

Index

Note: page numbers in italic indicate Glossary items.

- above criterion 287
- ACT scores 48, 287
- administrative function
 - conservatorship role 134
 - role in managerial networking 115, 117–18, 121–3
 - stability 133–4, 135–8
- all-pass rate 287
- Anglo pass rate 287
- Appleby, Paul 2
- attendance rates 49, 287
- autoregressive models 75–81
 - autoregressive function 68, 69, 70
 - impact of networking on future performance 75–7
 - nonlinear future impacts of networking 77–81
- autoregressive systems 287
 - modeling 28–30
 - public organizations as xii
- black pass rate 287
- budget shocks, summary of findings 271–4
 - see also* decision-making study; managerial capacity and budget shocks
- buffering (SM_4) 287
 - effects of managerial slack 185–6
 - impacts on performance 234–5
 - impediments to performance 68–75
 - modeling 31–2
 - summary of findings 273–4
- buffering and managerial capacity 185–6, 194–7, 202–6, 207, 218–35
 - approach to measuring buffering 221–6
 - blockade-type buffers 219
 - buffering mechanisms 219
 - dampener-type buffers 219
 - data 226–7
 - definition of buffering 218–19
 - definition of buffers 218–19
 - distributional consequences of buffering 233
 - English local government example 234
 - environmental factors (X) 227
 - findings 227–32
 - forms of adaptive response 219
 - implications for performance 232–3
 - management variables (M) 227
 - managerial buffering elements 218–19, 221, 222
 - measurement 226–7
 - modeling a measure of buffering 219–21, 222–6
 - Occam's razor principle 226, 232, 233
 - outcome measures (O) 226–7
 - selective filters 219
 - structural buffering elements 218–19, 221–2
 - types of buffering functions 219
- bureaucracy 132–3, 134, 182, 183, 194–7, 287
- burnout-generated turnover 136, 137
- Bush, George W. 11–12, 124–5
- capacity see managerial capacity
- change see organizational change
- collaboration through networks 57
 - see also* managerial networking
- college boards 287
- college-bound student performance
 - measures 48
- college-ready student 288
- common-source bias 13
- Comprehensive Performance Assessment (Audit Commission) 13–14
- Conan Doyle, Arthur 162–3, 182
- conserving activities 102, 134
- Core Service Performance (Audit Commission) 13–14
- dark side hypothesis, managerial networking 82–3, 83–6, 86–93
- data sets xiii
 - developing additional data sets 285–6

- data sets (cont.)
 exploration of other data sets 277–8
 extending to other sectors 284–5
 variety of data used 45–6
see also Texas school district data set
- decision-making study 161–74
 budgetary shock context 161–3 controls 164
 dependent variables 164
 environmental shocks 161–2
 findings 164–72
 implications 172–4
 long-term costs 173–4
 maintaining performance during budget cuts 162–3, 172–4 measuring budget shocks 163–4
 mitigating negative budgetary shocks 162–3, 172–4
 short-term costs 173
- distributional consequences
 of buffering 233
 of networking 82–3, 83–6, 86–93, 270
 dropout rates 49, 288
- economic equity measure 48
 effectiveness of public management 2, 7–8, 14
 efficiency and performance 2
 English local government example, managerial capacity 234 entrepreneurial management 102, 133–4
 environment
 exploiting opportunities in (M_3) xiii, 68–75, 282
 organizational relationships with xiii threats from xiii
- environmental factors (X) 227
 environmental shocks 161–2
 modeling 30–1
 nature of response to 68–75
 summary of findings 271–4 term (X') 186–7
see also decision-making study; managerial capacity and budget shocks; managerial capacity and natural disasters
- environmental typology 40–1
 pooled environments 40, 41
 reciprocal environments 40, 41
 sequentially structured environments 40, 41
- equity and performance 2
 European Union 263
 evidence-based approach to public management 4–5
 Ford Foundation 133
 governance 288
 future research 279
 model 15, 37
 patterns 3
 government, policy implementation
 challenges 1–4
 Government Performance and Results Act (1973) 11
 Government Performance Project (GPP) 12, 103, 152
 hierarchy 24–5
 human resources management 274
 contribution to performance 152–3, 159–61
 findings 156–9
 human capital as a long-term asset 160
 implications 159–61
 link with performance 150
 measures 153–5
 modeling the impact of 151–2
 need for investment in people 160
 sample 153–5
 theorizing about the content of M_1 152–3
 Hurricane Katrina 197–8
 Hurricane Rita 198
 independent school district 288
 individual performance appraisal 104 inequality, consequences of networking 82–3, 83–6, 86–93, 270
 inertial systems
 modeling 28–30
 public organizations as xii
see also autoregressive models; autoregressive systems innovation in public management 133–4 institutional design and reputation 6
 intergovernmental aid 243
 intergovernmental networks 240–6
 behavioral aspect of networking 245–6
 intergovernmental aid 243
 intergovernmental landscape 241–2 intergovernmental management 241–2 intergovernmental ties as networked relations 242–3 network terminology 245–6
 networked environment of public education 243–5
 structural networks 240–1, 245–6
 intergovernmental networks and public management 247–65
 behavioral aspect of networking 249–50, 264
 conclusions 263–5
 control variables (X_i) 247, 251

