear, Tobias
- April 3, 1791 letter to (on expectations of peace with the Indians), 187
 - April 12, 1791 letter to (on his slaves), 189
 - May 6, 1794 letter to (on political subjects), 337–38
 - March 30, 1796 letter to (on the death of a loved one), 451
 - December 14, 1799 (diary entry on the last illness and death of General Washington), 653–56
- Lee, Henry, 561, 597
- eulogy for Washington, 658
 - funeral oration on the death of General Washington (December 26, 1799), 661–66
 - January 20, 1793 letter to (no pleasure at another tour of duty), 275
 - July 21, 1793 letter to (thanks for informing of public opinion), 296–97
- Memoirs of the War in the Southern Department of the United States* (1812), 729
- October 16, 1793 letter to (on politics and waiting to see what may be the sense of legally constituted bodies), 311
- August 26, 1794 letter to (on the Whiskey Rebellion and its perseverance), 350–52
- October 20, 1794 letter to (on the enlightened and patriotic zeal of the army), 367–68
- Lee, Ludwell, 312
- Lee, Richard Henry
- on Genet and relations with France (October 24, 1793), 313
 - as potential Senator from Virginia (October 26, 1788), 11
- Lee, William, 637–39
- legislative regulations. see laws
- legislature. see also United States House of Representatives; United States Senate
- request for opinions on the power of the executive to change the place of meeting in cases of emergency, 305, 306, 307–8, 309–10
- that the president is allowed little time to consider the business of the session (March 3, 1797), 535

- L'Enfant, Pierre, 195
 on the demolition of Mr. Carroll's house (December 2, 1791), 216, 217 on his conduct regarding the map of the federal city (November 20, 1791), 213–14 on his resignation (March 6, 1792), 223 request for subordination to the authority of the commissioners, the laws of the land, and the rights of its citizens (December 2, 1791), 217 that his continuance of service would have been pleasing (February 28, 1792), 222 that no farther overtures will be made to (March 14, 1792), 224 that the president finds himself insulted by (March 14, 1792), 224
- Lenox, David, 345
- Lewis, George, 544
- Lewis, Lawrence, 655
- Lewis, Mrs. Lawrence (Eleanor Parke Custis), 653–56
- Lewis, Nicholas, 314
- liberalism
 hopes to see America as exemplar in justice and liberality (c. March 15, 1790), 134 on liberality toward each other as unparalleled in this country (December 13, 1790), 174
- liberty on the Alien and Sedition Laws and (December 31, 1798), 624 civil and religious intentions to contribute to the preservation of (May 29, 1789), 75
 as secured on the liberal basis of reason and virtue (September 5, 1791), 200 support for religious liberty and expectation of support for civil liberty (May 1789), 77
 Calvin Coolidge on Washington (February 22, 1929), 751–55
 on the government requiring only good citizenship for support to all (August 18, 1790), 164 observation of strides in Poland toward (July 20, 1791), 195 pleasing reflections that our country continues to feel blessings of (December 23, 1796), 521 on the spirit of liberty which has pervaded Europe, 42 that all men should be treated with delicacy and tenderness and laws accommodated to them (October 13, 1789), 106 that free government will be exemplified and command respect (April 30, 1789), 57–58 that my fellow citizens understand the true principles of (November 19, 1794), 376–77 on the value of (July 5, 1790), 155–56
- libraries, 543
- The Life of Washington*, Special Edition for Schools (Marshall) (1838), 746–48
- Lincoln, Abraham, 750, 752–53
- Lincoln, Benjamin
 October 26, 1788 letter to (acknowledgment of fears and on candidates for executive offices), 11–13
 January 31, 1789 letter to (on Federal sentiments as spreading), 23
 March 11, 1789 letter to (determination to be free from engagements), 28
- liquor. see alcohol
- literature, 123–24
- Little Sarah*, 295, 536 n. 1
- livestock
 intention to retire to his farm and animals (August 29, 1796), 486–88
 recommendations on ways Indians can provide against suffering with (August 29, 1796), 485–88
- Livingston, John, 178–80
- Lloyd, James, 632
- Logan, Envoy, 606–7
- Long Island, 662
- Loudoun militia, 347
- Louis XVI, 160, 215, 225, 673
- Louisiana, 577

- and possible invasion by France, 597–98, 603
 that there will be “no peace in Israel” if the French possess Louisiana and the Floridas (August 30, 1799), 643–44
- love advice on love and marriage, 353–54, 441–42
 on the death of a loved one, 451, 544
 on a Georgetown ball and the composition of the human frame (March 21, 1796), 448–49
- Luzerne, Anne-César de La
 April 29, 1790 letter to (wishes for the prosperity of France), 144–45
 August 10, 1790 letter to (on the state of affairs in this country), 158
 September 10, 1791 letter to (anxiety for the safety of France and himself and on the state of affairs in this country), 203
- Madison, James, 653–54, 749 and the Democratic Societies (October 16, 1794), 365 detached memoranda (c. January 31, 1820), 735
 on diplomatic consuls and where to send them (April 27, 1790), 143
 on discrimination (March 28, 1790), 140
 on Gouverneur Morris (October 8, 1789), 98
 as potential Senator from Virginia (October 26, 1788), 11 queries on a plan for the president’s mode of living (May 12, 1789), 71 request for hired lodgings until a house can be provided for permanent reception of the president (March 30, 1789), 38 request for opinion on the power of the executive in cases of emergency to change the place of meeting of the legislature (October 14, 1793), 307–8 request for preparation of announcement of his retirement (May 20, 1792), 237–39 request of reply to his address to the House of Representatives (May 5, 1789), 60
 Magna Charta, 117
 Magnien’s Grenadier Company, 579
 maiz (Indian corn), 266 manners, 34–36 manufacturing domestic products preference for (April 19–20, 1789), 49 shoe buckles (August 11, 1790), 161
 on improvements in (January 29, 1789), 20
 motives for guarding and preserving the Union (September 19, 1796), 494–503 on new manufactures introduced, 126, 159
 on the progressive state of (October 25, 1791), 207
 recommendation of due attention to (January 8, 1790), 123–24 recommendation of plan for (December 7, 1796), 514–17 on the southern states and the state of the country, 194–95, 199, 203
 summary of internal situation (December 8, 1795), 432–33
 that much might be done by women, children, and others (January 29, 1789), 20
 Daniel Webster on Washington (February 22, 1832), 742
- manumission, 636–39
 Marblehead, Massachusetts, 115 maritime industry, 494–503
- marriage advice on choosing a partner, 353–54, 441–42
 on a Georgetown ball and the composition of the human frame (March 21, 1796), 448–49
- Marshall, John, 422
 and the Alien and Sedition Laws, 623, 624
 December 4, 1797 letter to (thanks for details and please continue sending them), 565–66 letter from Gouverneur Morris to (June 26, 1807), 728

- Marshall, John (cont.)
 letter to James Monroe from (January 3, 1784), 711
The Life of Washington, Special Edition for Schools (1838), 746–48
- Martin, Alexander, 212
- Maryland
 General Assembly, 11, 430
 gratitude for appreciating his motives (November 30, 1795), 427–28 gratitude for their declaration of support (December 6, 1795), 430
 Hessian flies in, 242–43
 and the new Constitution (October 26, 1788), 11
 on pleasure at their approval of the Neutrality Proclamation (November 23, 1793), 315 on possible invasion by France, 592–93, 597–98, 599–600, 602 on potential representatives to the Senate (October 26, 1788), 11 on probable support for John Adams from (January 31, 1789), 23 reflections on the government of the people (January 20, 1790), 130
- Maryland Masons, 616
- Maryland militia
 on the expedition to aid in suppressing the Whiskey Rebellion (October 16, 1794), 365–66
 Proclamation of militia service (September 25, 1794), 359–60
- Mason, George, 280 n.5
 opposition to public measures (July 29, 1792), 244–47 opposition to the new government (September 8, 1789), 89
- Masons
 January 1793 letter to (thanks for the “Book of Constitutions”), 278
 November 8, 1798 letter to (on Free Masonry and that it is the indispensable duty of every American to come forward), 616
- Massachusetts, 684
 Bunker Hill, 736
 gratitude for the approbation of his services (February 24, 1797), 530 gratitude for their goodness toward him and wishes they experience every satisfaction which can result from public honor and private happiness (October 27, 1789), 112
 House of Representatives, 81, 530
 improvements in manufactures (January 29, 1789), 20
 on instructing Indians in Christianity (April 10, 1792), 229
 and the new Constitution (October 26, 1788), 11 pleasure at their approbation and promise of purity of intentions and fidelity and diligence in carrying them out (July 9, 1789), 81
 Senate, 81, 530
 that the appointment of vice president might be from (October 26, 1788), 12–13 wishes for their blessings to be continued (October 27, 1789), 112
- Massachusetts Masons, 278
- Mathewson, Mr., 133
- McHenry, James
 April 8, 1794 letter to (receipt of his application for appointment and explanation of silence), 334
 April 3, 1797 letter to (request for occasional news), 543
 July 7, 1797 letter to (on seeking private emolument at the expense of public peace as a crime of deep a dye), 558
 March 27, 1798 letter to (on reported treasonous correspondence between Congress and France), 574
 July 4, 1798 letter to (questions to consider and that he would not withhold his services in case of war), 585–89
 July 5, 1798 letter to (concerns about resuming command), 590–91
 September 14, 1799 letter to (refusal of pay), 645
 November 17, 1799 letter to (political concerns), 647

- letter to Margaret Caldwell from (December 23, 1783), 710
- medals, 487
- Mediterranean trade recommendation of a protecting force for (December 7, 1796), 514–17 recommendation of attention on (December 8, 1790), 172–73
- megalopsuchos*, 2
- Memorial of the Quakers, 140
- Mercer, John Francis charges of bribery against Hamilton
 (October 21, 1792), 267
 displeasure against using his Washington's name for electioneering purposes
 (September 26, 1792), 260–61
- merchants, 199
- Meredith, Samuel, 25
- Methodist Episcopal Church
 May 29, 1789 letter to (intentions to contribute to the preservation of civil and religious liberties), 75 January 30, 1793 letter to (pleasure at their determination to inculcate peaceable compliance with law), 277
- Miamee Village, 180
- Miamis, 509–11
- Michelimakinac, 512–17
- Mifflin, General, 362–64
- militia(s). see also Continental Army;
 United States Army
 “An Act to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, and
 repel invasions,” 345
 on beholding the most and the least standing in the same ranks
 (November 1–4, 1794), 376
 compensation for services
 on monies due officers (October 13, 1789), 102
 refusal of pay from the public but reimbursements of actual expenditures (September 14, 1799), 645 expedition to aid in suppressing the Whiskey Rebellion
 on the expedition, 362–64, 365–66, 370–71, 375–77, 379
 Proclamation for cessation of violence and obstruction of justice in protest of liquor laws in Pennsylvania, 344–46, 374 Proclamation of militia service (September 25, 1794), 359–60 on the spirit which blazed out on this occasion, 357–58, 367–68, 370–71 on support for and confirmation of measures (November 22, 1794), 379 expeditions against Indian incursions, 268–69, 377
 authorization of (December 8, 1790), 171–73
 Kentucky militia (October 25, 1791), 208 on present defects in militia laws
 (November 1–4, 1794), 376
 on the province of the military as confined by the essential principles of free government (October 20, 1794), 367–68
 request for establishment of magazines and arsenals, 206, 210–11, 317–18 well-regulated on the proper establishment of troops (January 8, 1790), 122–24 request for establishment of, 87, 173, 317–18, 376, 433–34, 517
- Mississippi River
 on the causes which may disturb our Union (September 19, 1796), 496–503
 and the prevailing spirit in the people of Kentucky (August 10, 1794), 348–49
 and the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation (July 13, 1795), 399 want of free navigation of (August 11, 1790), 161
- Mitchell, John, 396
- monarchy, 245–47
- money
 on half-dimes as a small beginning for coinage (November 6, 1792), 270

- money (cont.)
 public concern for paper money (July 29, 1792), 245–47
 recommendations for establishment of a mint (October 25, 1791), 211
 on regulation of foreign coins (November 6, 1792), 271
 on uniformity in currency (January 8, 1790), 123–24
- Monmouth, Battle of, 662–63, 678, 736
- Monongahela River, 662
- Monroe, James, 472–73, 653–54
 letter from John Marshall to (January 3, 1784), 711
 on private letters and relations with France (August 25, 1796), 481–82
View of the Conduct of the Executive of the United States leaves it to the tribunal to which he has appealed to comment (March 8, 1798), 572–73
 requests the prevalent opinion of (March 1, 1798), 571
- monuments, 389–90
- morality
 advice on moral character (December 5, 1790), 170
 advisory hints for regulating conduct and respectability (March 23, 1789), 35–36
 to avoid bad company (March 31, 1789), 39–40
 expectation of advancement of true religion in (November 2, 1789), 117
 as indispensable for political prosperity (September 19, 1796), 498–503
 as necessary for free government (September 19, 1796), 499–503 that the foundations of our national policy will be laid in principles of private morality (April 30, 1789), 56–58
- Moravian Society for Propagating the Gospel, 88
- Morgan, Daniel, 349, 396
- Morocco
 on communications with (October 29, 1795), 423 on the death of their late emperor and request for assurance of continued treaty (December 31, 1794), 382–83 on Hans Heissel as consul to (December 31, 1794), 382–83 on recognition of our treaty (December 8, 1795), 431
- Morris, Gouverneur on affairs in Europe, 198–99, 288 on affairs in France, 103, 264–65 on the census (December 17, 1790), 177 correspondence with on private letters (August 25, 1796), 481–82 would let letters appear in public in order to do away effects of falsehoods on the public mind (February 6, 1798), 569–70 hopes the choice does not fall on him and that if it should that he can decline (November 28, 1788), 14 letter to John Marshall (June 26, 1807), 728 letter to George Washington (December 9, 1799), 717–18 nomination and appointment as minister plenipotentiary, 98, 220–21 observations on relations with Great Britain (December 22, 1795), 435–38 oration on the death of George Washington (December 31, 1799), 669–75
 and potential French response to the treaty with Great Britain (May 8, 1796), 463–65
 on preservation of the country in peace and preparation for war (June 25, 1794), 343 on the public mind with respect to the treaty with the British and the abundant cause to rejoice (March 4, 1796), 446 requests circumspection in his conduct abroad (January 28, 1792), 220–21 requests his service as a private agent (October 13, 1789), 104–5

