

Index

- accessibility, of buses for wheelchairs, 73
- Act of Inquiry Committees, 92
- active option, of quasi-exit behavior, 60
- active player, HCJ as, 37
- activism. See also judicial activism
 - of High Court of Justice, 32, 88, 154
 - of Israeli Supreme Court, 38, 87, 117, 119
- Administrational Courts Law, 6–8
- administrational issues, defined, 8
- administrative agencies
 - activity stipulated in the law, 64
 - Supreme Court intervention in, 66, 117
- administrative authorities, decentralized
 - hierarchical structure, 64
- administrative law, 63, 64
- agreement of principles, between State of Israel and the PLO, 101
- Air Force pilot training course, allowing
 - induction of women, 66, 96, 117
- Al Hak organization, 135
- Al-Aksa Intifada, 130
- Allon Moreh, petition against
 - establishment of settlements in, 93
- alternative centers of power, centralized
 - government preventing development of, 85, 89
- alternative channels, for government
 - services, 60
- alternative decision maker, public looking
 - for, 162
- alternative governance, institutional
 - channel of, 2
- alternative political culture
 - atmosphere of, 162
 - HCJ as (quasi-exit) strategy, 162
 - as an obstacle facing the political system, 154
- alternative politics
 - concept of, 50
 - culture of, 51, 152
 - institutional change and, 48–51
 - use of, 83
- American judges, strength in the
 - constitution, 22
- American legal community, HCJ directing
 - its decisions to, 143
- American researchers, studies about
 - influence of judicial institutions, 6
- Amitai-Citizens for Proper Administration and Integrity v. The Prime Minister*, 102
- analytic tradition, 45
- anti-torture policy, in Israel, 127
- appeals
 - to HCJ, 61
 - HCJ encouraging, 162
 - HCJ hearing on a broad range of subjects, 98
 - HCJ interest in encouraging, 163
 - rejection rate, 16
- Arab children, registration of, 73
- Arab citizens, equal opportunity for, 68
- Arab minority, involving in political life, 36
- Arab residents
 - no clear decision on treatment of, 133
 - proprietary rights of, 93
 - rising up against Israeli rule, 124
- Arad, Ron, 104
- Arbel, Edna, 104

- Ariel, Uri, 131
 Aristotle, analyzing state and politics, 21 army's structure, issue not justiciable, 93 arrangement, between the Court and the Knesset, 148
 Arrangements Law, 80, 102
 Association for Civil Rights in Israel (ACRI), 73, 139 atmosphere, of short-term considerations, 79 attitudinal model, 30, 41
 Attorney General, 127, 128, 141 autonomy of Attorney General, 141 of Jewish community in Israel prior to 1948, 84
 Avoda Party, number of votes, 75

 Bank Mizrahi case, 135
 Bank Mizrahi verdict, in 1995, 102
 Barak, Aharon, 34, 98, 101, 106, 114, 147, 149, 150, 154, 159, 160
 Barak, Prime Minister Ehud, 132
 Barzilai v. The Government of Israel et al., 104
 Basic Law: Dignity of Man and Liberty, 116
 Basic Law: Freedom of Occupation, 63, 65, 69, 100, 102, 109, 126
 Basic Law: Human Dignity and Liberty (1992), 63, 65, 69, 100, 109
 Basic Law of Human Dignity and Freedom, 126
 Basic Law: Government, The, 100 Basic Laws of 1992, 69
 addressing specific constitutional issues, 63 contradiction with ordinary law, 157 existing, 65
 having constitutional status, 63
 HCJ policy of activism through, 102 laws contradicting, 148 passage of, 100, 126 question of superiority of, 158 basic rights, part of positive law, 144 behavioral revolution, 44
 Beinisch, Dorit, 147
 Bejerano, case of, 87 belief systems, 47, 48

 Ben Gurion, David, 87
 Bentham, Jeremy, 24
 Berglas, Eitan, 80
 Bergman, Aharon, 92
 Bergman petition (1969), 83
 Bergman v. The Minister of Finance, 92, 135
 Betselem human rights organization, 127, 139
 Bezeq Law, amendment to as invalid, 116
 Bibi, Igal, 106, 108, 154
 Biers v. The Rabbinical Court, 93
 Binyamin Shalit v. The Minister of the Interior, 88
 Bizchut, The Israel Human Rights Center for People with Disabilities, 73 black-market economy, significant growth in, 71 bottom-up approach, to institutional change, 72
 British Mandate, in Palestine from 1917 to 1948, 84
 Brother Daniel, 88
 Bruno, Michael, 80 budget maximizing model, of bureaucracy, 56 bureaucracy, formal models, 56 bureaucrat-politician relations, 57 bureaucrats ability to manipulate politicians, 56 acting in own interests, 140
 HCJ as, 6, 140–141
 influencing policy design and interpretation, 127–128 interest in sabotaging structural reform, 93 involvement of, 140–141 types of, 140
 Burke, belonging to republican approach, 22
 Bus 300 Affair (1984), 95 case studies, detailed analysis of, 121 caseload in the HCJ, 7, 12

 mean annual, 11 causes, public attempting to advance through the Court, 92 central administrative authorities, 64

- centralization
 - of all systems in the 1950s and 1960s, 83
 - measures of, 76
- centralized systems
 - bureaucratic control of, 56
 - demands of interest groups channeled through the bureaucracy, 56
 - politicians attempting to control bureaucrats, 57
 - tradition of activity via semi-legal channels in Israel, 60
- changes, as additive, 46
- checks and balances
 - in Israel, 67
 - model of, 118
- Chief Justice of the Supreme Court (HCJ), management of the court system, 101
- children, granting citizenship to, 12
- citizens. See also public
 - adopting exit option, 58
 - filing increasing number of petitions, 72
 - providing public services on their own, 48
 - relationship with politicians, 138–139
- citizenship
 - concept of, 21
 - emphasized by republican thinkers, 20
- City Rabbi, membership of a woman on the committee to elect, 97
- civic groups, rise of, 125
- civil administration
 - collapse of, 125
 - creation of, 123
 - inability to govern Palestinians, 124
 - replacing military rule in regions, 125
 - transfer to the Palestinians, 125–126
- civil liberties, restriction of as inappropriate, 121
- civil marriage procedures
 - outside of Israel, 71
 - unilateral initiatives of, 100
- civil rights, in matters of religious practice, 106
- civilian principles, of ruling, 125
- civilian public administration, in regions, 123
- closed cases, mean number, 11
- Cohen, 113, 154
- Cohen, Elizer, 106, 108, 111
- collective action
 - problem of, 39, 89, 139
 - producing passive citizens, 56
 - structuring of, 49
- collectivist culture, 37, 89
- Common Law, 25
- communal experience, law representing, 21
- Communist Party, closing of a newspaper of, 87
- congressional override, minimizing possibility of, 30
- Constituent Assembly, decision of, 65
- constitution
 - formal, 63
 - mass movement calling for a written, 100
 - proposal to create, 106
- constitutional committee of the Knesset, chair of, 112–114
- constitutional court of law
 - composition proposed as political, 111
 - discussion within Israeli literature, 107
 - establishment of, 35
 - movement to create a new conservative, 104
 - necessity for, 150
 - need for, 107
 - needed or not, 160–161
 - not solving social problems, 160
 - plan to create, 106
 - proposal to create, 108, 165
 - proposals to establish, 150
- constitutional criticism, different models of, 152
- constitutional government, elements of, 21
- constitutional laws, 63, 126
- constitutional mechanism, in law and practice, 63–65
- constitutional norms, overriding normal statutes, 63
- constitutional panel
 - based on principle of transparency, 151
 - creating, 149
- constitutional reforms
 - depending on political culture, 22
 - innovators determining, 1
- constitutional revolution, 34, 63, 126
- constitutionalization, trend toward, 1
- conversion, to become a Jew, 68
- coping strategies, in institutional change, 45

