

Contents

List of Figures	page xv
Prologue	1
1 Introduction: The Century of Constitutions	4
The Proliferation of Constitutions	6
Why All These Constitutions?	9
Looking Over the Horizon	11
The Imagined World of Law	14
Empiricism of Imagination	15
What Kind of Imagined Worlds Are We Talking About?	16
The Perspectives and Worlds in This Book	17
Making Facts: Performative Expressions	18
The Peculiarities of Legal Scholarship	20
The Power of Evidence	23
The Story of Constitutions	25
Who Is This Book For?	27
PART I CONSTITUTIONAL DIFFUSION	31
2 Constitutions Everywhere	33
A By-product of Waves of Democratisation?	34
Democratic Recession	36
Riding the High Billows of the World Market?	38
Nature or Nurture?	39
A Silent Legal Revolution?	41
Memes?	42
3 The Origin of Constitutions	44
Who Are ‘We’?	45
The Leap over Dunbar’s Number	49

	Everything Is about Trust	51
	Increasing Scale	51
	How Does Trust Work?	53
	The Eternal Struggle for Recognition	56
	Ostracism	57
	Knowing Your Place	59
	Recognition and Value	59
	Recognition and Freedom	62
	From Recognition to Legitimacy	64
	The Invention of Mass Cooperation	65
	PART II THE HISTORY OF THE CONSTITUTION	69
4	Precursors	71
	Religion	71
	Prehistoric Constitutions	75
5	Etched into Collective Memory: Ancient Constitutions	82
	The Twelve Tables	83
	Greece	85
	Deros and Draco	87
	The Solonian Constitution	88
	Aristotle	91
	Plato and Wisdom as a Source of Law and Government	95
6	Roman Roots	98
	The Roman Legal Order	100
	The First Thousand Years of Roman Law	101
7	Mediaeval Constitutions	104
	The Virtual Empire	105
	Commentaries and the First Universities	107
	Grants of Authority: Magna Carta, Bulls, Charters and Joyous Entries	108
	Late Mediaeval Period and Early Modern Period	114
	Centralisation	114
	Legal Humanism	115
8	Early-Modern Constitutions	118
	The State as a By-product?	120
	The Enlightenment	121
	Sectoral Autonomy and Self-determination: The State	123
	Social Contract	123
	Individuality and Individual Freedom	126

Contents		xi
	The Influence of the Philosophes	128
	Fundamental Orders and Government Instruments	129
9	Generations: The First Generation of Monarchical Constitutions	131
10	Second Generation: Revolutionary Constitutions	133
	Revolutionary Constitutions: A New Beginning	138
11	Third Generation: Restoration Constitutions	141
	A Series of Constitutional Monarchies	145
	Innovative Restoration	145
	Meanwhile in Norway...	147
12	Fourth Generation: Liberal Constitutions	150
	1848: A New Social Order. The Ascent of Parliaments	150
	Rise of Nations	152
13	Fifth Generation: Imperial Constitutions	155
	1870–1914: Global Empires and Imperial Constitutions	155
	Italian Risorgimento	156
	German Unification	157
	The Spanish, French and Russian Global Empires	160
14	Sixth Generation: Leviathan Constitutions	162
	1918–1939: The Democratic-Corporatist Constitutions of the Interwar Period	165
	1917–1945: Socialist Influences	167
15	The Seventh Generation: Liberation Constitutions	169
	1945–1950: Allied Gifts of Freedom	171
	1950–1960: Communist Constitutions	174
	1960–1970: Post-colonial Constitutions	175
	1974–1978: Post-dictatorial Constitutions	177
16	The Eighth Generation: Liberal-Democratic Constitutions	180
	The Fall of the Berlin Wall: Constitutions 1989–2018	183
	Democracy Without Freedom: The Rise of Illiberal Democracy	184
	Islamic Constitutions	188
	Constitutions That Are Not State-Based?	190
	Multi-layered Legal Orders	192
17	What Are the Lessons of History?	193

	PART III CONCEPTS, SHAPES AND TYPES OF CONSTITUTIONS	201
18	What Is a Constitution?	203
	Constitution, Constitutional Rules: What Is in a Name?	204
	The Meaning of Constitution	205
	Rules with a Higher Status	205
	Constitutional Entrenchment by Way of Complex Amendment Procedures	206
	The Constitution as a Legal Obligation	209
	The Constitution as a Creation	210
	Approaches to Constitutional Law	215
	The Belief in Constitutionalism	216
	Shapes, Sizes and Types	218
	Constitutional Archetypes and a Universalist International Constitution	219
19	Constitutional Kinship	221
	Coefficient of Relationship	223
	Which Topics Are Most Common?	225
	Convergence?	227
	Global Constitutions?	231
	Wishful Thinking?	233
	Constitutional Identity	234
	PART IV EFFECTS	237
20	What Does a Constitution Do?	239
21	The Legal Meaning of Constitutions	241
	Confusing Fields of Law	241
	Fruits of a Constitution: Creating a Legal System	244
	Effectiveness?	246
	Constitutional Performance	247
	Sham Constitutions	249
	Endurance	250
	The Dead Should Not Govern the Living	251
	Age Matters	252
	The Self-enforcing Constitution	254
22	Economic Aspects	258
	The Constitution as a Condition	260
	The Constitution as a Factor	263
	Transaction Costs	264
	Tiebreaker?	265

	Contents	xiii
	The Constitution as a Catalyst	266
	An Echo Chamber of Freedom?	267
23	Political Aspects	270
	Friends?	270
	Constitutional Game Theory	273
	The Minimax Constitution	274
	Constitutional Architecture for Divided Societies	278
	Bridging Differences	278
	Constitutional Formulae	280
	PART V THE IMAGINED ORDER OF THE CONSTITUTION	281
24	The Constitution's Beating Heart: Emotions	283
	A Late Session	287
	Cognitive Science and the Keys of Human Nature	290
	Emotional Rationality	293
	Imagined Reality – The Construction of Social Reality	294
25	The Roots of the Tree of Knowledge	296
	Via Emotions and Sentiments to Morality	296
	Rules of Recognition	300
	The Elegant Simplicity of Positive Law	300
	Does Natural Law Exist?	302
	Universal Morality?	306
	The Golden Rule	307
	Morality under Hume's Guillotine	308
	Are Constitutional Rules Reflections of Basic Morality?	310
26	Constitutions as Vehicles for Legitimacy	311
27	The Story of the Constitution	314
	Storytellers	314
	The Constitution: A Compelling Story	316
	Justice	318
	The Story of the Constitution	319
28	Appealing to the Imagination: Constitutional Experience	322
	Text	324
	Wordiness	326
	Preambles	327
	Happy and Sad Constitutions	329
	A Picture Is Worth a Thousand Words	330

Iconography	331
Grand Oaths and Mutual Trust	334
Constitutional Rituals and Constitutional Patriotism	336
29 Once upon a Time ... There Was the Constitution	340
Why Are There So Many Constitutions?	342
References	347
Name & Author Index	375
Subject Index	379