INDEX

Acquisition, customer see Customer acquisition Activity-based channel strategy 320
ACURA framework, customer lifetime value (CLV) 278–281
Advocates/advocacy referrals 89–90, 124, 125, 279, 280–281, 297
Net Promoter Score 281
Affinity grouping, analytical tool 371
AirAsia case study 140–141, 144–148
Amazon/Amazon.com 124, 170, 180–181, 279, 280–281, 297
American Express 84–85, 92–93, 279
Analytical CRM 27, 351
analytical processing 373–374
Analytical tools 367–374
affinity grouping 371
analytical processing 373–374
churn management 371–372
customer complaints 275
customer profiling 372
decision trees 370
defection analysis 274–275
deviation detection, data mining 369
link analysis, data mining 369
market segmentation analysis 370–371
network analysis tools 369
neural networks 369–370
prediction, data mining 369
profitability analysis 273–274, 372–373
segmentation, data mining 368
sentiment analysis 369
standard data mining 367–370
task-specific software packages 368, 370–374
visualisation tools 366
Apple 81, 124, 279, 380
Au Bon Pain 472
Audit, CRM readiness see Readiness assessment
Augmented offers 80–82
Automobile industry, reintermediation 304–305
Back-office applications 376, 379–380
Balanced scorecard, performance assessment process 415 Barriers 445–447
customer defection, barriers to 277–278
data quality 446
failure to understand business benefits 446
functional boundaries 446
inadequate investment 446
inadequate measurement system 447
leadership, lack of 446–447
skills, lack of 445–446
technical 355–356
Below zero customers (BZs) 265
Benchmarking 275, 305–306
Benefit segmentation 233
Benefits, business 446, 459–460
Benefits Dependency Network (BDN) 459–460, 462
Billing, supplementary service 84–85
Blendtec case study 180, 201–204
'Blue Ocean' strategy 225–227
Body Shop 131
BP 129–130, 131
Brands/branding
brand image, importance of 93–94
brand value through relationships, buildings 94–95 Internet and social media 95–96, 97
role 92
value and branding in context 96–97
value, how brands add 92–97
British Airways 99–100, 131–132
BT (British Telecommunications) case study 102, 108–111
Budgets/budgeting, implementation 474–476
Business strategy 213–228
aligning business strategy and customer strategy 241–242
business vision 214–216
focusing on 227–228
industry and competitive characteristics see Industry and competitive characteristics
role 213–214
Business values 223–225
Business vision 214–216
Buyer-oriented intermediaries 307
Buyer power, industry analysis 156, 219–220
Call centres 86–88, 303, 327–328, 375–376, 377–378
channel option 313–314, 378
Campaign management, IT 378–379
INDEX