- findings 251–63
- influences on performance 263–5
- intergovernmental context 250–1
- management measures (M_2) 249–50, 264
- managerial networking 249
- managerial quality 249
- managerial stability 250
- measures 249
- modeling 247–9
- outcome measures (O) 251
- performance measures (O) 251
- stability measures (S) 250
- structural dimension (X_i) 247, 250–1, 264
- teacher stability 250
- units of analysis 249
- internal management (M_1) 288
 - functions 131–2
 - theorizing about the content of M_1 152–3
- internal management and performance 131
 - human resources management 150
 - making quality decisions 161–74
 - organizational stability 132–50
 - range of functions and challenges 131–2
 - review of studies in other settings 174–8
 - summary of findings 272, 274–5
- Kennedy School of Government 133
- Latino pass rate 288
- leadership 101–2, 103–4
- leadership stability 136
- local governments, policy implementation 1–2
- low-income pass rate 288
- low-income student 288
- M terms, quality component 100
- M_1 see internal management
- M_2 see managerial networking
- M_3 see environment
- management quality hypothesis 100–1
- managerial capacity 288
 - as managerial potential 183–6
 - in non-crisis times 207–18
 - summary of findings 272–3
- managerial capacity and budget shocks 183–97
 - amount of protection to build in 195–6
 - approach to measuring managerial capacity 185–6
 - buffering effect of managerial capacity 194–7
 - buffering effect of managerial slack 185–6
 - capacity as managerial potential 183–6
 - control variables 189
 - costs of surplus capacity 195–6
 - environmental shock term (X') 186–7
 - findings 189–94
 - identifying slack in managerial resources 185–6
 - implications 194–7
 - location of slack in the system 196
 - managerial capacity measurement 188
 - managerial reserve available 183–6
 - measures 187–9
 - measuring shocks 187–8
 - methods 189
 - organization theory approach 183
 - performance indicators 188–9
 - performance priorities 195–6
 - positive aspects of bureaucracy 194–7
 - potential to mitigate budgetary shocks 183–6
 - protection and defense functions 183–6
 - reduced model 186–7
 - sample 187–9
 - views on bureaucracy 183
- managerial capacity and buffering 185–6, 194–7, 202–6, 207, 218–35
 - approach to measuring buffering 221–6
 - blockade-type buffers 219
 - buffering mechanisms 219
 - dampener-type buffers 219
 - data 226–7
 - definition of buffering 218–19
 - definition of buffers 218–19
 - distributional consequences of buffering 233
 - English local government example 234
 - environmental factors (X) 227
 - findings 227–32
 - forms of adaptive response 219
 - impacts on performance 234–5
 - implications for performance 232–3
 - management variables (M) 227
 - managerial buffering elements 218–19, 221, 222
 - measurement 226–7
 - modeling a measure of buffering 219–21, 222–6
 - Occam's razor principle 226, 232, 233
 - outcome measures (O) 226–7
 - selective filters 219
 - structural buffering elements 218–19, 221–2
 - types of buffering functions 219
- managerial capacity and managerial networking 207–18
 - control variables 211
 - data and measurement 210–11
 - findings 212–17
 - impacts on performance 217–18
 - implications 217–18
 - links between 207–9
 - management variables (M) 211
 - managerial capacity (M_c) 211
 - managerial networking (M_2) 211

