

INDEX

- absolutism 57–8
- accountability 144
- accumulation, primitive 47–9, 59–60, 66
- Addresses to the German Nation* (Fichte) 70, 82, 156, 159–61
  - publication 1, 19–20
  - role of virtue in 17–20, 82, 162–207
- administration, public 145, 150–5
- aesthetic sense 83
- agency
  - as capacity to construct ends 24–5
  - in external world 25, 32–3
  - in relation to the future 33–4
  - right as a condition of human 24–5, 43–4, 73, 132–3
  - see also* moral agency
- agriculturalist, right to alienate the products of the land 41–2
- alienation 158–60
- Analyse de la doctrine de Babeuf* 70–82
- appropriation 47–9, 51, 52–3, 60–1, 74–6
- armed force 194–5
- artists 77, 78, 83, 129, 134
- Atheism Controversy 10, 81, 162
- Babeuf, Gracchus 9, 55, 56–7, 69
  - economic plans (1795) 79
  - Fichte compared with 70–82, 84–5
- Babouvism 61, 69–70, 73–4, 76, 85–6
- ballots, secret 105–6
- Berlin 162
  - Academy of Sciences 168
- body
  - freedom and inviolability of the 26, 33–4, 124, 132, 136
  - and labour 47–9
  - and soul or self 174
- Catholic Church 58
- Characteristics of the Present Age, The* (Fichte) 168–70, 177–8
- choice
  - freedom of 3–4, 7, 24, 63, 113–15, 125, 128–31, 130, 132, 134, 192–3
- Christianity 98–9, 168
- cities, German free imperial 180, 181
- citizenship
  - active and passive (Kant) 102–7, 110
  - and economic independence 102–7
  - and humanity 136–8
  - virtuous 190, 206–7
  - world 87, 90
- civil contract 30–44, 71, 75–6, 114–15, 116–23, 125–6, 144, 153
  - property rights 30–1, 35, 40–1, 71, 75–6, 116–20, 124, 129
  - protection contract 31, 35, 75, 119, 120, 124
  - unification contract 31, 120
- civil society 4, 9, 16–17, 123–31
  - and political state 17, 58, 124
  - as the state of necessity 115, 123–31
- civil state, Kantian principles of 102
- classes of citizens 82–5, 117, 123, 128–30, 158–60
  - see also* estates
- clerics 134
- Closed Commercial State, The* (Fichte) 10–11, 23–4, 44, 53–4, 55, 56–7, 59, 62, 66, 69, 71, 77–82, 83–4, 86, 88, 92–3, 94–101, 107–10, 129, 134, 151–2, 163, 191
- coercion by the state 28–9, 30, 74–6, 120
  - indirect 92–4, 104, 106–7, 110
  - and popular sovereignty 146

- right of 74–6, 96, 116
- versus mutual recognition 13–17, 17–18
- collectivism 76–7, 172
- individualism vs. 58–9, 61–3, 69
- colonization 91–2
- commerce
  - Fichte on 94–101
  - Kant on 92–4, 101–11
- commitment 138, 141, 157
- common good 69, 156–7
- commonwealth 28–9, 35, 75, 116, 189
- need for representation in a 143–4
- communication, the art of 167
- communism 56, 76–7
- community
  - ethical 13–20, 82–6, 113–14, 133–4, 136, 157, 159–61, 164, 187–96, 202–7
  - and freedom 12, 15
  - ideal and actual 15
  - legal and political 15, 133–4, 143
  - and relation of right 11–12, 40, 46
  - state as a unified political 113–14, 125–6
- competition
  - evil effects of 79
  - free 63–4
- conflict, possibility of 4–5, 11, 12–13, 29, 34, 45, 52
- conscience 152, 189, 196–207
- consent 92
  - and the constitution 150–5
  - and extent of another's freedom 28, 70–1
  - of individuals in contract theory of the state 14, 30, 35, 58, 75, 107, 126
  - to commercial relations 101–11
  - to property regulated by law 48–51, 129
- Conspiracy of the Equals (1796) 56–7, 80–2
- constitution/s 98
  - civil 105–6, 189
  - and the common will 150–5
  - democratic rejected 143–4
