

Index

- ACORN. See Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now
- activists, in Tea Party movement, 65–72. See also early activists; specific groups
- demographics for, 68, 69–70
- sample size for, 68
- January 6 insurrection and, 195–196
- membership trends for, 67
- political views of, 69
- Republican Party and
- as distinct identity, 71
- distrust of, 70–72
- transactional nature of relationship between, 71, 72
- self-reported, 66
- size estimation for, 72–75
- comparisons with other social movements, 75
- with survey data, 73
- at Tax Day rallies, 72, 91, 92
- through website listings, 74–75
- supporters compared to, 65–66
- surveys for, 66–67
- American National Election Survey, 75
- on self-reported activism, 66
- at Tax Day rallies, 72, 91, 92
- theoretical approach to, 64–65
- during 2010 Republican primaries, 154–157
- Affordable Care Act. See Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act
- AFP. See Americans for Prosperity
- Age of Austerity, 198
- American Family Association, 60–61
- American Liberty Alliance, 4, 43
- American National Election Survey (ANES), 31–32, 75
- American Recovery and Investment Act, US (2009), 34, 36, 43
- Americans for Prosperity (AFP), 4, 18, 21, 27, 47, 60–61. See also FreedomWorks
- chapter activity, 53, 118
- as grassroots coalition, 27
- Koch family involvement in, 27–28
- Americans for Tax Reform (ATR), 21
- Norquist and, 22–23, 131
- Taxpayer Protection Pledge, 22–23
- ANES. See American National Election Survey
- Arab Spring protests, 18
- Armey, Dick, 47
- Aryan Nations, 64
- Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now (ACORN), 33–34
- Astroturf movement, Tea Party as, 5, 11
- test-marketed groups, 42–44
- ATR. See Americans for Tax Reform
- Bachman, Michelle, 5–6, 146, 162. See also Tea Party Caucus
- Beck, Glenn, 45, 59–61
- Biden, Joe, 194
- birth and emergence, of insurgency. See also fragility of Tea Party insurgency; political legacy; Tax Day rallies; trajectory
- amplification of messaging, 44–46
- by Fox News, 44–46
- through media attention, 45

- birth and emergence, of insurgency. (cont.)
 analysis of, 62–63
 community contexts for, 48–56
 demographics in, 53–54
 for early riser groups, 49–50
 local conditions as variable for, 54–56
 measurement variables, 51–54
 spatial distribution of early mobilization, 50–51
 Tax Day rallies, 49–50
 conceptual approach to, 40–41 early activist facilitators, 42–48 characteristics of, 56–62
 through coordinated events, 42–44
 material threats as variable for, 52
 through online mobilization, 46–48
 political context for, 53
 status threats as variable for, 52–53
 test-marketed Astroturf groups, 42–44
 early riser groups, 61–62
 community contexts for, 49–50
 membership counts for, 62
 methodological approach to, 41
 mobilization during online, 46–48
 spatial distribution of, 50–51 perfect interpretive moment in, 41–42 birtherism, birther conspiracy and, 171, 176–180
 racism as foundation of, 176–178
 Black Lives Matter movement, 13, 199 bloc recruitment, in social movements, 149–150 blogs, blogging and Classic Tea Party cluster, 140, 141, 143, 144
 in collective action research design, 214
 Conservative Positioning cluster, 140
 evolution of, 135–136
 Political Events and Legal Processes cluster, 140, 142, 143
 population of bloggers, 138–139
 temporal trends for, 136–138, 142, 143–144
 Trumpism in, 174–176, 178–179, 181–183, 187–188
 Boehner, John, 177
 Branch Davidians, 64
 Brooks, Mo, 194
 Bush, George W., 29
 bank bailouts under, 34
 Emergency Economic Stabilization Act, 34
 Cassidy, Bill, 162
 Cavuto, Neil, 45
 CBO. See Congressional Budget Office
 Citizens for a Sound Economy, 27–28
 civil disobedience, at Tax Day rallies, 58
 CNN, 44, 93
 collective action frames, 130 economic grievances, 197–199 material and status threats and, 197–199 collective action research design, for Tea Party insurgency, 203–218 blogs in, 214
 for group chapters, 208–211
 consolidation of duplicate groups, 209–210 estimation of chapter size, 211
 geocoding of locations, 210 group identification, 209 sample date for, 208–209
 through internet surveys, 215–216 for IRS filing by groups, 211–212 media coverage in, 217
 through qualitative interviews of leaders, 217 social media posts, 214–215
 for Tax Day rallies, 212–214
 through newspaper coverage, 213–214
 through website listings, 212–213
 for Tea Party events, 204–208 duplicate event identification, 207–208 event type coding, 206–207 geocoding of, 207 newspaper data, 204–206 online event samples, 206 community contexts, for early insurgency, 48–56
 demographics in, 53–54
 for early riser groups, 49–50
 local conditions as variable for, 54–56
 for local Tea Party groups, 123–126
 congressional representation and, 126
 Republican Party vote share, 125
 variable conditions for, 54–56
 measurement variables, 51–54
 spatial distribution of early mobilization, 50–51
 Tax Day rallies, 49–50
 for Tea Party groups, 113
 Competitive Enterprise Institute, 33–34
 Congress, US. See House of Representatives Congressional Budget Office (CBO), 1–2, 34 consensus mobilization, of White Christian conservatives, 21–28 action mobilization from, 21