- managerial capacity and managerial networking (cont.)
 - managerial quality (M_q) 211
 - managerial stability 211
 - managing upward 211
 - modeling the impact of managerial capacity 209–10
 - networking strategy and resources 207–9
 - outcome measures (O) 211
 - personnel stability variables 211
 - potential impacts on performance 207–9
 - role of managerial capacity in networking 207–9
 - workforce stability 211
- managerial capacity and natural disasters 197–207
 - autoregressive model 201–2
 - buffering effects 202–6, 207
 - control variables 201–2
 - data 199–202
 - environmental shock term (X') 199–200
 - findings 202–6
 - Hurricanes Katrina and Rita 197–8
 - implications 207
 - measuring the environmental shock (X') 199–200
 - nonlinear effects 202–6, 207
 - outcome measures (O) 200–1
- managerial functions, modeling 26–7, 278–9
- managerial influence
 - extent of 275
 - modeling 32–6
 - patterns of 275–6
- managerial networking (M_2) 55–96, 288
 - autoregressive models 75–81
 - buffering impediments to performance 68–75
 - building support for programs 56
 - collaboration 57
 - comparing different public organizations 64–6
 - dark side hypothesis 82–3, 83–6, 86–93
 - diminishing returns 115, 116–21
 - distributional consequences 82–3, 83–6, 86–93, 270
 - exploitation of environmental opportunities 68–75
 - fending off threats 56
 - functionalist perspective 83–6, 86–93
 - government requirement for 56–7
 - impact on future performance 75–7
 - impact on organizational performance 66–75
 - implications 81–2
 - influence of managerial quality 120–1
 - interactions with external parties 59–66
 - managerial balancing act 116–21
 - measuring extent and frequency 59–66
 - measuring impact of M_2 68–75
 - measuring impact on performance 68–75
 - measuring M_2 61–4
 - mechanisms of performance enhancement 81–2
 - nature of response environmental shocks 68–75
 - nature of the link with performance 114–15, 116–21
 - network-related activities 8, 9
 - nonlinear impacts on future performance 77–81
 - nonlinear impacts on performance 68–75, 114–15, 116–21
 - opportunity costs 115, 116
 - organization theory context 93
 - organizational influences on 121–3
 - political issues 82–3, 83–6, 86–93
 - politics of program management 85–6, 86–93
 - potential for diminishing returns 115, 116–21
 - public–private partnerships 57
 - quality (skill) aspect 100, 117
 - quantity (effort) aspect 117
 - role of administrative support staff 115, 117–18, 121–3
 - strategic choices by managers 66–8, 75
 - studies of performance effects 93–6
 - summary of findings 269–71
 - tendency toward inequality 82–3, 83–6, 86–93
 - tradeoffs 115, 116
 - use of resources and time 116–21
 - voluntary linkages 57
- managerial networking and managerial capacity 207–18
 - control variables 211
 - data and measurement 210–11
 - findings 212–17
 - impacts on performance 217–18
 - implications 217–18
 - links between 207–9
 - management variables (M) 211
 - managerial capacity (M_c) 211
 - managerial networking (M_2) 211
 - managerial quality (M_q) 211
 - managerial stability 211
 - managing upward 211
 - modeling the impact of managerial capacity 209–10
 - networking strategy and resources 207–9
 - outcome measures (O) 211
 - personnel stability variables 211
 - potential impacts on performance 207–9
 - role of managerial capacity in networking 207–9
 - workforce stability 211
- managerial networking and managerial quality
 - see* managerial quality and managerial networking
 - managerial quality 289

