academic titles, use in non-host States 42–43
acte clair doctrine 131 activism 5–7, 17–18, 59, 215–216 and human rights protection 63–64
justification 64–65
levels of 61
majoritarian 75, 123
objections to 61–62, 66, 113–114, 163–164
specific scenarios 61
structural controls, proposed 62 administrative State, rise of 184–185 Advocates General (of ECJ), Opinions 162 see also individual names Afghanistan, government/UN Resolutions 221 age discrimination 45–46, 83 Alter, Karen J. 53, 54, 193 ambiguity, dealing with 41, 261–262, 267 analogy, reasoning by 243–244
Area of Freedom, Security and Justice (AFSJ) 198–199
Aristotle 175–176
Arnull, Anthony 50, 58, 79–83
asylum see immigration ‘Authoritative Intention Thesis’ 134–135 autonomy 160–161
balancing theory 230–232
criticisms 231–232
see also institutional balance
Barroso, José Manuel 282–283
Beck, Gunnar 90
benefits, entitlement to 218 ‘unreasonable burden’ criterion 218 see also legitimate expectation; pension schemes Bengoetxea, Joxerramon 6, 55, 56, 69–74, 84, 111, 131, 143–144, 156, 168, 173, 273
Bertrea, Stefano 124, 230
Besson, Samantha 232
‘best fit’ see coherence
Bobbio, Norberto 155, 157–158
Bork, Robert 16, 24
Bourdieu, Pierre 55–56
Bratman, Michael E. 253
Bredimas, Anna 58, 60, 84 ‘bulletin boards’ 254
bureaucratic field 55–56
Cappelletti, Mauro 64–65, 67, 165–166 Cardozo, Benjamin 115
case law 280
constitutional 5, 7, 8–9, 26–39, 105–106
criminal 46–49, 202–209, 237–240 equality/citizenship 209–220 evolutive interpretation 255–258 and foreign relations 220–224, 240–242 on free movement 40–44, 266–272 human rights 44–46
identification of canon 7–8 inconsistencies 63, 115, 195–196, 245–246 institutional balance 194–198
levels of generality 232–242
normative framework 201–202 selection 6–7
State liability 233–237, 245
supremacy doctrine 258–265 Chant, Sara Rachel 252–253 charity principle 129
Charter of Fundamental Rights 249 Chiassoni, Pierluigi 127 citizenship 209–210, 216–220 coherece, principle/objective of 123–126, 142, 229–232, 235–236 global vs. local conceptions 125–126
INDEX

problems 230
subjective element 124, 125–126 tight/loose versions 126 underlying values 126
Colin, Jean-Pierre 59
collective/corporate intention 250–254 interactive character 253 relationship with individual 252–253 common law 93–94, 100, 110 constitutional law as branch of 134 relationship with rule of law 108–109 communication (of law, to populace) 130 non-centrality to interpretation 130–131 see also non-verbal communication compe tence
‘creep’ 31–32
exclusive 34, 36, 241
external, exercise of 33–34 in foreign affairs 220–224 in Pillar structure 221–222
see also kompetenz-kompetenz competition, principle of 39, 140–141, 207 confederalism, relationship with EU system 191–192
conferral, principle of 33, 189–190, 217 linked with institutional balance 194 confidentiality, lawyer–client 208–209 conflict (of laws/norms) 88–89, 148, 155–158, 275
ECJ’s failure to address 272 consensus, interpretation in line with 103–104
consequentialist interpretation 20, 142–143, 164–166
employed by ECJ 204, 206, 266–267 exceptional applicability 144, 164 Constantinesco, Vlad 35 constituent power
evolutionary model 100
revolutionary model 100 vested in demos 101
constitutional courts (national) 189–191 constitutional law
defined 8
making by courts 104–106 relationship with evolutive approach 276
see also common law
constitutional review 111, 278
counter-majoritarian elements 121–122
justifications 118–120
objections to 3, 117–120
problems 12–13
reduction of inclusionism 118–119 Constitutional Treaty 45–46, 264 non-ratification 265
constitutionalism, models of 76 constitutions see constituent power; constitutional law; constitutional review; interpretation;
constitutional
culturalism 102–103
see also deconstructivism contested concepts, defined 90–91 convergence 146–147
cooperation, principle of 140–141
Coppel, Jason 44, 223
Council of Europe 265
legitimising of ECJ decisions 81–82
Statute of 89
Council of Ministers 180–181 executive role 182
coups d’etat, juridical 104–106
Craig, Paul 53, 58, 236 criminal law 46–49, 50, 202–209, 280
levels of generality 237–240
procedural rights 205–209 proceedings in more than one country 237–240