- Court behavior, conceptions of, 30
- court law, establishing administrative
 - courts (small HCJ), 8
- court of law
 - differing from the Knesset, 150
 - with a panel (of judges), literature proposing, 155
- Courts Law, amendment to (1992), 101
- Court's president and deputies, limiting tenure of, 147
- critical legal studies, 28
- customary law, favoring over the written law, 21

- databases, differences between Nevo and Takdin, 9
- Davikat v. The Government of Israel, 93
- deadlock, sense of, 61
- decentralization, improving policy making, 57
- decentralized systems
 - bureaucrats with limited ability to manipulate politicians, 57
 - politicians threatening bureaucratic monopoly, 56
- decision maker, transfer of certain governmental problems to an alternative, 92
- Declaration of Independence, establishing principles of, 103
- declarative model
 - adopted in Great Britain in 1998, 148
 - in the current Israeli government system, 155
- defense policy, as not justiciable, 93
- democratic political systems, inefficiency of, 58
- democratic representation, principle of, 163
- Der'i, Aryeh, 101
- descriptive analysis, to a path dependent analysis, 16–18
- deterministic analysis, marginalization promoting, 29
- diffuse legitimacy, 27
- Disengagement Application Program Law, 116, 166
- Distribution of Justice, The, 137
- distribution of petitions, filed with the HCJ, 7

- district courts, authority to discuss administrative issues, 8
- doctrine of independent status, created by HCJ, 89
- doctrine of natural justice, 64
- do-it-yourself agricultural sector, adopting method of, 144
- do-it-yourself approach. See also unilateral initiatives
 - continuing to dominate public life, 100
 - as a quasi-exit strategy, 50
 - situations where widely used, 50
- dominant party, in initial partisan system, 74
- Dotan, Rami, 104
- Dr. Yisrael Sheib v. The Minister of Defense, 87
- dynamic model, developing, 2

- economic and administrative systems, 71
- economic and bureaucratic systems
 - in the 1970s, 83
 - in the 1980s, 83
 - in the 1990s, 84
- economic crises, 49
- economic instability, periods of, 78
- economic program, devised under a veil of secrecy, 80
- economic stabilization plan, proposed, 79
- economical recession, in Israel (2002 and 2003), 130
- El Al v. Danilovitz, 102
- El Ard political party, 135
- Eitan, Michael, 112, 114
- elected representatives, going to the HCJ, 39
- election system, change in, 156
- electoral capital, 52
- electoral law, with split voting for the prime minister and parliament, 100
- electoral system, demands to change, 93
- elite, debate about the existence and charter of, 37
- emergency regulations, government's authority to impose, 121
- empirical, quantitative line of research, on HCJ's intervention in the government's decision making, 7
- empirical analysis, explaining positioning of Israeli Supreme Court as a central political player, 17

- English Common Law, basis of, 25
- English Law, compiled, 25
- Enlightenment movement, 25
- entrepreneurs, implementing
- multi-institutional logic, 44
- equality provision, Justice Landau
- broadening, 135
- equilibriums
- constituting solutions to interactions, 46
 - required in Israel, 116
- Evacuation Compensation Law, 116
- exchange market and choice through
- competition, theory of
- exchange of spheres, 141
- executive branch, broad powers of
- discretion, 86
- exit behavior, modes of, 49
- expert judges, establishing the status of, 37
- family reunions, instances of, 12
- fine tuning, Prof. Shetreet's proposal of, 159
- first Intifada, from 1987 to the beginning of the 1990s, 124
- First Period:1988–1990, movement
- towards judicial activism, 122, 123–126
- focused liquidations policy, 130, 133
- formal approach, analyzing legal and political fields, 19
- formal constitution, 63
- formal rules, 45, 90
- free riding, leading to a collective action problem, 54
- freedom of election, 66
- freedom of expression, 66, 87
- freedom of information, 87
- freedom of occupation, 87, 158
- freedom of protest, 66
- freedom of speech, 24, 87
- freedom to demonstrate, 96, 102
- Frenkel, Mordechai, 80
- Friedman, Daniel, 116, 147
- functional approach, to politics, 19
- functional failures, of legislative and parliamentary branch, 117
- functionalism, 26
- functionalist-legalist approach, 128, 141
- Galilee, Nir, 104
- gas masks, 96
- general public, absence of demand by, 55
- General Security Service (GSS)
- debate with bureaucrats, 127
 - interacting closely with Attorney General, 128
 - interrogation methods, 117, 127
 - Israeli legislators considered formalizing laws about, 132
 - officials, amnesty of, 104
 - preferring flexible interrogation methods, 141
 - role of, 140
- General Security Service law (2002), 121
- Governability and the Executive Authority in Israel* (2002), 74
- governability crisis, 71
- governance, arrangement promoting, 154–156
- government
- citizens searching for substitutes for, 59
 - petitions against, 11
 - prohibition on importing of non-kosher meat, 102
- government agencies, basic laws on activity of, 65
- government authorities, need for a balance of power between, 148
- government mortgages, declining, 78
- government offices, increasing the number of, 78
- Government Quality Movement, opposing constitutional court of law, 111
- governmental institutions, level of trust in, 113
- governmental policy, of weakening the opposition, 49
- governmental services
- alternative supply, 58
 - responding to a shortage of, 49, 51
- governor, Supreme Court in the position of an alternative, 144
- gray markets, 60, 71
- Grossman v. The Military Advocate General, 88
- GSS. See General Security Service (GSS)
- Gush Emunim, 70, 90, 93, 94
- Hagana, LECHI struggle with, 87
- Hanegbi, Tzachi, 104
- HCJ. See Israeli Supreme Court (High Court of Justice [HCJ])

