

Index

- abolition. see Black Atlantic Abolition Movement: concept of
- abuse of enslaved Africans, 35, 198, 275, 323, 327, 355
- attempts to stop, 346, 347, 352, 366, 385
- acquiring enslaved people
- direct warfare, 30, 60, 168, 336
 - trade with chiefs, 168
 - tribute, through, 109, 168
- actus reus* of slavery, 348, 369, 415
- Afonso I, king of Kongo, 60–63, 330
- Portuguese Crown, relationship with, 63–66, 336–338
- African agency, 28, 141, 240, 420
- suppression of, 208
- African involvement in the Atlantic slave trade, 43, 55, 329, 382–383, 386, 422, 429–430
- African practices of slavery, 335, 346–348
 - mutual relationship, 73
 - sobas*, 9
 - unequal footing, 73
- Alexander VI (pope), 297, 372
- Alexander VII (pope), 377
- Álvares, Domingos, 195
- Álvares, Gaspar, 118–122, 137
- arrest, 102, 114
 - Correia de Sousa's relationship with, 75, 80, 118–123
 - inheritance dispute, 118–128
- Álvaro II, king of Kongo, 154, 310
- networks/alliances against Portuguese occupation, 142–144
- amnesties
- customary right for escapees, 146, 161, 162, 244
 - kijiko*, 146
 - safe haven principle, 245
- Angola
- Dutch occupation, 71
 - See also* Ndongo.
- Antonil, Antonio Andreoni, 198, 218, 245, 404
- engenbos* in Bahia, 222–223, 224–230
- Apostolic Notary of Luanda, 77
- Araujo, Captain Major Payo d', 122–124
- asylum principle, 245
- Azzolino, Cardinal Decio, 352
- baculamento*, 12, 55, 68, 157, 167–168
- Hari I, 169, 174–175
 - Hari II's refusal to pay, 188
 - introduction of, 9–10, 35, 52
 - Portuguese exploitation of, 170–176, 206, 390, 412
 - Sousa, Fernão de, 9, 35, 68, 146, 169–176, 419
 - traditional Mbundu understanding, 169–170
- Bango Bango, João, 207, 210, 417
- Barreira, Baltasar, 156–158
- Barreto, Dionizio de Faria, 83, 97, 123
- Benton, Lauren, 35–36
- bias of historical sources, 37–40

- Birmingham, David, 105, 138–140, 168–169, 171, 176, 177, 205, 212, 389, 423, 429
- Black Atlantic Abolitionist Movement concept of, 4, 36–37, 49, 55
- Black Brotherhoods, confraternities of, 25, 27–29, 40, 53, 81, 220, 358, 378, 421
Vatican court case, 41, 328, 348, 419, 423
See also confraternities of Our Lady of Rosary of the Black Men
- Boxer, Charles R., 66, 211–212, 392
- Brásio, António, 27–28, 51, 71, 145, 294, 309, 339
- Bumbi
invasion by Correia de Sousa, 81, 100, 102, 116, 132, 135, 137 economic rationale, 101
runaway slaves rationale, 101, 135
return of Bumbi people, 129
- Buxton, Thomas, 2, 326, 328
- Cabangua, Dom Diogo, 200–206, 209, 280, 282–284, 287–288
See also João (John) Hari II.