  - federal 95–6, 107
  - ideal rational 152–5
  - 'Jacobin' (1793) 67–8, 69, 150
  - and rights 58
- constitutional law 145
- contract theory of state 13–14, 57–8, 72–3, 107, 125–6
- Hegel's objections to 115, 122–3
- voluntaristic 123, 128, 131
- see also* civil contract
- contracts
  - possibility of 89–90, 129–30
  - and rights 62–3, 134–5
- contractualism, Fichte's 62–6
- Contribution towards Correcting the Public's Judgement of the French Revolution* (Fichte) 18, 57–68, 112
- cooperation 71
- cosmopolitan right theory (Fichte) 87–8, 89–94
- cosmopolitan right theory (Kant) 11, 86, 87–111
- Fichte's critique of 11–14, 94–101, 107
- cultivation, moral 139–40, 142–3
- culture 165–8
  - and freedom 192–3
  - and language 173–80
  - progress of human 170–2, 174–85
  - unity of life and spiritual in German 176–7, 182–3, 193–4, 206–7
- Declaration of the Rights of Man (1789) 67
- democracy, direct 143–4, 145–6
- despotism 147–9
- Diderot, Denis 94
- Directory 56
- disadvantaged, the 64–6
- disposition types 16–17, 114–15, 126–7, 131, 133, 148–9, 157, 159, 167, 190
- distributive justice 55, 73–6
- see also* redistribution
- duty
  - criterion for the correctness of our conviction concerning 196–207
  - different from the concept of right 14, 121, 155
  - of self-preservation 135
  - of setting a good example 140, 142
  - see also* ethical duties theory (Fichte)
- economic dependence
  - Fichte on 62, 88, 98–101, 110, 130
  - and international law 106–11

- economic dependence (cont.)
 Kant on 101–11
 Locke on 51
 one-sidedness of 11, 88, 92–4, 98–101, 106, 110
 economic rights, and property rights 23, 54–5
 economic theory, Fichte's 78–82
 education
 and conscience 201–4
 equal access to 131
 German national 17, 164, 171–2,
 177, 181, 182, 184, 187–96,
 197–8, 202–7
 and moral community 15, 83, 194
 egoism
 characteristic of right 133, 138, 146, 155, 157, 205
 substituting morality for 146
 theory of state based on 4, 13, 146, 155, 171, 205
 universality of 123, 127, 155, 157
 empiricism 10–11, 169–70, 173
 and normative relations 4–6, 54–5, 80–2
 and transcendental relations 10–11
 ends
 capacity to construct 24–5, 33–4
 content of 26–7
 free leisure for arbitrary 73
 moral 204–5
 Enlightenment 94, 152, 168
 ephorate 144–6, 147–8
 equality 69, 71, 76, 81–2, 102, 157, 207
see also inequality, Locke's justification of estates 77, 82–5, 95, 129–30, 134–8, 139–40, 158–60, 165
 ethical community 13–20, 82–6, 113–14, 133–4, 157, 159–61, 164, 187–96, 202–7
 ethical duties theory (Fichte) 17, 82–4, 115, 121, 131–43, 147, 156, 163, 164, 186, 187, 190, 192
 compared with Hegel's 142
 ethical life, Hegel's theory of (Sittlichkeit) 123–31
 ethics see morality Europe
 colonial policies 91
 salvation of 191
 trade in Christian 98–9
 evil, radical 197
 exchange 77, 129–30, 134
 cultural forms 93
 executive power 143–5, 150–5
 experience 5, 11, 166, 174–5
 fallibility 201–2, 205
 farmers 41–2, 84
 tenant 103–4
 fatherland, love of 191–5
 federation of peoples/states (Völkerbund) 95–6, 107, 110
 feudalism 58, 63, 64–6
 Fichte, Johann Gottlieb
 at Jena 1, 10, 162, 163, 165, 178
 compared with Babeuf 70–82, 84–5
 compared with Locke on property
 and freedom 24, 44–55
 and the French Revolution 57–70
 letter (1795) on 'system of freedom' 68
 letter (1798) on France 68
 traditionalism 82–6