- Hebron, in 1968, 90
- Hendl, Zvi, 112
- heurostatic action, 106
- heurostatics, 106
- hidden agendas, impression of, 36
- hierarchies, giving rise to a mental model, 47
- High Court of Justice (HCJ). See Israeli Supreme Court (High Court of Justice [HCJ])
- Hirschman's model, 58
- Histadrut (the workers' union), 79
- historical institutionalism, 164
- Hobbes, natural law, 23
- Hoffman v. The Director-General of the Prime Minister's Office, 104
- home ownership, decline in the rate of, 78
- homosexuals and lesbians, discrimination against, 102
- hudna, collapse of, 133–134
- human environment, of the military
 - activity objective, 130
- human interactions, defining social structure, 46
- human learning, as related to problem solving, 47
- human rights
 - becoming a guiding principle, 123
 - commitment to universal values of, 121
 - defense of, 121
 - defining fundamental, 65
 - designing public policy on, 165
 - promotion of, 145
 - public policy on, 74
 - receiving a constitutional status, 126
 - Supreme Court shaping, 2
 - violations in democratic systems, 69
- human rights activists, role in empowering the Supreme Court, 73
- human rights community, Supreme Court decision aimed at, 143
- human rights laws, striking balances, 165
- human rights NGOs, case-related strategy of, 73
- human rights norms, 63
- human rights organizations
 - advancing own social status, 39
 - case-related strategy, 69
- human rights policy, Supreme Court involvement in, 141–142
- human rights procedures, alienating the public from, 69
- Human Rights Statement, of Israel, 63
- Hume, David, 23
- IDF (Israel Defense Forces)
 - Josef's death as a major failure on the part of, 131
 - report on cooperation with the Palestinian Authority, 131
 - seeking to establish ethical code, 130
- illegal settlements
 - creation of, 90
 - legalizing in the 1970s, 60
 - in the occupied territories, 60
- inability to govern
 - continuing, 101
 - in Israel, 6
 - as a major social problem, 68
 - making the HCJ a trustworthy alternative, 157
 - Palestinians via civil administration, 124
- individual and collective learning, as pathway for institutional analysis, 47–48
- individual and liberal values, emergence of, 37
- individualist values, in public's attitude toward authorities, 6
- individualistic approach, movement towards, 29, 40
- individualistic worldview, rise of in Israeli culture, 37
- individualistic-economic approach, studying judges' preferences and positions, 30
- individuals
 - changing rules of the game, 46
 - disputes with the state, 118
 - learning ways to solve problems, 48
 - marginalizing role of, 29, 40
 - role in social, political, and economic processes, 22
- informal institutions, emergence of, 72
- informal norms
 - influence of, 46
 - in the Soviet Union, 50
- informal relationship, between High Court and Knesset, 148
- informal rules, 45

- Inquiry Committee, chaired by a Supreme Court judge, 92
- institutional amendments, series of, 161
- institutional analysis, tying processes of individual and collective learning to, 47–48
- institutional approach
 - to politics, 19
 - suggesting analysis of legal documents, 26
- institutional arrangement, proposed, 156–161
- institutional change
 - process of formulating, 52
 - scheme of, 48
- institutional framework, 48
- institutional reform, within democratic rules, 163
- institutional studies, neo-institutional approach, 44
- institutional theory
 - described, 43–44
 - perceived through social choice studies, 45–47
 - sociological perspective of, 44–45
- institutionalism, integrating rational choice and historical, 2
- institutionalization, of judicial criticism of laws, 158
- institutional-process analysis, of relationship between Supreme Court and Israeli Knesset, 4, 16
- institutions
 - affecting power, 46
 - building in the pre-state period, 85
 - dynamic side of, 46
 - informal, 50
 - as limitations enforced upon human interactions, 45, 46
 - meaning of, 43
 - as rules designing social interactions, 45
 - as rules of the game, 46
 - study of confused, due to vagueness of concepts, 46
- institutions and organizations, Jewish leadership creating independent, 85
- instrumental approach to the law, 146
- instrumental political culture, 157
- instrumental view, of the law, 163
- inter-disciplinary approach, analyzing relationship between legal and political fields, 20
- interest groups
 - acting as interpreters of social values, 139
 - competition between, 55
 - HCJ as, 6
 - influence greater in a decentralized system, 57
 - influence of, 55
 - information aspect of relationship with politicians, 56
 - lobbying for human rights, 139–140
 - part in the struggle over the constitutional court of law, 111–112
 - as politicians' central source of information, 56
 - providing public services on their own, 48
 - reducing rent-seeking activity of, 29
 - Supreme Court as, 26, 39
- internal security, 71
- interrogation
 - HCJ as last source on, 143
 - methods, 117, 127, 141
 - need in, 135
- Interrogation Case (Public Committee against Torture in Israel v. The State of Israel 1999), 16, 134–136
- analyzing public policy, 137–145
- HCJ decision in, 127
- influence on judicial activism in military courts in territories, 128–130
- as public policy, 132
- Intifada, leading to a political rift in Israel, 124
- Intifada Law, High Court ruling invalid, 116
- Israel
 - acknowledging PLO as legal representative of Palestinian people, 125
 - alternative politics as a continuous mode of behavior, 48
 - constitutional history, 65–67
 - delicate relations between the legal and the political systems, 33
 - focused liquidations policy, 130, 133
 - inability to govern, 6

Israel (cont.)

