

Index

- Afwerki, Isaias, 10, 40
- Algeria
- National Liberation Front in, 10, 35, 42
 - nationalism in, 35
 - Provisional Government of the Algerian Republic, 44
 - revolutionary organizations in, 11
- authoritarian regimes, 23
- autocracies and, political parties in, 22–24
 - dominant political parties in, 24–25
- Bella, Ben, 42, 44
- bellicist theory of state formation, 27, 51
- Bharatiya Janata Party (India), 36–37
- Blue Shirt Society. See Lixing She (Blue Shirt Society)
- Bo Gu, 139–40, 144
- Bo Yibo, 192–93
- Bolivia
- Movement for Socialism in, 37
 - revolutionary movements in, 37
 - Revolutionary Nationalist Movement, 8, 10, 37
- Boumédiène, Houari, 42, 44
- Braun, Otto, 139
- Cai Hesen, 121–22
- CC Faction. See Central Club (CC Faction)
- CCP. See Chinese Communist Party (CCP)
- Central Club (CC Faction), 168
- Chen Duxiu, 61, 110
- First United Front and, 113
 - mass mobilization infrastructure under, 111–13, 114
 - during ascension to power, 111
 - Comintern and, 112–13
 - loss of leadership, 112–13
- Chen Gongbo, 169
- Chen Jiongming, 58
- Chen Jitang, 178
- Chiang Ching-kuo, 197–98
- Chiang Kai-shek, 3, 21, 68. See also
- Kuomintang (KMT)
 - arrest of, 75
 - Comintern and, 162–63
 - consolidation of power by, 110, 178–79
 - alliance with Hu Han-min, 162–65
 - alliance with Wang Ching-wei, 162
 - internal civil war as result of, 164–65
 - economic elites and, 69, 161–66
 - land tax policies under, 83
 - mass mobilization under, 180–81
 - military career of, 162
 - party reforms under, 176–85, 198–200
 - party-building under, 166–70
 - through patronage networks, 166–68
 - as quasi-dominant leader, 179–82
 - power-sharing under, 165–66
 - purge of CCP members under, 112, 163
 - as quasi-dominant leader, 176–85, 196–98
 - party-building under, 179–82
 - power consolidation under, 178–79
 - Sun Yat-sen as influence on, 180
 - suppression of labor movements, 69
 - Three Principles of the People League and, 181–82
 - Zhongshanjian Incident and, 163