- managerial quality and managerial networking
 - 114–23
 - managerial balancing act 116–21
 - nature of the link with performance 114–15, 116–21
 - nonlinear relationships 114–15, 116–21
 - opportunity costs 115, 116
 - organizational differences 121–3
 - potential for diminishing returns 115, 116–21
 - quality (skill) aspect of networking 117
 - quantity (effort) aspect of networking 117
 - role of administrative support staff 115, 117–18, 121–3
 - tradeoffs 115, 116
 - use of resources and time 116–21
- managerial quality and performance 100–28
 - approach to measurement 104, 105–6
 - causal paths 107
 - characterizing managerial quality 101–4
 - entrepreneurial management 102
 - individual performance appraisal 104
 - leadership 101–2, 103–4
 - management quality concept 101–4
 - management quality hypothesis 100–1
 - managerial quality studies 123–5
 - measurement challenge 102
 - measuring managerial quality 107–10
 - measuring superintendent quality 105–6
 - modeling performance 110–14
 - pay for performance systems 104
 - performance appraisal 104
 - protective and conserving activities 102
 - quality component of the M terms 100
 - quality management perspective 102
 - review of related studies 103–4
 - risk-taking activities 102
 - salary-based measures 104, 105–6
 - salary model 107–10
 - summary of research findings 125–8, 271
- managerial stability (S_m) 289
- managerialism xii, 4, 5, 275
- managing downward 289
- managing outward see managerial networking
- managing upward 211, 289
- Merit Principles Survey 12–13
- mission stability 24, 135
- model of public management and performance 23, 28–38, 38–42
 - aims of the approach 15
 - alternative approach 15
 - approach to modeling 36–8
 - autoregressive (inertial) systems 28–30
 - buffering 31–2
 - data sets used for testing xiii
 - elements of a model 23–8
 - environmental shocks 30–1
 - governance model 15
 - hierarchy 24–5
 - inductive approach 16
 - inertial (autoregressive) systems 28–30
 - influence of multiple managers 27–8
 - limitations of the approach 17–18
 - managerial functions (M) 26–7
 - managerial influences 32–6
 - network-level modeling 38–42
 - networks 16–17, 25–6
 - operation at multiple levels 27–8
 - parsimonious and formal approach 14–18
 - role of internal management 16
 - shocks 30–1
 - stabilizing forces 24, 35–6
 - strengths of the approach 17
 - testing hypotheses 36, 38
 - theoretical influences 15–16
 - underlying principles xiii
- modeling
 - managerial functions 26–7, 278–9
 - managerial influence 32–6
- modeling performance 110–14
 - control variables 110
 - findings 111–14
 - performance measures 110–11
- multiorganizational action 3
- National Performance Review 133
- natural disasters see managerial capacity and natural disasters
- network-level modeling 38–42
 - pooled environments 40, 41
 - reciprocal environments 40, 41
 - sequentially structured environments 40, 41
 - typology of environments 40–1
- networking
 - as behavior 245–6
 - uses of the term 245–6
 - see also* managerial networking
- networks 25–6, 289
 - advantages of 56–7
 - approach to investigation 57–9
 - characteristics of 55
 - coordination challenges 25–6
 - dealing with “wicked problems” 56
 - fluidity of 25–6
 - inducements to use 56–7
 - managerial challenges 56
 - means of avoiding difficult issues 84
 - nodes 25
 - policy-related problem solving 56

- networks (cont.)
- political pressure within 85–6, 86–93
 - shifts in policy emphasis 84–5
 - stability in 25
 - structural and behavioral elements 271
 - structural meaning 240–1, 245–6
 - uses of the term 245–6
 - see also* intergovernmental networks
- new public management xii, 5, 7, 102, 134, 177, 194, 197
- nonlinear relationships between variables xiii, 182–235
- buffering 218–35
 - future impacts of networking 77–81
 - managerial capacity and budget shocks 183–97
 - managerial capacity and managerial networking 207–18
 - managerial capacity and natural disasters 197–207
 - managerial capacity and performance 234–5
 - managerial capacity in non-crisis times 207–18
 - managerial networking and managerial capacity 207–18
 - managerial networking and managerial quality 114–15, 116–21
 - managerial networking and performance 68–75
 - managerial quality and managerial networking 114–15, 116–21
 - public management and performance 9
 - stability in public management 145–8
 - summary of findings 270
- nonlinearity and buffering 218–35
- approach to measuring buffering 221–6
 - blockade-type buffers 219
 - buffering mechanisms 219
 - dampener-type buffers 219
 - data 226–7
 - definition of buffering 218–19
 - definition of buffers 218–19
 - distributional consequences of buffering 233
 - environmental factors (X) 227
 - findings 227–32
 - forms of adaptive response 219
 - impacts on performance 234–5
 - implications for performance 232–3
 - management variables (M) 227
 - managerial buffering elements 218–19, 221, 222
 - managerial capacity in English local government 234
 - measurement 226–7
 - modeling a measure of buffering 219–21, 222–6
 - Occam's razor principle 226, 232, 233
 - outcome measures (O) 226–7
 - selective filters 219
 - structural buffering elements 218–19, 221–2
 - types of buffering functions 219
- Occam's razor principle 226, 232, 233
- opportunity costs, managerial networking 115, 116
- organization theory 182, 183
- context for networking 93
- organizational change 133–4
- managerial efforts to bring about 283–4
- organizational goal ambiguity 6
- organizing through structures and procedures xiii
- outcomes of an organization or program 289
- outputs of an organization or program 289
- PART (Program Assessment Rating Tool) 6, 12, 124–5, 268
- pay for performance systems 6, 104
- percentage tested 289
- performance 289
- and effectiveness 2
 - and efficiency 2
 - and equity 2
 - and governance patterns 3
 - and organizations 3
 - and public management 3–4
 - and public satisfaction 2
 - broader measures of 282–3
 - definitions 2
 - link with public management 2
 - nonlinear relationship with management 9
 - research findings 6–7, 9–10
- performance appraisal 104
- performance measurement 10–14
- challenges 10–11
 - developing better measures 285–6
 - link to management effectiveness 14
 - measurement process examples 11–14
 - Texas school district data set 46–9
- performance targets 6
- personnel stability (S_p) 24, 135–6, 274, 290
- personnel stability analysis 136–8
- burnout-generated turnover 136, 137
 - conclusions about stability 149–50
 - consequences of personnel instability 136–8
 - findings 140–5
 - influence on performance 140–5
 - interaction between variables 145–8
 - leadership stability 136
 - measures of personnel stability 140
 - measures used 140
 - modeling personnel stability (S_p) 138–40
 - modeling the impact of stability (S) 138–40
 - nonlinear relationships 145–8

