

Index

- Abelard, 72
- Account of the remains of the worship of Priapus* (Hamilton), 58
- Acharnians* (Aristophanes), 56, 265
- “Achilles the Lover,” from Historia Troiana (illumination by Opifex), 39, 73
- acorns, 250–52
- “acting like a man,” 21, 25–51
- action and initiative in sexual performance, 33, 35–37
 - beards and hairiness, 27, 29–30
 - behavioral aspects of, 25, 31–34
 - broken lance, sexual symbolism of, 18, 38–45
 - case studies in
 - Argenton, Baron d’, 29
 - Benci, Bartolomeo, 42–45
 - Elena/o de Céspedes, 25–34
 - Hetzeldorfer, Katherina, 36
 - Jehanne (French fieldworker, regarded as hermaphrodite), 35
 - Marie/Marin le Marcis, 34–35
 - Somerset gang’s molestation of servant Edith, 45–49
 - fatherhood not defining factor in, 37
 - fluids, flinging of, 45–49
 - see also* fluids, male flinging of
 - lifting of women’s clothing, 45–48
 - performative aspects of, 25
 - physical/biological aspects of, 25
 - projective aspects of, 35–37, 38, 50
 - semen, emission of, 30, 34
 - stability of male body compared to female, 26, 31, 127, 154–56
 - testicles, possession of, 29
 - urination, 30
- action and morphology, metaphors based on, 22, 254–62, 275
- Adam and Eve
- agricultural metaphors associated with, 232
 - The Fall* (Dürer) exemplifying male and female difference in, 127
 - semen as means of transmission of original sin from, 14
 - sexual excitement as consequence of sin of, 80
 - spinning metaphors associated with, 232
- Adam and Eve at their labours* (Jacopo della Quercia, portal of S. Petronio, Bologna), 232, 233
- Adelman, Jane, 147, 155
- Adoration of the Magi* (Domenico Veneziano), 122
- Aertsen, Pieter, 117, 284
- age mismatches in love and marriage, 179–86
- aggressive and penetrative phallic imagery in material culture, 112–22
- agricultural metaphors, 230–38
- Alan of Lille, 133, 281
- Alberti, Leon Battista, 48, 188
- Albertus Magnus, 50, 129, 133, 134, 208, 210
- Albucasis, 147
- Alcibiades* (Rocco), 247
- Alcmaeon, 161, 162
- Aldobrandino of Siena, 169
- Alexander the Great, 93
- “All wasted effort” (Israel van Meckenem), 234
- Allegory of abundance* (Signorelli), 249
- Allegory of Pope Paul II and Emperor Frederick III* (anon.), 173
- Allen, Judith, 74
- Amadeo, Giovanni Antonio, 108
- Amores* (Ovid), 250
- amulets, phallic, 54, 55, 59, 91
- Anathomia* (Zerbi), 145
- Anatomia Magistri Nicolai Physici*, 269
- Anatomia vivorum*, 132, 144, 172, 287
- Andreas Capellanus, 67, 198
- animals, phallic, 80–85
- anthropomorphization of male genitals, tendency towards, 79–81
- anxiety and masculinity
- hermaphroditism and bodily shifts, 26

- lability and ambiguity attributed to premodern sexuality, problem of, 154 modern association between, 3, 4, 17 phallus and patriarchal power, 73–78, 294 women, sexual voracity of, 163, 166, 184, 199, 201–03, 230, 275
Aphrodite (Praxiteles), 273
 Aquinas, see Thomas Aquinas Arabic medical texts, 125
 Aretaeus of Cappadocia, 163
 Aretino, Pietro badges with phallic motifs and, 89 on codpieces, 102 on Colleoni, 107–12 commercial language applied to marriage
 by, 187
 Cortigiana, 263 on curative powers of sexual activity, 228, 229 on dildoes, 214, 226 on expenditure of semen, 166–67 on feast days, 89, 90, 91 on “juggling with little balls,” 10 kitchen and cooking metaphors used by, 263, 264, 277, 288
 Il marescalco, 39, 107, 187, 239
 Michelangelo’s Last judgement critiqued
 by, 105
 I modi engravings and verse, 89, 102, 115, 198, 207, 228, 229
 organ, plays on double sense of, 280 penis as central to work of, 14 phallic beasts and, 83, 85 on the phallus, 77
 on postmenopausal women, 184 on prostitution, 213, 278
 Ragionamento, 107, 115, 202, 214, 243, 258, 277 spinning as sexual metaphor for, 261 testa de cazzi and, 11 violent and penetrative sexual imagery used by, 112, 115
 Argenton, Baron d’, 29
 Ariosto, Ludovico, 26, 112, 263, 264, 266, 280, 287
 Aristophanes, 55, 56, 265, 287
 Aristotle
 acorn as term for penile glans in, 250 anthropomorphization of male genitalia
 by, 80
 artisanal model of fatherhood used by, 133 on comedy, 56, 63, 95 on female bodies, reproduction and sexuality, 9, 12
 on female sexual pleasure, 191 on hares and rabbits, 246 on lactating men, 154 on masculine “heat” and female reproductive passivity, 129–30 mind versus matter in, 67, 290
 on the phallus, 211
 on receptivity of womb, 199 on retention and use of semen, 165, 168 on semen, 5, 72, 130, 158, 161–62, 277
 on testicles, 138
 on vomiting, 50
 Arlotto, Piovano, 236 arrows, bows and quivers, 9, 118, 261 Artemidorus, 68, 140, 169, 287 artisanal metaphors for masculine “heat,” 132–34 Augustine of Hippo, 14, 31, 57–58, 65, 80, 122, 170, 294
 Averroes, 197
 Avicenna
 Canon, 125, 129, 144, 161, 197, 269 cheese making, conception and fetal formation compared to, 278
 on female sexual pleasure, 197, 210
 on makeup of semen, 161 on management and use of semen, 165 medical models of male sexuality in writings of, 125, 129, 135, 144, 145, 147 backs, men posed on, 122 badges with phallic motifs, 87–96, 177, 198, 201, 231, 236, 256, 257, 265, 288
 Baglione, Giovanni, 98
 bagpipes, 88, 254, 261, 267
 Bakhtin, Mikhail, 86, 88, 92 baking and bakeries, 57, 60, 132, 263, 278, 283, 287–89
 Bandello, Matteo, 39, 112, 257
 Banister, John, 137, 212 barrels, tapping of, 270–75
 Bartholin, Caspar, 151, 201
 Bartholin, Thomas, 212
 Bartolotti, Gian Giacomo, 167, 277
 bathwater pregnancies, 196–97
 Battle of San Romano (Uccello), 39
 Bean eaters (Campi), 273, 285 beards and hairiness, as sign of masculinity, 27, 29–30
 beasts, phallic, 80–85
 Beatrice de Planissoles, 204, 205, 220
 Beatrice de Savoie, 169
 beer thrown on women’s genitals, 48–49
 Beham, Hans Sebald, 50, 117
 Beham brothers, 50
 Behind the fence (Hans Sebald Beham), 50, 117 Bellini, Giovanni, 263
 bellows, 279–81

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00491-7 - The Sex of Men in Premodern Europe: A Cultural History