Foundations of Natural Right (Fichte)
 2–3, 8, 10, 12, 13–14, 16, 17, 18, 19–20, 21, 23, 24–5, 30–4, 39, 45,
 53, 57, 59, 61, 67, 74–5, 95–103,
 112–15, 129, 132, 143, 151, 155,
 157, 191–2, 194
 Introduction 5
 Kantian cosmopolitanism of 87–8, 89–94
 France
 National Assembly (1789) 67
 National Convention (1794) 146
France en 1796, La 56
France en 1797, La 56
 free market in land and goods 61–3, 64–5, 79
 freedom 1, 102
 civil 93
 and community 12, 13, 15, 24
 of expression 43
 extent of individual 12–13, 28, 30–1, 70–1
 Fichte's letter on 'system of'
 (1795) 68
 formal 131–2, 137, 155

- limitations on 24, 25, 30–1, 34, 43–4, 45, 52, 54–5, 124, 188, 192
- and moral agency 139, 193
- and the moral law 131–9, 198–9, 200–2
- and necessity 72–3, 126, 128–31, 135–6, 170–1, 189, 196, 198–9
- possibility of human 19–20, 136
- and property 44–55, 62
- and reason/rationality in
  - self-limitation 3, 12, 13, 24
- and virtue 142
- freedom of choice 3–4, 7, 24, 25, 63, 113, 114–15, 128–31, 130–1, 132, 134
- sphere for 32–3, 192–3, 196
- French Revolution
  - defence of the ‘moderate’ of (1789) 58, 67
  - Fichte and the 57–70, 154, 160
  - and Fichte’s theory of property 9–11, 55
  - and modern civil society 4
  - radical phase 17, 57–8, 68–9, 143, 155
- Gans, Eduard 124
- Genesis 46–7
- Germany 87, 98, 162–207
  - characteristics of 173, 176–7, 179–81, 198, 206–7
  - and the French Revolution 57
  - idealism 1
  - moral regeneration of 17–20, 171–2, 184–5, 206–7
  - national education 17, 164, 171–2, 177, 181, 182, 184, 187–96, 197–8, 202–7
  - Romanticism 87
- Girondins 57
- good, pleasure in the 197–8
- good life 9, 26–7, 43, 137–8
- good will, and enforceability of
  - right 16
- Görres, Joseph 87
- government
  - duty of 36, 50, 99–100
  - and the ephorate 144–6
  - ought not to have monopoly of the legitimate use of coercion 146
  - revolutionary 154
- Guérout, Martial 58–9
- happiness, drive for 156
- Hegel, G. W. F. 1, 2
  - on modern civil society 4, 9, 16–17, 122, 131, 133
  - objections to Fichte’s contract theory of state 115, 122–3
  - ‘state of necessity’ 115, 122, 123–31, 133, 135, 138
  - on virtue in philosophy of right 140–2
- heroism of virtue 140–2
- history
  - epochs of 168–79
  - Fichte’s use of 164, 168–87
  - instrumentalization of 164, 181, 186
  - and language 177–8
  - as ‘mere empiricism’ 173
  - monumental 183–4
  - Nietzsche on 164, 182, 183–5
- Hobbes, Thomas 45, 74–5, 119–20
- hospitality, right to 90–1, 101
- humanity 35
  - and citizenship 136–8
  - fallibility 201–2, 205
  - immoral nature 124–5
  - pleasure in the good 197–8
  - realization of destiny as
    - supersensuous beings 139, 168–9, 189
- idea (Idee), and vision (Gesicht) 175
- idealism, German 1
- imperialism, economic 109
- inalienable rights 57–8, 63, 129
- independence
  - economic and political 94–101, 104–11, 190–1
  - Kant on personal 102–3
  - state’s need to preserve its 96–8, 100–1, 106–10, 172
- individualism, vs. collectivism 58–9, 61–3
- individuality
  - liberal political order and value of 6–8, 137
  - relation of right as a condition of 4, 6–8, 24, 116, 138
  - relation of right and morality 113, 132–3, 155
  - sacrifice of 193–4, 195, 205
  - and virtue 140–2

- inequality, Locke's justification of 49–51
- inheritance 65
- instrumental reasoning 118–20
- intellectuals see scholar