- on the state of the union, 103, 177, 198–99, 264–65
- on the talents and manners of (October 8, 1789), 98
- that our policy is to not involve ourselves in the contests of other nations (March 25, 1793), 287
- Morris County, New Jersey, 300
- Morristown, New Jersey, 662
- Moultrie, William
 May 5, 1792 letter to (thanks for observations founded in experience to effect termination of hostilities with the Indians), 233
- February 10, 1793 letter to (regret for murder of some Cherokee Indians), 279
- Mount Vernon, 242–43, 280 n.2
- Mount Vernon*, 472–73
- Moustier, Eléonor-François-Elie, Comte de
 May 25, 1789 letter to (on relations with France and refusal to participate in negotiations of commercial affairs), 73–74
- November 1, 1790 letter to (on our happiness continuing to progress and great reason to conclude it will last), 168
- Murray, William Vans
 August 10, 1798 letter to (on his return to service and preparation for possible invasion from France), 606–7
- December 26, 1798 letter to (on the Alien and Sedition Laws), 622
- October 26, 1799 letter to (on the affairs of Europe and wish to see everything settled for peace), 646
- muses, 111
- Mussle-Shoals settlement, 205
- national bank. see Bank of the United States
- national defense. see defense
- national government gratitude for support of our equal government (October 17, 1789), 108
- thanks for support of and the promise to impress a due sense of reverence to (June 1789), 80
- national holidays
 request for sentiments on public entertainment and holidays (May 10, 1789), 68–69
- Thanksgiving Proclamation (January 1, 1795), 384–85
- Thanksgiving Proclamation (October 3, 1789), 95, 96–97
- national objects, 69
- national respectability, 171–73
- national university recommendation for, 372, 392–93, 489–90, 491, 515–17
- request for a plan for (January 28, 1795), 386–87
- request for a section in his Farewell Address on (September 1, 1796), 489–90
- request to appropriate his inland navigation shares to (March 16, 1795), 394–95
- naturalization, 123–24
- naval forces, 514–17
- naval warfare
 on neutral vessels (May 6, 1794), 337
- request for measures against citizens interfering in hostilities between France and England (April 12, 1793), 289, 290, 316–18
- request for opinions regarding the Little Sarah (July 11, 1793), 295
- navigation inland
 on efforts to extend (April 22, 1793), 293
- on the endowment of his shares towards a university in the federal city, 386–87, 392–93
- on the extension of trade by opening (May 16, 1798), 576
- motives for guarding and preserving the Union (September 19, 1796), 494–503
- request to appropriate his shares to universities in the federal city and Virginia (March 16, 1795), 394–95

- navigation (cont.)
 want of free navigation of the Mississippi River (August 11, 1790), 161
 motives for guarding and preserving the Union (September 19, 1796), 494–503
 on the progressive state of (October 25, 1791), 207 recommendation for reflection on impact of European hostilities on (December 8, 1790), 172–73
 on surveys of the River St. Croix (December 7, 1796), 513–17
 Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation
 on the causes which may disturb our Union (September 19, 1796), 496–503
 on conclusion of carrying into effect the (December 7, 1796), 512–17
 on continued discussion in the House of Representatives on (May 22, 1796), 469
 on defense of (July 29, 1795), 403
 on the great change in the public mind with respect to (March 4, 1796), 446
 on the memorial to, 404–5, 406–7
 on the opposition to, 402–3, 404–5, 406–7, 408, 412, 415–16, 438
 on the ratification of, 401, 404–5, 407, 408, 419–20, 422–23, 432, 733–34
 refusal to provide the House of Representatives the papers relative to the negotiation of (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 request for advice regarding potential French response (May 8, 1796), 463–65
 request for opinion if the House of Representatives has the right to papers relative to the negotiation of (March 25, 1796), 450
 request for opinions on, 397–98, 399–400
 on the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to the negotiation of, 459–60
 on the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to the negotiation of (March 31, 1796), 457–58
 on support for, 432, 469
 thanks for the trouble taken to show the impropriety of the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to (March 31, 1796), 455–56
 that nothing will prevent public annunciation (May 8, 1796), 462
 on the validity of (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 negroes. see also slaves
 on rendering aid to quell “the alarming insurrection of the Negros in Hispaniola” (September 24, 1791), 204
 requests to learn what Britain means to do regarding negroes belonging to our citizens (October 13, 1789), 104–5 that any of his former slaves bound by the court by infancy shall be taught to read and write (July 9, 1799), 636–39
 Nero, 475
 Netherlands, the, 483, 739
 on the essentiality of etiquette in relations with (March 19, 1790), 138 loans from Holland, 171–73, 209, 271, 319
 Neutrality Proclamation, 294, 314, 315
 on the situation in (December 4, 1797), 565–66
 neutrality
 vs. attempts to involve us in war abroad, 320–21, 618–21
 Calvin Coolidge on (February 22, 1929), 755
 farewell advice (December 29, 1799), 668
 on Genet and relations with France during (October 24, 1793), 313
 as his policy, 436, 482
 on neutral vessels (May 6, 1794), 337

- Neutrality Proclamation (April 22, 1793), 294
 gratification at approval of, 322, 323
 as the index to his plan (September 19, 1796), 502–3
 on motivation for (November 16, 1793), 314
 orations on, 665, 690
 pleasure of approval by the citizens (November 23, 1793), 315
 on the plain road of the executive and (July 25, 1796), 478 pleasure at support for the neutrality of our country, 298, 299, 301, 304 that neutral nations may be better enabled to see the game (October 26, 1799), 646
 that we should steer clear of the affairs in Europe (October 15, 1797), 562
- Neville, John, 345
- New Hampshire, 118
- New Jersey, 662
 and the new Constitution (October 26, 1788), 11
- Proclamation of militia service (September 25, 1794), 359–60
 on their resolutions to protect and defend our country (September 23, 1793), 300
- New Jerusalem Church in Baltimore, 276
- New London, Connecticut, 299
- New Orleans, 167
- New World, 640–42, 648 n. 9
- New York
 and the new Constitution (October 26, 1788), 11
 on their negotiations with the Six Nations (April 4, 1791), 188
- New York City, New York
 gratitude to be of service to and need for cooperation of his countrymen (May 9, 1789), 65–66 much satisfaction at the support of the neutrality of our country (August 12, 1793), 298 as place of meeting of the legislature (October 14, 1793), 308
- Newbern, New Jersey, 461
- Newburyport, Massachusetts, 114
- Newenham, Edward
 January 15, 1790 letter to (on the enlightened spirit of liberty which has pervaded Europe), 129
 September 5, 1791 letter to (on the prosperity of the United States), 200
 June 22, 1792 letter to (regret for disputes between Protestants and Roman Catholics), 242–43
 October 20, 1792 letter to (on animosities caused by religious differences as the most to be deprecated), 266
- Newport, Rhode Island Hebrew Congregation, 164
- newspapers
 on abuses in, 446, 474–75 on the Alien and Sedition Laws and liberty of the press (December 31, 1798), 624 coverage of political dissensions (October 20, 1792), 264–65 on the gazettes of the Bachites (August 5, 1798), 605 lamentation that more do not publish the debates of Congress (March 28, 1790), 140 on mentions of publications of his papers in (October 15, 1797), 563 on private letters in the press (August 25, 1796), 481–82 on relations with France and (January 8, 1797), 522–23 request for editors to send his valedictory address to (August 25, 1796), 484 request for occasional news as it is impossible to know what credence to give the gazettes (April 3, 1797), 543 on the torrent of abuse in factious papers (December 22, 1795), 436–37 on transmission to distant parts of the country (November 6, 1792), 271 wish for abuses of government and its officers to cease, 252, 296–97, 302–3

- newspapers (cont.)
 wish for continued kind communications as there is little dependence on newspapers (May 15, 1797), 545
 Niagara, 512–17
 Nicholas, John, 572–73
 Norfolk, Virginia, 578–79
 North, Mr., 611–15, 720–21
 North Carolina
 accession to the Union, 11, 122–24, 129, 165
 duties on spirits (July 20, 1791), 194–95
 on friendly public sentiment to the general government (May 27, 1798), 578–79 on his tour through (November 14, 1791), 212
 on lighthouses thereon (November 14, 1791), 212
 on new states (June 3, 1790), 148–49 no doubt of their becoming members of the union (October 13, 1789), 103 on officers and members of the government to take oaths prescribed by law (June 3, 1791), 193 request for draughts for cover letters to (September 17, 1792), 259
 Northern states
 on the causes which may disturb our Union (September 19, 1796), 495–503
 motives for guarding and preserving the Union (September 19, 1796), 494–503

 oath of allegiance, 193
 oath of office injunction for violations of (March 4, 1793), 285
 request for opinions as to time, place,
 and manner of taking (February 27, 1793), 280
 O’Bail, John, 280 n.10
 O’Brien, Captain, 83
 Ohio River, 692
 oil, 195
 Oney, 189
 Oswego, 512–17

Othello (Shakespeare), 536 n. 16
 Ottawas, 509–11

 Paine, Elijah, 518
 Paine, Thomas, 522–23 paper money, 245–47. see also money
 Paris, 189
 Paris, France, 195
 Paterson, Mr., 421–22 patriotism affectionate congratulations and gratitude to Benjamin Franklin for (September 23, 1789), 93
 as agitator of men (January 29, 1789), 19–20
 on the constant tenor of his conduct
 (December 31, 1799), 674
 Calvin Coolidge on Washington
 (February 22, 1929), 755
 on the cooperation from the chief magistrates of the states
 (November 1–4, 1794), 376
 encouragement of (April–May 1789), 59
 on the enlightened and patriotic zeal of the army (October 20, 1794), 367–68
 farewell advice (December 29, 1799), 668
 James Madison on Washington (c.
 January 31, 1820), 735
 as necessary to promote national felicity (April 29, 1790), 145 on the need for the patriotic assistance of every good citizen (April 20, 1789), 52
 David Ramsay on Washington (1807), 724–27
 relies on wisdom and patriotism of those with whom he cooperates
 (May 8, 1789), 62
 on resolutions to protect and defend our country (September 23, 1793), 300 on strong incentives to (September 5, 1791), 200
 that he can promise success from the people at large, respectable characters, and patriotic cooperation of legislature more than himself (May 9, 1789), 64

- that love of his country will not abate (February 17, 1797), 529
- that the name AMERICAN must always exalt (September 19, 1796), 494–503
- Daniel Webster on Washington (February 22, 1832), 736–45
- and whosoever should be elected vice president (October 26, 1788), 12–13
- peace
- calls for liberality towards the families of deceased citizen emissaries of (November 6, 1792), 268
 - on cultivating peace and harmony with all (September 19, 1796), 499–503
 - farewell advice (December 29, 1799), 668
 - on his devotion to (August 15, 1798), 608
 - on neutrality as his policy (December 22, 1795), 436
 - observations on the value of (November 6, 1792), 270
 - pleasing reflections that our country continues to feel blessings of (December 23, 1796), 521
 - on preparation for war as one of the most effectual means of preserving, 122–24, 317–18, 343, 600, 606–7, 608, 629–30
 - on preservation of, 339, 343
 - recommendation for consideration prevention of aggressions by our citizens on foreign territory (November 6, 1792), 270
 - request for advice on what to be attempted to preserve (January 22, 1797), 526
 - that his policy is to cultivate peace with all the world, 378, 725–27
 - that peace has been our primary object (January 9, 1797), 524
 - that peace must surely be at hand (July 4, 1797), 557
 - that the mild and pacific policy of America has been mistaken for cowardice (September 8, 1798), 609
 - on the union of good men as a basis for (October 6, 1794), 361
- Washington as first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen (December 26, 1799), 666
- wish to see everything settled for (October 26, 1799), 646
- wishes for peace with France (December 7, 1796), 516–17
- Peachy, Thomas Griffin, 304
- Pendleton, Edmund, 301, 302–3
- Pennsylvania
- on the encouragement their support gives (April 20, 1789), 52
 - gratitude for the approving voice of his country (February 17, 1797), 529
 - hope that his intentions and perseverance to promote happiness of the country will atone for any defects in his administration (April 21, 1789), 54
 - House of Representatives, 529
 - on improvements in their manufactures (January 29, 1789), 20
 - pleasure at their approbation of his public services (January 12, 1797), 525
 - pleasure at their attachment to our Constitution and laws (October 6, 1794), 361
 - pleasure at their support for neutrality and every measure of government (September 24, 1793), 304
 - Proclamation of militia service (September 25, 1794), 359–60
 - on relations with the Senecas (December 29, 1790), 179–80
 - request that every American bear in mind that their conduct influences the world (September 12, 1789), 91–92
 - a state from which much was to be feared (October 26, 1788), 11
 - Supreme Court, 52
 - Whiskey Rebellion, 4
 - authorization to bring matters before the circuit court (September 7, 1792), 253–54
 - on dissemination of suspicions, jealousies, and accusations and (November 19, 1794), 376–77