Index

241

- through conservative media echo chambers, 25–26
 - Fox News, 25–26
- through elite-driven economic policies, 22–24
- against government spending policies, 24–25
- through grassroots coalitions, 26–28
- rich people’s movements and, 22–23
 - leadership of, 22
 - Mellon Plan, 22
 - origins of, 23
 - policy scope of, 23
 - success rates of, 22–23
- through tax revolt, 22–24
- against “undeserving” Black poor, 24–25
 - racialization of poverty, 25
- conservative media, 26. See also Fox News as echo chamber, 25–26
- Obama election and, 26
- conservative movement, role of Tea Party in, 133–134
- Contract with America, 200
- counter-protests, at Tax Day rallies, 58
- CPAC Convention (2011), 176–180
- Cruz, Ted, 181, 182–183

- Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program, 191
- demobilization, of Tea Party, 13, 20. See also discursive demobilization
 - analysis of, 196–197
 - from fragility of insurgency, 35
- discursive demobilization, of Tea Party
 - analysis of, 144–145
 - in blogs
 - Classic Tea Party cluster, 140, 141, 143, 144
 - Conservative Positioning cluster, 140
 - evolution of, 135–136
 - Political Events and Legal Processes cluster, 140, 142, 143
 - population of bloggers, 138–139
 - temporal trends for, 136–138, 142, 143–144
 - in conservative movement, 133–134
 - after election of Obama, 129
 - evolution of, 135–144
 - of content, 136–138
 - for framing of insurgency, 139–144
 - through social media posts, 135–136
 - trajectory in, 136–138
 - framing of insurgency, 129–135
 - analysis of, 134–135
 - collective action frames and, 130
 - evolution of, 139–144
 - role of discursive niche, 130–131
 - as social movement, 129–130
 - Great Recession as influence on, 129
 - ideological diversity as element of, 134
 - methodological approach to, 135–136
 - perfect interpretive moment and, 129–135
 - status threats and, 133
 - strategy of, 131–133
 - Gingrich as influence on, 132
 - patriotic messaging in, 133
 - theoretical approach to, 128–129
 - discursive niche, 130–131
 - distributional justice, perceptions of, 115
 - DontGo movement, 4, 43, 60–61