- international law, and economic dependence 106–11
- intersubjectivity 45, 52, 140, 164
see also mutual recognition
- Jacobinism 58, 66, 68–9
- Jena theory of the state and society 17, 59, 112–61, 205
- Jena, University of, Fichte at 1, 10, 162, 163, 165, 178
- judgement
moral 196–207
reflective power of 197–200
- Kant, Immanuel 1, 112, 128, 153
on economic dependence 101–11
Idea for a Universal History 93 moral philosophy 92–3
Perpetual Peace 87–8, 90–1, 95–6, 106–7, 108–10
on role of conscience in moral judgement 199–202
The Metaphysics of Morals 88, 91, 199–202 theory of cosmopolitan right 11–14, 86, 97–111
- knowledge
based on sense experience 174–5
historico-philosophical 166–8, 172, 178–9, 182–3, 186–7
intuitive and demonstrable 45, 169
supersensuous 189
- labour
and body 47–9
division of 73, 82–5, 133–4
and exclusive right to an object 59
exploitative practices 72
as a form of property 63, 103–4, 129
mechanization of 159
relation of worker to his employer 63–6 right to be able to live from one's 33–6, 37, 42–3, 51–2, 61, 69, 71–2, 73–4, 76, 77, 94–5, 108, 117, 121, 124, 128, 135, 150, 156, 188
- labour contract 65
- land
claim to right to 92
and products of one's labour 102–3
and property 33, 38–43, 47–9, 61, 77
scarcity results from invention of money 48–9 settlement without nation's consent 92
state ownership and 61–3
- language
as a condition of possibility of history 177–8 dead or living 176, 178, 179–80
determines national character 179–80
Fichte's theory of origins and development of 173–80, 206–7
German 167–8, 173, 178, 182, 194, 206–7
loan coinages 178
'original' vs. adoption of a foreign 173–4, 176, 178–80
and state frontiers 163
- law
formal nature of the 12
and global peace 87–8
leaving a person free to act 75
permissive vs. moral law 113
and public order 83–4
- law of ethics see moral law
- law of right 121, 144
- laws
and institutions of civil society 124, 126–7, 141
of nature 26, 38, 102–3, 119–20, 136, 139
and right 4, 35
unjust 150, 152–3
- learning, love of 188–9
- legal positivism 29
- legality 117–18
- legislation
civil 31
publicness of 105–6, 150
right to vote on 104–5
- leisure 73
- Léon, Xavier 56, 69–70
- liberal democracy 21

- liberal political order
  - defined 7–8
  - Fichte's doubts about 8–9, 85–6
  - positive and negative function 7
  - property rights in 21–3, 37, 39, 67
  - and value of individuality 6–8
- liberal socialism 23
- liberalism 6–8, 10–11, 43–5, 69–70, 82, 85–6
  - economic 43, 86
- Locke, John
  - compared with Fichte on property and freedom 21, 24, 44–55, 59
  - Essay Concerning Human Understanding* 45
  - on legislation 31
  - subject-centred approach 45, 49–50
  - The Second Treatise of Government* 45, 46–7
- Louis XVI, execution 57
- Luther, Martin 175, 180
- Macpherson, C. B. 21–2
- Marx, Karl 47, 49
- mercantilism 100–1
- merchants 77–8, 130
- Minerva* 56
- Mirabeau, marquis de 94
- money
  - as absolute property 42, 43, 77, 80
  - consent to the consequences of 48–51
  - as exchange 48–51
  - and goods in circulation 79
- moral agency
  - freedom and 139, 193, 196
  - right as a condition of 136–8
- moral autonomy 131–2, 133–4, 200–2
  - and right 113, 137–43, 155
- moral development 189–205
- moral judgement
  - Fichte's theory of 196–207
  - Kant on 199–202
- moral law
  - as a condition of self-consciousness 113
  - content of 197, 199
