

INDEX

- A6M Zero fighters, 45
 Adachi Hatazo (General), 19, 26–7, 187
 air attacks absence of air opposition from Japanese, 222
 at Efogi, 230
 battlefield support missions, 88–9 casualties from, 221, 223–4, 228–30
 interdiction on Japanese supply and communication lines, 1, 6, 221, 225–8
 on Japanese shipping, 221 role in Kokoda campaign, 230–2, 237–9 air power relationship between land-based and carrier-based air power, 10
 significance of strong land-based air power in Pacific campaigns, 13 aircraft carriers battles involving, 13 and military strategy, 10 relationship to airfields, 10 threat of medium-range bombers, 13 airfields
 at Milne Bay, 90–1
 Horn Island Allied air base, 20 importance to military strategy, 10 sites and potential sites, 14–15
 Allen, Arthur (General), 143
 as a hero of the Kokoda myth, 201, 235
 biography of, 8 criticism from superiors for slow advance, 201 criticism of MacArthur, 202–3 failure to utilise numerical superiority, 201 handling of battle at Oribaiwa from Japanese perspective, 205–6
 on advance from Milne Bay, 203
 photograph, 205
 reasons for relief of command, 203–5, 238
 relief of command, 116, 200–6 reluctance to push men to their limits, 202 role in campaign, 7, 158
 slowness of advance, 201
 Allied Air Force (AAF) aircraft used, 222 battle support missions, 88–9, 222 battlefield support role, 222 bombs dropped July–November 1942, 223–4 creation and composition, 221–31
 interdiction effort in Papua, 222, 225–8
 interdiction role, 222 number of operational aircraft, 17 size of air offensive from 1942 onwards, 223
 special problems of tactical airpower in South Pacific, 223
see also air attacks Allied counter-offensive, direction of, 88

- Allied Translator and Interpreter Service (ATIS), 30, 234
- artillery
- 37mm gun, 156, 157, 159
 - 70mm battalion gun/infantry gun, 153, 154, 156, 157, 158, 159
 - 75mm mountain guns, 153, 154, 156, 158, 159, 160
 - ammunition supplies, 156–7
 - Australian lack of artillery, 161
 - Australian lack of experience with mountain artillery, 154
 - casualties inflicted, 159–60
 - and close support of infantry, 159
 - contribution to Japanese successes, 3, 157–61, 237–9
 - effectiveness of Japanese ‘mortar’ fire, 152–4
 - howitzers, 154
 - impact of direct fire, 158–9
 - impact of indirect fire, 158
 - of Japanese at Ioribaiwa, 140
 - ‘knee mortars’, 153
 - manpower required to carry guns and ammunition, 155–7
 - medium mortars, 152–3
 - mortar guns, 153
 - mountain artillery embraced by Japanese, 154
 - of Nankai Shitai in Owen Stanley Ranges, 155
 - role in outcome of battles on the Kokoda Track, 152, 157–61, 237–9
 - Type 3 Juki heavy machine-gun, 216
 - Type 41 mountain gun, 154, 160
 - weapons used by 55 MAR, 40–2
- Australian Imperial Force (2nd AIF)
- 2/1st Battalion, 214, 215
 - 2/3rd Battalion, 213
 - 2/4th Field Ambulance, 71, 135
 - 2/5th Field Company, 138
 - 2/6th Field Ambulance, 62–4, 70, 125
 - 2/14th Battalion
 - at Efogi, 125, 126–7, 130
 - at First Eora, 112, 113, 115, 116
 - at Isurava, 72, 73, 74, 75–6
 - weight carried by soldiers, 68
 - 2/16th Battalion
 - at Efogi, 125, 126–7, 130
 - at First Eora, 112, 113, 115, 116
 - at Isurava, 62–4, 70, 71–2, 74, 76
 - 2/25th Battalion
 - at Ioribaiwa, 143, 144
 - at Oivi–Gorari, 215, 217
 - at Second Eora, 192–4
 - 2/31st Battalion
 - at Ioribaiwa, 143, 144, 145
 - at Oivi–Gorari, 213, 215
 - at Second Eora, 192
 - 2/33rd Battalion
 - at Ioribaiwa, 143–4, 145
 - at Oivi–Gorari, 215
 - at Second Eora, 192, 193–4
 - 2/41st Battalion, 33, 198
- Australian Militia
- 3rd Battalion, 144, 192, 216
 - 7th Field Company, 138
 - 14th Field Ambulance, 56, 62–4, 112, 126
 - 16th Brigade, 32, 198, 213
 - 21st Brigade, 142
 - 2/27 Infantry at Efogi, 125, 128, 130, 132, 133, 141
 - at Isurava, 70
 - maps, 31
 - signallers at First Eora, 112
 - 25th Brigade
 - at Ioribaiwa, 135
 - at Oivi–Gorari, 213
 - at Second Eora, 192–3, 198–9
 - maps, 31–2
 - 30th Brigade, 54, 56
 - 39th Battalion
 - at First Kokoda engagement, 56, 58
 - at Isurava, 1–2, 62–4, 70, 72, 74
 - at Second Kokoda engagement, 56–7
 - behaviour of B Company at First Kokoda engagement, 56
 - defence of Oivi, 51
 - first engagement with Japanese by 11th platoon, 51

