

Index

- Ackerman, Frank, 26, 69
 agencification, 115, 160–170
 affinities with Soviet planning, 163–167 formal criteria for, 161–163 performance of, 165–169 rejection of, 170
 Austrian school, 16, 95–101
 critique of Soviet planning, 37 disputes with neoclassical economics, 23, 55 knowledge, theory of, 107 axiomatic deduction, 12–16, 29–34, 74, 79, 133, 274
- Blair, Tony
 Iraq war, 336
 shift to New Labour, 130, 193, 330, 334, 336, 342, 360
 Bockman, Johanna, 24, 36, 58
 Brexit
 affinities with ‘developed socialism’, 345, 355, 388 referendum decision, 343–348 social structure of the Brexit vote, 352–354
 utopianism of, 119, 330–332, 339–343, 350–352, 387
 Vote Leave campaign, 330–332, 345–352, 373
 Vote Remain campaign, 345, 349–350
 Brezhnev, Leonid
 Brezhnevite tendencies in neoliberalism, 153, 270, 283, 327–370
 ‘Era of Stagnation’, 3, 142 neo-traditionalism, turn to, 68
 Bronk, Richard, 6, 10, 28, 118, 369
- Brown, Gordon, 130, 194, 250
 Buchanan, James, 81, 85–87, 98–101, 227 bureaucracy
 Leninist critique of, 88–91
 as necessary feature of modernity, 102 neoliberal practice, 371 public choice critique of, 79–93, 118–120
 Weberian, rational-legal view, 101–104
 Burke, Edmund, 79, 376
- Cameron, David
 lack of new ideas under, 341–342 political challenges facing, 329, 339, 350 reasoning on Europe, 343–345
 Carillion, the collapse of, 146, 151–153 circular economy, 390 climate breakdown, 272–273, 321, 391 climate policy carbon accounting, 303–305
 carbon budgets, 288, 291, 294–296, 303–305 carbon taxes, 310–317, 322
 Climate Change Act, 290–292, 297, 305, 306
 Climate Change Committee, 295–296, 304
 Climate Change Levy, 311–312
 Climate Change Risk Assessments, 284–287, 305–306
 Environmental Protection Agency, 318

- EU Emissions Trading Scheme, 316–317
- forecasting, 2, 275, 280–288, 303–306, 313–314
- Levy Control Framework, 313–316
- neoclassical economic theories behind, 275–288
- regulatory regime, 307–310
- subsidies, 318–320
- Task Force on Climate-Related Risks, 298–299
- utopianism of, 287–288, 320–323
- closed-system versus open-system reasoning (explained), 8–19, 28–36, 52
- Cold War, 23, 51–52, 80, 89
- Commonwealth, The, 355
- communism, 4, 40, 47, 60, 64, 89, 90, 243, 328, 361, 385
 - last stage of socialism, as, 95, 118, 355
- Communist Party of the Soviet Union
 - ideological decay of, 46–48, 331, 340–341
 - Menshevism versus Bolshevism, 38, 345
 - revolutionary ‘leading role’, 15, 89–90
- Conservative Party and conservatism
 - One-Nation, 341, 356–358
 - post-war, 79, 173
 - Thatcherism, 109–120, 174, 332–334, 341–345, 354, 360, 362–363
 - versus reality, 355–363
- contract theory, 137–139, 148, 182–189, 198
- Corbyn, Jeremy, 329–330
- corruption, 363–368
 - corporate state capture, 265–266, 364–368
 - Covid-19 procurement, 152
- Covid-19 pandemic, 359–360
- critical realism, 4–15, 28–30, 32–33, 105
- Crouch, Colin, 283, 368
- Cummings, Dominic, 348–349, 380–381
- determinism, the problem of, 15–16, 49, 52, 391
 - in neoclassical economics, 34–35, 59
 - in Soviet economics, 37–40
- Devolution Act, The, 336
- devolved powers in
 - Northern Ireland, 249, 289
 - Scotland, 289, 336
 - Wales, 289, 336
- dirigisme, French, 77–78
- Dunleavy, Patrick, 91–92
- economic constitution, the ideal
 - contrast with liberal democratic ideal, 93
 - Hayek, in, 95–98
 - in Leninist thought, 93–95
 - public choice theory, in, 98–101
- education policy
 - Academy programme, history of, 190–197
 - accountability, legal and parental, 179, 195, 197, 208–213, 216–217
 - Camp 2 neoclassical policy, as, 175–178, 180
 - education finance, 200–207
 - Education Funding Agency, 207–214
 - Local Education Authorities, 189–190, 215
 - Multi-Academy Trusts, 198–199, 204–207, 218
 - quasi-markets in education, theory of, 175–189
 - Regional School Commissioners, 213, 218
 - regulatory instability in, 207–214
 - related-party payments, 187, 204–206, 219
 - Soviet affinities in, 184–187, 197, 210, 217–220
- Ellman, Michael, 37, 41, 46, 67
- Empire, the British, 262, 354–355
- epistemological uncertainty, 10–12, 34, 278
- epistemology, the problem of, 4–20, 37–45, 48
- European Union, 3, 84, 224, 344, 347, 353, 354, 374