  - and freedom 131–9, 200–2
  - and nonmoral incentives 156–7
  - and property rights 60
- moral philosophy, Kant's 92–3
- moral sense 83
- morality 84
  - absolute unconditional validity 121, 127, 132
  - concerns inner actions 117–18
  - and duty 134
  - and freedom 131–9
  - political 146, 150
  - 'real' 132–3
  - relation of right to 19–20, 112–61, 132–3, 136–8, 155, 190
  - separation from right 13–17, 18, 59, 82, 85–6, 111, 113, 115, 116–23, 132–3, 159, 194, 205–6
  - see also* ethical duties theory (Fichte)
- mutual dependence 123, 126, 135, 138
- mutual recognition 3–4, 17, 114, 164, 194
  - between states 96
  - coercion by the state versus 13–18, 74–6
  - and the contract theory of state 14–17, 30–44
  - deduced as a condition of self-consciousness 12
  - failure of 4, 6, 11–12, 28
  - the possibility of 12–13, 15
  - in property rights 28
  - and the relation of right 46
  - as a transcendental condition of right 13
- Napoleon Bonaparte 162
- nation
  - conscience of a 202–3
  - identification with state 163
  - love of one's 191–5
  - rights of a 87–8
- nationalism, German 20, 162
- natural law tradition 21, 31, 44–5, 49, 103
- natural right
  - Fichte on 28–9, 35, 59–60
  - Locke on 49–51
  - theories of 5, 27
  - to liberty, property, security and resistance to oppression 67

- nature
  - Babeuf on 70
  - laws of 26, 38, 119–20, 136, 139
  - and realization of individual's
    - destiny as a supersensuous being 139
  - virtue and 139, 142
- necessity
  - and freedom 72–3, 126–31, 135–6, 170–1, 189, 196, 198–9
  - subjective and objective form of 127–8
  - see also 'state of necessity' (Hegel)
- needs, system of 123, 126, 128–9, 135
- Neuhouser, Frederick 6–7, 8–9, 22–3, 27, 137
- Nietzsche, Friedrich
  - On the Uses and Disadvantages of History for Life* 164, 182, 183–5
  - Untimely Meditations* 182
- nobility 33
- normative relations, and empirical
  - relations 4–6, 54–5, 80–2
- norms, virtue as source of ethical 140–2
- objectivity
  - of inquiry 166, 182, 185
  - of judgement 199–202
- objects, symbolic representations of 173–5
- obligations 28, 72, 121, 125
- occupation
  - and free choice 128–31
  - and property rights 39–41
  - right to 78–9
- original rights 26–8, 31, 32, 67, 70–1, 89–90, 132–3
- peace
  - global 87–8, 93–4, 95–6, 108–9
  - perpetual 87–8, 90–1, 95–6, 106–7, 108–10
- people (das Volk)
  - danger of corruption 147–9
  - executive power for the 143–6
  - and the fatherland 191–5
  - right of rebellion 148–9, 154
- people's tribunal 145–6
- person
  - legal status 104
  - moral status 102
  - and original rights 26–8
  - political status 103–4
  - use of term 4, 26
- Pestalozzi, Johann Heinrich 188
- Philosophisches Journal einer Gesellschaft Teutscher Gelehrten* 87
- philosophy 5–6, 84, 166–7, 169
  - application of concept of right 81, 206
  - and origins of language 177–8
  - task of seeking a political solution 54–5, 81–2, 204
- planned economy 78–82, 95, 130
- Plato 129
- political philosophy
  - criticism of Fichte's conception of the state 4, 13–14, 19–20
  - liberal interpretation 6–9, 10, 26–7, 69–70, 85–6, 137, 206
  - and radical phase of the French Revolution 57–8, 66
- political right 53–4
- politics
  - moralization of 19–20, 160–1, 163, 195
  - and philosophy 54–5
  - and the science of governing 53–4, 145–6
  - and virtue 143–61