Patricia Simons

Index

More information

312 Index

- bells, 257–59
- Benci, Bartolomeo, 42–45
- Benedetti, Alessandro, 30, 134, 140, 145, 146, 162, 205, 206, 228
- Benivieni, Antonio, 154
- Berengario da Carpi, Jacopo, 145
- Bernardino of Siena, 99
- Berni, Francesco, 256
- Beuckelaer, Joachim, 173, 248
- Bibbiena, Cardinal, 115, 166, 266
- Bidlhauer, Bettina, 163
- Bientina, Jacopo da, 267
- birds, phallic, 11, 15, 39, 81, 243, 260, 264–65, 283
- Birth of Venus* (Botticelli), 5, 158–60, 294
- blacksmiths and forges, 132–33, 280–81
- bladders, inflated, 283
- blood
- as fundamental bodily humor, 153
 - semen, as main component of, 6, 160–63
 - see also* menstruation and menstrual blood
- bloodletting
- for gynecological conditions, 224
 - retention/use of semen and, 165
 - virgin's disease (green sickness), as cure for, 223
- Boccaccio, Giovanni, 69, 91, 112, 195, 198, 222, 236, 237, 265, 272, 275
- Boncompagno, 236, 237
- Book of the courtier* (Castiglione), 94, 95, 131, 164, 189, 252
- Botticelli, Sandro, 5, 113, 158–60, 163, 294
- bows, arrows and quivers, 9, 118, 261
- Boyarin, Daniel, 71, 80
- Bracciolini, Poggio, 57, 77, 106, 115, 170, 176, 226, 260
- Brambilla, Ambrogio, 273–81, 285
- Brantôme, Pierre de, 210, 216, 219, 227, 233, 239, 243, 273
- Breitenberg, Mark, 73, 74
- broken lance, sexual symbolism of, 18, 38–45, 113
- Bronzino, Agnolo, 104, 279
- Brueghel, Pieter, 117
- Bruno, Giordano, 14, 90, 115, 117
- Butler, Judith, 17, 35, 64
- Cadden, Joan, 129, 197, 205
- cage or nest, as metaphor for female genitalia, 15, 283
- La calandria* (Bibbiena), 115, 166, 266
- Calvi, Giulio, 284
- Camille, Michael, 39
- Campi, Vincenzo, 267, 273, 281–87
- Candelaio* (Bruno), 14, 90, 117
- candles, as phallic symbols, 117
- cannon balls, 121
- Canon* (Avicenna), 125, 129, 144, 161, 197, 269
- Canterbury tales* (Chaucer), 91
- Capponi, Lodovico, 104
- Caravaggio, 97
- carnival
- badges with phallic motifs worn during, 87–96
 - Bakhtin on, 86, 92
 - cleansing, songs using double entendre of, 227, 267
 - courtly and knightly sexual metaphor at, 42–45
 - masons' songs, 227, 267
 - plays and monologues associated with, 86, 88, 235, 250
 - sexual actions, regulation of, 90–92
 - wafer makers' song, erotic connotations of
 - baking used in, 288
- Carracci, Agostino, 19, 182, 294
- Carracci brothers, 122
- Cartari, Vincenzo, 57
- carving, as sexual metaphor, 261
- Cassuola*, Florentine Compagnia of, 266–67
- Castagno, Andrea, 112
- Castiglione, Baldassare, Book of the courtier, 94, 95, 131, 164, 189, 252
- castles, sexual connotations of knightly attacks on, 42, 43, 48, 112
- castration
- as beneficial act, 72
 - censorship compared to, 259
 - historical conceptualization of, 72
 - medical understanding of, 140
 - modern misconceptions regarding, 13
 - as psychological fear, 64, 68, 72
 - visual representation of phallus as severed organ and, 71
 - see also* eunuchs
- Catholic Church, see Roman Catholic Church
- Cellini, Benvenuto, 53
- censorship, compared to castration, 259
- Céspedes, Elena/o de, 25–34, 77, 134, 153, 198, 291
- Charles V (Holy Roman Emperor), 100, 112
- Chaucer, Geoffrey, 91, 179, 278
- Chauliac, Guy de, 145, 146, 232
- cheese, cheese making and cheese grating, 204–05, 267–69, 275–78
- Chigi, Agostino, 187, 248, 263
- children, ability to produce, see fertility
- Christ
- conception not contaminated by semen, 14
 - male body of, 6, 294–96
- Christianity
- greed and lust paired in, 263

- on management and use of semen, 163
- phallus in Christian world, 57–58
- Chrysis* (Piccolomini), 176
- Cicero, 31, 63, 94, 95, 106, 229, 259, 290
- Cincio, Giuseppe, 280
- circumcision, 63
- City of God* (Augustine), 57–58
- Claudian, 238
- cleansing, sexual associations of, 227–29
- Clement of Alexandria, 164
- clitoris
 - “discovery” of, 147–48, 211
 - enlargement of, 35
 - sensitivity, awareness of, 212
 - vaginal versus clitoral orgasm, 9
- clothing of women, lifting of, 45–48
- coats of arms, testicular objects on, 108, 293
- codpieces, 98–105, 108
- coin, as metaphor for semen, 121, 169–86, 248
- coins flung into vaginas of bathing women, 176
- coitus interruptus, 164, 204, 236, 237
- Coitus of hemisected man and woman* (Leonardo da Vinci), 135, 150, 199, 201, 225, 245
- Colleoni, Bartolomeo, 107–12, 293
- Colombo, Realdo, 137, 211, 212
- commerce and trade metaphors, 186–90
 - see also value and expenditure
- complexion, male versus female, 125, 127–28
- conception, see fertility
- conch shell, sexual imagery of, 113
- Conciliator* (Peter of Abano), 145
- condoms, 105
- Connell, R. W., 74
- Constantinus Africanus, 159, 162, 193, 209, 211
- consummation of marriage, 189–90
- consumption, excessive, kitchen scenes as
 - commentary on, 285
- cooking metaphors, see kitchen and cooking metaphors
- Corbaccio* (Boccaccio), 69, 195, 222
- Cornaro, Alvise, 88
- Cortigiana* (Aretino), 263
- Coryat’s crudities* (1611), 248
- cosmographical aspects of Botticelli’s Birth of Venus, 160
- Cotgrave, Randle, 37, 97
- country life, medical and erotic metaphors
 - largely drawn from, 252
- courtly and knightly sexual metaphor, 18, 38–45, 112
- Cranach, Lucas, the Elder, 101, 243, 294–96
- Cranach circle of artists, 182
- Crooke, Helkiah, Mikrokosmographia
 - on female sexual pleasure, 206, 208, 211
 - on inflated bladders, 283
 - kitchen and cooking metaphors in, 287–88
 - medical understanding of maleness, 131, 149
 - on testicles, 85, 106
 - on value and expenditure, 162, 172
- cross-dressing, 27, 34, 36, 252
- Crucifixion* (Lucas Cranach the Elder), 101, 294–96
- Culpeper, Nicholas, 200
- Culpeper’s school of physic*, 169
- Cumano, Elena, 1
- Cupid, 43, 118, 121, 245
- Cupid carving his bow* (Parmigianino), 261
- curative powers of semen, 22, 219–22
 - pregnancy as cure for female ailments, 223–24
 - sexual activity as cure for female ailments, 222–30
- Curl, Edmund, 197
- Dame folly* (German engraving), 117
- Danaë* (Isaacz), 121, 170
- Danaë* (Titian), 171, 213, 294
- Danaë terracotta*, Pompeii, 176
- Dante, 129, 161, 234
- death, expenditure of semen as, 168–69
- Decameron* (Boccaccio), 91, 198, 236, 237, 265, 272, 275
- Dee, John, 127
- defloration rituals, 58, 65, 69
- Democritus, 144, 161
- Derrida, Jacques, 66
- Deruta, maiolica plate with woman with basket
 - of phalli from, 202, 246
- Dialoghi d’amore* (Ebreo), 6, 13
- Dialogue on the infinity of love* (Tullia d’Aragona), 70
- Díaz, Francisco, 28, 29
- dildoes
 - bells attached to, 258
 - as curative devices, 222
 - female sexual pleasure and, 214
 - millet, stuffed with, 277
- Dillon, Matthew, 60
- Diodorus Siculus, 54, 56
- Diogenes, 195
- Dionysiac celebrations, phallus associated with, 53, 58, 60, 61, 265
- A discourse on the worship of Priapus* (Knight), 59
- Diseases of women* (Hippocratic text), 224
- Diseases of young girls* (Hippocratic text), 223
- De dissectione partium corporis humani* (Estienne), 212
- Divine comedy* (Dante), 129, 161

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00491-7 - The Sex of Men in Premodern Europe: A Cultural History