- initial structural and cultural conditions, 84–86
- issue of the Jewish character of, 68
- non-governability, 73–79, 125
- political community affected by the HCJ, 3
- public law, 63
- in sociopolitical characteristics of, 2
- Israel Defense Forces. See IDF (Israel Defense Forces)
- Israel Investment Managers' Case (The Israel Investment Managers' Office v. The Minister of Finance, 1997), 103, 119
- Israel Land Administration, The
 - bureaucratic role of, 140
- Israeli Arabs, public demonstration in support of the Intifada, 132
- Israeli Bar Association, objecting to creation of a constitutional court of law, 111
- Israeli Democracy Institute, 132
- Israeli factional system, split of, 74
- Israeli High Court of Justice (HCJ). See Israeli Supreme Court (High Court of Justice [HCJ])
- Israeli society
 - deep divisions within, 61
 - deep fissures in, 117
 - deep gaps in, 153
 - experiencing two parallel processes, 20
 - finding alternative means of providing governmental services, 71
 - HCJ's ruling revoking policies conflicting with central values of, 158
 - interpretation of values under dispute in, 114
 - significant changes in, 70
- Israeli Supreme Court (High Court of Justice [HCJ])
 - abolishing parliamentary law, 119
 - accepting military's point of view, 104
 - actual power compared to potential power, 33
 - advancing its organizational and political interests, 162
 - as an agenda setter in Israel, 116–120
 - as an alternative governor, 118
 - authority to examine legislation, 149
 - authority to strike down laws, 118

- authorized to nullify a law according to "restriction paragraph," 157
- beginning to flex its muscles, 164
- bringing about change slowly and incrementally, 136
- as a center of power, 59, 162
- centrality of, 152–154, 156
- as a channel to advance liberal values, 38
- conflict with politicians, 114
- constitutional authority, lacking, 33
- declaring that a certain policy harms a given value, 159
- decline of public trust in, 8, 12, 36, 159
- disagreement with Knesset, 157
- enjoying public legitimacy, 97
- explicit power not granted to, 100
- formulating a fundamental value, 137
- increased dominance of, 20
- institutionalizing criticism via legislation, 147
- interpretation of constitutional documents, 66, 117
- intervening in matters deviating from traditional pattern of separation of powers, 118
- intervention, strategy of increased, 66, 117
- issues relating to values and moral content, 88
- as less involved in the government's work, 16
- letting Knesset decide particular issues, 119
- literature examining in various contexts, 6
- litigation strategy positioning as a central player, 17
- not appropriate for decisions on controversial ideological questions, 153
- parliamentary proceedings, willingness to intervene in, 96
- as a peaceful agent of change, 163
- as a political catalyst, 98
- political role of, 166
- versus the political system, 116–120
- portrayed as political, 109
- power of, 144–145
- proposal allowing Knesset to void decisions, 116

- public and professional legitimacy as
 - central sources of power, 142
 - relationship with the Knesset and government, 3
 - restrained approach, 89, 93
 - right to declare that law contradicts a
 - basic law, 151
 - rightists and religious politicians wanting to punish, 114
 - role and place of, 2, 109, 119, 128, 166
 - self-restraint, 34
 - sending messages to the government, 128
 - serving wide variety of functions, 67
 - setting itself on a par with the Knesset, 102
 - setting the agenda for human rights, 127
 - strengthening of, 72
 - transformation of, 98, 101
 - trusting in Attorney General and State Prosecutor's Office, 141
 - variety of functions, 118
 - as watchdog over the rule of law, 118
 - weak and restrained during 1950s and 1960s, 85
- Jew, formal definition of, 68
- Jewish and democratic state, State of Israel as, 65
- Jewish community, in Palestine prior to establishment of the State of Israel, 60
- Jewish nation, with a Jewish character, 68
- Jewish settlements, in Judea, Samaria, and Gaza, 123
- judges
 - appointment of constitutional, 107, 150
 - changing decisions in ways not reflecting personal preferences, 31, 41
 - on the High Court, 109
 - ideological viewpoint of, 143–144
 - as political creatures, 136
 - preferences and strategies, 29, 40
 - role narrowed, 25
- judicial activism. See also activism
 - in absence of constitutional powers, 99
 - avoiding or adopting, 32
 - emergence of, 59
 - explaining process of increasing, 61
 - general trend of, 164
 - HCI orientation since the 1970s, 41
 - legal approach explanations, 34–36
 - in military courts, 121–123
 - resulting from quasi-exit behavior, 163
 - sociological approach explanations, 36–39
 - sociopolitical and cultural explanation of, 58–59
 - as a strategic judicial move, 30
 - weakening, 163
- judicial authority
 - important characteristics, 22
 - ruled by principles of professionalism and objectivity, 150
- judicial behavioralism, 28
- judicial branch, as first among equals in Israel, 67, 118
- judicial criticism
 - of laws, 149
 - leveled against Knesset's lawmaking, 107
 - towards Knesset legislation, 149
 - unconventional weapon of, 149
- judicial empowerment, 1
- judicial independence, 29
- judicial involvement, in political life, 4
- judicial norms, as legal arrangements, 25
- judicial restraint
 - de facto, 35
 - exercise of, 104
 - with regard to government policy, 86
- judicial review, of constitutionality of primary legislation, 66, 117
- Judicial Selection Committee, 67, 118
- judicial self-restraint, with regard to security and functioning of the Knesset, 164
- judicial supervision of laws, model of, 148
- judicial system, as complementary to legislative authority, 27
- judicialization
 - growing, 132
 - increase in, 125
 - in Israeli society, 107
 - resulting in judicial activism, 126
- judiciary, new positive theories of, 30
- jurisdiction, 89
- juristocracy, global trend toward, 1
- just distribution, inability to define, 144
- justice
 - as a function of the sovereign's rules and legislation, 23
 - principles of, 22

198

Index

- justices. See judges
- justiciability, 89, 98, 117
- justiciability and standing
 - not claimed, 92
 - as obstacles to filing petitions with the HCJ, 86
- Ka'adan v. Israel Land Authority, 1995, 119
- Kach Faction v. The Knesset Speaker, The, 96
- Kahan Commission, 94
- Karp Commission, 94
- Kasher, Assa, 130
- Katlan v. the Prison Service, 92
- Katzav, Moshe, 108
- Keshet, 136
- kibbutzim, diversifying sources of income
 - by re-zoning land, 138
- Knesset
 - ability to overrule Court through legislation, 118
 - accepting Court's ruling, 95, 152
 - adopting an approach of legislative restraint, 35
 - decisions made by, 3
 - disagreement with HCJ, 157
 - dismal position of, 113
 - distribution measures, 76
 - ever-increasing split between parties in, 76
 - as a founding authority, 108
 - growth in number of parties competing for, 74
 - HCJ criticism of decisions, 102
 - intervention in decisions of, 96
 - judicial criticism of legislation of, 149
 - laws, Supreme Court invalidating various, 116
 - losing ability to function effectively, 73
 - proposal to create a constitution, 106
 - providing authority to appoint constitutional court judges, 109
 - raising issue of a constitutional court of law, 108
 - requiring publicizing of agreements between factions, 102
- Knesset members
 - desire to be re-elected, 113
 - sending delegations to parliaments and constitutional courts, 111
 - turning to the HCJ, 39
- Knesset Speaker, cutting short debate over a proposed vote of no confidence, 96
- Kol Ha' Am v. The Minister of the Interior*, 87
- Kremnitzer, Mordechai, 143
- Labor Party
 - 1977 election, 93
 - loss of dominance, 70
 - socialist orientation of, 85
- land, policy violating fair allocation of, 139
- Land Decision Case (New Discourse Movement et al. v. Minister of National Infrastructure et al., 2002), 16, 119, 136–137
- analyzing public policy, 137–145
- groups addressed by Supreme Court in its verdict, 143
- as last legal decision on that issue, 144
- land policy in Israel, public debate about, 136
- Landau, Justice, broadening equality provision, 135
- Landau Committee's report (1987), addressing legal standing of the GSS, 134
- Lapid, Josef, 109
- Lapid, Tomy, 133
- Lapid committee report, 133–134
- Lavon, Pinhas, 89
- Lavon Affair (1954), 89
- law
 - constitutionality of, 35
 - defined, 19
 - proposal to institutionalize authority to invalidate, 116
 - relationship with politics, 19–42
 - representing rationality and objectivity, 21
 - as a social phenomenon, 136
 - as the ultimate sovereign, 21
- law and politics, analyzing relationship between, 25–33
- Law of Return, 12, 16
- lazy law, 137
- learning, theory of, 47
- LECHI Organization–Fighters for Israel's Freedom, 87