- Cadamosto, Luís de, 332, 333
- Cadornega, Antonio de Oliveira de, 27, 118, 124, 148, 159–161, 165, 418
kijikos, 155
Mbundu culture, 165, 166
Ndongo's political structure, 174, 177, 183, 184, 186, 187, 206
- Calixtus III, 372
- Candido, Mariana, 30, 31, 68, 141, 179, 389
raiding and taxation, 60
- cannibalism justification for enslavement, 333–334, 406, 410
- Cardoso, Bento Banha, 99, 104, 114, 115, 123, 171, 174, 175
- Cardoso, Mateus
enslavement of the Kazanze, 91, 92, 93, 94
- Carlos II, king of Spain, 392
confraternities of Rosary of Our Lady of Star for the Black Men, 317
- Carvalho, Pedro de, 29–30, 255
- Casas, Bartolomé De las, 25, 357
- Christianisation of Africa, 375–378
Western narrative, 269–270, 405–406, 410
- Christianisation rationale for conquest/invasion, 231, 324, 342–345, 377, 411 just war principle, 89, 94–95, 97 slavery as a crime against jus canonicum, 360
- Church and slavery, intersection between, 76, 80, 116–118, 137
See also Álvares, Gaspar; Christianisation rationale for conquest/invasion
- civil law, 364 slavery as contravention of, 27, 42, 49, 153, 371, 379, 414
- Clarkson, Thomas, 2
- Clement X (pope), 312
- Coelho de Sousa, Pero, 90, 101, 116, 123, 132, 133
- coercion into slave trade by Portuguese, 7, 11, 16, 34, 58, 74, 149, 334, 335, 383, 412, 415, 419
Mendonça's family, 391
Western misinterpretation of, 66–68, 175
- colonos* of Palmares, 256–258
- complicity of African rulers in slave trade, 60
See also African involvement in the Atlantic slave trade; coercion into slave trade by Portuguese
- confraternities of Our Lady of Rosary of the Black Men, 304 constitutional rights of members, 300–302 São Tomé, 305–309 liberation of members from slavery, 300
- Mendonça as attorney of, 53, 309–312, 317, 322
See also Black Brotherhoods, confraternities of
- conquered Indigenous people, 262–269
- Contreiras, Cristovão de Burgos de, 53, 198, 238, 256–260, 273
- Correia de Sousa, João
Álvares, relationship with, 75, 118
See also Álvares, Gaspar
- arrest, 116
corruption, 114–116
invasion of Bumbi, 100–104
invasion of Kazanze, 84–86
personal account of, 91–93
Kazanze people, enslavement of, 81–93 illegal exile to Brazil, 93–100

- Spanish Crown, relationship with, 86–89 war captives, 102–104
- crime against humanity concept, 43–44
- Crown intervention, 104
See also Fajardo, Antonio Bezerra:
criminal investigations of governors.
- Cugoano, Ottobah, 4, 324–325, 328
- Curto, José, 31
complicity of African rulers in slave trade, 60, 66, 141
- Dávila y Osori, Antonio Pedro Sancho (Marquise of Astorga and Great Spain), 353–355, 423
- death toll during Atlantic crossing, 41, 130, 360, 395, 398, 399
diseases, 400
- debt and judicial proceedings as enslavement methods, 9, 31–32, 62–65, 70–71, 145
- Del Real, Dom Lorenzo, 318–319
- Delgado, José Matias, 140, 163, 177
- demand for labour as a rationale for slavery, 81–82, 136, 225, 234
- Dias, Henrique, 24, 140
- Dias, Paschoal, 40
- divine law
slavery as contravention of, 27, 42, 49, 153, 371, 379, 414
- Dom João de Sousa. see João (John) Hari II
- Dongo see Ndongo
- Doria, Vincenzo Gonzaga (Prince of Gonzaga), 353–355, 423
- economic rationale for enslavement, 113, 157, 206, 356, 366, 400, 405, 407,
418, 428–429
Bumbi, 101
Cayru, 233
Kazanze, 85–90, 93
Overseas Council, 403–404
- economic rationale for war see just war principle
