

Index

- abolition of slavery, 334–336
 - Britain, 348
 - United States, 335
- aboriginal population
 - America (1492), 221
 - Australia, 239–240
- Acemoglu, Daron, 95, 353–355
- Adams, John
 - Massachusetts convention (1820), 109
 - property qualification, right to vote, 23–25
- adaptability, institutions, 326, 349
- Africa
 - colonization of, 298
 - European movements into, 213
 - land policies of British Empire, 241–242
 - relative use of tax instruments, compared to Latin America, 206–207
- slavery
 - Americas during Colonial period, 221–222
 - role in establishment of early American colonies, 216–217
- South Africa
 - land policies of British Empire, 242–243
 - slavery, 242
- aggregate tax revenue
 - Latin America, 202–203
 - percentage of GDP in developing countries, 170
- Alabama, U.S.A suffrage qualifications, 105, 109
- American Banker's Association, 262
- Antioquia, Colombia, 145
- Argentina, 53–54
 - Australian ballot, 117–118
- distribution of tax revenues and expenditures across levels of government, 207–208, 209
- education, evolution of, 137–142
- land policy, 54, 63, 236–237
- landownership
 - 1910, 69
 - late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, 238
- literacy rates by province and country of birth, 139
- livestock, 237
- provincial government expenditures on primary education, 138
- sources of revenue to state provincial governments (1870), 188
- taxes on international trade, 203
- wealth and literacy requirements for suffrage, 71, 116
- Articles of Confederation, U.S. banking system, 251
- Asia
 - colonization of, 298
 - European movements into, 207–208
- Australia
 - British movements into, 213
 - land policies, 234, 239–241
- Australian ballot, Argentina, 117–118

- ayuntamientos* (city councils), Costa Rica, 147
- Banamex (Banco Nacional de México), 269–270
- Banco da República, 290
- Banco de Avío, 267
- Banco de Londres y México, 269–270
- Banco de México, 276
- Banco Nacional de México (Banamex), 269–270
- Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, 265
- Bank of North America (BNA), 250–251
- Bank of the United States (BUS), 251–252
- banking systems
- free banking, 256–258
 - politics and, 245–294
 - Brazil, 284–292
 - Mexico, 265–284
 - overview, 245–250
 - United States, 250–265
 - role of in shaping factor endowments, 76–79
- Barbados
- per capita income, 10–11, 49
 - primary schools, 132
- Barbosa, Rui, 289–290
- bicameral legislature, U.S.A., 249
- blacks
- literacy rates, 133, 136
 - U.S. voting rights, 107–108
- BNA (Bank of North America), 250–251
- Bolivia, literacy qualification, right to vote, 116
- Brazil
- allocation of taxing authority between provinces and national government, 190
 - banking system (1875–1935), 288
 - direct taxes, 190
 - distribution of tax revenues across levels of government, 179, 207–208, 209
 - human capital distribution, 248
 - industrial concentration in cotton textiles, 272
 - land policy to encourage immigration, 234–235
 - literacy qualification, right to vote, 116
 - Minas Gerais, 190–191
 - politics and banking systems, 284–292
 - rise of extreme inequality, 96–97
 - São Paulo, 190–191
 - sources of revenue to selected state and provincial governments (1870 to 1910), 189
 - taxes on international trade, 203
- Britain
- abolition of slavery, 348
 - colonial domains of, 301
 - colonization statistics, 300–304
 - Industrial Revolution, 316–318
 - regional distribution of colonial domain over nineteenth century, 300
 - role of culture in development, 320–321
 - versus Spain in successful colonization, 334
- British colonies
- Caribbean, primary schools, 132–133
 - patterns of net migration and wealthholdings, 43
 - promoting migration to, 217–219
 - property qualification, right to vote, 98–103
 - schooling institutions, 74
 - taxation of, 173, 174–175
- British colony effect, 167
- British Emancipation Act of 1834, 242
- British North America Act of 1867 (Canada), 128–129, 199
- broad-based participation
- early modern growth as the result of, 83–86
 - patenting and, 79–81
- Bryan, William Jennings, 261
- budget deficits, Mexico, 280–282
- Buenos Aires, Argentina
- land policy and, 68
 - primary schooling, 138–140
- Burke, Edmund, 348
- BUS (Bank of the United States), 251–252
- cabildos* (town councils), 115, 152, 153
- Cádiz Constitution (1812), 147, 152–153
- Caldas, Colombia, 145–146
- California, U.S.A., 197
- Calles, Plutarco Elias, 274–276
- Calvinism, 323, 348
- Canada
- British North America Act of 1867, 128–129, 199
 - compulsory education legislation, 128
 - current sources of tax revenue, 204

