

Index

- Abers, Rebecca Neaera, 148
 ABIGALE. See Association of Bisexuals, Gays and Lesbians (ABIGALE)
 Achmat, Zackie, 76
 ACT UP, 38
 advocacy groups, for LGBTQ+ populations. See lesbian organizations, lesbian advocacy groups and Africa, LGBTQ+ populations in. See also South Africa intersectional approach to, 34–35
 oppositional public discourse on, 34–35
 African National Congress (ANC), 22
 Afro-Argentines, 45
 Ahmed, Sara, 38–39, 162
 AIDS/HIV crisis, in South Africa, 73
 Alexander, Benny, 79–80
 Álvarez Nazareno, Carlos, 58
Amenaza Lésbica, 56–57
 ANC. See African National Congress (ANC)
 Argentina
 Afro-Argentines, 45
 citizenship rights in, 52–53
 colonialism in, 44–47
 intersectionality in LGBTQ+ issues
 influenced by, 179
 consolidation of state in, 44–47
 establishment of whiteness as part of, 45–46 modernization processes, 45 nation-building processes, 44–45 decolonization process in, 43
 democratization process in, 55
 the disappeared in, 49–50
 CONADEP and, 50
 discursive opportunities in, 47–55
 Federación Argentina LGBT, 2, 17, 22, 53, 64, 125–130
 heterosexuality in, 45
 Immigration and Colonization Act, 45–46
 intersectionality in LGBTQ+ issues, 176
 colonial history as influence in, 179
 legal status of homosexuality in, 45 lesbian populations in feminist organizations, 56–58
 internalized lesbophobia, 16–17, 62–64
 negative opinions in, 47
 visibility of, 55–57, 59
 LGBTQ+ activism in, 42
 access to political structures, 50–53
 Comunidad Homosexual Argentina, 50–51
 discursive opportunities for, 53–55
 Frente de Liberación Homosexual, 49
 Grupo Nuestro Mundo, 49
 historical development of, 49
 in human rights context, 54–55
 oppositional discourse on, 61–65
 political opportunities for, 51–52 racism as element of, 58
 for same-sex marriage rights, 53

- Argentina (cont.)
 LGBTQ+ organizations in Amenaza Lésbica, 56–57
 lesbian feminist, 56–58
 Lesbianas a la Vista, 57
 Las Lunas y las Otras, 56–57
 organizational dynamics, 55–61
Madres de Plaza de Mayo, 57
 National Institute against Discrimination, Xenophobia and Racism in, 2, 53
 neoliberalism economic policies in, 51
 convertibility plan, 51
 Peronism in, 47–49
 women under, 48–49
 political opportunities in, 47–55
 for LGBTQ+ activists, 51–52
 public lesbian interventions in, 163–173
 race in “browning” of population, 47–48
 categorization of, 45–46
 establishment of whiteness and, 45–46
 race-mixing in, 44–45
 elimination of Blackness through, 45
 through marriage and, 45
 same-sex marriage rights in, 2, 11
 discursive opportunities for, 53–55
 LGBTQ+ activist support for, 53
 sex and sexuality in decriminalization of sodomy, 46–47 history of, 13
 intersectionality and, 44–45
 policy-setting on, 47
 transgender populations in, 55
travesti in, 34, 55–57
 whiteness in
 in 1853 constitution, 45–46
 in consolidation of state of, 45–46
 demographic influences on, 48
 political elites and, 45
 women’s movements in, 29
 Association of Bisexuals, Gays and Lesbians (ABIGALE), 76
- Baartman, Sara, 67
 Beckwith, Karen, 15
 Berco, Christian, 46
 Bernstein, Mary, 25
 bisexuality
 in Argentina, 60
 Association of Bisexuals, Gays and Lesbians, 76
- Federación Estatal de Lesbianas,
 Gays, Transexuales y Bisexuales*,
 52–53, 54
 Free Gender and, 78
 International Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and Intersex Association, 11
 marginalization of, 60
 Black queer women. See also Free Gender; lesbian organizations, lesbian advocacy groups and construction of sexuality for, 12–13
 Free Gender and
 African lesbian identity, 90–92, 97
 Black identity in, 77–79
 La Fulana and, 17
 Brazil
 banning of conversion therapy in, 2 “browning” of population in, 48
 homophobia in, 34
 LGBTQ+ activism in, 34
- Canada, banning of conversion
 therapy in, 2
 Carrasco, Adriana, 56
 Castro, Claudia, 53, 64, 116, 124–125,
 127–128, 130. See also La Fulana on openness by lesbians, 108–109
 on Pride marches, 172
 self-identification as lesbian, 112–113
 Cavallo, Domingo, 51–52
 Centros Integrales de la Mujer (CIM), 129–130
 CHA. See *Comunidad Homosexual
 Argentina* (CHA)
 CIM. See Centros Integrales de la Mujer (CIM) citizenship, right to
 in Argentina, 52–53
 identity categories and, 10–11
 intersectionality and, 4–8
 in Russia, 184–185
 LGBTQ+ identity strategizing and, 4–8 for LGBTQ+ populations, 3 inclusion into citizenship, 8–12
 in South Africa
 colonialism and, 65–66
 construction of, 84–85
 universal, 149–150
 Civil Union Act, South Africa, 81–82
 clientelism, 130–132
 Cohen, Cathy, 13–14
 Cohen, Steven, 96