- left-wing politicians, petitions to the high Court of Justice, 95
- legal abolishments, signifying an approach of self-restraint, 34
- legal authorization, operating without, 144
- legal commissions, need for, 94
- legal community
 - conferences on proposed constitutional court of law, 112
 - Court directing its decision to, 143
 - pressure put on Knesset members by, 112
 - on whether constitution was still waiting to be legislated, 111
- legal criticism of laws, discussion concerning the practice of, 149–151
- legal innovators, self-interested coalition of, 1
- legal norms, comparing with practical behavior, 26
- legal positivism, 25, 27
- legal realism approach, 27–28
- legal studies, formalistic approach in, 22
- legal system
 - as autonomous, 25
 - decline in number of citizens trusting, 147
 - highest court of appeals in, 118
 - inefficiency of, 161
 - in the State's early years, 86
 - supported by Minister of Justice, 109
- legal terminology, interpreted by the HCJ, 34
- legal thought, normative approaches, 20–24
- legalistic-functional approach, 26
- legality
 - of certain laws, 92
 - principle of, 64
- legislating authority, as representative, 150
- legislative and parliamentary branches, functional failures of, 66
- legislative authority, weakening relative to the judicial authority, 70
- legislator, role of, 22
- legitimacy
 - maximization of, 142–143
 - of a proposed court of law, 155
 - sources of social and political, 27
- Levi v. The Southern District Commander of the Israel Police*, 96
- Levin, Shlomo, 96
- liberal and democratic values, weakening, 163
- liberal approach, stressing human rights, 129
- liberal elite, not the only group turning to HCJ, 38
- liberal orientation, on political thought, 20
- liberal society, conditions for the development of, 24
- liberal values, 36, 38
- liberalism, 22–24
- Likud Party
 - forming a coalition government, 93
 - right-wing, 70
 - settling West Bank and Gaza Strip, 90, 94
 - votes received, 75
- Lior Horev et al. v. The Minister of Transport*, 104
- literal interpretation school, 25
- literature, about relationship between Israeli High Court of Justice and politics in Israel, 6
- local authorities, 64
- Locke, John, 23
- Machiavelli, 22
- Madhat, Josef, 131
- Mafdal party (religious), 106
- marginalization, of individuals, 29, 40
- mass movements, 70, 93, 100
- maximization, of legitimacy, 142–143
- maximum happiness, law a tool for achieving, 24
- meat importer, petition of a, 102
- Members of the Knesset (MKs). See Knesset members
- mental models, 47, 48, 145
- Meretz Party, 101
- Meretz v. The Jerusalem District Commander*, 102
- Meridor, Dan, 101
- Miari v. The Knesset Speaker*, 96
- military court, intervention in the decision of, 88
- military elite, 59, 162
- military policy, in Lebanon, 79
- Mill, James, 24
- Mill, John Stuart, 24

- Miller, Alice, 119
Miller v. The Minister of Defense, 1994, 96, 119
 Minister of the Interior, most petitions directed against, 12, 16 ministers, increasing the number of, 78
Misgav v. The Knesset, 104
Mitral Ltd. et al. v. The Knesset of Israel, 102
 Mizrahi Democratic Rainbow–New Discourse Movement, 136, 139
 Modai, Yitzchak, 80
 Montesquieu, 22
 moral issues, relating to actions of the government, 92
 moshavim, diversifying sources of income by rezoning land, 138 Moshavim Case (United Mizrahi Bank v. Migdal Cooperative Village, 1995), 119 motivation, to free ride on the efforts of others, 54
Motti Ashkenazi v. The Minister of Defense, 93 Movement for the Quality of Government in Israel v. The Punishment Review Committee, 104 multi-cultural society, effect on field of law, 99 Murkus v. The Minister of Defense, 96 national institutions and assets, basic laws defining, 65
 National Religious Party, legislation in the Knesset, 88
 National Unity Governments creating political stalemate, 95 formation of, 61, 70, 80 nationality category, on ID cards, 88 natural freedom, challenging in accordance with specific law, 87 Natural Law, moral guidelines for, 25 natural rights existence of, 22 governmental authorities required to safeguard, 69 need interrogators claiming, 134 protecting interrogators from criminal responsibility, 135 neglect, strategy of, 49 neo-institutional approach, 44, 45 neo-institutional economy, 45 neo-institutional literature, 46 neo-liberal civil society, rise of, 127
 Netanyahu, Benjamin, 104
 Neubach, Amnon, 80
 Nevo database, 8, 9
 new deployment protocol, signing of, 125
 New Discourse Movement, 143
 New Israel Fund, 73
 no-decision solution, by politicians, 58
 non-governability, 17, 74
 entrenched in Israeli society, 125 political system characterized by, 139 non-governance characterizing Israel society, 157 of the political system, 156 non-governmental organizations, promoting human rights, 127, 139, 141, 159 non-participation, passive strategy of, 138 normative analyses, of judicial independence, 29 normative approaches, connecting political and legal thought, 20 normative perspective, on place and role of law, 20 norms, importance of, 21 objective policy evaluation, 152 objective truth, legal realism rejecting existence of, 28 obstacles, creating to filing petitions, 89 Ofek v. The Minister of the Interior, 92 open cases, mean number of, 11 open system, promoting judicial activism, 86
 Operation Accountability, 101
 Or, Judge Theodore, committee headed by, 132
 Or Committee, on legal system improvement, 161 organizations, as players, 46
 Oron v. Chairman of the Knesset case, 116
 Oslo A agreement, signed between State of Israel and the PLO, 125
 Oslo B agreement, granting Palestinians authority to rule in Palestinian cities, 125
Oswald Rufeisen v. The Minister of the Interior, 88