- numbers at first Kokoda engagement, 53–4
 - relative sizes of Australian and Japanese forces in engagements, 1–2
 - selection to form ‘jungle-type’ battalion, 35
- 49th Battalion, 55
- 53rd Infantry Battalion, 62–4, 70, 71–2, 74
- Australian New Guinea
 - Administrative Unit (ANGAU), 29, 54, 56, 62–4, 112
- ‘Australia’s Thermopylae? The Kokoda Trail’ (Stevens), 9
- automatic weapons, 36
- Ayatozan Maru*, sinking of, 47, 100
- B17 bombers, inability to hit ships at sea, 13
- B25 Mitchell bombers, threat to aircraft carriers, 13
- B26 Marauder bombers, threat to aircraft carriers, 13
- banzai charges, 235–6
- Basabua, Japanese landing at, 47, 49, 100
- A Bastard of a Place* (Brune), 8
- Battle of the Coral Sea, 13, 18–22
- Battle of Eastern Solomons, 13, 87, 90
- Battle of Edson’s Ridge, 187
- Battle of Lunga Point, 199
- Battle of Santa Cruz, 13, 199
- Beaver, Wilfred, 27
- Bidstrup (Captain), 56–7
- Bisset, Stan (Captain), 112
- Blamey, Thomas (General), 187, 188
 - criticism of Allen’s failure to exploit numerical superiority, 201
 - criticism of Allen’s slow advance at Ioribaiwa, 200, 201
 - on enemy strength, 123
 - influence on Allied victory, 7
 - and Kokoda myth, 235
 - on Milne Bay advance, 203
 - photograph, 205
 - on reasons for Australian success, 104
- Blood and Iron* (McAulay), 8
- Bonnal, Pierre, 151
- Braga, Stuart, 8
- bridge building
 - by Australians, 229
 - by Japanese engineers, 55, 226–7
- Brigade Hill see Efogi
- Brune, Peter, 8
- Buna airstrip, 45
- Burgk, Hans Schmidt, 29
- bushido, 237
- Buttrose, Arthur (Lieutenant-Colonel), 143, 148
- Cameron, Alan (Lieutenant-Colonel), 53, 56–7, 58, 69–70, 235
- captured Australians
 - first Australians captured, 32
 - treatment of, 51–2
- Caro, Albert (Lieutenant-Colonel), 116, 117
- Caroline Maru* (merchant ship), 24, 25
- casualties inflicted
 - claims by Australians following First Kokoda, 60
 - claims by Australians following Second Kokoda, 60
 - exaggeration by Australians, 5–6, 51, 60, 77, 147, 235–6
 - exaggeration by Japanese, 5–6, 76, 147–8
- casualties suffered
 - connection with morale, 81
 - as a consequence of sickness, 6–7
- casualties suffered – by Australians, 60, 147
 - at Efogi, 131
 - at First Eora, 119
 - at Ioribaiwa, 146
 - at Isurava, 77
 - at Oivi–Gorari, 217
 - at Second Eora, 200
 - compared to those inflicted, 5–6
 - deaths presumed, 51–2
 - in retreat from Oivi, 51–2

- casualties suffered – by Japanese, 60, 61, 146–7, 235–6
 all causes, 169
 at Efogi, 130–1
 at First Eora, 118
 at Ioribaiwa, 146
 at Isurava, 78–9
 at Milne Bay, 92
 at Oivi–Gorari, 217–18
 at Second Eora, 200
 by 1/44th Regiment, 37
 first fatal battle casualties in land campaign, 51
 Cavalieri, Carlo, 29
 Chalk, John (Lieutenant), 50
 Cheesman, Evelyn, 28
 Chinnery, Ernest, 27
 Clausewitz, Carl von, 161
 Clowes, Cyril (Major-General), 187 combat effectiveness, force multipliers, 2
 Commonwealth Investigation Branch
 (CIB), 24, 26, 27
 Crutchley, Victor (Rear-Admiral), 88
 Cullen, Paul (Major-General), 158, 214
- Deane (Captain), 57
 Defence Department (Cwlth), 24
 Deniki
 Australian retreat from Kokoda, 51, 53, 55
 Australian retreat to Isurava, 60 first Australian prisoners taken, 32 importance of, 237–9 Japanese attack on, 59–60 relative sizes of Australian and
 Japanese forces, 58–9
 Dickenson, Harold (Captain), 75
 Directorate of Naval Intelligence (DNI), 24 disease see sickness Dobodura–Buna airfields complex, 14
 dysentery epidemic, 112
- Eather, Kenneth (Brigadier)
 at Ioribaiwa, 133, 135, 143–4, 149, 150–1, 237–41
 at Oivi, 214
 at Second Eora, 193
- Edgar, Bill, 8
 Efogi
 air attacks on Japanese at Kagi, 128, 230
 artillery, 159
 Australian casualties, 131
 Australian forces engaged, 125
 Australian strategy, 121, 123, 130, 132–4
 battle, 127–30
 Japanese casualties, 130–1
 Japanese forces engaged, 125–6
 Japanese strategy, 4, 125–3, 127–30, 131–2
 map, 122
 outcome, 237
- Eora–Templeton’s Crossing (first action)
 Australian casualties, 119
 Australian forces, 112
 Australian withdrawal, 115
 casualties, 115, 118, 119
 engagements, 112
 Japanese advance to Efogi, 119
 Japanese casualties, 118
 Japanese forces, 111
 Japanese strategy, 113–14, 116–18, 127–8
 map, 110
 outcomes, 237
 relative sizes of Australian and Japanese forces, 2, 112, 119
 as Second Isurava, 109
- Eora–Templeton’s Crossing (second
 action)
 Australian forces, 191–3
 Australian superior fighting power, 194–5, 197–8
 casualties, 200
 defence of Myola Ridge by Stanley Detachment, 190–1 first period of fighting, 192–4 forces engaged, 191–3
 Japanese strategy, 194–5,
 196–7, 198