- policy implementation
 - avoiding difficult issues 84
 - challenges faced by governments 1–4
 - definitions of performance 2
 - multiorganizational action 3
 - networks of organizations 3
 - patterns of governance 3
 - performance 2
 - role of public management 2
 - role of subnational governments 1–2
 - scale and scope of public organizations 3
 - shifts in policy emphasis 84–5
- policy-related problem solving, use of networks 56
- political issues 270
 - in networking 82–3, 83–6, 86–93
 - future research 279–80
- political pressure within networks 85–6, 86–93
- political science perspective 4–5
- politics of program management 85–6, 86–93
- population ecology perspective xii, 4–5
- principal (of a school) 290
- procedural stability 24, 135
- production function variables 49–51
- production stability 24, 135
- program management, political issues
 - 85–6, 86–93
- protective activities, management function 102
- public education, networked environment 243–5
- public management 290
 - as impediment to service delivery xii
 - definition 2
 - managerialist view xii
 - new public management view xii
 - population ecology view xii
 - range of theoretical approaches xi–xii
 - role in policy implementation 2
 - views on effectiveness xi–xii
- public management and performance 2, 3–4
 - evidence-based perspective 4–5
 - managerialist perspective 4, 5
 - multiple influences 5
 - new public management perspective 5
 - political science perspective 4–5
 - population ecology perspective 4–5
 - research findings 6–7, 9–10
- public management principles xii–xiii
 - autoregressive (inertial) systems xii
 - dealing with threats in the environment xiii
 - exploiting opportunities in the environment xiii
 - managing within the organization xiii
 - mathematical model xiii
 - nonlinear relationships between variables xiii
 - organizing through structures and procedures xiii
 - relationships with the environment xiii
- public management research, findings
 - approach to analysis 267–8
 - budget shocks 271–4
 - buffering of shocks 273–4
 - distributional consequences of networking 270
 - environmental shocks 271–4
 - extent of managerial influence 275
 - features of the model 268–9
 - generalization from findings 267–8
 - human resources management 274
 - internal management 272, 274–5
 - managerial capacity 272–3
 - managerial networking 269–71
 - managerial quality 271
 - nature of the data set 267–8
 - nonlinear interactions 270
 - patterns of managerial influence 275–6
 - personnel stability 274
 - political issues 270
 - practical applications 276–7
 - relevance of the findings 267–8
 - stabilizing forces 274
 - structural and behavioral elements
 - of networks 271
 - structural stability 274
 - what the evidence shows 267–77
- public management research, future agenda
 - additional data sets 285–6
 - broader assessment of performance 282–3
 - developing better measures 285–6
 - expansion of the Texas schools data set 278
 - exploiting the environment (M_3) 282
 - exploration of other data sets 277–8
 - extending to other sectors 284–5
 - governance structures 279
 - managerial efforts to bring about
 - change 283–4
 - modeling the full range of managerial
 - functions 278–9
 - politics and management 279–80
 - social capital 280–2
 - what remains to be explored 277–86
- public management studies, review
 - competing theories 10
 - difficulty of assessing performance 10–14
 - distinctiveness of public management 7
 - effectiveness of public management 7–8
 - importance of public management 7–8
 - interactive effects 9
 - key themes and findings 7–9
 - lack of consensus about performance 9–10
 - managers catalyze action 9
 - multifaceted nature of management 8–9, 9–10
 - network-related activities 8, 9