‘social Europe’ 48–49
types of penalty 47
Critical Legal Studies 93
Dann, Philipp 4
de Búrca, Gráinne 53, 58, 223, 236
de Witte, Bruno 229
Decisions, and direct effect doctrine 28–29, 262–263
decomstructivism 145–146
deference 18–19
Dehousse, Renaud 84
Dekker, Ige F. 166–167
delegation theory 127–129
democracy 3, 4–5, 87–88, 144–117, 144–145, 170–171, 276–277 arguments from 107–108
compatibility with separation of powers 178
and constitutional review 117–120 contested elements 90–91 disconnection of law from 134–135
in judicial process 65
link with rule of law 92–93, 136–137 normative role in EC/EU 89–94 relationship with activism 163–164 relationship with legitimacy 95–97 social pressures for 196–197 uncontested basis 87–88, 91–92
undermined by legal implication 150–151
see also representation ‘democratic deficit’ 1–2, 68 demos 101

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-00139-8 - The Limits of Legal Reasoning and the European Court of Justice
Gerard Conway
Index
More information
Index

dialectical reasoning 144, 161–163, 280 lack of, in ECJ judgments 162
problems of 162–163
Diamond, Ann S. 177
Dickson, Julie 16
direct effect, doctrine of 26–30, 40, 50, 131–132 combination with supremacy principle 29–30, 266 ‘horizontal’ 28
relevance to discrimination issues 212–214 theoretical analyses 68, 79–80 Directives
annulment 197–198
impact on criminal liability 47 diss-integration 154–155 discrimination, role in legal reasoning 73–74 discrimination see age; equality; gender; nationality
Dorf, Michael C. 154, 227, 229–230 double jeopardy 202–203, 238–240
Dworkin, Ronald 3, 10, 15, 72, 110, 113, 120–129, 139–140, 163, 230, 278, 281–282 ‘equivalent effect’ drafting of provisions 269–270 use/significance of term 266–271
Escher, Josef 15
EU/EC law
criminal sanctions for breaches of 46–48 domination by legal elites 55–58, 84 judicial power 1
national interpretations 11 precedence over national systems 9 requirement of supremacy principle 259–260 specific features 160–161 uniform application 10–11, 131–132, 146–147
European Coal and Steel Community 240 European Commission
control of 184–185
effective role 180–181, 182–185 legal status of decisions 208 national representation 185 power to adopt non-legislative acts 182–184
European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR) 44, 68, 232 European Council
effective role 185
Presidency 183–184, 198
European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR) 112–113 dissenting opinions 162 European Court of Justice (ECJ) anonymity/powers 186–187, 192–193 canon of cases 8
as constitutional court 8–9 contrasted with WTO 22–23 contribution to EU institutional structure 26–39 criminal jurisdiction 46 defences 78–79, 81–83 delegation of discretion to 128–129 distinctiveness of interpretation 11–12 as exceptional case 23
environmental offences 46–47
as constitutional aim 98, 278 employment contracts, renewal 214 employment conditions definition of terms 213–214 harmonization/improvement 211 scope of terms 214–215
entrenchment, as constitutional aim 98, 278
environmental offences 46–47
equal respect
disagreement over qualifications for 122 principle of 121–123 equality, principle of 48, 121–122, 140–141, 209–216, 280 applicability in practice 164–166 in context of citizenship 216–220 exclusion 217
between permanent and non-permanent workers 213–216 restrictions on scope 216 sovereign vs. individual 100–101 ‘equivalent effect’
drafting of provisions 269–270
use/significance of term 266–271
Ernst, Zachary 252–253
Esser, Josef 15

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
judgment style 162
jurisdiction on foreign affairs 223 law-making role 50, 60, 72, 172–173, 186–187, 279 manipulation of generality levels 280–281 Member State declarations, (lack of) reference to 256–257 normative basis 50–51
overruling of own judgments 271–272 President: election 187; powers 187 relationship with national judiciaries 11, 193 reluctance to criticise 57–58, 84–85 role in EU legal system 1, 278–279 social pressures on 196–197 studies 52–85; contribution of EC officials 55–58 as supra-constitutional body 35 see also interpretation; specific interpretative approaches e.g.