Cambridge University Press & Assessment

978-1-107-00955-4 — Economic Development in the Americas since 1500

Stanley L. Engerman, Kenneth L. Sokoloff, With contributions by

Stephen Haber, Elisa V. Mariscal, Eric M. Zolt

Index

More Information

Index

405

- distribution of tax revenues across levels
 - of government, 179
- Dominion Lands Act of 1872, 67–68, 236
- educational institutions
 - development of, 128–129
 - industrialization and, 130
- federal income tax, 199–200
- as French colony, 46
- growth of government, 194–195
- immigration policies, 219
- investment in primary education, 122–123
- land policy, 63
- landownership
 - 1910, 69
 - late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, 238–239
- property taxes, 182, 200
- sources of revenue for municipal governments (1913–1950), 182
- sources of tax revenue (1933–1950), 185
- tariffs, 176
- Union Act of 1841, 128–129
- voting rights, 70–72
- capital deepening, 83, 84–85, 88
- capital-intensive industries, 87
- Carey, Henry Charles, 64, 233–234
- Caribbean, 309
 - European immigration, 222
 - primary schools, 132–133
 - rise of extreme inequality, 96–97
 - sugar islands, 44–46
- Catholicism
 - impact on economic growth, 344
- Mexico, 152
 - role in development of educational institutions, 123–124
- Channing, Edward, 331
- charter bonuses, 254
- chartering banks
 - Mexico, 267
 - U.S., 250–252
- Chihuahua, Mexico, 155
- Chile
 - distribution of tax revenues across levels
 - of government, 179
 - education, evolution of, 142–144
 - literacy qualification, right to vote, 116
- sources of tax revenue for municipal governments, 186
- taxes on international trade, 203
- China, 344
- city councils (ayuntamientos), Costa Rica, 147
- climate
 - role in development of slave labor, 331–332
 - role in economic and institutional development, 333–334
- Coatequitl labor system, 248–249
- Coatsworth, John, 15
- Colombia
 - distribution of tax revenues across levels of government, 179, 207–208, 209
 - education, evolution of, 144–147
 - literacy qualification, right to vote, 116
 - revenue sources
 - for municipal governments in Department of Cundinamarca (1918), 186
 - for state provincial governments (1870), 188
 - taxes on international trade, 203
- colonial domains, 305
- colonial tax structures, 173–175
- colonization
 - Africa, 298
 - Britain versus Spain, 334
 - Pacific Ocean islands, 298–299
 - statistics, 300–304
- commercial banks
 - Mexico, 277
 - U.S. (1860–1932), 260
- Committee on Elective Franchise to the New York State convention (1821), 109
- common school movement, 27, 73–74, 113–114, 122–123, 126–127
- compensation, slaveowner, 335
- compulsory education legislation, Canada, 128
- Confucianism, 344
- contract labor, 313
- convict labor, 225, 310
- corporate income taxes, U.S., 198
- corporations, role of elites in establishing, 58–59

- Costa Rica, 53–54
 education
 evolution of, 147–150
 funding, 148
 literacy qualification, right to vote, 116
 ratio of federal expenditures on education to total ordinary expenses, 149 credit, allocating, 247
criollos, 42, 115
 Cuba
 education, evolution of, 150–152
 per capita income, 10–11
 culture, defined, 320–321
 customs revenue, Latin America, 203–204
- Davis, Lance, 295–296
 de Tocqueville, Alexis, 110 decentralization, first generation of, 207–208, 209
 Delaware, U.S.A., 106
 democracy causes of transitions in political power, 353–354 defined, 355
 impact on economic growth, 342
 nominal, 312, 337
 role in development of government and tax structures in Latin America, 201, 210–211
 Desert Land Act of 1877, 231
 Díaz, Porfirio, 153, 154, 267–269 direct contributions, 176, 188 direct taxes, Brazil, 190 distributional coalition bankers and politicians, 246–247 stability, 247
 Domar, Evsey, 50
 Dominion Lands Act of 1872, 67–68, 236
- East Africa, 241–242 economic development, 9–30
 growth differentials, 14–16 institutions, 315–340, 341–359
 overview, 13–14
 role of in persistence of inequality, 21–27
 labor migration, 16–21
 non-institutional explanations of, 315–340
 overview, 9–12
- economic factors
 versus non-economic factors, 344–345 role in economic development, 318–319 economic growth factor in developing educational institutions in Chile, 144 impact of democracy on, 342 impact of religion on, 319, 344 institutions and, 339–340 non-institutional (anti-institutional), 323 population endowment, 308
 economic inequality development of institutions, 313
 political inequality and, 334–335
 economic-based qualifications, suffrage.
 See also property qualification, right to vote political office, 100
 U.S., 102
 Ecuador, 116
 education
 Argentina, 137–138, 142
 Canada
 compulsory education legislation, 128 development of institutions, 128–129
 industrialization and, 130
 investment in primary education, 122–123
 Chile, 142–144
 Colombia, 144–147
 Costa Rica, 147–150
 funding, 148
 ratio of federal expenditures on education to total ordinary expenses, 149
 Cuba, 150–152
 elites as factor in need for government administration of education, 155 evolution of, 121–167
 funding
 Guatemala, 149–150
 Mexico, 148–149, 154
 Guatemala, 147–150
 compared to Costa Rica in education funding, 149–150
 immigration factor in developing educational institutions in Chile, 144 role in promoting, 74–75 investing in, 122–123

