

Contents

List of Contributors	page xv
Preface	xxi
Statement: European Union “AI Act”	xxiii
 PART I RISE OF AI CONSUMER MARKETS
1 AI and Consumers	3
Geraint Howells
2 Artificial Intelligence for Consumers: Advances in Recommendation Systems	9
Luigi Portinale and Alessandro Abluton
3 Substituted Consumers: Digital Content Directive and Damages	19
Christiana Markou
4 AI and Consumers’ Well-Being	37
Katarzyna de Lazari-Radek and Peter Singer
 PART II CONSUMER CHOICE
5 AI and Existing EU Consumer Law	49
Mateja Durovic
6 Using AI to Influence Consumer Choice	62
Eric Tjong Tjin Tai
7 Consumers and Digital Delegates	75
Christian Twigg-Flesner
 PART III LIABILITY
8 AI and Smart Consumer Contracts	99
Pinar Çağlayan Aksoy

9	AI, Consumers, and Tort Law: From Liability to Responsibility Michel Cannarsa	116
10	Liability for Autonomous Systems: Enhancing Access to Justice Stefan Wrška and Mark Fenwick	129
11	Protected by Design: The Case of Personalised Advertising Dominik Lubasz, Agnieszka Jabłowska and Monika Namysłowska	147
PART IV HARM
12	AI, Consumers and Psychological Harm Przemysław Pałka	163
13	Algorithmic Exploitation of Consumers Eliza Mik	175
14	Use of AI Enforcement Technology (EnfTech) Christine Riefa and Liz Coll	193
PART V APPLICATION AND REGULATION OF AI
15	EU Consumer Law and the Artificial Intelligence Act: Two Worlds Apart? Martin Ebers	215
16	AI Platforms: Safeguarding Consumer Rights in the EU Cristina Poncibó	236
17	AI, Lawyers, and Consumers Marta Infantino and Larry A. DiMatteo	252
18	Decision-Making by AI in Consumer Law Adjudication André Janssen and Tom J. Vennmanns	273
19	Governance, AI and Consumers: Looking Forward Roger Brownsword	289