- China. See also methodological approach, to Republican-era China; specific topics
 authoritarian regime in, 3
 Civil War in (1946–1949), 1, 195
 inflation in, 77
 Chinese Communist Party (CCP). See also First United Front; grain extraction, infrastructure for; grain levies; methodological approach, to Republican-era China; mobilized
 compliance, infrastructure for, in CCP;
specific topics
 Comintern financial support of, 57–58, 59, 62, 63, 66
 constitution of, 157
 contingent events for, 20–21
 dominant leadership in, 40, 138–44
 historical legacy of, 190–91, 202–5
 extractive capacity of expropriation limits and, 67
 revenue sources and, 63–67, 79, 100
 during Sino-Japanese War, 77–81, 100
 Soviet base areas, 62–67
 taxation policies, 63–64, 66–67, 80
 grain burden distribution schemes by, 101–2
 progressive, 102
 Kuomintang and defeated of, 1–4
 Second United Front and, 76
 membership of, 89 declines in, 1
 from 1921–1949, 2
 purge of, 112
 opium revenue for, 80, 81
 party-building in, 16–19
 under Chen Duxiu, 113–16
 during elite contestation (1927–1935), 124–30
 under Mao Zedong, 144–48
 prewar resource mobilization by (1921–1937)
 expropriation as instrument of, 67
 extractive capacity and, 55–56
 organizational structure, 55–56 party institutionalization, 55–56 party longevity, 55–56
 summary of, 73–74
 theoretical approach to, 55–56
 Red Army and, 64–66
 expansion of, 65
 reversal of fortune for, 1–4, 12
 contingent events for, 20–21
 degree of elite power struggle and, 16–19
 methodological approach to, 16–21
 party strength as element in, 19–20 party-building as element of, 16–19
 resource mobilization and, 19–20
 revolutionary legacy of, 189–95
 in Shaan-Gan-Ning area, 79–81
 Sino-Japanese War and, 16, 21, 137–38
 extractive capacity during, 77–81, 86–107
 response to fiscal shock during, 96
 Yan'an Rectification Campaign, 20, 138,
 144, 147–48, 149, 151
 Zunyi Conference, 139–40, 145
 Chinese Revolution (1911), 12
 Chinese Revolutionary Party. See Zhonghua Gemin Dang (Chinese Revolutionary Party)
 Christian Democratic Party (Italy), 24
 Civil War (1946–1949), in China, 1, 195
 clientelism, 201–2
 Comintern (Communist International)
 Chen Duxiu and, 112–13
 Chiang Kai-shek and, 162
 Chinese Communist Party supported by,
 57–58, 59, 62, 63, 66
 Kuomintang supported by, 59–61
 Mao Zedong and, 139, 143, 144
 mass mobilization infrastructure of CCP influenced by, 111, 120–24
 under Chen Duxiu, 112–13
 Returned Student Faction and, 120
 Qu Qiubai and, 124–25
 communism. See Chinese Communist Party
 (CCP); Indochinese Communist Party
 (ICP); Soviet Union; specific topics
 Communist International. See Comintern (Communist International) compliance theory, 33. See also mobilized
 compliance, infrastructure for, in CCP
 Congress Party (India), 8 contracting-out parties, 24–25
 Cuba, authoritarian regime in, 3
 Cultural Revolution, 190, 194
 Deng Xiaoping, 190–91
 dominant leaders, dominant leadership and.
See also quasi-dominant leaders,
 Chiang Kai-shek as; specific people
 in Chinese Communist Party, 40
 historical legacy of, 190–91, 202–5
 in Kuomintang, 153–60
 historical legacy of, 196–98, 202–5
 regime type and, 40

Index

255

- dominant political parties, in authoritarian regimes, 3
- domination, political
 - conceptual approach to, 4–12
 - contingencies for, 10–12
 - equilibrium outcomes for, 10–12
 - of revolutionary parties
 - definition of, 4–5
 - dominant party leaders in, 6–7
 - origins of, 4
 - in political revolutions, 5
 - power-sharing by, 6–7
 - in social revolutions, 5
 - theoretical approach to, 4–12
- East Timor, 204
- ELF. See Eritrean Liberation Front (ELF)
- elites, political
 - in Chinese Communist Party, mass mobilization infrastructure and, 119–35
 - in Kuomintang, 58–61, 68–69
 - Mao Zedong supported by, 138
 - resource mobilization of, 8, 9
 - in revolutionary parties
 - balance of power and, 39–43
 - incentives for, 34–43
 - party-building in, 39–43
 - power consolidation among, 42–43
 - power sharing among, 41–42
- EPLF. See Eritrean People's Liberation Front (EPLF)
- Eritrea, authoritarian regime in, 3
- Eritrean Liberation Front (ELF), 3, 40
- Eritrean People's Liberation Front (EPLF), 43
- Etzioni, Amitai, 33
- extractive capacity. See also grain extraction, infrastructure for
 - of Chinese Communist Party, 62–67
 - expropriation limits and, 67
 - mobilized compliance infrastructure and, 86–95
 - prewar resource mobilization and, 55–56
 - revenue sources and, 63–67, 79, 100
 - taxation policies, 63–64, 66–67, 80
- of Kuomintang, 67–73
 - through elite mobilization, 68–69
 - during Sino-Japanese War, 76–78
 - taxation policies, 60–61, 70, 71–72
 - transformation of, 70–72
 - urban bias in, 71–73
- resource mobilization and, theoretical approach to, 45–51
- of revolutionary parties, 33–34, 49–51
- factionalism, 24
- failed states, after regime collapse, 3
- First United Front, 57, 58–59, 79, 111, 152, 195, 198
 - Chen Duxiu and, 112
 - collapse of, 112, 121
 - formation of, 153, 155, 156
 - mass mobilization infrastructure of CCP and, 111–12, 116–17
 - power struggle within, 160
- FLN. See National Liberation Front (FLN)
- Four Major Mobilization Campaign, 88
- FRETILIN, in East Timor, 204
- From Mobilization to Revolution* (Tilly), 33
- From Rebel to Ruler* (Saich), 52
- FSLN. See Sandinista National Liberation Front (FSLN)
- GPRA. See Provisional Government of the Algerian Republic (GPRA)
- grain burden distribution schemes
 - by Chinese Communist Party, 101–2
 - progressive scheme by, 102
 - across rural classes, 102–3
 - during Sino-Japanese War, 101, 102
 - zero-sum game within the village, 92–93
 - by Kuomintang, 101–2
 - regressive scheme by, 101–2
 - across rural classes, 102–3
 - during Sino-Japanese War, 101, 102
- grain extraction, infrastructure for. See also mobilized compliance, infrastructure for, in CCP
 - by Chinese Communist Party, 96–108
 - areas of, 97–98
 - degree of extraction, 97–98
 - impact of grassroots party, 89–95, 103–7
 - scale of government and, 106
 - informal institutions in, 106–7
 - in Jin-Cha-Ji area, 97–98, 102–3
 - in Jin-Sui area, 97–98, 102–3
 - by Kuomintang, 81–86, 96–108
 - under Chiang Kai-shek, 83–84
 - degree of extraction, 97–98
 - impact of grassroots party, 103–7
 - through indirect rule, 83–84
 - through land tax centralization, 82–83, 84–86
 - liability of elite mobilization, 81–86
 - scale of government and, 106
 - as revenue source, 100
 - reversed causality and, 106–7
 - in Shaan-Gan-Nin area, 97–98, 102–3