Index

231

- collective identity, 14
 - multiple power systems and, 31
 - political identity model, 28
 - through social movements, 25
 - strategic deployment of, 27–31
- colonialism, colonial process and
 - in Africa, 8–9
 - in Argentina, 44–47
 - intersectionality in LGBTQ+ issues
 - influenced by, 179
 - in Latin America, 8–9
 - patterns of power in, 9
 - racial codification and, 8–9
 - in South Africa, 43, 65–68
 - citizenship and, 65–66
 - racial division of labor in, 66
- Comunidad Homosexual Argentina* (CHA), 50–51, 55
- CONADEP. See National Commission on the Disappearance of Persons (CONADEP)
- consciousness-raising strategies
 - by La Fulana, 106–107
 - social movements and, 25
- Crenshaw, Kimberlé, 12–13
- Cuadernos de Existencia Lesbiana* (Carrasco and Fuskova), 56
- Cuba, “browning” of population in, 48
- Currier, Ashley, 26, 81

- Dave, Naisargi, 90
- Davids, Nadia, 73–74
- de la Rúa, Fernando, 51–52
- decolonization process
 - in Argentina, 43
 - in South Africa, 15–16
- Defensoría LGBT, 128, 146
- democracy, democratization processes and
 - in Argentina, 55
 - in South Africa, 15–16
 - state engagement in LGBTQ+ identity
 - strategies and, 131–132
- Dillon, Marta, 169
- the disappeared, in Argentina, 49–50
 - CONADEP and, 50
- discrimination. See racial segregation, in South Africa; racism, race and
- discursive opportunities
 - in Argentina, 47–55
 - identity strategizing and, 32–34
 - in South Africa, 72–73
- Distiller, Natasha, 161

- Ditsie, Beverly, 73–74
- Duggan, Lisa, 10
- Dyke March, 187

- Ecuador, banning of conversion therapy in, 2
- Edwards, Erika Denise, 45
- embodiment
 - identity strategizing and, 37–39
 - through Pride marches, 165–166
- emotions
 - ACT UP and, 37–39
 - identity strategizing and, 37–39
- ethnic identity, La Fulana and, 114–117