- Fama, Eugene, 277–279
 Financial Crisis, the Global, 24, 258–259, 271, 277–281, 283, 292, 321, 329, 338, 343
 financial sector, the, 73, 234, 242, 247, 257–259, 262, 284, 292, 297–301, 328
 firms agency theory of, 237–242
 corporate governance, 145, 154, 158, 237–242, 254–256, 329, 336
 financialisation of, 146, 154, 157, 159, 237–244, 253–256, 260, 309, 329, 368–369, 388
 index firms, passive, 240–242, 280
 maximisation of shareholder value, 145, 154, 237–242, 254, 297 monopoly, 77, 79, 82–85, 91–92, 110, 130, 135, 139, 146,
 154–157, 160, 206, 369
 monopsony, 135, 390
 oligopoly, 135, 139, 244, 300
 public service industry firms, 140–153, 188, 359
 small and medium sized, 136, 245, 269, 270
 Fleetwood, Steven, 105, 181
 forgetting, organised, 105–109, 133, 181, 218
- Gove, Michael, 194–195, 213–214, 218, 348, 378
 governing science, 3
- Hannan, Daniel, 348, 350
 Havel, Vaclav, 362, 377, 382
 Hayek, Friedrich August von ideal constitution, on the, 95–100, 112
 philosophy of knowledge, on the, 37, 55, 57, 173, 275–277
 utopianism in thought, 109, 119, 334, 345
 Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, 150, 263–269
 heterodox economics (Camp 3), 32–33, 75, 109, 113, 223, 225, 329
 historical institutionalism, 18 hypothetical deduction. See scientific method, the
- imagination as disruptive social fact, 11, 119, 328, 337, 384
 individualism neoliberal subject, the, 28, 49, 110, 118–119, 332, 372, 375–379
 Soviet subject, the, 48, 375–379 inequality, social, 9, 219, 329, 335, 360, 363
 innovation failures in neoliberal practice, 115, 142, 165, 224, 230, 235, 244, 253, 257, 263
 in Soviet practice, 45, 47, 64, 65, 149, 164
 insurance and insurable risk, 284 investment performance in neoliberal practice, 134, 145, 154, 157–159, 169,
 174–175, 201, 238–242,
 252–259, 261–265, 270,
 300–303, 315, 317, 320,
 365, 371
 performance in Soviet economy, 62–68
 theoretical challenge, as a, 46, 54, 109, 113, 172, 184, 188,
 221–224, 228–237, 279, 286,
 307, 332, 380
- Johnson, Boris
 affinities with late-Soviet rule, 373–381, 387
 Brexit, role in, 349
 function for the Conservative Party, 356–358, 360–362
 institutional vandalism of, 4, 151, 359, 367–368, 381
 policy direction, 296, 329
- Kant, Immanuel, 7, 38
 Kantorovich, Leonid, 65–66
 Keynesian economics, 71, 77, 82,
 85, 232, 235, 266, 275–277,
 279, 347
 Khrushchev, Nikita, 61–65, 149, 360, 364
 Kołakowski, Leszek, 43, 384–385,
 389, 391
 Kornai, Janos, 44–46, 140–144, 149
 Kosygin, Alexei, 63, 149, 281

