

Index

- Arneson, Richard, 84
- autonomy
- adequate range of options, 140
 - and conventionalism, 148–149
 - as an ideal, 137
 - claims and interests, 143
 - contrasted with authenticity, 144
 - value of, 141–143
- bad Samaritan laws, 208
- beliefs
- independence, 188
 - well-grounded, 188
- bodily integrity, 68
- Brandenberg v. Ohio*, 175
- Buckley v. Valeo*, 37
- cannibalism, 60–61
- Coleridge, Samuel Taylor
- on national church, 192
- common good
- and fairness, 100–102
 - as an aspirational ideal, 101
- content-neutrality principle, 177. See free expression
- and categories of expression, 180
- creative pluralism, 222–223
- criminal solicitation, 176–177
- dead dogma, 181
- and living truths and falsehoods, 181
- death penalty, 212–213
- Devlin, Patrick
- on central error of the Wolfenden Report, 47
 - on democracy, 56
 - on society protection argument, 53
- disagreement, 220–222
- and positive value of, 223
- and regress problem, 221
 - respectful management of, 220
- discrimination, 218
- drug enforcement
- and Giuliani policy, 215
 - and war on drugs, 199
- dwarf tossing, 109
- Dworkin, Ronald
- and challenge conception of well-being, 147
 - critique of Devlin, 55
 - on authenticity, 145
 - on critical and volitional paternalism, 112
 - on free speech and government legitimacy, 170
 - on morality and ethics, 90
- enforcement
- and incremental coercion, 216
 - and incremental harm, 217
 - characterized, 2–3
 - social versus legal, 217–220
- ethical environment
- defined, 89
- ethical environmentalism
- and integration thesis, 93
 - and pluralism, 102
 - and public/private distinction, 107–108
 - and the common good, 94–95
 - characterized, 89–94
- Feinberg, Joel
- on analogy of state sovereignty to personal sovereignty, 69–70
 - on autonomously chosen life, 81
 - on good character, 205
 - on Kristol's gladiator case, 85
 - on moral harms, 49
 - on personal sovereignty, 66
 - on perspective of advising legislative bodies, 203

- Finnis, John
 on the common good, 100 on liberalism, 132
- free expression
 and categories of expression, 180
 and content-neutrality principle, 177, 178–180 and government legitimacy, 168, 184–186 and hate speech, 38, 39–42, 194–196 and incitement to violence, 175–177 and persuasion principle, 177–179 and public good, 168 and silencing argument, 192–194 as a special right, 169–173 classic argument for, 181–188 communication-dependent and communication-independent misconduct, 174–177
- Galston, William, 165
- Guiliani, Rudolph, 214
- harm principle and offense, 26
 and personal sovereignty, 65–66
 Mill's statement of, 3–4, 24–25
 two formulations of, 29–30
- harmless wrongdoing and interference with altruistic sacrifice, 65 and trespass, 64
- Hart, H. L. A.
 and legal paternalism, 46
 and principle of fairness, 157, on Devlin's society protection argument, 51–52 on equal right to be free, 155–156 on influence of morality on the development of law, 1 on moral norms and deliberate change, 13 on moral rights and law, 153 on retributivism, 59
- hate speech and Danish cartoon, 40–41 and dignity-based justifications for restriction, 39–40, 195–196
 defined, 38
 different purposes and effects of, 38
- homosexuality
 and Wolfenden Report, 44–45
 Devlin's view of, 45
- indirect argument and character-centered legal moralism, 205–209
 and legal paternalism, 209–212
- indirect consequentialism, 19
- integration thesis, 93, 111, 117–118, 129–130, 146
- Kristol, Irving, 76
 gladiator case, 76, 85
- legal moralism, 4 and character, 105–107 and critical morality, 48, 87 and Devlin's argument for, 51–57 and disgust, 61–62
 and moralistic legal paternalism, 50 and retributivism, 59–60 and social morality, 47 and status, 109–110 expounded, 46–48
- legal paternalism, 4. See paternalism
- liberalism, 131–132
- Locke, John, 205
- mal prohibita* crimes, 126
- Mill, John Stuart and autonomy argument, 34–35 on classic argument for free expression, 181–188 on idea of a National Church, 192 on incitement to violence, 39 on individuality, 33 on Mormon practice of polygamy, 35 on self-regarding conduct, 16 on social learning argument, 33 statement of harm principle, 3
- Moore, G. E., 92
- Moore, Michael
 on presumption of liberty, 134
- morality and practices of accommodation, 160 narrow and broad, 5–6 social versus critical, 7–8
- national service programs, 208–209
- Nozick, Robert, 222
- overcriminalization, 212 and rule of law, 213–214
- paternalism critical versus volitional, 112 distributive argument for, 113–116 soft versus hard, 71–73 person-affecting restriction, 58
- personal sovereignty analogy to national sovereignty, 69 and autonomy, 137 and autonomy-protecting paternalism, 82

- and equal right to be free, 156
- and ownership control, 82
- and paternalism, 131
- and relation to harm principle, 69
- and self-binding, 79–80
- and self-respect, 83–85
- Feinberg on, 66
- Mill on, 65
- principle of, 67
- stringency of, 71
- persuasion principle, 177–178. See free expression
- polygamy, 35
- pornography, 58, 110, 141
 - and feminist argument against, 193–194
- pragmatism
 - and feasibility constraint, 200
 - and maxims, 200–201
- presumption in favor of liberty, 132–137
- principles, 16
 - and concessive facts, 18
 - and society-specific facts, 18
- Proast, Jonas, 205
 - and coercive habituation to the good, 211
 - and critique of Locke, 207
- prostitution, 12, 62, 205
 - and ethical environmentalism, 107
 - and Wolfenden Report, 44
- punishment, 1
 - and retributive theory of, 59–60
- Rawls, John, 97
- Raz, Joseph
 - on coercion and social convention, 148
 - on revisionist challenge to liberalism, 136
 - on value of autonomy, 141
- relational good, 100
- resonance requirement, 210
 - actual versus counterfactual view, 210–211
- responsibility
 - and distributive fairness, 118–121
 - framework and personal choice, 120
 - skepticism of, 118
- rights to do wrong
 - and free expression, 168
 - and looting example, 165
 - and nested rights, 164
 - choice-protecting and permission-protecting, 151
 - legal and moral, 152–154
 - paradoxical nature of, 150
- rule of law
 - and law on the books versus real law, 214
 - and overcriminalization, 213
 - not a master value, 215
 - predictability versus flexibility, 214
- Scanlon, T. M.
 - on free expression, 185
 - on hazardous waste case, 77
 - on impersonal values, 94
- self-binding contracts, 80
- self-regarding duties, 6,
 - and self-respect, 83–85
- Shiffrin, Seana
 - on accommodation, 160–161
- state neutrality, 14–15, 102–104
- Stephen, James Fitzjames, 34
- suicide, 4, 84–85
- Tadros, Victor
 - on impersonal goods, 123–124
- tradition
 - and creative pluralism, 222
 - characterized, 127
 - goods of, 128–129
- vigilantism, 218
- Volenti Maxim, 76
 - qualified version of, 77, 108–109
- voluntary slavery, 80–82, 136
- Waldron, Jeremy
 - on hate speech, 39–42, 194–195
 - on rights to do wrong, 163–167
- war on drugs, 199. See drug enforcement
- Wolfenden Report, 44
 - Devlin's objection to, 47