- popular sovereignty 143–6
- positive laws 28–9, 35, 75, 116
- possession
  - and property 28, 32, 48–9
  - unequal 49–51
- principles of right 4, 25–7, 85, 121, 190
- private property rights 23, 27, 38–9, 41–2, 69, 80
  - Babeuf and 80
  - Locke's justification of 47–51
- private rights 6–8, 156
- producers 129–30, 134
- production
  - and alienation 41–2, 158–60
  - common control of means of 41, 43, 77
- professions 82–4, 102
  - ethical duties of 115, 133–40, 142–3, 156, 157, 158–60
  - higher and lower 135–6, 158–9

- property
  - defined as exclusive right to a determinate free activity 8–9, 33, 37, 43–4, 63, 67
  - 'exclusive' 30, 31, 32–3, 59, 64, 207
  - Fichte's broad meaning of the term 8, 21, 23, 30–3, 37, 116–17
  - and freedom 44–55, 132
  - human beings 'as ourselves our property' 63
  - inalienable 34–5, 42–3
  - Kant on 102–3
  - and land 33, 38–43, 47–9
  - limitations on ownership of 21, 38–44
  - Locke's meaning of 47–8
  - money as absolute 42, 43
  - and virtue 1, 18–20, 158–60, 206
  - and voting right 102
- property, the concept of
  - as a determination of the concept of right 8–9, 25, 34, 37
  - as the right to objects 59
- property rights
  - compared with right to appropriation 60–1
  - and economic rights 23, 54–5
  - of the first occupant 39–40, 59–60
  - and formation of objects 60–1, 63–4
  - and law of ethics 60
  - in liberal political order 7–8, 10–11, 21–3, 37
  - and limitations on freedom 21, 38–44, 45
  - mutual declaration and recognition of 30–44, 52, 124
  - necessity of state to enforce 11–12, 72–3
  - see also* private property rights
- property theory (Fichte's) 4, 21–55
  - and application of the concept of right 6, 9–11, 25, 34–44, 75–6
  - defined 37
  - differences between earlier and later 59–66, 206
  - empirical model 10–11
  - and the French Revolution 9–11, 55, 59–69
  - normative constraints of 13–14
  - and theory of right 8–9, 23, 24–44, 80, 129
- Protestantism 181, 183, 198
- Prussia 81, 162
- public good 69, 146, 148–9
- Rawls, John, A Theory of Justice 55
- reason/rationality 2–3, 57, 119–20, 128, 133, 153, 166, 168, 188–9, 197
  - the end of 82–4, 133–6, 153–4
  - and freedom 3, 24, 171
- practical 199
- rebellion, right of 147–9, 154
- receptivity 167
- Rechtslehre* (Fichte) 18, 25, 40, 72, 136
- recognition
  - the concept of 2, 206–7
  - of legal personality and property of others 121–2
  - see also* mutual recognition
- rectitude 140–2
- redistribution 23, 36, 39, 52–3, 54, 60, 75–6, 117
  - of property as unjust (Locke) 49–51
- Reformation 98, 180, 181
- relation of right 3–4
  - based on mutual recognition 46, 74–5
  - as a condition of individuality 4, 6–8, 24, 116, 138
  - hypothetical nature 11–12
  - maintained by coercion rather than mutual recognition 13–14, 16–17
  - as a moral relation 16–17, 114–15, 131–3
  - and the property contract 31–2, 37
  - and self-limitation 4, 116
  - and the state 110, 157
- religion, and nations 98–9
- representation
  - need for 143–6, 155
  - symbolic in language 173–6
- republicanism 155, 193
- responsibility 138, 141, 157, 200–2
- right
  - concerns external actions 117–18
  - as a condition of individuality 4, 6–8, 24, 116, 138
  - conditional nature 121, 127
  - form of and content of 40–1
  - as logical consistency 118–20
  - and moral autonomy 113, 137–43, 207

- right (cont.)