Index

201

- overcoming paragraph, in place since 1994, 158
- overnight forays, well-planned, 90
- Palestinian Authority, 125
- Palestinian economy, destruction of, 130
- Palestinian organizations, adopting a hudna, 133
- Palestinian terrorism, at the end of the 1990s, 125
- Palestinians, 135. See also Arab residents, interrogated experiencing torture and abuse
- paramilitary forces, prior to 1948, 85
- parliamentary law, Supreme Court abolishing a, 33
- parliament's legal adviser, supervising legislation, 35
- parties, effective number of, 76, 77
- partisan system, 74
- party discipline, decline of, 39
- passive option, of quasi-exit behavior, 60
- passive player, HCJ as, 37
- path-dependent analysis, 4, 47
- Peace Now movement, 70, 93, 94
- peace process, perceived as trans-societal, 125
- people, sovereignty of, 22
- Peres, Shimon, 80
- periods, since the establishment of Israel (1948–1999), 83–84
- personal inscription, on a military headstone, 104
- personal preferences
 - constrained by various structural factors, 31
 - justices voting for, 41
- personal responsibility, politicians evading, 92
- personal security, provided by the government for settlements, 91
- personnel contractors, employment of workers by, 104
- petitions. See also specific petitions
 - accepted, 14
 - accepting for discussion during 1950s and 1960s, 86
 - to be filed with district courts, 12
 - brought to HCJ, 96
 - discussion postponed for, 16
 - against the government, 7, 11
 - increasing rate filed, 154
 - mean annual number of, 9
 - postponing discussion of, 16
 - rejected, 16
 - retracted, 14
 - sampled, 8
- physical force, use of by General Security Services, 104
- physical means, for interrogating suspects, 128
- physical pressure
 - application of, 135
 - moderate degree of, 134
- physical torture, expressly forbidden, 129
- pilots' course, accepting women in, 66, 96, 117
- Pinchasi, Deputy Minister, 101
- Pinchasi v. The Knesset of Israel*, 102
- Pines, Ofir, 112–114
- pirate broadcast signals, of channel 7, 116
- pirate cable networks, 71
- players, shaping public policy, 140
- PLO (Palestinian Liberation Organization), 125
- Plonim v. The Minister of Defense*, 104
- Plonit v. The Chief of Staff*, 104
- policy, nullifying based on principle of human honor and dignity, 158
- policy decisions, 53
 - as dependent variable, 53
 - disaggregating policy into, 53
- policy maker, Supreme Court as, 144, 145
- policy making
 - full of obstacles, 57
 - involvement of the Supreme Court in, 3, 58–62
- policy outcomes, alternative ways to improve, 49
- policy regulations, 45
- policy science, 152
- political and economic elites, insulating policy making from democratic politics, 1
- political bargaining, 57
- political costs, SEAL an instrument for minimizing, 80
- political culture
 - characteristics of Israeli, 48, 59
 - characterized by quasi-exit, 59
 - dominated by alternative politics, 139

- political culture (cont.)
 - norms of human rights not internalized in, 69
 - transformation of Israeli, 70–73
- political decision, lack of a clear, 133
- political economy scholars, defining institutions, 43
- political elements, in institutional change, 45
- political entrepreneur
 - ability to promote the economic program, 80
 - described, 51
 - Israeli Supreme Court as, 43–62, 117–119
- political entrepreneurship, 51–53
- political influence, independence from, 118
- political instability, 74, 77
- political left wing, driven to the HCJ, 98
- political life, characterized by degeneration of systems of political parties, 94
- political opportunity structure, 49
- political participation, in form of quasi-exit behavior, 99
- political performance, alternative ways to improve, 49
- political player, Supreme Court as, 30
- political prisoners, rejecting petitions concerning, 97
- political role, of the Supreme Court in Israel, 72
- political rules, 45, 53
- political system
 - in a deep crisis, 71
 - defining, 19
 - fragmented, 59, 70, 83, 84
 - inability to formulate and implement systematic policy plans, 17
 - inability to handle public policy, 61
 - inefficient, 162
 - non-governability of, 139
 - non-governance of, 156
 - relationship with High Court of Justice, 33–42, 153
 - sense of deadlock in, 100
 - unfragmented during the 1970s, 94
- political thought, normative approaches, 20–24
- political values, intervention in the determination of, 142
- political-bureaucratic structure, of a particular system, 56
- politicians
 - adopting a quasi-exit strategy, 98
 - appealing to the Supreme Court (HCJ), 33, 119
 - assets for re-election, 52
 - budget needs, 56
 - distribution of preferences in society, 56
 - goal of being re-elected, 109–111
 - intention of limiting activism of the Court, 116
 - maximizing odds of being re-elected, 53
 - maximizing rents to interest groups, 55
 - motivations and interests of, 53
 - petitioning the High Court, 95, 152
 - placing responsibility on HCJ, 97
 - relationship with citizens, 138–139
 - as suppliers of regulatory services, 55
 - tending not to make decisions about crucial issues, 139
- politicization, of the judicial system, 160
- politics
 - approaches to, 19
 - definitions of, 19
 - in its original meaning, 19
 - relationship with law, 19–42
- Pollard Affair (1985), 95
- population, Israeli right calling for a transfer of, 124
- Population Registry Law, amended, 88
- Poraz v. The Mayor of Tel Aviv-Jaffa*, 97
- positive analyses, of judicial independence, 29
- positive law, efficiency of, 26, 36
- post-realism
 - individualistic emphasis, 29–33
 - structural emphasis, 28–29
- post-realist approach, major streams, 28
- power, alternative centers of, 59
- power groups, decline of traditional, 49
- pre-petitions, investigation of data concerning, 8
- President of the Supreme Court, 109
- prime ministers
 - direct election of, 74, 132
 - power and status of, 114
 - as primary political players in Israel, 114
- priorities, setting, 27
- prisoners
 - approving detention of, 104