Case studies
building value propositions (Zurich Financial Services) 102, 111–115
creating new customer value propositions (BT) 102, 108–111
CRM implementation/customer management capability (Mercedes-Benz) 474, 491–496
CRM implementation/employee engagement (Nationwide) 468–469, 488–490 digital marketing/social media (Myspace) 52, 72–75
using Twitter (Hippo in India) 180, 197–201
viral marketing initiative (Blended) 180, 201–204 enterprise value creation/new value creation strategy (Coca-Cola) 281, 289–292 enterprise value creation/strategies (Sydney Opera House) 281, 292–297
IT/building client service commitment (Royal Bank of Canada) 377, 390–392
IT/innovating with CRM (DVLA) 377, 323–336
multi-channel integration (Guinness) 346–349
multi-channel integration (TNT) 341–346 performance assessment/driving results with metrics (Nationwide) 468, 474, 491–496 performance assessment/service profit chain (Sears, Roebuck) 428–432 relationship marketing/social media (Myspace) 52, 72–75 relationship marketing/success factors in the building supplies sector (PlaceMakers) 75–78 stakeholder relationships (AirAsia, City Car Club) 140–141, 144–148, 148–151 strategy development/customer insight (Tesco) 228, 251–256
strategy development/success factors (Samsung) 228, 256–260
Change management 446, 451–458
key issues 453–458
CRM vision, establishing 454–456
senior CRM sponsorship, ensuring 454 supportive culture/improved cross-functional working 456–458
'Seven S' framework 451–453
Channels see Multi-channel integration
Churn management, analytical tool 371–372
Cirque du Soleil 226–227
City Car Club of Helsinki case study 140–141, 148–151
Cloud computing/services 159–160, 161, 361, 374, 377, 381–384 categories/levels 382
criteria differentiating Cloud formations 382–384
CMAT (QCI Customer Management Assessment Tool) 407–409, 424–425
Coca-Cola/case study 93, 281, 289–292
Co-creation/co-production 10, 69, 284–287
customers becoming active co-creators 156–157 framework for co-creation of value 285–287
customer value-creating processes/customer learning 286
entrepreneur processes 287
supplier value-creating processes 286–287
Co-ownership, industry analysis 221
Codes of practice, IT 388–389
Collaborative CRM 27
Comparative metrics 412
Competitive environment/landscape see Industry and competitive characteristics
Complaints, customer 84, 90–91, 157, 275
Computer industry, disintermediation 303–304
Computer telephony integration (CTI) 303, 327–328, 375–376
Consultation, supplementary service 83–84
Core offers 80–82
Cost leadership strategy, industry analysis 222
Cost reduction, shareholder results 401, 404–406
Coutts & Co. 119–120
aims 3, 6–7, 65
alternative CRM models and frameworks 208–209
case studies 228, 251–260
continuum 25–26, 207
defining 4, 24–26, 207
implementation see Organising for implementation
important trends 20–23
balancing the value trade-off 22
developing one-to-one marketing 22
from reactive to proactive use of information 21–22
organising in terms of processes 21
viewing customers as business assets 20–21
information/information management see Information and technology management key CRM processes and a strategic framework for CRM 29–31, 33
origins 3, 24
perspectives 24, 25–26
rise 6, 24–25
software vendors and CRM 28–29
strategy development process 29–31, 211–213, 351, 478–479
business strategy see Business strategy customer strategy see Customer strategy strategy framework, development of 209–211
summary 250
strategy development process/strategic matrix 243–250
customer-based marketing 246
individualised CRM 247
managed service and support 245–246
migration paths 247–250
product-based selling 244–245
terminology 27–28
types 27–28

© in this web service Cambridge University Press
INDEX

Cross-functional approach 18, 66, 456–458
orientation 18, 44, 66
processes 29–31, 45–46
Cross-selling 279–280, 295
Culture, supportive 456–458
Customer acquisition 123, 295, 402
customer acquisition economics 265–268
acquisition and retention activities in practice 271–272
acquisition within different channels 268
improving acquisition activities 268
United Electricity 266–267
Customer-based marketing, strategy matrix 246
Customer experience 324–329
across channels 326–327
emotional goodwill 324–325
evaluating 325–326
‘perfect’ 328–329
technology role 327–328
within channel 326
Customer intimacy 223–225
Customer lifetime value (CLV) 17–18, 281–284, 402, 403, 481
calculating customer lifetime value 283–284 defining customer lifetime value/role 19, 282–283
maximising lifetime value of customers 19
Customer management 4
Customer metrics 410–411
Customer Operations Performance Centre (COPC) 409–410
Customer profiling, analytical tool 372
Customer profitability 262–265
customer retention 19
customers differing in real profitability 264
future profit potential, understanding 265
Customer relationship ladder of loyalty 86–91
advocates 89–90
terrorists 90–91
Customer relationship life-cycle 321–323
Customer relationship management (CRM) see CRM (customer relationship management)
Customer retention 17–18, 123, 296, 402
customer retention economics 268–271
acquisition and retention activities in practice 271–272
retention improvement impacting profitability 270–271
United Electricity 269–270
framework for customer retention improvement 272–278 best demonstrated practice 277
corrective action to improve retention 276–278
employee satisfaction 276
identification of causes of defection and key service issues 274–275
implementation plan for customer retention 277–278
measurement of customer retention 272–274
visible top management endorsement 276
Customer satisfaction 53–54, 70, 402
Customer segments, key 330–331
Customer strategy 228–241
aligning business strategy and customer strategy 241–242
market segmentation 239–241
role 228–229
Customer value 32
balancing the value trade-off 22
creation see Customer value creation
customer lifetime value see Customer lifetime value (CLV)
customer value segments, identifying 69
relationship marketing see Relationship marketing
shareholder results 400–401, 402–403
Customer value creation 18–19, 79–115
case studies 102, 107–115
customer value-creating processes/customer learning 286, 351
how brands add value see Brands/branding
summary 107
value assessment see Value assessment value the customer receives 80–91, 402, 480
customer loyalty see Customer relationship ladder of loyalty nature of value – what the customer buys 80–85
value propositions see Value propositions Customers/consumers 16
acquisition/retention see Customer acquisition;
Customer retention
as business assets 20–21
customer experience see Customer experience
customer value see Customer value defining/nature of 229–230
drivers of customer relationships 50–51
impact of digital, mobile and social technologies 156–157
mass customisation 21–22, 236–237, 380
and service–dominant logic of marketing 9–10
social behaviour of consumers see Social media
see also CRM (customer relationship management),
Relationships, customer
Dashboards 418–423, 432–434
Data marts 357, 360–362
Data mining see Analytical tools
Data protection 386–388
Data quality 446
Data repository 356–357
Data warehouses 356–357, 362–363
Databases, tactical 356–357, 358–360
Decision support systems 358–360
Decision trees 370
INDEX