- education of Mendonça, 11, 20, 53, 142
- education of Ndongo royals political resistance, as a tool to suppress, 281–296
See also education of Mendonça
- encombros*, 9, 72, 109, 173
- enslaved Africans in Portugal, 302–304
See also exile of Ndongo's royals: Portugal
- enslaved Africans in the Americas solidarity with New Christians and Indigenous people, 36, 236–239, 321
See also exile of Ndongo's royals: Brazil
- enslavement of Africans as fundamental part of conquest, 7–10
- enslavement of the Kazanze, 88–93
- Equiano, Olaudah, 4, 69, 325, 326–327, 328
- exile of Ndongo's royals, 52
Brazil, 9, 20, 52, 209–212, 275
status as prisoners of war, 213
Portugal, 9, 20, 280–282, 320–322
Dom Diogo Cabangua, 287–288
Dom Philippe (Ngolamano), 281–288 prisoners of war, 282 silence by separation, 294–296
- exploitation of customary gifts
encombros, 72
ocombas and ynfucas, 71, 72–73
- Fajardo, Antonio Bezerra
City Council of Luanda Constitution, 107–111
criminal investigations of governors, 104–114
ill-treatment of sobas, 107, 112 relationship with local authorities, 106
- enslavement of the Kazanze, 91
- Falcão, Antonio de Souza, 196–197
- Ferrás, Bento, 115
- Ferreira, Roquinaldo, 31, 60, 141
- festivals
Christian festivals, 269
enslaved Africans in Brazil, 220, 229, 230
- Figueiredo, Marçal de, 115, 116
- financial importance of raiding and taxation, 30–31, 32, 60, 68, 110
See also taxation as an enslavement method
- forced gifts, 71, 72, 327
See also ocombas and ynfucas
- Garcia II, king of Kongo, 329, 330, 356, 403, 429
ally of Dutch, 339
networks/alliances against Portuguese
occupation, 142–144
- General Congregation (6 March 1684), 19, 42, 57, 306, 328, 346, 351, 352, 353, 414
See also Vatican criminal case

- Godinho, André do Couto, 194
- Gouvêa, André de engenhos in Bahia, 223–224
- Gray, Richard, 22, 23–24, 34, 140, 302, 402, 414
- Green, Toby, 33, 143, 173, 239
- guerra preta* (Angola), 12, 85, 92, 101, 177, 179, 186, 188, 193, 198, 204, 207, 273, 294, 417
- Hebrew Nation. see New Christians
- Heintze, Beatrix, 30, 140
- raiding and taxation, 60, 68
- Heywood, Linda, 104, 428
baculamento, 170
 complicity of African rulers in slave trade, 60, 340–344
 Queen Njinga, 141, 160
- Holl, Augustin, 67–68
- homogenisation of culturally diverse groups, 275–278
- human dignity argument against slavery, 106, 155, 342, 369, 371
- human law
 slavery as contravention of, 27, 42, 49, 153, 369–370, 379, 414
- humanity argument against slavery, 7, 16, 42, 135, 137, 196, 269, 275, 279, 322, 349, 364, 371, 377, 382, 407, 411, 420
- identity of Mendonça, 23 surname and confusion surrounding, 19–20, 21
- Indigenous people, 6, 235
 Pan-Atlantic solidarity, 11, 328, 420, 426
 Quilombo dos Palmares, alliance with, 239–256
See also Quilombo dos Palmares alliance with Indigenous people
- solidarity with enslaved Africans in Americas, 36, 53, 236–239, 321, 420, 426
- Vatican court case, 328
- Innocent XI (pope), 112, 260, 297, 312–313, 322, 348, 352, 372, 373, 379, 381, 419
- Inquisition of the New Christians end of, 316
- investigations
 illegal enslavement in Brazil, 129–130
- invasion of Kazanze and enslavement of its people, 91–93
 Jesuit High Court of Appeal, 93–100
- land return to sobas, 105
- slave trade of São Tomé and Angola, 158
See also Fajardo, Antonio Bezerra:
 criminal investigations of governors.