Patricia Simons

Index

More information

314 Index

- Domenico Veneziano, 122 dough, baking and bakeries, 57, 60, 132, 263, 278, 283, 287–89
 Douglas, Mary, 165
 dowries, 189–90
The dream (anon., formerly attrib. Beatrizet, after Michelangelo), 177 dreams, interpretation of, 68, 69 drinking vessels, phallic, 214, 226 Drummond, William, 127, 165, 166
 Duquesnoy, Jacques, 241
 Dürer, Albrecht, 127, 174, 180, 182, 185, 213, 270
 Duval, Jacques, 1, 34–35, 257, 293
- eating, as sexual metaphor, 263–65, 267 see also kitchen and cooking metaphors
- Ebreo, Leone, 6, 13 economics of male sex, see value and expenditure
- Edith (servant), Somerset gang's molestation of, 45–49
- eggs, as indicators of testicles, 248
- ejaculation anxiety and, 73
 impotence, Roman Catholic criterion for, 5
 as "little death," 168–69 premodern understanding of, 193–94
- Eleanora of Toledo, 101
- Elena/o de Céspedes, 25–34, 77, 134, 153, 198, 291
- "embodied history," concept of, 18, 290–96
- engraving plate (Italian) with sexual imagery, 82–83, 86, 87, 90, 96, 198, 254, 259, 260–62, 284
- Epicurus, 144, 161
- Epitome* (Vesalius), 148
- equestrian statues, 107–12
- Erasmus, Desiderius, 184, 236, 237, 290, 291
- erection impotence, Roman Catholic criterion for, 5
 premodern understanding of, 193–94
- L'Escole des filles* (Anon.), 214
- Essays* (Montaigne), 201
- Este, Isabella d', 96
- Estienne, Charles, 212
- Étampes, Madame d', 53
- eunuchs dildoes compared to, 214 marriage by, 27, 28, 199 masculine "heat," lack of, 131 medical understanding of, 140
 musical castrati, 72
- Evil Eye, phallic amulets warding off, 55, 57, 59
- excessive consumption, kitchen scenes as commentary on, 285
- expenditure metaphors, see value and expenditure
- eyes, phallic amulets with, 55
- Fabrica* (Vesalius), see Vesalius, Andreas, Fabrica
- Facetiae* (Bracciolini), 260
- Faerie queene* (Spenser), 249
- The Fall* (Dürer), 127
- Faloppio, Gabriele, 147, 211
- Farmer's feast* (Aertsen), 117
- farming metaphors, 230–38
- fatherhood, see fertility
- Feast of the Gods* (Bellini), 263
- Federico II (Duke of Gonzaga), 92
- female bodies, sexuality and reproduction agricultural fields, female bodies as, 230–38 castles, sexual connotations of knightly attacks on, 42, 43, 48, 112 central role in understanding of male premodern bodies, 16 coldness of, versus masculine "heat," 127–28, 129–34
 curative powers of semen, 219–22 flowers as metaphors for female genitalia, 238 gardens, association with, 238–53 gynecology as professional male pursuit, rise of, 147, 151–52, 156, 157, 210, 221 in humoral medicine, 127–28 instability associated with, 26, 31, 127, 154–56 nest or cage, as metaphor for female genitalia, 15, 283 ova or egg, concept of, 156 ovaries, regarded as female testicles, 16, 29, 140, 156 passive, Aristotelian model of, 129–30 receptive, Hippo-Galenic model of, 9, 12, 129, 130, 192, 198–203 seed, female, 12, 130, 156, 191, 203–07
see also unequal two-seed theory
- sexual intercourse as prescription for ailments of, 222–30
- vulvas, badges depicting, 87, 92, 96
see also clitoris, female sexual pleasure, male and female bodies compared, menstruation and menstrual blood, vulva, womb
- female sexual pleasure, 22, 191–218 different theories of, 9
 dildoes, 214
 fertility, relationship to, 191, 196, 197, 201, 218 fluids, confused with/distinguished from "seed," 191, 203, 205–07

- in Hippo-Galenic theory, 194, 195, 211 male sexual pleasure and, 193–94 medical and scientific theories of, 194, 195–98 orgasm, 9, 191–92, 194, 195–98, 204–05
 personal knowledge and observation, authorial lack of, 192, 196 in post-menopausal women, 204 quantification and comparison of, 207–10, 218 reception of male seed as source of, 191, 192, 194, 195, 198–203
 Renaissance interest in, 210–14
 “seed,” release of, 203–07 sex-positive concept of early modern culture, need for caution regarding, 192 in unequal two-seed theory, 191, 192, 195, 196, 197, 203–07, 208
 voracity of women, 163, 166, 184, 199, 201–03, 230, 275
- feminist theory on psychoanalytic approach to phallus, 70 on vaginal versus clitoral orgasm, 9
- Femel, Jean, 35, 130, 199, 207, 210, 211, 262, 291
- Ferrand, Jacques, 132
- Ferroul, Yves, 72
- fertility
 “acting like a man,” not a defining factor in, 37
 bathwater pregnancies, 196–97
 female ailments, pregnancy as cure for, 223–24 female sexual pleasure and, 191, 196, 197, 201, 218
 in garden and vegetative metaphors, 239, 246–47
 impotence, not part of Roman Catholic criteria for, 5 old woman–young man matches, 184–86
 phallus linked to, 58–59 sex of child, determinants of, 144, 269 virility, as incidental to, 8, 16
- Ficino, Marsilio, 68, 159, 165
- Filarete, 87
- Filelfo, Francesco, 214, 226
- Finucci, Valeria, 37, 219
- Il fiore* (Italian version of Roman de la rose), 245
- firearms, as phallic imagery, 121
- Firenzuola, Agnolo, 107, 249, 258, 277
- Fish vendors* (Campi), 285
- Fisher, Will, 30
- Fissell, Mary, 2, 37
- Florio, John, 37, 97, 229, 231, 243, 266, 269, 277, 278, 279, 281
- Flötner, Peter, 50
- flowers, association of female genitals with, 238, 245–46
- fluids, dildoes filled with, 214–16
- fluids, female, confused with/distinguished from “seed,” 191, 203, 205–07
- fluids, male flinging of “acting like a man,” as sign of, 45–49 barrels, tapping of, 270–75
 beer thrown on women’s genitals, 48–49
 humoral medicine and, 127 ladles and spoons, sexual imagery based on, 265–70
 in modern psychoanalysis, 69 snowball fights, 44 trumpets, fluid and air expelled from, 255 vomiting, 50
- Fonteyn, Nicolaas, 223, 225
- food, see kitchen and cooking metaphors
- foreplay, 198, 211
- forges and blacksmiths, 132–33, 280–81
- Foucault, Michel, 1, 3, 72, 141, 194, 195, 290, 293
- Fountain of love* (Venetian, c.1470), 239
- fountains as sexual metaphors, 238, 239–43, 246
- four elements, in Botticelli’s Birth of Venus, 160
- Foyster, Elizabeth, 219
- Francesco “Urbini,” attrib., maiolica dish with composite testa de cazzi (head of dicks), 10
- Francis, Elizabeth, 187
- Frazer, James George, 59
- Frederick III (Holy Roman Emperor), 39, 174
- Freud, Sigmund curative power of sexual activity and, 221 on defloration rituals, 58, 65, 69 on humor, 66, 76, 86
 phallus in psychoanalytic theory of, 9, 58, 64, 66–72, 74, 112
- friction action metaphors focused on, 260, 275 curative powers of semen related to, 220
 dildoes, use of, 216 male and female sexual pleasure associated with, 193–94
- Friedan, Betty, 191
- Friedman, David, 79
- fruits and vegetables, sexual metaphors involving, 201–02, 239, 246–52
- Fugger, Hans, 285, 287
- Galen, see Hippo-Galenic theory
- Gallop, Jane, 71
- gardens and gardening, 238–53
- Gargantua and Pantagruel* (Rabelais), 7, 166, 258, 272
- Don Garzia (son of Eleanora of Toledo and Cosimo I de’ Medici), 101

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00491-7 - The Sex of Men in Premodern Europe: A Cultural History