Index

407

- Latin America, 133–134
- Massachusetts, 126
- Mexico, 152–155
 - education reform, 153–154
 - funding of primary education
 - compared to secondary education, 148–149
 - role of religion, 152
- Native Americans, 124
- New England
 - development of educational institutions, 126, 129
 - primary education, 73
- overview, 133–137
- Peru, 144–147
- religion
 - Catholicism, 123–124
 - role in development of educational institutions, 123–124, 129
- role of ethnicity in development of educational institutions, 124
- role of in shaping factor endowments, 73–76
- role of industrialization in development of educational institutions, 130
- role of inequality in development of educational institutions, 124–125
- schooling ratios, selected countries (1895–1945), 161
- U.S. state and local government responsibility for, 196
- El Salvador, 116
- elites
 - Brazilian banking system, 289
 - effect of suffrage on political influence, 351
 - evolution of power in societies that began with greater inequality, 23
- factor in need for government
 - administration of education, 155
- growth of public services and, 187
- homogeneity and, 21, 58
- human capital distribution, 248–250
- in labor-scarce frontier areas, 105
- nominal democracies, 337
- patenting and, 79
- political inequality and, 312–313, 338
- political power, 70–72
- private schooling, 75
- provision of goods and services to nonelites, 354–355
- role in development of institutions, 327
- suffrage qualifications in Latin America, 115
- Eltis, David, 49
- emancipation, 334–336
- encomiendas*, 51, 65, 227–228
- endogenous institutions, 324–325, 330, 352
- enforcement, institutional, 345–346
- English institutionalism, 33
- Enlarged Homestead Act of 1909, 231
- equality. See homogeneity, population
- estancias* (haciendas), 51
- ethnicity, role in development of educational institutions, 124
- European colonization, 295–314
- excise taxes, Latin America, 178, 188–190, 204
- exogenous institutions, 324–325, 328–329, 352
- export taxes, 176
- factor endowments
 - influence on economic development, 16
 - overview, 31–56
 - role of institutions in shaping, 57–93
 - broad-based participation and incremental improvements, 83–86
 - education, 73–76
 - finance and banks, 76–79
 - immigration, 59–62
 - inequality and industrialization, 86–90
 - land policy, 62–69
 - markets, 81–83
 - overview, 57–59
 - patents, 79–81
 - U.S. South, 90–91
 - voting, 70–72
- Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), 262–263
- federal income tax, Canada, 199–200
- Federal Law of Primary Instruction (1888), Mexico, 154
- Federal Reserve System (1913), 261–262
- federal system, private banking, 76–77
- federalism, development of educational institutions and, 136–137
- fees on departure (traveling), Brazil, 190
- Ferguson, Niall, 295
- Fernández, Mauro, 148

- Fiji, 298–299
- finance
 - banking systems, 245–294
 - Brazil, 284–292
 - Mexico, 265–284
 - overview, 245–250
 - United States, 250–265
 - role of elites in establishing institutions, 58–59
 - role of in shaping factor endowments, 76–79
- financieras* (investment banks), Mexico, 277
- First Banco do Brasil, 285–286
- First Bank of the United States (1791–1811), 77
- flexibility, institutions, 325, 347
- foreign debt
 - Brazil, 290
 - Mexico, 271, 280
- Fourth Banco do Brasil, 291
- France
 - colonial domains of, 303
 - colonization statistics, 300–304
 - migration trends, 41–42
 - regional distribution of colonial domain over nineteenth century, 302
- Franklin, Benjamin, 109
- free banking, 256–258
- free labor, 309–310
- free population, 299
- free schools, 27, 73–74, 122–123, 126–127
- freeholders, 99
- French New World colonies, 44–46
- frontier states, U.S.A., 103–106
- Fundamental Law of Public Instruction (Costa Rica), 148
- funding
 - educational, Guatemala, 149–150
 - educational, Mexico, 148–149, 154
 - primary schools, Costa Rica, 148
- GDP
 - aggregate tax revenue as percentage of, developing countries, 170
 - per capita
 - interregional differences (1500–1998), 316
 - Western Europe (1500–1998), 317
 - per capita income, New World economies, 10–12
 - tax revenue as share of, selected countries (1900–2000), 202
 - taxation and, 203
- General Law of Common Education (Costa Rica), 148
- General Preemption Act of 1841, 231
- Georgia, U.S.A., 106, 107
- Glass, Carter, 262
- Glass-Steagall Act of 1933, 262
- gold mining, 52–53
- Gortari, Carlos Salinas de, 282
- government-run development banks, Mexico, 277–279
- Graduation Act of 1854, 231, 233
- grants, land, 65
 - Middle Atlantic colonies, U.S.A., 226
 - New England, U.S.A., 226
- role in immigration during Colonial period, 226
- Southern colonies, U.S., 226
- Spanish America, 222–223
- Great Britain. See Britain
- Great Depression, bank failures, 263–264
- Greif, A., 352–353
- growth differentials, 14–16
- grupos*, Brazil, 284
- Guatemala
 - compared to Costa Rica in education funding, 149–150
 - education, evolution of, 147–150
 - literacy qualification, right to vote, 116
- Habakkuk thesis, 349–350
- haciendas (estancias), 51
- Haiti
 - per capita income, 1790, 11
 - slave revolution, 46
 - slaveowner compensation, 335
- Harrison Land Act of 1800, 231
- Hawaii, 298–299
- headright system, 226
- heterogeneity, population. See inequality
- Hidalgo Rebellion of 1810, 266
- Hobson, John, 299–304, 307
- Homestead Act of 1862, U.S.A., 67, 231, 233, 235–236
- Homestead Act of 1884, Argentina, 236
- homogeneity, population
 - effect on institutional and economic development, 311
- elites and, 21, 26