- Pennsylvania (cont.)
- on the expedition to aid in suppressing, 362–64, 365–66, 370–71, 375–77, 379
 - hope that the delusion of a portion of our fellow citizens soon passes (October 6, 1794), 361
 - on the insurrection as the first ripe fruit of the Democratic Societies (September 25, 1794), 357–58
 - on the need for legal checks (September 17, 1792), 258
 - on the opposition to the excise law, 253–54, 258, 357–58, 370–71, 373–77
 - pleasure at determination to inculcate peaceable compliance (January 30, 1793), 277
 - Proclamation for cessation of, 255, 256–57, 259
 - Proclamation for cessation of violence and obstruction of justice in protest of liquor laws in Pennsylvania, 344–46, 374
 - Proclamation of militia service (September 25, 1794), 359–60
 - Proclamation on Violent Opposition to the Excise Tax (February 24, 1794), 328–29
 - on prosecution of those who opposed the laws, 262, 270
 - David Ramsay on Washington's suppression of, 726–27
 - request for immediate processes on the indictments found in reference to (November 24, 1792), 273
 - requests use of the militia to quell (August 10, 1794), 347
 - on termination of the western insurrection (December 18, 1794), 380
 - that favorable termination is to be ascribed to the Great Ruler (March 2, 1795), 391
 - Pennsylvania minority, 712
 - Pennsylvania Society of the Cincinnati, 50
 - personal conduct
 - advice for Indians (November 29, 1796), 510–11
 - advice on, 35–36, 170, 507–8
 - advice on courteous behavior (November 28, 1796), 507–8
 - advice on life habits (November 28, 1796), 507–8
 - advice on love and marriage, 353–54, 441–42
 - advice on moral character (December 5, 1790), 170
 - on an accommodation of differences that produces harmony (June 25, 1797), 554
 - on charges of bribery against Hamilton (October 21, 1792), 267
 - on a probable inquiry into the allegations (September 23, 1793), 302–3
 - on a Georgetown ball and the composition of the human frame (March 21, 1796), 448–49
 - instructions for family life (March 31, 1789), 39–40
 - on no conduct as too absurd or inconsistent for some men (December 11, 1797), 568
 - promise no cause to accuse of willful errors (February 1, 1796), 443
 - recommendations for unprejudiced coolness (December 3, 1793), 319
 - to refrain from spiritous liquors (December 23, 1793), 324
 - request for circumspection in conduct abroad (January 28, 1792), 220–21
 - that Mr. Talleyrand is playing the same game he had attempted the year before (March 3, 1799), 633
 - Washington's deportment
 - David Humphreys on (1790), 714–15
 - David Ramsay on (1807), 723–27
 - Benjamin Rush on (October 29, 1775), 704
 - Peter, Mr., 444, 656
 - Petersburg, Pennsylvania, 304
 - Phelps, Oliver, 178–80
 - Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
 - acknowledgments for welcome and reciprocal sentiments (April 20, 1789), 51
 - gratitude for the addresses and benevolent wishes of fellow citizens (March 3, 1797), 534

- gratitude for the clergy of different denominations (March 3, 1797), 534 reply from a citizen to the Pennsylvania minority (January 23, 1788), 712
 yellow fever epidemic, 305, 306, 307–8, 309–10
- Philadelphia Gazette, 419–20
- Philadelphia Society for Promoting Agriculture, 133
- philanthropy
 affectionate congratulations and gratitude to Benjamin Franklin for (September 23, 1789), 93 encouragement of (April–May 1789), 59
 towards Indians (October 25, 1791), 208
- philosophy, mild, 555, 557
- Piankashaws, 509–11
- Pickering, Timothy, 179–80, 188, 227–28, 721
 on charges exhibited against him and gratitude for their disavowal (February 6, 1798), 569–70
 on directorship of the Mint and the office of attorney general (September 27, 1795), 417 disappointment at opposition to the conduct of France (June 12, 1797), 552 expectations for the current session of Congress (December 11, 1797), 568 on introducing husbandry and civilization among the Indians (January 20, 1791), 181 on the provisional army (July 11, 1798), 592–93 on relations with France, 561, 633 on French discontents on account of our treaty with Great Britain (July 25, 1796), 478 that there has been no attempt to violate our treaty with France (January 9, 1797), 524 that the citizens at large may be well informed and decide with respect to public measures upon a thorough knowledge of facts (February 10, 1799), 631 on yearly appropriations for the Five Nations (April 25, 1792), 230
- Pinckney, Charles Cotesworth, 421–22, 423, 524, 526, 561 on the French Directory (December 4, 1797), 567 lamentation on South Carolina importing slaves after March 1793 (March 17, 1792), 226
 on military positions and possible invasion by France, 592–93, 597, 601–2, 611–15 on relations with Spain and Indian affairs (January 11, 1790), 127–28 request he fill the place of minister plenipotentiary at Paris (July 8, 1796), 476–77
- Pinckney, Thomas, 468, 483, 491 on accusations of British influence in his appointment to London (November 17, 1799), 647 on the House discussion of the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation (May 22, 1796), 469–70 and Lafayette and liberation of Lafayette from confinement, 465, 469–70 on the treatment of Lafayette (February 20, 1796), 445–46 that the voice of the people ought to be unequivocally known (May 28, 1797), 548
- Pleydell-Bouverie, Jacob, Earl of Radnor, 559
- Poland, 195
- political parties on abuses in gazettes and anonymous publications and (July 6, 1796), 474–75 exhortation against excesses of (February 22, 1832), 743 on the line between them so clearly drawn, 640–42, 643–44 on the strength of the French party in the United States (August 5, 1798), 605 warning against the spirit of party (September 19, 1796), 497–503
- politics
 on abuses in gazettes and anonymous publications (July 6, 1796), 474–75

- politics (cont.)
- on accusations of British influence in the appointment of Major Pinckney to London (November 17, 1799), 647
 - advice on life habits (November 28, 1796), 507–8
 - on an accommodation of differences that produces harmony (June 25, 1797), 554
 - on cultivation of harmony and due regard to stability (November 6, 1792), 272
 - on differences in opinion and wishes for accommodation by mutual yieldings (October 18, 1792), 263
 - displeasure against his name used for electioneering purposes (September 26, 1792), 260–61
 - on foreign negotiations (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 - hope that greater unanimity will prevail (May 27, 1798), 580
 - on internal dissensions harrowing and tearing our vitals, 248–49, 250–51
 - on investigation of political heresies (June 3, 1798), 581
 - on Mr. Gerry's correspondence with M. Talleyrand (February 11, 1799), 632
 - newspaper coverage of
 - on abuses in gazettes and anonymous publications (July 6, 1796), 474–75
 - as if inveterate political dissensions exist among us (October 20, 1792), 264–65
 - wish for abuses of government and its officers to cease (August 26, 1792), 252
 - nominations for appointments
 - on appointments to the new government (October 26, 1788), 11–13
 - on appointments to the Senate, 15, 19–20
 - determination to be free from commitments of, 18, 25, 26–27, 28, 29, 30, 31–33, 334
 - on diplomatic consuls and where to send them (April 27, 1790), 143
 - on directorship of the Mint and the office of attorney general (September 27, 1795), 417
 - on governing motives being fitness of character, validity of candidates, and political considerations, 26–27, 30
 - on his conduct in (July 27, 1789), 86
 - on nothing more unpleasing than (May 9, 1789), 63
 - on the number of applications he receives (March 21, 1789), 31–33
 - on preference to him against whom least clamor can be excited (September 27, 1795), 417
 - receipt of applications and explanation of silence (April 8, 1794), 334
 - that nothing could be more agreeable than one candidate for every office of such clear pretensions as Mr. Hall (May 5, 1789), 61
 - wish that none but the most disinterested, able, and virtuous be appointed (December 23, 1788), 16
 - recommendations for unprejudiced coolness (December 3, 1793), 319
 - on religion and morality as indispensable supports for (September 19, 1796), 498–503
 - on reported treasonous correspondence between Congress and France (March 27, 1798), 574
 - request for continued free communication on topics (May 27, 1798), 579
 - request for sentiments on a line of conduct most likely to secure essentials (May 11, 1789), 70
 - rule of not interfering with suffrage of representatives (September 26, 1792), 260–61
 - tenets on (December 24, 1795), 439
 - that his are plain and simple (December 25, 1798), 621
 - that Mr. Talleyrand is playing the same game he had attempted the year before (March 3, 1799), 633
 - that personal differences often take the garb of general dissensions (October 20, 1792), 264–65
 - that religious tenets do not forfeit the right of office (c. January 27, 1793), 276

- that the people should be acquainted with the current political situation (May 29, 1797), 549
- that to expect all men to think alike would be to expect the unnatural (May 27, 1798), 580
- on those who will be satisfied with nothing short of a change in our political system (March 2, 1797), 531–32
- on true piety requiring little direction (November 2, 1789), 117
- and waiting to see what may be the sense of legally constituted bodies (October 16, 1793), 311
- warning against political alliances, 497–503, 754
- wishes are opposed to being connected with (December 23, 1788), 17
- pomp and ceremony, 153–54
- population
- on the present population (October 25, 1791), 209
 - on the present stage of the census (December 17, 1790), 177
- population growth, 432–33
- Portsmouth, New Hampshire, 116
- Portuguese colonies, 640–42, 648 n. 9
- Posey, Hercules, 189
- post office
- recommendation of due attention to (January 8, 1790), 123–24
 - request for additional crossposts (October 25, 1791), 211
 - on transmission of newspapers to distant parts of the country (November 6, 1792), 271
- post roads, 123–24
- Potomac River, 692
- on the extension of trade by opening inland navigation of (May 16, 1798), 576
 - seat of government on, 195, 209, 679
- Potomac River Company
- on the endowment of his shares towards a university in the federal city, 386–87, 392–93
 - request to appropriate his shares to a university in the federal city, 394–95, 639
- Potts, Mr., 422
- Powell, Samuel
- February 5, 1789 letter to (on expected majority of Virginia representatives to be Federalist), 24
 - February 21, 1790 letter to (thanks to the Philadelphia Society for Promoting Agriculture), 133
- precedent(s)
- and diplomatic consuls (April 27, 1790), 143
 - as fixed on true principles (May 5, 1789), 60
 - proper prosecution of those who have opposed the laws (October 1, 1792), 262
 - refusal to provide individual letters of reference for loans (January 7, 1792), 219
 - refusal to provide the House of Representatives all the papers respecting a negotiation with a foreign power (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 - request for a well-adjusted system than to correct errors of (May 10, 1789), 68–69
- Presbyterian Church
- May 30–June 5, 1789 letter to the General Assembly of (acknowledgments for your laudable endeavors to render men sober, honest, and good citizens), 76
 - November 2, 1789 letter to the ministers of Massachusetts (prayer for their compensation here and hereafter), 117
- president
- acceptance of the presidency of the United States, 43, 44
 - accommodations of, 38
 - affiliations with associations and societies, 68–69
 - First Annual Message to Congress (January 8, 1790), 122–23, 124
 - Second Annual Message to Congress (December 8, 1790), 171–73
 - Third Annual Message to Congress (October 25, 1791), 207–11

- president (cont.)
 Fourth Annual Message to Congress
 (November 6, 1792), 268–72
 Fifth Annual Message to Congress
 (December 3, 1793), 316–19
 Sixth Annual Message to Congress
 (November 19, 1794), 373–78
 Seventh Annual Message to Congress
 (December 8, 1795), 431–34
 Eighth Annual Message to Congress
 (December 7, 1796), 512–17
 audiences with the public on ceremonious visits (June 15, 1790), 153–54
 request for public opinion of his system (July 26, 1789), 84–85
 request for sentiments on (May 10, 1789), 68–69
 to the Cabinet February 27, 1793 letter (request for opinions on the oath of office), 280
 April 18, 1793 letter to (questions to consider for a plan of conduct regarding affairs in Europe), 291–92 March 25, 1796 letter to (request for opinions if the House has the right to call for papers relative to the negotiation of the treaty with Great Britain), 450
 compensation for services
 as the country benefits and advances in felicity, 42, 125–26 declines any emoluments and requests only reimbursement of expenditures (April 30, 1789), 58 conduct of
 as governed by sacred regard to the Constitution and the best interests of the United States (May 5, 1796), 461
 no object but to maintain the dignity of the office (May 10, 1789), 69 queries on a plan for the president's mode of living (May 12, 1789), 71 reliance on wisdom and patriotism of those with whom he cooperates
 (May 8, 1789), 62
 request for sentiments on a line of conduct most likely to secure essentials (May 11, 1789), 70
 on the duty of, 56–58, 125–26
 Farewell Address, 492–502, 740–45, 754 request for a section on education and the establishment of a university at the seat of government
 (September 1, 1796), 489–90
 request for amendments and corrections, 467–68, 483–84 request for editors to send it to and a note to accompany it (August 25, 1796), 484
 request for opinion of the best time for delivery of (June 26, 1796), 473 gratitude for Maryland's declaration of support for the president
 (December 6, 1795), 430
 First Inaugural Address (April 30, 1789), 56–58
 Second Inaugural Address (March 4, 1793), 285
 informal visits, tea parties, and dinners on his request for public opinion of his system (July 26, 1789), 84–85
 request for public opinion of his system (July 26, 1789), 84–85
 request for sentiments on (May 10, 1789), 68–69
 on the weekly schedule and the most he can do (June 15, 1790), 153–54
 as insulted by L'Enfant (March 14, 1792), 224
 meetings with the vice president, 68–69 Neutrality Proclamation (April 22, 1793), 294
 as the index to his plan (September 19, 1796), 502–3 on motivation for (November 16, 1793), 314
 orations on, 665, 690
 pleasure of approval by the citizens
 (November 23, 1793), 315
 nominees for diplomatic consuls and where to send them (April 27, 1790), 143