Dell Computers 180–181, 192, 281, 303, 380
Demographic segmentation 232
Differentiation, industry analysis 222–223
Digital marketing see Relationships and technology: digital marketing and social media
Direct Line, disintermediation 303, 304
Direct marketing, channel option 313
Disintermediation 210, 217–218, 303–304
Disruptive technologies, industry analysis 221
DVLA (Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency) case study 377, 392–396
E-commerce (electronic commerce) 169, 364–366
channel option 308–309, 314
forms of e-commerce 169–170
growth of e-commerce 170–171
mobile commerce see Mobile commerce (m-commerce)
E-CRM 27
Electronic channels 300–301
Emotional goodwill, customer experience 324–325
Employee engagement see Recruitment and employee engagement
Employee value, shareholder results 400–402
Enterprise data warehouse 362–363
Enterprise resource planning (ERP) 379–380
Enterprise value creation 18–19, 33–34, 79–80, 105, 261–297, 481
building profit improvement/ACURA model 278–281
advocacy see Advocates/advocacy referrals cross-selling and up-selling 279–280
case studies 281, 288–297
coop-creation see Co-creation/co-production customer acquisition/retention see Customer acquisition; Customer retention
customer lifetime value see Customer lifetime value (CLV)
customer profitability see Customer profitability summary 287–288
Entrants, industry analysis 219
Environment
environmental changes/forces 152–153
environmental influence markets 131
environmental/PESTE analysis 220
Exceptions, supplementary service 84
Expected offers 80–82
Facebook 7, 52, 72–74, 169, 175, 176, 177, 179
companies using 87, 96, 146, 158, 181, 365
First Direct 124
Focus strategy, industry analysis 222–223
Front-office applications 377–379
GE (General Electric) Answer Center 86–88
Generic offers 80–82
Generic strategies framework, industry analysis 221–223
Geographic segmentation 232
Graduated account management strategy 320
Greenpeace 129–130, 131
Grocery market, Internet 22, 170, 254, 337
Guinness case study 346–349
Harley-Davidson 94–95, 402
Help desk management, IT 375–376, 377–378
Hippo in India case study 180, 197–201
Hospitality services, supplementary service 84
Image see Brands/branding
Implementation see Organising for implementation
Individualised CRM, strategy matrix 247
Industry and competitive characteristics 216–227
analysing industry structure and competitive environment 218–219
‘Blue Ocean’ strategy 225–227
buyer power 156, 219–220
changes in industry structure and evolution 217–218 competitive landscape 216–217
coop-opetition and networks 221
cost leadership strategy 222
cost leadership strategy 222
differentiation 222–223
disruptive technologies 221
environmental analysis 220
focus strategy 222–223
four actions framework 228
generic strategies framework 221–223
market leaders framework 223–225
potential entrants 219
potential entrants 219
rivalry and competition 220
strategy canvas 226–227
substitutes threat 220
supplier power 220
Industry segmentation 232
Influence market domain 129–132
competitor influence markets 131–132
environmental influence markets 131
financial and investor influence markets 130–131
penalties for failing to manage influence markets properly 132
political and regulatory influence markets 132
Infomediaries 304–305
Information Masters (Mckean) 401, 470
Information and technology management 350–396
analytical tools see Analytical tools
back office applications 376, 379–380
case studies 377, 392–396
front-office applications 376–380
information 352
information age 154–155
information management 352–353
IT 352
INDEX