Cambridge University Press & Assessment

978-1-107-00955-4 — Economic Development in the Americas since 1500

Stanley L. Engerman, Kenneth L. Sokoloff, With contributions by

Stephen Haber, Elisa V. Mariscal, Eric M. Zolt

Index

More Information

Index

409

- Northern Mexico, 156
- role in development of suffrage institutions, 119–120
- U.S. frontier areas, 105–106
- voting rights and, 26
- human capital distribution, 247–250
- Huttenback, Robert, 295–296
- Illinois, U.S.A., 108
- IMF Government Finance Statistics (1997), 202–203
- immigration
 - Canada, 219
 - Caribbean, 222
 - effect on native populations, 239–240
 - factor in developing educational institutions in Chile, 144
 - French Canada, 46
 - industrialization and, 229
 - land policies to encourage
 - Australia, 234
 - Brazil, 234–235
 - New Zealand, 234
 - migration trends, 41–42
 - policies with respect to, 212–244
 - role of education in promoting, 74–75
 - role of in shaping factor endowments, 59–62
 - role of suffrage in promoting, 72, 338
 - Spanish America, 218–219, 222–223, 224
 - Spanish policy toward, 60–61
- imposto predial* (territorial tax), Brazil, 190
- income taxes
 - Canada, 199–200
 - shares of national government revenue, Latin America, 178
 - U.S.
 - corporate, 198
 - individual, 195, 198
 - wartime, 194–195
- indentured servitude, 217, 225, 309–310
- India, 272
- Indiana, U.S.A., 108
- indigenous populations. See native populations
- individual income taxes, U.S., 195, 198
- Industrial Revolution, 316–318
- industrialization
 - extent of inequality and timing of, 86–90
 - immigration and, 229
 - role in development of educational institutions, 130
- inequality. See also economic inequality; political inequality
 - Caribbean and Brazil, 96–97
 - evolution of taxation and, 168–211
 - extent of and timing of industrialization, 86–90
 - political, 311
 - role in developing economies, 34–36
 - role in development of educational institutions, 124–125
 - role of institutions in persistence of, 21–27
- inflation
 - Brazil, 285
 - Mexico, 280
- institutions
 - endogenous, 324–325, 330, 352
 - exogenous, 324–325, 328–329, 352
 - explanations of economic development, 315–340
 - overview, 31–56
 - paths of development, 13–14
 - in political and economic development, 341–359
 - role in persistence of inequality, 21–27
 - role in shaping factor endowments, 57–93
 - broad-based participation and incremental improvements, 83–86
 - education, 73–76
 - finance and banks, 76–79
 - immigration, 59–62
 - inequality and industrialization, 86–90
 - land policy, 62–69
 - markets, 81–83
 - overview, 57–59
 - patents, 79–81
 - U.S. South, 90–91
 - voting, 70–72
 - suffrage, evolution of, 94–120
- international trade
 - coalitions formed by individuals with direct government role, 352–353
 - effect on land value, 237
 - role in economic development, 318–319
 - taxation of
 - Argentina, 203
 - Brazil, 203

- international trade (cont.)
 - Chile, 203
 - Colombia, 203
 - Venezuela, 203
- inventive activity, U.S. South, 91
- inventors, U.S., 79, 80
- investment banks (financieras), Mexico, 277
- Islam, 344
- itinerary fees, Brazil, 190
- Jamaica, 48–49
- Jefferson, Thomas, 109
- Jeffersonians, 253–254
- João VI, Dom, 285–286
- joint-stock companies, 78
- Judaism, 319, 344
- Kentucky, U.S.A., 106
- Kenya, 241–242
- Kupperman, Karen, 55
- labor force
 - contract labor, 299
 - convict labor, 225, 310
 - free labor, 309–310
 - impact of land policy on, 67
 - managing natural resources, 40–44
 - mining, 52
 - role in development of institutions, 337–338
 - role in establishment of early colonies, 215–217
 - white labor, 309
- labor migration, 16–21
- Lainez Law (1904), Argentina, 137–138
- Lal, Deepak, 295
- Lancasterian system, Colombia, 145
- Land Act of 1796, 231
- Land Act of 1804, 231
- Land Act of 1820, 231
- Land Act of 1832, 231
- land grants, 65
 - Middle Atlantic colonies, U.S.A., 226
 - New England, U.S.A., 226
 - role in immigration during Colonial period, 226
 - Southern colonies, U.S.A., 226
 - Spanish America, 222–223
- Land Ordinance of 1785, 231
- land policies
 - Africa, 241–242
 - Argentina, 54, 68
 - Australia, 234, 239–241
 - Brazil, 234–235
 - Canada, 63
 - New Zealand, 234, 241
 - overview, 212–244
 - persistence of inequality, 21–23
 - role of in shaping factor endowments, 62–69
 - South Africa, 242–243
 - United States
 - Homestead Act of 1862, 67, 231, 233, 235–236
 - smallholdings, 21–23, 63
- land to labor ratio, 308–310, 336
- landownership. See also property rights
 - defined, 66
 - late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, 237–239
 - Mexico, United States, Canada, Argentina, c. 1900, 66, 69
 - right to vote, 98–103
- Latin America
 - banking, 77
 - customs revenue, 203–204
 - development of educational institutions, 133–134
 - per capita income, post-1900, 332–334
 - students as percentage of population, 134
 - suffrage, 71–72, 114–116, 118, 119
 - taxation
 - aggregate tax burdens, 202–203
 - current sources of tax revenue, 204
 - excise taxes, 178, 188–190, 204
 - income taxes share of national government revenue, 178
 - property, 186
 - provincial government, 187–193
 - relative use of tax instruments, compared to Africa, 206–207
 - tax structures, 171
 - wartime, 177
 - trade-based growth, 201
 - underdevelopment of local government, 186–193
- law of the free womb, 335
- Law on Public Instruction (1842), Cuba, 150