- Faces and Phases* series (Muholi), 153–154
- Federación Argentina LGBT (FALGBT), 2, 17, 22, 53, 64, 125–130
 - Pride marches and, 165
- Federación Estatal de Lesbianas, Gays, Transexuales y Bisexuales* (FELGTB), 52–53, 54
- FLH. See Frente de Liberación Homosexual (FLH)
- Free Gender, 1–2, 17, 18, 75–79, 83, 84–85
 - bisexual erasure and, 78
- Black identity in, 77–79
 - African lesbian identity, 90–92, 97
- commensurability in, 89–102
 - African lesbian identity and, 90–92, 97
 - for women’s rights, 92–98
- communities and, 98–102
 - connection to local community, 100–102
 - lesbians as community members, 98–100
- gender performances sponsored by, 95–97
- historic development of, 74
- identity strategizing and, 35, 44, 90, 95–96, 117
 - African lesbian identity as element of, 90–92, 97
 - embodied emotions and, 38–39
 - identity formation in, 90
- OLGA and, 23, 75–76
- organizational dynamics in, 77–79
- politicization of gender, 94
- public lesbian interventions by, 150–151, 173–174
 - through memorials and public mourning, 152–163

- Free Gender (cont.)
 on sex work, 78–79
 on sexual violence, 94, 101–102
 Soldaat and, 1, 75–77, 92–93, 97
 state engagement with, 121–122, 133–146, 147
 obstacles to, 134–139
 with police forces, 141–145
 transgender membership in, 78
Frente de Liberación Homosexual (FLH), 49
 Friedman, Elisabeth, 112
 La Fulana, 2, 17, 18, 53, 58–60
 class/political identification of, 60–61
 consciousness-raising strategies, 106–107
 ethnic identity and, 114–117 goals and strategies of, 87–88
 identity strategizing and, 35, 44, 116–117
 embodied emotions and, 38–39
 Indigenous identity and, 114–117
 internalized lesbophobia and, 106–107
 international/national recognition of, 112
 Lesbian Visibility Day, 103–104
 lesbian visibility strategies, 59, 62–64, 102–117
 through community membership, 112–113
 critical positioning for, 109–112
 through openness, 108–109
 in public spaces, 103–106
 marginalization of bisexuality in, 60
 organizational dynamics for, 60–61
 political identity and, 115
 public lesbian interventions by, 150–151, 173–174
 through Pride marches, 163–173
 Rachid and, 57, 103–104
 racial identity and, 114–117
 racism and, 114, 115
 whiteness and, 114
 state engagement with, 121, 126–130, 147
 CIM and, 129–130
 Defensoría LGBT, 128, 146
 lesbian visibility strategies, 128–130, 131
 trans inclusion in, 60
 Fuskova, Ilse, 56
 GAA. See Gay Activists Alliance (GAA)
 Gaika, Millicent, 135–136
 Gaitán, Natalia, 2, 63, 129–130
 GASA. See Gay Association of South Africa (GASA)
 Gay Activists Alliance (GAA), 120
 Gay and Lesbian Organization of Witwatersrand (GLOW), 23
 Gay Association of South Africa (GASA), 74
 gender, gendering and
 Free Gender and, 94
 identity strategizing and, 32–34
 politicization of, 94
 gender identity, rights to, 186–188
 Ghosh, Apoorva, 4
 Girat, Rocío, 169
 GLOW. See Gay and Lesbian Organization of Witwatersrand (GLOW)
 Gómez, Marian, 169
 Gould, Deborah, 38
 Gqola, Pumla Dineo, 82
 Grosz, Sally, 74–75
Grupo Nuestro Mundo (Our World Group), 49
 heteronormativity, 10. See also same-sex marriage rights heterosexuality establishment of in Argentina, 45
 in South Africa, 69, 73
 homonationalism, for white LGBTQ+ populations, 10
 homonormativity, 10
 as statecraft tool, 11
 homophobia
 in Brazil, 34
 in South Africa, 80–81, 84
 homosexuality. See also LGBTQ+ activism; specific topics legality in Argentina, 45
 in South Africa
 legal status of, 68–70
 as “unAfrican,” 80–84
 Howe, Cymene, 150
 human rights
 identity strategy and, 122
 LGBTQ+ activism and, 54–55
 identity. See also identity strategizing; LGBTQ+ identity
 citizenship and, 10–11