Patricia Simons

Index

More information

316 Index

- Gauricus, Pomponio, 111
 gays and lesbians, see hermaphroditism;
 sodomy gemstones or moneybags, testicles viewed as, 169–86
 gender and sexuality versus sex of bodies, 11
On generation (Hippocratic text), 49, 163–69, 194, 195, 223, 224, 270
 Genesis agricultural metaphor in, 232 oath on testicles in, 106 Onan and Onanism in, 164 one-sex model in, 150
 Germain, Marie, 131
 Giorgione, 167
 Giovanni da Udine, 248
 Giovio, Paolo, 264–65
 Giulio Romano, 92, 263
 Giustiniani, Antonio, 8
 glass dildoes and phallic drinking vessels, 214
The golden bough (Frazer), 59
 Gonzaga, Vincenzo, 257 Gowing, Laura, 75
 de Graaf, Regnier, 156 Graf, Urs, 179, 228 grain, 236, 237, 277 grapes, 249–50
 Greece, ancient agricultural metaphors in, 230
 herms, 59, 61, 62, 63, 64, 266
 hetairai, 60, 63
 infibulation in, 11
 kettles, ejaculative, 193
 kitchen and cooking metaphors, 60, 263, 265, 273, 287
 phallus in, 53–54, 60–64
 red-figure krater attributed to Pan Painter of Athens, 60–61, 86, 92, 96
 violent and penetrative phallic imagery in, 113
 see also under specific ancient Greek writers Green, Monica, 151
 green sickness (virgin's disease), 223, 225, 226, 227
 Greenblatt, Stephen, 68, 129
 Grien, Hans Baldung, 184, 228, 275
 Guardi, Francesco, 108 guns, as phallic imagery, 121
 gynecology as professional male pursuit, rise of, 147, 151–52, 156, 157, 210, 221
 hairiness and beards, as sign of masculinity, 27, 29–30
 Haloa, 60–61
 Hamilton, Sir William, 58 hands offering moneybags, 177 hares or rabbits, 246
 harps, 243
 Harvey, William, 156, 206, 212
 Hawkwood, John, 112 “heat,” masculine artisanal metaphors for, 132–34 beards and hairiness related to possession
 of, 30
 complexions of men and, 125
 curative powers of semen related to, 220
 hermaphroditism as result of, 38, 131
 in humoral medicine, 127–28
 kitchen and cooking metaphors related to idea of, 262, 287 medical models and metaphors for, 127–28, 129–34
 projection resulting from, 5, 13, 131 psychoanalytic theory's neglect of older concept of, 69 semiotic valence of, 2
 Heloise, 72
 Henderson, Jeffrey, 216
 Henri de Mondeville, 144, 172
Henry V (Shakespeare), 169 Hercules, 74, 96
 hermaphroditism criteria for assigning sex to, 35, 134
 Elena/o de Céspedes, 25–34, 77, 134, 153, 198, 291 Jehanne (French fieldworker, regarded as hermaphrodite), 35 male “heat,” as result of, 38, 131
 Marie Germain, 131
 Marie/Marin le Marcis, 34–35, 153
 old woman–young man matches, partial sex reversal in depictions of, 184–86 one-sex model and, 145, 154 premodern concepts of, 26–27
 Tiresias, 207
 unidirectionality of, 26, 31, 127, 154–56
 herms, 59, 61, 62, 63, 64, 266
hetairai, 60, 63
 Hetzeldorfer, Katherina, 36, 217
 Hildegard von Bingen, 278
 Hippo-Galenic theory agricultural and vegetative metaphors, Galen's use of, 232, 249
 Avicenna's critique of Galen, 129 baking metaphors used by Galen, 287 cheese making, conception and fetal formation compared to, 278 criticism of Galen in sixteenth century, 148
 on curative powers of semen, 220, 221

- Ebreo's analogy of divine love and human sexuality and, 7
 on female sexual pleasure, 194, 195, 211
 on hermaphroditism, 27
 humoral medicine
 Galenic synthesis of, 6, 125
 Hippocratic understanding of, 6, 125
 see also humoral medicine lability and ambiguity attributed to premodern sexuality, problem of, 152–56 on male sexual pleasure, 193 on managing retention and use of semen, 163–69, 195 on marriage/sexual activity as cure for female ailments, 223–25
 one-sex model and, 141–47
 penis, Galen on, 135, 137 publication of Latin editions of corpuses, 126, 151, 210 see also specific texts, e.g. On generation Rabelais' citation of Galen, 7 receptive model of female sexuality in, 9, 12, 129, 130, 192, 198–203
 on semen, 159, 161, 162
 testicles, Galen on, 139–40 unequal two-seed model in, 12, 130, 191, 192, 195
Historia anatomica (du Laurens), 148 Historia Troiana, "Achilles the Lover" illumination from (Opifex), 39, 73 Homosexuality, see hermaphroditism; sodomy Honorius Augustus, wedding poem for, 238 hoods, 256–57, 258, 259 Hooke, Robert, 127, 129 horses, 83, 107–12, 122
 House of the Vettii, Pompeii, 176 Housebook Master, 179 humor, phallic, 60–64 in agricultural metaphors, 230 in ancient Greece, 53, 60–64 in ancient Rome, 55–57 anxiety theories and, 76–77
 Bakhtin on, 86, 88
 curative powers of sexual activity and, 229 Freud on, 66, 76, 86 group bonding associated with, 95 in kitchen scenes, 284–87 modern recognition of, 59 power, relationship of humor to, 95 psychoanalytic neglect of, 70 release theory of, 86–87 theories of, 94–97 ugliness, absurdity and excessiveness associated with, 94 unexpectedness and incongruity associated with, 95 women and, 96
 humoral medicine, 6, 125–28
 body as cooking machine in, 262 distinction of male and female bodies in, 127–28 equilibrium, importance of maintaining, 127 four humors and their effects, 125
 Galenic synthesis of, 6, 125
 Hippocratic understanding of, 6, 125
 lability and ambiguity attributed to premodern sexuality, problem of, 153–55 link between mind and body in, 291 non-naturals in, 126, 169, 262 self-maintenance of health in, 126–27 semen, managing retention and use of, 163 identification of maleness, see "acting like a man"
 "Ill-matched couples" or "Unequal lovers" motif, 179–86 Imperia (mistress of Agostino Chigi), 187 impotence agricultural implements used in ritual cures for, 233 in canon law, 5, 75 codpiece ties causing, 103 sodomitical semen as cure for, 226 infibulation, Greek, 11 ink, pens and writing, as sexual metaphors, 259–60 Innocent VIII (pope), 190, 292 insults, testicles as subject of, 97, 104, 107
 Isaacz, Pieter, 121
 Isidore of Seville, 160
The isle of pines (Neville), 213 ivory dildo (French), 216

 Jean, Duc de Berry, Très riches heures of, 115, 117
 Jehanne (French fieldworker, regarded as hermaphrodite), 35
 Jewish men, belief in menstruation of, 26
 Jinner, Sarah, 225
 Job (Biblical book), 278
 Jokes, see humor, phallic
Jokes and their relation to the unconscious (Freud), 66, 76, 86
 Jones, Malcolm, 234
 Jonson, Ben, 12, 248
 Joubert, Laurent, 94, 117, 154
 jousting and the broken lance, sexual symbolism of, 18, 38–45
Judith and Holofernes (Donatello), bronze reliefs below, 255
 Julius II (pope), 8

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00491-7 - The Sex of Men in Premodern Europe: A Cultural History

Patricia Simons

Index

More information

318 Index

- Jupiter* (Cellini), 53
Jupiter and Olympias (Giulio Romano fresco/Scultori engraving), 92, 198
 Juvenal, 214
- Karras, Ruth Mazo, 11, 42
 kettles, ejaculative, 193
 Keuls, Eva, 61
 key as metaphor for penis, 170, 187
 King, Helen, 151
King Lear (Shakespeare), 46 kitchen and cooking metaphors, 22, 254, 262–89
 barrels, tapping of, 270–75
 bellows, 279–81
 cheese, cheese making and cheese grating, 204–05, 267–69, 275–78, 284
 dough, baking and bakeries, 57, 60, 132, 263, 278, 283, 287–89 eating, 263–65, 267 excessive consumption, as commentary on, 285 heat suggested by, 262, 287 humoral medicine, body as cooking machine in, 262
 kitchen scene paintings and prints, contemporary reception of, 284–87 ladles and spoons, 265–70, 283 medical discourse and, 287
 pestles, 275, 283
 sodomy, kitchen as metaphorical locale for, 263 unequal two-seed theory invoked by, 269, 270, 275
 vessels and pots, 270, 273
Kitchen for the feast of Zan Trippu when he marries (Brambilla), 273–81, 285
Kitchen scene (Campi), 281–87
Knidian Aphrodite (Praxiteles), 273
 Knight, William Payne, 59, 65, 67
Knight and lady (Master E. S.), 47 knightly and courtly sexual metaphor, 18, 38–45, 112
 knives, as phallic symbols, 115
- Labé, Louise, 70, 290
 Lacan, Jacques, 7, 52, 64, 65–72, 290, 293 lactation, male, 154
 ladles and spoons, 265–70, 283
 lance, broken, sexual symbolism of, 18, 38–45, 113
 Landino, Cristoforo, 168
 Lanfranco of Milan, 144
 Lange, Johann, 223
 Laqueur, Thomas, 3, 4, 16, 105, 141, 143, 152, 155, 191
Large Garden of Love (Master E. S.), 270
- Last judgement* fresco, Sistine Chapel (Michelangelo), depiction of male genitals in, 105 laughter, see humor, phallic “De libidine” (Sercambi), 277
 Le Strange, Nicholas, 226
 Le Strange family, 272
 Leeuwenhoek, Antoni van, 156
 “The legacy” (Villon), 132 legal witness, testicles signifying, 105–07
 Lehman, Peter, 79
 Leonardo da Vinci commercial metaphors for sex used by, 187 Freud’s study of, 65, 69
 on the phallus, 80, 90
 scopetta emblem of Ludovico Sforza drawn
 by, 228
 sexual intercourse, cross-sectional drawing of, 135, 150, 199, 201, 225, 245
 testa de cazzi drawings, 11
 on testicles, 141
 lesbians and lesbianism, see hermaphroditism;
 sodomy
 leucorrhea, 203
 Liber, Roman festivities devoted to, 57 du Laurens, André, 131, 148–52, 206, 208
 Lichfield, Richard, 270
 Liddell, H. G. and Scott, R. 58
 Liébaut, Jean, 210 lifting of women’s clothing, 45–48
lira (lyres), 243 “little death,” expenditure of semen as,
 168–69
 logs, agricultural dragging of, 234
 Lomazzo, Gian Paolo, 284
Lot and his daughters (Massys), 249
 Louis XI (king of France), 88
On love (Andreas Capellanus), 67, 198 “The lover reaches and penetrates the sanctuary,” from Roman de la rose (Parisian illuminator), 117
Loves of the Gods, 212
 Lowe, N. J., 59
 Lucas van Leyden, 174, 184
 Lucian, 184
 Lucretius, 144, 231 lutes, 243
 Luther, Martin, 3
 Luzzi, Mondino de’, 203
 lyres, 243
- Machiavelli, Niccolò, 266
 McTighe, Sheila, 285
 Madizza, Apollonia, 233
Madonna of the long neck (Parmigianino), 273