Index

411

- legal framework (system)
 - influence of elites on, 57–58
 - private enterprise, 89
- Leguia, Augusto, 146–147
- Lewis, W. Arthur, 50
- Limantour, José Yves, 269–270
- literacy, 26–27. See also education
 - Americas (1850–1950), 28
 - defined, 122
- literacy qualification, right to vote
 - Latin America, 115–116
 - Mexico and Chile, 157–158
 - U.S., 112
- literacy rates, 132
 - Argentina, 139, 140
 - blacks, 133, 136
 - selected cities, 135
- Lizzeri, Alessandro, 95
- local government
 - Canada, tax revenues, 182–183
 - underdevelopment of in Latin America, 186–193
 - United States
 - provision of schooling and publicly-provided transportation, 196
 - tax revenues, 181, 183–185
- Louisiana, U.S.A., 106, 107
- Madison, James, 109
- Maine, Henry Sumner, 356
- Maine, U.S.A., 108–109
- manorial system, 227
- manufacturing
 - capital-intensive industries, 87
 - productivity growth, 1820–1860, 87–88
 - U.S. South, 90–91
- Maoris, 241
- markets, role of in shaping factor
 - endowments, 81–83
- Marshall, John, 109
- Marx, Karl, 330, 347
- Maryland, U.S.A., 107
- Massachusetts, U.S.A.
 - banking regulations, 255
 - development of educational institutions, 126
 - tax revenue, 181–182
- Massachusetts convention (1820), 109
- mercantilism, 59
- mestizo* populations, 60, 218, 223, 266
- Mexico
 - banking systems
 - 1897–1913, 272
 - 1897–1929, 273
 - politics and, 265–284
 - colonial government's revenue, 1780s, 174
 - deposits, loans, and reserve ratios (1948–82), 281
 - distribution of tax revenues across levels of government, 179, 207–208, 209
 - education
 - evolution of, 152–155
 - funding of primary education compared to secondary education, 148–149
 - human capital distribution, 248–249
 - industrial concentration in cotton textiles, 272
 - joint-stock companies, 78
 - landownership
 - 1910, 69
 - late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, 237–238
 - literacy qualification, right to vote, 116
 - per capita income, 49
 - sources of credit (1940–78), 278
 - sources of revenue to selected state provincial governments (1870 to 1910), 189
 - state and municipal revenue and primary school expenditures during Porfiriato, 151, 154–155
 - taxes on international trade, 203
- Middle Atlantic colonies, U.S.A., 226
- migration, 40–43, 44, 217–219. See also immigration
- Minas Gerais, Brazil, 190–191
- mining, 52–53
- Mississippi, U.S.A., 105, 107, 108, 109
- Missouri, U.S.A., 108
- Monroe, James, 109
- Morris, Henry C., 299–304
- motivations, institutional development by individuals, 356
- Nacional Financiera* (NAFIN), 279
- Napoleonic Wars, 349
- National Banking Act, 258–259