- oath of office
 injunction for any violations of (March 4, 1793), 285
 request for opinions as to time, place,
 and manner of qualification (February 27, 1793), 280
- official dinners
 request for public opinion of his system (July 26, 1789), 84–85
 request for sentiments on (May 10, 1789), 68–69
- on the plain road of the executive (July 25, 1796), 478
- power(s)
 to change the place of meeting of the legislature in cases of emergency, 305, 306, 307–8, 309–10 to make treaties, 452–54, 459–60 during recess of the Senate (June 26, 1796), 472–73
 requests for opinions on, 305, 306, 307–8, 309–10, 472–73
- Proclamation (August 7, 1794), 344–46, 374
- Proclamation (January 1, 1795), 384–85
- Proclamation (September 15, 1792), 256–57
 anticipation of criticism, 255, 259 observations on (September 17, 1792), 259
 request for draughts for cover letters
 (September 17, 1792), 259
 request for signature (September 15, 1792), 255
- Proclamation (September 25, 1794), 359–60
- Proclamation on Expeditions Against Spanish Territories (March 24, 1794), 330–31
- Proclamation on recent crimes against the Cherokees (December 12, 1792), 274
- promise of exertion of every power to
 the happiness and prosperity of the country (August 26, 1790), 165
- promise of purity of intentions and fidelity and diligence (July 9, 1789), 81
- promise of unremitted attention to the duties of the office, 50, 81
 on a proposed third term of office, 641–42, 643–44
 public entertainments and holidays, 68–69
 readiness for engagement with the Senate to make the nation happy
 (May 18, 1789), 72
 request for hired lodgings until a house can be provided for permanent reception (March 30, 1789), 38 request for sentiments on a tour of the United States during recess of Congress (May 10, 1789), 68–69
 request for sentiments on affiliations with associations and societies
 (May 10, 1789), 68–69
 request for sentiments on meetings with the vice president (May 10, 1789), 68–69
 request for sentiments on public entertainments and holidays (May 10, 1789), 68–69
- southern tour, 185–86, 197
 gratitude for (November 14, 1791), 212 on the purposes of (November 14, 1791), 212
 and the state of the country, 194–95, 203 that nothing would give greater pleasure (January 11, 1790), 128
- supplications to the Almighty Being for benediction (April 30, 1789), 57–58
- on terms of office and that there ought to be limits (May 20, 1792), 238–39
- Thanksgiving Proclamation (October
 3, 1789), 95, 96–97
- that the legislature allows little time to deliberate on the business of the session (March 3, 1797), 535
- tour through the eastern states
 as having been of salutary consequence (January 11, 1790), 128
 the poor soldier on (November 30, 1789), 713

- president (cont.)
 request for sentiments on a tour of the United States during recess of Congress (May 10, 1789), 68–69
 wishes to justify the confidence of his fellow citizens (August 26, 1790), 165 Presque Isle settlement, 377
 press. see newspapers Princeton, Battle of, 662, 678 prisoners of war, 121 privateers
 Bermudian, 436
 Little Sarah, 295, 536 n. 1
 request for measures against citizens
 interfering in the war between France and England, 289, 290, 316–18
 Proclamation (August 7, 1794), 344–46, 374
 Proclamation (January 1, 1795), 384–85
 Proclamation (September 15, 1792), 256–57
 anticipation of criticism, 255, 259
 observations on (September 17, 1792), 259
 request for draughts for cover letters
 (September 17, 1792), 259
 request for signature (September 15, 1792), 255
 Proclamation (September 25, 1794),
 359–60
 Proclamation on Expeditions Against Spanish Territories (March 24, 1794), 330–31
 Proclamation on recent crimes against the Cherokees (December 12, 1792), 274 Proclamation on Violent Opposition to the Excise Tax (February 24, 1794), 328–29
 prosperity
 on the continued prosperity and happiness of these United States as the highest gratification (October 14, 1796), 505 on the enjoyment of beholding the prosperity of his country
 (February 24, 1797), 530
 on the happy influence of public measures on (May 3, 1791), 191 on the increasing prosperity of the United States (December 12, 1796), 518
 on the ongoing prosperity (June 22, 1792), 242–43
 pleasing reflections that our country continues to feel blessings of (December 23, 1796), 521
 promise of exertion of every power to
 the happiness and prosperity of
 the country (August 26, 1790), 165
 on the prospect of national prosperity as truly animating (c. March 15, 1790), 134
 on the prosperity of the United States
 (September 5, 1791), 200
 on religion and morality as indispensable for political prosperity (September 19, 1796), 498–503
 renewed gratitude for (December 7, 1796), 512–17
 as resting on solid foundations
 (November 19, 1794), 376–77
 wishes for prosperity and happiness
 (October 29, 1789), 113
 Protestant Episcopal Church, 89 Protestants
 on the fraternal affection among friends of genuine religion (August 19, 1789), 89
 regret for disputes between Protestants
 and Roman Catholics (June 22, 1792), 242–43
 Prussia, 294, 314, 315
 public credit
 belief that confidence will be restored
 (October 13, 1789), 102
 on the establishment of, 169, 197, 199, 200
 on methods of preserving it (September 19, 1796), 499–503
 on the progress of (December 8, 1790), 171–73
 on restoration of (March 16, 1791), 185 on the restoration of (September 10, 1791), 203

- support for provision for (January 8, 1790), 123–24
- on visiting the southern states and the state of the country (July 20, 1791), 195
- public debt
- debates on state debts (March 28, 1790), 140
 - on funding (August 10, 1790), 158
 - on loans from Holland, 171–73, 209, 271, 319
 - on paying it off quickly (September 19, 1796), 499–503
 - public concern for (July 29, 1792), 244–47
 - on reimbursement of (October 25, 1791), 210–11
 - request for a definitive plan for redemption of (November 19, 1794), 377–78
 - request for honorable extinction of (December 8, 1795), 434
 - request for regular redemption and discharge of, 271, 319
- public felicity, 19–20
- public information. see newspapers
- public measures. see also laws
- on confidence in (July 20, 1791), 195
 - on the happy influence of (May 3, 1791), 191
 - public concern for (July 29, 1792), 244–47
- public opinion. see also human nature
- on abuses in the gazettes, 436–37, 446, 474–75
 - on the Alien and Sedition Laws, 617, 622, 623, 624
 - anticipation of criticism of the proclamation for cessation of violence and obstruction of justice in protest of liquor laws, 255, 259
 - appreciation for concern for attacks made upon his administration (February 1, 1796), 443
 - on attempts to discontent the public mind, 348–49, 351–52
 - on the colossal reputation of George Washington (December 31, 1799), 671–75
 - on complaints about the administration (May 23, 1792), 244–47, 281 n. 17
 - consolation for abuse as acting from his best judgment (February 20, 1796), 446
 - desires to learn and comply with public sentiment (May 1, 1796), 459–60
 - disappointment at opposition to the conduct of France (June 12, 1797), 552
 - on dissemination of pernicious misrepresentation (May 8, 1796), 462
 - on dissemination of suspicions, jealousies, and accusations and the Whiskey Rebellion (November 19, 1794), 376–77
 - dread of losing popularity will not deter him from pursuing the true interests of the country (April 17, 1789), 46–47
 - on exposing to public view private instructions and correspondence (March 9, 1798), 572–73
 - on the friendly sentiments of our people to the general government (May 27, 1798), 578–79
 - gratitude for general approval by fellow citizens (July 21, 1793), 296–97
 - on the great change in the public mind with respect to the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation (March 4, 1796), 446
 - on having nothing to fear from invective (December 22, 1795), 436–37
 - on investigation of political heresies (June 3, 1798), 581
 - on jealousies of the southern people (March 28, 1790), 139–40
 - as never having been troubled with (January 20, 1793), 275
 - on opposition to the treaty with Great Britain, 402–3, 404–5, 406–7, 408, 412, 415–16, 438
 - on our reputation throughout the globe (June 15, 1790), 153–54
 - pleasure at support of the government and gratification at meriting the approval of his countrymen (October 24, 1793), 312

- public opinion (cont.)
- pleasure of approval by the citizens of the Neutrality Proclamation (November 23, 1793), 315
 - promises no cause to accuse of willful errors (February 1, 1796), 443
 - promises of exertion of every power to conciliate (August 26, 1790), 165
 - promises of support to encourage hope for happy issue (April 19–20, 1789), 48
 - on public attacks against him, 471, 564
 - on the public mind in Virginia (June 15, 1790), 152–54
 - on Edmund Randolph's attempt at public vindication, 419–20, 421–24
 - regret for the opposition to the administration (June 26, 1797), 555
 - request for every American to bear in mind that their conduct influences the world (September 12, 1789), 91–92
 - request for ideas on public discontent (July 29, 1792), 245–47
 - resolutions of support for the neutrality of our country, 298, 299, 301, 304
 - resolutions to let calumniators proceed without taking notice (December 6, 1795), 430
 - on the revival of confidence (October 25, 1791), 207
 - as running with us (August 10, 1790), 159
 - on the strength of the French party in the United States (August 5, 1798), 605
 - that the French believe we are divided, 567, 582–84, 604
 - that the people need thorough knowledge of the facts, 462, 499–503, 631
 - that the public need only be informed to decide justly, 549, 565–66, 581, 632
 - that the voice of the people can be known on great occasions only and after time has been given for reflection (May 1, 1796), 459–60
 - that the voice of the people ought to be known, 548, 585–89
 - James Madison on Washington (c. January 31, 1820), 735
 - request to be informed of public opinion (July 26, 1789), 84–85
 - Daniel Webster on Washington (February 22, 1832), 740–45
 - wishes to know the sense of the people upon every matter of great public concern (July 21, 1793), 296–97
 - that to expect all men to think alike would be to expect the unnatural (May 27, 1798), 580
 - wishes for newspaper abuses to cease, 252, 296–97, 302–3
 - would let letters appear in public in order to do away effects of falsehoods on the public mind (February 6, 1798), 569–70
- public revenues
- on continued progressive improvement (December 7, 1796), 516–17
 - as more productive than was imagined (June 3, 1790), 148–49
 - on the productiveness of (December 3, 1793), 319
 - as prosperous in spite of embarrassed collections of duties on spirits distilled within the United States (November 6, 1792), 269–70
 - request for provisions for (December 3, 1793), 319
- public service
- approbation of good men as the most pleasing reward for, 553, 559
 - calls for liberality towards the families of deceased citizen emissaries of peace (November 6, 1792), 268
 - compensation for services
 - on compensations to officers of the United States (December 7, 1796), 516–17
 - on the country's benefits from his service as ample, 42, 125–26
 - declines any emoluments and requests only reimbursement of expenditures (April 30, 1789), 58

- declines any emoluments before entering into a situation to incur expense (July 13, 1798), 595
 on seeking private emolument at the expense of public peace as a crime of deep a dye (July 7, 1797), 558
 Calvin Coolidge on Washington (February 22, 1929), 751–55
 David Humphreys on Washington (1790), 714–15
 obligations to devote his labors to (July 5, 1790), 156 request of Patrick Henry to serve as a candidate for representation in the General Assembly of Virginia (January 15, 1799), 626–27 testimony of approbation of (February 2, 1795), 388 that every country has a right to require (July 8, 1797), 559 that every man in vigor should serve his country (June 26, 1797), 555 that it is the indispensable duty of every American to come forward (November 8, 1798), 616 that there ought to be limits (May 20, 1792), 238–39 on virtuous conduct as required for (December 5, 1790), 16 Putawatimes, 509–11
- Quakers
 on the laws being accommodated to them (October 13, 1789), 106 on the Quaker Memorial respecting slavery, 140, 153–54
- Ramsay, David, 722–27, 756 n. 13 Randolph, Edmund, 385–86
 as attorney general request for immediate processes on the indictments found in reference to the laws laying duty on spirits distilled in the United States (November 24, 1792), 273
 request for opinions on the oath of office (February 27, 1793), 280 request for opinions on the power of the executive to change the place of meeting of the legislature in cases of emergency, 305, 307, 309–10 request for proper prosecution of those who have opposed the laws (October 1, 1792), 262 request to examine laws relating to Indian affairs (October 10, 1791), 205
 on the expedition to aid in suppressing the Whiskey Rebellion (October 16, 1794), 365–66 on his attempt at public vindication, 419–20, 421–24
 as secretary of state, 382–83
 suspicions of his behavior and acceptance of his resignation (August 20, 1795), 409 on the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation, 404–5, 406–7 wish for the best regarding his decision on a second term as president and for newspaper abuses to cease (August 26, 1792), 252
- Rawlins, Mr., 654–56
 reading, 519–20
 Reading, Pennsylvania, 308, 309–10 reason, 200
 Reddick, David, 362–64
 religious liberty
 intentions to contribute to the preservation of (May 29, 1789), 75 may the inhabitants of every denomination participate in the blessings of (June 14, 1790), 151
 as secured on the liberal basis of reason and virtue (September 5, 1791), 200 support for (May 1789), 77
 that all men should be treated with delicacy and tenderness and laws accommodated to them (October 13, 1789), 106
 religious practice on animosities caused by differences in religion as the most to be deprecated (October 20, 1792), 266 on the Dispensations of Providence (March 30, 1796), 451