 - early activists, during birth of insurgency, 42–48
 - characteristics of, 56–62
 - through coordinated events, 42–44
 - material threats as variable for, 52–53
 - through online mobilization, 46–48
 - political context for, 53
 - status threats as variable for, 52–53
 - test-marketed Astroturf groups, 42–44
 - early days of insurgency. See birth and emergence
 - early riser groups, 61–62. See also specific groups
 - community contexts for, 49–50
 - membership counts for, 62
 - economic grievances, as predictor of collective action, 197–199
 - EIN. See Employer Identification Number
 - elder populations, during Great Recession, 69
 - older workers, 29–30
 - elections. See also 2010 midterm elections; 2010 Republican primaries; 2012 presidential election; 2016 presidential election; 2020 presidential election
 - mobilization of social movements through, 150–151
 - elite facilitators, of the Tea Party, 5. See also Americans for Prosperity; DontGo movement; FreedomWorks; Smart Girl Politics
 - emergence of insurgency. See birth and emergence
 - Emergency Economic Stabilization Act, US (2008), 34
 - Emotion Intensity Lexicon, 108

- Employer Identification Number (EIN), IRS and, 82
- ethnonationalism, 173–174
- Farenthold, Blake, 162–163
- Federal Election Commission (FEC), 152–153
- federal spending policies, Tea Party philosophy toward, 4–5
- federated form of mobilization, 76–77
- financial resources, of local groups, 84–86
 income levels and, 85
 operating expenses as element of, 85–86
- fiscal responsibility, as Tea Party foundational principle, 2
- Florida Tea Party, 43
- focal independent variables, for mobilization, 52
- foreclosures. See housing foreclosure crisis
- Fox News
 during birth of insurgency, 44–46
 as conservative echo chamber, 25–26
 increased audiences for, 93
 Tax Day rallies on, 59–61
- fragility of Tea Party insurgency, 34–38 demobilization as result of, 35
 in issue salience, 36–37
 American Recovery and Reinvestment Act and, 36 election of Obama as existential threat, 36 in organizational structure, 35–36 professional of social movements, 35–36 relationship with Republican Party and, 37–38
 as blended hybrid formation, 37
 as hostile takeover, 38
 through political integration, 37–38
 as political watchdog, 38
- framing perspectives, for Tea Party, 7
- FreedomWorks, 1–2, 4, 5, 12, 65, 117. See also collective action research design as early Astroturf group, 43
 as grassroots coalition, 27
 Koch family involvement in, 18, 27
 online platform for, 94
 Trump and, 175–176
- Freemen, 64
- fundamental niche, 131
- Gadsden flags, as patriotic symbol, 133
- General Social Survey (GSS), 23
- Gingrich, Newt, 23–24, 200
- Giuliani, Rudy, 194
- government spending policies. See also fiscal responsibility American National Election Survey on, 31–32 consensus mobilization against, 24–25 race-neutral rhetoric on, 25
 White racial attitudes on, 32
- grassroots insurgencies. See also specific topics
 Arab Spring protests, 18
 public perceptions of, 18–21
 Tea Party, 11, 18–21
- Great Recession, xiv
 American Recovery and Investment Act, 34, 36, 43
 bank bailouts and, 34
 Emergency Economic Stabilization Act, 34
 during Bush presidency, 29 economic impacts of, 29 economic precarity as result of, 29–30
 public surveys on, 30, 31
 elder populations impacted by, 69 local Tea Party groups influenced by, 125
 as motivation for Tea Party activists, 11
 Obama policy response to, 8 economic recovery as result of, 20
 older workers during, 29–30
 as perfect interpretive moment, 19–20, 29–30 stock market crash of 2008 and, 29
 Tax Day rallies and, 114
 Tea Party groups and, 113–114
- GSS. See General Social Survey
- Hannity, Sean, 45
- Heaney, Michael, 70, 217
- House of Representatives, US, radicalization of, 163–167
 analysis of, 167–169
 mobilization effects in, 146–147
 movement infrastructure effects and, 146–147 political legacy of Tea Party insurgency, 160–167
 methodological analysis of, 164
 multilevel linear regression measures for, 166
 trajectory of political ideology, 163–165, 166
 of Republican Party, 163
 Tea Party Caucus and, 5–6, 116, 120, 146
 demographics for, 160–161
 disappearance of, 160–163
 as hybrid of movement/party interaction, 9