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01594-4 - The Kokoda Campaign 1942: Myth and Reality

Peter Williams

Index

More information

- map, 186
- maps used by Australians, 32
- missed opportunities, 238
- mistaken accounts of locations of action, 190
- order of battle of Stanley Detachment, 191–2
- retreat by Japanese, 196
- second period of fighting, 194–6
- third period of fighting, 196–9
- three stages, 189–90
- turning point in Kokoda campaign, 196
- espionage, Japanese agents and spies in Australia, 27
- Fifth Carrier Division, 21
- Fitzsimons, Peter, 8, 237
- Frossard (General), 151
- Futami Akisaburo (Major-General), 104
- Gallipoli campaign, significance, 1
- Ganiga, Daera, 51
- Goldsmith, Dennis (Captain), 112
- Grahamslaw, Tom (Capt), 50, 56
- Great Army Instruction 596, 17–18
- Great Navy Instruction 47, 17–18
- Green Armour* (White), 4
- Guadalcanal campaign
 - Battle of Edson's Ridge, 187
 - Battle of Lunga Point, 199
 - destruction of Ichiki Detachment, 87, 90
 - Ichiki Detachment, 88–9
 - influence on Japanese strategy, 4–5, 84, 88–90, 92–3, 185, 199, 236
 - initial Japanese reaction, 88
 - Kawaguchi's second landing, 185
 - landing of Kawaguchi Detachment, 90
 - results of first and second battles, 220
 - significance of strong land-based air power, 13
- Hall, Timothy, 8
- Ham, Paul, 8, 230
- Hattori Takushiro (Lieutenant-General), 15, 219
- Hayashi Hirooyuki (Lieutenant), 229
- Herring, Edmund (Lieutenant-General), 235
 - command, 202
 - criticism of Allen, 201–2
 - relief of Allen, 202
- Hirano (Lieutenant), 57
- historiography, gap in, 9
- Hoffstetter, Josef Anton, 5, 28–30, 32, 141
- Honner, Ralph (Lt-Col), 62, 70, 75, 133
- Hooker, Joseph (General), 237
- Horie Masao (Major), 68, 71, 129, 191, 194
- Horii Tomitaro (Major-General)
 - command at Isurava, 70, 81–2, 237–9
 - command at Oivi–Gorari, 198–219
 - desire for air support, 229
 - dissatisfaction with 41st Regiment at Eora, 119
 - on 'fast' plan to take Port Moresby, 103
 - order for withdrawal after Ioribaiwa, 142, 185
 - order to commence operations against Port Moresby, 18
 - order to postpone offensive against Port Moresby, 4–5, 84–6, 185
 - photograph, 66
 - plan for attack on Port Moresby, 20–1, 24, 185
 - preparations for possible Allied landing, 188
 - response to supply crisis, 177
 - strategy at Isurava, 65–6, 70–4, 140
 - strategy at Second Eora, 194–5, 196–7, 198
- horses, use on supply lines, 104, 180
- Hozumi (Lieutenant-Colonel), 103, 142
- Hughes, Billy, 188