- Kuhn, Thomas
 ‘Kuhn losses’, 108, 270, 284 normal scientific progress, on, 108 paradigm shifts in science, 5–7
 Kwarteng, Kwasi, 351, 362–363
- Labour Party, the, 193, 329–330, 334–335
- law, the rule of, 83, 96, 246, 248, 359
- Lawson, Tony, 29–34, 52
- Lazonick, William, 133, 253, 270
- Le Grand, Julian, 177–181, 183, 185–187, 192–194, 204, 207, 209
- Lenin, Vladimir Ilyich, and Leninism ‘bad philosopher’, as, 38–44 bureaucracy, on, 88–91, 113 circular reasoning in, 45, 52, 59–61, 100, 107, 115, 118, 122, 170–171, 246, 381 cult of, 362
 democracy in socialism, on, 349 leading role of the party, on the, 14–15 liberal democracy, on, 104 nationalism, and, 339–341 ontology and epistemology of, 1–3, 38–44, 49, 59–61, 171–172, 282 religious qualities of, 94–95, 383–385, 391 socialist revolution, on the, 339–341 ‘withering away of the state’, on the, 79, 93–95
- Leontief, Wassily, 65, 232–233
- Liberal Party, the, 335–336
- Lucas, Robert, 111, 277–281
- Mair, Peter, 333, 336
- Major, John, 249, 289, 341
- Marx, Karl, 89, 171, 348, 383
 Leninism, contrasts with, 14, 37, 40, 43, 47, 349, 381, 384 tensions within his writings, 38
- mathematics, limitations of, 17, 25–36, 64, 74–75, 119, 231, 276–277, 282, 381
- May, Theresa, 194, 294, 329, 336, 356–357
- McDonnell, John, 269, 329
- Michnik, Adam, 328, 348, 378–379
- Milosz, Czesław, 376–377
- Mirowski, Philip, 26, 28, 30
- models, nature of economic, 10, 70–72, 105–109, 221, 229, 236, 271, 278
- movement regimes, 388
- Muth, John, 277–281
- nationalism
 deployment in neoliberal practice, 113, 342–343, 350, 357 deployment in Soviet practice, 339–341 nationalist in form, libertarian in content, 349, 352–355, 387 nationalist in form, socialist in content, 340
- neoclassical economic theory
 Camp 1 (first-best world) defined, 32–36
 Camp 2 (second-best world) defined, 32–36
 closed-system reasoning in, 24–36 competition, concepts of, 27, 35–36, 49, 53–58, 80, 133–136, 175–176 computational general equilibrium (CGE) models, 232–236, 241, 256–257 dynamic stochastic general equilibrium (DSGE) models, 72, 232, 236, 242 efficient markets hypothesis (EMH), 240, 277–284, 300–301 general equilibrium, 27, 51–76, 100, 105, 112, 172, 221–237, 243, 279, 335, 366, 391 market failures, 16, 32–36, 82, 101, 133, 137–139, 147, 192, 223, 224, 288, 292, 334, 386 partial equilibrium, 106, 227 physics, metaphors from, 25–27, 29, 70, 75, 82 rational expectations, 111, 236, 277–284 rationality, 2, 23–36, 48, 79, 82, 90, 117, 118, 127, 137–138, 278, 288, 334, 372 representative agent, 71–72, 91, 231, 236