Index

243

- trajectory of politician members of, 162–163
 - in 2010 midterm elections, 157–158
 - theoretical approach to, 146–147
 - 2010 midterm elections, 157–160
 - multinomial logistic regression predictions for, 158
 - Republican Party electoral success of, 157
 - Tea Party Caucus and, 157–158
 - 2010 Republican primaries and, 147, 151–157
 - Federal Election Commission and, 152–153
 - incumbent politicians in, 152
 - mobilization effects in, 154
 - movement infrastructure effects in, 154
 - number of challengers in, 155
 - Tea Party activism during, 154–157
- housing foreclosure crisis
- Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now, 33–34
 - “irresponsible borrowers” and, 33–34
 - race-neutral rhetoric on, 34
- Humphrey, Hubert, 151
- hybrid organizational structures, 77–78, 79.
See also specific groups; specific structures
- ideology, political, Tea Party insurgency as
- influence on, 163–165, 166
- Inglis, Robert, 201
- Institute for Research and Education on Human Rights (IREHR), 49–50, 74, 164
- institutionalized Tea Party, 5–6, 7
- Internal Revenue Service (IRS), 4
- in collective action research design datasets, 211–212
- Emotion Intensity Lexicon, 108
- registration by local Tea Party groups, 80–86
- Employer Identification Number in, 82
 - monitoring scandal for, 82–84, 105–110
 - trends in, 82–84
- Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration, 106
- IREHR. See Institute for Research and Education on Human Rights
- IRS. See Internal Revenue Service
- Issa, Darrell, 106
- January 6 insurrection, at US Capitol, 194–196
- Tea Party activists and, 195–196
- Jordan, Jim, 106
- Kaplan, Abraham, xiii–xiv
- Kibbe, Matt, 1–2, 47
- Koch, Charles, 18, 27–28
- Koch, David, 18, 27–28
- Kremer, Amy, 195
- Kremer, Kylie Jane, 195
- Ku Klux Klan, 130
- Leahy, Michael, 47
- liberal media. See CNN; MSNBC
- local Tea Party groups, 80–86
- analysis of, 126–127
 - community contexts for, 54–56, 123–126
 - congressional representation and, 126
 - Republican Party vote share, 125
- decline of, 120–123
- survival curve in, 122
- density of, 121
- dissolution of, 123–126
- mixed-effects Cox proportional hazard models for, 124
 - status threats as factor for, 125
- dynamic measures of, 117–126, 201
- of material threats, 117–120
 - for organizational survival, 120–123
 - political context in, 120
 - of status threats, 117–120
 - theoretical approach to, 117
- financial resources of, 84–86
- income levels and, 85
 - operating expenses as element of, 85–86
- Great Recession as influence on longevity of, 125
- IRS registration of, 80–86
- Employer Identification Number in, 82
 - monitoring scandal for, 82–84, 105–110
 - trends in, 82–84
- size of, 81–82
- membership counts, 81
 - status of, 121
- MADD. See Mothers Against Drunk Driving
- Make America Great Again campaign, 14
- Martin, Jenny Beth, 2–3, 43, 47, 188
- January 6 insurrection and, 195–196
- material threats. See also status threats
- during birth of insurgency, 52–53
 - as predictor of collective action, 197–199
- to Tea Party groups
- for local groups, 117–120
 - perceptions of distributional justice, 115
 - power devaluation and, 115