- Jaca, Francisco José de, 25–27, 47, 330, 332
 evidence, impact of, 361–366
- João (John) Hari II, 52
 blockade of slave trade, 189
 death, 8, 139, 190–192 education, 205 independence from Portugal, 193–194, 198, 205 refusal to pay baculamento, 188 networks/alliances against Portuguese occupation, 189
 Overseas Council, relationship with, 55, 385, 390–392 succession, 176–177
- João II, King of Portugal, 335
- John VI, King of Portugal, 385
- just war principle, 111–114, 327
- invasion of Bumbi, 100–104
See also Bumbi
- invasion of Kazanze, 93, 95–96
 Christianity rationale, 89, 94–95, 97
See also Kazanze
- manipulation of, 424
- Kazanze
 deception by Correia de Sousa, 88–91 enslavement by Correia de Sousa, 91 exile to Brazil, 91, 98 return policy, 129–135
 invasion by Correia de Sousa, 85–86, 137
 economic rationale, 85–90, 93
 land distribution, 86
 runaway slaves rationale, 99–100, 135
 violence, 86, 94
See also Correia de Sousa, João
- return of Kazanze people, 129
- kidnapping, 26, 31, 32, 49, 81, 104, 110, 137, 321, 329, 336, 337, 408, 412, 418
- kijikos*, 93, 113–114, 146, 151, 155–156, 162

- Kongo
background, 416–419
See also Bumbi; Kazanze
- Lahon, Didier, 28, 310
land distribution, 12, 87, 233
Lara, Silvia, 140, 160, 294 liberation and return of captives, 24, 142, 197, 221, 274, 296, 301, 315, 365, 379 carta de alforria, 307
Crown intervention, 129–135
See also universal liberty concept liberation as a question of power, 53, 198, 238
Lindsay, Lisa, 195
Livingstone, David, 2, 326, 328
- macamba*, 241, 271
mocambo distinguished, 242, 271
Manuel, king of Portugal, 74
Afonso I (Kongo), relationship with, 63–66
Mascarenhas, Simão de, 130, 131–133, 175
Mattos, Hebe, 22, 24–25, 140
Mbandi, king of Ndongo
death, 15
legal policies around slavery, 161–163
Portuguese governors, relationship with, 80, 83–85, 161–162
Mendonça family tree, 14–16, 417
Mendonça, Afonso Furtado do Rio de Castro de, 19
Cayru, invasion of, 232–234
Mendonça's racial heritage, 22–23
Mendonça's exile, 416
Brazil, 141–142, 192, 200–201
Portugal, 293, 296–300, 320
Confraternity of Our Lady of Rosary of Black Men, 300–312
Mendonça's experience of people being taken into slavery, 57–59, 141–144, 213–214, 219–222, 273, 372, 412
Mendonça's relationship with Overseas Council, 402 mens rea of slavery, 348
Mesquita, Gaspar da Costa, 11, 54, 313–314
Mendonça, relationship with, 315–316
Miller, Joseph, 31, 140, 399 misinterpretation of custom by Western world, 66–68, 175 kitandalfeiras, 68–70
mobuka, 33–34
terreyro, 66–67
mobuka
Western misinterpretation of custom of, 33–34 mocambos, 75, 229, 239, 242, 246
macamba distinguished, 242, 271
Quilombo dos Palmares, 271–272
mocanos incorporation in outposts, 71–72
Moirans, Epifanio de, 25–27, 47, 330, 332
evidence, impact of, 361–366
Molina, Luis de, 326–327, 337–338, 349, 356, 364, 372
Montecuccolo, Giovanni Antonio Cavazzi da, 60–64, 377
Municipal Council of Luanda
Apostolic Notary, 77 budget and financing, 12–14
Crown, relationship with, 78–80 dismissal of council members, 102 involvement in slave trade, 8, 11–14, 51–52, 59–60 policy, 59 structure, 76–77
natural law argument against slavery, 26, 27, 42, 49, 95, 135, 153, 186, 370, 379, 411, 414 Ndongo
background, 138, 147, 416–419
Christianity, 148
exile of royal family, 139
geography, 147
Hari I, election of, 163–169
language, 147
rule and succession, 148, 163–167 slavery, concept of, 153–154 servitude versus slavery, 154–155
war captives, 154–156
system of governance political hierarchy, 148–151 social divisions, 151–153
See also Angola.