- grain levies. See also mobilized compliance, infrastructure for, in CCP
- by Chinese Communist Party, 86–95
- coercive tactics, 88, 90, 93–94
- contribution to government revenue, 98–101
- democratic assessment of, 91–92
- diffusion of mobilized compliance, 94–95
- expansion of, 87–89
- grain burden distribution schemes, 92–93
- local elites and, 90
- statistical analysis of, 105
- village as unit for, 90–91
- as fiscal extraction, 100
- by Kuomintang
- contribution to government revenue, 98–101
- statistical analysis of, 105
- Great Leap Forward, 190, 194
- Gu Yinfen, 70–71
- Gu Zhun, 193–94
- guardianship dilemma, 205
- Ha Huy Tap, 45
- Hezbollah, in Lebanon, 204
- hierarchical mass parties, 24–25
- Ho Chi Minh. See Nguyen Ai Quoc (Ho Chi Minh)
- Hu Han-min, 17–18, 21, 162–65, 176. See also Kuomintang (KMT)
- anti-Chiang coalitions, 170
- loss of leadership, 177–78
- New Kuomintang and, 169
- party-building under, 168–69
- on power-sharing arrangements, 165
- Sun Yat-sen as influence on, 168–69
- Hungarian Communist Party, 41
- Hungary, revolutionary parties in, 41
- ICP. See Indochinese Communist Party (ICP)
- ideology, party
- political mobilization and, 9
- of revolutionary parties
- accommodationist approach to, 37
- as constraining/sorting device, 34–37
- ideological sources of, 31
- for incoherent parties, 35
- mobilization infrastructure and, 36
- resource mobilization and, 36
- incoherent revolutionary parties, 35
- incorporation, as power accumulation strategy, 6–7
- independence parties, revolutionary parties and, 52–53
- India
- Bharatiya Janata Party in, 36–37
- Congress Party in, 8
- Indochinese Communist Party (ICP), 2, 10, 44–45. See also Nguyen Ai Quoc (Ho Chi Minh)
- Institutional Revolutionary Party (Mexico), 36
- iron law of oligarchy, 42–43
- Italy, Christian Democratic Party in, 24
- Japan. See also Sino-Japanese War
- Wang Ching-wei negotiations with, 177
- Jin-Cha-Ji area, grain extraction in, 97–98, 102–3
- Jin-Sui area, 80–81
- grain extraction in, 97–98, 102–3
- mobilized compliance in, 86–95
- opium revenue, 81
- Key, V. O., 24
- Khider, Mohammed, 42
- Kirov, Sergei, 11
- KMT. See Kuomintang (KMT)
- Korean War, 195
- Kuibyshev, Nikolay, 163
- Kung Hsiang-hsi, 69
- Kuomintang (KMT). See also First United Front; grain extraction, infrastructure for; Hu Han-min; methodological approach, to Republican-era China; Wang Ching-wei; specific topics
- baojia* system, 68–69
- Chinese Communist Party and
- defeat by, 1–4
- as organizational influence, 195–96
- Second United Front and, 76
- clientelism and, 201–2
- collapse of, 1
- Comintern support of, 59–61
- composition of Central Committee, 18
- conceptual approach to, 152–53
- as revolutionary organization, 152
- constitution of, 157
- contestation of leadership within, 161–66
- dominant leadership in, 153–60
- historical legacy of, 196–98, 202–5
- extractive capacity of, 67–73
- through elite mobilization, 68–69
- during Sino-Japanese War, 76–78
- taxation policies, 70, 71–72
- transformation of, 70–72
- urban bias in, 71–73
- factions within, 154–55, 161
- ideological orientation of, 161