- Maimonides (Moses ben Maimon), 163
- maiolica ware
- Deruta, plate with woman with basket of phalli from, 202, 246
 - gourd on Venetian dish, 249
 - testa de cazzi* (head of dicks) painted on dish, attrib. Francesco “Urbini,” 10
- male and female bodies compared, 16
- see also* female bodies, sexuality and reproduction; one-sex model
 - agricultural metaphors for, 230–38
 - complexion, male versus female, 125, 127–28
 - as cooking machines, 262
 - in humoral medicine, 127–28
 - masculine “heat” versus female coldness, 127–28, 129–34
 - as Neoplatonic analogy for divine love, 6
 - ontological distinctness in medical theory and political reality, 5
 - reproductive activity, Aristotelian versus Galenic theories of, 129–34
- male bonding
- eating and banquets allowing for, 264
 - humor associated with group bonding, 95
- male identity, see “acting like a man”
- male sex in premodern Europe, see sex of men in premodern Europe
- male sexual pleasure, 193–94
- Malleus maleficarum*, 15, 103
- Mandragola* (Machiavelli), 266
- Mannekin-Pis* (Duquesnoy), 241
- manuscript marginalia, 88, 258
- Marcolini, Francesco, 120
- Marcus Aurelius (Roman emperor), 111
- Mardi Gras play, French, 1512, 250
- Il marescalco* (Aretino), 39, 107, 187, 239
- Marie/Marin le Marcis, 34–35, 153
- Marinello, Giovanni, 236, 237, 269
- marriage
- age mismatches in, 181, 184
 - consummation of, 189–90
 - dowries, 189–90
 - by eunuchs, 27, 28
 - male identity and, 27–29, 34
 - sexual gratification within, 211
 - trade and commerce metaphors applied to, 186–90
- Mars and Venus* (Botticelli), 113, 163
- Martelli family (Florence), 107
- Marten, John, 166
- Martial, 55, 225, 259
- masculine “heat,” see “heat,” masculine
- masons’ carnival songs, 227, 267
- Massa, Niccolò, 145, 280
- Massa Marittima, tree of phalli on fresco of public fountain in, 201, 246
- Massaria, Alessandro, 106, 225
- Massimi, Pacifico, 50
- Massys, Jan, 249
- Master E. S., 47, 270
- masturbation
- agricultural metaphors for, 236
 - eating alone as metaphor for, 264
 - management of retention and use of semen and, 164, 165, 195
 - mutual, 12
- Masuccio Salernitano, 229
- material culture, phallic representations in, 21, 79–122
- anthropomorphized male genitals, 79–81
 - badges with phallic motifs, 87–96, 177, 198, 201, 231, 236, 256, 257, 265, 288
 - beasts, phallic, 80–85
 - coats of arms, testicular objects on, 108, 293
 - codpieces, 98–105
 - Colleoni, Bartolomeo, and equestrian statue, 107–12
 - of elites, 88, 92–94
 - penetrative and aggressive phallic imagery, 112–22
 - personification of male genitals in, 85–86
 - social iconography of male sexuality, 3, 17
 - testicles, representation and presentation of, 97–112
 - theories of phallic humor and, 86–87
- Matsys, Cornelis, 248
- Mayan culture, penile scarification in, 72
- Meckenem, Israel van, 179, 234, 280
- medical models and metaphors for maleness, 21, 125–57
- clitoris, “discovery” of, 147–48, 211
 - combat model of sex, 113
 - eggs and sperm, later seventeenth-century switch in focus to, 156–57
 - female sexual pleasure, explanation of, 194, 195–98
 - gynecology as professional male pursuit, rise of, 147, 151–52, 156, 157, 210, 221
 - hermaphroditism, premodern concepts of, 26–27
 - kitchen and cooking metaphors and, 287
 - lability and ambiguity attributed to premodern sexuality, problem of, 152–56
 - male sexual pleasure, explanation of, 193–94
 - managing retention and use of semen, 163–69
 - masculine “heat,” 127–28, 129–34
 - one-sex model versus unequal two-seed theory, 141–47

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00491-7 - The Sex of Men in Premodern Europe: A Cultural History

Patricia Simons

Index

More information

320 Index

- medical models and metaphors for maleness, (cont.)
 on penile function, 134–38 semen, curative powers of, 219–22 sexual activity, curative powers of, 222–30 on sexual intercourse, 135–37
 on testicles, 138–41
 see also Hippo–Galenic theory; humoral medicine; one-sex model; unequal two-seed theory
- Medici, Cosimo de', 43, 108
 Medici, Lorenzo de', 227, 239, 288
 Medici, Lorenzo di Piero de', 159
 Medici bank and Pope Innocent VIII, 190, 292 Medici coat of arms, balls on, 108 medlar fruit (nespola), 278, 285
 Menocchio, 278
Men's bath (Dürer), 270 menstruation and menstrual blood Aristotle on, 130 female desire for semen and, 194, 195 as female seed, 7 flowers as euphemism for, 245 male menstruation, 26, 154 women's health, importance to, 151, 163, 221 mercantile metaphors, 186–90
 see also value and expenditure
- Mercurio, Scipione, 197
 Mercury, as god of commerce, 186
Metamorphoses (Ovid), 231 metaphor importance of, 18–19, 292–94 social iconography of male sexuality and, 3, 17, 293 see also specific metaphors, e.g. value and expenditure
- Michelangelo, 105, 122, 177, 256, 280 midwives, voiding of female seed through ministrations of, 195, 221, 225 Midwives book (Sharp), see Sharp, Jane, Midwives book
Mikrokosmographia (Crooke), see Crooke, Helkiah, Mikrokosmographia
 Miller, Robert, 284 milling flour, 275
A mind of its own (Friedman), 79 missionary position, 33, 35–37, 198
I modi engravings and verse (Aretino), 89, 102, 115, 198, 228, 229
 Modleski, Tania, 74
 Moerlose, Isabella De, 184, 204, 220, 278, 293 monetary value and male sex, see value and expenditure moneybags, see purses or moneybags
- Montaigne, Michel de, 80, 99, 127, 161, 162, 201, 290
 morphology and action, metaphors based on, 22, 254–62, 275
 Moulton, Ian, 212
Much ado about nothing (Shakespeare), 120 musical instruments, 243
 bagpipes, 88, 254, 261, 267
 harps or lyres, 243
 lutes, 243
 organs, 280
 Muter, Else, 36
- Nashe, Thomas, 77, 214–15, 270
Natural faculties (Galen), 200 nature, sexual metaphors related to, 22, 219 agricultural metaphors, 230–38 fertility and, 239, 246–47 flowers, 238, 245–46 fountains, 238, 239–43, 246 fruits and vegetables, 239, 246–52 gardens and gardening, 238–53
 hares or rabbits, 246
 nuts, 250–52
 rural life, medical and erotic metaphors largely drawn from, 252 Nature of the child (Hippocratic text), 223 Neoplatonism
 divine love, male and female bodies as analogy for, 6 hermaphroditism and, 26 management of retention and use of semen in, 165 mind privileged over matter by, 290 nespola (medlar fruit), 278, 285
 nest or cage, as metaphor for female genitalia, 15, 283
Netherlandish proverbs (Brueghel), 117 Niccolò da Tolentino, 112 non-naturals in humoral medicine, 126, 169, 262 noses, 273
 Nuremberg, carnival play from, 86
 nuts, 250–52
Nymph of the spring (Lucas Cranach the Elder), 243
- Oedipal complex, 65, 72
Ogni cosa vinci l'oro (Carracci), 182, 294 oil lamps in shape of phalli, 118 old and young, mismatches in love and marriage between, 179–86
Old man and young woman (Raimondi, after Dürer), 173, 180, 182
Old woman with a moneybag (Dürer), 185, 213