Information and technology management (cont.) 524 proactive use 21–22
role 352–353
supplementary service 82–83
information management process 34, 350–351, 354–356, 367, 468–485
data marts 357, 360–362
data repository 356–357
enterprise data warehouse 362–363
integrated CRM solutions 364–366
tactical databases and decision support systems 356–357, 358–360 technical barriers in CRM 355–356 technology options for CRM 357–358, 366–367
integrating analytical and operational CRM 380–388
Cloud computing services see Cloud computing services data protection, privacy and codes of practice 386–388
implementation partner selection 385–386
selecting/adopting a CRM solution 384–388, 462
timing of technology introduction 385–386
vendor selection 384–385, 462–465
IT systems 352, 374–376
selecting a hardware platform 375–376
marketing view of 456–458
project management see Project management special e-metrics 412–414
summary 389
Insurance company, supplementary services 84
Insurance industry, disintermediation 303–304
Integrated channel management strategy 337–339
Integrated CRM solutions, Internet 364–366
Integrated multi-channel strategy 320–321
Intermediaries 524
channels 120–122, 303–307
benchmarking structural change 305–306
disintermediation 210, 217–218, 303–304
orientation 306–307
reintermediation 217–218, 304–305
Internal market domain 136–139
adoption of internal marketing approaches by companies 139
segmentation of the internal market based on job role 138–139 Internet 16, 22, 33, 155–156, 159
brands/branding 95–96, 97
e-commerce see E-commerce (electronic commerce)
grocery market 22, 170, 254, 337
growth of Internet economy 162–163
integrated CRM solutions 364–366
rise of viral word-of-mouth 157
terrorists 90–91
toy market 336–337
Investment, inadequate 446
IT see Information and technology management
Key performance indicators (KPIs) 410, 414, 418–423
Landsend.com 316
Leadership 446–447
change management 446–447, 454
market leaders framework 223–225
product leadership 223–225
skills 454
‘Lean thinking’ 224
Leisure Group 241–242
Link analysis, data mining 369
LinkedIn 175, 176, 177–178, 179, 365
Linkage models 399–400, 406, 415–417
Loyalty 48
customer ladder of see Customer relationship ladder of loyalty
customer loyalty 54–55
customer retention 277–278
segmentation 233
M-commerce see Mobile commerce (M-commerce)
McKean, John 401, 470
McKinsey’s ‘Seven S’ framework 451–453
Managed service and support, strategy matrix 245–246
Maps 246
market structure maps 307–308
value maps 99–100
Market leaders framework, industry analysis 223–225
Market segmentation 18, 99–100, 230–241
airlines 238–239
analysis 370–371
bases 232–234
business-to-business (B2B) 232
business-to-consumer (B2C) 232–234 communities vs. segments 238–239
focusing on customer strategy 239–241
key customer segments 330–331
mass customisation 21–22, 236–237, 380
‘one-to-one markets’ and permission marketing 22, 234–236
relevant markets 231
segment granularity 234–236
steps 231–234
viability 231–232
Market structure maps, channels 307–308
Marketing 225
on basis of relationships 20
cross-functional approach 18, 66, 456–458
development of the discipline of marketing 5–7
digital see Relationships and technology: digital marketing and social media IT’s view 456–458
marketing mix concept/transactional marketing to relationship marketing 11–16, 17–18, 43
‘one-to-one’ 22, 234–236
relationship marketing see Relationship marketing
service-dominant logic of marketing 9–11
INDEX