- Hyakutake Harukichi (Lieutenant-General) command of Seventeenth Army, 187, 207 order to retreat from Eora, 206 orders to postpone offensive against Port Moresby, 4, 84–6, 92, 187, 189, 199
 photograph, 16
- Ichiki Kiyonao (Colonel), 88–9
- Iida, H, 25–6
- Imperial Japanese Army (IJA)
 2/27th Battalion, 23
 battalion size and composition, 35–7 Eighteenth Army, 19, 187
 Eighth Area Army headquarters, 187 invasion of Port Moresby, 15–16
 replacement system, 37–8
 Seventeenth Army, 16 monitoring of Australian broadcasts and newspapers, 187–8 operational focus on Guadalcanal, 85, 187 reinforcements from Kwantung Army, 185
see also Nankai Shitai (South Seas Force)
- Imperial Japanese Navy (IJN)
 21st Submarine Division, 15
 25th Air Flotilla, 45
 Fifth Carrier Division, 21
 Fourth Fleet, 15, 19–21
 invasion of Port Moresby, 15 land-based air strength, 17 strategy in carrier battles, 13
- infantry attacks by Japanese, nature of, 114–15
- Inoue Shigeyoshi (Vice-Admiral), 17, 21
- intelligence see military intelligence
- invasion of Australia, 15, 86
- Ioribaiwa
 artillery, 159
 as an expensive victory, 200
- Australian casualties, 8
 Australian strategy, 143–4
 battle, 142–5
 casualties, 146–8
 gap in Japanese defence, 205
 Japanese attack, 144–5
 Japanese casualties, 9
 Japanese firepower, 140
 Japanese forces, 139–42
 Japanese retreat from, 188–9
 Japanese strategy, 4, 142–3, 144–5, 148
 map, 137
 Maroubra Force, 135–9
 outcomes, 237–40
 patrols, 136
 reasons for Australian retreat, 148–51
 relative sizes of Australian and Japanese forces in engagements, 2, 140, 148
- Ioribaiwa Ridge, looking east to Sankaku Yama, 149
- Isurava
 artillery, 159
 Australian retreat to, 60, 69–70 campaign at, 69–76
 casualties, 5–6, 76
 composition of Maroubra Force, 62–4 explanations for Australian defeat, 82–3
 Japanese numerical superiority, 62
 Japanese surprise at resistance offered by Australians, 79–81
 map, 63
 myth about battle, 62 outcomes of battle, 81, 237 as a poor defensive position, 69–70 relative sizes of Australian and Japanese forces, 2, 62–4
- Isurava monument, 233, 234
- Ito Shinobu (Major-General), 99
- Jackson, Cyril, 27
- Japanese soldiers, quality of, 2–3
- Japanese strategy

- Battle of the Coral Sea, 18–22
- commencement of Port Moresby
 - offensive, 87
- defensive nature of, 10, 15–18
- Great Army Instruction 596, 17–18
- Great Navy Instruction 47, 17–18
- influence of Guadalcanal campaign,
 - 4–5, 84, 85, 88–90, 92–3, 185, 236
- invasion of Australia, 15, 86
- for invasion of Papua, 10
- and Kokoda myth, 86, 93–4
- plans for Port Moresby offensive, 92
- postponement of Port Moresby
 - offensive, 84–6
- preference for Owen Stanley plan,
 - 19–21, 22
- rejection of seaward approach to Port Moresby, 21
- relationship between airfields and aircraft carriers, 10
- Jesser, Harold (Captain), 31, 49, 51
- Johnston, George, 4, 60
- Joseph, Lionel (Captain), 168
- jungle fighting
 - at night, 113, 114
 - sightings of the enemy, 59
- Kaga* (large fleet carrier), 21
- Kamiya (Lieutenant), 73
- Kanazawa (Rear-Admiral), 17
- Kanemoto Rinzo (Captain), 23, 32, 101–2
- Kawate Ryoza (Sergeant), 66
- Kazuura Maru*, 99
- Kempei Tai (military police), 45
- Kenney, George (Lieutenant-General),
 - 141, 187, 222, 223
- Key, Arthur (Lt-Col), 62, 75, 112
- Kienzle, Bert, 3
- Kinai Maru*, 88
- Kingsbury, Bruce (Private), 77, 234
- The Knights of Kokoda* (Scott), 8
- Kobayashi O, 25–6
- Koiwai Mitsuo (Major)
 - at First Eora, 113, 115–16, 117, 205
 - at Oivi, 209
 - maps used, 33
- Kokoda* (Fitzsimons), 8
- Kokoda* (Ham), 8, 171, 230
- Kokoda – first engagement
 - area of, 52
 - casualties, 61
 - importance of airstrip, 52
 - Japanese attack, 53
 - myth of, 53, 239–40
 - number of defenders, 53–4
 - outcome, 54–5
- Kokoda – second engagement
 - Cameron’s plan to reoccupy
 - Kokoda government station, 56–7
 - casualties, 60, 61
 - counter-attack by Maroubra
 - Force to recapture Kokoda, 56
 - Japanese numbers, 56
 - map, 49
 - Maroubra Force numbers, 56
 - outcome, 58, 236–9
- Kokoda campaign
 - outcomes of battles, 236
 - reasons for outcome of battles, 237–41
 - significance, 1, 237–41
- Kokoda Commander* (Braga), 8
- Kokoda myth
 - Australian retreat saved Port Moresby, 4–5
 - core of, 1–3, 233
 - creation of, 1, 9
 - debunking of, 9
 - development of, 7–9
 - elements of, 4
 - focus on the front line, 238
 - influence of Allied air
 - bombardment, 6, 237–9
 - Japanese strategy, 86, 93–4
 - lives lost to sickness, 6–7, 162–3, 170
 - losses of Japanese inflicted by
 - Australians, 5–6, 60, 79, 146–7, 235–6