- collective, 14
 - multiple power systems and, 31
 - political identity model, 28
 - through social movements, 25
 - strategic deployment of, 27–31
- ethnic, 114–117
- gender, 186–188
- Indigenous, 114–117
- political, 28, 115, 176–177
- racial, 114–117
 - racism and, 114, 115
 - whiteness and, 114
- social movements and, 24–31
 - collective identity through, 25
 - consciousness and, 25
 - in exclusive organizations, 28–29
 - framing literature for, 30–31
 - in inclusive organizations, 28–29
 - negotiation of identity, 25
 - opposition as influence on, 28
 - public presentation of identity, 26–27
 - strategic identity work, 24–26, 27
 - during transitions of political systems, 29
- identity categories. See also LGBTQ+ identity; specific topics
 - conceptual approaches to, 88–89
- identity politics, 176–177
- identity strategizing, 14, 27. See also intersectionality, in LGBTQ+ issues; state engagement, identity strategies and
 - analysis of, 40–41
 - framing literature for, 30–31
- Free Gender and, 35, 44, 90, 95–96, 117
 - African lesbian identity as element of, 90–92, 97
 - embodied emotions and, 38–39
 - identity formation and, 90
- La Fulana and, 35, 44, 116–117
 - embodied emotions and, 38–39
- fundamental normality of, 40
- outcomes of, 36–40
 - embodiment as, 37–39
 - emotions as, 37–39
 - subject of rights and, 39–40
- through public interventions
 - memorials and public mourning events, 161–163
 - with Pride marches, 172–173
- in social movements, 24–26
- ILGA. See International Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and Intersex Association (ILGA)
- Immigration and Colonization Act, Argentina (1853), 45–46
- Immorality Act, South Africa, 67
- INADI. See National Institute against Discrimination, Xenophobia and Racism (INADI)
- inclusion strategies, intersectionality in LGBTQ+ issues and, 185–189
 - citizenship and, 8–12
 - in La Fulana, 60
 - for transgender populations, 60
- Insausti, Santiago Joaquín, 50
- internalized lesbophobia, 16–17, 62–64
- La Fulana response to, 106–107
- International Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and Intersex Association (ILGA), 11
- intersectionality, in LGBTQ+ issues
 - applications of, 181–185
 - in Argentina, 176
 - colonial history as influence in, 179
 - citizenship and
 - with LGBTQ+ identity, 4–8
 - in Russia, 184–185
 - construction of sexuality and, 12–14
 - assimilationist strategies, 13–14
 - for Black women, 12–13
 - for marginalized peoples, 12–13
 - extensions of, 181–185
 - future research on, 189–191
 - for gender identity rights, 186–188
 - in identity deployment, 179
 - for identity politics and, 176–177
 - identity strategizing and, 32–36
 - discursive opportunities in, 32–34
 - factors influencing, 33
 - gendering in, 32–34
 - intramovement between activist organizations, 35–36
 - opposition/oppositional discourse in, 34–35
 - organizational dynamics as influence on, 35–36, 179–180
 - political opportunities in, 32–34
 - inclusion strategies and, 185–189
 - across international contexts, 185–189
- LGBTQ+ identity, 13
 - citizenship and, 4–8
- limitations of, 181–185