Index

257

- Reorganization Faction, 169
- territorial control of, 161
- grain burden distribution schemes by, 101–2
- regressive, 101–2
- grain levies by
 - contribution to government revenue, 98–101
 - statistical analysis of, 105
- Manifesto of the China Revolutionary Party, 156
- May 4 Student Movement and, 154, 157
- membership from 1921–1949, 2
- mobilization infrastructures for
 - under Chiang Kai-shek, 69, 83–84
 - historical legacy of, 202–5
 - through indirect rule, 83–86
 - through land tax centralization, 82–83, 84–86
- Nanjing Nationalist Government and, 61, 68
- Northern Expedition and, 70–71, 161, 170, 178
- party membership in, 159, 171–75
 - educational background of, 184
 - expansion of, 158–60, 170, 182–85
 - geographic distribution of, 158–60, 174–75
 - indigenous peoples in, 200
 - military members, 172
 - from 1926–1937, 171
 - from 1937–1945, 183
 - occupational background of, 171–74, 183–84, 185
 - party cells and committees, 158–60, 176, 186
 - rank-and-file members, 172, 173
 - recruitment for, 200
- party organization
 - through grassroots approaches, 158–60, 175–76, 185
 - through party reforms, 3, 167, 198–99
 - weaknesses in, 152
- party reforms, 158–60, 176–85
 - through organizational changes, 3, 167, 198–99
- party-building by
 - under Chiang Kai-shek, 166–70, 198–202
 - conflicting outcomes, 170–76
 - historical legacy of, 198–202
 - under Hu Han-min, 168–69
 - through patronage networks, 166–68
- power struggles within, 160–76
 - civil war as result of, 164–65
 - among elites, 161–66
 - power-sharing in, 165–66
- predecessors of, 56
- prewar resource mobilization by (1921–1937)
 - distribution of customs revenue, 72–73
 - elite mobilization, 58–61
 - extractive capacity of, 67–73
 - fiscal foundations for, 70–72
 - summary of, 73–74
 - theoretical approach to, 55–56
- provincial party committee chairmen (from 1928–1949), 179
- during Qing Dynasty, role in collapse of, 154
- reversal of fortune for, 1–4, 12
 - contingent events for, 20–21
 - methodological approach to, 16–21
 - party strength as element in, 19–20
 - resource mobilization and, 19–20
- revolutionary legacy of, 195–202
- Shanghai Massacre, 61
- Sino-Japanese War and, 19–20, 21, 152, 185
 - extractive capacity during, 76–78, 81–86
 - response to fiscal shock during, 85
- as successor to earlier revolutionary organizations, 154
- Sun Yat-sen and, 21, 58, 111, 154–55
- in Taiwan, 200
- Three Principles of the People League, 181–82
- Whampoa Military Academy and, 58–59
- Zhang Guotao defection to, 142
- Le Hong Phong, 45
- Lebanon, Hezbollah in, 204
- Lenin, Vladimir, 156–57, 186
- Li Dazhao, 111
- Li Lisan, 45, 121–22
 - leadership of CCP under, 127
 - rejection of, 129–30
- Li Weiham, 121, 122
- Li Zongren, 178
- Liao Zhongkai, 155, 162
- Liu Lantao, 93
- Liu Shaoqi, 122
- Lixing She (Blue Shirt Society), 168
- Lominadze, Besso, 121
- Long March, 139–42
- Luo Zhanglong, 122
- Madison, James, 24
- Malayan Communist Party, 41
- Manifesto of the China Revolutionary Party, 156