- material threats. (cont.)
 theoretical approach to, 8
 Trumpism and, 172–173, 184
 White working class and, 172–173
- media coverage
 amplification of messaging through, 45
 CNN, 44, 93
 in collective action research design on Tea Party insurgency, 217 conservative media
 as echo chamber, 25–26
 Obama election and, 26
 Fox News
 during birth of insurgency, 44–46
 as conservative echo chamber, 25–26
 increased audiences for, 93
 Tax Day rallies on, 59–61
 MSNBC, 26, 44, 45–46, 93
 newspapers, 95, 104–105
 of Tax Day rallies, 93
 on Fox News, 59–61
- Media Matters for America, as conservative echo chamber, 25–26
- Mellon Plan, 22
- messaging, of political activism. See also discursive demobilization
 during birth of insurgency, 44–46
 on Fox News, 44–46
 through media attention, 45
- methodological approach, to Tea Party, xiii–xv, 9–17
 as Astroturf movement, 11 community conditions in, 9–10 evidence-based conclusions, 14 as grassroots insurgency, 11 on group origins, 4, 10
 primary political focus, 4–5
 Tax Day rallies and, 7
- identity of activists, 10–11
- motivations in, 10–11
 Great Recession, 11
 racism as, 10
- for political consequences of organization, 13–14 for political tactics, 12 structure of organization, 9–10, 11 mobilization structures, 12–13, 199–200 timeline for political activism, 13
- mixed-effects Cox proportional hazard models, for dissolution of local groups, 124
- mobilization, of Tea Party. See also consensus mobilization; demobilization through consensus of White Christian conservatives, 21–28 as niche insurgency, 131 social protests as form of, 101 strategy for discourse in, 131–133 structures for, 12–13, 75–80 federated form, 76–77
 hybrid organizational, 77–78, 79 mapping of, 78–80
 social movement organization, 76 spin form, 77
 theoretical approach to, 75–76
 among White Christian conservatives, 19
- mobilization effects, 150
 in US House of Representatives, 146–147
 in 2010 Republican primaries, 154
- Moran, Jerry, 162
- Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), 76, 85
- Mott, Stacy, 47
- movement infrastructure effects, in 2010 Republican primaries, 154
- MSNBC, 26, 44, 45–46, 93
- Mulvaney, Mick, 190
- Nationwide Tea Party Coalition, 43
- Never Trump movement, 190
- newspapers
 collective action research data and, 204–206, 213–214
 Tax Day rallies in, 213–214
 Tea Party events in, 204–206 trajectory of Tea Party insurgency in, 95, 104–105
- niches
 definition of, 131
 discursive, 130–131
 fundamental, 131
- 9/12 Project, 59–61
- Nixon, Richard, 25
- Norquist, Grover, 22–23, 131
- Oath Keepers, 195
- Obama, Barack, 1, 10
 American Recovery and Investment Act, 34, 36, 43
 birther conspiracy and, 171, 176–180
 racism as foundation of, 176–178
 conservative media response to, 26 discursive demobilization of Tea Party and, 129

Index

245

- Great Recession policies, 8
 economic recovery as result of, 20
 Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, 109, 149, 191–192
 perfect interpretive moment and, 29 perceived status threat, 30–32 racial resentment after election of, 133
 White animosity toward, 4, 7–8, 19, 20, 21
 as racial resentment, 31–32
 White Christian conservatives' response to, 20
 Occupy Wall Street movement, 13, 77, 199–200
 Odom, Eric, 43, 46–47
 organizational sponsors, of Tax Day rallies, 59–61
- partyism, in social movements, 149
 Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, US (2010), 109, 149
 attempted repeal of, 191–192
 Patriot Action Network, 5, 12, 49, 65, 117
 Trump and, 175–176
 website presence for, 135–136
 patriotism
 Gadsden flags as symbol of, 133
 racism and, 32
 Peach State Tea Party, 43
 Pence, Mike, 162, 194 perfect interpretive moment, 28–34 birth of insurgency and, 41–42 definition and scope of, 29 election of Obama as, 29 perceived status threat as result of, 30–32 Great Recession as, 19–20, 29–30
 economic precarity as result of, 30, 31
 suddenly imposed grievances and, 28
 “undeserving” Black poor and, 32–34
 Phillips, Judson, 47, 138 political ideology. See ideology political legacy, of Tea Party insurgency
 analysis of, 200–201
 in US House of Representatives, 160–167
 methodological analysis of, 164
 multilevel linear regression measures for, 166
 trajectory of political ideology, 163–165, 166 poverty, racialization of, 25 power devaluation, 115
 Price, Tom, 162
 Pro-Life movement, Tea Party compared to, 75
 Proud Boys, 195
 Pruitt, Scott, 190
- race-neutral rhetoric, of Tea Party, 5, 39
 on government spending, 25
 on mortgage lending to “undeserving Black poor,” 34
 racial resentment, 31–32
 after election of Obama, 133
 ethnonationalism and, 173–174
 in Trump campaign, 173–174 racism. See also White racism
 birther conspiracy and, 176–177
 as motivation for Tea Party activism, 10, 21 patriotism and, 32
 against “undeserving” Black poor, 24–25
 racialization of poverty, 25
 reactionary republicanism, 170
 Reagan, Ronald, 132
 Religious Congregations and Membership Study, 53
 Republic of New Africa, 64
 Republican Party. See also 2010 midterm elections; 2010 Republican primaries; 2012 presidential election; 2016 presidential election; 2020 presidential election activists in Tea Party and as distinct identity from Republicans, 71 distrust of party, 70–72
 transactional nature of relationship between, 71, 72
 Contract with America, 200
 radicalization of, 163
 Southern Strategy for, 25
 Tea Party and, 1–2, 37–38, 115–116
 as blended hybrid formation, 37
 hostile takeover by, 38, 116 as intraparty faction, 9
 as political adversary, 36 political integration of, 37–38
 as political watchdog, 38
 Trump's remaking of, 1–2, 149, 192
 2010 midterm elections and, 157
 Republican Revolution, 23–24 research, on Tea Party. See methodological approach rich people's movements, 22–23
 leadership of, 22
 Mellon Plan, 22
 origins of, 23

