

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00393-4 - The Demography of Roman Italy: Population Dynamics in an Ancient Conquest Society 201 BCE–14 CE

Saskia Hin

Index

More informationIndex

- abandonment 140–1, 199
and slavery 140–1
- abortion 136, 199
- adoption 205–6
- adult mortality 119–20 see also life expectancy; mortality
- Age At First Marriage (AAFMM) see marriage ages
- age at menarche 151–2
- age gaps between marriage partners 179–81
- age reckoning 108–9
- Ager Cosanus 312
- ager publicus* 30, 269
- agricultural diversification 27, 28
- agriculture and climate 85–8
cultivation of marginal lands 86–7 underemployment in 165
see also carrying capacity
- Album Canusium* and life expectancy 106
- alieni iuris* 273
- alimenta 132–3
- allies 142, 143, 147, 156, 213–14
- Appian 214n11, 268, 285
on population development 19, 30, 166
- archaeology see bones; field surveys in Italy; site trends; skeletal evidence
- army see conquest; camps; military; military service; soldiers; warfare
- Augustus 207–8, 241n110, 257, 257n150, 269, 274, 285
Augustan censuses 20, 20n10, 278, 284–6
Augustus and tax reforms 270–1
- barley cultivation of 27, 28
nutritional value 27n24
- Beloch, Karl Julius 287
- bioarchaeological evidence see skeletal evidence
- birth intervals see child-spacing
- black-gloss pottery 326–7
and diagnosticity problems 323–4
- bones
animal 47–8
human see skeletal evidence
- Boserup, Esther 44–5
- BP 68n16
- Braudel, Fernand 64–5
- breastfeeding 95, 128, 196
and birth intervals 197
- Brunt, Peter A. 17, 173–4, 186
- Caesar 69
- capita civium censa* 11, 275, 279–81
- carrying capacity 21, 22, 24–9, 61–2 contribution of diversification to 27–8 implications for population size debate 29–30
- Cato 63, 330n75
- cattle breeding 46–7
size 47–8
- Celsus 184
- census
data processing 273–4
and inheritance law see vicesima hereditarium and military recruitment 266–7 minimum property qualification 168n258
overcount 291–2
procedure 265, 271–4, 282–4 purposes of 264–71, 281–2
target populations of 266–71, 281–6 and taxation 266, 268–71, 285–6 undercount 166–8, 291n87
and voting 266, 267–8
- census data from Roman Egypt 108–9, 113, 124, 135n118, 187–9, 230, 273n48, 295, 318, 319–22
- census figures 11–12, 143–5, 153, 166, 168–9, 173, 174, 221, 264, 274–5, 345
- Augustan 284–6
high vs low count debate 296
reliability of 274–5

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00393-4 - The Demography of Roman Italy: Population Dynamics in an Ancient Conquest Society 201 BCE–14 CE