- intersectionality, in LGBTQ+ issues (cont.)
 neoliberalism as influence on, 180–181
 in the Netherlands, 182–184
 in Russia, 184–185
 in South Africa, 179
 theoretical approaches to, 175–178
 for transgender rights, 186–188
 use of civil rights and, 181
- Jáuregui, Carlos, 50
 Jeffery, John, 140
- Kampwirth, Karen, 131–132
 Khumbulani Pride, 91–92
 Kirchner, Cristina Fernández de, 22,
 52–53, 54, 131
 Kirchner, Néstor, 52–53, 54, 122, 131
 Klaas, Noxolo Xakeka, 152
 de Klerk, F. W., 70
 von Krafft-Ebing, Richard, 47
- Latin America. *See also specific countries;
 specific topics*
 transgender populations in, 34
 lesbian organizations, lesbian advocacy groups and. See also Free Gender; La Fulana; public sphere, lesbian interventions in;
specific organizations
 in Argentina
 class/political identification of, 60–61
 identity strategizing and, 35, 38–39, 44
 lesbian visibility through, 59, 62–64
 organizational dynamics for, 60–61
 in South Africa, 74–79
 GLOW, 23
 OLGA, 23, 75–76
 organizational dynamics in, 77–79
 lesbian populations. See also Black queer women; lesbian organizations,
 lesbian advocacy groups and;
specific topics
 in Argentina
 feminist organizations, 56–58
 internalized lesbophobia, 16–17, 62–64
 negative opinions on, 47
 visibility of, 55–57, 59
 in South Africa, legal status of, 69
 Lesbian Visibility Day, 103–104
Lesbianas a la Vista, 57
- Lesbians in Love and Compromising
 Situations (LILACS), 75
 LGBTQ+ activism. See also specific countries
 in Brazil, 34
 conceptual approach to, 3–4
 political opportunities and, 9–10
 in South Africa, 42
 state engagement in complement with,
 120–121, 126–130
 LGBTQ+ identity. See also specific topics
 citizenship and, 4–8
 inclusion into, 8–12
 construction of, 3–4
 intersectionality and, 4–8
 LGBTQ+ organizations. See also identity strategizing; specific organizations
 conceptual approach to, 2
 cooptation through state engagement, 120, 130–132
 methodological approach to, 19–21
 case selection in, 15–19
 interviews, 17–19
 participant observation, 17–19
 research in, 15–19
 postcolonial ethnicity and, 4
 “queer,” 4
 “respectable,” 4
 in South Africa, 1–2
 intramovement between, 73–79
 organizational dynamics for, 73–79
 LGBTQ+ populations. See also
 white LGBTQ+ populations, homonationalism and; specific topics
 in Argentina, same-sex marriage rights, 2 citizenship rights for, 3 conversion therapy and, banning of, 2
 in South Africa
 nondiscrimination protections for, 2
 police neglect of, 1–2
 in US, virtual equality for, 3
 LILACS. See Lesbians in Love and Compromising
 Situations (LILACS)
 Litvinoff, Laura, 169
 Livermon, Xavier, 89–90, 176
 Lizarazu, Hilda, 2
 Lorde, Audre, 56
 Lubertino, María José, 122–123
Las Lunas y las Otras, 56–57