Markets
  intermeditated markets 120–122, 249–250
  internal and external markets 60, 70
  multiple markets 19, 58–61
  ‘one-to-one’ markets 22, 234–236
Mass customisation 21–22, 236–237, 380
Maturity assessment 441–445
McDonald’s 279
Mercedes-Benz case study 122, 222–223, 474, 491–496
Metrics
  linkage models and multiple measures 415–417
  performance assessment 410–414, 418–423
Migration paths, CRM 247–250
Mission, business 214–216
Mission control listening centres 191–192
Mobile commerce (m-commerce) 169, 323
  channel option 308–309, 314, 316–318
Monitoring performance, performance assessment process 417–423
Mono-channel provider strategy 320
Most valuable customers (MVCs) 265
Multi-channel integration 34, 120–122, 209–211, 217–218, 299–349, 351, 482–483
  alternatives 302–303
  building a multi-channel strategy 329–339
    develop an integrated channel management strategy 337–339
    develop strategic multi-channel objectives 330 review channel economics 334–337
    strategic review of industry structure 332–333 understand needs and concerns of key customer segments 330–331 understand shifts in channel usage patterns 333
  case studies 341–349
  categories 308–318
  channel migrator strategy 320
  channel options 300–301, 308–318, 320–321, 332–333
  channel participants 300–302, 308
  channel strategies 319–324
  combining 315–318
  customer acquisition within different channels 268
  customer experience 22, 234–236
  customer relationship life-cycle, understanding 321–323
  electronic channels, development of 300–301
  integration and channel categories 309–318
  intermediaries see Intermediaries
  market structure maps 307–308
  planning channel strategy across stakeholders 120–122, 339–340 role of a multi-channel strategy 321
  social media and points of non-contact or indirect contact 323–324
  summary 340
  transaction costs 334–337
Multinational Software Company case study 432–434
Multiple markets 19, 58–61
Myspace case study 7, 52, 72–75, 176
Nationwide case study 468–469, 488–490
Network analysis tools 369
Networks
  business networks 61–63
  co-opetition and networks 221
  digital 159–162
  industry analysis 221
  and relationship marketing 61–64
  social networks see Social media
Neural networks 369–370
Nordstrom 124, 136–138
Objectives, strategic multi-channel 330
Occasion segmentation 233
Offers 80–85, 402
‘One-to-one’ marketing 22, 234–236
Operational CRM 27, 351
  integrating analytical CRM see Information and technology management Operational data store (ODS) 356–357
  Operational excellence 223–225
  Orange (telecommunications company) vision 455
Order taking, supplementary service 84
Organisations receiving value see Enterprise value creation Organising for implementation 35, 437–496
  case study 468–469, 474, 488–496
  change management see Change management
  CRM budget 474–476
  CRM implementation 439–440
  implementation readiness assessment see Readiness assessment
  employee engagement see Recruitment and employee engagement project management see Project management relationship marketing and CRM in context 437–439
  summary 476–477
Outlets, channel option 312
Output metrics 412
Partner relationship marketing (PRM) 27–28
Payment, supplementary service 85
People metrics 411
Pepsi, brand image 93
‘Perfect’ customer experience 328–329
  case studies 428–432
  CRM return on investment (ROI), evaluating and communicating 423–426
  measuring CRM ROI and links between CRM/ performance 425–426
INDEX

Performance assessment (cont.)
relating CRM performance to business performance 424–425
establishing a CRM performance monitoring system 417–423
developing metrics, KPIs and dashboards for the business 418–423
developing strategy maps and success maps 417–418
key drivers of shareholder results see Shareholder
results
KPIs 410, 414, 418–423
metrics 410–414, 418–423
multiple measures and linkage models 415–417
standards 406–410
Customer Operations Performance Centre
(COPC) 409–410
QCI Customer Management Assessment Tool
(CMAT) 407–409, 424–425
summary 426–427
systematic approach, need for 398–399
Permission marketing 234–236
PESTE analysis, environment 220
Piloting CRM projects 465–466
PlaceMakers case study 75–78
Potential entrants, industry analysis 219
Potential offers 80–82
Prediction, data mining 369
Priorities
determining key CRM priorities 450–451
project priorities 466–467
Process metrics 411
Processes, organising in terms of 21
see also CRM (customer relationship management);
Relationship marketing
Procter & Gamble 95–96, 122–123, 169
Product-based selling, strategy matrix 244–245
Product leadership 223–225
Profit potential, future 265
Profitability analysis 273–274, 372–373
Profitability of customers see Customer profitability Project management 458–469
framework 458–460
business benefits, delivering 459–460
key issues 461–469
‘hard’ and ‘soft’ implementations of CRM 461
piloting CRM projects 465–466
planning for CRM project implementation 466–469
project plan 467–469
project priorities 466–467
utilising CRM technology solution 461–465
Psychographic segmentation 232
Quality 48–49
Readiness assessment 441–451
audit, CRM readiness 447–450
comprehensive CRM audit 449–450, 478–487
overview CRM audit 447–448
barriers to CRM success, identifying 445–447
maturity assessment, CRM 441–445
priorities, determining key CRM 450–451
Recruitment and employee engagement 469–474
airlines 95, 135–136, 139
developing employees 471
engaging and empowering employees 472
recruiting the best employees 134–135
selecting employees 135–136, 470–471
training/development 472–474
internal market strategies 139
Recruitment market domain 132–136
recruiting the best employees 134–135
selecting employees 135–136
Reference value 282
Referral market domain 123–127
customer referral 123, 124–125
advocacy referral/advocate-initiated customer referrals 124
customer-base development/company initiated customer referrals 125
non-customer/third-party referrals 123, 125–126
general referrals 125–126
incentive-based referrals 126
reciprocal referrals 126
staff referrals 126
Reintermediation 217–218, 304–305
Relationship marketing 3, 6, 7, 31, 32–33, 437–439
alternative approaches to relationship marketing 41–43
case studies 72–78
defining 4, 6, 23, 24, 61
development and key concepts 32, 39–78
customers as business assets, viewing 20–21 creation of value for customers, emphasis on 18–19
cross-functional orientation, shifting from functional to 18, 44, 66
customer relationships see Relationships, customer
integrating marketing, customer service and
quality 46–50
multiple markets 19, 58–61
networks 61–64
processes, emphasis on 45–46
summary 71
important trends 20–23
balancing the value trade-off 22
developing one-to-one marketing 22
from reactive to proactive use of information 21–22
marketing on the basis of relationships 20
organising in terms of processes 21
intangible benefits 20
origins 40–41
INDEX