- Kokoda myth (cont.) outcomes of battles in campaign, 236 part exception to, 7 place of air attacks, 90 quality of Japanese intelligence on theatre of war, 5, 33–4, 236 relative medical preparedness of Australian and Japanese forces,
 6–7, 44, 164–5
 relative sizes of Australian and
 Japanese forces, 1–3, 7–9, 46,
 58–9, 121–3, 127, 233, 237–40 roles of senior and junior Allied commanders, 7, 235
 supply problems of Japanese, 6, 95–7, 108, 171, 183–4, 236–9
- Kokoda–Sanananda track, map, 48
- Kokoda to the Sea* (Sublet), 8, 194
- Kokoda Track
 map, 48
 strategic importance, 52–3
- Kondo Nobutake (Vice-Admiral), 89, 90
- Korean War, Chinese supply requirements, 97
- Kriegsmarine charts, 26
- Kusunose Masao (Colonel), 35, 70
 at Efogi, 127–8, 130, 201–2, 237–40
 at Ioribaiwa, 135, 142–3, 144–5, 148, 150–1
 success at Efogi, 119, 131–2
- Lae, invasion of, 20
- Lexington*, sinking of, 21
- Lion of Macedon, 233
- Lloyd, John (Brigadier), 195, 198–9, 200
- Lone Pine see Isurava
- Long, Gavin, 56
- long-range bombers, inability to hit ships, 13
- Lyndsay, Patrick, 8
- MacArthur, Douglas (General) on air offensive along Kokoda Track, 231
- criticism of Allen's slow advance, 201
- criticism of Australians' jungle fighting ability, 121
- criticism for never having set foot on Kokoda Track, 202
- criticism that he didn't understand conditions in the mountains, 202–3
- desire for Australians to push harder, 202
- influence on Allied victory, 7
 and Kokoda myth, 235, 237
 photo, 205
- proposed advance from Milne Bay to Giruwa, 187, 189
- McAulay, Lex, 8, 234
- McClellan, George (General), 237–41
- maps
 by Hofstetter, 32
 comparison of Japanese and Australian maps, 33 produced after aerial reconnaissance, 32–3 purchased by Japanese in Australia, 27–8
 quality of maps produced by intelligence-gathering, 30–1 types used by Japanese, 32–3 used by Australians, 31–2
- Maroubra Force, 24, 53–4
 at Deniki, 58
 at Efogi, 125
 at Ioribaiwa, 135–9
 at Isurava, 62–4
 casualties suffered, 58
 counter-attack to recapture
 Kokoda, 74
 Porter takes over as commander, 135 renamed Australian 7th Division, 191
- Maroubra Force Headquarters
 (MFHQ), 56, 62–4, 71
- Marshall, George (General), 121–3
- Marshall, Samuel (Brigadier-General), 231

- Mason, Lindsay (Lieutenant), 73
 Matthies, Peter, 26 medical preparedness, 164–5 medical units, relative sizes, 165 medium bombers, threat to aircraft carriers, 13
Men Against Fire (Marshall), 231
 Midway, JIN carrier strategy, 13
 Mikawa Gunichi (Admiral), 88, 91 military history of Australia, 234 contribution of popular history to Kokoda myth, 1 see also historiography military intelligence from published sources, 28
 German maps of New Guinea, 26
 German sources, 26
 IJN report on eastern New Guinea, 26 information gathering on ‘southern area’, 24 interest in eastern New Guinea, 24–7
 Japanese agents and spies in Australia, 27
 Japanese spies in pre-war New Guinea, 25–6
 Kriegsmarine charts, 26
 myth of Japanese ignorance about inland area of Papua and Kokoda Track, 4–5, 23–4, 33–4, 236 quality of maps produced, 30–1 on routes over Owen Stanley Range, 26–7, 28 supplied by Josef Anton Jofstetter, 28–30 Toyofuku’s report on British New Guinea, 4–5, 23–4 military police (Kempei Tai), 45
 Milne Bay
 Allied advance, 203 failure of Japanese invasion, 90–2 influence on strategy, 185 possibility of Allied advance from, 187 Mission Ridge, photo, 127
 Mission Ridge–Brigade Hill see Efogi
 Mitsubishi G4M Betty bombers, threat to aircraft carriers, 13
 Miyaji Chikara (Private), 180
 Miyamoto Saburo (Major), 213
 Miyazaki Chuichi (Lieutenant-General), 209
 Miyazaki Shuichi (Lieutenant-General), 231 monuments, 233 morale of soldiers, 81, 196, 237
 Murdoch, Keith (Captain), 124
 Nagano Osami (Admiral), 88–226
 Nagumo Chuichi (Vice-Admiral), 89, 90
Nankai Maru, 99
 Nankai Shitai (South Seas Force) anchorage command, 45, 100
 artillery, 3
 banzai charges, 235–6
 bushido, 237
 forced march from Giruwa to Isurava, 66–9 from invasion of Rabaul to landing at Milne Bay, 11 incorporation in Seventeenth Army, 16 infantry attacks, 114–15 infantry battalions, 35–40 infantry with bayonets fixed (photo), 80 invasion of Port Moresby, 15
 medical units, 44
 military police (Kempei Tai), 45
 naval pioneers, 42, 55 number of fighting troupes, 46 numbers at Isurava, 62, 65–9 numbers committed to Kokoda campaign, 3 pioneer units, 42–3 preference for landward option to take Port Moresby, 19–21 preparation for landward approach to Port Moresby, 22