- Macri, Mauricio, 45
Madres de Plaza de Mayo, 57
 Malta, banning of conversion therapy in, 2 marriage rights. See also same-sex marriage rights
 in South Africa, 81–82
 Masooa, Salome, 141
 Massenzio, Flavia, 125–126, 128, 169–170
 Matebeni, Zethu, 73–74
 McGee, Marcus, 131–132
 Menem, Carlos, 51, 122
 Mercante, Victor, 47
 Mexico
 “browning” of population in, 48
 women’s movements in, 29
 Mkhize, Nohlanhla, 77
 Muholi, Zanele, 153–154
- National Coalition for Gay and Lesbian Equality (NCGLE), 22, 23, 70–71, 72, 101
 National Commission on the Disappearance of Persons (CONADEP), 50
 National Institute against Discrimination, Xenophobia and Racism (INADI), 2, 53
 Pride marches and, 164–165
 state engagement with, 122–130, 146
 LGBTQ+ identity in, 123–126
 National Lesbian and Gay Journalists Association (NLGJA), 162
 National Party (NP), 68
 National Task Team on LGBTI Issues (NTT), 121, 133, 134, 135–136, 137–140, 146, 147, 177, 196 nationalism. See homonationalism, for white LGBTQ+ populations NCGLE. See National Coalition for Gay and Lesbian Equality (NCGLE)
 negotiation of identity, 25
 neoliberalism, neoliberal policies
 in Argentina, 51
 convertibility plan, 51
 identity strategies and, 119, 131–132, 145–148
 intersectionality in LGBTQ+ issues
 influenced by, 180–181
 the Netherlands, intersectionality of LGBTQ+ issues in, 182–184
- NGOs. See non-governmental organizations (NGOs)
 Nkoli, Simon, 73–74
 Nkonyana, Zoliswa, 76, 101, 141–142
 NLGJA. See National Lesbian and Gay Journalists Association (NLGJA)
 non-governmental organizations (NGOs), 136–137, 145–146
 NP. See National Party (NP)
 NTT. See National Task Team on LGBTI Issues (NTT)
 Ntuli, Tozi, 92–93
- OLGA. See Organization of Lesbian and Gay Activists (OLGA)
 Oosenbrug, Astrid, 182
 Organization of Lesbian and Gay Activists (OLGA), 23, 75–76
 Our World Group. See Grupo Nuestro Mundo (Our World Group)
- Pasiya, Zoleka, 76
 Perón, Eva (Evita), 47–48
 Perón, Juan Domingo, 47–49
 Peronism, 47–49
 political identity
 La Fulana and, 115
 model for, 28
 political opportunities, in identity strategizing, 32–34
 postcolonial ethnicity, LGBTQ+ populations and, 4 Pride marches
 Castro on, 172
 Dyke March, 187
 lesbian interventions in dissident groups, 165
 dominant groups, 165
 embodiment as component of, 165–166
 FALGBT and, 165
 La Fulana and, 163–173
 gendered resistance as element of, 166
 as identity strategy, 172–173
 INADI and, 164–165
 as public exercise of rights, 170–172
 as public protest against violence, 168–170 visibility as goal of, 163–165 visibility effects of, 166–170
 trans participation in, 187

- Puar, Jasbir, 10
- public sphere, lesbian interventions in. See also Pride marches
- in Argentina, 163–173
- Free Gender and, 150–151, 173–174
- through memorials and public mourning, 152–163
- La Fulana and, 150–151, 173–174
- Pride marches and, 163–173
- gay rights movements and, 149–150
- identity strategizing through
- memorials and public mourning events, 161–163
- with Pride marches, 172–173
- through memorials and public mourning events
- family support as element of, 156–158
- Free Gender and, 152–163
- identity strategies in, 161–163
- recognition of lesbian identity, 158–161
- in South Africa, 152–163
- support as proof of existence, 154–156
- in South Africa
- through memorials and public mourning events, 152–163
- symbolism of funerals in, 152–153
- theoretical approach to, 149–151
- universal citizenship and, 149–150
- “universal queer subject” and, 150
- Putin, Vladimir, 184
- “queer” LGBTQ+ organizations, 4.
- See also* Black queer women
- “universal queer subject” and, 150
- queer women. See Black queer women; lesbian organizations, lesbian advocacy groups and; lesbian populations
- Qwelane, Jon, 83
- race-mixing, in Argentina, 44–45
- elimination of Blackness through, 45
- through marriage and, 45
- Rachid, María, 57, 103–104, 122, 123–124. See also National Institute against Discrimination, Xenophobia and Racism (INADI)
- racial segregation, in South Africa
- under apartheid rule, 68–70
- racial classifications and, 68
- racism, race and
- in Argentina
- “browning” of population, 47–48
- categorization of race, 45–46
- establishment of whiteness and, 45–46
- in La Fulana, 114, 115
- LGBTQ+ activism and, 58
- scientific, 67
- Rao, Rahul, 156
- Raymond, Janice, 187
- Recognition of Customary Marriage Act, South Africa, 82
- “respectable” LGBTQ+ organizations, 4
- Rich, Adrienne, 56
- Rowling, J. K., 188
- Russia, intersectionality in LGBTQ+ issues in, 184–185
- same-sex marriage rights
- in Argentina, 2, 11
- discursive opportunities for, 53–55
- LGBTQ+ activist support for, 53
- in South Africa, 11, 71, 82
- in Taiwan, 2
- Sardá, Alejandra, 132
- scientific racism, 67
- sex work, sex workers and, Free Gender and, 78–79
- Sexual Offences Act of 1986, Trinidad and Tobago, 9
- sexual violence. See also specific people
- Free Gender’s response to, 94, 101–102
- sexuality. See also specific topics
- in Argentina, 13
- construction of, 12–14
- assimilationist strategies for, 13–14
- for Black women, 12–13
- for marginalized peoples, 12–13
- in public sphere, 42–43
- intersectionality and, 12–14
- in South Africa, 13
- Sigasa, Sizakele, 141
- Slums Act of 1934, South Africa, 68
- social movements. See also identity; LGBTQ+ activism; LGBTQ+ organizations
- identity strategizing in, 24–26
- Soldaat, Funeka, 1, 75–77, 78–79, 92–93, 143–144, 154–155
- Soty, Maggie, 143
- South Africa. See also Free Gender
- AIDS/HIV crisis in, 73