- religious practice (cont.)
 expectation of advancement of true religion (November 2, 1789), 117 expectation of emulous sincerity of citizens (May 30–June 5, 1789), 76 on the fraternal affection among friends of genuine religion (August 19, 1789), 89 gratitude for pious supplication on his behalf (October 17, 1789), 107 gratitude for the addresses and benevolent wishes of fellow citizens on his retiring (March 3, 1797), 534 gratitude for the discourses delivered in the Episcopal Churches of Christ Church and St. Peter's (March 2, 1797), 533 gratitude to Providence for a general government eminently calculated to secure safety and welfare (January 20, 1790), 130
 as indispensable for political prosperity (September 19, 1796), 498–503
 prayer for continued blessings (September 28, 1789), 94
 David Ramsay on Washington's (1807), 723–27 regret for disputes between Protestants and Roman Catholics (June 22, 1792), 242–43 supplications to the Almighty Being for benediction (April 30, 1789), 57–58 supplications to the Supreme Ruler to extend care to the United States (December 7, 1796), 517
 Thanksgiving Proclamation (January 1, 1795), 384–85
 Thanksgiving Proclamation (October 3, 1789), 96–97
 that just government protects (November 19, 1789), 120
 that to expect all men to think alike would be to expect the unnatural (May 27, 1798), 580 that true religion supports government (November 19, 1789), 120 toleration of. see also religious liberty
 on the government requiring only good citizenship for support to all (August 18, 1790), 164 gratitude for the pleasure of different denominations (March 3, 1797), 534 hopes to see America as exemplar in justice and liberality (c. March 15, 1790), 134 pleasure at universal friendliness to one another however different our sentiments (August 9, 1790), 157 that religious tenets do not forfeit the protection of the laws or of the right of office (c. January 27, 1793), 276 on true piety requiring little political direction (November 2, 1789), 117 Remson, Mr., 101
 republican government on the Constitution as an experiment of (1814), 733–34 devotion to (April 27, 1790), 142
 public concern for (July 29, 1792), 245–47
 republican party, 245–47
 Reynolds, Maria, 648 n. 3
 Rhode Island
 accession to the union, 148–49, 150, 169
 adoption and ratification of the Constitution (June 4, 1790), 150 on better dispositions in their legislature about to be held (October 13, 1789), 103 on the French in (August 10, 1790), 159 as by herself (January 15, 1790), 129 hope for reproaches to cease and prejudices be done away (June 4, 1790), 150 Rhodehamel, John, 2 Richmond, 189 righteousness, 59
 rights of citizens request for subordination to (December 2, 1791), 217 that terms on which foreigners may be admitted to should be ascertained (January 8, 1790), 123–24 rights of man, 733–34 rights of nations, 754 River St. Croix, 513 river surveys, 513–17

- Roberdeau, Mr., 222
 Robertson, General, 410
 Rochambeau, Jean-Baptiste Donatien de Vimeur, Comte de January 29, 1789 letter to (on the political affairs of Europe), 21–22 August 10, 1790 letter to (on the French revolution), 159
 Roman Catholics
 hopes to see America as exemplar in justice and liberality (c. March 15, 1790), 134
 regret for disputes between Protestants and (June 22, 1792), 242–43
 Ross, David, 267
 Ross, James, 412
 Rush, Benjamin, 704
 Ruston, Thomas, 704
 Rutledge, Edward, 61
- Saint-Domingue, 218
 Salem, Massachusetts, 113
 Samuel, 756 n. 16
Saratoga, 561
 Saratoga, Battles of, 662–63
 Sardinia, 294, 315
 Savannah, Georgia Hebrew Congregation, 151
 Schuyler, Philip, 67 science(s) expectation of advancement of true religion in (November 2, 1789), 117 pleasure at proficiency in (July 11, 1789), 82
 as progressing (September 5, 1791), 200 recommendation of promotion of
 (January 8, 1790), 123–24
 Scotland, 234–35
 Scott, Gustavus, 29
 Seagrove, James, 192 seamen, 513–17
 seaports
 on fortification of (May 6, 1794), 337 opposition to the treaty with Great Britain (August 22, 1795), 412 request for sufficient securing of harbors (December 7, 1796), 517
 Second Inaugural Address (March 4, 1793), 285
- Second Presidential Administration, 285–536
 as aimed to secure the advantages which result from stable and free government (December 23, 1796), 521 appreciation for concern for attacks made on (February 1, 1796), 443
 French dissatisfaction with, 522–23, 526, 536 n. 18
 secrecy
 on the nature of foreign negotiations
 (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 on private letters and relations with France (August 25, 1796), 481–82 secretary of state
 on the essentiality of etiquette with foreigners (March 19, 1790), 138 reflections on the office of (January 20, 1790), 131–32 request for advice on (October 29, 1795), 421–24
 wish for Patrick Henry to accept the office of (October 9, 1795), 418
 Ségur, Louis-Philippe, Comte de, 232
 Seneca Nation, 178–80
 Shakespeare, William, 508, 727
 Shaw, Samuel, 756 n. 10
 The Journals of Major Samuel Shaw
 (April 12, 1778), 705
 letter to Reverend John Eliot (May 3, 1783), 708–9
 Shawanoes, 509–11
 Shawnees, 161
 Sheaffe, Lieutenant, 353
 Sheels, Christopher, 189
 Shenandoah River, 576
 Shepherds Town, Virginia, 504
 Simcoe, Mr., 353
 Sinclair, Robert, 234–35
 Six Nations
 on efforts to remove the discontents of (November 19, 1794), 377
 request for brotherhood with and on the security of their lands
 (December 29, 1790), 178–80
 on their negotiations with New York (April 4, 1791), 188
 treaties with, 209
 Treaty of Fort Stanwix, 178–80

- slaves
- on the American slaves in Algiers, 83, 236
 - on his slaves (April 12, 1791), 189
 - hopes for a total prohibition of the importation of (March 17, 1792), 226
 - lamentation on South Carolina
 - deciding to import slaves after March 1793 (March 17, 1792), 226
 - lamentation on the spirit of revolt among the blacks (December 27, 1791), 218
 - lamentation on uprising in Saint-Domingue (December 27, 1791), 218
 - on the Quaker Memorial respecting, 140, 153–54
 - on rendering aid to quell “the alarming insurrection of the Negros in Hispaniola” (September 24, 1791), 204
 - requests to learn what Britain means to do regarding negroes belonging to our citizens (October 13, 1789), 104–5
 - requests to retrieve fugitive slaves and without causing incident with Spain (May 20, 1791), 192
 - that all the slaves he holds shall receive their freedom upon the decease of his wife (July 9, 1799), 636–39
- Smith, Mr., 422, 720–21
- Smith, Samuel Stanhope, 170, 519–20
- Smith, William S., 597
- society
- expectation of emulous sincerity of citizens (May 30–June 5, 1789), 76
 - on a Georgetown ball and the composition of the human frame (March 21, 1796), 448–49
- Society of Cincinnati of Massachusetts, 110
- Society of Quakers, 106
- South Carolina
- on friendly public sentiment to the general government (May 27, 1798), 578–79
 - gratitude and pleasure of their approbation (January 24, 1797), 527
 - gratitude for their support during the Revolution (July 5, 1790), 155–56
 - on jealousies in the minds of the southern people (March 28, 1790), 139
 - lamentation on their decision to import slaves after March 1793 (March 17, 1792), 226
 - and the new Constitution (October 26, 1788), 11
 - on opposition to the treaty with Great Britain in (September 20, 1795), 415–16
 - regret for the murder of some Cherokee Indians (February 10, 1793), 279
 - request for draughts for cover letters to (September 17, 1792), 259
- southern states. see also specific states
- on the causes which may disturb our Union (September 19, 1796), 495–503
 - on debates between southern and eastern interests (March 16, 1791), 185
 - on jealousies in the minds of the southern people (March 28, 1790), 139–40
 - Memoirs of the War in the Southern Department of the United States* (Lee) (1812), 729
 - motives for guarding and preserving the Union (September 19, 1796), 494–503
 - on possible invasion by France, 592–93, 597–98, 599–600, 602
 - tour through, 185–86, 197
 - gratitude for (November 14, 1791), 212
 - on the purposes of (November 14, 1791), 212
 - and the state of the country, 194–95, 203
 - that nothing would give greater pleasure (January 11, 1790), 128
- southwestern frontiers. see also western territory
- on the murder of friendly Indians by lawless white men in (January 30, 1794), 327

- request for laws with the Indian tribes
 (January 30, 1794), 327
- Spain
- observations on (July 20, 1791), 194–95
- relations with, 161, 432, 483
- on negotiations and conferences now depending, 320–21, 423
- Proclamation on Expeditions Against Spanish Territories
 (March 24, 1794), 330–31
- recommendation for stronger and more vigorous opposition to hostile threats against Spanish territories in our neighborhood (May 20, 1794), 339
- request for opinion in case the British march or request permission to march through our territory to the Spanish posts above New Orleans
 (August 27, 1790), 167
- request to retrieve fugitive slaves and without causing incident (May 20, 1791), 192
- suspicion of collaboration with London (August 23, 1792), 248–49
- thanks for confidential communications on (January 11, 1790), 127–28
- and their taking possession of Chickasaw Bluff (August 22, 1795), 410
- relations with England, 185
- requests on the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation and (July 13, 1795), 400
- treaty with
- on the carrying into effect of
 (December 7, 1796), 513–17
- on the ratification of (September 19, 1796), 496–503
- treaty with Great Britain, 445
- Spanish colonies, 640–42, 648 n. 9
- speech, 624. see also newspapers
- Spotswood, Alexander, Jr., 617
- St. Clair, General, 148–49
- St. Peter's Episcopal Church, 533
- state debts, 140
- State Societies of the Cincinnati, 146–47
- states' rights, 188
- Stevens, Edward, 30
- Stockbridge Indians, 230
- Stone, John Hoskins
- December 6, 1795 letter to (gratitude for the declaration of the General Assembly of Maryland), 430
- December 23, 1796 letter to (gratitude for the resolutions of the Senate and House of Delegates of the state of Maryland), 521
- Story, Joseph, 676–80
- Street, Mr., 178–80
- Stuart, David, 449
- July 26, 1789 letter to (request to be informed of public opinion of himself), 84–85
- March 28, 1790 letter to (on jealousies in the minds of the southern people), 139–40
- June 15, 1790 letter to (on the public mind in Virginia), 152–54
- November 20, 1791 letter to (on L'Enfant's conduct), 213–14
- October 21, 1792 letter to (on charges of bribery against Hamilton), 267
- January 8, 1797 letter to (on relations with France and the presses), 522–23
- Talleyrand de Périgord, Charles-Maurice
- on Mr. Gerry's correspondence with (February 11, 1799), 632
- on protection for emigrants (May 6, 1794), 336
- that Mr. Talleyrand is playing the same game he had attempted the year before (March 3, 1799), 633
- Talon, Mr., 569–70
- taxes
- duties on spirits, 185, 194–95, 208–9, 244–47
- on embarrassed collection of (November 6, 1792), 269–70
- request for immediate processes on the indictments found in reference to the laws laying duty on spirits distilled in the United States
 (November 24, 1792), 273
- An Enquiry into the Principles of Taxation* (Hamilton), 231

- taxes (cont.)
 excise law
 on the expedition to aid in suppressing the Whiskey Rebellion, 362–64, 365–66, 370–71, 375–77, 379, 726–27
 on the opposition to, 253–54, 258, 270, 357–58, 361, 362–64, 370–71, 373–77, 380
 pleasure at determination to inculcate peaceable compliance with (January 30, 1793), 277
 Proclamation for cessation of violence and obstruction of justice in protest of liquor laws, 255, 256–57, 259, 270
 Proclamation for cessation of violence and obstruction of justice in protest of liquor laws in Pennsylvania, 344–46, 374
 Proclamation of militia service (September 25, 1794), 359–60
 Proclamation on Violent Opposition to the Excise Tax (February 24, 1794), 328–29
 on prosecution of those who have opposed the laws, 262, 270 requests immediate processing of the indictments relating to (November 24, 1792), 273
 requests the militia to quell violence towards excise officers (August 10, 1794), 347
 on termination of the western insurrection (December 18, 1794), 380
 that favorable termination is to be ascribed to the Great Ruler (March 2, 1795), 391 tea parties, 68–69
 Tennessee, 609
 Ternant, Jean Baptiste, 204
 textiles, 485–88
 Thacher, James, 706
 Thanksgiving Proclamation (January 1, 1795), 384–85
 Thanksgiving Proclamation (October 3, 1789), 95, 96–97
 Thomson, Charles, 43
 Thornton, Mr., 409
 Thruston, Charles Mynn, 348–49
 Tichenor, Isaac, 518
 tobacco, 195
 Towers, Captain, 561 trade. see also commerce contraband. see privateers
 East Indies
 refusal to provide individual letters of reference for private loans for (January 7, 1792), 219 revenues as more productive than was imagined (June 3, 1790), 148–49 on extension by opening inland navigation (May 16, 1798), 576 with Indians
 recommendation for a plan for (November 6, 1792), 269 recommendation for establishment without fraud of (December 3, 1793), 318 request for examination of laws for (November 6, 1792), 271
 request for promotion of (October 25, 1791), 208
 request for trading houses (November 19, 1794), 377 Mediterranean recommendation of a protecting force for (December 7, 1796), 514–17 recommendation of attention on (December 8, 1790), 172–73 on prohibition of (May 6, 1794), 337–38 regulation of, 135, 271 request for examination of laws for regulation of (November 6, 1792), 271 revenues as more productive than was imagined (June 3, 1790), 148–49
 West Indies
 on the effects of agents and (December 7, 1796), 513–17
 hope for better footing (June 3, 1790), 149
 and potential French response to the treaty with Great Britain (May 8, 1796), 463–65