Saskia Hin

Index

More information

Index

401

- Republican 279–84
 - subpopulations included and excluded 274–5
- chain migration 216
- child-bearing, alternatives to 202–4
- child-bearing, support for
 - by community 194–5
 - by extended family 194
 - by grandparents 193–4
- child labour 200, 206–7
- child-spacing 195–9
- children
 - desirability of 199–208
 - as security investments 200–2
 - and social status 207
 - see also sui iuris*, women and children
- Cicero 41–2, 125, 182, 205n116, 272n39
- citizens 221
 - alieni iuris see alieni iuris*
 - outside Italy 295n89
 - sui iuris see sui iuris*
- citizenship
 - of Campanians 143–4
 - of offspring of freed(wo)men 291
 - of women 281
- Civil Wars 7, 58, 59
- climate 9
 - and agricultural yields see agriculture, and climate
 - and infant mortality 94–5
 - and infectious disease 92–4
 - historiography of 63–5, 89
 - impact on demography 65–7, 89–97
 - impact on economy 66–7, 85–9, 343
 - in Italy 72, 75–9
 - limitations of evidence on 67–70, 75–6, 77
 - palaeo-climatic evidence and proxies 67–85
 - Roman Warm Period 74–5, 88–97
- climate change 65
 - anthropogenic 73
 - and carrying capacity 28–9
- colonies 160–1, 214, 216n22, 218, 230–2, 255–6, 257, 324–5
 - number of settlers in 255
 - recovery rates of 313–14
- colonization as state-sponsored migration 231
- Columella 80, 86, 126, 330n75
- comparative evidence, use of 13–15
- competition for land
 - consequences for small farmers 29–32
 - regional variation in 29–31
- connectivity 42, 53–4
- conquest
 - and booty 37
 - and military losses see military mortality
 - and resource inflow 31–43
 - and war indemnities 37
- demographic impact of 7–8, 101–2, 145–66, 169–70 see also fertility, decline during warfare; marriage, decline during warfare
- demographic impact on civilians 160–6
- demographic impact on soldiers 154–60
- day labourers
 - in cities 216
 - on rural estates 190–1, 203
- death see life expectancy
- deforestation 81–3
- demographic development, proximate determinants of 9–10
- demography, interdisciplinary character of 3–4
- depopulation of Italian countryside 29–31
- diet 28, 132–3
 - dietary deficiencies see malnutrition
 - diversity of diet 28
- Diodorus of Sicily 38, 134
- Dionysius of Halicarnassus 135–6
- disability 267
- disease see also malaria; plagues; healthy life expectancy
- dowries 181–6
 - and family system 190
 - size relative to income 184–5
 - variation in size 183–4
- dowry inflation 182–3
 - and elite competition 182–3
- Earth's heat redistribution system 70–2
- ecology and site trends 314–16
- economic growth 21–2, 342–3
 - aggregate growth 60
 - endogenous growth, factors leading to 44–5
 - indicators of 46–58
 - real growth 21–2, 59, 60–1
- economy 9, 16–36
 - see also* living standards; real wages
- emancipatio* 290
- emigration 24–5, 254–7
- employment opportunities 31, 191, 192
 - for men 233–4
 - for women 203, 232–3
- enfranchisement see slave manumission
- epigraphic habit 6, 102–3, 238, 239–40, 242, 244
- epigraphy see inscriptions; inscriptional evidence
- famines see malnutrition
- farm site trends 304, 307, 315, 316, 317, 319–22, 324, 331, 336, 337, 338, 339–40
- farmers see small farmers
- fecundity 150–2
 - of males 197

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00393-4 - The Demography of Roman Italy: Population Dynamics in an Ancient Conquest Society 201 BCE–14 CE

Saskia Hin

Index

More information

402

fertility 172–209, 344
 decline 8, 208–9
 decline during warfare 146–8
 post-war booms in 146
 proximate determinants of 172
 replacement fertility 172–5
see also child-bearing; child-spacing; children;
 fertility limitation; replacement
 fertility
 fertility limitation
 by elites 205–8
 by the poor 173–4, 192–9 see also child-spacing Festus 273n47
 field surveys in Italy 346
 aggregate comparative analysis of 303–7 contribution to historical demography 7, 298
 historiography of 298–9
 intensive vs extensive 308–9 methodological issues 299–302
see also farm site trends; site trends; villas, site trends; villages, site trends Flaccus 30
 Florus 155
 freed(wo)men 291, 291n86, 294 gender inequality 130
see also infanticide, sex-biased; mortality, sex differences in Gracchan land reforms 166, 173
 depopulation as motivation for 19
 grain 25–6, 42, 53, 61
 handouts 271
 role in diet 27–8 see also diet tax grain 40–2
 grave inscriptions see inscriptions; inscriptional evidence Greenland ice core 73–4
 Hannibal 89, 142, 143, 214
 healthy life expectancy 202
 Heracleitus 101
 Herculaneum 105
 high count see population high pressure regime 13
 high vs low count debate, historiography of 261–3
 Hippocrates 202
 Hopkins, Keith 8, 17
 Horace 126
 household heads 160, 169, 233, 271
 and census 273, 273n49, 281, 282, 289n78
 household sizes 318–22

Index

household types extended 165, 186–8
 multiple 186–8
 neo-local 186, 190
 nuclear 186–8
 population distribution over 188
 urban–rural differences in 188–9
 variation over time 189–90
 households, non-kin residents in 321–2 human capital 165–6
 illegitimacy 206, 246n117
 immigration 225, 256
 income see real wages
 inequality
 demographic 348 see also mortality, variation by SES social and economic 7–8, 24 infant feeding see breastfeeding, wet-nursing infant mortality 118–19 see also climate, and infant mortality infanticide 134–42, 199 demographic impact of 135, 137–8, 141–2
 motivations for 136–7 scale of during late Republic 138–42 sex-biased 135–6
 infectious disease 103–4, 127n73, 221–2, 225–6 inheritance see property transfers between parents and children innovations
 in agriculture 46–8
 technological 48
 inscriptional evidence 12–13, 49–51, 68, 106n19, 133n105
 biases of see epigraphic habit on census target population 286n72
 for female labour 203, 233
 on life expectancy 102–3
 on marriage ages 14, 150, 162, 176–8 on migrant demography 237–45 on morbidity and mortality 103–4 on strength of family ties 187–8 on value of children 200 inscriptions, cost of 176n10 institutions and economic growth 45, 54–8
 Italy, benefiting from position as heart of an Empire 32–43 labour see employment opportunities labour markets 55–6
 labour specialization 49–51
 lake water tables 81 land
 marginal land 46–7, 86–7
 privatization 57–8