- apartheid rule in
 - discourses of sexuality and, 68–70
 - LGBTQ+ activism in, 68–70
 - mixed-marriage policies, 68–70
 - racial classifications under, 68
 - racial resettlement policies under, 70
- Association of Bisexuals, Gays and Lesbians in, 76
- Christian missionaries in, 66–67
- citizenship in
 - colonialism and, 65–66
 - construction of, 84–85
- classification and management of
 - African sexuality, 66–67
- codification of heterosexuality in, 69, 73
- colonial process in, 43, 65–68
 - citizenship and, 65–66
 - racial division of labor in, 66
- consolidation of state in, 67–68
- constitutional protections in
 - Equality Clause and, 71, 173
 - LGBTQ+ activism as influence on, 70–71
- democratization movements in, 15–16
- Gay and Lesbian Organization of Witwatersrand, 23
- Gay Association of South Africa, 74
- history of sexuality in, 13
- homophobia in, 80–81, 84
- homosexuality in
 - legal status of, 68–70
 - as “unAfrican,” 80–84
- identity in social movements in, 22–24
- Immorality Act, 67
- intersectionality in social movements in, 22–24
 - for LGBTQ+ issues, 179
- Khumbulani Pride and, 91–92
- legal status of lesbianism in, 69
- lesbian organizations in, 74–79
 - organizational dynamics in, 77–79
- Lesbians in Love and Compromising Situations in, 75
- LGBTQ+ activism in, 42, 68–73
 - under apartheid rule, 68–70
 - constitutional protections as result of, 70–71
 - discursive opportunities for, 72–73
 - for expansion of civil rights, 80–84
 - oppositional discourse in, 79–85
 - for same-sex marriage, 82
- LGBTQ+ organizations in, 1–2
 - intramovement between, 73–79
 - organizational dynamics for, 73–79
- LGBTQ+ populations in
 - Civil Union Act, 81–82
 - expansion of civil rights for, 80–84
 - marriage rights for, 81–82
 - nondiscrimination protections for, 2
 - police neglect of, 1–2
- marriage restrictions in, 81–82
 - under Recognition of Customary Marriage Act, 82
- National Coalition for Gay and Lesbian Equality in, 22, 23, 70–71, 72, 101
- National Party, 68
- political structures in, 70–71
- public lesbian interventions in
 - through memorials and public mourning events, 152–163
 - symbolism of funerals in, 152–153
- racial segregation in
 - under apartheid rule, 68–70
 - racial classifications and, 68
- as “rainbow nation,” 43
- Recognition of Customary Marriage Act, 82
- same-sex marriage rights in, 11, 71
- Slums Act of 1934, 68
- state engagement in, 121–122, 133–145
 - provincial task teams, 138–139
 - Triangle Project, 133–138, 140–141
- transgender populations in, 74–75
- urbanization in, 67–68
- whiteness in, 67
 - scientific racism and, 67
- women’s movements in, 29
- Spain, LGBTQ+ activism in, 52–53
- state engagement, identity strategies and ambivalent, 133–145
 - autonomy through, 130–132
 - clientelism and, 130–132
 - cooptation of LGBTQ+ organizations through, 120, 130–132
- Federación Argentina LGBT, 125–130
- Free Gender and, 121–122, 133–146, 147
 - obstacles to engagement for, 134–139
 - work with police forces, 141–145