planning marketing relationships 64–70
planning for multiple stakeholder markets 66–67
the ‘relationship management chain’ 67–70
relationship marketing planning 65–66 principles 16–19
transactional marketing to relationship marketing 11–16, 17–18, 43
Relationships and technology: digital marketing and
social media 33, 152–204
case studies 180, 196–204
digital Internet infrastructure 158–163
digital devices 160–162
digital networks 159–162
digital marketing 167–172
terminology 168–169
traditional digital marketing 171–172
e-commerce see E-commerce (electronic commerce)
environmental changes/forces 152–153
impact of digital, mobile and social technologies 156–158
integrating marketing 193–195
Internet see Internet; E-commerce (electronic commerce) rise of technology 154–156
social influence marketing see Social media
social media see Social media
summary 195–196
World Wide Web see World Wide Web
Relationships, customer 158, 402
building blocks of relationships 51–54, 86
commitment and trust 52–53
customer satisfaction 53–54, 70, 402
stages of relationship development 51–52
customer loyalty 54–55
customers, major areas 470
drivers of customer relationships 50–51
scope of customer relationships/B2C and B2B 55–58
key account management (KAM) 58 partnership relationships 58, 64–65, 69 relationship marketing building particular customer relations 19, 58, 64–65
Relationships, value 86–91
Retention, customer see Customer retention
Return on investment (ROI) 192–193, 423–426
Rivalry, industry analysis 220
Robotic Components Inc. 104–106
Royal Bank of Canada case study 377, 390–392
Safe keeping, supplementary service 84
Sales force automation (SFA), IT 377
Sales force, channel option 312
Samsung case study 228, 256–260
Schiphol Airport 316–318
Sears, Roebuck case study 417–418, 428–432
Second tier customers (STCs) 265
Segmentation
data mining 368
internal market 136–139
market see Market segmentation
social media 184–187
Senior sponsorship, change management 454
Sentiment analysis 369
Service-profit chain, linkage models 416–417
Service segmentation 232
Services/service economy
growth of the service economy 7–9
service-dominant (S-D) logic of marketing 9–11 Services, supplementary see Supplementary services
'Seven S' framework, change management 451–453
Shareholder results 34–35
cost reduction 401, 404–406
customer value 400–401, 402–403
employee value 400–402
key drivers 399–406
linkage model 399–400, 406
shareholder value 400–401, 403–404
Shell 131
Singapore Airlines 95, 99–100
Skills 445–446, 454
Social CRM 28
Social media 7, 21, 28, 33, 53, 63, 169, 217
brands/branding 95–96, 97
case studies 180, 197–204
channels 315, 323–324
classification of social media 178–182
blogs 178–179
collaborative projects 178
content communities 179
social commerce 180–181
social networking sites 179
virtual game world 179
virtual social worlds 180
customer relationships 88
data protection and privacy 388
developing social media strategy 187–193
developing an integrated social media campaign 188–189
measuring social media returns 192–193
mission control listening centres 191–192
social analytics 190–191
social media analysis, listening and measurement 189–193
social media strategy framework 187–188
digital marketing 169, 172–182
complex social media ecosystem 173–176
social media and networking platforms 173
social networks 63–64, 169, 172–173
emergence and growth of social media 176–178
enterprise use of social media 180
information 350
social commerce 180–181
social influence marketing 169, 182–187
social behaviour of consumers 182–184
INDEX