originalist
European Economic Area (EEA) 34
European Parliament 178, 181–182 legal standing 30–31, 194–197
procedure 179–180
European Public Prosecutor, proposed creation 186
European Union/Community agreement with non-Member States 80–81 Community/Union liability 235 critiques of institutions 282–283 fundamental principles 3, 114–117, 126, 140–142, 277–278; articulation 89 legal personality 33, 190, 242
as legal system 234–236 political system, anti-federal elements 188–189 sui generis status 3–4, 9, 59, 146–149, 172, 200, 229, 273–274, 278–279; limitations 188–192
see also Council of Europe; EU law; European Commission; European Council; executive power/bodies; legislature evolutive (innovative) interpretation 72–73, 97–99 arguments for 108–111, 166–170 association with constitutional law 276 distinguished from originalist 21 downplaying of rule of law 113–114
ECJ practice 255–258
ECJ tendency towards 24–25, 111–113 general prescription for 136
objections to 109–111
problems of 98
Ewald, William 6 executive power/bodies (in EU) 182–185 expressio unius est exclusio alterius, principle of 32–33, 259–261 federal systems, compared with EU 188–193 finance, executive power in 183–184 Fish, Stanley 146
foreign policy
EC/EU competence 221–223 lack of parliamentary control 101–102 see also international relations; third countries France
Constitution of the Fourth Republic 260 contributions to treaty wording 270
legal system 40; studies 6
Free Law Movement 88
free movement, principle of 39–44, 123, 140–141 exceptions 43, 50, 165
limitations 267–268
non-discriminatory obstacles 266–272; as contrary to Treaties 266–271 scope 40–41, 43–44, 50
Treaty provisions 74–75
Fuller, Lon 91
Gallie, Walter B. 90–91
gaps (in law) 141–142, 166–170, 208–209 acknowledgement 169–170
answerability vs. unanswerability 167 classification 166–167
closing rule 107, 167–168
non-recognition 167–168 rarity 167
gender discrimination 48, 210–213 direct vs. indirect 211–212 illegality of remedying by pay reduction 211 and transexuals 216
Treaty provisions 210–211
General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) 80 generality, levels of see levels of generality Gerken, Ludwig 83
Germany
contributions to Treaty wording 270
Federal Constitutional Court 189–190, 258, 259
Free Law Movement 88
interpretative declarations 262–263
negligence standards 208 parliamentary structure 180
Goldsworthy, Jeffrey 10, 111–112
Goodhart, Arthur L. 226–227 governance 173–174
Greenawalt, Kent 103, 125, 126, 144–145
Groupe de Rédaction 261–262
Haltern, Ulrich 44
Hänsch, Klaus 83
‘hard cases’ 70–71, 138, 143–144
Harlan, John Marshall II, Justice 230–231 harmonisation of citizenship rights 216 and subsidiarity 38–39
Hart, Herbert L. A. 16, 120, 127, 137, 163
Hartley, Trevor C. 79–83, 188–189, 212–213, 216
Held, David 92
Herzog, Roman 45, 83
High Representative for Affairs and Security Policy, office of 183, 198 see also executive power/bodies ‘higher law,’ legal theories based on 65, 165–166 historical interpretation see originalist interpretation human rights 44–46, 63–64, 86–87, 163–164, 277–278 constitutional clauses 133
and constitutional review 111
counter-majoritarian elements 90, 278 defensive uses 223–224
minimalist interpretation 103–104
State competence 165–166 suitability of courts for dealing with 108–111 violation by EU law 263
Human Rights Act 1998 14
Hume, David 81
hyper-integration 154–155 avoidance 156
immigration, Treaty provisions 197–198 implication, notion of 149–151 individuals
applicability of direct effect doctrine to 28 standing to challenge Community/Union institutions 205–206 inertia, legislative 61–62, 64–65 injustice, argument from see consequentialist interpretation innovative interpretation see evolutive interpretation institutional balance, concept of 194–198 normative inadequacy 199–200
Institutional Theory of Law 69 integration
absence of consensus on 62 differing forms of 76 counter-examples 43
