

Contents

Acknowledgments	page vii
Introduction: In the Shadow of T. H. Marshall – Social Capital, Social Rights, and Sources of Vulnerability among Low-Income and Disadvantaged Groups	i
1 After the Storm: The State, Civil Society, and the Response to Katrina	17
2 An Emerging Methodology for a Crisis Situation	34
3 Life before the Storm: The Old Community	55
4 Evacuation and Arrival in Austin	80
5 The Limited Transportability of Social Capital	100
6 Civil Society, NGOs, and the Grassroots Response	123
7 Housing, Employment, and Identification	150
8 Health Care and the Limitations of Civil Society	172
9 The State, Civil Society, and the Limitations of Social Capital	192
Bibliography	211
Index	235