Cambridge University Press & Assessment

978-1-107-00955-4 — Economic Development in the Americas since 1500

Stanley L. Engerman, Kenneth L. Sokoloff, With contributions by

Stephen Haber, Elisa V. Mariscal, Eric M. Zolt

Index

More Information

412

Index

- national governments
 - sources of tax revenue for, 205
 - tax revenue as share of GDP, selected countries (1900–2000), 202
 - tax revenue per capita, by country (1870), 192
- national heritage
 - relationship to economic performance, 15
 - role in development of educational institutions, 124
- Native Americans
 - development of educational institutions and, 124
 - Spanish colonies, 59–60
- native populations
 - America aboriginals, 221
 - Australia aboriginals, 239–240
 - effect of European immigration on, 239–240
 - versus free population, 299
 - Maoris, 241
 - mestizos*, 60, 218, 223, 266
- natural resources, managing, 40–44
- New England, U.S.A.
 - Colonial period
 - land grants during, 226
 - migration, 224–225
 - development of educational institutions, 126, 129
 - primary education, 73
 - taxation on colonies, 174–175
- New Hampshire, U.S.A., 106
- new institutionalism, 343
- New World economies
 - distribution and composition of population, 45
 - per capita income, 10–12
- New York, U.S.A., 256–257
- New Zealand
 - British movements into, 213
 - land policies
 - British Empire, 241
 - to encourage immigration, 234
- nominal democracies, 312, 337
- non-economic factors
 - versus economic factors, 344–345
 - role in economic development, 319–321
- non-institutional explanations of economic development, 315–340
- North, Douglass
 - growth differentials, 15
 - institutions, 321–322, 345
- North America. See Canada; United States
- North Carolina, U.S.A., 112
- Northwest Ordinance of 1787, 103, 231
- Obregón, Alvaro, 274–276
- Ohio, U.S.A., 106, 108, 110
- old institutionalism, 342–343
- Olson, Mancur, 330
- Omnibus Banking Act of 1814, 255–256
- ownership rights, land, 213–215
- Pacific Ocean islands, 298–299
- Pardo, Jose, 146–147
- Partido Revolucionario Institucional* (PRI). See PRI
- patenting, 79–80, 81
- peacetime taxation, 195–196
- Pedro I, Dom, 286–287, 289
- peninsulares*, 42
- Penn, William, 53, 65
- Pennsylvania, U.S.A.
 - landownership, 65
 - Omnibus Banking Act of 1814, 255–256
- per capita GDP
 - interregional differences (1500–1998), 316
 - Western Europe (1500–1998), 317
- per capita income
 - Barbados, 10–11, 49
 - Cuba, 10–11
 - Haiti (1790), 11
 - Mexico, 49
 - New World economies, 10–12
 - North America versus Latin America, post-1900, 332–334
 - relative use of different tax instruments by countries at different, 207–209
- Persico, Nicola, 95
- Peru
 - education, evolution of, 144–147
 - guano export, 62
 - literacy qualification, right to vote, 116
- Peterloo Massacre, 349
- Pitt, William, 348
- political inequality, 311–313
 - economic inequality and, 334–335
 - elites and, 338
- politics
 - banking systems and, 245–294
 - Brazil, 284–292

Cambridge University Press & Assessment

978-1-107-00955-4 — Economic Development in the Americas since 1500

Stanley L. Engerman, Kenneth L. Sokoloff, With contributions by

Stephen Haber, Elisa V. Mariscal, Eric M. Zolt

Index

More Information

Index

413

- Mexico, 265–284
 - overview, 245–250
 - United States, 250–265
- institutions in, 341–359
- poll taxes, 112, 183
- population. See also native populations
 - distribution and composition of in New World economies, 45
 - European colonial domains, 214
 - free, 299
 - role in economic development, 319
 - white versus native in colonies, 310
- population endowment, 308
- Porfiriato
 - overview, 153
 - state and municipal revenue and primary school expenditures, 151, 154–155
- Portugal
 - migration trends, 41–42
 - taxation on colonies, 174
- Preemption Act of 1830, 231
- Preemption Act of 1841, 232
- PRI (Partido Revolucionario Institucional)
 - collapse of, 283–284
 - development of, 276
- primary schools, 26–27
 - Argentina, 138–140
 - Barbados, 132
 - Caribbean, 132–133
 - Costa Rica, 148
 - Mexico, 151, 154–155
 - tax-supported, 129
- private banking, United States, 76–77
- private schooling, 75
- property qualification, right to vote, 23–25, 98–103
- property rights, 327
 - key to British industrialization, 322
 - political influence and, 327–328
 - without opportunities for social mobility, 350
- property taxes
 - advantages and disadvantages of, 198
 - income inequality and importance of revenue from, 199
- U.S.
 - limitations on, 197
 - state level, 197–198
- Proposition 13 (1978), 197
- Protestantism, 319, 344, 348
 - role in development of educational institutions, 123–124
 - role in North American economies, 33
- protocentral banks, United States, 77
- Providence Island, 55, 146
- provincial government
 - tax revenues, Canada, 182–183
 - tax revenues, Latin America, 187–193
 - tax revenues, Mexico, 189
- public land laws (1785–1916), 231
- public schools
 - Cuba, 150–152
 - rarity of, 123
- Puritans
 - influence of environment in selecting institutions for colonies, 331
- Providence Island and Massachusetts Bay Colony settlements, 55
- racial qualifications, right to vote, 23–25, 108
- rate bills, school, 127
- Razaghian, Rose, 177
- religion
 - Calvinism, 323, 348
 - Catholicism
 - impact on economic growth, 344
 - Mexico, 152
 - role in development of educational institutions, 123–124
 - Confucianism, 344
 - impact on economic growth, 319, 344
- Puritans
 - influence of environment in selecting institutions for colonies, 331
 - Providence Island and Massachusetts Bay Colony settlements, 55
 - role in development of educational institutions, 123–124, 129
 - role in education in Mexico, 152
- revolutions
 - Industrial Revolution, 316–318
 - slave, Haiti, 46
- Rhode Island, U.S.A.
 - banking regulations, 255
 - changes in suffrage laws, 109
- Riegle-Neal Interstate Banking and Branching Efficiency Act of 1994, 265
- right to vote. See voting