- Mao Zedong, 3, 17–18
 Comintern and, 139, 143, 144
 consolidation of power for, 110, 137–44, 151, 202
 among party elites, 138
 dominant leadership of, 40, 190
 Long March and, 140–42
 party-building strategies under, 144–48
 during power struggles, 147–48
 Red Army and, 64–65, 123–24
 rural mobilization infrastructure under,
 148–51
 CCP membership and, 148, 149–51
 party cells/committees in, 150
 Wang Ming and, 138
 Comintern and, 144
 power struggles between, 142–44, 147–48
 Yan'an Rectification Campaign, 20, 138,
 144, 147–49, 151
 Zhang Guotao and, 138
 power struggles between, 140–42, 145–46
 Zunyi Conference and, 139–40, 145
 Maring. See Sneevliet, Henk (Maring)
 Marx, Karl, 113–14
 Marxism, Sinification of, 144
 mass mobilization infrastructure, of CCP,
 from 1921–1934
 under Chen Duxiu, 111–14, 120
 ascension to power, 111
 Comintern and, 112–13
 loss of leadership, 124–25, 136
 collapse of, 119–35
 Comintern influences on, 111, 120–24
 under Chen Duxiu, 112–13
 Returned Student Faction and, 120
 Communist revolution and, 111–19
 contradictions in, 130–35
 First United Front and, 111–12, 116–17
 Marx and, 113–14
 methodological approach to, 24–25, 110
 origins of, 111–13
 Comintern influence in, 111 party elites in, 119–35
 rise and fall of, 122–24 party leadership in, 120–24 turnovers in, 120–22, 125–30 party membership, 117, 132 party cells, 118, 119, 132, 150
 transformation of, 133–35
 party-building through, 113–16 discriminatory strategies for, 124–30 internal reports on, 115
 rich peasant policies in, 127–29
 in social movements, 3
 Soviet Union as influence on, 113–16,
 125–29
 Party Manifesto, 113
 through worker support, 126–27
 summary of, 135–36
 theoretical approach to, 109–10
 weaknesses of, 130–35
 lack of grassroots organization, 131–33 worker-centric mobilization, 116–19, 135 grassroots party cells, 118–19, 150 through party membership, 117–19, 133–35, 150
 mass mobilization infrastructure, of KMT
 under Chiang Kai-shek, 180–81
 elite-centric, 155–57
 formation of, 155–56
 Leninist principles in, 156–57, 186
 methodological approach to, 110
 May 4 Student Movement, 154, 157
 methodological approach, to Republican-era China, 12–30
 on collapse of Kuomintang, 25–27 conflict-centric view, 23
 data sources in, 15–16
 mass mobilization and, 24–25
 party-building and, 22–24
 in authoritarian regimes, 23
 in totalitarian regimes, 23
 power sharing studies, 22–24 research design, 12–16
 case selection in, 12–13
 intraparty elite balance of power in, 13–14
 key variables, 13–15
 mixed methods approach, 13
 mobilization infrastructure in, 15 party-building strategies, 14 resource mobilization capacity in, 15 resource endowment and, 25
 resource mobilization and, 24–25, 27
 in research design, 15
 on rise of communism, 25–27
 Sino-Japanese War in, 25–27
 Mexico, Institutional Revolutionary Party, 36
 Mif, Pavel, 122, 144
 MNR. See Revolutionary Nationalist Movement (MNR)
 mobilization, political. See also Chinese Communist Party (CCP); Kuomintang (KMT); mobilized compliance, infrastructure for, in CCP
 conceptual approach to, 4–12