Social media (cont.)
- social media segmentation 184–187
- value from social media, gaining 181–182
- Socio-economic segmentation 232
- Software selection, CRM 384–385
- Software vendors and CRM 28–29
- Southwest Airlines 95, 99–100, 124, 135–136, 145–146
- Special metrics 412–414
- Stakeholders 16–18, 32–33

Building relationships with multiple stakeholders
- assessing performance in the six markets 140–142
- case studies 140–141, 144–151
- channels 120–122
- customer market domain 120–123
- identifying emphasis on the six markets 141–142
- influence market domain see Influence market domain
- internal market domain see Internal market domain
- referral market domain see Referral market domain
- recruitment market domain see Recruitment market domain
- the ‘relationship management chain’ 67–70
- role of multiple stakeholders 117
- stakeholder model for relationship marketing/‘six markets’ 59, 60, 66–67, 117–120
- summary 143
- supplier and alliance market domain 127–129
- increased engagement through digital, mobile and social technologies 157–158
- planning for multiple stakeholder markets 66–67
- stakeholder models in relationship marketing 58–60, 117–118
- Standards see Performance assessment
- Starbucks 241
- Strategic customer management 3–31

- CRM see CRM (customer relationship management)
- development of the discipline of marketing 5–7
- domain of strategic customer management 3–5
- growth of the service economy 7–9
- relationship marketing see Relationship marketing
- service-dominant logic of marketing 9–11
- Strategic metrics 411–412
- Strategy, business see Business strategy
- Strategy development see CRM (customer relationship management)
- Strategy maps, performance assessment process 417–418
- Strategy matrix 243–250
- Structural change, benchmarking 305–306
- Substitutes threat, industry analysis 220
- Success factors, business strategy 227–228
- Success maps, performance assessment process 417–418

Supplementary services
- insurance company 84
- value to core product/services, adding 82–85
- Supplier power, industry analysis 220
- Sydney Opera House case study 281, 292–298

- Tactical databases 356–357, 358–360
- Technical barriers, CRM 355–356
- Technology see Information and technology
- management; Relationships and technology
- digital marketing and social media
- Technology role, customer experience 327–328
- Telephony see Call centres
- Terrorists, customer relationship ladder of loyalty 90–91
- Tesco case study 55, 170, 228, 251–256
- TNT case study 541–546
- Toy market, Internet 336–337
- Trade-off analysis 69, 103–105, 275
- Trade-offs 22
- Training/development, employee engagement 472–474
- Transaction costs, channels 334–337
- Transactional marketing to relationship marketing 11–16, 17–18, 43
- Twitter 7, 73, 169, 175, 176, 177
- companies using 87, 96, 146, 158, 180, 365
- Unisys 488, 490
- United Airlines 157
- United Electricity 266–267, 269–270
- Up-selling 279–280, 296
- Usage segmentation 233

Value
- adding 80–85, 86, 92–97
- assessment see Value assessment
- brands see Brands/branding
- co-creation of value 285–287
- customer value see Customer value
- delivery systems 101
- disciplines, market leaders framework 223–225
- employee value, shareholder results 400–402
- enterprise value creation see Enterprise value creation
- maps 99–100
- nature of 80–85
- offer 80–82
- propositions see Value propositions
- reference value 282
- relationships 86–91
- segmentation 232
- shareholder value, shareholder results 400–401, 403–404
- social media, gaining value from 181–182
- supplementary services 82–85
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>INDEX</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Value assessment 102–105</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>improving value assessment using trade-off analysis</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>103–105</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Robotic Components Inc. 104–106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>traditional means of customers’ assessment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of value 103</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Value delivery systems 101</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Value disciplines, market leaders framework 223–225</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Value maps, airlines 99–100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Value propositions 97–102, 403</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>building 102</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>case studies 102, 107–115</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>defining 68–69, 97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>formulating 98–101</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>value delivery system 101</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Value segmentation 232</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Values, business 223–225</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Virgin Atlantic 99–100, 124, 131–132, 139, 279</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vision see Business vision; CRM vision under Change management</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Visualisation tools 368</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>World Wide Web 159, 163–167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>development 164–166</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>relationship implications of Web evolution 166–167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>YouTube 157, 175, 179, 180</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>companies using 87, 96</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Zurich Financial Services case study 102, 111–115, 320</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>