- public management studies, review (cont.)
 - nonlinear relationship with performance 9
 - public sector performance 6–7, 9–10
 - range of approaches 5–7
- public organizations
 - multiorganizational action 3
 - networks of organizations 3
 - scale and scope of 3
- public–private partnerships 57
- public satisfaction, and performance 2

- quality management perspective 102
- quality of public management see managerial quality

- racial equity measure 48
- representative bureaucracy 176
- research see public management research
- resources, measures of 50
- risk taking by managers 102

- S see stability
- salary-based measures of quality 104, 105–6
- salary model 107–10
- SAT scores 48, 290
- school boards 290
- Selznick, Philip 85, 89, 92
- shocks see environmental shocks
- S_m see managerial stability
- SM_4 see buffering
- social capital 280–2
- S_p see personnel stability
- stability (S) in public management 132–50
 - administrative conservatorship 134
 - administrative stability 133–4, 135–8
 - bureaucracy 1, 132–3, 134, 182, 183, 194–7
 - burnout-generated turnover 136, 137
 - changing views on 132–3
 - conclusions about stability 149–50
 - consequences of personnel instability 136–8
 - criticism of 133–4
 - drive for innovation 133–4
 - emphasis on organizational change 133–4
 - entrepreneurial management 133–4
 - influence on performance 140–5
 - interaction between variables 145–8
 - leadership stability 136
 - measures of personnel stability 140
 - mission stability 135
 - modeling personnel stability (S_p) 138–40
 - modeling the impact of stability (S) 138–40
 - nonlinear relationships 145–8
 - personnel stability 135–6
 - personnel stability analysis 136–8
 - procedural stability 135
 - production stability 135
 - relationship to performance 132–3
 - stabilizing forces 24, 25, 35–6, 274
 - structural stability 24, 25, 135, 274
 - support for 134
 - technology stability 135
 - unpopularity of, 133–4
 - see also* managerial stability; personnel stability
- stabilizing forces 24, 25, 274
 - modeling 35–6
- strategic choices, managerial networking 66–8, 75
- structural and behavioral elements of
 - networks 271
- structural fluidity 25–6
- structural networks 240–1, 245–6, 247, 250–1, 264
- structural stability 24, 25, 135, 274
- subnational governments, policy implementation
 - challenges 1–2
- substantively weighted analytical technique (SWAT) 77–8
- superintendent 290
 - quality measurement 105–6

- TAAS (Texas Assessment of Academic Skills)
 - scores 46–9, 290
- TAKS (Texas Assessment of Knowledge and Skills)
 - scores 46–9, 290
- tapping performance 10–14
 - link to management effectiveness 14
 - measurement process examples 11–14
 - performance measurement challenges 10–11
- task difficulty, measures of 50
- technology stability 24, 135
- Texas Education Agency (TEA) 290
- Texas school district data set xiii, 42–52, 267–8
 - ACT scores 48, 287
 - attendance rates 49, 287
 - college-bound student performance
 - measures 48
 - dropout rates 49, 288
 - economic equity measure 48
 - future expansion 278
 - measures of resources 50
 - measures of task difficulty 50
 - performance measures 46–9
 - presentation of findings 51
 - production function variables 49–51
 - racial equity measure 48
 - research value of the data set 44–6
 - SAT scores 48, 290
 - structure of the Texas districts 44
 - TAAS/TAKS exam scores 46–9, 290
 - Texas context 43

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00441-2 - Public Management: Organizations, Governance, and Performance

Laurence J. O'Toole and Kenneth J. Meier

Index

More information

317

Index

-
- United Kingdom
 Audit Commission performance measures 13–14
 English local government example 234
- United States
 General Accounting Office 11
 Government Accountability Office 11
 Government Performance and Results Act (1973) 11
- Merit Systems Protection Board 12–13
Office of Management and Budget 11–12
The President's Management Agenda (2002) 11–12
- “wicked problems,” use of networks 56
- X see environmental factors