- rich people's movements (cont.)
 policy scope of, 23
 success rates of, 22–23
- right-censoring, 118
- Rojas, Fabio, 70, 217
- Rubio, Marco, 183
- Santelli, Rick, 33–34
- SDS. See Students for a Democratic Society
- segregation, as measurement variable, 53
- self-reported activists, 66
- sentiment pools, 7–8
- Sessions, Jeff, 190
- 1776 Tea Party, 5, 12, 47, 49, 65, 117
 Trump and, 175–176
 website presence for, 135–136
- Sierra Club, 76–77
- Smart Girl Politics, 4, 43, 60–61
- SMOs. See social movement organizations
- SNAP. See Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program
- social media. See also blogs
 in collective action research design, 214–215
 as conservative echo chamber, 25–26
- social movement organizations (SMOs), 76, 112–113 networks of, 112–113
 organizational structure of, 112–113
- social movements, mobilization of, 148–151 bloc recruitment in, 149–150 through elections, 150–151 symbolic communication in, 150–151 through grassroots activism, 151 infrastructures for, 149–150 institutionalization of, 151
 mobilization effects, 150
 partyism in, 149
 polity models for, 148
 through protests, 150–151
- social protests. See also Black Lives Matter movement; Occupy Wall Street movement
 Arab Spring protests, 18
 counter-protests at Tax Day rallies, 58
 as form of mobilization, 101, 150–151 transition from, 101–110
 after IRS scandal, 105–110
 media content as factor in, 103–105
 perceived utility of protest, 102–103
 surveillance fears as factor in, 105–110
- social welfare programs, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, 119–120
- Sons and Daughters of Liberty, 43
- Southern Strategy, of Nixon, 25
- spin form of mobilization, 77
- sponsors. See organizational sponsors
- status threats
 during birth of insurgency, 52–53
 for early activist facilitators, 52–53
 for local Tea Party groups, 125
 dynamic measures of, 117–120
 Obama election and, 30–32
 perfect interpretive moment and, 30–32
 as predictor of collective action, 197–199
 to Tea Party groups, 113–115
 for local groups, 117–120, 125
 perceptions of distributional justice, 115
 power devaluation and, 115
 social power of White Conservative Christians and, 115
 theoretical approach to, 8
 Trumpism and, 172, 184
 for White Christian conservatives, 172
 Trump's political use of, 198–199
- Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), 13 suddenly imposed grievances, 28
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), 53, 119–120
- supporters, of Tea Party movement, 65–72 activists compared to, 65–66
 demographics for, 68, 69–70
 sample size for, 68
 political views of, 69
 surveys on, 66–67
 for self-reported support, 66, 67
- surveillance, fears of, 105–110
- survival curve, for local Tea Party groups, 122
- talk radio, as conservative echo chamber, 25–26
- Tarrow, Sidney, xv
- Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, US (2017), 1–2, 191–192
- Tax Day rallies, 7, 19, 40, 42, 43, 46
 civil disobedience at, 58 collective action research design for, 212–214
 through newspaper coverage, 213–214
 through website listings, 212–213
 counter-protests at, 58
 on Fox News, 59–61
 Great Recession and, 114
 media coverage of, 59–61, 93 messaging for, 58–59
 methodological sampling of, 49–50, 55

