

INDEX

- active voice, 77
- adjectival groups, 93–5
- adverbs, 99
- affixes, 52–3
- allusions, 120
- Althusser, Louis, 263–4
- appearance, communication via, 124
- artefacts, communication via, 124
- Australian English phonemes and English spelling, 34–8
- auxiliary verbs, 86–7

- Barthes, Roland, 279
- bilingualism, 139
- body language, 123
- bound morphemes, 52
- Break it Down, Build it Up (BIDBIU) strategy, 206
- Bruner, Jerome, 188

- CALD
 - distinguished from EAL/D, 140–1, 142
 - place of concept in Australian educational context, 140–3
- CALD students
 - applying ELF concepts within literacy activities, 136
 - creative writing, 136–8
 - equitable approach to teaching of, 136
- Chomsky, Noam, 140
 - theory of language acquisition, 14–15
- circumstances (functional grammar)
 - in Australian Curriculum: English, 100
 - grammatical forms, 99–100
 - types, 98–9
- clauses
 - in Australian Curriculum: English
 - English, 102–4
 - defining relative clauses, 93
 - in functional grammar, 101
 - non-defining relative clauses, 93
 - types, 101
- cognitive development, role of gesture and movement in, 19–20
- cognitive function of language, 114
- communicative function of
 - language, 112–13
- communicative language teaching (CLT), 204–5
- comparative politeness strategies, 131
- concept maps, 169
- conjunctions, types, 102
- connotative meanings, 117
- Content, Layout, Organisation, Grammar/Lexis and Style (CLOGS) approach, 249
- critical literacy
 - debates over, 264–6
 - intertextual strategies, 279–82
 - strategies that align with Literacy general capability, 275–82
 - see also* Four Resources Model
- critical theory, 263–4
- culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD), see CALD

- defining relative clauses, distinguished from non-defining clauses, 93
- denotative meanings, 117
- derivational morphemes, 52
- developmental milestones, stages of
 - language development, 12–18
- diverse classrooms, nurturing
 - intercultural capacity for effective teaching, 145–6

- EAL/D
 - distinguished from CALD, 140–1, 142
 - place of concept in Australian educational context, 140–3

- EAL/D students
 - assessment of oracy, 207–9
 - Break it Down, Build it Up (BIDBIU), 206
 - communicative language teaching (CLT), 204–5
 - defined, 142
 - effective classroom strategies for, 146–7
 - NAPLAN results, 143
 - National Roadmap for English as an Additional Language or Dialect Education in Schools, 144
 - oracy, 206–7
 - relevance of ELF, 135
 - teaching writing to, 247–9
- Early Years Learning Framework (EYLF),
 - competencies for language acquisition, 24–6
- embedded clauses, 90–3
- English as an additional language or dialect (EAL/D), see EAL/D
- English as a lingua franca (ELF), 134–8
- English language
 - Australian English phonemes and English spelling, 34–8
 - Early Modern English, 56–7
 - Kachru's Circles of Englishes, 57
 - Late Modern English, 57
 - Middle English, 56
 - Old English, 55–6
 - Standard Australian English, 138–40
- etymology
 - in Australian Curriculum: English, 58–9
 - brief history of English language, 55–7
 - definition, 55
- eye gaze, communication via, 124
- facial expressions, communication via, 122
- factual recounts, 179–81
- feedback
 - on invented spelling, 45–7
 - on students' writing development, 255–7
- figures of speech, 117–21
- first-language oracy
 - assessment, 202–3
 - overview, 201–2
- flow charts, 169
- Foucault, Michel, 263
- Four Resources Model
 - application to critical reading of a text at secondary level, 271–2
 - original version, 266–8
 - reading and writing strategies for original and extended versions, 277–9
 - Serafini's expanded model for multimodal literacy, 272–5
 - subsequent versions, 268–71
- free morphemes, 52
- Freire, Paulo, 263–4
- functional grammar
 - in Australian Curriculum: English, 71–2
 - differences to traditional grammar, 81
 - overview, 78–81
 - participants and noun groups/adjectival groups, 88–98
 - processes and verb groups, 84–8
 - word groups, 81–4
- functions of language
 - cognitive function, 114
 - communicative function, 112–13
 - interactive function, 114
 - interpretive function, 113
 - overview, 111–12
 - personal function, 114
 - regulatory function, 113
- Funds of Knowledge, 136
- gender, in traditional grammar, 78
- generative grammar, 14
- genre families, 177–8
- gesture, role in children's learning and cognitive development, 19–20
- gestures, communication via, 122
- Giroux, Henry, 264
- Gradual Release of Responsibility, 189