- Nankai Shitai (South Seas Force) (cont.) proportion of labourers and engineers, 43 as a purpose-built force, 36 quality of soldiers, 2–3 ‘Rabaul carriers’, 43, 103
 replacements, 37–8
 route from Shikoku to Rabaul, 12
 Sakigawa Butai, 43 signals units, 44–5
 size, 3, 46
 supply and construction units, 42–3 supply crisis, 6 transport arrangements, 53 veterinary detachment, 45
 weight carried by soldiers, 67, 101–2
- Nankai Shitai (South Seas Force) – fighting units
 1st Bridge Construction Company (1 BCC), 40, 88–90
 4th Independent Engineer Regiment (4 IER), 40, 88–226
 15th Independent Engineer Regiment (15 IER), 40, 47, 55, 56, 111, 125, 139, 141–2
 55th Engineer Regiment (55 ER), 40, 55, 213
 55th Shipping Engineer Regiment (55 SER), 40, 140
 10th Independent Engineer Regiment (10 IER), 40
 41st Regiment action before Papuan campaign, 39
 at First Eora, 109–11, 116–18, 120
 at Nauro, 140–2
 at Oivi–Gorari, 210, 216
 at Second Eora, 194–5
 composition and size, 39–40, 211 formation and equipment, 40–1 recall towards Giruwa, 187 square battalions, 111
 41st Regiment – 1st Battalion, 213
 1st Company advance landing party at Basabua, 49 at Nauro, 109
 size, 40
 41st Regiment – 2nd Battalion
 at First Eora, 109, 111, 113, 119
 at Isurava, 76, 113
 at Oivi, 212–13
 lost in jungle, 113
 size, 40
 41st Regiment – 3rd Battalion at First Eora, 109, 111, 113
 size, 40
 47th Field Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion (47 FAAAB), 42
 55th Division Cavalry Company (55 DCC), 40
 55th Division medical detachment, 139
 55th Mountain Artillery Regiment (55 MAR), 40–2, 65–9, 142, 155
 144th Regiment
 at Oivi–Gorari, 213, 215
 casualties, 78, 130–1
 pursuit of Australians to Efogi, 119
 Regimental Gun Company (RGC), number of personnel, 39, 156
 Regimental Headquarters (RHQ), number of personnel, 39
 Regimental Signals Company (RSC), number of personnel, 39 strength at Oivi, 211
 total strength on arrival in Papua, 39 triangular battalions, 111 view of Australians, 237
 144th Regiment – 1st Battalion, 140 advance up Kokoda–Deniki track, 55
 at Isurava, 70, 72, 74, 76
 at Oivi–Gorari, 210, 211, 213, 217

- at second engagement at Kokoda, 57
- at Second Eora, 198–9
- casualties, 37, 51, 69
- composition of, 35–7
- engagements and casualties of 1st Company, 77
- holding of Kokoda, 55
- landing at Rabaul, 38
- numbers at ‘jungle’ strength, 37
- reduction of, 37
- reduction of machine-gun company, 36
- resting near Kokoda, 59
- second convoy to Basabua, 49
- size compared to other battalions, 38
- 144th Regiment – 2nd Battalion
 - at Efogi, 125–6, 128, 129–31
 - at Ioribaiwa, 139, 142–3, 144, 145
 - at Isurava, 71–2, 73, 74
 - at Oivi, 211, 214
 - at Second Eora, 198–9
 - composition and size, 39
 - forced march to Kokoda, 67–9
- 144th Regiment – 3rd Battalion
 - at Efogi, 125–6, 128–9, 130–1
 - at Ioribaiwa, 139, 142–3, 144, 145
 - at Isurava, 71, 74–6, 130
 - at Second Eora, 198–9
 - casualties at Isurava, 79
 - forced march to Kokoda, 67–9
 - size, 39
- 212nd Independent Motor Transport Battalion (212 IMTB), 43
- anti-aircraft battalion, 40
- combat engineer regiments, 40, 55, 125
- Nankai Shitai Headquarters (NSHQ), 40
- Special Naval Landing Parties (SNLP), 40, 42
- 5th Sasebo SNLP, 42
- 5th Yokosuka SNLP, 42
- invasion at Milne Bay, 91–2
- Stanley Detachment
 - creation and task, 189
 - dissolution, 211
 - impact of supply crisis, 171, 178–80
 - loss of morale, 196
 - order of battle, 191–2
 - reinforcements, 196–7
- Yokoyama Force, 47–50
- Nanyo Kohatsu Kaisha (construction company), 25
- Nazi Party, electoral success in Germany, 26
- Nelson, Hank, 8, 237–41
- New Guinea 1942–44* (Hall), 8
- New Guinea Diary* (Johnston), 4
- New Guinea Force (NGF), maps made by 2nd Australian Field Survey Section, 32
- New Guinea Volunteer Rifles, 29
- night fighting, in the jungle, 113, 114
- Nishimura Susumu (Colonel), 220
- Noda Hidetaka (Lieutenant), 38, 81
- Norris, Frank Kingsley (Colonel), 165
- numerical superiority
 - importance for victory, 2
 - myth of Japanese outnumbering
 - Australians, 1–3, 7–9, 46, 58–9, 121–3, 127, 233, 237–40
- Ogawa (Captain), 49–50, 53, 54
- Oivi, 51–2
- Oivi–Gorari
 - Australian casualties, 217
 - Australian forces, 212
 - Australian strategy, 213–14
 - Australian victory, 7
 - Australian weaponry, 212
 - battle, 213–16
 - casualties, 217–18
 - difference from previous battles, 7
 - Japanese forces, 210
 - Japanese retreat, 215
 - Japanese strategy, 207–10, 214–15
 - map, 208