Index

259

- contingencies for, 10–12
- equilibrium outcomes for, 10–12
- mobilized compliance, 20
- party ideology and, 9
- through party-building, 9
- resource mobilization, 7–10
 - of elites, 8, 9
 - financial resources, 7
 - human resources, 7
 - for social movements, 7
 - state capacity as influence on, 7
- theoretical approach to, 4–12
- mobilization infrastructures, for financial
 - resource. See also mass mobilization infrastructure, of CCP; mass mobilization infrastructure, of KMT; rural mobilization infrastructure, of CCP
- for Kuomintang
 - under Chiang Kai-shek, 83–84
 - historical legacy of, 202–5
 - through indirect rule, 83–86
 - through land tax centralization, 82–83, 84–86
 - liability of, 81–86
- mobilized compliance, infrastructure for, in CCP
 - compensation effect of, 89–95
 - extractive capacity, 86–95
 - ineffectiveness of bureaucratic capacity, 87–89
- Four Major Mobilization Campaign, 88
- grain levies and, 86–95
 - coercive tactics, 88, 90, 93–94
 - democratic assessment of, 91–92
 - diffusion of mobilized compliance, 94–95
 - expansion of, 87–89
 - grain burden distribution schemes within
 - a village, 92–93
 - local elites and, 90
 - village as unit for, 90–91
- historical legacy of, 191–95
- institutionalization of, 191–95
- in Jin-Sui area, 86–95
- monetary policies and, 86
- of peasants, 91–92, 201
- in Shaan-Gan-Ning area, 94–95
- during Sino-Japanese War, 96
- voluntary, 89
- Movement for Socialism, in Bolivia, 37
- Nanjing Nationalist Government, 61, 68
- National Liberation Front (FLN), 10, 35, 42
- nationalism, in Algeria, 35
- Neumann, Heinz, 121
- New Kuomintang party, 169
- Nguyen Ai Quoc (Ho Chi Minh), 10, 40, 44–45
- Nicaragua, Sandinista National Liberation Front in, 8
- Northern Expedition, 70–71, 161, 170, 178
- oligarchy. See iron law of oligarchy
- opium production, Chinese Communist Party
 - revenue from, 80, 81
- party ideology. See ideology, party
- party leadership. See also Chinese Communist Party (CCP); Kuomintang (KMT)
 - in mass mobilization infrastructure of CCP, 120–24
 - turnovers in leadership, 120–22, 125–30
- party-building
 - under Chiang Kai-shek, 166–70
 - through patronage networks, 166–68
 - as quasi-dominant leader, 179–82
 - in Chinese Communist Party, 16–19
 - under Mao Zedong, 144–48
 - mass mobilization infrastructure and, 113–16, 124–30, 147–48
 - under Hu Han-min, 168–69
- by Kuomintang
 - under Chiang Kai-shek, 166–70, 179–82
 - conflicting outcomes, 170–76
 - historical legacy of, 198–202
 - under Hu Han-min, 168–69
 - through patronage networks, 166–68
- methodological approach to, 22–24
 - in authoritarian regimes, 23
 - in totalitarian regimes, 23
- political mobilization through, 9
- in revolutionary parties, 34–43, 188–89
 - elite incentives in, 39–43
 - intraparty power struggles as element of, 41
- patronage networks
 - Chiang Kai-shek and, 166–68
 - Wang Ching-wei and, 175
- peasant populations, mobilization of
 - mass mobilization infrastructure in, 127–29
 - through mobilized compliance, 91–92, 201
- People's Republic of China (PRC)
 - Cultural Revolution in, 190
 - formation of, 191–92
 - Great Leap Forward and, 190
 - mobilized compliance in, 194
 - tax collection in, 192–94
- political domination. See domination, political
- political elites. See elites, political