- Olympias and Jupiter, fresco depicting, 92
 Omphale, Hercules unmanned by, 96
 Onan and Onanism, 164
Onania (Martens), 166
 one-sex model, 16
 Biblical affirmation of, 150 collapse in sixteenth century, 147–52
 hermaphroditism and, 145, 154
 lability and ambiguity of premodern sexuality associated with, 152–56 modern resistance to, 3 problematic aspects of, 141–47
 purse metaphor for womb/testicles and, 172 unequal two-seed theory versus, 12, 16, 141–47, 207
 Opifex, Martinus, 39, 73 oral sex, 91, 201, 216, 263, 264 organ, double sense of, 280
 orgasm, 9, 191–92, 194, 195–98, 204–05
 see also female sexual pleasure
 Origen, 72
Orlando furioso (Ariosto), 112
 Oro, 57
Ortolani, Venetian compagnia of, 235 Ouranus, 158
 ovaries, regarded as female testicles, 16, 29, 140, 156
 Ovid, 26, 113, 231, 250
 Owen, John, 25
 oysters and oyster shells, 187

padellas (round pans), 279 Palazzo del Te, Mantua, Giulio Romano fresco
 in, 92, 263
 Palladio, Blosio, 264–65
 Palmieri, Matteo, 44 Pan Painter of Athens, red-figure krater attributed to, 60–61, 86, 92, 96 pangogenesis, 160
 Panormita, Antonio, 207 Papacy, see Roman Catholic Church; and individual popes
 Paré, Ambroise on “acting like a man,” 32, 35, 38
 on female sexual pleasure, 211
 medical models of male sexuality in writings
 of, 131, 134, 141
 sexual activity prescribed for female ailments
 by, 224
 vaginal applicator designed by, 222–30 on value and expenditure of semen, 164, 166 parental influence on sex of fetus, 144 Park, Katharine, 145, 155 Parmigianino, 261, 273 parthenogenesis female, 153 male, 158–60
 pastoral mode, 238
 Pateman, Carole, 188
 patriarchal power anxiety associated with, 73–78 biological bases for institution and maintenance of, 16 commercial metaphors applied to sex and marriage under, 188
 male perfection versus female instability, 26, 31, 127, 154–56 mind privileged over matter, 67, 290 phallus as symbol of, 58, 64, 294 projection as premodern model for, 2
 Paul II (pope), 174
 Pazzi, Alfonso de’, 170, 187
Peace (Aristophanes), 287
Peasants at the market (Beuckelaer), 173, 248 pen and ink, as sexual metaphor, 259–60 pendant toilette case, phallic implications of, 251 penetration curative powers of semen not dependent on, 220
 dildoes, use of, 216
 impotence, Roman Catholic criterion for, 5 material culture, penetrative and aggressive phallic imagery in, 112–22 modern focus on, 13–16 premodern lack of focus on, 3, 7 projection versus, 8–13, 292 sodomy not invariably associated with, 216 penis acorn as term for penile glans, 250 clitoris compared to, 147–48 key as metaphor for, 170, 187 in medical and anatomical discourse, 134–38 modern reduction of male sex to, 13–16 in premodern phallic morphology, 1 semen, role in delivery of, 7 size of, 135
 Pepys, Samuel, 95, 126, 127, 132, 183, 227, 270 personification of male genitals, 85–86
 pestles, 275, 283
 Peter of Abano, 145, 210
 Peter Abelard, 72
 Peter Damian, 164
 Peter of Spain, 193, 209–10
 “la petite mort,” expenditure of semen as, 168–69 Petrarch, 68
 phallic amulets, 54, 55, 59, 91 phallic beasts, 80–85
 phallic birds, 11, 15, 39, 81, 243, 260, 264–65, 283
 phallic humor, see humor, phallic

322 Index

- Phallo* (Cartari), 57
 phallus, 21, 52–78
 anxiety associated with, 73–78
 apotropaic effects of, 54, 55, 59 differentiation from actual bodily genitals, 70–72 as entire male genitalia, 1, 53 as fertility symbol, 58–59 historical development as word, object, and effect, 52–59 as Lacanian symbol, 7, 52 modern reduction to penis, 13–16, 58 morphology, modern versus premodern, 1, 10 patriarchal power, as symbol of, 58, 64 projective versus penetrative model for, 8–13, 292 see also penetration; projection in psychoanalytic theory, 64–72
 sensitivity, awareness of, 211
 see also humor, phallic; material culture, phallic representations in; penis; testicles phallus glasses, 214, 226 phallus tree on fresco of public fountain in Massa Marittima, 201, 246 pharmacy jars, sexual images on, 229 Phidias, 134
 Philip II (king of Spain), 171
 Philip of Macedon, 93
 Piccolomini, Enea Silvio (later Pope Pius II), 44, 176 pigs playing bagpipes, 88 pilgrims badges with phallic motifs worn by, 87–96 genitalia on badges masquerading as, 91 staff and bags of, 117, 172 pissing identification of maleness via mode of, 30
 putti, 241, 243, 255
 Pius II (pope, formerly Enea Silvio Piccolomini), 44, 176
 Plato agricultural metaphors in, 230
 anthropomorphization of male genitalia by, 80 female sexual pleasure and theories of, 192, 199, 200, 201 fruit as metaphor in Timaieus, 239 medical models and metaphors for maleness and, 156 mind privileged over matter by, 290
 on the phallus, 67, 294
 value and expenditure, semen discussed in terms of, 161, 162 violent and aggressive phallic imagery in, 122 Platter, Thomas, 177 pleasure, sexual, see female sexual pleasure; sexual pleasure Pliny, 31, 146, 214, 278
 Plutarch, 55, 57, 231
pneuma or spiritus associated with semen, 138, 158, 159
 Poliziano, Angelo, 158, 187
 Pompeian graffiti and art, 55, 57, 115, 176, 186
 Pontormo, 103, 108, 127
 Popes, see Roman Catholic Church, and individual popes “pornography,” premodern materials viewed as, 212–13, 284
Portrait of Guidobaldo della Rovere (Bronzino), 104
Portrait of a halberdier (Pontormo), 103, 108 Portrait of Lodovico Capponi (Bronzino), 104 postmenopausal women old woman–young man matches, 184–86
 sexual desire experienced by, 204 pots and vessels, as feminine symbols, 270, 273
 power, relationship of humor to, 95
Practical physick (Sennert), 225 Praxiteles, 273 precious stones or moneybags, testicles viewed as, 169–86 pregnancy, see fertility
Priapea, 14, 106, 166, 170
 Priapus, 54–58, 59, 170, 176, 186, 238
 Primaticcio, Francesco, 133
Problems (Pseudo-Aristotle), 168, 193, 194, 203, 210 Procreation, see fertility projection “acting like a man” and, 35–37, 38, 50
 beer thrown on women’s genitals, 48–49
 broken lance, sexual symbolism of, 38–45
 codpieces emphasizing, 100 male “heat,” resulting from, 5, 13, 131 penetration versus, 8–13, 292 as premodern model for masculine anatomy and patriarchal action, 2 sexual intercourse represented as, 135 prostitutes and prostitution agricultural metaphor used in medical argument for, 237 Aretino’s foundational text on, 213
 clitoris, “discovery” of, 211 management of retention and use of semen via, 195, 223 medlar fruit associated with, 278
 men’s garments, wearing, 252 monetary metaphors for semen and testicles, 176–79, 182