- Oivi–Gorari (cont.)
 maps used by Australians, 32
 reasons for Japanese defeat, 218–19, 238
 significance of battle, 207 superiority of Australian maps, 33
- Okabayashi Shintaro (Lieutenant), 147
- Okada Seizo, 146, 163
- Okamoto Takahisa (Major), 113
- Oldham, John (Captain), 168
- Ono Tetsuo (Lieutenant), 115
- Owen, William (Lieutenant-Colonel), 51, 53, 54, 235
- Papua, population in 1942, 107–6
- Papuan Annual Report*, 27–8
- Papuan campaign first encounter of Japanese and Australians, 50
 initial Australian policy, 51 significance of strong land-based air power, 13
- Papuan Infantry Battalion (PIB) at first engagement at Kokoda, 56
 at Isurava, 62–4
 at second engagement at Kokoda, 56–7
 first encounter with Japanese, 51
 maps, 31
 massing of, 51
 number at first Kokoda engagement, 53–4 relative sizes of Australian and Japanese forces in engagements, 1–2
- Patient Collecting Butai (PCB), 44
- Paull, Raymond, 8, 56, 230, 234
- popular military history, and Kokoda myth, 1
- Port Moresby
 end of Japanese plan to take, 219–20 impact of Australian retreat from Kokoda, 4–5
 Japanese advance on, 4–5, 10, 18
 Japanese trade with, 25
- options for taking, 19
- place in Japanese strategy, 10, 17, 18
- postponement of Japanese offensive, 84–6
- preference for Owen Stanley plan, 19–21
- rejection of seaward approach, 21
- Porter, Selwyn (Brigadier), 70
 at Ioribaiwa, 135, 143
 replaces Potts as commander of Maroubra Force, 137
- Potts, Arnold (Brigadier)
 at Efogi, 121, 130, 132–4, 237–40
 at Isurava, 70, 82–3 belief Australians were heavily outnumbered, 121–3
 biography of, 8
 casualties claimed at Isurava, 77, 79
 photograph, 124
 role in campaign, 7, 117
 search for maps, 31
- Pratten, Garth, 8
- propaganda, entrenched influence, 3–4
- Rabaul carriers, 43, 103, 180
- replacement system, Japanese approach compared to Australian, 37–8
- Retreat from Kokoda* (Paull), 8, 147, 230
- Rhoden, Phillip (Captain), 126
- road building, by Japanese engineers, 55
- Roosevelt, Franklin (President), on inferiority of Australian soldiers, 7, 123
- Rowell, Sydney (Lieutenant-General), 98, 121, 123, 133, 134, 204–5, 235
- Royal Australian Navy (RAN), 26
- Royal Navy (RN) charts, 26
- Royal Papuan Constabulary (RPC), 51, 54, 56, 62–4
- Russo-Japanese War, 98
- Ryoyo Maru*, 39, 99, 157