economic, proposed new court for 34–35 privileging in commentaries 53–54, 58–59 see also dis-integration; hyper-integration intent (of authors/signatories) exceeded by judiciary 263, 272 inferred from drafting process 248–250 see also authoritative intention thesis; collective intention; originalist interpretation; radical intention thesis; subjective originalist interpretation International Labour Organization (ILO) 212
international law 68, 69, 156–157, 256–257 ECJ reliance on 232
levels of generality 229
State sovereignty 165
international relations executive power 183–184
levels of generality 240–242
see also foreign policy; parallelism; third countries interpretation
academic theories 67–69; absence/problems of 62, 66, 84, 273 broad sense 13, 81
common features across legal systems 9–10 comparative studies 132–133 conserving approach 136–139 constitutional: applicability of proposed model 133; contrasted with common-law approach 93–94; conventions of 133–135; features specific to 97–99; links with polity identity 11–12 constitutive application 15–16 constractive approach 15 contra legem, (in)admissibility of 106, 216 contrasted with legislation 14 contrast with Treaty revision 25 counter-textual 46
creativity of 49–50
criticisms of ECJ approach 54 criticisms of principles based on 74 definition, problems of 17 disagreements over 107
hierarchy 142–143, 157–158; absence of 24–25
institutionalisation 137–138
INDEX 315

local vs. universalisable character 136 mutual exclusivity of approaches 148 overlap between methods 242–244 processes 5
shared framework 94, 145–146
in situations not envisaged by drafters/ signatories 12–13 systemic arguments 142 terminology 19–21
theoretical approaches 15–17
see also types of approach, e.g. teleological interpretation interpretivism 13, 282
Ireland
agreement with Spain 37 citizenship/residence law 219–220 civil service workers 213–216 referendum 185
State liability doctrine 234
Italy, contributions to Treaty wording 269, 270
Jacqué, Jean-Paul 194
Joerges, Christian 88
judges
application of legal principles 123–124 appointment 186–187
delegation of constitutional interpretation to 127–128 dismissal 186
empowerment 132
fitness for evolutive interpretation 108–109, 110–111 independence 279
institutional influences 119–120 intention, relevance of 134–135 interpretation of law 92–93, 120–121, 142–143, 275 legislative role: limits on 66–67; objections to 14 minimisation of input 137–138 moral guidelines 126–127
as ‘mouth of the law’ 87, 176–177 own view of role 71–72 political leanings 119
relationship with rule of law 115 role in constitutional review 119–120 will of, interpretative role 15 judicial power (in EU) 186–187 anti-federal elements 189–192 see also European Court of Justice; judges
justification
centrality to legal reasoning 161–163 first vs. second order 21, 75–77, 259–260
Kavanagh, Aileen 107–108, 118–119
Kelsen, Hans 15–16, 168–169
Klabbers, Jan 37
Klatt, Matthias 138
Kokott, Julianne, Advocate General 213
Komesar, Neil 159
kompetenz-kompetenz, problem of 105, 263–264
Koskenniemi, Martti 156
Kruger, Thalia 36
Kunn, Mattias 38–39, 263–264
Labour Court 213
Lagrange, Maurice, Advocate General 23–24 language(s)
differences between 148–149 meaning, importance of 149–150 translation problems 148–149, 277 see also legal language
Larenz, Karl 20–21
Lasser, Mitchel 6, 20, 22, 33, 162, 196, 274 law
moral respect owed to 131 as social phenomenon 129–139, 149–150 ‘law in context’ movement 84–85 legal language, need for comprehensibility 145, 159 legal reasoning
centrality of justification 161 discretionary elements 73–74 ‘fuzziness’ 17, 73, 131–132 institutional context 72 legitimate scope 78–79
prospective vs. retrospective character 16–17, 36, 107, 167–168 stretching to cover unanticipated situations 168–169 theories of 69–70
universalisable character 6–7, 10, 135, 273–274 see also gaps (in law); legal language legal theory 93
divergences of opinion 13 legality, principle of 202 legislature (in EU) 178–182
procedure 179–180
structure 180–182
legitimacy 94–97
alternative approaches 95