- political mobilization. See mobilization, political political parties. See also party-building;
 revolutionary parties in autocracies, 24
 contracting-out, 24–25
 hierarchical mass parties, 24–25
 ideology of, 9
 mobilization of, through party-building, 9 religious organizations and, 48
 in totalitarian regimes, 24
 political party strength
 of Chinese Communist Party, 19–20
 dynamic model of, 50
 of Kuomintang, 19–20
 power, consolidation of. See also power accumulation strategies; power-sharing by Chiang Kai-shek, 110, 178–79
 by Chinese Communist Party, 16–19
 in Kuomintang, 16–19
 by Mao Zedong, 110, 137–44, 151, 202
 among party elites, 138
 methodological approach to, 22–24
 in revolutionary parties, 42–43
 power accumulation strategies incorporation as, 6–7
 state substitution as, 6–7
 power-sharing Hu Han-min on, 165
 in Kuomintang, 165–66
 by revolutionary parties, 6–7
 Wang Ching-wei on, 165, 169–70
 PRC. See People's Republic of China (PRC)
 Provisional Government of the Algerian
 Republic (GPRA), 44
 Qing Dynasty, 12
 Kuomintang role in collapse of, 154, 156–57
 Qu Qiubai, 45, 120, 121, 122
 Comintern and, 124–25
 quasi-dominant leaders, Chiang Kai-shek as, 176–85, 196–98
 party-building under, 179–82
 power consolidation under, 178–79
 Red Army
 Chinese Communist Party and, 64–66
 expansion of, 65
 Mao Zedong and, 64–65, 123, 124
 religious organizations, political parties and, 48
 Ren Bishi, 122, 143
 Reorganization Faction, 169
 resource mobilization. See also Chinese Communist Party (CCP); Kuomintang
 (KMT); revolutionary parties;
 specific topics
 extractive capacity and, 61–73
 theoretical approach to, 61–62
 methodological approach to, 15, 24–25, 27
 in research design, 15
 of political elites, 8, 9
 political mobilization and, 7–10
 of elites, 8, 9
 financial resources, 7
 human resources, 7
 for social movements, 7
 state capacity as influence on, 7
 in revolutionary parties, 32–34
 Revolutionary Nationalist Movement (MNR), 8, 10, 37
 revolutionary organizations. See also specific topics in Algeria, 11 in Vietnam, 11
 revolutionary parties. See also Chinese Communist Party (CCP);
 Kuomintang (KMT)
 balance of power in, 39–43
 intraparty struggles, 41
 power sharing, 41–42
 in Bolivia, 37
 domination leadership in, 45–51
 endogenous/exogenous interactions in, 31–32 in Hungary, 41
 ideological sources of, 31
 accommodationist approach to, 37
 as constraining/sorting device, 34–37
 incoherent, 35
 mobilization infrastructure and, 36
 independence parties and, 52–53 party elites
 balance of power and, 39–43
 incentives for, 34–43
 for party-building, 39–43
 power consolidation among, 42–43
 power sharing among, 41–42
 party mobilization infrastructure, 43–45 comparative advantages of, 46–48
 equilibria of, 44, 49–51
 mobilized compliance, 47
 party-building in, 32, 34–43
 elite incentives in, 39–43
 historical legacy of, 188–89
 intraparty power struggles as element of, 41
 political domination of definition of revolutionary parties, 4–5 dominant party leaders, 6–7