- use, non-agricultural 28
see also agricultural diversification; agriculture; competition for land
- law
of property rights 56, 57–8
- lead poisoning 222n43
- lead and copper pollution in atmosphere see metal production
- legal independence of wives, sons, and daughters see emancipatio; sui iuris
- life expectancy 102–9, 118, 170–1
and Gross Reproduction Rate 104 and model life tables 104–5
of high SES groups 105–6
of lower SES groups 107–9
- living standards 42, 59, 85–6, 222, 346–8
see also healthy life expectancy; real wages; skeletal evidence, for ill health
- Livy 35, 42, 82, 125, 147–8, 156, 157–8, 161, 213–14, 214n11, 214n13, 218, 256, 272n42
- low count see population
- Lucretius 82
- malaria 92–4, 108, 119–20, 125, 226–7
- malnutrition 95–6, 159n212
- Malthus 9, 23–4
- Malthusian theory and population ecology 23–4
- marginal land see land
- market integration 328–9
- marriage 132, 139
cum manu 181, 182n28
decline during warfare 146–8
financing of 192
and household formation 175
post-war booms in 146
sine manu 182n28, 289–90
- marriage ages 150, 175–9
among high SES groups 175–6
among lower SES groups 176–9 determinants of 179–81
drop in and fertility 150–3 flexibility of 149–53
rates 228–9
urban–rural variation in 178–9
- marriage market see migrants, and marriage
- maternal mortality 129–31
- metal production (as indicator of economic trends) 52–3
- middle count see population
- migrants
fertility of 211, 228–9, 232, 245–6, 249
and marriage 246–8
number of 218–21
sex ratio among 211, 229–31, 235, 238–45
- migration 210–57
by children 224, 235–6
by men 233
by women 233
impact on mortality see urban graveyard effect involuntary 213–14
labour migration 232–4
to provinces see emigration push- vs pull-factors 214–17
to Rome 210–11, 218–21
seasonal 217
temporary 218, 224, 236–7 types of 217–18
see also colonization as state-sponsored migration; chain migration
- military camps 159–60
financing of 61, 132n97, 168, 268, 285–6 manpower 174, 262, 275, 282n61, 284 see also Polybius, manpower figures for 225 BCE mobilization 8, 142, 143, 161
mortality 102, 142–5
see also military service; soldiers; veterans
- military service
age and liability for 163
duration of 162–3
as employment niche 191–2
unpopularity of 167
see also military; soldiers; veterans
- mines 38–9
- model life tables 170
African (INDEPTH) 111
African and disease ecologies 116–18
and Brass modelling 111–14
Coale and Demeny 105, 109–10
evaluation of 118–23
and goodness of fit with census data 111–14
limitations of Coale and Demeny 109–10
Woods' 'Southern Model' 110–16
Woods' 'Southern Model' and disease ecology 114–16
- Mommsen and sui iuris hypothesis 286–7
- mortality 345
and disease ecology 105–6, 110, 114, 124–6 regime 102, 169–71
seasonal patterns of 103–4 sex differences in 129–34, 242–3 shocks 101
urban–rural differences in 126–8, 211, 221–7
variation by SES 128–9
variation over time 124
see also adult mortality; infant mortality; life expectancy; maternal mortality; military mortality; urban graveyard effect

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00393-4 - The Demography of Roman Italy: Population Dynamics in an Ancient Conquest Society 201 BCE–14 CE