- rejecting petitions concerning release of, 97
- right to privacy, 92
- privileged group, 51
- problems, learning ways to solve, 47
- procedural judicial activism, informal
 - policy of, 2
- procedural model, for analysis of formal
 - political rule change, 2
- professionalism, influence of, 46
- Progressive list for Peace (PLP), allowing to
 - participate in elections, 36
- protest activity, structuring of, 49
- public. See also citizens
 - giving up on legal channels of influence, 60
 - seeking services of the High Court of Justice, 96
- public and academic debate, about
 - interaction between law and politics, 20
- public argument, between opposition
 - parties and coalition parties, 95
- public choice rationale, 164
- public choice theory, 24
- Public Committee against Torture in Israel, 127, 128, 139
- Public Committee against Torture in Israel v. The State of Israel, 1999, 104, 119
- public dissatisfaction, expressing, 94
- public good
 - public policy as, 54
 - shortage of, 54, 138
- public law, 63
- public legitimacy, 27, 97
- public life, HCJ's degree of involvement in, 3, 147
- public need, identifying, 52
- public policy
 - described, 53
 - designing on human rights, 165
 - evaluation, 152
 - inability to design, 153
 - lack of, 154, 155
 - result of interactions between four groups, 108
- public services
 - alternative provision of, 100
 - government continuously failing to provide, 71
 - shortage provided by the government, 49
- public trust
 - decline in, 147, 157
 - in governmental institutions, 113
 - in the High Court declining, 113
 - in institutions in Israel, 59
 - issue in judicial criticism about legality of laws, 160
 - in Supreme Court, 114
- pure legal theory, framework of, 25
- qualitative parameters, in utilitarian
 - considerations, 24
- quantitative data, importance of, 8
- quantitative empirical method, assessing in
 - HCJ decision making, 6
- quantitative examination, of HCJ's rulings
 - and decisions, 4
- quantitative methodology, variables
 - measured, 7
- quantitative research, informative about
 - HCJ behavior, 6
- quantitative study, method of, 8
- quasi-exit behavior, 49, 60
 - in the 1980s, 83
 - as a central characteristic of political culture, 60
 - citizens internalizing, 50
 - in Israeli society, 91
 - necessary condition for judicial activism, 99
 - spreading to the judicial arena, 50
- quasi-exit strategy
 - compared to private provision of services, 91
 - defined, 58
 - do-it-yourself approach as, 50
 - Israeli Supreme Court adopting, 92, 98
 - of turning to the HCJ, 39
- rabbinical courts, rulings of, 93
- Rabin, Yitzchak, 124, 135
- Rae, split measure devised by, 76
- Ragub, Jibril, 131
- rational choice institutionalism, bridge
 - with historical institutionalism, 164
- rational choice literature, theories of
 - institutional change, 45

- rational choice theory
 - of Court behavior, 30
 - viewing High Court justices as players, 41
- rational foundations, establishing law on, 23
- rational human being, assumption as wrong, 46
- rationally sincere behavior, justices overwhelmingly engaging in, 31, 41
- Ravitz, Avraham, 109
- reason and proportionality, test of, 64
- reasonability, 37
- reasonable decisions, becoming unreasonable as circumstances changed, 98
- reciprocal relations, between politicians and the electorate, 53, 138
- regular laws, 63
- regulatory services, reducing economic efficiency, 55
- religious council, participation of a woman on, 96
- religious groups, believing that channels of influence were blocked, 90
- religious people, establishing illegal settlements in the West Bank, 90
- religious political parties
 - influence during the 1980s, 94
 - opposing interference of High Court in certain issues, 108
- rents, 55
- representation, emergence of more direct, 39
- republican orientation, on political thought, 20
- republican thought, 21–22
- research findings, of the quantitative study, 11–16
- residents, expulsion of local, 123
- Ressler, Yehuda, 98
- Ressler petition (1986), 98
- restriction paragraph, 157
- restrictive doctrines, created by HCJ, 89
- restrictive rules, created by HCJ, 89
- revisionist approach, on judicial independence, 29
- revolts, leading to precedent-setting actions, 130
- right of standing, cutting back on, 149
- right to disseminate information, 87
- right to life, freedom, and property, 23
- rights, establishment of, 117
- right-wing appeals to HCJ, 38
- Rivlin, Reuven, 108
- Rosen, Pinchas, 88
- Rousseau, 22
- rubber bullets, guidelines about the use of, 133
- Rubenstein, M.K., 95
- Rubenstein petition (1982), 95
- Rubenstein v. The Knesset Speaker*, 95
- Rubinstein, Amnon, 81
- Rubinstein, Elyakim, 104
- Rubinstein and Ressler v. The Minister of Defense*, 1997, 1998, 119
- Rubinstein petition (1982), 83
- Rubinstein v. The Knesset Speaker: paragraph 4*, 96
- Rufeisen, Oswald, 88
- rule of the people, 22
- rules
 - as elementary units of knowledge, 47
 - formal, 45, 90
 - informal, 45
 - political, 45, 53
 - restrictive, 89
- rules and laws, collection of, 25
- Rules of the Israel Bar Association, 73
- ruling class, law and legal system as, 26
- ruling elite
 - HCJ as, 6
 - institutionalizing social norms, 28
 - judicial system as part of, 37
- rulings
 - of HCJ, 7, 33
 - HCJ avoiding, 155
 - high profile receiving public attention, 6
- salaries, of uneducated and unskilled workers, 78
- Samarah v. The Commander of the Judea and Samaria Region*, 93
- sample, of petitions, 8
- Sarid petition, to the High Court of Justice (1981), 96
- scientific theory, law as, 25
- SEAL. See State Economy Arrangement Law (SEAL)
- second Intifada, 130
- Second Period 1998–2000, move towards judicial activism, 122, 126–131