- grammar
 - functional, see functional grammar
 - need for explicit teaching, 187
 - traditional, see traditional grammar
- grammatical morphemes, 52
- Grice's maxims of cooperation
 - for conversation, 127–8
 - violations of, 128–9
- Hall, Edward T., 125, 126
- Halliday, Michael, 78, 140, 188
- Hasan, Ruqaiya, 11–12
- hedging, 129
- high-context cultures, 125
- high-frequency words, 163–4
- Hymes, Dell, 140, 204
- hyperbole, 120
- idioms, 121
- implicature, 129
- inferencing, 225–6
- information reports, 183–5
- interactive function of language, 114
- intercultural capacity, nurturing for
 - effective teaching in diverse classrooms, 145–6
- intercultural pragmatics, group activities for students to experience, 130
- International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA), 38
- interpretive function of language, 73–5
- intertextuality, as critical literacy strategy, 279–82
- intransitive verbs, 77
- invented spelling
 - benefits of, 43–5
 - providing feedback on, 45–7
- Jenkins, Jennifer, 135
- Kristeva, Julia, 279
- language development
 - behaviourist model, 14–15
 - Chomsky's theory of language
 - acquisition, 14–15
 - developmental milestones and, 12–18
 - generative grammar, 14
 - impact of movement and gesture, 19
 - Piaget's theory of cognitive development, 12–14
 - relationship with motor development, 18–19
 - speech and, 10–12
 - universal grammar, 14
 - language use
 - context and, 111–17
 - context for, 114–16
 - cultural context for, 116
 - functions of language, see functions of language
 - linguistic context, 115–16
 - pragmatic aspects, 127–31
 - vocalic characteristics, 123
 - lexical morphemes, 52
 - literal language, 117–21
 - low-context cultures, 125–6
 - low-frequency words, 163–4
- McLaren, Peter, 264
- metaphors, 118
- morphemes
 - definition, 51
 - types, 52–3
- morphology
 - in Australian Curriculum: English, 58–9
 - in relation to system of language, 51–2
- motor development, relationship with language development, 18–19
- movement, role in children's learning and cognitive development, 19–20
- multilingualism, 139
- multimodal integrated strategies for teaching oracy, 211–15
- National Assessment Program – Literacy and Numeracy (NAPLAN), 43, 143
- National Literacy Learning Progression, 246

- National Roadmap for English as an
 - Additional Language or Dialect Education in Schools, 144
- nominalisation, 95–7
- non-defining relative clauses, distinguished
 - from defining relative clauses, 93
- non-linguistic resources for
 - meaning-making
 - and cultures in Australia, 126–7
 - typology, 121–4
 - use as context-sensitive cultural phenomenon, 124–7
- non-literal language, 117–21
- noun groups
 - circumstances realised by, 99–100
 - distinguished from adjectival groups, 94–5
 - nominalisation, 95–7
 - structure, 90
- nouns
 - pronouns, 90
 - types, 89
- number, in traditional grammar, 76
- onomatopoeia, 119
- oracy
 - in Australian Curriculum, 197–201
 - EAL/D students, 204–9
 - multimodal integrated strategies, 211–15
 - plurilinguals, 206–7
 - teaching strategies, 209–15
- oxymorons, 120
- paradoxes, 120
- paralinguistic features, communication
 - via, 123
- participants (functional grammar)
 - in Australian Curriculum: English, 97–8
 - grammatical forms, 89–97
 - types, 88–9
- passive voice, 77
- person category, in traditional grammar, 76
- personal function of language, 114
- personal space, 123
- personfication, 119
- phoneme-to-grapheme mapping
 - Australian English phonemes and English spelling, 34–8
 - sound-mapping irregularities in English, 35–6
- phonemic awareness
 - abilities, 32
 - as foundational skill, 31–3
 - importance in early literacy development, 33–4
- phonics
 - assessment methods, 42–3
 - for older learners, 40–2
 - resources for teaching, 42
 - support for teaching of, 39
 - teaching methods, 31, 39–40
- phonological awareness, 10
 - levels, 20
- Piaget, Jean, theory of cognitive
 - development, 12–14, 15
- plurilingualism, 139, 206–7
- pragmatics, 127
- prefixes, 52, 53–4
- prepositional phrases, 99
- procedural texts, 182–3
- processes
 - types in Australian Curriculum: English, 84–6
 - types in English, 84
- pronouns, 90
- punctuation
 - in Australian Curriculum: English, 106
 - types and uses, 104–6
- puns, 120–1
- reading
 - background knowledge, role of, 226
 - bottom-up processing, 222–4
 - conceptualisation of, 220–2
 - inferencing, 225–6
 - metacognition and, 225