Saskia Hin

Index

More information

404 multiplier 265, 278, 287, 291–2 Musonius Rufus 134, 207

natural fertility 195
nutrition see diet; malnutrition

olive cultivation 27, 84, 85, 86, 270n35 Oria 312
orphans see sui iuris, women and children Ovid 135

papyrological evidence 12–13, 108, 133, 140, 184, 197n83, 200n89, 201, 248, 295

parapegmata 68–9, 84
patria potestas 180
Pausanias 229–30
peasants see small farmers plagues 94, 96, 145, 146
Plautus 182n31
Pliny 53–4, 86n80, 125, 126, 141, 183, 194n71
Plutarch 19, 166
Polybius 147–8, 153n186
manpower figures for 225 BCE 275

population
decline as a political concern 262 high count 8, 20, 262, 275–8
in provinces 25n19, 295n89
low count 7–8, 19–20, 262, 275–8
middle count 10, 263–5, 275–96, 297, 342, 344–6
see also Rome, population size of population development 9, 96–7, 173–4, 227, 261–2, 274

and economic development, relationship between 16–22, 43–5

population figures see census figures population growth 343–4
as density dependent 23–4
see also population development

population growth rate 107, 253–4, 345–6 correlated with population size 45n106
heuristics 152–3
implied by archaeological evidence 307, 336–7, 340
implied by census Roman Egypt 320 implied by middle count 295, 297 mortality as driving factor of 67
post-war 153
see also site trends, and population development; urbanization, growth of Rome

population size 9, 18, 19–20, 261, 274, 292–6, 345
see also population, high count; population, low count; population, middle count

Index

poverty
and Age At First Marriage 175

precipitation 73
correlation with temperature 72–3
elsewhere in the Roman Empire 83–5
in Italy 79–81, 83

primitivist–modernist debate 43, 52, 59n171, 59–60

productivity
of agricultural land 25–8
of non-agricultural land and waters 28
see also economic growth; innovations

proletarians
and census registration 166–7, 168n258, 291n87
and fertility see fertility limitation, by the poor
and military service 167, 348

pro-natalism 204–5

property transfers between parents and children after death 180
inter vivos 180–2

Ptolemaeus (the Geographer) 68, 84

public land, see ager publicus
publicani 269, 270

Quintilian 140

real wages 16, 88, 324
of soldiers 58

regional specialization in agriculture 46–7

remarriage 149

replacement fertility 172–5

Roman demography, historiography of 4–8

Roman Warm Period see climate, Roman Warm
Period

Rome
growth of see urbanization, growth of Rome and labour opportunities 192, 215–16, 217, 218, 232–3
marriage patterns in 252–3 population size of 219–21
see also sex ratio, in Rome; urban graveyard effect

seasonal labour 165n242, 224, 349

seasonal migration see migration, seasonal seasonal mortality see mortality, seasonal patterns of

Second Punic War 7, 143, 214
post-war recovery 145–54

selection effects and post-war demographic recovery 153

Seneca 140, 205n116, 217

settlement

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00393-4 - The Demography of Roman Italy: Population Dynamics in an Ancient Conquest Society 201 BCE–14 CE