- wishes for peace with France
 (December 7, 1796), 516–17
- transportation
 on efforts to extend inland navigation routes (April 22, 1793), 293 recommendation of due attention to post roads (January 8, 1790), 123–24
 request for ways to render us less dependent on foreigners
 (December 8, 1790), 172–73
- Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation
 on the causes which may disturb our Union (September 19, 1796), 496–503
 on conclusion of carrying into effect the (December 7, 1796), 512–17 on continued discussion in the House of Representatives on (May 22, 1796), 469
 on defense of (July 29, 1795), 403
 on French discontents on account of (July 25, 1796), 478
 on the great change in the public mind with respect to (March 4, 1796), 446
 on the memorial to, 404–5, 406–7
 negotiation of refusal to provide the House of Representatives the papers relative to (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 request for opinion if the House of Representatives has the right to papers relative to (March 25, 1796), 450
 on the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to, 459–60
 on the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to (March 31, 1796), 457–58
 thanks for the trouble taken to show
 the impropriety of the request of the House of Representatives for papers relative to (March 31, 1796), 455–56
 on the opposition to, 402–3, 404–5, 406–7, 408, 412, 415–16, 438
 on the ratification of, 401, 404–5, 407, 408, 419–20, 422–23, 432, 733–34
 request for advice regarding potential French response (May 8, 1796), 463–65
 request for opinions on, 397–98, 399–400
 on support for, 432, 469
 that nothing will prevent public annunciation (May 8, 1796), 462
 on the validity of (March 30, 1796), 452–54
- Treaty of Fort Stanwix, 178–80
 Treaty of Holston, 269, 341–42, 488
 Treaty of Hopewell, 341–42
 Treaty of Muskingum, 227–28
 Treaty of Paris, 353–54
- Trenton, New Jersey
 Battle of Trenton, 662, 678
 as place of meeting of the legislature
 (October 14, 1793), 307–8, 309–10
- Tripoli, 514–17
- troops. see also militia; United States Army
 on the proper establishment of troops
 (January 8, 1790), 122–24
- Trumbull, John, 640, 648 n. 9, 721
 as chosen by lot for fifth commissioner
 (December 7, 1796), 513–17
 letter from John Adams to (July 27, 1805), 720–21
 as private secretary to John Jay
 (May 6, 1794), 337
- Trumbull, Jonathan, Jr., 648 n. 9 December 4, 1788 letter to (on the appointments to the Senate and if he should be induced to public character again), 15 March 3, 1797 letter to (that the good sense of our countrymen will guard the public weal), 535 July 21, 1799 letter to (on a plan for encouraging revolutions in the New World to prevent the spread of French Jacobinism), 640–42 August 30, 1799 letter to (on political parties and possible French possession of Louisiana and the Floridas), 643–44

- truth, 715
- Tuffin, Armand Charles, Marquis de la Rouërie, 102
- Tunis, 514–17
- Turkey, 21–22, 686
- United Baptist Churches of Virginia, 77
- United Netherlands. see the Netherlands
- United States Army. see also Continental Army
- acceptance of commission as commander-in-chief (July 13, 1798), 594–95
 - as agents of civil power (March 27, 1795), 396
 - concerns about resuming command before an evident emergency (July 5, 1798), 590–91
 - on foreign officers in (January 20, 1799), 628
 - provisional formation
 - on the formation of a new army, 601–2, 610–15
 - on the general appointments (September 25, 1798), 610–15
 - recommendations for, 582–84, 585–89, 590–91
 - recommendations for the general staff, 582–84, 585–89, 590–91, 592–93, 596–98
 - recommendations for the general staff, 592–93
 - request for field officers (July 16, 1798), 601–2
 - request to know what has been done with respect to appointments (July 14, 1798), 596–98
 - recommendations against reduction of (October 29, 1795), 424
 - recommendations for a military academy (December 7, 1796), 515–17
 - refusal of pay from the public but reimbursements of actual expenditures (September 14, 1799), 645
 - request for review (December 8, 1795), 432–33
- United States Congress
- First Annual Message to (January 8, 1790), 122–24
 - Second Annual Message to (December 8, 1790), 171–73
 - Third Annual Message to Congress (October 25, 1791), 207–11
 - Fourth Annual Message to Congress (November 6, 1792), 268–72
 - Fifth Annual Message to Congress (December 3, 1793), 316–19
 - Sixth Annual Message to Congress (November 19, 1794), 373–78
 - Seventh Annual Message to Congress (December 8, 1795), 431–34
 - Eighth Annual Message to Congress (December 7, 1796), 512–17
 - on the death of George Washington (December 19, 1799), 657
 - on debates between southern and eastern interests (March 16, 1791), 185
 - on expectations for the current session (December 11, 1797), 568
 - lamentation that more gazettes do not publish the debates in (March 28, 1790), 140
 - laws for fortifying our seaports (May 6, 1794), 337
 - on the president making a tour of the United States during their recess (May 10, 1789), 68–69
 - on the public mind in Virginia of (June 15, 1790), 152–54
 - on reported treasonous correspondence with France (March 27, 1798), 574
 - request for opinions on the power of the executive in cases of emergency to change their place of meeting, 305, 306, 307–8, 309–10
- United States Constitution
- adoption and ratification by Rhode Island (June 4, 1790), 150
 - amendments
 - on potential early amendments (October 26, 1788), 11
 - recommendations for (September 19, 1796), 497–503

- as an experiment of republican government (1814), 733–34 belief in (August 19, 1789), 89 on conduct of the president as governed by sacred regard to (May 5, 1796), 461
 on the enlightened and patriotic zeal of the army for (October 20, 1794), 367–68 fifth Article, 58
 as the guide which he never can abandon (July 28, 1795), 401 as having been effected by reason alone (November 27, 1790), 169 on his obligation to preserve, protect, and defend the (March 30, 1796), 452–54 may affectionate vigilance persevere for (November 19, 1794), 376–77 on opposition as subsided (October 13, 1789), 102
 orations on Washington's service, 684–85
 and the power of making treaties as vested in the president (March 1796), 453–54
 on respect for its authority (September 19, 1796), 496–503 on the spirit of accommodation as the basis of (March 28, 1790), 139–40 on strengthening and confirming attachment to (November 6, 1792), 272
- United States House of Representatives
 First Annual Message to Congress (January 8, 1790), 122–24
 Second Annual Message to Congress (December 8, 1790), 171–73
 Third Annual Message to Congress (October 25, 1791), 207–11
 Fourth Annual Message to Congress (November 6, 1792), 268–72
 Fifth Annual Message to Congress (December 3, 1793), 316–18, 319
 Sixth Annual Message to Congress (November 19, 1794), 373–78
 Seventh Annual Message to Congress (December 8, 1795), 431–34
- Eighth Annual Message to Congress (December 7, 1796), 512–17
 on the choice of senators, representatives, and electors (January 29, 1789), 19–20 declines any personal emoluments and requests only reimbursement of expenditures (April 30, 1789), 58 gratification of approval of the Neutrality Proclamation (December 7, 1793), 322 looks forward to their deliberations, 175, 322
 and Mr. Gerry's correspondence with M. Talleyrand (February 11, 1799), 632 place of meeting request for determination of (May 5, 1789), 60 request for opinions on the power of the executive in cases of emergency to change, 305, 306, 307–8, 309–10 prohibition of commerce with Great Britain or Ireland (May 6, 1794), 337–38 recommendation for stronger and more vigorous opposition to hostile threats against Spanish territories in our neighborhood (May 20, 1794), 339 refusal to provide all the papers respecting a negotiation with a foreign power (March 30, 1796), 452–54 reliance on wisdom and patriotism of those with whom he cooperates (May 8, 1789), 62 request for a definitive plan for redemption of the public debt (November 19, 1794), 377–78 request for discharge of our public debt, 173, 271, 319, 516–17 request for due regard to the tribes of Indians in the limits of the Union (August 7, 1789), 87 request for efficient establishment of the militia (December 7, 1796), 517 request for honorable extinction of our public debt (December 8, 1795), 434

- United States House (cont.)
 request for laws with the Indian tribes
 (January 30, 1794), 327
 request for provisions for public revenues (December 3, 1793), 319 on the rules of (June 15, 1790), 152–54 sequestration of British property (May 6, 1794), 338
 on the situation of the nations of Europe (December 5, 1793), 320–21 that the citizens at large may be well informed and decide with respect to public measures upon a thorough knowledge of facts
 (February 10, 1799), 631
 that the motives approved shall continue unchanged (December 7, 1793), 322
 and the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation with Great Britain on continued discussions in the House (May 22, 1796), 469 refusal to provide the papers respecting the negotiation of (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 request for opinion if they have the right to papers relative to the negotiation of (March 25, 1796), 450 on their request for papers relative to negotiation of, 455–56, 457–58, 459–60
 wish that none but the most disinterested, able, and virtuous be appointed (December 23, 1788), 16
- United States Mint on directorship of (September 27, 1795), 417
 on establishment of, 185, 270 need for legislative provisions
 (December 8, 1795), 434
 on pleasing prospects for (November 19, 1794), 377–78 request for establishment of (December 8, 1790), 173
- United States Navy, 514–17
- United States of America. see also specific states
 anticipation of blessings for (January 20, 1790), 130 confidence in that Providence which has shielded the United States (June 26, 1797), 555
 congratulations on the success of the experiment (December 7, 1796), 517
 on the continued prosperity and happiness of these United States as
 the highest gratification (October 14, 1796), 505
 conviction of duty to carry the laws into effect (September 15, 1792), 255, 256–57
 government of
 on the friendly sentiments of our people to the (May 27, 1798), 578–79
 gratitude to Providence for (January 20, 1790), 130 on the prospect that a good general government will be soon established (December 23, 1788), 17 on states interfering in matters of the general government (April 4, 1791), 188
 thanks for support of and the promise to impress a due sense of reverence to (June 1789), 80 that free government will be exemplified and command respect (April 30, 1789), 57–58 want of only time for stability (January 15, 1790), 129
 as guided by the divine hand of Providence (April 30, 1789), 56–58
 harbors, 517
 hope that advice offered may produce some good (December 23, 1796), 521
A Journey in the United States of North America, 1785–87 (Castiglioni) (1790), 716
 national policy, 56–58
 neutrality
 vs. attempts to involve us in war abroad (December 5, 1793), 320–21
 farewell advice (December 29, 1799), 668 on Genet and relations with France
 during (October 24, 1793), 313

- gratification at approval of, 322, 323
 as his policy, 436, 546–47
 as the index to his plan (September 19, 1796), 502–3
 intention to maintain, 290, 418
 Neutrality Proclamation, 294, 314, 315, 322, 323, 502–3, 665, 690
 pleasure at support for, 298, 299, 301, 304
 that our policy is to not involve ourselves in the contests of other nations (March 25, 1793), 288
 that we should steer clear of the affairs in Europe (October 15, 1797), 562
- population
 on the present population (October 25, 1791), 209
 on the present stage of the census (December 17, 1790), 177
 population growth (December 8, 1795), 432–33
- prayer for continued blessings (September 28, 1789), 94
- public debt
 on funding (August 10, 1790), 158
 on loans from Holland, 171–73, 209, 271, 319
 on paying it off quickly (September 19, 1796), 499–503
 public concern for (July 29, 1792), 244–47
 on regular redemption and discharge of (December 3, 1793), 319
 on reimbursement of (October 25, 1791), 210–11
 request for a definitive plan for redemption of (November 19, 1794), 377–78
 request for honorable extinction of (December 8, 1795), 434
 request for regular redemption and discharge of, 271, 319
- public revenues
 on continued progressive improvement (December 7, 1796), 516–17
 as more productive than was imagined (June 3, 1790), 148–49
 on the productiveness of (December 3, 1793), 319
 as prosperous in spite of embarrassed collections of duties on spirits distilled within the United States (November 6, 1792), 269–70
 request for provisions for (December 3, 1793), 319
- relations with Britain. see Great Britain relations with France. see France
 on our reputation throughout the globe (June 15, 1790), 153–54 request for the release of Lafayette to (May 15, 1796), 466
- seaports, 337
- seat of government expectation of progress in building (October 25, 1791), 209 on fixing (August 10, 1790), 158 on L'Enfant's conduct regarding the map of the federal city (November 20, 1791), 213–14
 on the plan for (April 22, 1793), 293
 site selection on the Potomac, 195, 209, 679
- self-defense (December 26, 1799), 665–66
- state debts, 140
- state of the union
 accession of North Carolina, 11, 122–24, 129, 165 accession of Rhode Island, 148–49, 150, 169 admission of Kentucky, 185
 admission of Vermont, 185 application of Kentucky to (December 8, 1790), 171–73
 on the causes which may disturb our Union (September 19, 1796), 495–503 on the enjoyment of beholding the prosperity of his country (February 24, 1797), 530 on the happy influence of public measures on (May 3, 1791), 191 as having recovered from the ravages of war (January 11, 1790), 128 hope and expectation that non-acceding states will very soon join (October 13, 1789), 103

- United States of America (cont.)
- on the increasing prosperity of the United States (December 12, 1796), 518
 - on the ongoing prosperity (June 22, 1792), 242–43
 - on the present blessings of increase (June 10, 1792), 241
 - and the present population, 177, 209
 - on the prospect of national prosperity as truly animating (c. March 15, 1790), 134
 - renewed gratitude for continued prosperity (December 7, 1796), 512–17
 - that every portion has motives for guarding and preserving (September 19, 1796), 494–503
 - that our country continues to feel blessings of peace, liberty, and prosperity (December 23, 1796), 521
 - on visiting the southern states and the, 194–95, 203
 - supplications to the Supreme Ruler to extend care to the (December 7, 1796), 517
 - that the good sense of our countrymen will guard the public weal (March 3, 1797), 535
 - that there is the best reason to believe in (January 29, 1789), 22
 - that we have a head to look up to now and stability anticipated (October 9, 1789), 99
 - as a trophy on his battleground (1849–1850), 730–31
 - Washington as first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen (December 26, 1799), 666
- United States Senate, 658–59
- First Annual Message to Congress (January 8, 1790), 122–23, 124
 - Second Annual Message to Congress (December 8, 1790), 171–73
 - Third Annual Message to Congress (October 25, 1791), 207–11
 - Fourth Annual Message to Congress (November 6, 1792), 268–72
 - Fifth Annual Message to Congress (December 3, 1793), 316–18, 319
- Sixth Annual Message to Congress (November 19, 1794), 373–78
- Seventh Annual Message to Congress (December 8, 1795), 431–34
- Eighth Annual Message to Congress (December 7, 1796), 512–17
- appointments to
- on the choice of senators, 15, 19–20
 - on likely elections (December 23, 1788), 16
 - wish that none but the most disinterested, able, and virtuous be appointed (December 23, 1788), 16
- assurances of cooperation (December 8, 1790), 173
- gratification at their approval of the Neutrality Proclamation (December 10, 1793), 323
- happiness at their support and confirmation of measures (November 22, 1794), 379
- and Indians
- on disputes with and request for due regard to the tribes of Indians in Union (August 7, 1789), 87
 - questions on treaties with Indian tribes and request for advice (August 11, 1790), 162–63
 - request for laws with the Indian tribes (January 30, 1794), 327
- on the life of our Washington (December 23, 1799), 659–60
- nomination of John Jay as envoy extraordinary to Great Britain (April 16, 1794), 335
- nominations for the provisional army (September 25, 1798), 611–15
- on power of the president to convene (June 26, 1796), 472–73
- power to make treaties (May 1, 1796), 459–60
- on powers of the president during their recess (June 26, 1796), 472–73
- on prohibition of commerce with Great Britain or Ireland (May 6, 1794), 338
- questions on treaties with Algiers for the ransom of Americans in captivity there (May 8, 1792), 236