- state engagement, identity strategies (cont.)
 La Fulana and, 121, 126–130, 147
 CIM and, 129–130
 Defensoría LGBT, 128, 146
 lesbian visibility strategies, 128–130, 131
 human rights bureaucracy and, 122
 INADI and, 122–130, 146
 LGBTQ+ identity in, 123–126
 LGBTQ+ activism and, 120–121, 126–130
 neoliberalism and, 119, 131–132, 145–148
 with NGOs, 136–137, 145–146
 in South Africa, 121–122, 133–145
 provincial task teams, 138–139
 Triangle Project, 133–138, 140–141
 state feminism and, 147–148
 theoretical approach to, 119–122
 during transition to democracy, 131–132
 subject of rights, 39–40
 Suchland, Jennifer, 184
 Swarr, Amanda Lock, 93
- Taiwan, same-sex marriage rights in, 2
 Tatagiba, Luciana, 148
 Taylor, Verta, 25, 149
 Theron, Liesl, 74–75
 Tladi, Tladi, 136
 TP. See Triangle Project (TP)
 transgender populations. See also gender identity, rights to
 in Argentina, 55
 in Free Gender, 78
 La Fulana and, 60
 intersectionality in LGBTQ+ issues, 186–188
 in Latin America, 34
 at Pride marches, 187
 in South Africa, 74–75, 78
 travesti, 34
The Transsexual Empire (Raymond), 187
travesti, 34, 55
 Triangle Project (TP), 133–138, 140–141
 Trinidad and Tobago, Sexual Offences Act of 1986, 9
 Tutu, Bishop Desmond, 43
 Tyatyeka, Nontsikelelo, 1–2, 100, 152–154
- United States (US)
 LGBTQ+ populations in
 oppositional discourse on, 34–35
 virtual equality for, 3
 oppositional public discourse on, 34–35
 universal citizenship, 149–150 “universal queer subject,” 150
 US See United States (US)
 Uys, Pieter-Dirk, 96
- Vaid, Urvashi, 3
 Verwoerd, Hendrik, 70
 Videla, Jorge Rafael, 49
 visibility strategies, for LGBTQ+ populations
 La Fulana and, 59, 62–64, 102–117
 through community membership, 112–113
 critical positioning for, 109–112
 through openness, 108–109
 in public spaces, 103–106
 in state engagement strategies, 128–130, 131
 with Pride marches, 163–165, 166–170
- Wekker, Gloria, 35, 182–184
 white LGBTQ+ populations, homonationalism and, 10
 whiteness
 in Argentina
 in 1853 constitution, 45–46
 consolidation of state through, 45–46
 demographic influences on, 48
 political elites and, 45
 racial identity and, 114
 in South Africa, 67
 scientific racism and, 67
 Whittier, Nancy, 25, 149
 women. See also Black queer women;
 specific topics
 feminist movements, 29
 Peronist policies and, 48–49
 women’s movements
 in Argentina, 29
 in Mexico, 29
 in South Africa, 29
 World Economic Forum, 45
- Xingwana, Lulu, 83
 Zuma, Jacob, 82, 93