- moralization of 159–60
  - as positive and negative condition of human agency 44
  - relation to morality 19–20, 112–61, 132–3, 136–8, 155, 190
  - and self-interest 134
  - separation from morality 13–17, 18, 59, 82, 85–6, 111, 113, 115, 116–23, 132–3, 159, 194, 205–6
  - to be able to acquire rights 89–90
  - to be able to live 34, 37, 43, 63, 66–7
  - to be able to live from one's labour 33–6, 37, 42–3, 51–2, 61, 69, 71, 73–4, 76, 77, 94–5, 108, 117, 121, 124, 128, 135, 150, 156, 188
  - violations to be prevented or punished 52–3, 74–6, 148–9
  - see also* cosmopolitan right theory (Kant); natural right; political right; principles of right; Rechtslehre; relation of right
- right, the concept of 2
- application 5–6, 9, 10–12, 23, 24–44, 56–86
  - and the concept of property 25–44
  - as a condition of self-consciousness 2–3, 4, 15, 44, 46–7, 112
  - derived from moral law 112, 194
  - different from duty 14, 121
  - failure to apply 74–5
  - as a 'merely technical-practical' one 12
  - as morally necessary 13–14, 46
  - and reciprocal limitation of freedom 116
- right, Fichte's theory of
- compared with Hegel's 'state of necessity' 115
  - and conception of society and the state 158–60, 169, 192
  - influence of Babeuf on 56–7, 69–70, 76–7
  - and liberalism 6–10, 25
  - and Locke's property rights 51
  - and property theory 8–9, 23, 24–44
  - and radicalism of French Revolution 9, 58
  - role of virtue in 141–2, 143–61, 196
  - teleological aspect 137–43
- rights 4
- and contracts 134–5
  - Declaration of Rights of Man (1789) 67
  - 'publicness' of 105–6
  - see also* economic rights, and property rights; inalienable rights; original rights; property rights
- Robespierre, Maximilien 81, 146, 150, 154
- speech to the National Convention (1792) 67
- Roman law 98
- Romanticism, German 87
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques 39–40, 57
- Schelling, Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph von 1
- Schlegel, Friedrich 87
- scholar 83–5, 134
- moral vocation of the 160, 162–4, 165–8, 172, 178, 180–2, 185, 186, 203–4
  - respect for the 70, 84–5
  - role of the 160, 162–3, 170–1
- science, foundational 5–6, 166
- self-consciousness
- and freedom 3
  - moral law as a deduction of 113
  - mutual recognition deduced as a condition of 12
  - right as a condition of 2–3, 4, 44, 112, 115, 116
- self-determination 3, 24, 34, 43–4, 51, 113, 116, 129, 188–9
- self-interest 69, 121–2, 127–8, 134, 137–8, 155, 170–1, 191
- and use of coercion 15–16
  - and virtue 156–7, 205
- self-limitation
- and Fichte's theory of a summons 3, 45–6
  - of freedom in a community 12, 13, 24
  - motivation for 16–17
  - and relation of right 4, 116
- self-preservation 34–5, 37, 119–20, 135, 156, 157, 169, 187–8
- sense perception, language based on 173–5

- sensible world 5, 9, 11, 12, 23, 24–44, 55
separation of powers 143–4, 147–8 Siep, Ludwig 44–5
social contract 39–40, 128, 153
social order 144, 188–91
social roles 141–2, 147
socialism 10, 22–3, 43, 56, 59, 70
liberal 23
society
as an ethical community 70, 137–43
Fichte's theory compared to Babeuf 82–5
level of culture 166–8
moralization of 160–1
neither rich nor poor in true (Babeuf) 76–7
organic model of 158–9
owes its citizens a living 67–8
and scholar's vocation 165–8
virtue as source of ethical norms 140–3, 157
see also state and society, Jena theory of the
Some Lectures concerning the Scholar's Vocation (Fichte) 163–4
state
amoral conception of the 114,
115–16, 122–3, 124–6, 136, 159–60, 191–2