Index

247

- organizational sponsors of, 59–61
- size estimation for activist participation, 72, 91, 92
- spatial distribution of, 50
- tactical decisions and organization of, 57–58
- trajectory of, 89–94, 99–101
 - analysis of, 89–90
 - annual counts (2009–2014), 91
 - evidence of annual intent, 92–93
 - methodological approach to, 89–90
 - trends for (2009–2014), 90–92
- tax revolts. See also Tax Day rallies
 - consensus mobilization through, 22–24
- taxation policies, taxes and. See also Internal Revenue Service
 - partisan views on, 23–24
 - Republican Revolution and, 23–24
 - Tea Party origins in response to, as primary political focus, 4–5
- Taxpayer League of Minnesota, 60–61
- Taxpayer Protection Pledge, 22–23
- Tea Party. See also local Tea Party groups; methodological approach; Republican Party; Tea Party groups; Trumpism; specific groups; specific topics
 - decline of, xiv
 - demobilization of, 13, 20
 - fiscal responsibility as foundational principle, 2
 - institutionalized, 5–6, 7
 - as insurgent social movement, 1–4
 - grassroots aspects of, 5
 - as hybrid movement, 3
 - mobilization of, 6, 8
 - of resources, 7, 8
 - origins of, 4
 - overview of, 3–7
 - active years for, 7
 - main participants, 5–6
 - political time-frame, 4
 - primary political focus, 4–5
 - Santelli rant and, 33–34
 - theoretical approach to, 7–9
 - electoral political influences, 9
 - framing perspectives in, 7
 - material and status threats in, 8
 - resource mobilization in, 7, 8
 - sentiment pools in, 7–8
 - Trump and, xiii, 14, 35, 173–174
 - analysis of, 192–193
 - early engagement with, 174–180
 - theoretical approach to, 170–171
 - umbrella groups in, 175–176
 - umbrella groups, 12–13, 117
- Tea Party Caucus, 5–6, 116, 120, 146
 - demographics for, 160–161
 - disappearance of, 160–163
 - as hybrid of movement/party interaction, 9
 - trajectory of politician members of, 162–163
 - in 2010 midterm elections, 157–158
- Tea Party Express, 65, 74
- Tea Party groups. See also local Tea Party groups; specific groups
 - community contexts for, 113
 - Great Recession and, 113–114
 - life-cycle of, 112–117
 - loose organizational structure of, 113
 - material threats to, 113–114
 - political integration into Republican Party, 115–116
 - as hostile takeover, 116
 - status threats to, 114–115
 - perceptions of distributional justice, 115
 - power devaluation and, 115
 - in social power of White Conservative Christians, 115
- Tea Party Nation, 5, 12, 47, 49, 65, 117. See also collective action research design
 - Phillips as founder of, 47, 138
 - Trump and, 175–176
- Tea Party Patriots, 2–3, 5, 12, 47, 49, 65, 117. See also collective action research design; Martin, Jenny Beth
 - Trump and, 175–176
 - website presence for, 135–136
- test-marketed Astroturf groups, 42–44
- threats. See material threats; status threats
- TIGTA. See Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration
- Top Conservatives on Twitter, 60–61
- trajectory, of insurgency
 - analysis of, 110
 - discursive demobilization of Tea Party and, 136–138
 - evolution of activity flow in, 96–101
 - for county, 99, 100
 - for daily activity, 96
 - events by type, 97
 - for maintenance events, 97, 98
 - for monthly activity, 98–99
 - granular estimation of, 94–95
 - in newspapers, 95, 104–105
 - for local activism, 88–89