core elements 95–97
defined 94–95
output 113
three dimensions 95
yardsticks of 67–68
legitimate expectation (of State aid) 207–208
scope 207–208
levels of generality 148, 152–153, 225–246, 280–281
alternative approaches 227–232 debates 225
determination 243–244, 245–246
international law 229
issues raised by 225–226 relationship with other interpretative considerations 242–244 relevant traditions 227–229; in EU Member States 228 situations giving rise to problem 226, 245 Levinson, Sanford 16–17
lex posterior rule 154, 155–156, 157–158 lex specialis, principle of 142, 144, 153–158, 224, 274–275 applied to competition law 207 applied to Treaties 197–198 avoidance of hyper-integration 156 indeterminate results 158
in international law 156–157
rationale 154
rejection by ECJ 153–154
liberalisation, degrees of 269–270 Lisbon, Treaty of 198–199, 249–250 articulation of supremacy principle 264–265 distinction between legislative and non-legislative acts 182 literal (textual) interpretation 19–20, 25, 129–130, 281 ECJ’s adherence to 204–205, 224
ECJ’s departures from 71, 147 justifications for departure from 81–82 non-attribute of superfluous words 243 place in interpretative hierarchy 142, 144–153 preferred by WTO 22
problems of 145–146, 152, 233–234 unjustified bypassing 203–204 unreasonably literalist outcome 152 living tree constitutionalism see evolutive interpretation Locke, John 176
Lugano Convention 36
Luxembourg
contributions to Treaty wording 270
interpretative declarations 262–263
Maduro, James 176
Maduro, Miguel Poiarres, Advocate-General 74–77, 84, 123, 147–148, 224, 271 change of stance towards ECJ 76–77
McCowan, Margaret 244
Member States
acceptance of ECJ decisions 64 appointment of judges 186–187 areas of competence 172, 189–190 citizenship requirements 217–220 conflict of norms 88–89 consultative status 100–104, 277 constitutional conflicts with EU law 260, 263 diversity of laws/rules 38
as employers 214
human rights competence 165–166 imports/exports between 40–41 internal democracy 101
interpretative declarations 256–257, 262–263
legal traditions: common, ECJ’s judgments based on 232–242; ECJ’s divergence from 203, 238–240; ECJ’s failure to consider 208, 211–212; and levels of generality 227, 228, 245–246; referencing in Treaty provisions 206; relation of EC/EU to 261–262; relation of EC to 89–90, 144, 158–161 legislation specifically aimed at 212 legislatures, links with EC/EU system 199
legitimising of ECJ decisions 81–82 limitations on scope of Treaty amendment 77–78 means of deviation from EC/EU law 259–261 mutual recognition of legal systems/decisions 238 pre-empted by Community/Union 31–32 relation with ECJ 11
representatives, intentions of 247, 254 sovereign equality 100–101 transfer of sovereignty 188 treaty-making competence 35 Merrills, John G. 113
meta-teleological interpretation 2–3, 22, 46, 205, 230, 245–246, 274, 275 minorities, protection of rights 121–122 Möller, Kai 231
Möllers, Christoph 100–102
Monnet, Jean 160
Montesquieu, Charles-Louis de Secondat, baron de 26, 87, 176–177, 194 morality, role in interpretation 98–99, 107, 164–165 motivations (of drafters of legislation) 250–251 ‘national,’ significance of term 257 national legal systems criminal liability under 47 suitability for international context 3–4 see also Member States
nationality, (non-)discrimination on grounds of 123 natural law, as justification for non-literal interpretation 81 ne bis in idem see double jeopardy necessity, as justification for non-literal interpretation 81 negligence 207–208
‘neighbour principle’ 226–227
Neill, Sir Patrick 7, 77–78 responses to 78–79
Nelson, Caleb 202
neo-functionalism 41, 68
Netherlands
Constitution 260
contributions to Treaty wording 270
interpretative declarations 262–263 non-discrimination, principle of equality; nationality
non-justiciability, doctrines of 168–170 non liquet ruling 136, 141–142, 144, 167, 169 non-nationals, marriage to EU citizens 219–220 non-verbal communication, relative importance in society/law 149–151 omissions (from final draft), inferences based on 248–250 O’Neill, Aidan 44, 223
Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) 269–270 Organisation for European Economic Cooperation (OEEC) 269–270 originalist (historical) interpretation 5, 20–21, 24, 66, 97, 141–142, 158–159, 243, 272, 280
arguments for 108, 123, 142–143 identification of ‘intenders’ 247 objective approach 20–21, 247 (occasional) favouring by ECJ 25–26, 212, 224
rejection by ECJ 23–24, 235 see also subjective originalist interpretation ‘other persons,’ meaning of 205–206 parallelism 31, 50, 241 parental interests, protection 227–228, 229 Pauwelyn, Joost 258
pay, interpretations of 48–49 Pellet, Alain 256–257
pension schemes 48–49, 97, 214–215 Pescatore, Judge 17–18
philosophy (of corporate/collective intention) 6, 251–253 reductive vs. non-reductive approaches 252–253 policy, relationship with law 143–144 politics, impact on legal reasoning 74 positivism 13, 73–74, 99 positions counter to 163–164 precedent 244–245
and analogy 244
formal vs. informal 244–245 and levels of generality 226–227 role in legal reasoning 13–14 preliminary reference system 40, 266 principles
contrasted with rules 139–140
control of 141–142
interpretative approach driven by 276
objections to 140
order of priority 35
relationship with policy/ies 143 role in decision-making 15 setting of limits to 39 written vs. unwritten 38
see also European Union privacy, right of 44
prohibitions/bans, whether covered by ‘restrictions’ 268–271 proportionality principle 218–219
purposive interpretation see teleological interpretation ‘quantitative restrictions’ 268–271 significance of term 268–269
Radbruch, Gustav 164
‘radical intention thesis’ 134
Rasmussen, Hjalte 53, 57, 59, 60–64, 84, 97, 116–117, 143, 211, 216 critiques 53, 64–67, 165–166 Rawls, John 110, 118
realism, legal 93
reasonableness, as criterion 78–79, 81 Regulations
binding nature 260–261
and direct effect doctrine 27, 28–29, 262–263 representation 91–92
reservations (expressed by States) 256–257 residence
permits 217–218; refusal 219–220 right of 218–219
restraint 17, 18, 50
criticisms 281
defined 18–19
relationship with (anti-)positivist perspective 163–164
Roemer, Karl, Advocate General 23–24 Rome, Treaty of and democracy/rule of law 89 and interpretative theory 62–63, 65 and supremacy principle 29 see also Constitutional Treaty; Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union
Rosenfeld, Michel 192
Ruiz-Jarabo Colomer, Dámaso, Advocate General 203
rule of law 3, 4–5, 87–88, 114–117, 144, 152, 170–171, 245, 276–277
compatibility with separation of
powers 178
as contested concept 90–91 fundamental basis 87–88 incompatibility with institutional balance 197 interpretative approaches counter to 109–110
interpretative theory based on 62–63, 136–137
‘minimum content’ 114–116 normative role in EC 89–94
relationship with legitimacy 95–97
see also common law; democracy rules absence, methods of dealing with 167 centrality to law 143–144
contrasted with principles 139–140 interpretative 141–143
Sadurski, Wojciech 110
‘same acts’, meaning of 204
Scalia, Antonin, Justice 24, 227–228, 229
Schapiro, Fritz W. 96
Schauer, Frederick 109
Schengen Convention 202–205, 237–239
Scheper, Harm 54, 56–57, 64, 67, 84
Schiek, Dagmar 45–46
Schlag, Pierre 124
Schmidt, Marlene 46
Schumpeter, Joseph 96
Searle, John R. 252
secondary legislation 178–179
direct effect 28–29, 37
separation of powers 4, 26, 144, 278–279 applicability in EU 173, 178–192, 199;
limitations 199–200
benefits 174–175, 178
and checks and balances 176, 177–178 conflict with ECJ system 192–193 and institutional balance 194–198 lack of studies 172–173
objections to 59
practical application 177–178, 199–200 ‘pure’ theory 175–177
rationale 176
relevance 173–174
as State-centred 173
supranational context 173
sex discrimination see gender Shakespeare, William 8
Shapiro, Martin 54
Shaw, Jo 21, 35, 53, 57, 84–85
‘smart sanctions’ 220–224, 280
Snyder, Francis 84–85, 117
Soper, Philip 163–164