- sterility and lack of sexual pleasure associated with, 196
- psychoanalytic theory on the phallus, 64–72
- purses or moneybags pendant toilette case with phallic implications, 251
- testicles viewed as, 169–86
- wombs as, 171–72
- putti, pissing, 241, 243, 255
- Pythagoras and Pythagoreans, 125, 144, 161, 162
- queer theory, see hermaphroditism; sodomy
- Quercia, Jacopo della, 232
- Quintilian, 94, 265
- quivers, bows and arrows, 9, 118, 261
- rabbits or hares, 246
- Rabelais, François, 7, 77, 98, 105, 166, 258, 272
- Ragionamento* (Aretino), 107, 115, 202, 214, 243, 258, 277
- Raimondi, Marcantonio, 89, 180
- Rape of Lucrece* (Shakespeare), 170
- raped women, conception of children by, 196
- Raphael, 248, 263
- Raynald, Thomas, 152
- receptive model of female sexuality, 9, 12, 129, 130, 192, 198–203
- red-figure krater attributed to Pan Painter of Athens, 60–61, 86, 92, 96
- Régime du corps* (Aldobrandino of Siena), 169
- regional differences in male sexuality, 2
- religion
 male and female bodies as Neoplatonic analogy for divine love, 6
- male sexuality, continuity across religions regarding, 2
see also Christianity; Roman Catholic Church
- rennet, 277
- repression, phallus as psychoanalytic object of, 67–69
- De rerum natura* (Lucretius), 144
- Revedin, Francesco, 205
- ricotta cheese, 267–69
- The Ricotta eaters* (Campi), 267, 284, 285
- Rime di madonna Gaspara Stampa*, 120
- Riolan, Jean, 35
- Rivière, Lazare, 200, 210, 211
- Rocco, Antonio, 247
- Roman Catholic Church
 eunuchs forbidden to marry by, 27, 28, 199
- impotence, canonical criteria for, 5, 75
- procreation not sole purpose of sex for, 246
- “touching of the testicles” papal ritual, 8
- Roman de Fauvel* (14th c.), 258
- Roman de la rose*, 42, 48, 53, 117, 133, 172, 231, 245, 281, 287
- Roman empire
 agricultural metaphors in, 231
- garden and pastoral metaphor in, 238
- kettles, ejaculative, 193
- kitchen and cooking metaphors, 57, 263, 287
- oil lamps in shape of phalli from, 118
- phallus in, 54–58
- Pompeian graffiti and art, 55, 57, 115, 176, 186
- violent and penetrative phallic imagery
 in, 113
- wind chimes in phallic form, 55, 81, 85, 257
see also under specific Roman authors
- Ronsard, Pierre de, 168
- Roper, Lyndal, 50
- Rosegarten* (Rösslin), 152, 205
- roses as metaphors for female genitalia, 238
- Rösslin, Eucharius, 152, 205
- Rovere, Guidobaldo della, 104
- Rucellai, Giovanni, 8
- rural life, medical and erotic metaphors largely drawn from, 252 see also nature, sexual metaphors related to
- Rustico di Filippo, 70
- Ruzante, 88, 90, 235
- Sacred and profane love* (Titian), 245, 246, 270
- Salviati, Francesco, 117, 177, 194, 207, 257
- San Petronio, Bologna, portal of, 232
- Sansovino, Jacopo, 103
- Sanudo, Marin, 233
- The satyr mason* (Carracci), 19
- sausages, 273
- Savonarola, Michele, 201
- Schiebinger, Londa, 150
- Schleiner, Winfried, 148
- Schön, Erhard, 50
- scopetta* emblem of Ludovico Sforza, 228
- Scultori, Giovanni Battista, 94
- Sebastiano del Piombo, 256
- Secrets of women* (Pseudo-Albertus Magnus), 132, 200, 203, 220, 223
- Secundus, Johannes, 207
- seed, female, 12, 130, 156, 191, 203–07
see also unequal two-seed theory
- Seisenegger, Jakob, 100
- semen, 5
 in agricultural metaphors, 230, 236, 237
- blood as main component of, 6, 160–63
- codpieces signifying load of, 102, 103, 104
- coin as metaphor for, 121, 169–86, 248
- curative properties of, see curative properties of semen

324 Index

semen (cont.)

- female sexual pleasure associated with
 - reception of, 191, 192, 194, 195, 198–203
- as identifier of maleness, 30, 34
- impotence, Roman Catholic criteria for, 5
- Liber, Roman festivities devoted to, 57
- “little death,” expenditure as, 168–69
- male parthenogenesis via, in Botticelli’s Birth of Venus, 158–60
- male sexual pleasure associated with action of, 193–94
- managing retention and use of, 163, 195
- masculine “heat” producing, 130
- organs contributing to manufacture of, 6
- penis as method for delivery of, 135
- as phallic, 72
- pneuma* or spiritus associated with, 138, 158, 159
- in psychoanalytic theory, 69, 72
- semiotic valence of, 2
- sperm, change of focus to, 3, 156
- value and expenditure associated with, see value and expenditure
- Virgin Mary, not staining sanctity of, 14
- On semen* (Galen), 125, 140, 143, 145, 195
- semenities in premodern Europe, see sex of men in premodern Europe
- Sennert, Daniel, 225
- Sercambi, Giovanni, 277
- Sermini, Gentile, 226, 260
- sex change, see hermaphroditism
- sex of men in premodern Europe, 1–22
 - “acting like a man,” what constitutes, 21, 25–51
 - see also* “acting like a man”
 - action and morphology, metaphors based on, 22, 254–62, 275
 - anxiety model for masculinity and, 3, 4, 17
 - see also* anxiety and masculinity
 - continuity across regions and religions, 2
 - curative powers of, 22, 219–22
 - see also* curative powers of semen
 - “embodied history,” concept of, 18, 290–96
 - female sexual pleasure and, 22, 191–218
 - see also* female sexual pleasure
 - gender and sexuality versus sex of bodies, 11
 - kitchen and cooking metaphors related to, 22, 254, 262–89
 - see also* kitchen and cooking metaphors
 - in material culture, 21, 79–122
 - see also* material culture, phallic representations in
 - medical models and metaphors for, 21, 125–57
 - see also* medical models and metaphors for maleness
 - modern era, differentiation of, 3, 21
 - modern penile and penetrative focus, 13–16
 - natural world, sexual metaphors drawn from, 22, 219
 - see also* nature, sexual metaphors related to
 - penetrative capacity, lack of focus on, 3
 - phallus, 21, 52–78
 - see also* phallus
 - projection as best model for, 2, 8–13
 - see also* projection
 - ramifications of study of, 16–21
 - semen, importance of, 5
 - see also* semen
 - social iconography, focus on, 3, 17
 - social iconography of male sexuality, 3, 17, 293
 - studies of, 3–5
 - testicles, focus on, 5–8
 - see also* testicles
 - value and expenditure of, 22, 158–90
 - see also* value and expenditure
- sexual activity
 - medical and anatomical understanding of, 135–37
 - medieval understanding of what constituted, 11
 - as physiological rather than psychological process, 221
 - as prescription for female ailments, 222–30
 - vaginal sex, sexual interactions avoiding, 12
- sexual pleasure
 - male, 193–94
 - orgasm, 9, 191–92, 194, 195–98, 204–05
 - quantification and comparison of, 207–10, 218
 - Renaissance interest in, 210–14
 - see also* female sexual pleasure
- sexuality and gender versus sex of bodies, 11
- Sforza, Ludovico, 228
- Shakespeare, William, 46, 98, 120, 125, 169, 170, 278
- Sharp, Jane, Midwives book
 - female sexual pleasure and, 193, 200, 201
 - kitchen and cooking metaphors in, 269, 278, 287
 - natural world, metaphors drawn from, 237, 249, 250, 252
 - personification of phallus by, 85
 - value and expenditure in, 172
- Shephard, Alexandra, 74
- Signorelli, Luca, 249
- Siricius (pope), 14
- Sistine Chapel, Last judgement fresco (Michelangelo), depiction of male genitals in, 105
- Sixtus V (pope), 28
- snowball fights, 44