Index

261

- origins of, 4
- in political revolutions, 5
- power-sharing by, 6–7
- in social revolutions, 5
- psychological sources of, 31
- resource mobilization in, 32–34
 - bureaucratic capacity and, 33–34
 - challenges in, 45–46
 - compliance theory for, 33
 - extractive capacity and, 33–34, 49–51
 - fiscal, 45–46
 - leadership domination to, 45–51
 - party ideology and, 36
- social networks and, 31–32
- strength of, 32
 - dynamic model of, 50
- taxation models and, 46
- theoretical approach to, 31–32
 - summary of, 51–54
- revolutions, political, structural perspective of, 11
- rural mobilization infrastructure, of CCP
 - under Mao Zedong, 148–51
 - CCP membership and, 148, 149–51
 - party cells/committees in, 150
 - theoretical approach to, 137–38
- Saich, Tony, 52
- Sandinista National Liberation Front (FSLN), 8
- Second United Front, 76
- Shaan-Gan-Ning area
 - grain extraction in, 97–98
 - mobilized compliance in, 94–95
- Shanghai Massacre, 61
- Sino-Japanese War, 1–2, 10
 - Chiang Kai-shek during, 21
 - Chinese Communist Party expansion
 - during, 16, 21, 137–38
 - resource mobilization and, 75–76
- data for grain extraction infrastructure
 - during, 103–4
- extractive capacity during, 76–81
 - of Kuomintang, 76–77
- grain burden distribution schemes during, 101, 102
- Kuomintang and, 19–20, 21, 152, 185
 - extractive capacity during, 76–78
 - extractive capacity of, 76–77
 - fiscal shocks for, 76–77
 - resource mobilization and, 75–76
- mobilized compliance infrastructure during, 96
- resource mobilization during, 75–76
- Sneevliet, Henk (Maring), 111
- social movements
 - mass mobilization and, 3
 - resource mobilization for, 7
- Soong Tse-ven, 60, 69, 70–71, 164–65
- Soviet Union
 - Ho Chi Minh trained in, 44–45
 - Kuomintang supported by, 1–2
 - mass mobilization infrastructure of CCP
 - influenced by, 113–16, 125–29
 - Party Manifesto, 113
 - through worker support, 126–27
- Stalin, Joseph, 11, 190
- state building. See state formation, bellicist theory of
- state capacity, resource mobilization
 - influenced by, 7
- state formation, bellicist theory of, 27, 51
- state substitution, as power accumulation
 - strategy, 6–7
- Su Zhaozheng, 121
- Sun Fengming, 177
- Sun Ke, 164–65
- Sun Yat-sen, 17–18, 21, 58, 111, 122, 195. See also First United Front; Kuomintang (KMT)
- Chiang Kai-shek influenced by, 180
- death of, 160
- dominant leadership of, 154–55
 - alliance with Chinese Communist Party, 154–55
 - alliance with Soviet Union, 154
 - Comintern and, 155
- elite-centric mass mobilization under, 155–57
 - formation of, 155–56
 - Leninist principles in, 156–57, 186
- Hu Han-min influenced by, 168–69
- May 4 Student Movement and, 154, 157
- reform of Kuomintang under, 158–60
- Three Principles of the People, 152–53, 154, 157
- Taiwan, Kuomintang in, 200
- taxation mechanisms and models
 - for Kuomintang, land tax centralization, 82–83, 84–86
 - in People's Republic of China, 192–94
- Three Principles of the People, 152–53, 154, 157
- Three Principles of the People Youth League, 181–82
- through patronage networks, in KMT, 166–68
- Tilly, Charles, 33
- totalitarian regimes, political parties in, 24
- Tran Phu, 45

Vietnam

- authoritarian regime in, 3
- dominant leadership in, 40
- Indochinese Communist Party in, 2, 10
- voluntary compliance infrastructure, 89

Wang Ching-wei, 17–18, 21, 112, 162, 164, 176

- loss of leadership, 177–78
- negotiations with Japanese, 177
- patronage networks and, 175
- on power-sharing, 165, 169–70

Wang Kequan, 122

Wang Ming, 20, 65, 122

- Mao Zedong and, 138
- Comintern and, 144
- power struggles between, 142–44, 147–48

Whampoa Military Academy, 58–59, 162

Xi Jinping, 191

Xiang Zhongfa, 121, 122, 123–24

Xu Zhongzhi, 162

Yan Xishan, 82, 170

Yan'an Rectification Campaign, 20, 138, 144, 147–48, 149, 151

Yang Hucheng, 21

Yuan Shikai, 154

Zeng Xing, 155

Zhang Fagui, 170

Zhang Guotao, 20, 111, 205

defection to KMT, 142

Mao Zedong and, 138

power struggles between, 140–42, 145–46

Zhou Enlai and, 142

Zhang Hao, 145–46

Zhang Wentian, 139–40

Zhang Xueliang, 21, 75

Zhang Zuolin, 175

Zhonghua Gemin Dang (Chinese Revolutionary Party), 56

Zhou Enlai, 121–22, 124, 139–40, 142

Zhu De, 123, 124, 139–40

Zhu Jiahua, 180

Zunyi Conference, 139–40, 145