Soriana, Morales 72
Spaak, Torben 19
Spain, international agreements 37 speculative inconsistency 108–111 movement beyond particulars of case 110 State aid see benefits; legitimate expectation
State liability 30, 50, 237
absence from national legal systems 234 (apparent) ruling out 235 discovery 235
ECJ rulings 233–237, 245
specific principles 234–235, 237
Stein, Eric 28, 55, 57
Stone, Julius 226
Stone Sweet, Alec 1, 58, 104–106, 244 strict construction, principle of 202 strike, right to 49, 50
subjective originalist interpretation 20–21, 247–272, 281
and collective/corporate intention 254, 272
direct 248–250
indirect 248–250, 258, 264–265 lack of critical studies 247–248 problems of definition 250–254 types of 248
subsidarity principle 37–39, 188, 199, 236 opposition to 58
restrictions on Community/Union-level interventions 37, 38–39
Summers, Robert 19–20, 132–133, 136–137, 139, 281
Sunstein, Cass R. 163
supremacy principle 29–30, 40, 50, 189–190, 258–265, 272
areas of debate 263–264 combination with direct effect 266
justification 259–262
Member State challenges to 190–191, 258–259, 262–263
reformulations 259
Treaty provisions: explicit 264;
non-explicit/ambiguous 261–262;
weakening 265
Sweden, State liability doctrine 234
Tamanaha, Brian 91, 92, 124, 138, 275
Taruffo, Michele 19–20
taxation
EU powers 189
non-discriminatory obligations 27–28; exceptions 41–42 teleological (purposive) interpretation 20, 70–71, 243 differing types of 148
objections to 148–149, 274–275
results 274–275
see also meta-teleological interpretation textual meaning see literal interpretation theatre, analogy with law 136 third countries
Community/Union and Member State relations with 32 international agreements with 80–81 Treaty rights/obligations 36–37
Third Pillar 198–199
tobacco advertising, Community legislation on 39 Toth, Akos G. 64, 66–67 trading arrangements, relationship with free movement principle 267–268 traité cadre 129
translation see languages travaux préparatoires interpretative use 23, 24, 249–250, 254, 259, 263, 268–271, 281 reluctance to use 255–256 studies 255
Treaties 178
amendment, processes of 100–102, 272 anterior 36–37 circumvention 196–197
and collective/corporate intention 254, 272
derogation from 29, 259–261
direct effect 27–28
drafting, contrasted with legislation 82 ECJ’s exceeding scope of 31–32 extension of scope 80 extent of Member State control 35 interpretation, rules governing 82–83 lacunae 205
law developed in absence of 86 negotiation processes in EU 234 overruling: impermissibility of 25–26 power to conclude 32–33, 242; absence of express provisions 241 preparatory workings see travaux préparatoires Treaty Establishing a Constitution for Europe see Constitutional Treaty Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) 182–184 ‘trial finally disposed of’, meaning of 202–203, 237–239 Tribe, Laurence H. 154, 227, 229–230
Tridimas, George P. Takis 39 Tuomela, Raimo 252–253
ultra vires doctrine 194, 197, 220–221 unattributed powers 151
Unger, Roberto Mangabeira 134–135
United Kingdom
interpretative declarations 257
parliamentary sovereignty 91, 100
State liability doctrine 234
United States
Constitution 177; debates on interpretation 54–55, 98
dialectical reasoning 162
judicial law-making 111 legal studies 9–10, 18, 20
levels of generality 227–228
Presidential role/powers 181, 187
separation of powers 173
State liability doctrine 234
Supreme Court, (debate on) role of 2, 192
Van Rompuy, Herman 282–283
Vattel, Emmerich de 154
Vausche, Antoine 56, 57, 58–59
Verheugen, Günter 184 veto, powers of 181
Von Wright, Georg Henrik 167–168
Walker, Neil 95, 102, 105–106
Waluchow, Wilfrid J. 108–111
Warner, Jean-Pierre, Advocate General 269
Weatherill, Stephen 21–22
Weiler, Joseph H. H. 58, 84–85, 151, 159–160, 191 critique of Rasmussen 53, 61, 64, 65–66 theory of interpretation 67–69
Weinberger, Ota 69
Werner, Wouter G. 166–167
Wesseling, Rein 54, 56–57, 84
Westen, Peter 121–122
Wheare, Kenneth C. 188
World Trade Organization (WTO) 22–23, 69, 258