- sectorial parties
 - growth of, 59
 - power to, 70
- sectorial politics, rise in, 70, 74
- security
 - censorship of information related to, 86
 - judgments concerning, 88
 - maintaining versus safeguarding human rights, 123
- security services, privately paid, 71
- separation of powers
 - as fundamental, 118
 - idea of, 23
 - model, 31
 - principle of, 22, 67
- settlements, petition concerning legality of
 - establishment of, 97
- settlers' lobby, opposing interference of
 - High Court, 108
- Shabak Law, 143
- Shakdiel v. The Minister of Religious Affairs*, 96
- shaking, method of, 135
- Shalit, Benjamin, 88
- Shamgar, Meir, 92, 143
- shared mental models, 51, 90
- Sharon, Ariel, 114, 130
- Sharon, Emmanuel, 80
- Shas Party, right-wing, 101
- Shatil, public and legal struggle of, 73
- "shebach" position, 128
- Sheib, Yisrael, 87
- Sheikh Suliman Hussein Oda Abu Hilu v. The Government of Israel*, 93
- Shenar, Shmuel, 111
- Shetreet, Meir, 109
- Shetreet, Shimon, 148
- Shetreet Report, 148–149
- sincere behavior, adopted by justices, 31, 41
- Six Day War in 1967, bringing changes to
 - Israeli culture and political system, 89
- social and cultural factors, influencing
 - relationship between politicians and the Supreme Court, 32
- social and political issues, appeals and
 - controversial rulings dealing with, 35
- social choice institutional approach, 46
- social choice literature, 45
- social choice studies, institutional theory
 - perceived through, 45–47
- social choice theory, public policy resulting
 - from many players, 154–156
- social consensus, 159
- social contract, with the state, 23
- social coordination, advancing, 25
- social divisions, increasing, 17
- social equilibrium, Supreme Court
 - contributing to, 6, 26, 39
- social factors, expression in interests and
 - preferences of the players, 164
- social fragmentation, 73
- social groups
 - acting to maximize interests, 28
 - turning to the Court, 121
- social institutions, theories about the - appearance of,
- social interactions, institutions as rules
 - designing, 43
- social norms, theory of evolutionary
 - development of,
- social players, 45
- social preferences, High Court of Justice
 - reflecting, 154
- social reality, judges changing, 27
- social role, of a proposed court of law, 155
- social sciences, study of law and politics, 20
- social structures, determining individual
 - behavior, 29
- social utility, 23
- social values and partisan-structural
 - parameters, explaining judicial activism, 37
- social welfare, 71
- social-political context, 35
- sociological analysis, of factors influencing
 - judges' decisions, 25
- sociological approaches
 - to law, 26–27
 - law and legal system as social phenomena, 39
- sociological perspective, of institutional
 - theory, 44–45
- sociological point of view, shortcomings
 - of, 29
- sociologists, on institutional change, 43
- socio-political processes, throughout the
 - 1980s, 38
- solidarity, professional and structural, 26
- sophisticated behavior, by Supreme Court
 - justices, 31
- sphere exchange, 128

- Spirit of Law, The* (1748), 22
 split measure, 76 standing or locus standi, 34, 89, 117, 159 state, need for, 23
 State Attorney, 141
 State Economy Arrangement Law (SEAL) alternative politics of, 79–82 enacted in 1985, 80 facilitating approval of hundreds of laws and legislative amendments, 81 as an instrument to advance interests, 81 supporters of, 81
 State Emergency Economic Arrangement Law, 1985, The, 80
 state intervention, need for, 54 state of nature, 23
 State Prosecutor, surrendering autonomy, 141 status quo, politicians preferring, 53
 Stern, Elizer, 131 strategy, of intense litigation, 17 structural changes, bargaining processes over, 165 structural conditions explaining differences in behavior of judges, 32
 in Israel, 32 judicial behavior depending on, 32 in the United States, 32 structural factors justices constrained by, 41 weakening the voice option, 49 structural reforms, aimed at decentralization and privatization, 93 subjective policy evaluation, 152 substantive damage, as a major criterion for abolishing a law, 34 substitute informal institutions, emergence of, 49
 Supreme Court
 comparing models of voting behavior by justices, 31
 conceptions of behavior, 41 creating and intensifying existing conflicts, 26, 39
 as an interest group, 26, 39 not an ordinary bureaucratic organization, 30, 40 as part of the ruling elite, 28 as a political player, 30 role as political entrepreneurs, 2 role in design of institutional changes, 2 role in designing and determining institutional changes, 1
 Supreme Court (HCJ). See Israeli Supreme Court (High Court of Justice [HCJ])
 Supreme Court judges. See judges symbolic legitimacy, 27
 Syria, petition against holding peace talks with, 97
 Takdin database, 8, 9
 Tal, David, 109
 Tamir, Yuli, 109, 110
 Temple Mount affair, Israeli response to, 131 tension, between society and government, 73 terrorist, preventing demolition of home of, 96 terrorist attacks, preventing during the planning stage, 134 theoretical framework, 17 theoretical model, and empirical analysis, 164
 Third Period 2001–2003, 123, 132–134
Tnufa, Manpower Services v. The Minister of Labor and Social Affairs, 104
 To the Defense of Nature institute, 143
 Tocqueville, 22
 top-down approach, to institutional change, 72
 Torah study, among Jewish people, 93
 Torture Case. See Public Committee against Torture in Israel v. The State of Israel, 1999 traditional approach, combining positive and normative analyses, 29 traffic arrangements on the Sabbath, in Jerusalem, 104 transparency principle of, 151
 of a proposed court of law, 155
 Treasury officials, as opinion leaders, 81 true Zionists, 90
 trust. See public trust truth, as relative to each case, 27
Turkman v. The Minister of Defense, 96

Index

207

- Ubiter, 96
- Ulpanei Hasrata BeYisrael v. Gary and the Council for the Review of Films and Plays*, 87
- unemployment rate, vacillating, 78
- unilateral initiatives. See also do-it-yourself approach
 - acting via serving national goals, 85
 - as solutions, 90
 - solving social problems through, 90
 - strategy of, 90
- United Mizrahi Bank v. Migdal Cooperative Village*, 102
- United Nations General Assembly Resolution 181 of November 29, 1947, 66
- U.S. administration, special allocation to rescue the Israeli economy, 80
- U.S. Supreme Court
 - adopting rationally sincere behavior leading to judicial activism, 32
 - affecting widespread social change, 1
 - utilitarian principle, of maximum happiness, 24
 - utilitarianism, 23
 - utility, principle of, 23
- Vanunu Affair (1886), 95
- Vickselbaum v. The Minister of Defense*, 104
- violation of freedom of occupation, 157
- voice option, as a citizen response, 49
- volunteer organizations, helping weaker groups of society, 71, 100
- voting behavior, models of, for Supreme Court justices, 41
- war on terrorism, courts fearing to use supervisory authority, 122
- Wathad v. The Minister of Finance*, 93
- Weiss, Shevach, 81
- Wellner v. The Chairman of the Labor Party*, 104
- who governs?
 - as electoral capital, 119–120
 - game, 51
 - rule, 2, 166
- women
 - allowing to be inducted into the Air Force pilot training course, 66, 96, 117
 - membership on a religious council, 97
 - permitting to pray at the Wailing Wall, 104
- Wye Agreement, signing of, 125
- Yadlin, Amos, 130
- Yahalom, Shaul, 160
- Yahav v. The State Attorney*, 104
- Yardor case (1964), 135
- yeshiva students, 98, 117, 119
- Yom Kippur War (1973), 60, 92, 93
- Zamir, Yitzchak, 80
- Zemach Case (Zemach v. The Minister of Defense, 1999), 119
- Zemach petition to the High Court of Justice, 103
- Zichroni v. The Managing Committee of the Broadcasting Authority*, 96
- Zionist National Religious Party, 90