- ratification of the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation, 401, 408, 419–20, 423, 432
- readiness for engagement with (May 18, 1789), 72
- recommendation for stronger and more vigorous opposition to hostile threats against Spanish territories (May 20, 1794), 339
- request for efficient establishment of the militia (December 7, 1796), 517
- request for opinions on the power of the executive in cases of emergency to change their place of meeting, 305, 306, 307–8, 309–10
- shall continue to rely on them and their councils (December 13, 1790), 176
- on the situation of the nations of Europe (December 5, 1793), 320–21
- warmest acknowledgment at their pleasure upon his reelection (December 10, 1793), 323
- United States Supreme Court, 141
- United States Treasury
- on duties payable into (June 3, 1790), 148–49
 - monies destined to support the executive to be left in or applied to the promotion of national objects (May 10, 1789), 69
- Universal Church, 157
- University of Pennsylvania, 53
- Upper Canada, 436
- on occupying lands that ought to have been surrendered by the British (August 30, 1794), 353–54
 - on the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation and (July 13, 1795), 400
- Van Berckel, Mr., 138
- Vaughan, John, 218
- Vaughan, Samuel, 31–33
- Venables, Mr., 351
- Vermont
- admission to the union, 185
 - hopes for accession soon (June 3, 1790), 148–49
 - thanks to the State of Vermont (December 12, 1796), 518
- veterans, 146–47
- vice president
- request for sentiments on meetings with the president (May 10, 1789), 68–69
 - on whosoever shall be elected as (October 26, 1788), 12–13
- View of the Causes and Consequences of the American Revolution* (Boucher), 608
- View of the Conduct of the Executive of the United* (Monroe)
- leaves it to the tribunal to which he has appealed to comment (March 8, 1798), 572–73
 - requests the prevalent opinion of (March 1, 1797), 571
- Virginia, 751–55
- duties on spirits, 194–95
 - on the establishment of a university in (March 15, 1795), 392–93
 - on the expected majority of representatives to be Federalist (February 5, 1789), 24
- French and Indian War, 696
- on the friendly public sentiment to the general government (May 27, 1798), 578–79
- General Assembly
- as Anti-Federal (October 26, 1788), 11
 - debates of, 653–54
 - request of Patrick Henry to serve as a candidate for representation in the House of Representatives (January 15, 1799), 626–27
- on jealousies in the minds of southern people (March 28, 1790), 139
- on opposition to the Alien and Sedition Laws in (January 20, 1799), 629–30
- on the potential representatives to the Senate (October 26, 1788), 11
- on the public mind in (June 15, 1790), 152–54
- request to appropriate his James River Company shares to a university in (March 16, 1795 letter to), 394–95

- Virginia (cont.)
 request to communicate his pleasure at their support of the government (October 24, 1793), 312 on spreading Federal sentiments in (January 31, 1789), 23 and support for the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation (May 22, 1796), 469 that any success he has had is due the encouragement he received from the citizens of (April 27, 1790), 142 on their resolutions of support in preserving the peace and safety our country (September 23, 1793), 301
 on visiting the southern states and the state of the country (July 20, 1791), 194–95
- Virginia militia
 on the expedition to aid in suppressing the Whiskey Rebellion (October 16, 1794), 365–66
 Proclamation of militia service (September 25, 1794), 359–60
- virtue. see also morality
 advice for life habits (November 28, 1796), 507–8
 on civil and religious liberty secured on the liberal basis of (September 5, 1791), 200
 as necessary for free government (September 19, 1796), 499–503
 of patriotism, 736–45
 that the finest talents and accomplishments never gain respect without (March 8, 1797), 541
 on virtuous conduct (December 5, 1790), 170 on virtuous policy as the end of government (November 1, 1790), 168
 Daniel Webster on Washington (February 22, 1832), 736–45
 wish that none but the most disinterested, able, and virtuous be appointed to Congress (December 23, 1788), 16
- Wangenheim, Mr., 371
 War Department, 422
 Warren, Mercy Otis, 719
 Washington, Bushrod, 260–61
 July 27, 1789 letter to (refusal to nominate him to the Federal District Court), 86
 December 31, 1798 letter to (on the Sedition and Alien Laws), 624 Washington, George, 2–3 birthday of, 751 ceremonial communications, 4
 as commander-in-chief, 4, 662–63 acceptance of the commission as Lieutenant General, 594–95, 665–66, 675
 François-René de Chateaubriand on (1849–1850), 730–31
 discourse on (February 22, 1800), 698–703
 on the expedition to aid in suppressing the Whiskey Rebellion, 362–64, 365–66, 370–71, 375–77, 379
 David Humphreys on (1790), 714–15
 Thomas Jefferson on (January 2, 1814), 732–34
 Henry Lee on (1812), 729
 John Marshall on (1838), 746–48
 James McHenry on (December 23, 1783), 710
A Military Journal During the American Revolutionary War, from 1775 to 1783 (Thacher) (1823), 706
 orations on, 662–66, 671–75
 the poor soldier on (November 30, 1789), 713
 David Ramsay on (1807), 724–27
 refusal of pay from the public but reimbursements of actual expenditures (September 14, 1799), 645
 Samuel Shaw on, 705, 708–9
 Mercy Otis Warren on (1805), 719
 Daniel Webster on (February 22, 1832), 736–45
 Pelatiah Webster on (January 23, 1788), 712
 death of, 650, 653–56, 666 letter of notice (December 17, 1799), 657

debts to be punctually and speedily paid (July 9, 1799), 636–39
 diary entry (April 16, 1789), 45
 diary entry (April 23, 1789), 55
 diary entry (October 8, 1789), 98
 diary entry (October 9, 1789), 99
 diary entry (March 19, 1790), 138
 diary entry (April 27, 1790), 143
 diary entry (June 3, 1791), 193
 diary entry (October 6–12, 1794), 362–64
 discourse on (February 22, 1800), 693–703 domestic policy, 742–45 education of, 752–55
 eulogies for, 667–68, 676–80, 721, 750
 farewell advice (December 29, 1799), 668
 as first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen (December 26, 1799), 666 foreign policy, 740–45 friendship with Lafayette (January 27, 1791), 182–83, 280 n.13 funeral oration (December 26, 1799), 661–66 last will and testament (July 9, 1799), 636–39 legacy, 657–755
 letter from Gouverneur Morris to (December 9, 1799), 717–18
The Life of George Washington (Ramsay) (1807), 722–27
The Life of Washington, Special Edition for Schools (Marshall) (1838), 746–48
 Abraham Lincoln on (February 22, 1842), 750
 orations on, 661–66, 669–75, 681–92
 as patron of religion (May 29, 1789), 75 pictures of, 353–54
 as president
 acceptance of office, 43, 44, 51
 François-René de Chateaubriand on (1849–1850), 730–31
 Calvin Coolidge on (February 22, 1929), 751–55
 discourse on (February 22, 1800), 700–3

first term, 3, 6, 9–280. see also First Presidential Administration
 John Marshall on (1838), 746–48
 orations on, 664–66, 674–75, 679, 685–92
 David Ramsay on (1807), 726–27
 second term, 3–4, 285–536. see also Second Presidential Administration on a third term of office, 641–42, 643–44
 Daniel Webster on (February 22, 1832), 738–45
 wishes the choice does not fall on him, 12–13, 14 retirement, 4, 538, 541–648
 Luigi Castiglioni on (1790), 716
 discourse on (February 22, 1800), 699–703
 James Madison on (c. January 31, 1820), 735
 James McHenry on (December 23, 1783), 710
 Gouverneur Morris on (December 9, 1799), 717–18
A Sketch of General Washington's Life and Character (Bell) (May 3, 1779), 707
 slaves
 that all the slaves he holds shall receive their freedom upon the decease of his wife (July 9, 1799), 636–39 wishes to prevent emancipation of his slaves and send them back to Virginia if necessary and how (April 12, 1791), 189
 southern tour, 185–86, 197
 gratitude for (November 14, 1791), 212
 on the purposes of (November 14, 1791), 212
 and the state of the country, 194–95, 203
 that nothing would give greater pleasure (January 11, 1790), 128
 that he be decently buried and not put into the vault in less than three days (December 14, 1799), 656

- Washington, George (cont.)
 tour through the eastern states
 as having been of salutary consequence (January 11, 1790), 128
 the poor soldier on (November 30, 1789), 713
 request for sentiments on a tour of the United States during recess of Congress (May 10, 1789), 68–69
 1788–1793 writings, 9–280
 1793–1797 writings, 285–536
 1797–1799 writings, 541–648
 —military career
 Calvin Coolidge on (February 22, 1929), 751–55
 discourse on (February 22, 1800), 696–703
 on the expedition to aid in suppressing the Whiskey Rebellion, 362–64, 365–66, 370–71, 375–77, 379
 Thomas Jefferson on (January 2, 1814), 732–34
 Henry Lee on (1812), 729
 Life of General Washington (Humphreys) (1790), 714–15
 Marshall on (January 3, 1784), 711
 John Marshall on (1838), 746–48
 James McHenry on (December 23, 1783), 710
 obliging remembrances as among the highest compensations for his service (October 27, 1789), 112
 orations on, 662–66, 671–75, 682–92
 the poor soldier on (November 30, 1789), 713
 on preparation for war as one of the most effectual means of preserving peace, 600, 606–7, 608, 629–30
 David Ramsay on (1807), 722–27
 refusal of pay from the public but reimbursements of actual expenditures (September 14, 1799), 645
 resumption of service acceptance of commission as Lieutenant General and Commander-in-Chief, 594–95, 665–66, 675 consideration of, 577–79, 582–84, 585–89, 590–91, 592–93, 599–600, 604, 621 and general appointments (September 25, 1798), 610–15 hopes that an appeal to arms will be rendered unnecessary (August 10, 1798), 606–7
 Benjamin Rush on (October 29, 1775), 704
 Samuel Shaw on, 705, 708–9
 James Thacher on (1823), 706
 that favorable termination of our late contest is to be ascribed to the Great Ruler (March 2, 1795), 391 that he must erect a house for his papers, which are voluminous and may be interesting (April 3, 1797), 543
 Mercy Otis Warren on (1805), 719
 Pelatiah Webster on (January 23, 1788), 712
 —papers
 on publications of counterfeit letters (October 15, 1797), 563 on publications of private letters, 481–82, 569–70, 572–73 on publications of public letters, 563, 569–70
 that he must erect a house for his papers, which are voluminous and may be interesting (April 3, 1797), 543 that he would let letters appear in public in order to do away effects of falsehoods on the public mind (February 6, 1798), 569–70 that they be arranged and recorded (December 14, 1799), 655–56
 —personal appearance
 John Bell on (May 3, 1779), 707
 Luigi Castiglioni on (1790), 716
 David Humphreys on (1790), 714–15
 Thomas Jefferson on (January 2, 1814), 732–34
 James Madison on (c. January 31, 1820), 735
 John Marshall on (1838), 746

- David Ramsay on (1807), 722–27
- James Thacher on (1823), 706
- personal character
- acting from his best judgment as consolation for abuse (February 20, 1796), 446
- John Adams on (July 27, 1805), 720–21
- advice for life and education (June 4, 1797), 550–51
- advice for love and marriage, 353–54, 441–42
- advisory hints for regulating conduct and respectability (March 23, 1789), 34–36
- approbation of Betsey’s alliance with Mr. Law and request for details (February 10, 1796), 444
- approbation of good and virtuous men as the most pleasing reward for service (June 25, 1797), 553
- John Bell on (May 3, 1779), 707
- condolences on the death of a promising son (September 8, 1791), 201
- conviction of duty, 19–20, 43, 48, 51, 53, 56–58, 125–26, 156, 276
- on the death of a loved one (March 30, 1796), 451
- discourse on (February 22, 1800), 693–703
- fatherly advice (November 22, 1795), 425–26
- François Guizot on (1840), 749
- on his deep sense of duty (December 31, 1799), 674
- on how best to provide for young Fayette, 413–14, 415–16
- David Humphreys on (1790), 714–15
- hurt by the treatment of Lafayette (February 20, 1796), 445–46
- instructions to Thomas Green (March 31, 1789), 39–40
- integrity and firmness are all he can promise (April 1, 1789), 41
- intention to view things in the “calm lights of mild philosophy,” 555, 557
- Thomas Jefferson on (January 2, 1814), 732–34
- on the king’s insanity as meriting commiseration (February 5, 1789), 24
- James Madison on (c. January 31, 1820), 735
- John Marshall on (1838), 746–48
- Gouverneur Morris on (June 26, 1807), 728
- as never having been troubled with affectation in the opinion of the world (January 20, 1793), 275
- orations on, 670–75, 682–92
- pain and pleasure at the display and roar and acclamations of the people as he passed (April 23, 1789), 55
- pride in being a citizen (July 5, 1790), 156
- on the purity of Washington’s private character (December 26, 1799), 666
- David Ramsay on (1807), 722–27
- relies on wisdom and patriotism of those with whom he cooperates (May 8, 1789), 62
- request for sentiments on a line of conduct most likely to secure essentials (May 11, 1789), 70
- rule of not interfering with suffrage of representatives (September 26, 1792), 260–61
- Samuel Shaw on, 705, 708–9
- that any success is due the encouragement received in early life (April 27, 1790), 142
- that the debt of nature must be paid by us all (April 9, 1797), 544
- Mercy Otis Warren on (1805), 719
- Daniel Webster on (February 22, 1832), 736–45
- wishes for frankness to be a characteristic feature of his conduct (March 9, 1789), 26–27
- wishes for the prosperity of our country (May 20, 1797), 547
- personal life
- adieu to private life and domestic felicity (April 16, 1789), 45

