

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	page xi
List of Abbreviations	xiv
Introduction	1
Divine Invisibility in Johannine Scholarship	5
Reading John	31
Structure and Outline	38
Concluding Remarks	41

PART I GOD AND VISIBILITY

1 ‘My Lord and My God’ in John 20:30–31	47
Signs as Acts of God	49
The Christ the Son of God: God Sent from God	53
Life in His Name: God in Himself	62
Conclusion	66
2 Divine Visibility	68
The Context and Challenges of John 1:18	75
‘Isaiah Saw His Glory’	79
The Syntax of John 1:18a	84
The Challenge of Recognizing God in Jesus	86
Conclusion	87
3 God on Earth	89
God in Two Places	94
The Farewell Discourse and the Unity of Temples, Bodies, and God	116
Conclusion	131

x	Contents
PART II SEEING GOD
4	The Efficacy of Empirical Vision for Belief	137
	John 2:23 and the Value of Sight for Belief	140
	The Glory of God and the Challenge of Truly Seeing	146
	John 4:48 and the Value of Sight for Belief	149
	John 20:29 and the Value of Sight for Belief	154
	John’s Use of ὁράω and the Inseparability of Spiritual and Physical Sight	160
	Conclusion	166
5	Seeing Jesus and Seeing God	169
	Seeing God, Seeing Jesus, and Belief	171
	Seeing the Crucified God	192
	Conclusion	198
	Conclusion	200
	Bibliography	208
	Index	236