- Sakamoto Mitsuri (Lieutenant), 156
 Sakigaw Butai, 43
 Salamaua, invasion of, 20
 Salom, A. (Lieutenant), 124
 Samurai Rebellion, 98
 Sanananda, Japanese anchorage at, 100
 Santa Cruz, JIN carrier strategy, 13
 Sawatori Zengoro (Lieutenant), 180
 Scharnhorst, Gerhard von (General),
 237–40
 Sedgewick, Frederick (Captain), 98 Senshi Sosho (Japanese official history), 109
 Seventeenth Army order to commence operations against Port Moresby, 18 planning for landward approach to Port Moresby, 22
Shobo (small escort carrier), 21
Shokaku (fleet carrier), 21 sickness among Australians, 162, 168, 169–70
 among Japanese soldiers, 139, 162, 166–8, 169–70
 dysentery epidemic, 112, 162, 164–5, 166, 168–9
 evacuations, 169–70
 inoculation against, 165 malaria, 162, 163–4, 165–6 and unhealthy environment, 163
 Simpson, Ronald (Corporal), 124
South-West Pacific Area – First Year
 (McCarthy), 87, 230
Spirit of Kokoda (Lyndsay), 8
 Stalingrad, 97
 starvation, among Japanese soldiers,
 6, 178–80, 183–4
 Stevens, David, 9 strategy see Japanese strategy
 Sublet, Frank (Captain), 69, 112, 116, 194 Sugiyama Hajime (Army Chief of Staff), 16, 88 supply crisis of Japanese, 6 capture of Australian supply dumps, 174 cause, 171–4 duration, 171, 181 effect of, 177–83 impact on Stanley Detachment, 171, 178–80
 starvation and cannibalism, 178–80 while defending Buna–Gona beachhead, 183–4 supply lines of Australians air supply, 114 capture of supply dumps by Japanese, 174
 effect of diminishing supplies, 39 supply dump at Euora Creek, 118 supply lines of Japanese air supply plan, 93, 105 Allied air bombardment, 6 from Giruwa to Kokoda, 100–5, 109 from Giruwa to Sambo, 100–1 from Rabaul to Giruwa, 98–100 from Sambo to Kokoda, 101
 horses, 104, 180
 kaisenbun, 99
 maintenance of, 175
 myth about supply arrangements,
 95–7, 108, 236–9
 Nankai Shitai supply line mid-September 1942, 96
 protection of, 141
 reserves at Kokoda dump, 104, 107
 weight carried per man, 101–2 supply systems basics of supplying armies, 97–8 distinction between heavy and light armies, 98
 items required, 97–8
 Japanese compared to Australian,
 95–7
 Japanese logistical advantages, 98
 Japanese transportation practices, 99–100
 normal Japanese ration, 108

- supply systems (cont.)
 transport ships available for MO operation, 99–100 use of local food sources by Japanese, 105–7 Symington (Captain), 57
- Taiko Maru*, 102
Takachibo Maru (merchant ship), 23, 25
 Takeda Tsuneyoshi (Prince), 27
 Tanaka Kengoro (General), 185, 187, 226, 236
 Templeton, Sam (Captain), 51–2
 Thermopylae, 233
 Thompson, C. (Captain), 124
 Tomioka Sadatoshi (Rear-Admiral), 17
 Tomita Yoshinobu (Captain), 187
 Tomita Yoshinobu (Lieutenant-Colonel), 102, 109
 Toyofuku Tetsuo (Major), 5, 23–4, 25, 54 transportation
 horses, 104
 Japanese practices, 99–100
 two-wheeled carts, 105–7
 Tsuji Masanobu (Colonel), 31, 86–7, 89, 219–20
 Tsukamoto Hatsuo (Lieutenant-Colonel) as Stanley Detachment commander, 194–5, 198, 199
 at Deniki, 59–60
 at first Kokoda engagement, 53
 at Ioribaiwa, 194
 at Isurava, 70
 at Oivi–Gorari, 215, 216
 at second Kokoda engagement, 55, 57–8 command of 1/144th, 35
Two Roads of Papua (Cheesman), 28
- US carrier-based air strength, 14 invasion of Guadalcanal, 4–5
 US Army, supply provisions, 97
 US War Council, 123
- Vasey, George (Major General), 150, 212 strategy at Oivi–Gorari, 213–14, 219
 Vernon, Geoffrey (Captain/Doctor), 24, 27, 109, 150, 168, 180, 181
 Victoria Cross, 77 victories by Japanese, reasons for, 2–3 Victory in Papua (US history), 8
- Warrior of Kokoda* (Edgar), 8 wartime propaganda, entrenched influence, 3–4 Watanabe Toshi (Private), 53, 77
 Watson, William (Major), 51 weapons see artillery
 White, Osmar, 4
 Wilkinson, John (Warrant Officer), 56
 Williams, Eric (Private), 160
 Wilmot, Chester, 71, 188
- Yamamoto Isoroku (Admiral), 17
 Yamamoto Shigekagi (Colonel), 211
 Yashi N, 25–6
 Yazawa Kiyomi (Colonel)
 at First Eora, 113–14, 116, 117, 237
 at Isurava, 70, 76
 at Oivi, 210
 at Oivi–Gorari, 215–17
 command, 111, 201
 patrols around Nauro, 140–2
 photograph, 120
 Yokoyama Force
 commencement of MO operation, 87 strength and composition, 47–50 tasks, 47
 Yokoyama Yosuke (Colonel), 43, 47, 141–2
- Zastrow, von (General), 151
Zuikaku (fleet carrier), 21