- neoclassical economic theory (cont.)
 - risk, calculable and incalculable, 275–277, 284
 - Sonnenschein, Mantel and Debreu, 69–70
 - time, logical versus historical, 29, 53, 62, 118, 310, 363, 381
- neoliberalism, the emergence of, 16–19, 75, 84, 110–114, 118–120, 222, 275, 283, 328, 332–339, 373
- New Public Management (NPM) in theory, 114–117, 127–131
- Niskanen, William, 81–82, 85, 88–93, 111, 116, 171
- ontological indeterminacy, 29, 34, 278
- ontology, the problem of, 4–16, 29, 107
- ordoliberalism, 18, 23, 77
- Osborne, George, 131, 256, 292–294, 313–315, 342, 345
 - austerity, 153, 170, 214, 262, 292, 329, 339
- outsourcing, 127–153
 - contract, problems of, 137–140, 182–189
 - coordination failures in, 116, 218
 - factors missing in the theory of, 133–137, 181–182, 270
 - high costs of, 131–133, 200–207
 - increased uses of, 128–131, 170, 337
 - Soviet-type pathologies in, 140–153, 184–187
 - state capacity, loss of, 220
 - Strategic Suppliers, 144–145
- Pareto, Vilfredo, 15, 47, 55, 56, 73
- Paris Climate Agreement, 273, 294, 305
- party system change
 - cartel parties, 333
 - catch-all parties, 332, 339
 - corporate brokerage parties, 368
 - democratic functions of, 93, 118, 335–339, 342–343, 372
 - mass parties, 333
- Polan, Anthony, 44, 375, 391
- Prague Spring, the, 68
- privatisation
 - affinities with Soviet planning, 154
 - financialisation in privatised utilities, 157–160
 - regulatory failures in, 156–160, 318
 - tensions in theory of, 128, 153–157
- procedural formalism, 287, 303–307
- public choice theory, development of, 79–88, 101, 107, 112, 117–120, 171, 187, 338
- racism, institutional, 165–166, 333, 374
- regulatory competition, 222, 227, 263–269
- regulatory drift, 365
- regulatory rule, one-in-three-out, 307–310
- religion, neoliberal and Soviet affinities with, 94, 100, 383–385
- rentier state, 3, 82, 84, 153, 188, 369, 388
- Republican Party, 342, 361
- scientific method, the, 11–16, 48, 104, 108, 172, 321, 332, 369, 375–381
- Scottish National Party, 336
- Shackle, George, 10, 373
- Single European Market, 223, 330, 344, 346, 387
- Smith, Adam, 25, 111, 275
- socialist calculation debate, 37, 54–55, 232
- Soviet central planning
 - balanced plan, 51–52, 59–76
 - closed-system reasoning in, 13–16, 36–50, 59–76, 115, 118, 154
 - corruption, 47, 270, 364
 - cybernetics, 63–68, 74, 234, 281–284, 381
 - developmental achievements, 45
 - evolution of, 37–47, 95, 220, 283
 - hoarding, 46, 63
 - information problems, 36, 44–51, 63–72, 166, 210, 282
 - innovation, weaknesses of, 45–47, 163
 - input-output planning, 65–69, 221, 232–236
 - linear programming, 65–68, 282
 - material balances, 62, 65, 67

- New Economic Mechanism, 63
 New Economic Policy, 42 perverse incentives in, 153, 167, 184–187 rationality requirement in, 2, 44–46, 50, 90, 116–118, 372, 391 shadow economy, 242, 364 soft-budget constraints, 140–145
 Stalin, Joseph, and Stalinism economic strategies, 2, 15, 42–45, 47, 49, 52, 59–63, 118, 163 experts, on, 151, 378
 politics of, 47, 334, 351, 386
 Starmer, Keir, 330
 Stewart, Rory, 358
 Sunak, Rishi, 302–303, 363, 375, 387
- tax policy corporate tax rates, 221
 corporate taxation regime, evolution of, 248–252 investment, in theory and practice, 227, 229–230, 232–248, 252–259 macroeconomic models, problems of, 231–236, 256–259, 271 neoclassical theories of tax competition, 222–237 regulatory bargaining, Soviet, 270 regulatory laxity, 246–247, 265–269
- tax havens, 59, 234, 242–245, 247, 251, 263–265, 329
 Tiebout hypothesis, 31–32, 225–227
 Thatcher, Margaret. See Conservative Party and Conservatism: Thatcherism think tanks, 110–111, 215, 242 transaction costs, theory of, 137–138, 168, 183, 345
 Treasury, Her Majesty's, 120, 234, 252, 257, 265–266, 269, 270, 292–293, 307–310, 313–314, 315
 Truss, Liz, 329, 351, 363, 368, 370, 383, 387–388
- United Kingdom Independence Party (UKIP), 344–347
 utilitarianism, 26–27
 utopia, definition of, 123
- Vujačić, Veljko, 339–341, 356, 363
- Weber, Max, 101–104, 129, 161–162, 170, 365 welfare state, 85, 92–93, 335 post-war era, 84, 174, 332 quasi-markets, 175–189 social investment state, 174
 Windrush scandal, 165–166