

Index

- adaptability, 56
- adaptability driver hypothesis, 53–54
 - Baldwin effect, 51
- Aesop's fabled crow and real rooks, 69–70
- agreeableness, 62
- alcohol, 115–116
 - and creativity, 117
 - creative people using, 116
 - creativity experiment with, 116
 - effects on health, 116
- Alternate Uses Task, 55
- alternative tactics, 39–41
- animals finding novel solutions, 69–70
 - developmental studies of tool use, 74
 - discovering process, 75–76
 - dolphins' behavioural patterns, 72–74
 - humpback whales' behaviour, 74
 - individual's generalisation from experience, 74–75
 - novel behaviour patterns, 70–71
 - novel use of tools, 71–72
 - research with chimpanzees, 70
 - tactical deception behaviour, 71
- bad play, 15–16, See social play
- behaviour
 - player, 12
 - play-like, 16
 - sensitivity, 12
 - social forms of, 12
 - stick-carrying, 14
 - tactical deception, 71
- Big Five personality traits, 62
- biological functions of play
 - active engagement with environment, 31
 - character of play in animals, 30
 - consequences of animals' play experience, 37–38
 - empirical ambiguity, 34–35
 - evidence for biological benefits, 34
 - hypotheses in young animal, 28–29
 - identification approach, 38
 - knowledge and resilience acquisition, 32–33
 - negative evidence, 36–37
 - play features, 31
 - playful engagement with environment, 33
 - pre-adult mortality, 38–39
 - predatory behaviour development, 40
 - questions about organism feature, 28–29
 - risks to wild-living animals, 35
 - self-handicapping, 32
 - studying harming effects, 36
 - theories about, 30
- brainstorming, 81–82
- Burghardt, Gordon, 12
 - analysis with social play, 49
 - factors for play evolution, 42
 - play benefits, 44
 - possibility of play in taxonomic groups, 16
- Caro, Tim
 - critical analysis effect, 34–35
 - documenting risks to cheetah cubs, 35
 - examining evidence for play benefits, 34
 - review about animal play, 34
 - social play analysis, 18
- cheetah
 - predation threat from, 29
 - Tim Caro's analysis in, 18
- childhood play, 89
 - alternative ways of development, 100–102
 - and creativity, 92–93
 - children's security, concerns, 98–99

- concerns about lack of, 98
- constraints in schools, 99–100
- declining effects, 100
- effects on problem-solving, 94–95
- losses in, 124–125
- meta-analysis, 95
- studying casuality, 91–92
- conscientiousness, 62
- creative dreaming, 112–113
- creativity, 3–4, 44, 45
 - drug effects on, 119–120
 - playful thought and behaviour, 124
 - psychological experiences of humans, 120
 - role of play in, 48
- Crick, Francis, 59
- Darwin, Charles, 49, 103
- Darwinian evolutionary theory, 49
 - and Modern Synthesis, 50
 - evolutionary changes, 50
 - Lloyd Morgan's perspective, 51–52
 - Spalding's mechanism on, 50–51
- daydreaming, 114
 - and creativity, 114
 - brain function during, 115
- Delbruck, Max, 58
- deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA), 59
- developmental scaffolding, 33
- disinhibition, 126
- diverging and converging thinking, 55
- dolphins, 17
- dreaming, 110
- dreams, 110–111, 126–127
 - benefits of, 111
 - creative dreaming, 112–113
 - creative solutions, 111–112
 - hypnagogic, 113
 - lucid dreaming, 113–114
- enhancing opportunities for play, 36, 93
- equifinality, 34, 94
- Escher, M.C., 57
- evo-devo. See evolutionary developmental biology movement
- evolution
 - behaviour patterns, 52
 - chain of events, 53
 - impact of play on, 49
- evolution of play
 - benefits in, 43–44
 - brain functionality, 46–47
 - evolutionary origins, 46
 - factors about, 42
 - role in creativity and innovation, 48
 - testing evolutionary theories, 45
 - tools for theory analysis, 45–46
 - tools used in birds and mammals, 47–48
- evolutionary developmental biology movement, 50
- extraversion, 62
- Fagen, Robert, 8, 10, 30, 33
- Fagen's approach, 8
- Feynman, Richard, 58
- Fleming, Alexander, 58
- flexibility, 56
- flow, 61
- fluency, 56
- Geim, Andre, 59, 60
- generalisation and insight, 74–75
- genetic algorithm, 68
- global optimum, 4
- Goodall, Jane, 70, 71
- graphene, 59
- Guilford's distinction between convergers and divergers, 55
- Health, Environments, Research and Design (HERD), 84
- human creativity, 55. See also innovation and personality, 63
 - and playfulness, 57–60
 - brainstorming, 81–82
 - components of, 55–56
 - diversity of participants, 81
 - effect of mood, 79–80
 - empirical research, 83–84
 - enhancement, 78–79
 - gene effect in, 64
 - Guilford's distinction, 55
 - importance of mood, 60–62
 - in groups, 80–81
 - measurement requirement, 56–57
 - organisation features, 82–83
 - play and playfulness, role in, 84–85
 - psychiatric disorders, 63
 - range and variety of contacts, 79
 - Remote Associates Test, 56
 - Semmelweis's observations, 66
 - working condition effect, 83
- human laughter
 - effects, 106
 - functions, 107
 - stereotypical vocal patterns, 106
- humour, 126
 - and laughter, 106–107
 - and playfulness, 108–109
 - and well-being, 107–108
 - as signal, 107
 - features of, 104
 - generating things, 105–106