- reading (cont.)
 - semantic proposition encoding, 224
 - simple view of, 227
 - skills disintinguished from
 - strategies, 229–30
 - stages of reading development, 227–8
 - syntactic parsing, 223–4
 - top-down processing, 224–6
 - word recognition, 222–3
- reading comprehension, teaching
 - strategies, 228–34
- regulatory function of language, 113
- scaffolding, 188–9
- Seidlhofer, Barbara, 135
- semantic proposition encoding, 224
- sentence structure
 - in Australian Curriculum:
 - English, 102–4
 - types of sentences, 102
- Serafini, Frank, 272
- Sheridan, Thomas, 198
- similes, 118
- Skinner, B. F., 14–15
- speech, language development and, 10–12
- speech acts, 129
- Standard Australian English, 138–40
- Structured Word Inquiry (SWI)
 - investigations, 65–7
 - key classroom activities, 61–7
 - as pedagogical technique, 59
 - research findings on, 60
 - word inquiry questions, 61
 - word matrices, 65
 - word sort activities, 61–3
 - word sums, 63–4
 - word webs, 63
- suffixes, 53, 54–5
- syllables
 - distinguishing parts of, 22–4
 - methods for teaching
 - syllabification, 21–4
 - phonological awareness and, 20–1
- syntactic parsing, 223–4
- systemic functional grammar/systemic
 - functional linguistics, see functional grammar
- Teaching and Learning Cycle
 - approach for teaching and learning of
 - language and literacy, 187–8
 - approach to teaching writing, 250–4
 - stages, 189–93
 - underpinning theories, 188–9
- tenses
 - in Australian Curriculum: English,
 - 87–8
 - in traditional grammar, 76
- texts
 - definition, 176–7
 - factual recounts, 179–81
 - information reports, 183–5
 - need for explicit teaching, 187
 - procedures, 182–3
 - types, in Australian Curriculum: English,
 - 185–7
- touch, communication via, 124
- traditional grammar
 - in Australian Curriculum: English, 71–2
 - categories, 73–8
 - differences to functional grammar, 81
 - gender, 78
 - grammatical items/function words,
 - 73, 74–5
 - lexical items/content words, 73–4
 - number category, 76
 - origins of, 72
 - parts of speech, 73–5
 - person category, 76
 - prescriptive role, 72–3
 - tenses, 76
 - voice, 77
 - word classes, 73–5
- transitive verbs, 77
- universal grammar, 14

- verb groups
 - in Australian Curriculum: English, 87
 - structure of, 85–6
- verbs
 - auxiliary verbs, 86–7
 - intransitive verbs, 77
 - tenses, 76
 - transitive verbs, 77
- vocabulary
 - challenges of learning English
 - vocabulary, 156–60
 - complexity of learning, 156–63
 - deliberate learning, 164
 - developing English vocabulary, 160–3
 - high-frequency words, 163–4
 - incidental learning, 164
 - integrating self-regulated vocabulary
 - learning strategies into teaching, 171–2
 - learning strategies, 164–5
 - low-frequency words, 163–4
 - strategies/activities for teaching, 168
 - teaching high-frequency vocabulary, 166–9
 - technical vocabulary teaching strategies, 168–9
 - types of vocabulary, 163–4
- voice, in traditional grammar, 77
- Vygotsky, Lev, 188
- word classes, 73–5
- word groups, in functional grammar, 81–4
- word inquiry questions, 61
- word matrices, 65
- word recognition, 222–3
 - assessment methods, 42–3
- word sort activities, 61–3
- word sums, 63–4
- word webs, 63, 169
- writing
 - CLOGS approach, 249
 - demands in schooling, 241–4
 - elemental genres in primary school, 242
 - feedback on students' writing, 255–7
 - stages of development, 244–7
 - Teaching and Learning Cycle
 - approach, 250–4
 - teaching strategies, 249–55
 - teaching to EAL/D students, 247–9
- writing systems, 241
- Zone of Proximal Development, 188