Contents

List of Figures page vii
List of Tables viii
List of Contributors ix
Acknowledgments xi
Bibliographical Note xii

Introduction: Freed Persons in the Roman World: Status, Diversity, and Representation 1
SINCLAIR W. BELL, DORIAN BORBONUS, AND ROSE MACLEAN

1 Permissu decurionum: Freed Persons and Burial Management in the Collective Tomb of the Volusii 30
DORIAN BORBONUS

2 Freed Public Slaves in Roman Italy and the Western Provinces: Legal Status and Social Integration 56
FRANCO LUCIANI

3 Fitting in by Decree: Freed Slaves, Euergetism, and Local Politics 86
MARC KLEIJWEGT

4 Doubling Up: Patronal and Familial Designations on Epitaphs 119
KATHARINE HUEMOELLER
CONTENTS

5 The Cost of Ingratitude: Freed Persons, Patrons, and Re-enslavement 141
   NICOLE GIANNELLA

6 Between Moral Slavery and Legal Freedom: Freed People and Aristocratic Behavior in Neronian Literature 164
   FÁBIO DUARTE JOLY

7 Framing the Freed Person: (De)contextualizing the Representation of Freed People’s Voices in the Literary Record 189
   KRISTOF VERMOTE

8 Novel Evidence for Ancient Freed People: Xenophon of Ephesus’ Ephesiaca and the Cena Trimalchionis 217
   WILLIAM M. OWENS

9 The Affects of Manumission: Racial Melancholy and Roman Freed Persons 242
   DAN-EL PADILLA PERALTA

   General Bibliography 278
   Index 286