Saskia Hin

Index

More information

Index

405

- dispersed 179n19, 299
- and 'locational preference bias' 314–16
- patterns of 312, 314–15
- sex
 - frequency of sexual intercourse 150, 228
 - sex and breastfeeding 197
 - see also* gender; sex ratio
- sex ratio
 - among migrants see migrants, sex ratio among
 - among slaves 35
 - in Rome 234–45
- shipwrecks (as indicators of economic trends) 52
- site trends 302
 - affected by biases 338–40
 - affected by changes in connectivity 328–32, 339
 - affected by diachronic change in recovery rates 314–16
 - affected by diagnosticity rates of fineware and coarseware 325–8
 - affected by living standards 322–8, 339
 - affected by sample size 308–11
 - and free vs slave population development 332–5, 339–40
 - and household sizes 318–22, 338–9
 - and population development 12, 298, 302, 316–17, 346
 - at 'A'- versus 'B'-locations 329–32
 - recovery rates and missing sites problem 299–302, 308, 323–4
 - Republican vs Imperial growth 335–7, 340
 - see also* field surveys in Italy
- skeletal evidence 12
 - for ill health 52n138, 120–3, 127, 129, 133–4, 226
 - for migration 218–19, 234–7
 - for nutrition 129
- slave labour 55
 - in agriculture 35, 36, 333
 - domestic 50–1, 203
 - female slaves as textile workers 36–7
 - in mines 38n71
- slave manumission 36n61, 241, 335
- slaves 254–5
 - and supposed displacement of free farmers 7–8, 19, 20, 154
 - health of 129n82
 - numbers of 35, 36
 - prices of 32n45, 141, 334
 - sex ratio see sex ratio, among slaves
 - supply 213
- small farmers
 - and economic niches see employment opportunities
 - and household composition 186
 - and (supposed) impoverishment 7–8, 19, 29–32, 166–7, 173–4, 342, 348–50
 - and polyculture 27–8
 - and slave ownership 333–5
 - and subsistence strategies 190–1
 - driven off land 7–8, 30
 - selling land 30
- smallholders see small farmers
- soldiers
 - age at recruitment 161–2
 - age specific mortality risks 163
 - exposure to disease 159–60
 - marriage of 162–3, 164
 - mortality risk 156–60, 191–2
 - wages of see real wages
 - see also* military; military service; veterans
- Soranus 151n178, 197
- Strabo 47, 84, 86n80, 134
- suburbs of Rome, demography of 237
- Suetonius 257
- sui iuris* 265, 272–3, 279, 296–7, 345
 - and exclusion from Republican census figures 272–3, 278, 279–84
 - and inclusion in Augustan census figures 278, 284–6, 287
 - share of total population 287–90
 - women and children 272, 280–1, 289–90
- Tabula Heracleensis* 144n159, 272
- Tacitus 134
- tax 39–42
 - collection 269–71
 - collectors see publicani
 - harbour and customs dues 40
 - on inheritance see vicesima hereditarium
 - on manumission of slaves see vicesima libertatis
 - on public land see vectigalia
 - poll tax 40
 - tax reforms see Augustus and tax reforms
 - see also* grain; taxation; tributum
- taxation
 - liability for 268–71
 - military taxation see tributum
 - need for 268, 270–1
- temperature
 - correlation with precipitation 72–3
 - Greenland ice core 73–4
 - in Roman period relative to earlier and later periods 77–9
 - and solar activity 70–2, 73–4
 - see also* Earth's heat redistribution systems
- tenancy 56
- Tertullian 134
- Tiber floods 69n20, 80, 215

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00393-4 - The Demography of Roman Italy: Population Dynamics in an Ancient Conquest Society 201 BCE–14 CE

Saskia Hin

Index

More information

406

Index

- trade 56–7, 60, 348
 and climate change 88–9
 collapse during Second Punic War 153n186
 as a mixture of exchange and exploitation 42 in pottery products 328–9
 and real growth 32, 45, 51–4
 in slaves 257n149 see also slaves, supply
- transport and travel
 and climate change 88–9
 by road 53–4, 57
 costs 53–4, 88–9
 over water 53–4, 56
- tributum* 167–8, 268
 amounts paid to Rome 39–40
 not normally paid by women 268
- Ulpian 270n35
 ‘life table’ 112, 113–14
- under-registration see census, undercount
- urban graveyard effect 126–8, 139, 210–11, 221–54
 London as evidence for 223
- urbanization
 and economic development 48–51
 and specialization 49–51
 growth of Rome 49
 impact on fertility see migrants, and marriage; migrants, fertility of
 impact on mortality see urban graveyard effect
- Varro 86n80, 330n75
- vectigalia* 269
- vegetation 80
- Velleius Paterculus 255n138
- veterans 30, 163
 receiving land for retirement 231n75, 231n77
see also military; military recruitment; soldiers
- vicesima hereditatum* 269, 271
- vicesima libertatis* 269
- villages
 site trends 304, 315–16, 317, 322, 331, 335
 located on hilltops 313
- number of inhabitants 318
 strategically located 329–30
- villas 30–1
 and mode of production 333
 and vitality of smallholders 340–1
 as elite countryside refuge 126n70 expansion in numbers 24n18, 46 number of people associated with 318
 site trends 304, 307, 311, 315, 316, 317, 331, 336, 338, 339, 340
 strategically located 329–30
- vineyards 86, 270n35
- Von Thünen’s model of specialization see specialization, regional
- wage labour see day labourers
- wages see real wages
- war casualties see soldiers, mortality risk
- warfare 155–71
see conquest, demographic impact of
- weather 63
 as a topos in literature 69
- wet-nursing 124
- widows 149, 201–2, 203n107, 248, 272–3
 and census 280, 284, 287, 296–7
- wine
 calorific value 27
 consumption 27
- wool 37, 47, 203n105
 trade 106n19
- women
 education of 203–4
 employment in agriculture 165–6
 legal rights of 131–2
- yields of barley 27n24
 impacted by climate change 66, 86, 87–8, 343, 349–50
 tithes on see grain, tax grain variability in 24–5, 53, 215, 270
 of wheat 25