

Contents

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|
| Foreword | page vii |
| List of Abbreviations | xiii |
| 1 Introduction | 1 |
| 2 Interstate Uses of Force, Tensions and Restraints by Regions since World War II | 15 |
| 3 Interstate Uses of Force, Tensions and Restraints during Major Phases of International Relations since World War II | 33 |
| 4 Incentives to the Interstate Uses of Force and Restraints | 54 |
| 5 Historical Evolution of Norms and Other Means to Restrain the Use of Force | 87 |
| 6 Overview of Disincentives to and Restraints on the Interstate Use of Force | 107 |
| 7 Military Strength to Deter Others from Using Force | 116 |
| 8 Nuclear and Other Non-conventional Weapons and Means as Deterrents and Threats | 126 |
| 9 Disarmament as Restraint on the Use of Force | 144 |
| 10 Preventing the Interstate Use of Force by Preventing or Solving Conflicts: Mediation, Arbitration, Fact-finding, Diplomacy | 152 |
| 11 Restraints on the Interstate Use of Force through Legal Norms | 170 |

| | | |
|----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 12 | UN Charter Articles Relating to the Use of Force | 184 |
| 13 | The Security Council May Use or Authorize States or Regional Organizations to Use Force | 198 |
| 14 | The Right to Individual and Collective Self-Defence as an Exception to Art. 2:4 | 205 |
| 15 | Interventions Triggered by Factors Unforeseen at the Adoption of the Charter's Ban on the Interstate Use of Force | 212 |
| 16 | Interventions Seeking Regime Change, Protection of People or Punishment | 240 |
| 17 | Findings Regarding the Role of Norms to Restrain the Interstate Use of Force | 256 |
| 18 | States are Saying Farewell to Wars | 270 |
| | Bibliography | 297 |
| | Index | 307 |