Ndongo people
Correia de Sousa, relationship with, 83–85

- networks/alliances against Portuguese
 occupation, 142–144, 192, 378, 414, 426
 Hari II, 189
 Quilombo dos Palmares alliance with Indigenous people, 239–256
 New Christians, 6, 275, 321
 network with elite classes in Central West Africa, 20–22, 53, 316–317
 Pan-Atlantic solidarity, 11, 328, 420, 426 solidarity with enslaved Africans in Americas, 36, 53, 321, 420, 426
 Vatican court case, 328
 Ngola Aiidi, see João (John) Hari II
 Ngolamano, Dom Philippe, 194, 209, 280, 282–288
 Nicholas V (pope), 344–345, 372, 427
 Novais, Paulo Dias de, 11, 78, 156–157, 158, 207
- ocombas* and ynfucas, 71–72
 Oliveira, Fernando, 331
 Overseas Council of Portugal, 386–388, 409–410 African culture justification for slavery, 403, 410, 411 economic justification for slavery, 403–404, 421
 Hari I, relationship with, 55, 385, 388–390
 Hari II, relationship with, 55, 385, 390–392 ‘nature’ justification for slavery, 404 political struggles with, 55, 385, 402–408 social disorder justification for slavery, 403
- papal bulls
 conquest of Africa in the name of the Christian God, 372–373, 427–428
 Mendonça’s challenge, 374, 415
 Peçanha, Diogo Nabo, 116
 Álvares inheritance dispute, 125
 Pedro II, king of Kongo, 129, 417
 liberation and return of captives, 131
 Pedro II, king of Portugal, 355, 391, 392
 Quilombo dos Palmares, 261, 263, 272
 slave trade shipment reforms, 393–402
 Pereira, Manuel Cerveira, 81
 Correia de Sousa, relationship with, 82–83
- Philippe Hari I, 417
baculamento, 169, 174–175
 election to throne, 52, 145 Portuguese influence, 163, 166 succession disputes, 163–167 family background, 159–161
 Overseas Council, relationship with, 55, 385, 388–390
 Philippe III, king of Spain, 334
 Philippe IV, king of Spain, 417
 Portuguese Crown, 74
 Afonso I (Kongo), relationship with, 63–66
 Crown intervention
 liberation and return of captives, 104, 131, 133
 Municipal Council in Luanda, relationship with, 78–80
See also João II, king of Portugal; John VI, king of Portugal; Manuel, king of Portugal; Pedro II, king of Portugal; Sebastião, king of Portugal.
- Portuguese Inquisition
 Gaspar, 313
 Mesquita, 314
 punishment of slavery, 351
 witchcraft, 229
 Praça, Simão da Rocha, 207
presídio (outposts), 9
 legal system, 70
mocano, incorporation of, 71–72
 slave markets, 70
sobas, relationship with, 105–106
 Preto, Gaspar, 116
 proposals to end slavery, 359–360
 Pungo-Andongo destruction of, 8, 20, 52, 139, 188, 201–205, 391 loyalty to Portugal, 207–209 punishment of enslaved Africans, 225–229, 356–358 punishment as a form of education, 227
- Queen Njinga, 52, 377
 Correia de Sousa, relationship with, 83–84
 networks/alliances against Portuguese
 occupation, 142–144
 succession dispute with Hari I, 163–167

- Quilombo dos Palmares (Maroon community in Brazil), 10, 53, 239–242 alliance with the Native Americans. see Quilombo dos Palmares alliance with Indigenous people asylum principle, 245–246
colonos, 256–258
 exiled royals of Ndongo, 258–260, 270
 safe haven principle, 245–246
 Vieira, 260–261
 Christianisation of Palmares, 263–270
 creation of ‘tamed hamlets’, 262–270
- Quilombo dos Palmares alliance with Indigenous people, 239, 242–243, 245–256
- Reginaldo, Lucilene, 28–29, 141, 194, 196
- Reis, João José, 195
- religious freedom
 denial of, 6, 322, 420
- return/mucua principle, 244
- Rodney, Walter, 67, 154, 336
- Rufino, Alufá, 195