- trajectory, of insurgency (cont.)
 rapid decline, 88–89
 for Tax Day rallies, 89–94, 99–101
 analysis of, 89–90
 annual counts (2009–2014), 91
 evidence of annual intent, 92–93
 methodological approach to, 89–90
 trends for (2009–2014), 90–92
 transition from protest activity, 101–110
 after IRS scandal, 105–110
 media content as factor in, 103–105
 perceived utility of protest, 102–103
 surveillance fears as factor in, 105–110
- Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA), 106
- Trump, Donald, 168–169. See also 2016 presidential election
 birther conspiracy, 171
 racism as foundation of, 176–177
 Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program and, 191 ethnonationalism as campaign focus, 173–174
 Make America Great Again campaign, 14
 Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act under, 191–192 racial resentment as campaign focus, 173–174 rejection of 2020 presidential election results, 194–195
 January 6 insurrection and, 194–196
 Republican Party changed by, 1–2, 149, 192
 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, 1–2, 191–192
 Tea Party and, xiii, 14, 35, 173–174
 analysis of, 192–193
 early engagement with, 174–180
 theoretical approach to, 170–171
 umbrella groups in, 175–176
 use of status threats by, 198–199
- Trumpism
 birther conspiracy, 171, 176–180
 racism as foundation of, 176–178
 characterization of, 171–172 material threats and, 172–173, 184 to White working class, 172–173 rise of, 171–174
 status threats and, 172, 184
 for White Christian conservatives, 172
 Tea Party adoption of, 174–192
 analysis of, 192–193
 birther conspiracy and, 176–180
 in blogs, 174–176, 178–179, 181–183, 187–188
 at CPAC Convention (2011), 176–180 criticism and rejection of, 181–182, 187–188
 during 2012 presidential election, 176–180
 during 2016 presidential election, 180–187, 188
 in umbrella groups, 175–176
 theoretical approach to, 170–171
 2016 presidential election, Tea Party embrace of, 180–187, 188
 White identity and, 170–171
 2010 midterm elections, for House of Representatives, 157–160
 multinomial logistic regression predictions for, 158
 Republican Party electoral success of, 157
 Tea Party Caucus and, 157–158
 2010 Republican primaries, for US House of Representatives, 147, 151–157
 Federal Election Commission and, 152–153
 incumbent politicians in, 152
 mobilization effects in, 154
 movement infrastructure effects in, 154
 number of challengers in, 155
 Tea Party activism during, 154–157
 2012 presidential election, 176–180
 2016 presidential election
 Cruz and, 185–186
 Rubio and, 183
 Trump and county-level support during general election, 189 county-level support during primaries, 185–186 election of, 187–192
 Trumpism and, 180–187, 188
 2020 presidential election, 194–195
- umbrella groups, 12–13, 117. See also local Tea Party groups; Tea Party groups; specific groups
 Trumpism in, 175–176
 “undeserving” Black poor, 24–25
 perfect interpretive moment and, 32–34
 race-neutral rhetoric on, 34
 racialization of poverty, 25
 Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program and, 53, 119–120
 United States (US). See also federal spending policies; Internal Revenue Service; taxation policies
 American Recovery and Investment Act, 34, 36, 43

Index

249

- Emergency Economic Stabilization Act, 34
- Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, 109, 149
 - attempted repeal of, 191–192
 - Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, 1–2, 191–192
- Van Susteren, Greta, 44
- White Christian conservatives. See also racial resentment
 - decline in social power for, 115
 - mobilization potential of, 19
 - power devaluation for, 115
 - Religious Congregations and Membership Study, 53
 - response to election of Obama, 20
 - status threats to, 172
 - Trumpism and, 172
- White racial attitudes. See also racial resentment
 - ethnonationalism and, 173–174
 - on government spending, 32
 - racial resentment, 31–32
- White racism. See also racial resentment
 - ethnonationalism and, 173–174
 - toward Obama, 4, 7–8, 19, 20, 21
 - racial resentment and, 31–32
 - patriotism and, 32
 - perceived loss of social power and, 8
- White working class, perceived material threats to, 172–173