152 Index

- humour (cont.)
 jokes, 104–105
 play and, 103
 hypnagogic dreams, 113
- incongruity, 105
- individual creativity creative process stages, 77–78 environmental and epigenetic factors influence, 78
- individual differences in behaviour, 21, 25. See also behaviour environmental effects, 23 genetic differences in playfulness, 22
 in mammals, 22–23
 responses to environmental conditions, 23–25
 sex differences, 23
- individuals, 64
 Big Five personality traits, 62
 diverging and converging, 55 experiencing flow, 61
 psychoticism, 62–63
- innovation, 3–4, 85, 124
 academic study of, 87–88 and creative ideas, 65 innovators, 87
 investigating commercial ideas, 65–66, 67
 playful creativity, 86
 role of play in, 48
 Semmelweis's observations, 66
 successfulness, 86
 winnowing of ideas, 67–68, 86
- intrinsic motivation, 61
- James, William, 67, 117
 Johnson, Steven, 65, 66, 80
 jokes, 104–105
- Kahneman, Daniel, 60
 Koestler, Arthur, 105, 110
 Köhler, Wolfgang, 70
- learning, 52
 ecological niches, 53
 from playfulness, 95–96 sensitive period for, 96
- local optimum, 4
 LSD, 118–119
 lucid dreaming, 113–114
- meercat, 36
 mescaline, 117, 119
 Modern Synthesis, 50 mood effect on human creativity, 79–80 importance in creativity, 60–62
- motivation to play, 20 external rewards, 20–21 motivational system changes, 21 primary and secondary reinforcers, 21
 Mozart, Wolfgang Amadeus, 57
- Nettle, Daniel, 62, 63
 neural correlates of play, 25–27 neuroticism, 62
 neurotransmitter systems, 25
 Novoselov, Konstantin, 59, 60
- openness, 62
 opium, 117–118
 originality, 56, 64
- personality, 78
 Piaget, Jean, 7, 133
 Picasso, Pablo, 57
 placebo effects, 120, 134
 plasticity, 53 play, 1, 122 across animal kingdom, 16 applied to animal behaviour, 10–11 applied to thoughts, 5 benefits for young animals, 44–45 biological costs, 34, 35, 123 effect in animal survival, 39
 evidence for biological benefits, 34 experience, 6
 features of, 11–13, 122
 for creativity and innovation, 45 functions of, 123
 global optimum, 4
 historical overview, 6–8 in biological literature, 10 in brown bears, 38
 in cats, 17, 18
 in dolphins, 17
 in humans, 13–14
 in mammals, 16–17
 in rats, 19, 24, 25, 37, 106
 local optimum, 4
 neural activity in brain for, 25–27 occurrence in life cycle, 18–19 protected context, 2, 5 relationship with ecological conditions, 48–49 role in human creativity, 84–85
 scepticism, 11
 sensitivity, 19–20, 39
- play behaviour, 130 play face, 18, 122
 playful creativity, 86 playful play, 2, 13, 57
 importance in creativity, 3
 playfulness, 13

- playfulness, 1, 2, 13
 and creativity, 90
 and education, 95–96
 and human creativity, 57–60, 84–85 and humour, 108–109 behavioural differences in mammals, 22–23
 genetic differences in, 22
 in humans, 6
 polymerase chain reaction (PCR), 118 positive mood, 61, 80 Power, Thomas, 130
 pretend play, 14, 93
 behaviour, 14
 long-term changes in, 94 negative thing in, 15 of older children, 14 psychoactive drugs. See also creativity
 alcohol, 115–116
 LSD, 118–119
 opium, 117–118
 psychoticism, 62–63

 Ramachandran's theory, 109
 reinforcers, primary and secondary, 21
 Remote Associates Test, 56, 108
 resilience, 32, 80, 96 rough-and-tumble play, 13

 scaffolding analogy, 33
 scepticism, 11
 schizotypy, 62
 seal, Southern fur, 35

 self-handicapping, 32
 sensitive period. See also childhood play for learning, 96
 Moyles' recommendations, 97
 POST report, 97
 Smith, Peter, 89
 social play, 17–18, 59
 in cats, 17
 occurrence in life cycle, 18 patterns of 'serious' behaviour, 18
 self-handicapping, 32
 Spalding, Douglas, 50–51
 surplus energy hypothesis, 42–43
 Suslov's theory, 105

 tactical deception, 71
 Tinbergen, Niko, 28 tool use in Galapagos woodpecker finch, 51 in New Caledonian crow, 71 in non-human species, 109
 Torrance Test, 100
 Torrance, Paul, 55
 Tversky, Amos, 60

 UK Parliamentary Office of Science and Technology (POST), 96, 97

 Vygotsky, Lev, 7

 Watson, Jim, 59
 weaning and play, 23, 24, 25, 40
 well-being, 19, 107–108