- social class
 humor, antique association of lower classes with, 63
 repression, phallus as psychoanalytic object of, 67–69
- social iconography of male sexuality, 3, 17, 293 see also material culture, phallic representations in; metaphor
- sodomy
 Aretino's Il marescalco, male–male wedding in, 239 badges with phallic motifs, homoerotic, 236 codpieces, youths wearing, 99 commercial metaphors for sex and, 187 dildoes used between women, 216 eating and, 264 flowers and fruit, homoerotic imagery involving, 247 homoerotic and heterosexual acts, lack of premodern distinction of, 36 impotence, sodomitical semen as cure for, 226 kitchen as metaphorical locale for, 263
 male identity and, 26, 31, 33, 34, 36 medical and scientific explanation of male homoerotic desire, 194 misplacement of semen in non-productive vessel, defined as, 36, 164 one-sex versus unequal two-seed model and homoeroticism, 207 penetration not invariably associated with, 216 prostitutes wearing men's garments, 252 scopetta emblem of Ludovico Sforza and, 228
- Somerset gang's molestation of servant Edith, 45–49
- Song of Songs, 48, 238
- sorcery, see witchcraft and sorcery
- Spenser, Edmund, 249
- sperm, discovery of, 3, 156
- Speroni, Sperone, 167
- spinning, 232, 260–61
- spiritus* or pneuma associated with semen, 138, 158, 159
- spoons and ladles, 265–70, 283
- stability
 anxiety and, 74
 of male body compared to female, 26, 31, 127, 154–56
- Stampa, Gaspara, 120
- Steele, Michael, 13
- Steinberg, Leo, 6, 294
- Stephanson, Raymond, 15
- Stolberg, Michael, 143, 148
- Strozzi, Alessandra, 189
- Strozzi, Marietta, 42–45
- Strozzi, Palla, 43
- stuffing for birds, 279
- Suppositi* (Ariosto), 266
- Syntagma anatomica* (Vesling), 137, 206
- syphilis, 105, 211
- Tacuinum sanitatis* (13th c.), 135
- tadpoles, 266
- tails, 82
- tapping of barrels, 270–75
- Taylor, Gary, 72, 179
- Terence, 170, 286
- Tertullian, 168, 211
- testa de cazzi* (head of dicks), 10
- Testament* (Villon), 106, 176
- testicles
 beards and hairiness related to possession of, 30 centrality to premodern maleness, 5–8
 Colleoni, Bartolomeo, and equestrian statue, 107–12
 eggs as indicators of, 248 fruit, vegetables and nuts as symbols of, 248 insults, as subject of, 97, 104, 107 legal witness, signifying, 105–07
 male parthenogenesis via, in Botticelli's Birth of Venus, 158–60 material representation and presentation of, 97–112 medical and anatomical understanding of, 138–41 modern tendency to ignore, 13–16 as moneybags or precious stones, 169–86 ovaries regarded as female form of, 16, 29, 140 papal “touching of the testicles” ritual, 8 phallus morphology, as part of, 1, 53 possession of, and classification as male, 29 semen, role in constitution of, 7 semiotic valence of, 2
 value and expenditure associated with, see value and expenditure
- testosterone, premodern focus on semen compared to, 5
- Thomas Aquinas, 15, 129, 134, 168
- Thynne, Maria, 188
- Timaeus* (Plato), 239
- Tiresias, 207
- Tissot, Samuel, 166
- Titian
 Aretino on, 103
 Charles V, portrait of, 112
Danaë, 171, 213, 294

326 Index

- Titian (cont.)
 on female sexual pleasure, 213 gardens, flowers and fruit as used by, 245, 246 kitchen and cooking metaphors of, 270, 280 medical models of maleness and, 127 Sacred and profane love, 245, 246, 270 value and expenditure of semen expressed by, 167, 171
- toilette pendant case, phallic implications of, 251
- Tornabuoni, Nofri, 292
- Toscan, Jean, 13
- Toulalan, Sarah, 212
- trade and commerce metaphors, 186–90
see also value and expenditure
- Treatise on hermaphrodites* (Curl), 197
- Treatise on laughter* (Joubert, Laurent), 94
- tree of phalli on fresco of public fountain in Massa Marittima, 201, 246
- Très riches heures* of Jean, Duc de Berry, 115, 117
- The triumph of the phallus* (anonymous, after Salviati), 117, 177, 194, 207, 257
- Trotula*, 150
- trowels, 267
- trumpets, 255
- Tullia d’Aragona, 70
- Turner, James Grantham, 212, 218
- Uccello, Paolo, 39, 112
- Unequal lovers* (Anon.), 179, 182
- “Unequal Lovers” or “Ill-Matched Couples” motif, 179–86
- unequal two-seed theory, 12 curative power of sexual activity for women’s ailments and, 223 female sexual pleasure in, 191, 192, 195, 196, 197, 203–07, 208 in Hippo-Galenic medicine, 12, 130, 191, 192, 195 kitchen and cooking metaphors invoking, 269, 270, 275 lability and ambiguity attributed to premodern sexuality and, 152–56 one-sex model versus, 12, 16, 141–47, 207
 purse metaphor for womb/testicles and, 172 quantification and comparison of sexual pleasure in, 208 survival in sixteenth century, 147–52
- “Urbini,” Francesco, attrib., maiolica dish with composite testa de cazzi (head of dicks), 10
- urination
 identification of maleness via mode of, 30 pissing putti, 241, 243, 255
On the usefulness of the parts (Galen), 141–47, 232 uterus, see womb
- vaginal applicator designed by Paré, 222–30
- vaginal sex, sexual interactions avoiding, 12
- vaginal versus clitoral orgasm, 9
- value and expenditure, 22, 158–90
 coin, as metaphor for semen, 121, 169–86, 248
 male parthenogenesis in Botticelli’s Birth of Venus and, 158–60 managing retention and use of semen, 163, 195 prostitution and, 176–79, 182 scientific theories about source and value of semen, 160–63 sodomy as misplacement of semen in non-productive vessel, 36, 164 testicles as moneybags or precious stones, 169–86 trade and commerce metaphors, use of, 186–90 “Unequal lovers” or “Ill-matched couples” motif, 179–86
 voracity of women and, 163, 166, 184 womb as purse or moneybag, 171–72
- Vassari, Giorgio, 266
- vegetables and fruits, sexual metaphors involving, 239, 246–52
- Venus and Adonis* (Shakespeare), 125
- vernacular languages Latinate terms for testicles in, 97 use of phallus as term in, 57
- Verrochio, Andrea del, equestrian statue of Colleoni by, 107–12
- Vesalius, Andreas, Epitome, 148
- Vesalius, Andreas, Fabrica
 on female sexual pleasure, 200, 201, 206, 211 medical models and metaphors of maleness in, 137, 141, 145, 146, 147–50 value and expenditure, semen discussed in terms of, 162
 vines, male semen-producing anatomy compared to, 249
- Vesling, Johann, 5, 105, 137, 206
- vessels and pots, as feminine symbols, 270, 273
- Vettii, House of the, Pompeii, 176
- Vicary, Thomas, 161, 172, 275
- Vico, Enea, 132–34
- Vigile, Fabio, 264
- Vignali, Antonio, 14, 70, 258, 272
- Villa Farnesina frescoes (Raphael and Giovanni da Udine), 248, 263
- Villon, François, 106, 132, 176, 238

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00491-7 - The Sex of Men in Premodern Europe: A Cultural History

Patricia Simons

Index

More information

Index

327

- Vintler, Hans, 15
- violence
- in agricultural metaphors, 230, 231
 - “little death,” expenditure of semen as, 168–69
 - material culture, violent and penetrative phallic imagery in, 112–22
 - medical model of sex as combat, 113
 - Sforza emblem of scopetta, 228
- Virgin Mary, semen not staining sanctity of, 14
- virgin’s disease (green sickness), 223, 225, 226, 227
- Visconti, Bernarbò, 112
- vomiting, 50, 231
- votives and votive-makers, 1
- Vulcan as blacksmith, as reproductive metaphor, 133
- vulva
- badges depicting, 87, 92, 96, 198, 201, 265
 - conch shell, sexual imagery of, 113
- wafer makers’ song, erotic connotations of
- baking used in, 288
- wind chimes in phallic form, 55, 81, 85, 257
- winged phalluses, 54, 91, 138, 229
- witchcraft and sorcery
- agricultural metaphors used in, 233, 236, 237
 - coins and purses, rituals involving, 177
 - devil’s lack of masculine “heat,” 131
 - goods, wasting, 187
 - hermaphrodite Elena/o accused of, 29
 - impotence caused by, 30, 103
 - Malleus maleficarum*, 15, 103
 - theft of male genitals, 15
 - votives and votive-makers, 1
- Witches’ Sabbath* (Grien), 184, 228, 275
- witness, testicles signifying, 105–07
- womb
- as center of female sexual pleasure, 9, 192
 - codpieces and, 104
 - medical and anatomical understanding of, 135
 - as mold, 132
 - as purse or moneybag, 171–72
 - receptive model of female sexuality and, 9, 12, 129, 130, 192, 198–203
 - vessels as symbols of, 270, 273
 - as wandering and hysterical, 194
- women
- defloration rituals, 58, 65, 69
 - lifting of clothing of, 45–48
 - phallic humor and, 96
 - postmenopausal
 - old woman–young man matches, 184–86
 - sexual desire experienced by, 204
 - as sexually voracious, 163, 166, 184, 199, 201–03, 230, 275
 - young woman–old man matches, 179–86
 - see also* female bodies, sexuality, and reproduction; female sexual pleasure; feminist theory
- Wren, Sir Christopher, 228, 229
- writing, as sexual metaphor, 259–60
- Young woman with an old man and a youth* (Graf), 179, 182
- youth and age, mismatches in love and marriage between, 179–86
- Zerbi, Gabriele, 145
- Zoppo, Marco, 255
- Zorach, Rebecca, 16