- runaway slaves, 229
 amnesties, 162
 rationale for invasion, 10, 53, 424
See also Quilombo dos Palmares (Maroon community in Brazil)
- Sá, Salvador Correia de Pungo-Andongo, destruction of, 201–205, 208–209
 safe haven principle, 245–246
- Salvador and the slave trade, 214–219
- Sebastião, king of Portugal, 156
- servitude/indenture, history of, 60–65, 154, 335, 424
 French law, 360
- Sharp, Granville, 2
- slave markets, 60, 66–67, 68–70, 156–158, 327
- slave resistance, 331
- slavery debate
 African-led legal debates, 6, 18–20 former enslaved Africans, 3
 Western narrative, 2–3, 6, 32, 38, 56, 67–68, 194–195, 327, 328, 338–341, 424–426, 430
- sobas* (Angolan local rulers)
 involvement in slave trade, 9
 taxation of, 175, 179–180
- solidarity between oppressed and enslaved, 36–37, 52–53, 236–239, 276–278, 321, 419–421, 426
- Black Atlantic Abolition Movement, 37
See also networks/alliances against Portuguese occupation; Quilombo dos Palmares alliance with Indigenous people
- Sousa, Fernão de
 Álvares inheritance dispute, 126, 128
 appointment as governor of Luanda, 167
baculamento, 9, 35, 68, 146, 169–176, 419
 forced gifts, 72
 Hari I, election of, 168
 Kazanza succession dispute, role in, 90
 runaway slaves, 161
- Sweet, James, 195
- Távora, Francisco de, 20, 52, 178
 appointment as governor of Luanda, 178–179 exploitation of political division, 179 supply of enslaved to the Americas, 180 trade and military strategy, 180–181 taxation as an enslavement method, 30, 67, 68
See also baculamento; financial importance of raiding and taxation theological rationale for slavery, 97
See also Christianisation of Africa; Christianisation rational for conquest/invasion
- Thornton, John, 73, 104, 141
 complicity of African rulers in slave trade, 60, 62 concept of slavery, 155–156
kijikos, 113, 155
 war against Kazanze, 86
- Tristão da Cunha incident, 202
- universal liberty concept, 7, 16, 40, 41, 53–54, 379
See also Black Atlantic Abolition Movement: concept of
- Vasconcelos, Luís Mendes de, 83, 85, 104, 174
- vassalage and tribute payments, 109, 110, 168
xicacos, 30
See also baculamento; forced gifts

- Vatican criminal case, 1, 16–20, 40, 42–44, 54–55, 382–383 categories of documents, 45–46, 349–351 closing statement, 367–371, 379–381
 confraternities of Black Brotherhoods, 40–42 Council of Trent, influence of, 47–48 evidence, 349–351 eye-witnesses, 46–47, 330 first legal challenge, 5, 57 impact, 408
 slave trade shipment reforms, 392
 Mendonça's argumentation, 371–379
 closing statement, 379–381
 Mendonça's presentation, 345–353 response to, 353–367, 384 second complaint, 5 universal liberty, 36
See also General Congregation (6 March 1684)
 Vatican's implication in slavery, 323
 Vaughan, James Churchill, 195–196
 Velho, Domingos Jorge, 256–260, 273
 Vidal de Negreiros, André, 81
- Vieira, António
 New Christians, 315
 Quilombo dos Palmares, 260–261
 Christianisation of Palmares, 263–270, 273
 creation of 'tamed hamlets', 262–270
 voices of protest against the enslavement of Africans Africans, 332
 Cadamoto, 332
 Brotherhoods of enslaved Africans, 348
 Correia de Sousa's actions, 93–100
 Hari II, 182
 Jaca and Moirans, 25, 356
See also networks/alliances against Portuguese occupation; Quilombo dos Palmares alliance with Indigenous people; solidarity between oppressed and enslaved
- Wadstrom, Carl, 81, 326 war as an enslavement method, 30 Wilberforce, William, 2, 328
 witchcraft, 229–231