Cambridge University Press & Assessment

978-1-107-00955-4 — Economic Development in the Americas since 1500

Stanley L. Engerman, Kenneth L. Sokoloff, With contributions by

Stephen Haber, Elisa V. Mariscal, Eric M. Zolt

Index

More Information

414

Index

- Robinson, James A., 95, 353–355 rules, institutions, 321, 354
- Sáenz Peña* Law (1912), Argentina, 141–142
- Sáez, Moises, 154
- sales taxes, U.S., 198
- San Andres, Colombia, 146
- Santa Ana, Antonio López de, 266
- Santander, Francisco de Paula, 145
- São Paulo, Brazil, 190–191
- Sarmiento, Domingo, 137–138
- schooling. See education
- Schumpeter, Joseph, 330
- Second Banco do Brasil, 287
- Second Bank of the United States (1816–36), 77
- securities exchanges, 78–79
- segmented monopolies, banking, 252–253, 270
- seigneurial system, 227
- Senate Banking Committee, 262
- Seven Years' War, 9, 46
- sharecropping, 65
- silver mining, 52–53
- silver-backed currencies, 200
- Sixteenth Amendment (1913), 196
- slavery, 62
 abolition of, 334–336
 Britain, 348
 United States, 216, 335
 Canada, 46
 labor migration, 16–19
 North-South differences, 13 colonies, 330–332 property taxes and, 196 role in establishment of early colonies, 216–217
 South Africa, 242
 Vermont U.S.A., 216
- smallholdings, 21–23, 63
- soil resources, role in development of slave labor, 331–332
- Sombart, Werner, 319
- South Africa
 land policies of British Empire, 242–243
 slavery, 242
- South Carolina, U.S.A., 107
- Southern U.S.
 compared to Latin American colonies, 85–86
 land grants during Colonial period, 226
- role of institutions in shaping factor endowments, 90–91
- Spain
 versus Britain in successful colonization, 334
 taxation on colonies, 174
- Spanish America
 encomienda system, 51, 227–228
 European immigration, 222–224 export products, 52–53 factor endowments and, 19–20
 immigration policies, 218–219, 223
 land grants, 222–223
 migration trends, 41–42
 Native American population, 59–60 rise of extreme inequality, 97 role of government hierarchical structure in development of educational institutions, 134–136
- St. Domingue, 44–46
- state banks
 chartered, U.S. (1790–1835), 253 versus federal banks, 259
- state government
 tax revenues
 Latin America, 187–193
 U.S., 183–185
 U.S., provision of schooling and publicly-provided transportation, 196
- Steagall, Henry, 262
- Stock Raising Homestead Act of 1916, 231
- suffrage. See also voting causes of change, 351 elites and political inequality, 338 evolution of institutions, 94–120 international comparisons of laws relating to, 159
 Mexico, 266
 role in development of institutions, 327–328, 337–339 selected countries, 1895–1945, 161 white male, 23–26
- sugar islands, 309
- tariffs, 175–176, 178
- Tawney, R.H., 320
- tax mix, 170
- taxation
 aggregate tax revenue
 Latin America, 202–203

Index

415

- as percentage of GDP in developing countries, 170
- Argentina
 - distribution of tax revenues and expenditures across levels of government, before and after first generation of decentralization, 207–208, 209
 - taxes on international trade, 203
- Brazil
 - allocation of taxing authority between provinces and national government, 190
 - direct taxes, 190
 - distribution of tax revenues across levels of government, 179, 207–208, 209
 - taxes on international trade, 203
- Canada
 - current sources of tax revenue, 204
 - distribution of tax revenues across levels of government, 179
 - federal income tax, 199–200
 - property taxes, 182, 200
 - sources of tax revenue (1933–1950), 185
- Chile
 - distribution of tax revenues across levels of government, 179
 - sources of tax revenue for municipal governments, 186
 - taxes on international trade, 203
- Colombia
 - distribution of tax revenues across levels of government, 179, 207–208, 209
 - taxes on international trade, 203
- colonial tax structures, 173–175
- of colonies by British, 173, 174–175
- of colonies by Portugal, 174
- corporate income taxes, U.S., 198
- export, 176
- GDP and, 203
- inequality and evolution of, 168–211
- Latin America
 - aggregate tax burdens, 202–203
 - current sources of tax revenue, 204
 - excise taxes, 178, 188–190, 204
 - property taxes, 186
 - relative use of tax instruments, compared to Africa, 206–207
 - role of democratization in development of government and tax structures, 201, 210–211
 - tax structures, 171
- local government
 - Canada, tax revenues, 182–183
 - U.S., tax revenues, 181, 183–185
- Massachusetts, 181–182
- Mexico, 179, 207–208, 209
- on New England colonies, 174–175
- peacetime, 195–196
- poll taxes, 112, 183
- tax revenue
 - per capita, by country (1870), 192
 - as share of GDP, selected countries (1900–2000), 202
 - sources of for national governments, 205
- territorial tax (imposto predial), Brazil, 190
- United States
 - change in composition of tax revenues for state and local governments, 197–199
 - current sources of tax revenue, 204
 - distribution of tax revenues across levels of government, 179
 - limitations on property taxes, 197
 - local and state taxes, as shares of income, by region (1860 and 1880), 187
 - property taxes, 181–182
 - shares of tax revenue for aggregate government sector (1902–2000), 197
 - sources of tax revenue (1902–1950), 184
 - sources of tax revenue for local governments (1890–1950), 181
 - sources of tax revenue state governments (1890–1950), 184
 - value-added tax (VAT), 201–202, 204
- Venezuela
 - distribution of tax revenues and expenditures across levels of government, 207–208, 209
 - taxes on international trade, 203
- wartime
 - income tax, 194–195