- personal life (cont.)
- advice for life and education (June 4, 1797), 550–51
 - advice for life habits (November 28, 1796), 507–8
 - advice for love and marriage, 353–54, 441–42
 - anticipation of retreat (September 19, 1796), 503
 - assurances of pleasure at spending the remainder of his days in rural pursuits and domestic and other duties (March 23, 1797), 542
 - on the death of his nephew (March 23, 1793), 286–87
 - on his family circumstances (September 17, 1792), 258
 - on his love of retirement (March 23, 1793), 286–87
 - instructions to Thomas Green (March 31, 1789), 39–40
 - intention to enjoy his retirement and make even his private business of use to the country (December 12, 1796), 518
 - intention to enjoy his retirement under his own vine and fig tree (May 15, 1797), 545
 - intention to retire to his farm (August 29, 1796), 486–88
 - no pleasure at the prospect of another tour of duty (January 20, 1793), 275
 - on private letters and relations with France (August 25, 1796), 481–82
 - return to private life
 - James McHenry on (December 23, 1783), 710
 - wishes to return to the walks of private life (September 23, 1793), 302–3
 - wishes to live and die an honest man on his own farm (December 23, 1788), 17
 - wishes to remain a private citizen on his farm (January 10, 1789), 18
 - wishes to retire, 749
 - wishes to see clearly regarding a second term as president (August 26, 1792), 252
 - wishes to spend the remainder of his days in ease and tranquility (May 20, 1792), 237–39
 - wishes to spend the remainder of his days in rural amusements, 575–76
 - as a young beginner in retirement (April 3, 1797), 543
 - physical health
 - acknowledgments of concern, 165, 169
 - John Bell on (May 3, 1779), 707
 - Luigi Castiglioni on (1790), 716
 - confirmation of (January 11, 1790), 128
 - discourse on (February 22, 1800), 702–3
 - David Humphreys on (1790), 714–15
 - on the infirmities of age creeping upon him (March 23, 1797), 542
 - last illness and death (December 14, 1799), 653–56
 - James Madison on (c. January 31, 1820), 735
 - John Marshall on (1838), 746
 - more and severer sickness than thirty preceding years put altogether (June 15, 1790), 154
 - as no more in his prime, 579, 641–42
 - David Ramsay on (1807), 722–27
 - Samuel Shaw on, 705, 708–9
 - James Thacher on (1823), 706
 - thankful for good health (July 21, 1799), 641–42
 - that he had grown gray and now found himself growing blind (May 3, 1783), 708–9
 - that he requires rest and composure (August 30, 1799), 644
 - on the weekly schedule of meetings and dinners and the most he can do (June 15, 1790), 153–54
 - public life
 - acceptance of commission of commander-in-chief of the armies (July 13, 1798), 594–95
 - acceptance of the presidency of the United States, 43, 44, 51
 - anxiety and best dispositions to render service (April 16, 1789), 45
 - on the approbation of fellow citizens as ample reward, 505, 530, 531–32, 543

- on the approbation of good and virtuous men as the most pleasing reward for service (June 25, 1797), 553
- assurance of strenuous and warmest cooperation on behalf of his countrymen (December 3, 1793), 319
- assurance of support (May 9, 1789), 64
- consideration of possible invasion by France and resumption of service, 577–79, 582–84, 585–89
- on the conviction of duty to carry the laws of the United States into effect (September 15, 1792), 255, 256–57
- Calvin Coolidge on (February 22, 1929), 751–55
- on the country's benefits from his service as ample compensation, 42, 125–26
- determination to be free from engagements of appointments in, 25, 26–27, 28, 29, 31–33
- devotion to republican government (April 27, 1790), 142
- discourse on (February 22, 1800), 693–703
- displeasure against his name used for electioneering purposes (September 26, 1792), 260–61
- on the disturbed state of most nations and from which he wishes to keep this country free (May 26, 1794), 340
- efforts were joined with those of fellow citizens (December 23, 1796), 521
- on the encouragement the support of the most respectable citizens and magistrates gives (April 20, 1789), 52
- farewell advice (December 29, 1799), 668
- fears that the public expects too much from him, 45, 61, 65–66
- gratitude for support and promise of honest zeal and unremitting attention to the interest of the country (May 9, 1789), 67
- gratitude for support of the government (October 24, 1793), 312
- gratitude for the approving voice of his country, 312, 493–503, 525, 527, 528, 529, 530
- gratitude for the honors conferred (September 19, 1796), 493–503
- gratitude to be of service to the country and need for cooperation of his countrymen (May 9, 1789), 65–66
- on having nothing to fear from invective (December 22, 1795), 436–37
- highest pretension is to rank as fellow citizen (October 30, 1789), 114
- on his love of retirement (March 23, 1793), 286–87
- hope that advice offered may produce some good (December 23, 1796), 521
- hope that intentions and perseverance will atone for any defects in his administration (April 21, 1789), 54
- hope that past intentions would have precluded him from office (October 26, 1788), 12–13
- David Humphreys on (1790), 714–15
- intention has been good (September 19, 1796), 492–503
- intention to make his private business of use to the country (December 12, 1796), 518
- intention to refuse to come again on the stage (December 23, 1788), 17
- intention to retire to private station (June 26, 1796), 473
- Thomas Jefferson on (January 2, 1814), 733–34
- on the misconception that he can feel the venom of personal attacks (October 15, 1797), 564
- Gouverneur Morris on (December 9, 1799), 717–18
- needs patriotic assistance of every good citizen (April 20, 1789), 52
- no pleasure at another tour of duty (January 20, 1793), 275
- on once again having been called to office by unanimous voice (March 23, 1793), 286–87
- orations on his service, 664–66, 674–75, 679, 683–92
- promise of honesty and zeal in his service (May 8, 1789), 62

- public life (cont.)
- promise of unremitted attention to
 - the duties of the office (April 20, 1789), 50
 - on a proposed third term of office, 641–42, 643–44
 - David Ramsay on (1807), 724–27
 - readiness to serve should the country be invaded, 585–89, 644
 - recommendations (September 19, 1796), 493–503
 - refusal of private accommodations
 - while being supported by the public at large (March 25, 1789), 37
 - request for hired lodgings until a house can be provided for permanent reception of the president (March 30, 1789), 38
 - request for preparation of
 - announcement of his retirement (May 20, 1792), 237–39
 - resolution to decline being considered for (September 19, 1796), 492–503
 - resolution to let calumniators proceed without taking notice (December 6, 1795), 430
 - on the sacrifice he will suffer if he should be induced to public character again (December 4, 1788), 15
 - that he is no party man (July 6, 1796), 474–75
 - that he must erect a house for his papers, which are voluminous and may be interesting (April 3, 1797), 543
 - that his best ambition is to discharge with fidelity (October 29, 1789), 113
 - that his constant endeavor is to harmonize with the other branches of government as far as he has been delegated and feels obligated (March 30, 1796), 452–54
 - that his fellow citizens can choose fit executives (October 12, 1796), 504
 - that his fellow citizens can choose wise and virtuous men for every branch of the government (February 17, 1797), 529
 - that no earthly power can deprive him of the consolation of knowing that he has committed no intentional errors (June 12, 1796), 471
 - that the conviction of duty induces him to return, 16, 19–20, 43, 51, 53, 125–26, 156
 - on the voluntary acknowledgments of fellow citizens as rich reward (December 12, 1797), 518
 - wishes only to be useful to his country (January 12, 1797), 525
 - wishes to know the sense of the people on every matter of great public concern (July 21, 1793), 296–97
 - wishes to promote happiness and welfare of the country (July 21, 1793), 296–97
- Washington, George Augustine, 286–87
- Washington, George Steptoe
 - March 23, 1789 letter to (advisory hints for conduct), 34–36
 - December 5, 1790 letter to (advice on finishing his education), 170
- Washington, Lawrence, 35–36, 170
- Washington, Martha, 543, 653–56
 - on public visits with (June 15, 1790), 154
 - that he bequeaths his estate to her (July 9, 1799), 636–39
- Washington, Pennsylvania, 581, 648 n. 7
- Washington College, 82
- Washington Temperance Society, 750
- Wayne, General, 16, 377, 423, 509, 665
- Webster, Daniel, 736–45
- Webster, Pelatiah, 712
- Weeas, 509–11
- Weekly Intelligencer*, 713
- weights and measures
 - request for standards of, 173, 211
 - on uniformity in (January 8, 1790), 123–24
- Wells, Benjamin, 328
- West, Roger, 312
- West Florida, 513–17
- West Indies trade
 - on the effects of agents and (December 7, 1796), 513–17

- hope for better footing (June 3, 1790), 149
 and potential French response to the treaty with Great Britain (May 8, 1796), 463–65
 wishes for peace with France (December 7, 1796), 516–17
- western territory
 on the causes which may disturb our Union (September 19, 1796), 495–503 on the defense and security of (October 25, 1791), 207–8
- frontier posts
 on British evacuation of (December 7, 1796), 512–17 lands that ought to have been surrendered by the British (August 30, 1794), 353–54 and request to review our military establishment (December 8, 1795), 432–33 requests to press speedy performance putting the United States in possession of (October 13, 1789), 104–5
- lands of the Indians on no unjust possession of (March 23, 1792), 227–28 request for advice on Cherokee relinquishment of (August 11, 1790), 162–63 and motives for guarding and preserving the Union (September 19, 1796), 494–503 on peace and tranquility in (March 16, 1791), 185 regret for disturbances and hostilities on, 279, 341–42
- relations with Indians in authorization of expedition against Indian incursions on frontier settlements in (December 8, 1790), 171–73 on prospects of living in tranquility with hostile tribes of Indians (July 20, 1791), 195 on troublesome Indians (July 28, 1791), 197 request for advice of the Senate on borders for (August 11, 1790), 162–63 request for payment of debts funded as fast as possible and (December 8, 1790), 173 request to review our military establishment and (December 8, 1795), 432–33
 on the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation and (July 13, 1795), 400
- wheat, 242–43
- Whiskey Rebellion, 4
 authorization to bring matters before the circuit court (September 7, 1792), 253–54
 on dissemination of suspicions, jealousies, and accusations and (November 19, 1794), 376–77
 on the expedition to aid in suppressing, 362–64, 365–66, 370–71
 Sixth Annual Message to Congress (November 19, 1794), 375–77 happiness at support for and confirmation of measures (November 22, 1794), 379
 hope that the delusion of a portion of our fellow citizens soon passes (October 6, 1794), 361
 on the insurrection as the first ripe fruit of the Democratic Societies (September 25, 1794), 357–58
 on the need for legal checks (September 17, 1792), 258
 on the opposition to the excise law, 253–54, 258, 270, 357–58, 370–71, 373–77
 pleasure at determination to inculcate peaceable compliance (January 30, 1793), 277
- Proclamation for cessation of violence and obstruction of justice in protest of liquor laws, 256–57, 270
 anticipation of criticism, 255, 259
 observations on (September 17, 1792), 259

- Whiskey Rebellion (cont.)
 request for draughts for cover letters
 (September 17, 1792), 259
 request for signature (September 15, 1792), 255
- Proclamation for cessation of
 violence and obstruction of justice in protest of liquor laws in Pennsylvania, 344–46, 374
- Proclamation of militia service
 (September 25, 1794), 359–60
- Proclamation on Violent Opposition
 to the Excise Tax (February 24, 1794), 328–29
- on prosecution of those who opposed the laws, 262, 270
- requests immediate processing of the indictments relating to (November 24, 1792), 273
- requests use of the militia to quell
 (August 10, 1794), 347
- on termination of the western insurrection
 (December 18, 1794), 380
- Washington's suppression of David Ramsay on (1807), 726–27
 that favorable termination is to be ascribed to the Great Ruler
 (March 2, 1795), 391
- on the Whiskey Rebellion and its perseverance (August 26, 1794), 350–52
- White, Alexander November 23, 1793 letter to (on the Neutrality Proclamation), 315
- March 1, 1798 letter to (requests the prevalent opinion of Colonel Monroe's View of the Conduct of the Executive of the United States), 571
- Wilcott, Oliver, 443
- Wilhelm, Frederick II of Prussia, 326
- Williams, Dr., 706
- Williams, William, 391
- Wilmington, Delaware
 as place of meeting of the legislature
 (October 14, 1793), 307–8, 309–10
 that their promises of support encourage hope for happy issue
 (April 19–20, 1789), 48
- Wilmington, North Carolina, 190
- Wilson, James, 345–46
- Wolcott, Oliver, Jr., 409 May 15, 1797 letter to (wish for continued kind communications), 545
 May 29, 1797 letter to (on the president's speech to Congress and that the people should be acquainted with the current political situation), 549
- women, 448–49
- Wyandots, 509–11
- yellow fever epidemic, 305, 306, 307–8, 309–10
- York Island, 662
- Yorktown, Pennsylvania, 575