authority with coercive powers 28–9, 30–1, 32, 120, 121–2
and the civil contract 30–3
and civil society 17, 124
conduct of foreign trade 79–80 constitution of the (Fichte) 143–4 does it have a conscience? 203–5
dual allocative and distributive function 36, 39, 41, 43–4, 53–4, 60, 75–6
ethical conception of the 114, 137, 143
external see 'state of necessity' (Hegel)
Fichte's theory of the closed
commercial 21, 79–82, 88, 94–101, 107–10, 190–1
guarantee of leisure 72–3
guarantees that persons are not made dependent on the good will of others 117–18
guarantees individuals the means to live 67–8, 71–6, 129, 130–1, 152, 188, 192
as human being's natural condition 35
ideal rational 53–4, 76, 80–2, 157
identification with nation 163
interdict 145
Kantian principles of the civil 102 and land ownership 61–3
little agrarian 190–1
necessity of authority 11–12, 15–17
need to attain its natural frontiers 108–10, 163 production and exchange 78–9
protection of property rights
function 21, 44, 54, 124, 128
right to refuse entry to a foreigner 89–91
and social contract (Rousseau) 39–40
supervisory role of occupations 130–1
theory based on egoism 4, 13, 16, 146, 155, 171, 205
see also coercion by the state;
contract theory of state
'state of necessity' (Hegel) 123–31, 133, 135, 138
compared with Fichte's theory of
right 115, 122, 159
state officials 83, 134
duties of 150–5, 193
state and society
Jena theory of the 17, 59, 112–61, 205 and love of fatherland 193–5 states
economic relations between 94–111
emergence of 99–100
federation of 95–6
mutual recognition between 96–7
relations between 11, 88–94
small republican 145
Struensee, Karl August von 81
subjective particularity, principle of 129
subjectivity
and moral judgement 197–202
and theory of right and property 8–9, 23

- summons, Fichte's theory of a 3, 45–6
 supersensuous world 174–5
 suspicion, rational 74–5
System of Ethics, The (Fichte) 17, 82–4, 113–15, 131, 131–9, 157, 158–9, 164, 186, 196–207
 system of needs 123, 126, 128–9, 135
- taxation 42, 99
 Terror, the 68, 160
 thinking
   consistently 118–20, 121
   laws of 188–9
 trade 78–80, 93–4, 99
   balance of 99–100
 transcendental and empirical relations
   5–6, 10–11, 46–7
 transparency 105–6
Tribun du Peuple 56, 79, 84–5
 trust 74–5
 truth 165–6, 168, 170–2, 173, 180, 182, 186–7
   feeling of 197
- upbringing (Erziehung) 46
- value theory, and goods 78–9
- virtue civic 193
   the concept of 17–20, 85, 111, 115–16, 123, 142
   the 'genius for' 139, 140–2
   in Hegel's philosophy of right 140–2 and nature 139, 142
   and political morality 146, 155
   producing 187–96
   and property 1, 18–20, 206
   role in Addresses to the German Nation 17–20, 82, 162–207
   role in Fichte's theory of right 140–2, 143–61
   and self-interest 156–7, 205
   social nature of 138–43, 144, 164
   social and political role 19–20, 147–61, 163, 192–3, 205–6
   vocation of the scholar 17, 160, 162–4, 165–8, 172, 178, 180–2, 185, 186, 203–4
   voting rights 102, 104–6
- wage labourers 103–4
 war/s 100–1, 108–10, 195
 wealth 70–1, 76–7
   of nations 100
 Weber, Marianne 109
   Fichte's Socialismus und sein Verhältnis
   zur Marx'schen Doktrin 56, 69–70 welfare state 10, 36
 will 12, 134, 137
   arbitrary as basis of the state 122–3, 126, 151
   the common 144, 146, 148–9, 150–2, 154, 172
   dependence on that of others 102, 103–4
   freedom of 196
   moral 189, 196, 198
   preserving one's own 34
Wissenschaftslehre (foundational science) 5–6, 166
 world citizenship 87, 90
 world plan 168–70, 22