taxation (cont.)

Latin America versus U.S., 177

versus peacetime taxation, 177–180

tax-supported primary schools, 129

Tennessee, U.S.A., 106

territorial tax (imposto predial), Brazil, 190

Three-Year Homestead Act of 1912, 231

Timber and Stone Act of 1878, 231

Timber Culture Act of 1873, 231 town councils (cabildos), 115, 152, 153

transportation effect on patenting activity, 79

state and local government responsibility for, 196

tuition, school, 127

Turner, Frederick Jackson, 95, 101

Uganda, 241–242

underpopulation, 215–216

Underwood-Simmons Tariff Act, 195

Union Act of 1841 (Canada), 128–129

unit banks, 259–264

United States

abolition of slavery without compensation, 335

change in composition of tax revenues for state and local governments, 197–199

colonial domains, 304

development of educational institutions, 126

economic-based qualifications, suffrage, 102

growth of government, 194–195

Homestead Act of 1862, 67

human capital distribution, 249–250

immigration policies, 219

industrial concentration in cotton textiles, 273

investment in primary education, 122–123

land policy, 63

landownership

1910, 69

late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, 238

Northwest Ordinance of 1787, 103

output per capita, South versus North, 53 politics and banking systems, 250–265

private banking, 76–77

protocentral banks, 77

racial qualification, right to vote, 119 role of industrialization in development of educational institutions, 130

South

compared to Latin American colonies, 85–86

role of institutions in shaping factor endowments, 90–91

state and local government responsibilities, 196

tariffs, 175–176

taxation

current sources of tax revenue, 204

distribution of tax revenues across levels of government, 179

limitations on property taxes, 197

local and state taxes, as shares of income, by region (1860 and 1880), 187

property taxes, 181–182

shares of tax revenue for aggregate government sector (1902–2000), 197

sources of tax revenue (1902–1950), 184

sources of tax revenue for local governments (1890–1950), 181

sources of tax revenue state governments (1890–1950), 184

voting rights, 70–72

University of Chile, 142

Uruguay, 53–54, 116

use rights, land, 213–215

user fees, school, 127

Valle Del Cauca, Colombia, 145–146

value-added tax (VAT), 201–202, 204

Van Buren, Martin, 257

Vasconcelos, José, 154

VAT (value-added tax), 201–202, 204

Venezuela

distribution of tax revenues and expenditures across levels of government, 207–208, 209

taxes on international trade, 203

Vermont, U.S.A.

abolition of slavery, 216

suffrage, 106

Cambridge University Press & Assessment

978-1-107-00955-4 — Economic Development in the Americas since 1500

Stanley L. Engerman, Kenneth L. Sokoloff, With contributions by

Stephen Haber, Elisa V. Mariscal, Eric M. Zolt

Index

More InformationIndex

417

- Virginia, U.S.A., 226
- voting, 23–26
 - international comparisons of laws
 - relating to, 159
 - land policy during Colonial period and, 227
 - literacy qualification
 - Bolivia, 116
 - Brazil, 116
 - Chile, 116
 - Colombia, 116
 - Costa Rica, 116
 - Guatemala, 116
 - property qualification, 98–103
 - qualifications (1840–1940), 24
 - racial qualification, 23–25, 108
 - role in development of institutions, 337–339
 - role of in shaping factor endowments, 70–72
 - suffrage institutions, evolution of, 94–120
 - voter participation, 110–112
 - Australian ballot, 117–118
 - practices that reduce, 116–117
 - U.S., 111
 - wealth and literacy requirements in
 - Argentina, 71
- Wakefield, Edward Gibbon, 233–235
 - Australia land policy, 240
 - on land policy, 64
- wartime taxation
 - income tax, 194–195
 - Latin America versus U.S., 177
 - versus peacetime taxation, 177–180
- wealth qualification, right to vote, 100–101
- wealthholdings, 43, 48
- Weber, Max, 319, 320, 323, 348
- Webster, Daniel, 23–25
- white labor, 309
- white male suffrage, 23–26
- Wilson-Gorman Tariff, 196
- Wittke, Carl, 104–105